71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Pē'tĕr, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Pē'tĕr remembered the word of Jē'sus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and [g]wept bitterly.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Christ before Pilate. 19 The sentence. 34 The crucifixion. 50 The burial. 66 Sealing and guarding his sepulchre.

WHEN the morning was come, all [a]the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jē'sus to put him to death:

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and [b]delivered him to Pŏn'tĭ-us Pī'late the governor.

3 ¶ Then [c]Jū'das, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, [d]and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.

9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jĕr'e-mў the prophet, saying, [e]And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, [1]whom they of the children of Ĭs'ra-el did value;

10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 And Jē'sus stood before the governor: and [f]the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jē'sus said unto him, [g]Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, [h]he answered nothing.

13 Then said Pī'lạte unto him, [i]Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?
14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.
15 Now [j]at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.
16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Bă-răb'bas.
17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pī'lạte said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Bă-răb'bas, or Jē'ṣus which is called Chrīst?
18 For he knew that for [k]envy they had delivered him.
19 ¶ When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in [l]a dream because of him.
20 But [m]the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Bă-răb'bas, and destroy Jē'ṣus.
21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Bă-răb'bas.
22 Pī'lạte saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jē'ṣus which is called Chrīst? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.
23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.
24 ¶ When Pī'lạte saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, [n]he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.
25 Then answered all the people, and said, [o]His blood be on us, and on our children.
26 ¶ Then released he Bă-răb'bas unto them: and when [p]he had scourged Jē'ṣus, he delivered him to be crucified.
27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jē'ṣus into the [2]common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.
28 And they stripped him, and [q]put on him a scarlet robe.
29 ¶ And [r]when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!
30 And [s]they spit upon him, and took the reed, and [t]smote him on the head.
31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, [u]and led him away to crucify him.
32 And [v]as they came out, [w]they found a man of Çȳ-rē'nĕ, Sī'mon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.
33 And when they were come unto a place called Gŏl'gŏ-thà, that is to say, a place of a skull,
34 ¶ They [x]gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, [y]They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.
36 And sitting down they watched him there;
37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JĒ'ṢUS THE KING OF THE JEWṢ.
38 Then [z]were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.
39 ¶ And [a]they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads,
40 And saying, [b]Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.
41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said,
42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Īṣ'rạ-el, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.
43 He [c]trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.
44 The [d]thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.
45 Now [e]from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.
46 And about the ninth hour Jē'ṣus [f]cried with a loud voice, saying, Ē'lī, Ē'lī, lā'mà sā-bach-thā'nī? that is to say, [g]My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?
47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Ē-lī'as.
48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a spunge, [h]and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.
49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Ē-lī'as will come to save him.
50 ¶ Jē'ṣus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.
51 And, behold, [i]the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and [j]the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;
52 And the graves were opened; and [k]many bodies of the saints which slept arose,
53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.
54 Now [l]when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jē'ṣus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.
55 And many women were there beholding afar off, [m]which followed Jē'ṣus from Găl'ī-lee, ministering unto him:
56 Among [n]which was Mā'rў Măg-dạ-lē'nĕ, and Mā'rў the mother of Jāmeṣ and Jō'sēṣ, and the mother of Zĕb'ẹ-dee's children.
57 When [o]the even was come, there came a rich man of Ăr-ĭ-mă-thæ'à, named Jō'ṣeph, who also himself was Jē'ṣus' disciple:

58 He went to Pī'lāte, and begged the body of Jē'sus. Then Pī'lāte commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Jō'seph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

60 And [p]laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mā'rў Măg-dā-lē'nĕ, and the other Mā'rў, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Phăr'ĭ-sees came together unto Pī'lāte, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that [q]deceiver said, while he was yet alive, [r]After three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pī'lāte said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, [s]sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAPTER 28.

1 The resurrection. 9 Jesus appears to the women. 16 His disciples see him. 19 Christ sends his disciples to baptize and teach all nations.

IN the [a]end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mā'rў Măg-dā-lē'nĕ [b]and the other Mā'rў to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there [1]was a great earthquake: for [c]the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His [d]countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, [e]Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jē'sus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here: for he is risen, as [f]he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he [g]goeth before you into Găl'ĭ-lee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 ¶ And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, [h]Jē'sus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jē'sus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell [i]my brethren that they go into Găl'ĭ-lee, and there shall they see me.

11 ¶ Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers,

13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 ¶ Then the eleven disciples went away into Găl'ĭ-lee, into a mountain [j]where Jē'sus had appointed them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

18 And Jē'sus came and spake unto them, saying, [k]All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

19 ¶ Go ye therefore, and [2]teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Hō'lў Ghōst:

20 [l]Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MARK.

CHAPTER 1.

1 John the Baptist as a messenger. 9 Baptism and preaching of Jesus. 16 Call of four disciples. 23 Many are healed.

THE beginning of the gospel of Jē'sus Chrīst, [a]the Son of God;

2 As it is written in the prophets, [b]Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 The [c]voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 Jŏhn did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance [1]for the remission of sins.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Jū-dæ'a, and they of Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jôr'dan, confessing their sins.

6 And Jŏhn was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat [d]locusts and wild honey;

7 And preached, saying, [e]There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 I [f]indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you [g]with the Hō'lў Ghōst.

9 And [h]it came to pass in those days, that Jē'sus came from Năz'a-rĕth of Găl'ĭ-lee, and was baptized of Jŏhn in Jôr'dan.

10 And [i]straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens [2]opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, [j]Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 And [k]immediately the spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Sā'tan; and was with the wild beasts; [l]and the angels ministered unto him.

14 Now after that Jŏhn was put in prison, Jē'ṣus came into Găl'ĭ-lee, [m]preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God,

15 And saying, [n]The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

16 Now [o]as he walked by the sea of Găl'ĭ-lee, he saw Sī'mon and Ăn'drew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

17 And Jē'ṣus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway [p]they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And [q]when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw Jāmeṣ the son of Zĕb'ę-dee, and Jŏhn his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zĕb'ę-dee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 And [r]they went into Cā-pĕr'na-ŭm; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 And [s]they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And [t]there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24 Saying, Let us alone; [u]what have we to do with thee, thou Jē'ṣus of Năz'a-rĕth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the [v]Holy One of God.

25 And Jē'ṣus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit [w]had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Găl'ĭ-lee.

29 And [x]forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Sī'mon and Ăn'drew, with Jāmeṣ and Jŏhn.

30 But Sī'mon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; [y]and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And [z]at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and [a]suffered not the devils [3]to speak, because they knew him.

35 And [b]in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and [c]there prayed.

36 And Sī'mon and they that were with him followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, [d]Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for [e]therefore came I forth.

39 And [f]he preached in their synagogues throughout all Găl'ĭ-lee, and [g]cast out devils.

40 And [h]there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst [i]make me clean.

41 And Jē'ṣus, [j]moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things [k]which Mō'ṣeṣ commanded, for a testimony unto them.

45 But [l]he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jē'ṣus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: [m]and they came to him from every quarter.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The palsied healed. 14 Matthew called. 15 Pharisees rebuked. 23 Plucking ears of corn on the sabbath day.

AND again [a]he entered into Cā-pĕr'na-ŭm after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he [b]preached the word unto them.

3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

5 When Jē'ṣus [c]saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, [d]Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? [e]who can forgive sins but God only?

9 Whether [g] is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that [h] the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And [i] immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 And [j] he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 And [k] as he passed by, he saw Lē'vī the son of Ăl-phæ'us sitting [1] at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

15 And [l] it came to pass, that, as Jē'ṣus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jē'ṣus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when [m] the scribes and Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 When Jē'ṣus heard it, he saith unto them, [n] They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

18 And [o] the disciples of Jŏhn and of the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of Jŏhn and of the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ fast, but thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jē'ṣus said unto them, Can the children of [p] the bridechamber fast, while the [q] bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

21 No man also seweth a piece of [2] new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

23 And [r] it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, [s] to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read [t] what Dā'vid did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?

CHAPTER 3.

1 Healing the withered hand. 11 Unclean spirits rebuked. 13 The twelve apostles chosen. 28 Penalty of blasphemy.

AND [a] he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, [1] Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

5 And when he had looked round about on them with [b] anger, being grieved for the [2] hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 And [c] the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ went forth, and straightway took counsel with [d] the Hē-rō'dĭ-anṣ against him, how they might destroy him.

7 But Jē'ṣus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Găl'ĭ-lee followed him, [e] and from Jū-dæ'ą,

8 And from Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, and from Ĭ-dụ-mæ'ą, and from beyond Jôr'dąn; and they about Tȳre and Sī'dŏn, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

10 For he had healed many; insomuch that they [3] pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

11 And [f] unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, [g] Thou art the Son of God.

12 And [h] he straitly charged them that they should not make him known.

13 And [i] he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.

14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach,

15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils:

16 And Sī'mon [j] he surnamed Pē'tẽr;

34 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, [u]Behold my mother and my brethren!

35 For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The sower and the seed. 14 The parable explained. 30 The mustard seed. 35 The tempest stilled.

AND [a]he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, [b]and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

8 And other fell on good ground, and [c]did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve [d]asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the [e]mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto [f]them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

12 That [g]seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 ¶ The [h]sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, [i]Să'tan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have [j]no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this world, and [k]the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good [l]ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ And [m]he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under [1]a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 For [n]there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If [o]any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, [p]Take heed what ye hear: [q]with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25 For [r]he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 ¶ And he said, [s]So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is [2]brought forth, immediately [t]he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ And he said, [u]Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it [v]groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And [w]with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 And [x]the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and [y]rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?

41 And they [z]feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

CHAPTER 5.

1 Evil spirits enter into the swine. 25 Christ heals the bloody issue. 35 Raising of Jairus' daughter.

AND [a]they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Găd'ą-rēnęs.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jē'ȩus afar off, he ran and [b]worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jē'ȩus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of [c]swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jē'ȩus [d]gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jē'ȩus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and [e]in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And [f]they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he [g]that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jē'ȩus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and [h]began to publish in Dĕ-căp'ŏ-lis how great things Jē'ȩus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 And [i]when Jē'ȩus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 And, [j]behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jă-ī'rus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

24 And Jē'ȩus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 And a certain woman, which [k]had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and [l]was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse,

27 When she had heard of Jē'ȩus, came in the press behind, [m]and touched his garment.

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And [n]straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jē'ȩus, immediately knowing in himself that [o]virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, [p] thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 While [q] he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 As soon as Jē'sus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be [r] not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Pē'tĕr, and Jāmes, and Jŏhn the brother of Jāmes.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but [s] sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorn. But [t] when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Tăl'ĭ-thà cū'mī; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

42 And [u] straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And [v] he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

1 Christ's home reception. 7 The apostles instructed. 27 John the Baptist beheaded. 34 Miracle of the five loaves and two fishes. 48 Christ walks on the sea. 53 Many are healed.

AND [a] he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, [b] From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is [c] not this the carpenter, the son of Mā'rў, [d] the brother of Jāmes, and Jō'sēs, and of Jū'dà, and Sī'mon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they [e] were offended at him.

4 But Jē'sus said unto them, [f] A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And [g] he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And [h] he marvelled because of their unbelief. [i] And he went round about the villages, teaching.

7 ¶ And [j] he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no [1] money in their purse:

9 But [k] be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 And [l] he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 And [m] whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake [n] off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. [o] Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sŏd'om [2] and Gŏ-mŏr'rhà in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils, [p] and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 And [q] king Hĕr'od heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 Others [r] said, That it is Ē-lī'as. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But [s] when Hĕr'od heard thereof, he said, It is Jŏhn, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Hĕr'od himself had sent forth and laid hold upon Jŏhn, and bound him in prison for Hē-rō'dĭ-as' sake, his brother Phĭl'ĭp's wife: for he had married her.

18 For Jŏhn had said unto Hĕr'od, It [t] is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 Therefore Hē-rō'dĭ-as had [3] a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Hĕr'od [u] feared Jŏhn, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and [4] observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 And [v] when a convenient day was come, that Hĕr'od [w] on his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Găl'ĭ-lee;

22 And when the daughter of the said Hē-rō'dĭ-as came in, [x] and danced, and pleased Hĕr'od and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever [y] thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, [z] The head of Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst.

A. D. 32.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent [5]an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison,

28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and [a]took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 And [b]the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jē'sus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And [c]he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there [d]were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 And Jē'sus, when he came out, saw much people, and [e]was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and [f]he began to teach them many things.

35 And [g]when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, [h]Shall we go and buy two hundred [6]pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, [i]Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down [j]by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and [k]blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 [l]And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before [7]unto Bĕth-sā'ĭ-dȧ, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 [m]And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and [n]would have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out:

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For [o]they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for [p]their heart was hardened.

53 [q]And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gĕn-nĕs'a-rĕt, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him,

55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that [r]they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched [8]him were made whole.

THEN [a]came together unto him the Phăr'ĭ-sees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with [1]defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault.

3 For the Phăr'ĭ-sees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands [2]oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and [3]pots, brasen vessels, and of [4]tables.

5 [b]Then the Phăr'ĭ-sees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Ē-sā'ias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, [c]This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

mother; and, [f]Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is [g]Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 ¶ And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand:

15 [h]There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 [i]If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 [j]And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 [k]For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, [6]covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ [l]And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sī'dŏn, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 The woman was a [7]Greek, a Sȳ-rŏ-phē-nĭ'cian by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jē'sus said unto her, [m]Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found [n]the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ [o]And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sī'dŏn, he came unto the sea of Găl'ĭ-lee, through the midst of the coasts of Dē-căp'ŏ-lis.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Four thousand fed. 10 Pharisees seek a sign. 22 The blind restored to sight. 27 Christ foretells his passion.

IN those days [a]the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jē'sus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have [b]compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence [c]can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 [d]And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and [e]gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and [f]he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And [g]straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dăl-mą-nū'thà.

11 [h]And the Phăr'ĭ-sees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

14 ¶ [i]Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 [j]And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Phăr'ĭ-sees, and of the leaven of Hĕr'od.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is [k]because we have no bread.

17 And when Jē'sus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? [l]perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 [m]When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And [n]when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that [o]ye do not understand?

22 ¶ And he cometh to Bĕth-sā'ĭ-dȧ; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when [p]he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, [q]nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ [r]And Jē'sus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Çæs-ą-rē'ȧ Phĭ-lĭp'pī: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, [s]Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst: but some say, Ē-lī'as; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Pē'tĕr answereth and saith unto him, [t]Thou art the Chrīst.

30 And [u]he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 And [v]he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Pē'tĕr took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Pē'tĕr, saying, Get thee behind me, Sā'tan: [w]for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, [x]Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For [y]whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

CHAPTER 9.

2 The transfiguration. 11 Instruction concerning Elias. 30 Christ foretells his death.

AND he said unto them, [a]Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen [b]the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ [c]And after six days Jē'sus taketh with him Pē'tĕr, and Jāmes, and Jŏhn, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding [d]white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Ē-lī'as with Mō'ses: and they were talking with Jē'sus.

5 And Pē'tĕr answered and said to Jē'sus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'ses, and one for Ē-lī'as.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was [e]a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: [f]hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jē'sus only with themselves.

9 [g]And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes [h]that Ē-lī'as must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Ē-lī'as verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and [i]how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and [j]be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, That [k]Ē-lī'as is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ [l]And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye [1]with them?

17 And [m]one of the multitude answered and said,

Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit ;

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he [2]teareth him : and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away : and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you ? how long shall I suffer you ? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him : and [n]when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him ; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him ? And he said, Of a child.

22 And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him : but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jē'sus said unto him, [o]If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe ; [p]help thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jē'sus saw that the people came running together, he [q]rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him : and he was as one dead ; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jē'sus took him by the hand, and lifted him up ; and he arose.

28 [r]And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out ?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Găl'ĭ-lee ; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 [s]For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him ; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ [t]And he came to Că-pĕr'na-ŭm : and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way ?

34 But they held their peace : [u]for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, [v]If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And [w]he took a child, and set him in the midst of them : and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me : and [x]whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ [y]And Jŏhn answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us : and we forbad him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jē'sus said, Forbid him not : [z]for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For [a]he that is not against us is on our part.

41 [b]For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Chrīst, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

42 [c]And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

43 [d]And if thy hand [3]offend thee, cut it off : it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched :

44 [e]Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off : it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched :

46 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

47 And if thine eye offend thee, [f]pluck it out : it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire :

48 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, and [g]every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 [h]Salt is good : but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it ? [i]Have salt in yourselves, and [j]have peace one with another.

2 Christ speaks of divorce. 13 Blesses little children. 17 How to obtain eternal life. 35 Request of Zebedee's sons. 46 Restores Bartimæus' sight.

AND [a]he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Jū-dæ'a by the farther side of Jôr'dan : and the people resort unto him again ; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ [b]And the Phăr'ĭ-sees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife ? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Mō'ses command you ?

4 And they said, [c]Mō'ses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jē'sus answered and said unto them, [d]For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation [e]God made them male and female.

7 [f]For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife ;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh : so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, [g]Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 ¶ [h]And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jē'ṣus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for [i]of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, [j]Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 [k]And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¶ [l]And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jē'ṣus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.

19 Thou knowest the commandments, [m]Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jē'ṣus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, [n]sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have [o]treasure in heaven: and come, take up [p]the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ [q]And Jē'ṣus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jē'ṣus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them [r]that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jē'ṣus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for [s]with God all things are possible.

28 ¶ [t]Then Pē'tẽr began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jē'ṣus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's,

30 [u]But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with [v]persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

31 [w]But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 ¶ [x]And they were in the way going up to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm; and Jē'ṣus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. [y]And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gĕn'tīleṣ:

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

35 ¶ [z]And Jāmeṣ and Jŏhn, the sons of Zĕb'ẹ-dee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jē'ṣus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jē'ṣus said unto them, Ye [a]shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be [b]given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 [c]And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with Jāmeṣ and Jŏhn.

42 But Jē'ṣus called them to him, and saith unto them, [d]Ye know that they which [1]are accounted to rule over the Gĕn'tīleṣ exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 [e]But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even [f]the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and [g]to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ [h]And they came to Jĕr'ĭ-chō: and as he went out of Jĕr'ĭ-chō with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bär-ṭị-mæ'us, the son of Tī-mæ'us, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jē'ṣus of Năz'-ạ-rĕth, he began to cry out, and say, Jē'ṣus, thou [i]son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

49 And Jē'ṣus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Christ enters Jerusalem. 15 Cleansing the temple. 20 An exhortation to faith.

AND [a]when they came nigh to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, unto Bĕth'pha-ġē and Bĕth'ă-nў, at the mount of [b]Ōl'īveṣ, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that [c]the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jē'ṣus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jē'ṣus, and cast their garments on him; [d]and he sat upon him.

8 [e]And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, [f]saying, Hō-ṣăn'nà; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father Dā'vid, that cometh in the name of the Lord: [g]Hō-ṣăn'nà in the highest.

11 [h]And Jē'ṣus entered into Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bĕth'ă-nў with the twelve.

12 ¶ And [i]on the morrow, when they were come from Bĕth'ă-nў, he was hungry:

13 [j]And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jē'ṣus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ [k]And they come to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm: and Jē'ṣus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, [l]My house shall be called [1]of all nations the house of prayer? but [m]ye have made it a den of thieves.

18 And [n]the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because [o]all the people was astonished at his doctrine.

19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.

20 ¶ [p]And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Pē'tĕr calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22 And Jē'ṣus answering saith unto them, [2]Have faith in God.

23 For [q]verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say unto you, [r]What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 And when ye stand praying, [s]forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But [t]if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

27 ¶ And they come again to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm: [u]and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,

28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Jē'ṣus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one [3]question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of Jŏhn, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me.

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for [v]all men counted Jŏhn, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered and said unto Jē'ṣus, We cannot tell. And Jē'ṣus answering saith unto them, [w]Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

1 Parable of the vineyard. 13 The tribute money. 28 First of all commandments. 41 The widow's mites.

AND he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted [a]a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.
4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.
5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and [b]killing some.
6 Having yet therefore one son, his [c]wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.
7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is [d]the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.
8 And they took him, and [e]killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.
9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will [f]give the vineyard unto others.
10 And have ye not read this scripture; [g]The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:
11 This was the Lord's doing, and [h]it is marvellous in our eyes?
12 And [i]they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.
13 ¶ [j]And they send unto him certain of the Phăr'-ĭ-sees and of the Hĕ-rō'dĭ-anş, to catch him in his words.
14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Çæ'şar, or not?
15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me [1]a penny, that I may see it.
16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Çæ'şar's.
17 And Jē'şus answering said unto them, Render to Çæ'şar the things that are Çæ'şar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.
18 ¶ [k]Then come unto him the Săd'du-çees, [l]which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,
19 Master, [m]Mō'şeş wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.
20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.
21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.
22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.
23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.
24 And Jē'şus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, [n]because ye know not the scriptures, neither [o]the power of God?
25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but [p]are as the angels which are in heaven.
26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Mō'şeş, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, [q]I am the God of Ā'bră-hăm, and the God of Ī'şaac, and the God of Jā'cob?
27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.
28 ¶ [r]And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?
29 And Jē'şus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, [s]Hear, O Ĭş'ra-el; the Lord our God is one Lord:
30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.
31 And the second is like, namely this, [t]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.
32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; [u]and there is none other but he:
33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, [v]is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.
34 And when Jē'şus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. [w]And no man after that durst ask him any question.
35 ¶ [x]And Jē'şus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Chrīst is the son of Dā'vid?
36 For Dā'vid himself said [y]by the Hō'lў Ghōst, [z]The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.
37 Dā'vid therefore himself calleth him Lord; and [a]whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.
38 ¶ And [b]he said unto them in his doctrine, [c]Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and [d]love salutations in the marketplaces,
39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts:
40 [e]Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.
41 ¶ [f]And Jē'şus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast [2]money [g]into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.
42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two [3]mites, which make a farthing.
43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That [h]this poor

CHAPTER 13.

1 The temple to be destroyed. 9 Signs of Christ's coming. 32 Exhortation to watch.

AND [a] as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

2 And Jē'şus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? [b] there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Ōl'ĭveş over against the temple, Pē'tẽr and Jāmeş and Jŏhn and Ăn'drew asked him privately,

4 [c] Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Jē'şus answering them began to say, [d] Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Chrīst; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the [e] end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of [1] sorrows.

9 ¶ But [f] take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And [g] the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 [h] But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, [i] but the Hō'lў Ghōst.

12 Now [j] the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but [k] he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 ¶ [l] But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, [m] spoken of by Dăn'ĭel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then [n] let them that be in Jū-dæ'ā flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the house top not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 [o] But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 [q] And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Chrīst; or, lo, he is there; believe him not:

CHAPTER 14.

1 The rulers conspire against Christ. 10 Judas sells Jesus. 22 Institution of the Lord's supper. 34 The agony. 43 Judas betrays Jesus. 66 Peter's denial.

AFTER [a] two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ [b] And being in Bĕth'ă-nў in the house of Sī'mon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of [1]spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred [c]pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jē'şus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 [d]For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ [e]And Jū'das Ĭs-căr'ĭ-ot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him [f]money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ [g]And the first day of unleavened bread, when they [2]killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall [h]eat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 [i]And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jē'şus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 [j]The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 ¶ [k]And as they did eat, Jē'şus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is [l]my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ [m]And when they had sung an [3]hymn, they went out into the mount of Ōl'ĭveş.

27 [n]And Jē'şus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, [o]I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But [p]after that I am risen, I will go before you into Găl'ĭ-lee.

29 But [q]Pē'tĕr said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jē'şus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 [r]And they came to a place which was named Gĕth-sĕm'ą-nē: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while [s]I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Pē'tĕr and Jāmeş and Jŏhn, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, [t]My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, [u]Ăb'bą, Father, [v]all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: [w]nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Pē'tĕr, Sī'mon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. [x]The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, [y]the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 [z]Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ [a]And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Jū'das, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, [4][b]Master, master; and [c]kissed him.

46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 [d]And Jē'ṣus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the [e]scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 [f]And they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ [g]And they led Jē'ṣus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Pē'tẽr followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 [h]And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jē'ṣus to put him to death; and [i]found none.

56 For many bare [j]false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, [k]I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 [l]And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jē'ṣus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But [m]he held his peace, and answered nothing. [n]Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Chrīst, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jē'ṣus said, I am: [o]and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the [p]blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to [q]spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 ¶ [r]And as Pē'tẽr was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And when she saw Pē'tẽr warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jē'ṣus of Năz'a-rĕth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.

69 [s]And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. [t]And a little after, they that stood by said again to Pē'tẽr, Surely thou art one of them: [u]for thou art a Găl-ĭ-læ'an, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

71 But [v]he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 And the second time the cock crew. And Pē'tẽr called to mind the word that Jē'ṣus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And [5w]when he thought thereon, he wept.

CHAPTER 15.

1 Christ before Pilate. 15 The trial. 27 The crucifixion. 43 Burial by Joseph.

AND [a]straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jē'ṣus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pī'lạte.

2 [b]And Pī'lạte asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, [c]Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but [d]he answered nothing.

4 [e]And Pī'lạte asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 [f]But Jē'ṣus yet answered nothing; so that Pī'lạte marvelled.

6 Now [g]at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Bă-răb'bas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pī'lạte answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him [h]for envy.

11 But [i]the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Bă-răb'bas unto them.

12 And Pī'lạte answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call [j]the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pī'lạte said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 ¶ [k]And so Pī'lạte, willing to content the people, released Bă-răb'bas unto them, and delivered Jē'ṣus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Præ-tō'rĭ-um; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head,

18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 [l]And they compel one Sī'mon a Çȳ-rē'nĭ-an, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Ăl-ĕx-ăn'dĕr and [m]Rụ'fus, to bear his cross.
22 [n]And they bring him unto the place Gŏl'gō-thȧ, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.
23 [o]And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.
24 And when they had crucified him, [p]they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.
25 And [q]it was the third hour, and they crucified him.
26 And [r]the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.
27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.
28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, [s]And he was numbered with the transgressors.
29 And [t]they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou [u]that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days,
30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.
31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.
32 Let Chrīst the King of Ĭs'rą-el descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And [v]they that were crucified with him reviled him.
33 And [w]when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.
34 And at the ninth hour Jē'sus cried with a loud voice, saying, [x]Ĕ-lō'ī, Ĕ-lō'ī, lā'mȧ sā-bach-thā'nī? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?
35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Ē-lī'as.
36 And [y]one ran and filled a spunge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and [z]gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Ē-lī'as will come to take him down.
37 [a]And Jē'sus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.
38 And [b]the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.
39 ¶ And [c]when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
40 [d]There were also women looking on [e]afar off: among whom was Mā'rў Măg-dą-lē'nĕ, and Mā'rў the mother of Jāmes the less and of Jō'sēs, and Sȧ-lō'mę;
41 (Who also, when he was in Găl'ĭ-lee, [f]followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jĕ-rụ'sȧ-lĕm.
42 ¶ [g]And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,
43 Jō'seph of Ăr-ĭ-mă-thæ'ȧ, an honourable counsellor, which also [h]waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pī'ląte, and craved the body of Jē'sus.
44 And Pī'ląte marvelled if he were already dead:

AND [a]when the sabbath was past, Mā'rў Măg-dą-lē'nė, and Mā'rў the mother of Jāmes, and Sȧ-lō'mę, [b]had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.
2 [c]And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.
3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?
4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.
5 [d]And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.
6 [e]And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jē'sus of Năz'ą-rĕth, which was crucified: he is [f]risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.
7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Pē'tẽr that he goeth before you into Găl'ĭ-lee: there shall ye see him, [g]as he said unto you.
8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: [h]neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.
9 ¶ Now when Jē'sus was risen early the first day of the week, [i]he appeared first to Mā'rў Măg-dą-lē'nė, [j]out of whom he had cast seven devils.
10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.
11 [k]And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.
12 ¶ After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.
13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.
14 ¶ [l]Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat [1]at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.
15 [m]And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, [n]and preach the gospel to every creature.
16 [o]He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; [p]but he that believeth not shall be damned.
17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; [q]In my name shall they cast out devils; [r]they shall speak with new tongues;

18 [s]They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; [t]they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 ¶ So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and [u]sat on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

St. LUKE.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Preface. 5 Birth of John and Jesus foretold. 57 John the Baptist born. 67 Prophecy of Zacharias.

A. M. 4000.

FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of [a]those things which are most surely believed among us,

2 [b]Even as they delivered them unto us, which [c]from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the word;

3 [d]It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee [e]in order, [f]most excellent Thĕ-ŏph'ĭ-lŭs,

4 [g]That thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 ¶ THERE was [h]in the days of Hĕr'od, the king of Jū-dæ'a, a certain priest named Zăch-a-rī'as, [i]of the course of Ā-bī'a: and his wife was of the daughters of Aâr'on, and her name was Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth.

6 And they were both [j]righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God [k]in the order of his course,

9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was [l]to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 [m]And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zăch-a-rī'as saw him, [n]he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zăch-a-rī'as: for [o]thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name Jŏhn.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be [p]great in the sight of the Lord, and [q]shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst, [r]even from his mother's womb.

16 [s]And many of the children of Ĭs'ra-el shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 [t]And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Ē-lī'as, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient [1]to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the [u]Lord.

18 And Zăch-a-rī'as said unto the angel, [v]Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am [w]Gā'brĭ-el, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, [x]thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people [y]waited for Zăch-a-rī'as, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as [z]the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to [a]take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gā'brĭ-el was sent from God unto a city of Găl'ĭ-lee, named Năz'-a-rĕth, 27 To a virgin [b]espoused to a man whose name was Jō'sĕph, of the house of Dā'vid; and the virgin's name was Mā'rў.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art [2]highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mā'rў: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 [c]And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JĒ'-SŲS.

32 He shall be [d]great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and [e]the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father Dā'vid:

33 [f]And he shall reign over the house of Jā'cob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mā'rў unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Hō'lў Ghōst shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called [g] the Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For [h] with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mā'rў said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mā'rў arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, [i] into a city of Jū'dà;

40 And entered into the house of Zăch-a-rī'as, and saluted Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth heard the salutation of Mā'rў, the babe leaped in her womb; and Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth was filled [j] with the Hō'lў Ghōst:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, [k] Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she [3] that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Mā'rў said, [l] My soul doth magnify the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

48 For [m] he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth [n] all generations shall call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.

50 And [o] his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

51 [p] He hath shewed strength with his arm; [q] he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 [r] He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 [s] He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath holpen his servant Ĭs'ra-el, [t] in remembrance of his mercy;

55 [u] As he spake to our fathers, to Ā'bră-hăm, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mā'rў abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that [v] on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zăch-a-rī'as, after the name of his father.

63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is Jŏhn. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these [4] sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Jū-dæ'à.

66 And all they that heard [w] them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And [x] the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zăch-a-rī'as [y] was filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Ĭs'ra-el; for he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant Dā'vid;

70 [z] As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began:

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 [a] To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant;

73 [b] The oath which he sware to our father Ā'bră-hăm,

74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might [c] serve him without fear,

75 [d] In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for [e] thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people [5] by the remission of their sins,

78 Through the [6] tender mercy of our God; whereby the [7] dayspring from on high hath visited us,

79 [f] To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Ĭs'ra-el.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The Roman taxation. 6 Christ is born. 21 He is circumcised. 40 His growth. 46 Jesus in the temple.

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Çæ'sar Au-gŭs'tus, that all the world should be [1] taxed.

2 ([a] And this taxing was first made when Çў-rē'nĭ-us was governor of Sўr'ĭ-à.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Jō'seph also went up from Găl'ĭ-lee, out of the city of Năz'a-rĕth, into Jū-dæ'à, unto [b] the city of Dā'vid, which is called Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm; ([c] because he was of the house and lineage of Dā'vid:)

A. M. 4000.

5 To be taxed with Mā'rў his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And [d]she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a [e]manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping [2]watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, [f]which shall be to all people.

11 [g]For unto you is born this day in the city of Dā'vid a Saviour, [h]which is Chrīst the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 [i]And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth [j]peace, [k]good will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, [3]the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bĕth'lĕhĕm, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mā'rў, and Jō'sẹph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mā'rў kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 [l]And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called [m]JĒ'SUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when [n]the days of her purification according to the law of Mō'sẹs were accomplished, they brought him to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, [o]Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm, whose name was Sĭm'ẹ-on; and the same man was just and devout, [p]waiting for the consolation of Ĭs'rạ-el: and the Hō'lў Ghōst was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the Hō'lў Ghōst, that he should not [q]see death, before he had seen the Lord's Chrīst.

27 And he came [r]by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jē'sụs, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 Lord, [s]now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes [t]have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 [u]A light to lighten the Gĕn'tīleṣ, and the glory of thy people Ĭs'rạ-el.

33 And Jō'sẹph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Sĭm'ẹ-on blessed them, and said unto Mā'rў his mother, Behold, this child is set for the [v]fall and rising again of many in Ĭs'rạ-el; and for [w]a sign which shall be spoken against;

35 (Yea, [x]a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the [y]thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Ăn'nà, [z]a prophetess, the daughter of Phăn-ū'el, of the tribe of Ā'sẽr: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers [a]night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that [b]looked for redemption in [4]Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Găl'ĭ-lee, to their own city Năz'ạ-rĕth.

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm [c]every year at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jē'sụs tarried behind in Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm; and Jō'sẹph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, [d]both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And [e]all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Preaching of John. 20 He is imprisoned. 21 Baptism of Christ. 23 His genealogy.

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tī-bē'rĭ-us Çæ'sar, Pŏn'tĭ-us Pī'late being governor of Jū-dæ'a, and Hĕr'od being tetrarch of Găl'ĭ-lee, and his brother Phĭl'ĭp tetrarch of Ĭ-tu-ræ'a and of the region of Trăch-o-nī'tis, and Lȳ-sā'nĭ-as the tetrarch of Ăb-ĭ-lē'nē,

2 [a] Ăn'nas and Cā'ia-phăs being the high priests, the word of God came unto Jŏhn the son of Zăch-a-rī'as in the wilderness.

3 [b] And he came into all the country about Jôr'dan, preaching the baptism of repentance [c] for the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Ē-sā'ias the prophet, saying, [d] The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And [e] all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, [f] O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 [g] Bring forth therefore fruits [1]worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Ā'brăham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Ā'brăham.

9 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: [h] every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, [i] What shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, [j] He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then [k] came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, [l] Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, [2]Do violence to no man, [m] neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your [3]wages.

15 And as the people were [4]in expectation, and all men [5]mused in their hearts of Jŏhn, whether he were the Chrīst, or not;

16 Jŏhn answered, saying unto them all, [n] I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with [o] the Hō'lў Ghōst and with fire:

17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and [p] will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

19 But [q] Hĕr'od the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Hĕ-rō'dĭ-as his brother Phĭl'ĭp's wife, and for all the evils which Hĕr'od had done,

20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up Jŏhn in prison.

21 Now when all the people were baptized, [r] it came to pass, that Jē'sus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,

22 And the Hō'lў Ghōst descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice [s] came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

23 And Jē'sus himself began to be [t] about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) [u] the son of Jō'seph, which was the [6]son of Hē'lī,

24 Which was the son of Măt'that, which was the son of Lē'vī, which was the son of Měl'chī, which was the son of Jăn'nà, which was the son of Jō'seph,

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ's temptation. 14 His ministry begun. 33 Working of miracles. 43 Preaching in other cities.

AND [a] Jē'sụs being full of the Hō'lў Ghōst returned from Jôr'dạn, and [b] was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days [c] tempted of the devil. And [d] in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jē'sụs answered him, saying, [e] It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for [f] that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt [1] worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jē'sụs answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Sā'tan: for [g] it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 [h] And he brought him to Jĕ-rụ'sȧ-lĕm, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, [i] cast thyself down from hence:

10 For [j] it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jē'sụs answering said unto him, [k] It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he [l] departed from him [m] for a season.

14 ¶ [n] And Jē'sụs returned in the power of the Spirit into [o] Găl'ĭ-lee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being [p] glorified of all.

16 ¶ And he came to [q] Năz'ạ-rĕth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, [r] he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Ē-sā'ĭas. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 [s] The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,

19 To preach the [t] acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and [u] wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, [v] Is not this Jō'sẹph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in [w] Cȧ-pĕr'nạ-ŭm, do also here in [x] thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No [y] prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, [z] many widows were in Ĭs'ra-el in the days of Ē-lī'as, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was Ē-lī'as sent, save unto Sā-rĕp'tȧ, a city of Sī'dŏn, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 [a] And many lepers were in Ĭs'ra-el in the time of Ē-lī-sē'us the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Nā'ạ-man the Sўr'ĭ-an.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the [2] brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he [b] passing through the midst of them went his way,

31 And [c] came down to Cȧ-pĕr'nạ-ŭm, a city of Găl'ĭ-lee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: [d] for his word was with power.

33 ¶ [e] And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

34 Saying, [3] Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jē'sụs of Năz'ạ-rĕth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; [f] the Holy One of God.

35 And Jē'sụs rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 [g] And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ [h]And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Sī'mon's house. And Sī'mon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, [i]and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ [j]Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 [k]And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Chrīst the Son of God. And [l]he rebuking them suffered them not [4]to speak: for they knew that he was Chrīst.

42 [m]And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, [n]I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 [o]And he preached in the synagogues of Găl'ĭ-lee.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Teaching from the ship. 4 Draught of fishes and other miracles. 16 Prays in the wilderness. 27 Matthew called.

AND [a]it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gĕn-nĕs'a-rĕt,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Sī'mon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Sī'mon, [b]Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Sī'mon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Sī'mon Pē'tĕr saw it, he fell down at Jē'sus' knees, saying, [c]Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also Jāmes, and Jŏhn, the sons of Zĕb'e-dee, which were partners with Sī'mon. And Jē'sus said unto Sī'mon, Fear not; [d]from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, [e]they forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ [f]And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jē'sus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst [g]make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 [h]And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, [i]according as Mō'ses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: [j]and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ [k]And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Phăr'ĭ-sees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Găl'ĭ-lee, and Jū-dæ'a, and Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ [l]And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jē'sus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, [m]thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 [n]And the scribes and the Phăr'ĭ-sees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? [o]Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jē'sus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the [p]Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, [q]glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ [r]And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Lē'vī, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 [s]And Lē'vī made him a great feast in his own house: and [t]there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jē'sus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 [u]I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, [v]Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Phăr'ĭ-sees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the [w]bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall [x]be taken away from them, and then shall they [y]fast in those days.

36 ¶ [z]And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Pharisees reproved. 13 The apostles called. 20 Christ preaches to his disciples. 27 On love and good works.

AND [a]it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Phăr'ĭ-sees said unto them, [b]Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

3 And Jē'sus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, [c]what Dā'vid did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; [d]which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 [e]And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he [f]knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jē'sus unto them, I will ask you one thing; [g]Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jē'sus.

12 [h]And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: [i]and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;

14 Sī'mon, ([j]whom he also named Pē'tĕr,) and An'drew his brother, James and John, Phĭl'ĭp and Bär-thŏl'ŏ-mew,

15 Măt'thew and Thŏm'as, James the son of Al-phæ'us, and Sī'mon called Zē-lō'tēs,

16 And Jū'das [k]the brother of James, and Jū'das Ĭs-căr'ĭ-ot, which also was the traitor.

17 ¶ And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, [l]and a great multitude of people out of all Jū-dæ'a and Jē-ru'sa-lĕm, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sī'dŏn, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude [m]sought to touch him: for [n]there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, [o]Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 [p]Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. [q]Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 [r]Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they [s]shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 [t]Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for [u]in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 [v]But woe unto you that are rich! for [w]ye have received your consolation.

25 [x]Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. [y]Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 [z]Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ [a]But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you,

28 Bless them that curse you, and [b]pray for them which despitefully use you.

29 [c]And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; [d]and him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 [e]Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31 [f]And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 [g]For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

40 The [r]disciple is not above his master: but every one [1]that is perfect shall be as his master.

41 [s]And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, [t]cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

43 [u]For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For [v]every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they [2]grapes.

45 [w]A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 ¶ [x]And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

47 [y]Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when [z]the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon [a]a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and [b]the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The centurion's servant healed. 11 Widow's son at Nain raised from the dead. 19 John's messengers. 36 The sinning woman's faith.

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Cā-pĕr'na-ŭm.

2 And [a]a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jē'sus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jē'sus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jē'sus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto [1]one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jē'sus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in [b]Is'ra-el.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nā'in; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he [c]had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the [2]bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, [d]Arise.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 [e]And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, [f]That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, [g]That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Jū-dæ'a, and throughout all the region round about.

18 [h]And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jē'sus, saying, Art thou [i]he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Bāp'tist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 [j]Then Jē'ṣus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell Jŏhn what things ye have seen and heard; [k]how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, [l]to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And [m]when the messengers of Jŏhn were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning Jŏhn, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, [n]Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, [o]being baptized with the baptism of Jŏhn.

30 But the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ and lawyers [3]rejected [p]the counsel of God [4]against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, [q]Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For [r]Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 [s]But wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ [t]And one of the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Phăr'ĭ-see's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a [u]woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jē'ṣus sat at meat in the Phăr'ĭ-see's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet behind him [v]weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Phăr'ĭ-see which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, [w]This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Parable of the sower. 16 The candle. 22 The winds rebuked. 26 Legion of devils cast out. 37 The Gadarenes reject Christ. 49 Jairus' daughter raised.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 And [a]certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mā'rў called Măg-dą-lē'nė, [b]out of whom went seven devils,

3 And Jŏ-ăn'nȧ the wife of Chū'zȧ Hĕr'od's steward, and Sụ-ṣăn'nȧ, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 ¶ [c]And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 [d]And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

A. D. 31.

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; [e] that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 [f] Now the parable is this: The [g] seed is the word of God.

12 Those by [h] the way side are they that hear; then cometh [i] the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares [j] and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and [k] bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶ [l] No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 [m] For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: [n] for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he [1] seemeth to have.

19 ¶ [o] Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶ [p] Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he [q] arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being [r] afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ [s] And they arrived at the country of the Gădʹa-rēneş, which is over against Gălʹĭ-lee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jēʹşus, he [t] cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jēʹşus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jēʹşus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out [u] into the deep.

32 And there was there an [v] herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And [w] he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jēʹşus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jēʹşus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶ [x] Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gădʹa-rēneş round about [y] besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now [z] the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jēʹşus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jēʹşus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jēʹşus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ [a] And, behold, there came a man named Jā-ĭʹrus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jēʹşus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶ [b] And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and [c] touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanched.

45 And Jēʹşus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Pēʹtĕr and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jē'ṣus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that [d] virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

49 ¶ [e] While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jē'ṣus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: [f] believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Pē'tẽr, and Jāmeṣ, and Jŏhn, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, [g] but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, [h] arise.

55 [i] And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but [j] he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAPTER 9.

1 The apostles sent out. 17 Five thousand fed. 28 The transfiguration. 43 Christ foretells his passion. 46 A lesson on humility. 51 James and John reproved.

THEN [a] he called his twelve disciples together, and [b] gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And [c] he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 [d] And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 [e] And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 [f] And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, [g] shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶ [h] Now Hĕr'od the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that Jŏhn was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Ē-lī'as had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Hĕr'od said, Jŏhn have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? [i] And he desired to see him.

10 ¶ [j] And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. [k] And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bĕth-sā'ĭ-dȧ.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 [l] And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, [m] Give ye them to eat. And they said, [n] We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they [o] did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 ¶ [p] And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering said, [q] Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst; but some say, Ē-lī'as; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? [r] Pē'tẽr answering said, The Chrīst of God.

21 [s] And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, [t] The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ [u] And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 [v] For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 [w] For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 [x] But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ [y] And it came to pass about an eight days after these [1] sayings, he took Pē'tẽr and Jŏhn and Jāmeṣ, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, [z] the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Mō'ṣeṣ and [a] Ē-lī'as:

31 Who appeared in [b] glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jĕ-rụ'sȧ-lĕm.

32 But Pē'tĕr and they that were with him [c]were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Pē'tĕr said unto Jē'şus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'şeş, and one for Ē-lī'as: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, [d]This is my beloved Son: [e]hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jē'şus was found alone. [f]And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ [g]And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jē'şus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jē'şus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jē'şus did, he said unto his disciples,

44 [h]Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 [i]But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶ [j]Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jē'şus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 And said unto them, [k]Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: [l]for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ [m]And Jŏhn answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jē'şus said unto him, Forbid him not: for [n]he that is not against us is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that [o]he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm,

52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Sā-măr'ĭ-tanş, to make ready for him.

53 And [p]they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm.

54 And when his disciples Jāmeş and Jŏhn saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as [q]Ē-lī'as did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what [r]manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For [s]the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ [t]And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jē'şus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 [u]And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jē'şus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, [v]I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

62 And Jē'şus said unto him, [w]No man, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAPTER 10.

1 The seventy sent out. 17 The seventy return. 25 The lawyer taught how to obtain eternal life. 30 The good Samaritan. 38 Mary and Martha.

AFTER these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and [a]sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, [b]The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: [c]pray ye therefore the [d]Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: [e]behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 [f]Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and [g]salute no man by the way.

5 [h]And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 [i]And in the same house remain, [j]eating and drinking such things as they give: for [k]the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not [l]from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

9 [m]And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, [n]The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 [o]Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, that [p]it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sŏd'om, than for that city.

13 [q]Woe unto thee, Chō-rā'zin! woe unto thee, Bĕth-sā'ĭ-dȧ! [r]for if the mighty works had been done in Tȳre and Sī'dŏn, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago [s]repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tȳre and Sī'dŏn at the judgment, than for you.

15 [t]And thou, Că-pĕr'na-ŭm, which art [u]exalted to heaven, [v]shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 [w]He that heareth you heareth me; and [x]he that despiseth you despiseth me; [y]and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, [z]I beheld Sā'tan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, [a]I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because [b]your names are written in heaven.

21 ¶ [c]In that hour Jē'şus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from [d]the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 [1] [e]All things are delivered to me of my Father: and [f]no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, [g]Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you, [h]that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, [i]Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering said, [j]Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and [k]thy neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and [l]thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to [m]justify himself, said unto Jē'şus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jē'şus answering said, A certain man went down from Jĕ-rų'să-lĕm to Jĕr'ĭ-chō, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, [n]he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Lē'vīte, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain [o]Să-măr'ĭ-tan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jē'şus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Mär'thȧ received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mā'rў, which also sat at Jē'şus' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Mär'thȧ was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jē'şus answered and said unto her, Mär'thȧ, Mär'thȧ, thou art careful and troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needful: and Mā'rў hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

AND it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, [a]teach us to pray, as Jŏhn also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, [b]Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. [c]Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us [1] day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for [d]we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. [e]And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine [2] in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

2 Or, out of his way.

8 I say unto you, [f]Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 [g]And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

11 [h]If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he [3]offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the [i]Hō'lў Spĭr'ĭt to them that ask him?

14 ¶ [j]And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, [k]He casteth out devils through [4]Bē-ĕl'zę̆-bŭb the chief of the devils.

16 And others, tempting him, [l]sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 [m]But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 If Sā'tan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Bē-ĕl'zę̆-bŭb.

19 And if I by Bē-ĕl'zę̆-bŭb cast out devils, by whom do [n]your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I [o]with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 [p]When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 But [q]when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 [r]He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.

24 [s]When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and [t]the last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, [u]Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea [v]rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 ¶ [w]And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jō'nas the prophet.

30 For as [x]Jō'nas was a sign unto the Nĭn'ę̆-vītes, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 [y]The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Sŏl'o-mon; and, behold, a [z]greater than Sŏl'o-mon is here.

32 The men of Nĭn'ę̆-ve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for [a]they repented at the preaching of Jō'nas; and, behold, a greater than Jō'nas is here.

33 [b]No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a [c]bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 [d]The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when [5]the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spake, a certain Phăr'ĭ-see besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And when the Phăr'ĭ-see saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 [e]And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Phăr'ĭ-sees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but [f]your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

41 [g]But rather give alms [6]of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 [h]But woe unto you, Phăr'ĭ-sees! for [i]ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 [j]Woe unto you, Phăr'ĭ-sees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 [k]Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! [l]for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! [m]for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 [n]Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: [o]for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the [p]wisdom of God, [q]I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

51 [r]From the blood of Ā'bĕl unto the blood of Zăch-a-rī'as, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

52 [s]Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye [7]hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Phăr'ĭ-sees̱ began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:

54 Laying wait for him, and [t]seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

CHAPTER 12.

1 A discourse to disciples on hypocrisy. 13 Warning against covetousness. 22 Against carefulness of earthly things. 33 General instruction to disciples.

IN [a]the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, [b]Beware ye of the leaven of the Phăr'ĭ-sees̱, which is hypocrisy.

2 [c]For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the house tops.

4 [d]And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath [e]power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two [f]farthings, and [g]not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 [h]Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 And [i]whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Hō'lў Ghōst it shall not be forgiven.

11 [j]And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 [k]For the Hō'lў Ghōst shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, [l]Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, [m]Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, [n]Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night [1]thy soul shall be required of thee: [o]then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, [p]and is not rich toward God.

22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, [q]Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and [r]God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Sŏl'o-mon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, [2]neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father [s]knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 ¶ [t]But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and [u]all these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, little flock; for [v]it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 [y]Let your loins be girded about, and [z]your lights burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 [a]Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39 [b]And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 [c]Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 ¶ Then Pē'tĕr said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, [d]Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that [e]he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will [3]cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

47 And [f]that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 [g]But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

52 [k]For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 ¶ And he said also to the people, [l]When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is.

55 And when ye see [m]the south wind blow, ye say, There will be heat; and it cometh to pass.

56 [n]Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern [o]this time?

57 Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right?

58 ¶ [p]When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, [q]as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.

59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last [r]mite.

CHAPTER 13.

1 On repentance. 6 The fruitless fig tree. 11 Of healing on the sabbath. 18 The kingdom of God. 24 The strait gate. 31 A lament for Jerusalem.

THERE were present at that season some that told him [a]of the Găl-ĭ-læ'ans, whose blood Pī'late had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jē'sus answering said unto them, [b]Suppose ye that these Găl-ĭ-læ'ans were sinners above all the Găl-ĭ-læ'ans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Sĭ-lō'am fell, and slew them, think ye that they were [1]sinners above all men that dwelt in Jĕ-rū'să-lĕm?

5 I tell you, Nay: but, [c]except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable; [d]A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these [e]three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, [f]let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 ¶ And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jē'sus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 [g]And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue [h]answered with indignation, because that Jē'sus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, [i]There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and [j]not on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, [k]doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, [l]being a daughter of Ā'brā-hăm, whom Sā'tan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶ [m]Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three [n]measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 [o]And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jē-rū'sā-lĕm.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them,

24 ¶ [2]Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for [p]many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 [q]When once the master of the house is risen up, and [r]hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, [s]Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, [t]I know you not whence ye are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, [u]We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 [v]But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; [w]depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

28 [x]There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, [y]when ye shall see Ā'brā-hăm, and Ī'sa̱ac, and Jā'cob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.

29 [z]And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 [a]And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

31 ¶ The same day there came certain of the Phăr'ī-sees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Hĕr'od will kill thee.

32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day [b]I shall be perfected.

33 Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm.

34 [c]O Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!

35 Behold, [d]your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, [e]Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, [f]Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

CHAPTER 14.

1 On sabbath observance. 7 On humility. 15 Parable of the great supper. 25 Who cannot be disciples.

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Phăr'ī-sees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

3 And Jē'sus answering spake unto the lawyers and Phăr'ī-sees, saying, [a]Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, [b]Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 ¶ And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 [c]But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 [d]For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call [e]the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be [f]recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

15 ¶ And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, [g]Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 [h]Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And [i]sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, [j]I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, [k]Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, [l]and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, [m]That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 ¶ And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them,

26 [n]If any man come to me, [o]and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, [p]yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 And [q]whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For [r]which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?

29 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him,

30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth [s]an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever [t]he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

34 ¶ [u]Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?

35 It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

CHAPTER 15.

1 The lost sheep. 8 The piece of silver. 11 The prodigal son.

THEN [a]drew near unto him all the publicans and [b]sinners for to hear him.

2 And the Phăr'ĭ-sees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, [c]and eateth with them.

3 ¶ And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 [d]What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he [e]lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep [f]which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, [g]more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

8 ¶ Either what woman having ten [1]pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them [h]his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into [i]a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will [j]arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, [k]I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But [l]when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, [m]and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth [n]the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

CHAPTER 16.

1 The unjust steward. 14 Reproof of the Pharisees. 19 The rich man and Lazarus.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.
2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an [a]account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.
3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.
4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.
5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?
6 And he said, An hundred [1]measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.
7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred [2]measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.
8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than [b]the children of light.
9 And I say unto you, [c]Make to yourselves friends of the [3]mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 [d]He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.
11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous [4]mammon, who will commit to your trust the [e]true riches?
12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?
13 ¶ No [f]servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.
14 And the Phăr'ĭ-sees also, [g]who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.
15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which [h]justify yourselves before men; but [i]God knoweth your hearts: for [j]that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.
16 [k]The law and the prophets were until Jŏhn: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.
17 [l]And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.
18 [m]Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.
19 ¶ There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:
20 And there was a certain beggar named Lăz'a-rus, which was laid at his gate, [n]full of sores,
21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.
22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and [o]was carried by the angels into [p]Ā'bră-hăm's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;
23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Ā'bră-hăm afar off, and Lăz'a-rus in his bosom.
24 And he cried and said, Father Ā'bră-hăm, have mercy on me, and send Lăz'a-rus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and [q]cool my tongue; for I [r]am tormented in this flame.
25 But Ā'bră-hăm said, Son, [s]remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lăz'a-rus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.
26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a [t]great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.
27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:
28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.
29 Ā'bră-hăm saith unto him, [u]They have Mō'ses and the prophets; let them hear them.
30 And he said, Nay, father Ā'bră-hăm: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Mō'şeş and the prophets, [v] neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

CHAPTER 17.

1 A lesson on faith. 11 Ten lepers healed. 20 Christ's second coming.

THEN said he unto the disciples, [a] It is impossible but that offences will come: but [b] woe unto him, through whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 ¶ Take heed to yourselves: [c] If thy brother trespass against thee, [d] rebuke him; and if he repent, [e] forgive him.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 [f] And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, [g] and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are [h] unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, [i] as he went to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm, that he passed through the midst of Sā-mā'rĭ-ā and Găl'ĭ-lee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, [j] which stood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jē'şus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, [k] Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice [l] glorified God,

16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was [m] a Sā-măr'ĭ-tan.

17 And Jē'şus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 [n] And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Phăr'ĭ-sees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not [1] with observation:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, [o] the kingdom of God is [2] within you.

22 And he said unto the disciples, [p] The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 [q] And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: [r] go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also [s] the Son of man be in his day.

25 [t] But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 [u] And as it was in the days of Nō'e, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Nō'e entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 [v] Likewise also as it was in the days of Lŏt; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29 But the same day that Lŏt went out of Sŏd'om it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man [w] is revealed.

31 In that day, he [x] which shall be upon the house top, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 [y] Remember Lŏt's wife.

33 [z] Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

34 [a] I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 [3] Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, [b] Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

CHAPTER 18.

3 The importunate widow. 9 Of the Pharisee and publican. 15 Of little children. 18 The danger of riches. 31 The passion foretold. 35 Blind man's sight restored.

AND he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought [a] always to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was [1] in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

1 in a certain city.

Afterward came also the other virgins saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

5 [b] Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And [c] shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you [d] that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain [e] which trusted in themselves [2] that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Phăr'ĭ-see, and the other a publican.

11 The Phăr'ĭ-see [f] stood and prayed thus with himself, [g] God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, [h] standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: [i] for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 [j] And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jē'şus called them unto him, and said, [k] Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for [l] of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

18 [m] And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jē'şus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, [n] Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, [o] Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jē'şus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: [p] sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jē'şus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, [q] How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, [t] There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

30 [u] Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and [v] in the world to come life everlasting.

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

34 [z] And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ¶ [a] And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jĕr'ĭ-chō, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging:

41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

A. D. 33.

5 And when Jē'ṣus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zăc-chæ'us, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, [b]That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zăc-chæ'us stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by [c]false accusation, [d]I restore him fourfold.

9 And Jē'ṣus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as [e]he also is a son of Ā'bră-hăm.

10 [f]For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jĕ-rṵ'să-lĕm, and because [g]they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 [h]He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten [1]pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 [i]But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the [2]money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been [j]faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 [k]For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, [l]Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. [m]Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, [n]That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, [o]he went before, ascending up to Jĕ-rṵ'să-lĕm.

29 [p]And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bĕth'pha-ġē and Bĕth'ă-nў, at the mount called the mount of Ōl'ĭveṣ, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, [q]Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jē'ṣus: [r]and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jē'ṣus thereon.

36 [s]And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Ōl'ĭveṣ, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, [t]Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: [u]peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, [v]the stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶ And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and [w]wept over it,

42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall [x]cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And [y]shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and [z]they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because [a]thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 [b]And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, [c]It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but [d]ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But [e]the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him,

48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people [3]were very attentive to hear him.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Christ avouches his authority by a question of John's baptism. 9 Parable of the vineyard. 19 The tribute money. 27 The resurrection. 45 Warning the disciples against the scribes.

AND [a]it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, [b]by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The baptism of Jŏhn, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: [c]for they be persuaded that Jŏhn was a prophet.

7 And they answered, [d]that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jē'şus said unto them, [e]Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable; [f]A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season [g]he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 [h]And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send [i]my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is [j]the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and [k]killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, [l]The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but [m]on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 [n]And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, [o]Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God [1]truly:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Çæ'şar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a [p]penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Çæ'şar's.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Çæ'şar the things which be Çæ'şar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ [q]Then came to him certain of the Săd'dŭçees, [r]which deny that there is any resurrection: and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, [s]Mō'şeş wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jē'şus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be [t]accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more: for [u]they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, [v]being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, [w]even Mō'şeş shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Ā'bră-hăm, and the God of Ī'şaac, and the God of Jā'cob.

38 [x]For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for [y]all live unto him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 And he said unto them, [z]How say they that Chrīst is Dā'vid's son?

45 ¶ [b] Then in the audience of all the people he said unto his disciples,

46 [c] Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and [d] love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;

47 [e] Which devour widows' houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same [f] shall receive greater damnation.

CHAPTER 21.

1 The poor widow's gift. 5 Destruction of the temple and of Jerusalem foretold. 25 Signs of Christ's coming. 34 On watchfulness.

AND he looked up, [a] and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, [b] that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 ¶ [c] And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which [d] there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And he said, [e] Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; [1] and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

10 [f] Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 [g] But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and [h] into prisons, [i] being brought before kings and rulers [j] for my name's sake.

13 And [k] it shall turn to you for a testimony.

14 [l] Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, [m] which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

16 [n] And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; [o] and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 [p] And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.

18 But there shall not an hair of your head perish.

19 In your patience possess ye your souls.

20 [q] And when ye shall see Jĕ-rū'să-lĕm compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Jū-dæ'ā flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that [r] all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jĕ-rū'să-lĕm shall be trodden down of the Gĕn'tīleṣ, [s] until the times of the Gĕn'tīleṣ be fulfilled.

25 ¶ [t] And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: [u] for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man [v] coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 [w] And he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

34 ¶ And [x] take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For [y] as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 [z] Watch ye therefore, and [a] pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and [b] to stand before the Son of man.

37 And [c] in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and [d] at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Ōl'īveṣ.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him [e] in the temple, for to hear him.

CHAPTER 22.

1 Judas' agreement. 19 Lord's supper instituted. 39 The agony and arrest. 50 Malchus' ear is healed. 54 Peter's denial.

NOW [a] the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

A. D. 33.

2 And [b]the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ [c]Then entered Sā'tan into Jū'das surnamed Ĭs-căr'ĭ-ot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and [d]covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them [1]in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ [e]Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Pē'tẽr and Jŏhn, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, [2]With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, [f]until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 For [g]I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ¶ And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: [h]this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, [i]This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ [j]But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, [k]as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ¶ [l]And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 [m]And he said unto them, The kings of the Gĕn'tīleş exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 [n]But ye shall not be so: [o]but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but [p]I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in [q]my temptations.

29 And [r]I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 That [s]ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, [t]and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Ĭş'ra-el.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Sī'mon, Sī'mon, behold, [u]Sā'tan hath desired to have you, that he may [v]sift you as wheat:

32 But [w]I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: [x]and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 [y]And he said, I tell thee, Pē'tẽr, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 [z]And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, [a]And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Ōl'ĭveş; and his disciples also followed him.

40 [b]And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed,

42 Saying, Father, if thou be [3]willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless [c]not my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared [d]an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 [e]And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow,

46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Jū'das, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jē'şus [f]to kiss him.

48 But Jē'şus said unto him, Jū'das, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And [g]one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jē'şus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jē'şus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: [h]but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ [i]Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. [j]And Pē'tẽr followed afar off.

55 [k]And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Pē'tẽr sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 [l]And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Pē'tẽr said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Găl-ĭ-læ'an.

60 And Pē'tẽr said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Pē'tẽr. [m]And Pē'tẽr remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, [n]Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Pē'tẽr went out, and [o]wept bitterly.

63 ¶ And [p]the men that held Jē'şus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 ¶ [q]And as soon as it was day, [r]the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

67 [s]Art thou the Chrīst? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 [t]Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

CHAPTER 23.

1 The trial of Christ. 13 Pilate's sentence. 27 The crucifixion. 46 Death and burial.

AND [a]the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pī'lạte.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow [b]perverting the nation, and [c]forbidding to give tribute to Çæ'şar, saying [d]that he himself is Chrīst a King.

3 [e]And Pī'lạte asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pī'lạte to the chief priests and to the people, [f]I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jew'rў, beginning from Găl'ĭ-lee to this place.

6 When Pī'lạte heard of Găl'ĭ-lee, he asked whether the man were a Găl-ĭ-læ'an.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto [g]Hĕr'od's jurisdiction, he sent him to Hĕr'od, who himself also was at Jĕ-rụ'să-lĕm at that time.

8 ¶ And when Hĕr'od saw Jē'şus, he was exceeding glad: for [h]he was desirous to see him of a long season, because [i]he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 [j]And Hĕr'od with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pī'lạte.

12 ¶ And the same day [k]Pī'lạte and Hĕr'od were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ [l]And Pī'lạte, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have [m]found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Hĕr'od: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 [n]I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 [o](For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18 And [p]they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Bă-răb'bas:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)

20 Pī'lạte therefore, willing to release Jē'şus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pī'lạte [1]gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 [q]And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jē'şus to their will.

26 [r]And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Sī'mon, a Çȳ-rē'nĭ-an, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jē'ṣus.

27 ¶ And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jē'ṣus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jĕ-rṵ'sā-lĕm, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 [s]For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 [t]Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 [u]For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 [v]And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 And [w]when they were come to the place, which is called [2]Căl'vă-rў, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 ¶ Then said Jē'ṣus, Father, [x]forgive them; for [y]they know not what they do. And [z]they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And [a]the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Chrīst, the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself.

38 [b]And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Lăt'in, and Hē'brew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 ¶ [c]And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Chrīst, save thyself and us.

40 But the other answering [d]rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said unto Jē'ṣus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into [e]thy kingdom.

43 And Jē'ṣus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in [f]paradise.

44 [g]And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the [3]earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and [h]the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 ¶ And when Jē'ṣus had cried with a loud voice, he said, [i]Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: [j]and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 [k]Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

49 [l]And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Găl'ĭ-lee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ [m]And, behold, there was a man named Jō'ṣeph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same [n]had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Ăr-ĭ-mă-thæ'å, a city of the Jews: [o]who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pī'late, and begged the body of Jē'ṣus.

53 [p]And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in [q]a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also, [r]which came with him from Găl'ĭ-lee, followed after, and [s]beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and [t]prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day [u]according to the commandment.

1 Resurrection of Christ. 13 The walk to Emmaus. 36 Christ appears to the apostles. 49 Promise of the Holy Ghost. 51 The ascension.

NOW [a]upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, [b]bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 [c]And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jē'ṣus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, [d]behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye [1]the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: [e]remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Găl'ĭ-lee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And [f]they remembered his words,

9 [g]And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mā'rў Măg-dą-lē'nē, and [h]Jō-ăn'nå, and Mā'rў the mother of Jāmeṣ, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 [i]Then arose Pē'tĕr, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

A. D. 33.

13 ¶ And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Ēm'mą-us, which was from Jĕ-rụ'să-lĕm about threescore furlongs.

14 And they [j]talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, [k]Jē'şus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But [l]their eyes were holden that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, [m]whose name was Clē'-ǫ-pas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jĕ-rụ'să-lĕm, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jē'şus of Năz'ą-rĕth, [n]which was a prophet [o]mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 And [p]how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted [q]that it had been he which should have redeemed Ĭş'rą-el: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

26 [r]Ought not Chrīst to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at [s]Mō'şeş and [t]all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and [u]he made as though he would have gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he [2]vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jĕ-rụ'să-lĕm, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them,

34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and [v]hath appeared to Sī'mon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they thus spake, Jē'şus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.

43 [w]And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, [x]These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Mō'şeş, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

45 Then [y]opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,

46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Chrīst to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

47 And that repentance and [z]remission of sins should be preached in his name [a]among all nations, beginning at Jĕ-rụ'să-lĕm.

48 And [b]ye are witnesses of these things.

49 ¶ [c]And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jĕ-rụ'să-lĕm, until ye be endued with power from on high.

50 ¶ And he led them out as far as to Bĕth'ă-nў, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.

51 [d]And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jĕ-rụ'să-lĕm with great joy:

53 And were continually [e]in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

ST. JOHN.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Christ the Light. 15 John's testimony. 39 Call of Andrew and others.

A. D. 26.

IN the beginning [a] was the Word, and the Word was with God, and [b] the Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And [c] the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ [d] There was a man sent from God, whose name was Jŏhn.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 [e] He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 [f] That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and [g] the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 [h] He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But [i] as many as received him, to them gave he [1] power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, [j] but of God.

14 [k] And the Word [l] was made [m] flesh, and dwelt among us, (and [n] we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) [o] full of grace and truth.

15 ¶ Jŏhn bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: [p] for he was before me.

16 And of his [q] fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For [r] the law was given by Mō'sĕs, but [s] grace and [t] truth came by Jē'sŭs Chrīst.

18 [u] No man hath seen God at any time; [v] the only begotten Son, which is in [w] the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of Jŏhn, when the Jews sent priests and Lē'vītes from Jĕ-rū'să-lĕm to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Chrīst.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou [x] Ē-lī'as? And he saith, [y] I am not. Art thou [2] that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as [z] said the prophet Ē-sā'ĭas.

24 And they which were sent were of the Phăr'ĭ-sees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Chrīst, nor Ē-lī'as, neither that prophet?

26 Jŏhn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: [a] but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bĕth-ăb'ă-rà beyond Jôr'dan, where Jŏhn was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day Jŏhn seeth Jē'sŭs coming unto him, and saith, Behold [b] the Lamb of God, [c] which [3] taketh away the sin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Ĭs'ra-el, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And Jŏhn bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, [d] the same is he which baptizeth with the Hō'lў Ghōst.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again the next day after Jŏhn stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jē'sŭs as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jē'sŭs.

38 Then Jē'sŭs turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Răb'bī, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where [4] dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was [5] about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard Jŏhn speak, and followed him, was Ăn'drew, Sī'mon Pē'tẽr's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother [e] Sī'mon, and saith unto him, We have found the Mĕs-sī'as, which is, being interpreted, [6] the Chrīst.

42 And he brought him to Jē'sŭs. And when Jē'sŭs beheld him, he said, Thou art Sī'mon the son of Jō'nà: thou shalt be called Çē'phas, which is by interpretation, [7] A stone.

43 ¶ The day following Jē'sŭs would go forth into Găl'ĭ-lee, and findeth Phĭl'ĭp, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now [f] Phĭl'ĭp was of Bĕth-sā'ĭ-dà, the city of Ăn'drew and Pē'tẽr.

45 Phĭl'ĭp findeth [g] Nà-thăn'a-el, and saith unto

49 Nă-thăn'a-el answered and saith unto him, Răb'bī, thou art the Son of God; thou art [j] the King of Ĭş'ra-el.

50 Jē'şus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [k] Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon [l] the Son of man.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The marriage in Cana. 14 The temple cleansed. 19 Christ foretells his passion. 23 Many believe.

AND the third day there was a marriage in Cā'nȧ of Găl'ĭ-lee; and the mother of Jē'şus was there:

2 And both Jē'şus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jē'şus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jē'şus saith unto her, [a] Woman, what [b] have I to do with thee? [c] mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, [d] after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jē'şus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted [e] the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jē'şus in [f] Cā'nȧ of Găl'ĭ-lee, [g] and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 ¶ After this he went down to Că-pĕr'na-ŭm, he, and his mother, and [h] his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ [i] And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jē'şus went up to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm,

14 [j] And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not [k] my Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, [l] The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jē'şus answered and said unto them, [m] Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake [n] of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, [o] his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jē'şus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jē'şus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men,

25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for [p] he knew what was in man.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Nicodemus taught. 3 On regeneration. 16 Love of God. 25 John's further testimony.

THERE was a man of the Phăr'ĭ-sees, named Nĭc-o-dē'mus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 The same came to Jē'şus by night, and said unto him, Răb'bī, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for [a] no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except [b] God be with him.

3 Jē'şus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [c] Except a man be born [1] again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nĭc-o-dē'mus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jē'şus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [d] Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born [2] again.

8 [e] The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nĭc-o-dē'mus answered and said unto him, [f] How can these things be?

10 Jē'şus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Ĭş'ra-el, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen ; and ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And [g] no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 ¶ [h] And as Mō'şeş lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 ¶ [i] For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 [j] For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 ¶ [k] He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, [l] that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be [3] reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jē'şus and his disciples into the land of Jū-dæ'a; and there he tarried with them, [m] and baptized.

23 ¶ And Jŏhn also was baptizing in Æ'nŏn near to [n] Sā'lim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For [o] Jŏhn was not yet cast into prison.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of Jŏhn's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

26 And they came unto Jŏhn, and said unto him, Răb'bī, he that was with thee beyond Jôr'dan, [p] to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 Jŏhn answered and said, [q] A man can [4] receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Chrīst, but [r] that I am sent before him.

29 [s] He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but [t] the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 [u] He must increase, [v] but I must decrease.

31 [w] He that cometh from above [x] is above all: [y] he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: [z] he that cometh from heaven is above all.

32 And [a] what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony [b] hath set to his seal that God is true.

34 [c] For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit [d] by measure unto him.

35 [e] The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

36 [f] He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but [g] the wrath of God abideth on him.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The Samaritan woman. 25 Christ the Messiah. 39 Many Samaritans believe. 46 The nobleman's son healed.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Phăr'ĭ-sees had heard that Jē'şus made and baptized more disciples than Jŏhn,

2 (Though Jē'şus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Jū-dæ'a, and departed again into Găl'ĭ-lee.

4 And he must needs go through Să-mā'rĭ-a.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Să-mā'rĭ-a, which is called Sȳ'char, near to the parcel of ground [a] that Jā'cob gave to his son Jō'şeph.

6 Now Jā'cob's well was there. Jē'şus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Să-mā'rĭ-a to draw water: Jē'şus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Să-mā'rĭ-a unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Să-mā'rĭ-a? for [b] the Jews have no dealings with the Să-măr'ĭ-tans.

10 Jē'şus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest [c] the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee [d] living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jā'cob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jē'şus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But [e] whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him [f] shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

15 [g] The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jē'şus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jē'şus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, [h] I perceive that thou art a prophet.

21 Jē'ŝus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, [k] when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship [l] ye know not what: we know what we worship: for [m] salvation is of the Jewŝ.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in [n] spirit [o] and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 [p] God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that [q] Mĕs-sī'as cometh, which is called Chrīst: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jē'ŝus saith unto her, [r] I that speak unto thee am he.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

29 Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Chrīst?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jē'ŝus saith unto them, [s] My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; [t] for they are white already to harvest.

36 [u] And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: [v] other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 ¶ [w] And many of the Să-măr'ĭ-tanŝ of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 [x] So when the Să-măr'ĭ-tanŝ were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 [y] And many more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for [z] we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Chrīst, [a] the Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Găl'ĭ-lee.

44 For [b] Jē'ŝus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Găl'ĭ-lee, the Găl-ĭ-læ'anŝ received him, [c] having seen all the things that he did at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm at the feast: [d] for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jē'ŝus came again into Cā'nȧ of Găl'ĭ-lee, [e] where he made the water wine. And there was a certain [1] nobleman, whose son was sick at Că-pĕr'-nă-ŭm.

47 When he heard that Jē'ŝus was come out of Jū-dæ'ȧ into Găl'ĭ-lee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jē'ŝus unto him, [f] Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jē'ŝus saith unto him, [g] Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jē'ŝus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jē'ŝus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself [h] believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jē'ŝus did, when he was come out of Jū-dæ'ȧ into Găl'ĭ-lee.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Healing on the sabbath. 10 The cavillers reproved. 17 Jesus answers for himself. 32 John's testimony. 36 Christ tells who he is.

AFTER [a] this there was a feast of the Jewŝ; and Jē'ŝus went up to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm.

2 Now there is at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm [b] by the sheep [1] market a pool, which is called in the Hē'brew tongue [2] Bĕ-thĕŝ'dȧ, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jē'ŝus saw him lie, [c] and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, [d] Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jē'ŝus saith unto him, [e] Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on [f] the same day was the sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jewŝ therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day : [g]it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk ?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was : for Jē'ṣus had conveyed himself away, [3] a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jē'ṣus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole : [h]sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jewṣ that it was Jē'ṣus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jewṣ persecute Jē'ṣus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17 ¶ But Jē'ṣus answered them, [i]My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jewṣ [j]sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, [k]making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jē'ṣus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [l]The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do : for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For [m]the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth : and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; [n]even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but [o]hath committed all judgment unto the Son :

23 That all men should [p]honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation ; [q]but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when [r]the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God : and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath [s]life in himself ; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself ;

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, [t]because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this : for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 [u]And shall come forth ; [v]they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life ; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing : as I hear, I judge : and my judgment is just ; because [w]I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

34 But I receive not testimony from man : but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and [z]a shining light : and [a]ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ¶ But [b]I have greater witness than that of Jŏhn : for [c]the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, [d]hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, [e]nor seen his shape.

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father : [j]there is one that accuseth you, even Mō'ṣeṣ, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Mō'ṣeṣ, ye would have believed me : [k]for he wrote of me.

47 But if [l]ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words ?

CHAPTER 6.

1 Five thousand fed. 16 Christ walks on the sea. 32 The bread of life. 66 Many disciples depart from Christ. 68 Peter's confession. 70 Judas is a devil.

AFTER [a]these things Jē'ṣus went over the sea of Găl'ĭ-lee, which is the sea of Tĭ-bē'rĭ-as.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jē'ṣus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 [b]And the passover, a feast of the Jewṣ, was nigh.

5 ¶ [c]When Jē'ṣus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Phĭl'ĭp, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat ?

6 And this he said to prove him : for he himself knew what he would do.

7 Phĭl'ĭp answered him, [d]Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Ăn'drew, Sī'mon Pē'tĕr's brother, saith unto him,

A. D. 32.

9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes : [e]but what are they among so many?

10 And Jē'ṣus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jē'ṣus took the loaves ; and when he had [f]given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down ; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jē'ṣus did, said, This is of a truth [g]that prophet that should come into the world.

15 ¶ When Jē'ṣus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 [h]And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,

17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Cā-pĕr'na-ŭm. And it was now dark, and Jē'ṣus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jē'ṣus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship : and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I ; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship : and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jē'ṣus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone ;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tĭ-bē'rĭ-as nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks :)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jē'ṣus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Cā-pĕr'na-ŭm, seeking for Jē'ṣus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Răb'bī, when camest thou hither?

26 Jē'ṣus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 [1]Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but [i]for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you : [j]for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jē'ṣus answered and said unto them, [k]This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, [l]What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 [m]Our fathers did eat manna in the desert ; as it is written, [n]He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jē'ṣus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Mō'ṣeṣ gave you not that bread from heaven ; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jē'ṣus said unto them, I am the bread of life : [o]he that cometh to me shall never hunger ; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me ; and [p]him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, [q]not to do mine own will, [r]but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, [s]that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, [t]that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life : and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jē'ṣus, the son of Jō'ṣeph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jē'ṣus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him : and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 [u]It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 [v]Not that any man hath seen the Father, save [w]he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [x]He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven : if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and [y]the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore [z]strove among themselves, saying, [a]How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jē'sus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except [b]ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, [c]dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Cā-pĕr'na-ŭm.

60 [d]Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When Jē'sus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 [e]What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 [f]It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they [g]are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For [h]Jē'sus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples [i]went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jē'sus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Sī'mon Pē'tĕr answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69 And we believe and are sure that thou art that Chrīst, the Son of the living God.

70 Jē'sus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

71 He spake of Jū'das Īs-căr'ī-ot the son of Sī'mon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

1 Christ reproves his brethren. 10 The feast of tabernacles. 14 Teaches in the temple. 40 Divers opinions concerning Christ. 45 Enmity of the Pharisees.

AFTER these things Jē'sus walked in Găl'ī-lee: for he would not walk in Jew'rў, [a]because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 [b]Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 His [c]brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Jū-dæ'a, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.

5 For [d]neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jē'sus said unto them, [e]My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 [f]The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, [g]because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; [h]for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Găl'ī-lee.

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then [i]the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And [j]there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for [k]some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast Jē'sus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 [l]And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man [1]letters, having never learned?

16 Jē'sus answered them, and said, [m]My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 [n]If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 [o]He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 [p]Did not Mō'ses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? [q]Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, [r]Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 [s]Mō'ses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Mō'ses, [t]but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, [2]that the law of Mō'ses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because [u]I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?

24 [v]Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Chrīst?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Chrīst cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jē'sus in the temple as he taught, saying, [w]Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and [x]I am not come of myself, but he that sent me [y]is true, whom ye [z]know not.

29 But [a]I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Chrīst cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 ¶ The Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jē'ṣus unto them, [b]Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye [c]shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jewṣ among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto [d]the dispersed among the [3]Gĕn'tīleṣ, and teach the Gĕn'tīleṣ?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jē'ṣus stood and cried, saying, [e]If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 [f]He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, [g]out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 ([h]But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Hō'lў Ghōst was not yet given; because that Jē'ṣus was not yet [i]glorified.)

40 ¶ Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is [j]the Prophet.

41 Others said, [k]This is the Chrīst. But some said, Shall Chrīst come out of Găl'ĭ-lee?

42 [l]Hath not the scripture said, That Chrīst cometh of the seed of Dā'vid, and out of the town of Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, [m]where Dā'vid was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ, Are ye also deceived?

48 [n]Have any of the rulers or of the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 Nĭc-o-dē'mus saith unto them, ([o]he that came [4]to Jē'ṣus by night, being one of them,)

51 [p]Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Găl'ĭ-lee? Search, and look: for [q]out of Găl'ĭ-lee ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAPTER 8.

1 The adulterous woman. 12 The light of the world. 33 Jews answered.

JĒ'ṢUS went unto the mount of Ōl'ĭveṣ.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 [a]Now Mō'ṣeṣ in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jē'ṣus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, [b]He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, [c]being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jē'ṣus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jē'ṣus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jē'ṣus said unto her, [d]Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jē'ṣus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ therefore said unto him, [e]Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jē'ṣus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but [f]ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 [g]Ye judge after the flesh; [h]I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for [i]I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 [j]It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and [k]the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jē'ṣus answered, [l]Ye neither know me, nor my Father: [m]if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jē'ṣus in [n]the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and [o]no man laid hands on him; for [p]his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jē'ṣus again unto them, I go my way, and [q]ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jewṣ, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, [r]Ye are from beneath; I am from above: [s]ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: [t]for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jē'ṣus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but [u]he that sent me is true; and [v]I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jē'ṣus unto them, When ye have [w]lifted up the Son of man, [x]then shall ye know that I am he, and [y]that I do nothing of myself; but [z]as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And [a]he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; [b]for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

31 Then said Jē'ṣus to those Jewṣ which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

32 And ye shall know the truth, and [c]the truth shall make you free.

33 ¶ They answered him, [d]We be Ā'bră-hăm's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jē'ṣus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [e]Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And [f]the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 [g]If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Ā'bră-hăm's seed; but [h]ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, [i]Ā'bră-hăm is our father. Jē'ṣus saith unto them, [j]If ye were Ā'bră-hăm's children, ye would do the works of Ā'bră-hăm.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Ā'bră-hăm.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; [k]we have one Father, even God.

42 Jē'ṣus said unto them, [l]If God were your Father, ye would love me: [m]for I proceeded forth and came from God; [n]neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 [o]Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 [p]Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and [q]abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 [r]He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jewṣ, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Să-măr'ī-tan, and hast a devil?

49 Jē'ṣus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And [s]I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [t]If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jewṣ unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. [u]Ā'bră-hăm is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our father Ā'bră-hăm, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

54 Jē'ṣus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: [v]it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God:

55 Yet [w]ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Ā'bră-hăm [x]rejoiced to see my day: [y]and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jewṣ unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Ā'bră-hăm?

58 Jē'ṣus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Ā'bră-hăm was, [z]I am.

59 Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jē'ṣus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

CHAPTER 9.

1 The light of the world. 7 Sight restored to a blind man. 13 Pharisees cast him out. 35 He confesses Jesus. 39 Those whom Christ enlightens.

AND as Jē'ṣus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, [a]who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jē'ṣus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: [b]but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 [c]I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, [d] I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, [e] he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he [1]anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, Go, wash [f] in the pool of Sĭ-lō'am, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) [g] He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jē'ŝus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Sĭ-lō'am, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Phăr'ĭ-seeŝ him that aforetime was blind.

14 And it was the sabbath day when Jē'ŝus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Phăr'ĭ-seeŝ also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Phăr'ĭ-seeŝ, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, [h] How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And [i] there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, [j] He is a prophet.

18 But the Jewŝ did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because [k] they feared the Jewŝ: for the Jewŝ had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Chrĭst, he [l] should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, [m] Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Mō'ŝeŝ' disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Mō'ŝeŝ: as for this fellow, [n] we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, [o] Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that [p] God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they [2]cast him out.

35 Jē'ŝus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on [q] the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jē'ŝus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and [r] it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jē'ŝus said, [s] For judgment I am come into this world, [t] that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.

40 And some of the Phăr'ĭ-seeŝ which were with him heard these words, [u] and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jē'ŝus said unto them, [v] If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your ŝin remaineth.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Christ is the door. 11 The good shepherd. 30 Unity with the Father. 31 Jews seek to stone Christ.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, [a] He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the [b] door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him [c] the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 [d] And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jē'ŝus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jē'ŝus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am [e] the door of the sheep.

A. D. 33.

8 [f]All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 [g]The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 [h]I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and [i]leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and [j]know my sheep, and [k]am known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And [l]other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; [m]and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, [n]because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. [o]This commandment have I received of my Father.

19 ¶ There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. [p]Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 ¶ And it was at Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jē'sus walked in the temple [q]in Sŏl'o-mon's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou [1]make us to doubt? If thou be the Chrīst, tell us plainly.

25 Jē'sus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26 But [r]ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

29 [s]My Father, [t]which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

30 [u]I and my Father are one.

31 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

32 Jē'sus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, [v]makest thyself God.

34 Jē'sus answered them, [w]Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, [x]unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;

36 Say ye of him, [y]whom the Father hath sanctified, and [z]sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am [a]the Son of God?

37 [b]If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, [c]that the Father is in me, and I in him.

39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand,

40 And went away again beyond Jôr'dan into the place [d]where Jŏhn at first baptized; and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, Jŏhn did no miracle: [e]but all things that Jŏhn spake of this man were true.

42 [f]And many believed on him there.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Illness and death of Lazarus. 19 Faith of Mary and Martha. 43 Christ raises Lazarus. 47 Pharisees in council. 49 Prophecy of Caiaphas. 55 At the passover the Jews lay in wait for Christ.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lăz'a-rus, of Bĕth'ă-nў, the town of [a]Mā'rў and her sister Mär'thà.

2 ([b]It was that Mā'rў which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lăz'a-rus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jē'sus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but [c]for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jē'sus loved Mär'thà, and her sister, and Lăz'a-rus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, [d]he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Jū-dæ'à again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, [e]the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jē'sus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? [f]If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But [g]if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lăz'a-rus [h]sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

A. D. 33.

13 Howbeit Jē'ṣus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.
14 Then said Jē'ṣus unto them plainly, Lăz'ą-rus is dead.
15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.
16 Then said Thŏm'as, which is called Dĭd'ў-mus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.
17 Then when Jē'ṣus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.
18 Now Bĕth'ă-nў was nigh unto Jĕ-rụ'să-lĕm, [1]about fifteen furlongs off:
19 And many of the Jewṣ came to Mär'thȧ and Mā'rў, to comfort them concerning their brother.
20 Then Mär'thȧ, as soon as she heard that Jē'ṣus was coming, went and met him: but Mā'rў sat still in the house.
21 Then said Mär'thȧ unto Jē'ṣus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.
22 But I know, that even now, [i]whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.
23 Jē'ṣus saith unto her, Thy brother shall [j]rise again.
24 Mär'thȧ saith unto him, [k]I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.
25 Jē'ṣus said unto her, I am [l]the resurrection, and the [m]life: [n]he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:
26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?
27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: [o]I believe that thou art the Chrīst, the Son of God, which should come into the world.
28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mā'rў her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.
29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.
30 Now Jē'ṣus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Mär'thȧ met him.
31 The Jewṣ then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mā'rў, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.
32 Then when Mā'rў was come where Jē'ṣus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.
33 When Jē'ṣus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jewṣ also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and [2]was troubled,
34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.
35 [p]Jē'ṣus wept.
36 Then said the Jewṣ, Behold how he loved him!
37 And some of them said, Could not this man, [q]which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?
38 Jē'ṣus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.
39 Jē'ṣus said, Take ye away the stone. Mär'thȧ, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.
40 Jē'ṣus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?
41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jē'ṣus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.
42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but [r]because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.
43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lăz'ą-rus, [s]come forth.
44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and [t]his face was bound about with a napkin. Jē'ṣus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.
45 Then many of the Jewṣ which came to Mā'rў, [u]and had seen the things which Jē'ṣus did, believed on him.
46 But some of them went their ways to the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ, and told them what things Jē'ṣus had done.
47 ¶ [v]Then gathered the chief priests and the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ a council, and said, [w]What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.
48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and [x]the Rō'manṣ shall come and take away both our place and nation.
49 And one of them, named [y]Cā'ịa-phăs, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,
50 [z]Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.
51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jē'ṣus should die for that nation;
52 And [a]not for that nation only, [b]but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.
53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.
54 Jē'ṣus [c]therefore walked no more openly among the Jewṣ; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called [d]Ē'phră-ĭm, and there continued with his disciples.
55 ¶ [e]And the Jewṣ' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jĕ-rụ'să-lĕm before the passover, to [f]purify themselves.
56 [g]Then sought they for Jē'ṣus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, [h]What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?
57 Now both the chief priests and the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

1 That is, about two miles.

2 he troubled himself.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Mary anoints the feet of Jesus. 12 Christ enters Jerusalem. 28 A voice from heaven. 37 Unbelief of the Jews. 44 On confession of faith.

A. D. 33.

THEN Jē'ṣus six days before the passover came to Bĕth'ă-nў, [a] where Lăz'ą-rus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 [b] There they made him a supper; and Mär'thȧ served: but Lăz'ą-rus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took [c] Mā'rў a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jē'ṣus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Jū'das Ĭs-kăr'ĭ-ot, Sī'mon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and [d] had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jē'ṣus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For [e] the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jewṣ therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jē'ṣus' sake only, but that they might see Lăz'ą-rus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ [f] But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lăz'ą-rus also to death;

11 [g] Because that by reason of him many of the Jewṣ went away, and believed on Jē'ṣus.

12 ¶ [h] On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jē'ṣus was coming to Jĕ-rụ'sȧ-lĕm,

13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, [i] Hō-ṣăn'nȧ: Blessed is the King of Ĭṣ'rą-el that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jē'ṣus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

15 [j] Fear not, daughter of Sī'ŏn: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things [k] understood not his disciples at the first: [l] but when Jē'ṣus was glorified, [m] then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lăz'ą-rus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there [n] were certain Greeks among them, [o] that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Phĭl'ĭp, which was of Bĕth-sā'ĭ-dȧ of Găl'ĭ-lee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jē'ṣus.

22 Phĭl'ĭp cometh and telleth Ăn'drew: and again Ăn'drew and Phĭl'ĭp tell Jē'ṣus.

23 ¶ And Jē'ṣus answered them, saying, [p] The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [q] Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 [r] He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and [s] where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 [t] Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: [u] but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. [v] Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jē'ṣus answered and said, [w] This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall [x] the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw [y] all men unto me.

33 This he said, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, [z] We have heard out of the law that Chrīst abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jē'ṣus said unto them, Yet a little while [a] is the light with you. [b] Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for [c] he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the [d] children of light. These things spake Jē'ṣus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Ē-ṣā'ịas the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, [e] Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Ē-ṣā'ịas said again,

40 [f] He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 [g] These things said Ē-ṣā'ịas, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 [h] For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jē'ṣus cried and said, [i] He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And [j]he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.
46 [k]I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.
47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, [l]I judge him not: for [m]I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.
48 [n]He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: [o]the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.
49 For [p]I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.
50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Washing the disciples' feet. 18 Judas the betrayer. 31 Commandment to love one another. 36 Peter's denial foretold.

NOW before the feast of the passover, when Jē'şus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.
2 And supper being ended, [a]the devil having now put into the heart of Jū'das Ĭs-kăr'ĭ-ot, Sī'mon's son, to betray him;
3 Jē'şus knowing [b]that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God;
4 [c]He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.
5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.
6 Then cometh he to Sī'mon Pē'tĕr: and [1]Pē'tĕr saith unto him, Lord, [d]dost thou wash my feet?
7 Jē'şus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.
8 Pē'tĕr saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jē'şus answered him, [e]If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.
9 Sī'mon Pē'tĕr saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.
10 Jē'şus saith to him, [f]He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and [g]ye are clean, but not all.
11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.
12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?
13 [h]Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.
14 [i]If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; [j]ye also ought to wash one another's feet.
15 For [k]I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.
16 [l]Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.
17 [m]If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.
18 ¶ I speak not of you all: [n]I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, [o]He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.
19 [2]Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.
20 [p]Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.
21 [q]When Jē'şus had thus said, [r]he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that [s]one of you shall betray me.
22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.
23 Now [t]there was leaning on Jē'şus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jē'şus loved.
24 Sī'mon Pē'tĕr therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.
25 He then lying on Jē'şus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?
26 Jē'şus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a [3]sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Jū'das Ĭs-kăr'ĭ-ot, the son of Sī'mon.
27 And [u]after the sop Sā'tan entered into him. Then said Jē'şus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.
28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.
29 For some of them thought, because [v]Jū'das had the bag, that Jē'şus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.
30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.
31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jē'şus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and [w]God is glorified in him.
32 [x]If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.
33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.
34 [y]A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.
35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have [z]love one to another.
36 ¶ Sī'mon Pē'tĕr said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jē'şus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but [a]thou shalt follow me afterwards.
37 Pē'tĕr said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will [b]lay down my life for thy sake.
38 Jē'şus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy

CHAPTER 14.

1 The disciples comforted. 16 The Holy Ghost shall teach. 27 Peace to all.

LET not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 [a]In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. [b]I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, [c]I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that [d]where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thŏm'as saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jē'ṣus saith unto him, I am [e]the way, [f]the truth, and [g]the life: [h]no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

7 [i]If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Phĭl'ĭp saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jē'ṣus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Phĭl'ĭp? [j]he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that [k]I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you [l]I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

13 [m]And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 ¶ [n]If ye love me, keep my commandments.

16 And I will pray the Father, and [o]he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

17 Even the Spirit of truth; [p]whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, [q]and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you [1]comfortless: I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but [r]ye see me: [s]because I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day ye shall know that [t]I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

21 [u]He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and [w]the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26 But [x]the Comforter, which is the Hō'lў Ghōst, whom the Father will send in my name, [y]he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 [z]Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for [a]my Father is greater than I.

29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: [b]for the prince of this world cometh, and [c]hath nothing in me.

31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and [d]as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

CHAPTER 15.

1 The true vine. 12 Love one another. 26 When the Holy Ghost comes.

I AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2 [a]Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 [b]Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 [c]Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much [d]fruit: for [1]without me ye can do nothing.

6 [e]If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 [f]Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and [g] that your joy might be full.

12 [h] This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 [i] Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; [j] for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 [k] Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and [l] ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 [m] If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 [n] If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but [o] because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; [p] if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 [q] If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: [r] but now they have no [2] cloke for their sin.

23 [s] He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, [t] They hated me without a cause.

26 [u] But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, [v] he shall testify of me:

27 And [w] ye also shall bear witness, because [x] ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Christ further comforts his disciples. 20 Sorrow shall be turned to gladness. 23 Acceptable prayer. 33 Peace.

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, [a] that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And [b] these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but [c] if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will [1] reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 [d] Of sin, because they believe not on me;

10 [e] Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 [f] Of judgment, because [g] the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, [h] he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will [i] shew you things to come.

14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

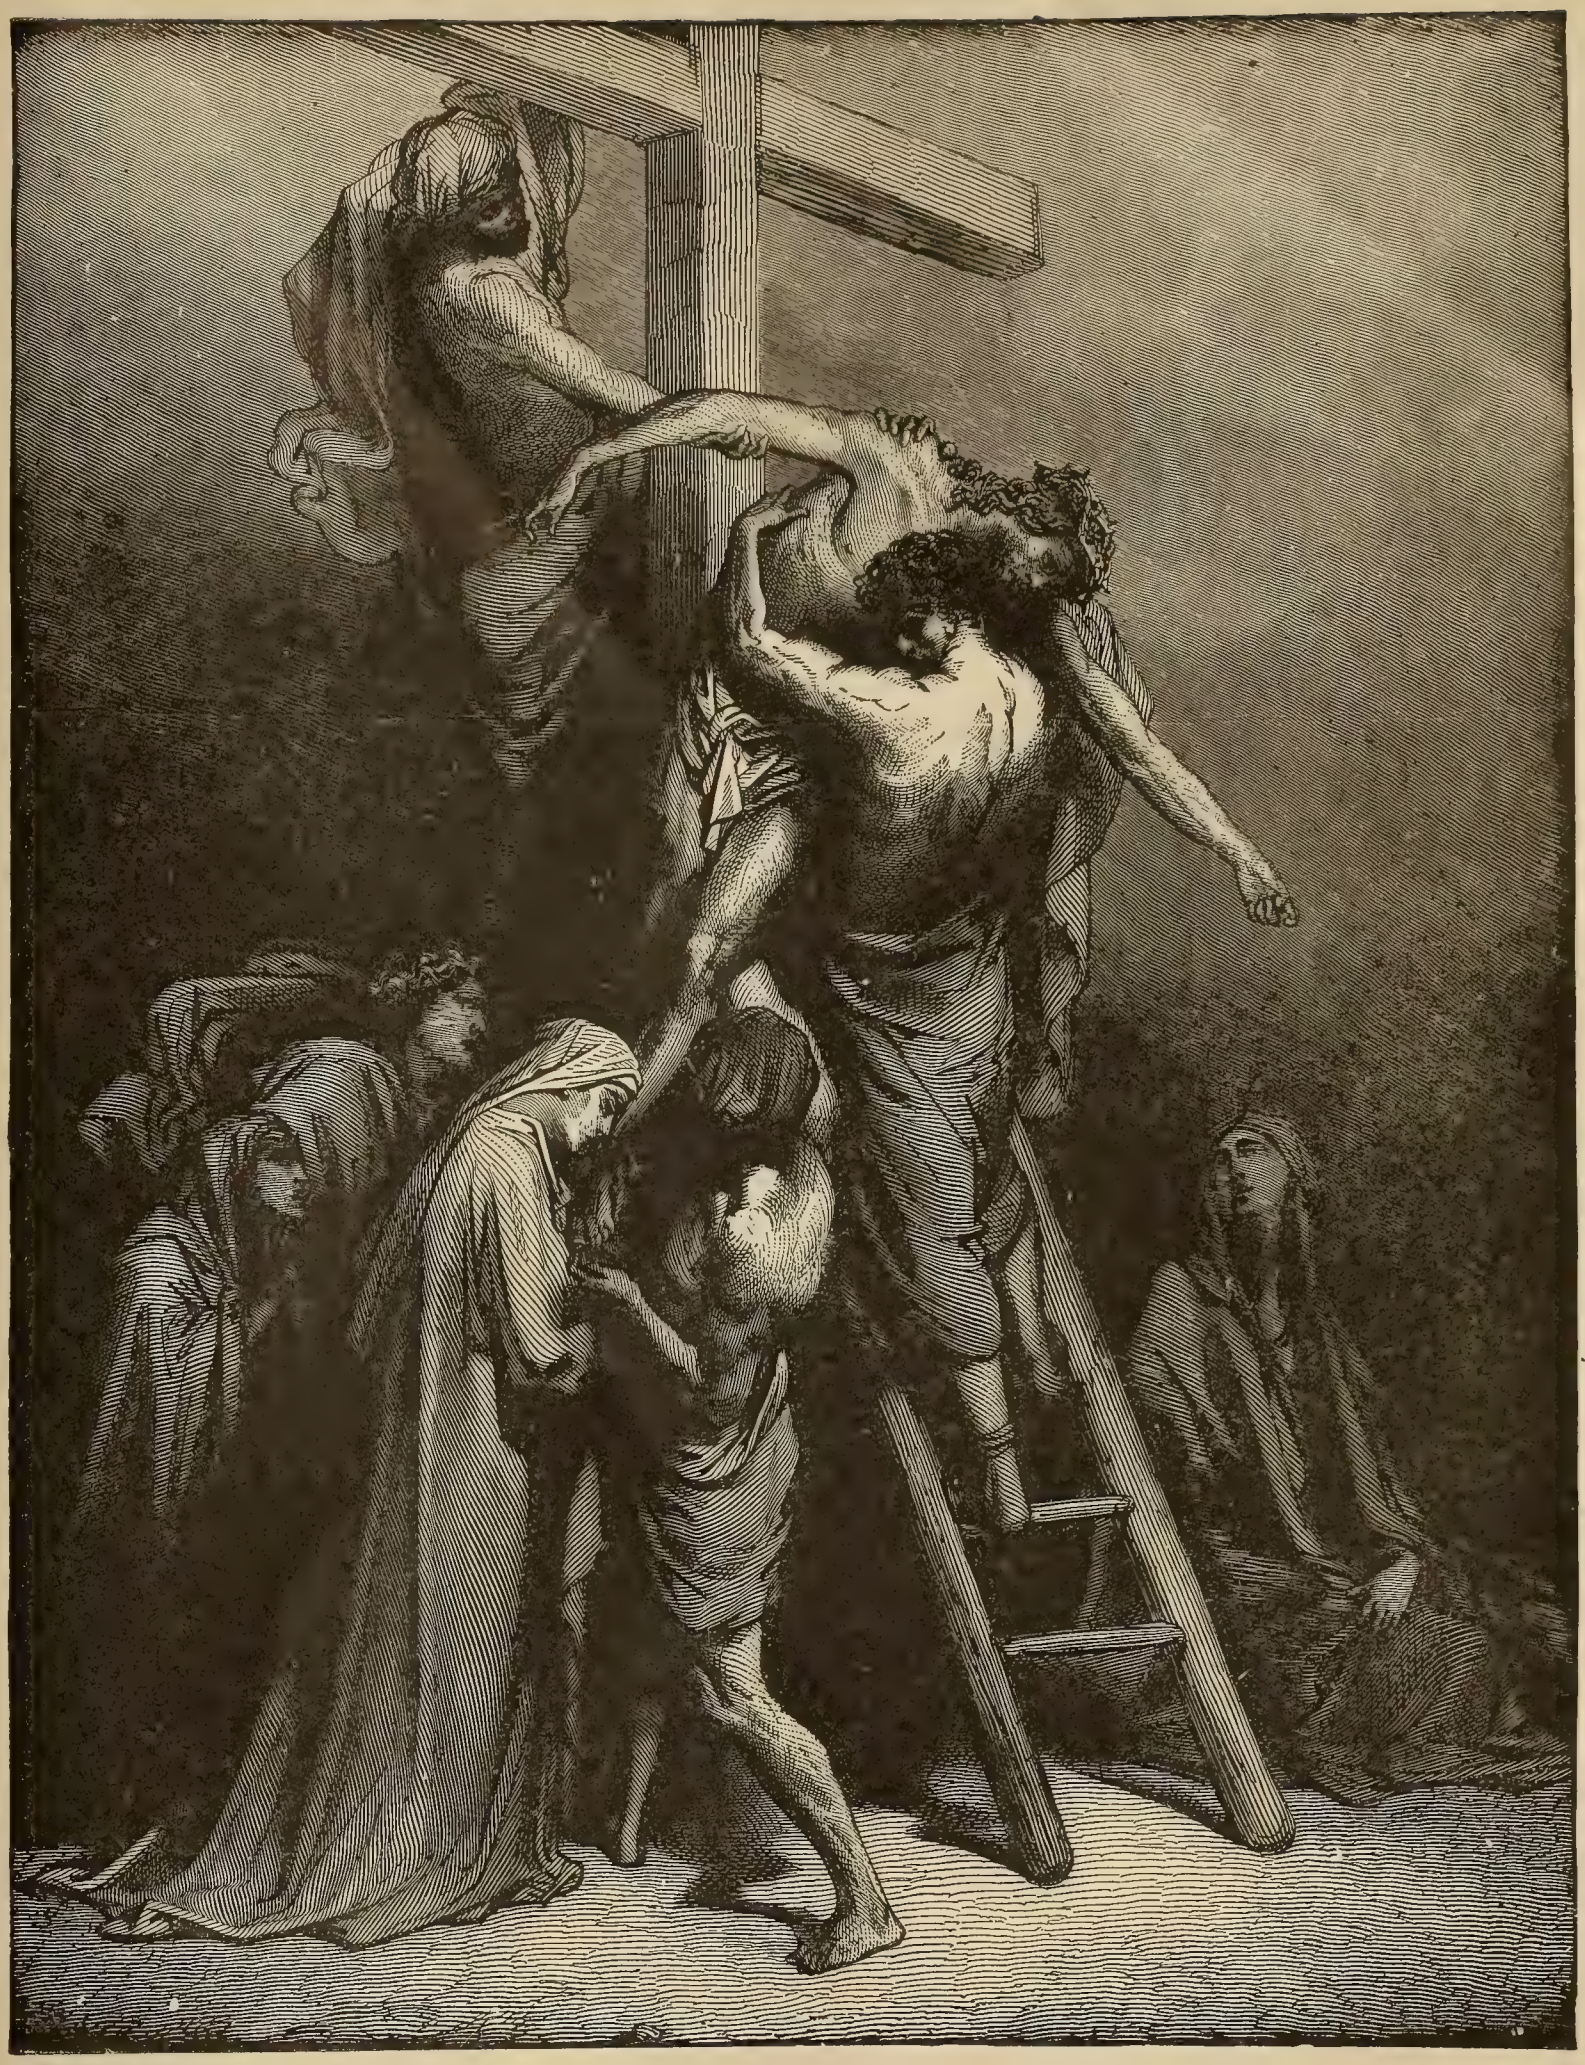
15 [j] All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jē'ṣus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?



20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and [k] your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. [l] Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

PAUL MENACED BY THE JEWS.—Acts xxi. 27–30.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in [2]proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in [3]proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 [m]For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and [n]have believed that I came out from God.

28 [o]I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no [4]proverb.

30 Now are we sure that [p]thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this [q]we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jē'sus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to [5]his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that [r]in me ye might have peace. [s]In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; [t]I have overcome the world.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Christ's prayer to be glorified. 6 Prayer for the apostles. 20 He prays for all believers.

THESE words spake Jē'sus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 [a]As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many [b]as thou hast given him.

3 And [c]this is life eternal, that they might know thee [d]the only true God, and Jē'sus Chrīst whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory [e]which I had with thee before the world was.

6 [f]I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: [g]I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 [h]And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, [i]keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, [j]as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, [k]I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and [l]none of them is lost, [m]but the son of perdition; [n]that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I [o]have given them thy word; [o]and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but [p]that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And [q]for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be [1]sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

21 That they all may be one; as [r]thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; [s]that they may be one, even as we are one:

23 I in them, and thou in me, [t]that they may be made [u]perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

24 [v]Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may [w]behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and [x]I in them.

CHAPTER 18.

1 The betrayal. 12 The arrest. 15 Peter's denial. 28 Christ before Pilate. 36 His kingdom. 40 Plea for Barabbas.

WHEN Jē'sus had spoken these words, he [a]went forth with his disciples over the [b]brook Çē'drŏn, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Jū'das also, which betrayed him, knew the place: [c]for Jē'sus ofttimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 [d]Jū'das then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Phăr'ī-sees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jē'sus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jē'ṣus of Năz'a-rĕth. Jē'ṣus saith unto them, I am he. And Jū'das also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jē'ṣus of Năz'a-rĕth.

8 Jē'ṣus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, [e]Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 [f]Then Sī'mon Pē'tĕr having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Măl'chus.

11 Then said Jē'ṣus unto Pē'tĕr, Put up thy sword into the sheath: [g]the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jē'ṣus, and bound him,

13 And [h]led him away to [i]Ăn'nas first; for he was father in law to Cā'ia-phăs, which was the high priest that same year.[1]

14 [j]Now Cā'ia-phăs was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ And Sī'mon Pē'tĕr followed Jē'ṣus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jē'ṣus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Pē'tĕr stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Pē'tĕr.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Pē'tĕr, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Pē'tĕr stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 ¶ The high priest then asked Jē'ṣus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jē'ṣus answered him, [k]I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by [l]struck Jē'ṣus [2]with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jē'ṣus answered him, [m]If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now Ăn'nas had sent him bound unto Cā'ia-phăs the high priest.

25 And Sī'mon Pē'tĕr stood and warmed himself. [n]They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Pē'tĕr cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Pē'tĕr then denied again: and [o]immediately the cock crew.

28 ¶ [p]Then led they Jē'ṣus from Cā'ia-phăs unto [3]the hall of judgment: and it was early; [q]and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat [r]the passover.

29 Pī'late then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pī'late unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 [s]That the saying of Jē'ṣus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pī'late entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jē'ṣus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jē'ṣus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pī'late answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 [t]Jē'ṣus answered, [u]My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pī'late therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jē'ṣus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should [v]bear witness unto the truth. Every one that [w]is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pī'late saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, [x]I find in him no fault at all.

39 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 [y]Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Bă-răb'bas. [z]Now Bă-răb'bas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19.

1 Jesus is scourged, crowned, and beaten. 4 Pilate's doubt and weakness. 16 The crucifixion. 30 Death of Christ. 38 Joseph places his body in the tomb.

THEN [a]Pī'late therefore took Jē'ṣus, and scourged him.

2 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pī'late therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, [b] that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jē'sus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pī'late saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 [c] When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pī'late saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, [d] We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because [e] he made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pī'late therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jē'sus, Whence art thou? [f] But Jē'sus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pī'late unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jē'sus answered, [g] Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pī'late sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, [h] If thou let this man go, thou art not Çæ'sar's friend: [i] whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Çæ'sar.

13 ¶ When Pī'late therefore heard that saying, he brought Jē'sus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hē'brew, [1] Găb'ba-thà.

14 And [j] it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pī'late saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, [k] We have no king but Çæ'sar.

16 [l] Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jē'sus, and led him away.

17 And he bearing his cross [m] went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hē'brew Gŏl'gō-thà:

18 [n] Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jē'sus in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pī'late wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JĒ'SUS OF NĂZ'A-RĒTH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jē'sus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hē'brew, and Greek, and Lăt'in.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pī'late, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pī'late answered, What I have written I have written.

23 ¶ Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jē'sus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, [2] woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, [o] They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 ¶ Now there stood by the cross of Jē'sus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mā'rў the wife of [3] Clē'o-phas, and Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nē.

26 When Jē'sus therefore saw his mother, and [p] the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, [q] Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her [r] unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jē'sus knowing that all things were now accomplished, [s] that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jē'sus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, [t] It is finished: and he bowed his head, and [u] gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, [v] because it was the preparation, [w] that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was [x] an high day,) besought Pī'late that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jē'sus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith [y] came there out blood and water.

35 [z] And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, [a] that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, [b] They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ [c] And after this Jō'seph of Ăr-ĭ-mă-thæ'a, being a disciple of Jē'sus, but secretly [d] for fear of the Jews, besought Pī'late that he might take away the body of Jē'sus: and Pī'late gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jē'sus.

39 And there came also [e] Nĭc-o-dē'mus, which at the first came to Jē'sus by night, and brought [f] a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jē'sus, and [g] wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a [h]new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 [i]There laid they Jē'ṣus therefore because of the Jewṣ' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Christ's resurrection. 11 He appears to Mary Magdalene. 19 Jesus in the midst of the disciples. 24 Thomas' doubt.

THE [a]first day of the week cometh Mā'rў Măg-dą-lē'nė early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Sī'mon Pē'tẽr, and to the [b]other disciple, whom Jē'ṣus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 [c]Pē'tẽr therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Pē'tẽr, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw [d]the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Sī'mon Pē'tẽr following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,

7 And [e]the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the [f]scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 ¶ [g]But Mā'rў stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre,

12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jē'ṣus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 [h]And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jē'ṣus standing, and [i]knew not that it was Jē'ṣus.

15 Jē'ṣus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jē'ṣus saith unto her, Mā'rў. She turned herself, and saith unto him, [j]Răb-bō'nī; which is to say, Master.

17 Jē'ṣus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to [k]my brethren, and say unto them, [l]I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to [m]my God, and your God.

18 [n]Mā'rў Măg-dą-lē'nė came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ [o]Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jewṣ, came Jē'ṣus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he [p]shewed unto them his hands and his side. [q]Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jē'ṣus to them again, Peace be unto you: [r]as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Hō'lў Ghōst:

23 [s]Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thŏm'as, one of the twelve, [t]called Dĭd'ў-mus, was not with them when Jē'ṣus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thŏm'as with them: then came Jē'ṣus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, [u]Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thŏm'as, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and [v]reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thŏm'as answered and said unto him, [w]My Lord and my God.

29 Jē'ṣus saith unto him, Thŏm'as, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: [x]blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ [y]And many other signs truly did Jē'ṣus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 [z]But these are written, that ye might believe that Jē'ṣus is the Chrīst, the Son of God; [a]and that believing ye might have life through his name.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Christ appears to his disciples again. 12 He eats with them. 15 His charge to Peter. 25 The conclusion.

AFTER these things Jē'ṣus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tĭ-bē'rĭ-as; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Sī'mon Pē'tẽr, and Thŏm'as called Dĭd'ў-mus, and [a]Nă-thăn'ą-el of Cā'nȧ in Găl'ĭ-lee, and [b]the sons of Zĕb'ę-dee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Sī'mon Pē'tẽr saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jē'ṣus stood on the shore: but the disciples [c]knew not that it was Jē'ṣus.

5 Then [d]Jē'ṣus saith unto them, [1]Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, [e]Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore [f]that disciple whom Jē'ṣus loved saith unto Pē'tẽr, It is the Lord. Now when Sī'mon Pē'tẽr heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and [g]did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they [h]saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jē'ṣus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Sī'mon Pē'tẽr went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jē'ṣus saith unto them, [i]Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jē'ṣus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now [j]the third time that Jē'ṣus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jē'ṣus saith to Sī'mon Pē'tẽr, Sī'mon, son of Jō'nas, [k]lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; [l]thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, [m]Feed my lambs.

17 He saith unto him [o]the third time, Sī'mon, son of Jō'nas, lovest thou me? Pē'tẽr was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, [p]thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jē'ṣus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 [q]Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying [r]by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Pē'tẽr, turning about, seeth the disciple [s]whom Jē'ṣus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Pē'tẽr seeing him saith to Jē'ṣus, Lord, and what shall this man do?

22 Jē'ṣus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry [t]till I come, what is [u]that to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jē'ṣus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and [v]we know that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also many other things which Jē'ṣus did, the which, if they should be written every one, [w]I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

THE

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Christ prepares the apostles for the ascension. 9 He is taken up into a cloud. 12 The apostles meet. 26 Matthias chosen.

THE former treatise have I made, [a]O Thē-ŏph'ĭ-lŭs, of all that Jē'ṣus began both to do and teach,

2 [b]Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Hō'lў Ghōst had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 [c]To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And, [1]being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm, but wait for the promise of the Father, [d]which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 [e]For Jŏhn truly baptized with water; [f]but ye shall be baptized with the Hō'lў Ghōst not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time [g]restore again the kingdom to Īṣ'rą-el?

7 And he said unto them, [h]It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ye shall receive [2]power, after that the Hō'lў Ghōst is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm, and in all Jū-dæ'ą, and in Sā-mā'rĭ-ą, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 [i]And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them [j]in white apparel;

11 Which also said, Ye men of Găl'ĭ-lee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jē'ṣus, which is taken up from you into heaven, [k]shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 Then returned they unto Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm from the [l]mount called Ōl'i-vĕt, which is from Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm a [m]sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up [n]into an upper room, where abode both Pē'tĕr, and Jāmes, and Jŏhn, and Ăn'drew, Phĭl'ĭp, and Thŏm'as, Bär-thŏl'ŏ-mew, and Măt'thew, Jāmes the son of Ăl-phæ'us, and [o]Sī'mon Zĕ-lō'tēs, and [p]Jū'das the brother of Jāmes.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with [q]the women, and Mā'rў the mother of Jē'sus, and with [r]his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those days Pē'tĕr stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number [s]of names together were about an hundred and twenty,)

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, [t]which the Hō'lў Ghōst by the mouth of Dā'vid spake before concerning Jū'das, [u]which was guide to them that took Jē'sus.

17 For [v]he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of [w]this ministry.

18 [x]Now this man purchased a field with [y]the reward of iniquity; and [z]falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Ă-çĕl'da-mà, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, [a]Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his [3]bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jē'sus went in and out among us,

22 Beginning from the baptism of Jŏhn, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained [b]to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Jō'seph called Bär'sa-bās, who was surnamed Jŭs'tus, and Măt-thī'as.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, [c]which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen,

25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Jū'das by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their [d]lots; and the lot fell upon Măt-thī'as; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Day of Pentecost. 2 Descent of the Holy Ghost. 14 Peter's sermon. 41 Many are converted. 43 Miracles performed by the apostles.

AND when [a]the day of Pĕn'tē-cŏst was fully come, [b]they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and [c]it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And [d]they were all filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst, and began [e]to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were [f]dwelling at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now [1]when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were [2]confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Găl-ĭ-læ'ans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Pär'thĭ-ans, and Mēdes, and Ē'lăm-ītes, and the dwellers in Mĕs-o-pō-tā'mĭ-à, and in Jū-dæ'à, and [g]Căp-pa-dō'çĭ-à, in Pŏn'tus, and Ā'sĭà,

10 Phrўg'ĭ-à, and Pam-phўl'ĭ-à, in Ē'gўpt, and in the parts of Lĭb'ў-à about Çў-rē'nè, and strangers of Rōme, Jews and [h]proselytes, 11 Crētes and Ă-rā'bĭ-ans, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 [i]Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Pē'tĕr, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Jū-dæ'à, and all ye that dwell at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Jō'el;

17 [j]And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, [k]I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and [l]your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; [m]and they shall prophesy:

19 [n]And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 [o]The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that [p]whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Ĭs'ra-el, hear these words; Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth, a man approved of God among you [q]by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, [r]being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 [s]Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For Dā'vid speaketh concerning him, [t]I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved :

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad ; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope :

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine [u]Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life ; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, [3]let me freely speak unto you [v]of the patriarch Dā'vid, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of [w]the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Chrīst to sit on his throne ;

31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Chrīst, [x]that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Jē'şus hath God raised up, [y]whereof we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore [z]being by the right hand of God exalted, and [a]having received of the Father the promise of the Hō'lў Ghōst, he hath [b]shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For Dā'vid is not ascended into the heavens : but he saith himself, [c]The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Ĭş'ra-el know assuredly, that God [d]hath made that same Jē'şus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Chrīst.

37 ¶ Now when they heard this, [e]they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Pē'tĕr and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do ?

38 Then Pē'tĕr said unto them, [f]Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jē'şus Chrīst for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Hō'lў Ghōst.

39 For the [g]promise is unto you, and [h]to your children, and [i]to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word were baptized : and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 [j]And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul : and [k]many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were together, and [l]had all things common ;

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and [m]parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily with one accord [n]in the temple, and [o]breaking bread [4]from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and [p]having favour with all the people. And [q]the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

CHAPTER 3.

1 A lame man healed. 12 Sermon to the people. 19 Peter exhorts to repentance.

NOW Pē'tĕr and Jŏhn went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, [a]to ask alms of them that entered into the temple ;

3 Who seeing Pē'tĕr and Jŏhn about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Pē'tĕr, fastening his eyes upon him with Jŏhn, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Pē'tĕr said, [b]Silver and gold have I none ; but such as I have give I thee : [c]In the name of Jē'şus Chrīst of Năz'a-rĕth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up : and immediately his feet and ancle bones received strength.

8 And he [d]leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 [e]And all the people saw him walking and praising God :

10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple : and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man which was healed held Pē'tĕr and Jŏhn, all the people ran together unto them in the porch [f]that is called Sŏl'o-mon's, greatly wondering.

12 ¶ And when Pē'tĕr saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Ĭş'ra-el, why marvel ye at this ? or why look ye so earnestly on us, [g]as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk ?

13 [h]The God of Ā'brā-hăm, and of Ī'şaac, and of Jā'cob, the God of our fathers, [i]hath glorified his Son Jē'şus ; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pī'late, when he was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denied [j]the Holy One [k]and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you ;

15 And killed the [1]Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead ; whereof we are witnesses.

16 [l]And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know : yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that [m]through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things, which God before had shewed

[n]by the mouth of all his prophets, that Chrīst should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 ¶ Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And he shall send Jē'şus Chrīst, which before was preached unto you:

21 [o]Whom the heaven must receive until the times of [p]restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Mō'şeş truly said unto the fathers, [q]A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, [r]like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, that every [s]soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Săm'u-el and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 [t]Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Ā'bră-hăm, [u]And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jē'şus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Jewish rulers imprison Peter and John. 5 Session of the council. 21 The apostles are warned and dismissed. 23 The church prays to God.

AND as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the [1]captain of the temple, and the Săd'-du-çeeş, came upon them,

2 [a]Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jē'şus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And [b]Ăn'nas the high priest, and Cā'ia-phăs, and Jŏhn, and Ăl-ĕx-ăn'dĕr, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, [c]By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

8 [d]Then Pē'tĕr, filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Ĭş'ra-el,

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Ĭş'ra-el, [e]that by the name of Jē'şus Chrīst of Năz'a-rĕth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 [f]This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 [g]Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Pē'tĕr and Jŏhn, [h]and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jē'şus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, [i]What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is [j]manifest to all them that dwell in Jĕ-ru'-să-lĕm; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jē'şus.

19 But Pē'tĕr and Jŏhn answered and said unto them, [k]Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 [l]For we cannot but speak the things which [m]we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, [n]because of the people: for all men glorified God for [o]that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, [p]they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they [q]lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, [r]thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

25 Who by the mouth of thy servant Dā'vid hast said, [s]Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Chrīst.

27 For of a truth against [t]thy holy child Jē'şus, [u]whom thou hast anointed, both Hĕr'od, and Pŏn'-tĭ-us Pī'late, with the Gĕn'tīleş, and the people of Ĭş'ra-el, were gathered together, 28 [v]For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, [w]that with all boldness they may speak thy word,

30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; [x]and that signs and wonders may be done [y]by the name of thy holy child Jē'şus.

31 ¶ And when they had prayed, [z]the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed [a]were of one heart and of one soul: [b]neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

33 And with [c]great power gave the apostles [d]witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jē'sus: and [e]great grace was upon them all.

34 [f]Neither was there any among them that lacked: [g]for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: [h]and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Jō'sēs, who by the apostles was surnamed Bär'na-bās, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Lē'vīte, and of the country of Çў'prus, 37 [i]Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Ananias and Sapphira. 14 Increase of faith. 17 Apostles again imprisoned. 19 Delivered by an angel. 27 Trial and dismissal.

BUT a certain man named Ăn-a-nī'as, with Săphī'rà his wife, sold a possession,

2 [a]And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 [b]But Pē'tĕr said, Ān-a-nī'as, why hath [c]Sā'tan filled thine heart [1]to lie to the Hō'lў Ghōst, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ăn-a-nī'as hearing these words [d]fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, [e]wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Pē'tĕr answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Pē'tĕr said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together [f]to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And [g]by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (*h*and they were all with one accord in Sŏl'o-mon's porch.

13 And [i]of the rest durst no man join himself to them: [j]but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick [2]into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, [k]that at the least the shadow of Pē'tĕr passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jĕ-rų'sà-lĕm, bringing [l]sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ [m]Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Săd'du-çees,) and were filled with [3]indignation, 18 [n]And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But [o]the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said,

20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people [p]all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. [q]But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Īs'ra-el, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and [r]the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: [s]for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, [t]Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jĕ-rų'sà-lĕm with your doctrine, [u]and intend to bring this man's [v]blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Pē'tĕr and the other apostles answered and said, [w]We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 The God of our fathers raised up Jē'sus, whom ye slew and [x]hanged on a tree.

31 [y]Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be [z]a Prince and [a]a Saviour, [b]for to give repentance to Īs'ra-el, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And [c]we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Hō'lў Ghōst, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Phär'ĭ-see, named [d]Gā-mā'lĭ-el, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Ĭs'rą-el, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theū'das, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as [4]obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Jū'das of Găl'ĭ-lee in the [e]days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: [f]for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 [g]But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even [h]to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, [i]and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jē'şus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, [j]rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jē'şus Chrīst.

1 The apostles choose helpers. 5 Stephen's zeal and courage. 12 He is accused of blasphemy.

AND in those days, [a]when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the [b]Grē'çĭanş against the Hē'brewş, because their widows were neglected [c]in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, [d]It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, [e]look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Hō'lў Ghōst and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we [f]will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stē'phęn, [g]a man full of faith and of the Hō'lў Ghōst, and [h]Phĭl'ĭp, and Prŏch'o-rus, and Nĭ-cā'nor, and Tī'mon, and Pär'me-năs, and Nĭc'o-lăs a proselyte of Ăn'tĭ-ŏch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and [i]when they had prayed, [j]they laid their hands on them.

7 And [k]the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jĕ-rų'să-lĕm greatly; and a great company [l]of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stē'phęn, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

10 And [m]they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 [n]Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Mō'şeş, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

CHAPTER 7.

1 Stephen before the council. 51 Reprehends the murdering of Christ. 54 He is stoned to death.

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Ā'bră-hăm, when he was in Mĕs-o-pō-tā'mĭ-ą, before he dwelt in Chăr'ran,

3 And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land [a]which I shall shew thee.

4 Then [b]came he out of the land of the Chăl-dæ'anş, and dwelt in Chăr'ran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: [c]yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, [d]That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil [e]four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and [f]serve me in this place.

8 [g]And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: [h]and so Ā'bră-hăm begat Ī'şaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; [i]and Ī'şaac begat Jā'cob; and [j]Jā'cob begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 [k]And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Jō'şeph into Ē'ġўpt: [l]but God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, [m]and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Phā'raōh king of Ē'ġўpt; and he made him governor over Ē'ġўpt and all his house.

11 Now there came a dearth over all the land of Ē'ġўpt and Chā'năan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when Jā'cob heard that there was corn in Ē'ġўpt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the second time Jō'ṣeph was made known to his brethren; and Jō'ṣeph's kindred was made known unto Phā'raōh.

14 [n]Then sent Jō'ṣeph, and called his father Jā'cob to him, and all his kindred, [o]threescore and fifteen souls.

15 So Jā'cob went down into Ē'ġўpt, [p] and died, he, and our fathers,

16 And [q] were carried over into Sў'chem, and laid in [r] the sepulchre that Ā'bră-hăm bought for a sum of money of the sons of Ēm'môr the father of Sў'chem.

17 But when [s] the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Ā'bră-hăm, the people grew and multiplied in Ē'ġўpt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Jō'ṣeph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 [t] In which time Mō'ṣeṣ was born, and [u] was [1]exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And when he was cast out, Phā'raōh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Mō'ṣeṣ was learned in all the wisdom of the Ē-ġўp'tians, and was [v] mighty in words and in deeds.

23 [w] And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Ĭṣ'ra-el.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Ē-ġўp'tian:

25 [2]For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, [x] Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Ē-ġўp'tian yesterday?

29 [y] Then fled Mō'ṣeṣ at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Mā'dĭ-an, where he [z] begat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sī'nȧ [a] an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Mō'ṣeṣ saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him,

32 Saying, [b] I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Ā'bră-hăm, and the God of Ī'ṣaac, and the God of Jā'cob. Then Mō'ṣeṣ trembled, and durst not behold.

33 [c] Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Ē'ġўpt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Ē'ġўpt.

35 This Mō'ṣeṣ whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer [d] by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 [e] He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Ē'ġўpt, and in the Red sea, [f] and in the wilderness forty years.

37 ¶ This is that Mō'ṣeṣ, which said unto the children of Ĭṣ'ra-el, [g] A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, [3]like unto me; [h] him shall ye hear.

38 [i] This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with [j] the angel which spake to him in the mount Sī'nȧ, and with our fathers: [k] who received the lively [l] oracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Ē'ġўpt,

40 [m] Saying unto Aâr'on, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Mō'ṣeṣ, which brought us out of the land of Ē'ġўpt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then [n] God turned, and gave them up to worship [o] the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, [p] O ye house of Ĭṣ'ra-el, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Mō'lŏch, and the star of your god Rĕm'phan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Băb'ў-lon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, [4]speaking unto Mō'ṣeṣ, [q] that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 [r] Which also our fathers [5]that came after brought in with [6]Jē'ṣus into the possession of the Ġĕn'tīleṣ, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of Dā'vid;

46 [s] Who found favour before God, and [t] desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jā'cob.

47 But Sŏl'o-mon built him an house.

48 Howbeit [u] the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet,

49 [v] Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

51 ¶ Ye [w] stiffnecked and [x] uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Hō'lў Ghōst: as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 [y] Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of [z] the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

53 [a] Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Persecution of the church in Jerusalem. 5 Philip preaches in Samaria. 14 Peter and John sent out. 9, 18 Simon the sorcerer. 37 The Ethiopian is baptized.

AND [a]Şaul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm; and [b]they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Jū-dæ'a and Să-mā'rĭ-a, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stē'phen to his burial, and [c]made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Şaul, [d]he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 Therefore [e]they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 Then [f]Phĭl'ĭp went down to the city of Să-mā'rĭ-a, and preached Chrīst unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Phĭl'ĭp spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For [g]unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Sī'mon, which beforetime in the same city [h]used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Să-mā'rĭ-a, [i]giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Phĭl'ĭp preaching the things [j]concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jē'şus Chrīst, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Sī'mon himself [k]believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Phĭl'ĭp, and wondered, beholding the [1]miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm heard that Să-mā'rĭ-a had received the word of God, they sent unto them Pē'tĕr and Jŏhn:

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, [l]that they might receive the Hō'lў Ghōst:

16 (For [m]as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only [n]they were baptized in [o]the name of the Lord Jē'şus.)

17 Then [p]laid they their hands on them, and they received the Hō'lў Ghōst.

18 And when Sī'mon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Hō'lў Ghōst was given, he offered them money,

19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Hō'lў Ghōst.

20 But Pē'tĕr said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because [q]thou hast thought that [r]the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy [s]heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, [t]if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in [u]the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Sī'mon, and said, [v]Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Să-măr'ĭ-tanş.

26 [w]And the angel of the Lord spake unto Phĭl'ĭp, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm unto Gā'za, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, [x]a man of Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-a, an eunuch of great authority under Căn'dā-çē queen of the Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-anş, who had the charge of all her treasure, and [y]had come to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Ē-şā'ias the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Phĭl'ĭp, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Phĭl'ĭp ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Ē-şā'ias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Phĭl'ĭp that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, [z]He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Phĭl'ĭp, and said, I

35 Then Phĭl'ĭp opened his mouth, [a]and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jē'şus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; [b]what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Phĭl'ĭp said, [c]If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, [d]I believe that Jē'şus Chrīst is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Phĭl'ĭp and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, [e]the Spirit of the Lord caught away Phĭl'ĭp, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Phĭl'ĭp was found [f]at Ȧ-zō'tus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Çæs-a-rē'a.

CHAPTER 9.

1 The conversion of Saul. 4 His call. 18 Baptized by Ananias. 20 He preaches boldly. 23 Conspiracy to kill him. 31 Peter's miracles.

AND [a]Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Dă-măs'cus to the synagogues, that if he found any [1]of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm.

3 And [b]as he journeyed, he came near Dă-măs'cus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, [c]why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, [d]Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jē'şus whom thou persecutest: [e]it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, [f]what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And [g]the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Dă-măs'cus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Dă-măs'cus, named Ăn-a-nī'as; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ăn-a-nī'as. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Jū'das for one called Saul, [h]of Tär'sus: for, behold, he prayeth,

12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ăn-a-nī'as coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ăn-a-nī'as answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all [i]that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for [j]he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before [k]the Gĕn'tīles, and [l]kings, and the children of Is'ra-el:

16 For [m]I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 [n]And Ăn-a-nī'as went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jē'şus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and [o]be filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. [p]Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Dă-măs'cus.

20 And straightway he preached Chrīst in the synagogues, [q]that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; [r]Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, [s]and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Dă-măs'cus, proving that this is very Chrīst.

23 ¶ And after that many days were fulfilled, [t]the Jews took counsel to kill him:

24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and [u]let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And [v]when Saul was come to Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 [w]But Bär'na-băs took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Dă-măs'cus in the name of Jē'şus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm.

29 And he spake [x]boldly in the name of the Lord Jē'şus, and disputed against the [y]Grē'çians: [z]but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Çæs-a-rē'a, and sent him forth to Tär'sus.

31 [a]Then had the churches rest throughout all Jū-dæ'a and Găl'ĭ-lee and Să-mā'rĭ-a, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Hō'lў Ghōst, were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Pē'tĕr passed [b]throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lўd'da.

36 ¶ Now there was at Jŏp'pȧ a certain disciple named Tăb'ĭ-thȧ, which by interpretation is called [2]Dôr'cas: this woman was full [f]of good works and almsdeeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in [g]an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lȳd'dȧ was nigh to Jŏp'pȧ, and the disciples had heard that Pē'tĕr was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not [3]delay to come to them.

39 Then Pē'tĕr arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dôr'cas made, while she was with them.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Cornelius sends for Peter. 11 Peter's vision. 23 He goes to Cornelius. 34 His sermon at Cæsarea. 44 The Holy Ghost descends.

2 [a]A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.

3 [b]He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an [c]angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Côr-nē'lĭus.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, [d]Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Jŏp'pȧ, and call for one Sī'mon, whose surname is Pē'tĕr:

6 He lodgeth with one [e]Sī'mon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: [f]he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Côr-nē'lĭus was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Jŏp'pȧ.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Pē'tĕr went up upon the house top to pray about [g]the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

11 And [h]saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Pē'tĕr; kill, and eat.

14 But Pē'tĕr said, Not so, Lord; [i]for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, [j]What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Pē'tĕr doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Côr-nē'lĭus had made enquiry for Sī'mon's house, and stood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Sī'mon, which was surnamed Pē'tĕr, were lodged there.

19 ¶ While Pē'tĕr thought on the vision, [k]the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 [l]Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Pē'tĕr went down to the men which were sent unto him from Côr-nē'lĭus; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Côr-nē'lĭus the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and [m]of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Pē'tĕr went away with them, and certain brethren from Jŏp'pȧ accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Çæs-ą-rē'ȧ. And Côr-nē'lĭus waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Pē'tĕr was coming in, Côr-nē'lĭus met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Pē'tĕr took him up, saying, [n]Stand up; I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how [o]that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but [p]God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, [q]as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Côr-nē'lĭus said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, [r] a man stood before me [s] in bright clothing,

31 And said, Côr-nē'lĭus, [t] thy prayer is heard, [u] and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Jŏp'pȧ, and call hither Sī'mon, whose surname is Pē'tẽr; he is lodged in the house of one Sī'mon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Pē'tẽr opened his mouth, and said, [v] Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 But [w] in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Ĭs'rą̊-el, [x] preaching peace by Jē'sus Chrīst: ([y] he is Lord of all:)

37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Jū-dæ'ȧ, and began from Găl'ĭ-lee, after the baptism which Jŏhn preached;

38 How [z] God anointed Jē'sus of Năz'ą̊-rĕth with the Hō'lў Ghōst and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; [a] for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm; whom they slew and hanged on a tree:

40 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;

41 [b] Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, [c] who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And [d] he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify [e] that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge [f] of quick and dead.

43 [g] To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

44 ¶ While Pē'tẽr yet spake these words, the Hō'lў Ghōst fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Pē'tẽr, because that on the Gĕn'tīles also was poured out the gift of the Hō'lў Ghōst.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Pē'tẽr, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Hō'lў Ghōst as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

2 And when Pē'tẽr was come up to Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm, [b] they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, [c] Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Pē'tẽr rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it [d] by order unto them, saying,

5 [e] I was in the city of Jŏp'pȧ praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Pē'tẽr; slay and eat.

8 But I said, [f] Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Çæs-ą̊-rē'ȧ unto me.

12 And [g] the spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover [h] these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 [i] And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Jŏp'pȧ, and call for Sī'mon, whose surname is Pē'tẽr;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Hō'lў Ghōst fell on them, [j] as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, [k] Jŏhn indeed baptized with water; but [l] ye shall be baptized with the Hō'lў Ghōst.

17 [m] Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst; [n] what was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, [o] Then hath God also to the Gĕn'tīles granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ [p] Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stē'phen travelled as far as Phė-nī'çė, and Çў'prus, and Ăn'tĭ-ŏch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Çў'prus and Çў-rē'nė, which, when they were come to Ăn'tĭ-ŏch, spake unto [q] the Grē'çĭans, [r] preaching the Lord Jē'sus.

21 And [s] the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and [t] turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm: and they sent forth [u] Bär'ną̊-bās, that he should go as far as Ăn'tĭ-ŏch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and [v]exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would [w]cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the Hō'lў Ghōst and of faith: [x]and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Bär'nạ-bās to [y]Tär'sus, for to seek Sạul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Ăn'tĭ-ŏch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves [1]with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Chrĭs'tịanṣ first in Ăn'tĭ-ŏch.

27 ¶ And in these days came [z]prophets from Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm unto Ăn'tĭ-ŏch.

28 And there stood up one of them named [a]Ăg'ă-bŭs, and signified by the spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Clạu'dĭ-us Çæ'ṣar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send [b]relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Jū-dæ'ā:

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the [c]elders by the hands of Bär'nạ-bās and Sạul.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Herod kills James. 4 Peter imprisoned. 7 His escape. 23 Herod's death. 24 Growth of God's word.

NOW about that time Hĕr'od the king [1]stretched forth his hands [a]to vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed Jāmeṣ [b]the brother of Jŏhn with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jewṣ, he proceeded further to take Pē'tĕr also. (Then were [c]the days of unleavened bread.)

4 And [d]when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Pē'tĕr therefore was kept in prison: but [2]prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Hĕr'od would have brought him forth, the same night Pē'tĕr was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, [e]the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Pē'tĕr on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and [f]wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought [g]he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; [h]which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Pē'tĕr was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that [i]the Lord hath sent his angel, and [j]hath delivered me out of the hand of Hĕr'od, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jewṣ.

12 And when he had considered the thing, [k]he came to the house of Mā'rў the mother of [l]Jŏhn, whose surname was Märk; where many were gathered together praying.

13 And as Pē'tĕr knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came [3]to hearken, named Rhō'dȧ.

14 And when she knew Pē'tĕr's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Pē'tĕr stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, [m]It is his angel.

16 But Pē'tĕr continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto Jāmeṣ, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Pē'tĕr.

19 And when Hĕr'od had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Jū-dæ'ā to Çæs-ạ-rē'ȧ, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Hĕr'od [4]was highly displeased with them of Tўre and Sī'dŏn: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blăs'tus [5]the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because [n]their country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day Hĕr'od, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, [o]It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord [p]smote him, because [q]he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But [r]the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And Bär'nạ-bās and Sạul returned from Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm, when they had fulfilled their [6]ministry, and [s]took with them Jŏhn, whose surname was Märk.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Tour of Paul and Barnabas. 8 Elymas the sorcerer. 14 Paul's sermon at Antioch. 42 Gentiles believe. 45 Envy of the Jews.

NOW there were [a]in the church that was at Ăn'tĭ-ŏch certain prophets and teachers; as [b]Bär'nạ-bās, and Sĭm'ẹ-on that was called Nī'ger, and [c]Lụ'çịus of Çў-rē'nē, and Măn'ạ-ĕn, [1]which had been brought up with Hĕr'od the tetrarch, and Sạul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Hō'lў Ghōst said, [d]Separate me Bär'nạ-bās and Sạul for the work [e]whereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

A. D. 45.

4 ¶ So they, being sent forth by the Hō'lў Ghōst, departed unto Sĕ-leū'çī-à; and from thence they sailed to [f]Çў'prus.

5 And when they were at Săl'a-mis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jewş: and they had also [g]Jŏhn to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Pā'phos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bär-jē'şus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sĕr'-ġī-us Paul'us, a prudent man; who called for Bär'-na-bās and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But [h]Ĕl'ў-măs the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then [2]Saul, (who also is called [3]Paul,) filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, [i]thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, [j]the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Pā'phos, they came to Pĕr'gà in Pam-phўl'ĭ-à: and [k]Jŏhn departing from them returned to Jĕ-rū'sà-lĕm.

14 ¶ But when they departed from Pĕr'gà, they came to Ăn'tĭ-ŏch in Pĭ-sĭd'ĭ-à, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And [l]after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have [m]any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Iş'ra-el, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Iş'ra-el chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Ē'ġўpt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of forty years [4]suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chā'năan, he divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Săm'u-el the prophet.

21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Çĭs, a man of the tribe of Bĕn'ja-min, by the space of forty years.

22 And [n]when he had removed him, he raised up unto them Dā'vid to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found Dā'vid the son of Jĕs'se, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

23 [o]Of this man's seed hath God according [p]to his promise raised unto Iş'ra-el [q]a Saviour, Jē'şus:

24 When Jŏhn had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Iş'ra-el.

25 And as Jŏhn fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Ā'bră-hăm, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jĕ-rū'sà-lĕm, and their rulers, [r]because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pī'late that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 [s]But God raised him from the dead:

31 And [t]he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Găl'ĭ-lee to Jĕ-rū'sà-lĕm, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that [u]the promise which was made unto the fathers,

33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jē'şus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, [v]Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure [5]mercies of Dā'vid.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, [w]Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

36 For Dā'vid, [6]after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 ¶ Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that [x]through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

39 And [y]by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Mō'şeş.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in [z]the prophets;

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jewş were gone out of the synagogue, the Ġĕn'tīleş besought that these words might be preached to them the [7]next sabbath.

A. D. 46.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Bär'na-bas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in [a] the grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and [b] spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Bär'na-bas waxed bold, and said, [c] It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but [d] seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gĕn'tiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, [e] I have set thee to be a light of the Gĕn'tiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gĕn'tiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: [f] and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and [g] raised persecution against Paul and Bär'na-bas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 [h] But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto I-cō'nĭ-um.

52 And the disciples [i] were filled with joy, and with the Hō'lў Ghōst.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Persecution of Paul and Barnabas. 8 Paul heals a cripple. 19 Paul is stoned at Lystra. 26 Return to Antioch.

AND it came to pass in I-cō'nĭ-um, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a [a] great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gĕn'tiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, [b] which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gĕn'tiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, [c] to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and [d] fled unto Lўs'trà and Dĕr'bē, cities of Lўc-a-ō'nĭ-à, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ [e] And there sat a certain man at Lўs'trà, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and [f] perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, [g] Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lўc-a-ō'nĭ-à, [h] The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Bär'na-bas, Jū'pĭ-tĕr; and Paul, Mĕr-cū'rĭ-us, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jū'pĭ-tĕr, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, [i] and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Bär'na-bas and Paul, heard of, [j] they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? [k] We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from [l] these vanities [m] unto the living God, [n] which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 [o] Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 [p] Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and [q] gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ [r] And there came thither certain Jews from Ăn'tĭ-ŏch and I-cō'nĭ-um, who persuaded the people, [s] and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he [t] had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Bär'na-bas to Dĕr'bē.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and [1] had taught many, they returned again to Lўs'trà, and to I-cō'nĭ-um, and Ăn'tĭ-ŏch,

22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that [u] we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had [v] ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pĭ-sĭd'ĭ-à, they came to Pam-phўl'ĭ-à.

25 And when they had preached the word in Pĕr'gà, they went down into Āt-tā'lĭ-à:

26 And thence sailed to Ăn'tĭ-ŏch, [w] from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had [x] opened the door of faith unto the Gĕn'tiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

ye be circumcised [c]after the manner of Mō'şeş, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Bär'na-băs had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that [d]Paul and Bär'na-băs, and certain other of them, should go up to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And [e]being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phĕ-nī'çē and Să-mā'rĭ-a, [f]declaring the conversion of the Gĕn'tīleş: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there [1]rose up certain of the sect of the Phăr'ĭ-seeş which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Mō'şeş.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Pē'tĕr rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gĕn'tīleş by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, [g]which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, [h]giving them the Hō'lў Ghōst, even as he did unto us;

9 [i]And put no difference between us and them, [j]purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, [k]to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But [l]we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jē'şus Chrīst we shall be saved, even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Bär'na-băs and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gĕn'tīleş by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, [m]Jāmeş answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

14 Sĭm'ē-on hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gĕn'tīleş, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the [n]words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 [o]After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of Dā'vid, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gĕn'tīleş, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gĕn'tīleş [p]are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain [q]from pollutions of idols, and [r]from fornication, and from things strangled, [s]and from blood.

21 For Mō'şeş of old time hath in every city them that preach him, [t]being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to An'tĭ-ŏch with Paul and Bär'na-băs; namely, Jū'das surnamed [u]Bär'sa-băs, and Sī'las, chief men among the brethren:

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gĕn'tīleş in An'tĭ-ŏch and Sўr'ĭ-a and Çĭ-lĭ'çĭa:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that [v]certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Bär'na-băs and Paul,

26 [w]Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jē'şus Chrīst.

27 We have sent therefore Jū'das and Sī'las, who shall also tell you the same things by [2]mouth.

28 For it seemed good to [x]the Hō'lў Ghōst, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 [y]That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and [z]from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to An'tĭ-ŏch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the [3]consolation.

32 And Jū'das and Sī'las, being [a]prophets also themselves, [b]exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let [c]go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding it pleased Sī'las to abide there still.

35 [d]Paul also and Bär'na-băs continued in An'tĭ-ŏch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after Paul said unto Bär'na-băs, Let us go again and visit our brethren [e]in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Bär'na-băs determined to take with them [f]Jŏhn, whose surname was Märk.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, [g]who departed from them from Pam-phўl'ĭ-a, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Bär'na-băs took Märk, and sailed unto Çў'prus;

40 And Paul chose Sī'las, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Sÿr'ĭ-ȧ and Çĭ-lĭ'çi̇ȧ, confirming the churches.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Timothy is circumcised. 14 Lydia converted. 19 Paul and Silas imprisoned. 36 Their release.

A. D. 53.

THEN came he to [a]Dĕr'bĕ and Lÿs'trȧ: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, [b]named Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jew'ess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:

2 Which [c]was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lÿs'trȧ and Ĭ-cō'nĭ-um.

3 Him would Pa̤ul have to go forth with him; and [d]took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, [e]that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jĕ-ru̇'sa̤-lĕm.

5 And [f]so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrÿg'ĭ-ȧ and the region of Gā-lā'ti̇ȧ, and were forbidden of the Hō'lÿ Ghōst to preach the word in Ā'si̇ȧ,

7 After they were come to Mÿs'i̇ȧ, they assayed to go into Bĭ-thÿn'ĭ-ȧ: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mÿs'i̇ȧ came down to [g]Trō'ăs.

9 And a [h]vision appeared to Pa̤ul in the night; There stood a man of Măç-e̤-dō'nĭ-ȧ, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Măç-e̤-dō'nĭ-ȧ, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go [i]into Măç-e̤-dō'nĭ-ȧ, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Trō'ăs, we came with a straight course to Săm-o̤-thrā'çi̇ȧ, and the next day to Nĕ-ăp'o̤-lis;

12 And from thence to [j]Phĭ-lĭp'pī, which is [1]the chief city of that part of Măç-e̤-dō'nĭ-ȧ, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the [2]sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lÿd'ĭ-ȧ, a seller of purple, of the city of [k]Thў̄-a̤-tī'rȧ, which worshipped God, heard us: whose [l]heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Pa̤ul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be [m]faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And [n]she constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel [o]possessed with a spirit [3]of divination met us, which brought her masters [p]much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Pa̤ul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Pa̤ul, [q]being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jē'su̇s Chrīst to come out of her. [r]And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And [s]when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, [t]they caught Pa̤ul and Sī'las, and [u]drew them into the [4]marketplace unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, [v]do exceedingly trouble our city,

21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Rō'man̤s.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, [w]and commanded to beat them.

23 [x]And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the [y]stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Pa̤ul and Sī'las prayed, and [z]sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 [a]And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately [b]all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Pa̤ul cried with a loud voice, saying, [c]Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Pa̤ul and Sī'las,

30 And brought them out, and said, [d]Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, [e]Believe on the Lord Jē'su̇s Chrīst, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, [f]he set meat before them, and [g]rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Pa̤ul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Pa̤ul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, [h]being Rō'man̤s, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Rō'mans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and [i] desired them to depart out of the city.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Paul's preaching at Thessalonica. 5 The Jews persecute him. 10 He is sent to Berea. 15 At Athens he preaches unknown.

NOW when they had passed through Am-phĭp'o-lis and Ap-ŏl-lō'nĭ-a, they came to Thĕs-sa-lō-nī'ca, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went [a] in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, [b] that Chrīst must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jē'sus, [1] whom I preach unto you, is Chrīst.

4 [c] And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and [d] Sī'las; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of [e] Jā'son, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jā'son and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, [f] These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jā'son hath received: and these all [g] do contrary to the decrees of Cæ'sar, [h] saying that there is another king, one Jē'sus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jā'son, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And [i] the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Sī'las by night unto Bĕ-rē'a: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thĕs-sa-lō-nī'ca, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and [j] searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thĕs-sa-lō-nī'ca had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Bĕ-rē'a, [k] they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 [l] And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Sī'las and Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Ath'ĕns: and [m] receiving a commandment unto Sī'las and Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Ath'ĕns, [n] his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city [2] wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Ep-ĭ-cū-rē'ans, and of the Stō'icks, encountered him. And some said, What will this [3] babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jē'sus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto [4] Ar-ĕ-ŏp'a-gus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Ath-ē'nĭ-ans and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of [5] Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Ath'ĕns, I perceive that in all things ye are [o] too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your [6] devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, [p] TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 [q] God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is [r] Lord of heaven and earth, [s] dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, [t] as though he needed any thing, seeing [u] he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And [v] hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and [w] the bounds of their habitation;

27 [x] That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, [y] though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For [z] in him we live, and move, and have our being; [a] as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, [b] we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And [c] the times of this ignorance God winked at; but [d] now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which [e] he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath [7] given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 [f] Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dī-ŏ-nўs'ius the Ar-ĕ-ŏp'a-gīte, and a woman named Dăm'a-rĭs, and others with them.

CHAPTER 18.

1 Paul goes to Corinth. 3 His occupation. 4 He preaches to the Gentiles. 9 His vision. 12 The judgment of Gallio. 24 Preaching of Apollos.

A. D. 55.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Ath'ens, and came to Cor'inth;

2 And found a certain Jew named [a]A'quil-la, born in Pon'tus, lately come from It'a-ly, with his wife Pris-cil'la; (because that Clau'di-us had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, [b]and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And [c]when Si'las and Ti-mo'the-us were come from Mac-e-do'ni-a, Paul was [d]pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Je'sus was [1]Christ.

6 And [e]when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, [f]he shook his raiment, and said unto them, [g]Your blood be upon your own heads; [h]I am clean: [i]from henceforth I will go unto the Gen'tiles.

7 ¶ And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Jus'tus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 [j]And Cris'pus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Co-rin'thi-ans hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 Then [k]spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 [l]For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

11 And he [2]continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Gal'li-o was the deputy of A-cha'ia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat,

13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gal'li-o said unto the Jews, [m]If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took [n]Sos'the-nes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gal'li-o cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syr'i-a, and with him Pris-cil'la and A'quil-la; having [o]shorn his head in [p]Cen'chre-a: for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Eph'e-sus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;

21 But bade them farewell, saying, [q]I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Je-ru'sa-lem: but I will return again unto you, [r]if God will. And he sailed from Eph'e-sus.

22 And when he had landed at Cæs-a-re'a, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to An'ti-och.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of [s]Ga-la'tia and Phryg'i-a in order, [t]strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ [u]And a certain Jew named A-pol'los, born at Al-ex-an'dri-a, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Eph'e-sus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being [v]fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, [w]knowing only the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when A'quil-la and Pris-cil'la had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into A-cha'ia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, [x]helped them much which had believed through grace:

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publickly, [y]shewing by the scriptures that Je'sus [3][z]was Christ.

CHAPTER 19.

1 Paul at Ephesus. 6 Gift of the Holy Ghost. 11 Special miracles. 24 Uproar of the craftsmen. 35 Address of the town clerk.

AND it came to pass, that, while [a]A-pol'los was at Cor'inth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Eph'e-sus: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Ho'ly Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, [b]We have not so much as heard whether there be any Ho'ly Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, [c]Unto John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, [d]John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Je'sus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized [e]in the name of the Lord Je'sus.

6 And when Paul had [f]laid his hands upon them, the Ho'ly Ghost came on them; and [g]they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 [h]And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things [i]concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But [j]when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil [k]of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Ty-ran'nus.

10 And [l]this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Ā'şiȧ heard the word of the Lord Jē'şus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And [m]God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 [n]So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ [o]Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, [p]took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jē'şus, saying, We adjure you by Jē'şus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sçē'vȧ, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, [q]Jē'şus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ēph'ĕ-sŭs; and [r]fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jē'şus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and [s]confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which [t]used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 [u]So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

21 ¶ [v]After these things were ended, Paul [w]purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Măç-ę-dō'nĭ-ȧ and Ā-chā'ĭȧ, to go to Jĕ-rų'sȧ-lĕm, saying, After I have been there, [x]I must also see Rōme.

22 So he sent into Măç-ę-dō'nĭ-ȧ two of [y]them that ministered unto him, Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs and [z]Ē-răs'tŭs; but he himself stayed in Ā'şiȧ for a season.

23 And [a]the same time there arose no small stir about [b]that way.

24 For a certain man named Dĕ-mē'trĭ-us, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Dĭ-ăn'ȧ, brought [c]no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft [d]we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ēph'ĕ-sŭs, but almost throughout all Ā'şiȧ, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that [e]they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Dĭ-ăn'ȧ should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Ā'şiȧ and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, [f]Great is Dĭ-ăn'ȧ of the Ē-phē'şiąns.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught [g]Gā'ĭus and [h]Ăr-ĭs-tär'chus, men of Măç-ę-dō'nĭ-ȧ, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of [i]Ā'şiȧ, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Ăl-ĕx-ăn'dĕr out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And [j]Ăl-ĕx-ăn'dĕr beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Dĭ-ăn'ȧ of the Ē-phē'şiąns.

35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ēph'ĕ-sŭs, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ē-phē'şiąns is [1]a worshipper of the great goddess Dĭ-ăn'ȧ, and of the image which fell down from Jū'pĭ-tĕr?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Dĕ-mē'trĭ-us, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, [2]the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a [3]lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 [k]And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Paul's further journeys. 7 Celebration of the Lord's supper. 10 Eutychus brought to life. 17 Charge to elders at Miletus. 29 They are warned of false teachers.

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, [a]and departed for to go into Măç-ę-dō'nĭ-ȧ.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greeçe,

3 And there abode three months. And [b]when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Sўr'ĭ-ȧ, he purposed to return through Măç-ę-dō'nĭ-ȧ.

4 And there accompanied him into Ā'şiȧ Sŏp'ą-tĕr of Bĕ-rē'ȧ; and of the Thĕs-są-lō'nĭ-anş, [c]Ăr-ĭs-tär'chus and Sĕ-cŭn'dus; and [d]Gā'ĭus of Dĕr'bĕ, and [e]Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs; and of Ā'şiȧ, [f]Tўch'ĭ-cŭs and [g]Trŏph'ĭ-mŭs.

5 These going before tarried for us at Trō'ăs.

6 And we sailed away from Phĭ-lĭp'pī after [h]the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them [i]to Trō'ăs in five days; where we abode seven days.

A. D. 60.

7 And upon [j]the first day of the week, when the disciples came together [k]to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights [l]in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eū'tў-chus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and [m]fell on him, and embracing him said, [n]Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Ās'sŏs, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Ās'sŏs, we took him in, and came to Mĭt-ў-lē'nē.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chī'os; and the next day we arrived at Sā'mos, and tarried at Trō-ġўl'lĭ-um; and the next day we came to Mī-lē'tus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ēph'ĕ-sŭs, because he would not spend the time in Ā'sịà: for [o]he hasted, if it were possible for him, [p]to be at Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm [q]the day of Pĕn'tę-cŏst.

17 ¶ And from Mī-lē'tus he sent to Ēph'ĕ-sŭs, and [r]called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, [s]from the first day that I came into Ā'sịà, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house,

21 [t]Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, [u]repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

22 And now, behold, [v]I go bound in the spirit unto Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that [w]the Hō'lў Ghōst witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions [1]abide me.

24 But [x]none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, [y]so that I might finish my course with joy, [z]and the ministry, [a]which I have received of the Lord Jē'sus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, [b]I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am [c]pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all [d]the counsel of God.

28 ¶ [e]Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the [f]Hō'lў Ghōst hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, [g]which he hath purchased [h]with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing [i]shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also [j]of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that [k]by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and [l]to the word of his grace, which is able [m]to build you up, and to give you [n]an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 [o]I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, [p]that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have shewed you all things, [q]how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jē'sus, how he said, [r]It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and [s]fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him,

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAPTER 21.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Cō'ŏs, and the day following unto Rhōdes, and from thence unto Păt'ą-rà:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phē-nī'çịà, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Çў'prus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Sўr'ĭ-à, and landed at Tўre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: [a]who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and [b]we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned [c]home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tўre, we came to Ptŏl-ę-mā'is, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cæs-a-rē'a: and we entered into the house of Phĭl'ĭp [d] the evangelist, [e] which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, [f] which did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Jū-dæ'a a certain prophet, named [g] Ag'-ă-bŭs.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Hō'lў Ghōst, [h] So shall the Jews at Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gĕn'tīles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm.

13 Then Paul answered, [i] What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? [j] for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm for the name of the Lord Jē'sus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, [k] The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cæs-a-rē'a, and brought with them one Mnā'son of Cў'prus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 [l] And when we were come to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto [m] Jāmes; and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, [n] he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gĕn'tīles [o] by his ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all [p] zealous of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou [q] teachest all the Jews which are among the Gĕn'tīles to forsake Mō'ses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may [r] shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and [s] keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gĕn'tīles which believe, [t] we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them [u] entered into the temple, [v] to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Ā'sĭa, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and [w] laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Ĭs'ra-el, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city [y] Trŏph'ĭ-mŭs an Ē-phē'sian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm was in an uproar.

32 [z] Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and [a] commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, [b] Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 Art not thou that [1] Ē-gўp'tian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, [c] I am a man which am a Jew of Tär'sus, a city in Çĭ-lī'çia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, [d] suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hē'brew tongue, saying,

CHAPTER 22.

1 Paul's address to the people. 17 Tells of his apostleship. 25 He claims Roman citizenship.

MEN, [a] brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hē'brew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 [b]I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tär'sus, a city in Çĭ-lĭ'çĭą, yet brought up in this city [c]at the feet of [d]Gă-mā'lĭ-el, and taught [e]according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and [f]was zealous toward God, [g]as ye all are this day.

4 [h]And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and [i]all the estate of the elders: [j]from whom also I received letters unto [k]the brethren, and went to Dă-măs'cus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jĕ-rų'să-lĕm, for to be punished.

6 And [l]it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Dă-măs'cus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And [m]they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Dă-măs'cus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Dă-măs'cus.

12 And [n]one Ăn-a-nī'as, a devout man according to the law, [o]having a good report of all the [p]Jews which dwelt there,

13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, [q]The God of our fathers [r]hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and [s]see [t]that Just One, and [u]shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 [v]For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of [w]what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, [x]and wash away thy sins, [y]calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And [z]it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jĕ-rų'să-lĕm, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And saw him saying unto me, [a]Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jĕ-rų'să-lĕm: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, [b]they know that I imprisoned and [c]beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 [d]And when the blood of thy martyr Stē'phen was shed, I also was standing by, and [e]consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: [f]for I will send thee far hence unto the Gĕn'tīles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, [g]Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that [h]he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, [i]Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Rō'man, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Rō'man.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Rō'man? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have [1]examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Rō'man, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and [j]commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

1 Paul before the council. 2 Ananias commands him to be smitten. 12 The conspiracy against Paul. 27 He is sent to Felix.

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, [a]I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ăn-a-nī'as commanded them that stood by him [b]to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and [c]commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, [d]I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, [e]Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Săd'du-çees, and the other Phăr'ĭ-sees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, [f]I am a Phăr'ĭ-see, the son of a Phăr'ĭ-see: [g]of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Phăr'ĭ-sees and the Săd'du-çees: and the multitude was divided.

rection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Phăr'ĭ-sees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Phăr'ĭ-sees' part arose, and strove, saying, [i]We find no evil in this man: but [j]if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, [k]let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And [l]the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, so must thou bear witness also at Rōme.

12 And when it was day, [m]certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves [1][n]under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And [o]when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then [p]Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, [q]The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there [r]lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Çæs-a-rē'a, and horsemen threescore and ten, and [2]spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Fē'lĭx the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Clau'dĭ-us Lȳs'ias unto the most excellent governor Fē'lĭx sendeth greeting.

27 [s]This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Rō'man.

28 [t]And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused [u]of questions of their law, [v]but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and [w]gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to An-tĭp'a-trĭs.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, when they came to [x]Çæs-a-rē'a, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of [y]Çĭ-lĭ'çia;

35 I [z]will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in [a]Hĕr'od's judgment hall.

CHAPTER 24.

1 The charge of Tertullus. 10 Paul's defence. 24 Felix and his wife hear of Christ. 27 Judgment deferred.

AND after [a]five days [b]An-a-nī'as the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tĕr-tŭl'lus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tĕr-tŭl'lus began to accuse him, saying, [c]Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Fē'lĭx, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 [d]For we have found this man [1]a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Năz'a-rēnes:

6 [e]Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would [f]have judged according to our law.

7 [g]But the chief captain Lȳs'ias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 [h]Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years [2]a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm [i]for to worship.

12 [j]And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after [k]the way which they call heresy, so worship I the [l]God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in [m]the law and in the prophets:

15 And [n]have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, [o]that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And [p]herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years [q]I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 [r]Whereupon certain Jews from A'sĭa found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 [s]Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, [t]Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Fē'lix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lys'ias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and [u]that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Fē'lix came with his wife Dru-sĭl'la, which was a Jew'ess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Chrīst.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Fē'lix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that [v]money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Pôr'çĭ-us Fĕs'tus came into Fē'lix' room: and Fē'lix, [w]willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

CHAPTER 25.

2 Paul before Festus. 8 His defence. 11 He appeals to Cæsar. 23 Sent to Agrippa.

NOW when Fĕs'tus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Çæs-a-rē'a to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm.

2 [a]Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, [b]laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Fĕs'tus answered, that Paul should be kept at Çæs-a-rē'a, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, [c]if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them [1]more than ten days, he went down unto Çæs-a-rē'a; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm stood round about, [d]and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, [e]Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Çæ'sar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Fĕs'tus, [f]willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Çæ'sar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 [g]For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. [h]I appeal unto Çæ'sar.

12 Then Fĕs'tus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Çæ'sar? unto Çæ'sar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days king A-grĭp'pa and Bĕr-nī'çē came unto Çæs-a-rē'a to salute Fĕs'tus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Fĕs'tus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, [i]There is a certain man left in bonds by Fē'lix:

15 About whom, when I was at Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Rō'mans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 [j]But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jē'ṣus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because [2]I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jĕ-rū'să-lĕm, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the [3]hearing of Au-gŭs'tus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Çæ'ṣar.

22 Then [k]Ă-grĭp'pa said unto Fĕs'tus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Ă-grĭp'pa was come, and Bĕr-nī'çē, with [l]great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Fĕs'tus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Fĕs'tus said, King Ă-grĭp'pa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jĕ-rū'să-lĕm, and also here, crying that he ought [m]not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that [n]he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Au-gŭs'tus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Ă-grĭp'pa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAPTER 26.

2 Paul's defence before Agrippa. 12 Tells of his conversion. 24 Festus declares him to be mad. 31 Appeal to Rome granted.

THEN Ă-grĭp'pa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, king Ă-grĭp'pa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially because I know thee to be [1][a]expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jĕ-rū'să-lĕm, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after [b]the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Phăr'ĭ-see.

6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of [c]the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise [d]our twelve tribes, instantly serving God [2]day and night, [e]hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Ă-grĭp'pa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should [f]raise the dead?

9 [g]I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jē'ṣus of Năz'a-rĕth.

10 [h]Which thing I also did in Jĕ-rū'să-lĕm: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority [i]from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 [j]And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 [k]Whereupon as I went to Dă-măs'cus with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hē'brew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jē'ṣus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, [l]to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gĕn'tīleṣ, [m]unto whom now I send thee,

18 [n]To open their eyes, and [o]to turn them from darkness to light, and [p]from the power of Sā'tan unto God, [q]that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and [r]inheritance among them which are [s]sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Ă-grĭp'pa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But [t]shewed first unto them of Dă-măs'cus, and at Jĕ-rū'să-lĕm, and throughout all the coasts of Jū-dæ'a, and then to the Gĕn'tīleṣ, that they should repent and turn to God, and do [u]works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes [v]the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those [w]which the prophets and [x]Mō'ṣeṣ did say should come:

23 [y]That Chrīst should suffer, and [z]that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and [a]should shew light unto the people, and to the Gĕn'tīleṣ.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Fĕs'tus said with a loud voice, Paul, [b]thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Fĕs'tus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Ā-grĭp'pȧ, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Ā-grĭp'pȧ said unto Pa̤ul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Chrĭs'tia̤n.

29 And Pa̤ul said, [c]I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bĕr-nī'çē, and they that sat with them;

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, [d]This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Ā-grĭp'pȧ unto Fĕs'tus, This man might have been set at liberty, [e]if he had not appealed unto Çæ'sa̤r.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Paul's voyage to Rome. 41 The shipwreck. 44 The escape to Melita.

AND when [a]it was determined that we should sail into Ĭt'a-lȳ, they delivered Pa̤ul and certain other prisoners unto one named Jū'lia̤us, a centurion of A̤u-gŭs'tus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Ăd-ra̤-mȳt'tĭ-um, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Ā'sia̤; one [b]Ăr-ĭs-tär'chus, a Măç-e̤-dō'nĭ-an of Thĕs-sa̤-lō-nī'cȧ, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sī'dŏn. And Jū'lia̤us [c]courteously entreated Pa̤ul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Çȳ'prus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Çĭ-lĭ'çia̤ and Pam-phȳl'ĭ-ȧ, we came to Mȳ'rȧ, a city of Lȳ'çia̤.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Ăl-ĕx-ăn'drĭ-ȧ sailing into Ĭt'a-lȳ; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnī'dus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under [1]Crēte, over against Săl-mō'ne̤;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lă-sē'ȧ.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because [2]the fast was now already past, Pa̤ul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with [3]hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Pa̤ul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain [4][d]to Phē-nī'çē, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crēte, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crēte.

14 But not long after there [5]arose against it a tempestuous wind, called [6]Eū-rŏc'lȳ-don.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Cla̤u'dȧ, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day [e]we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence Pa̤ul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crēte, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 [f]For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and [g]whom I serve,

24 Saying, [h]Fear not, Pa̤ul; thou must be brought [i]before Çæ'sa̤r: and, lo, God hath [j]given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: [k]for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit [l]we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Ā'drĭ-ȧ, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

31 Pa̤ul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Pa̤ul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for [m]there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread,

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen [o]souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and [p]cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had [7]taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, [q]they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel [r]was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, [s]willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped [t]all safe to land.

2 And the [b]barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No [c]doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and [d]felt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and [e]said that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Pŭb'lĭ-us; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Pŭb'lĭ-us lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and [f]prayed, and [g]laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many [h]honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Al-ĕx-ăn'drĭ-a, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Căs'tŏr and Pŏl'lux.

12 And landing at Syr'a-cūse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhē'gĭ-um: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Pū-tē'o-lī:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rōme.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Ăp'pĭ-ī fō'rŭm, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rōme, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but [i]Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, [j]though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I [k]delivered prisoner from Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm into the hands of the Rō'mans.

18 Who, [l]when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, [m]I was constrained to appeal unto Cæ'sar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that [n]for the hope of Is'ra-el I am bound with [o]this chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Jū-dæ'a concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where [p]it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; [q]to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jē'sus, [r]both out of the law of Mō'ses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And [s]some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Hō'lў Ghōst by Ē-sā'ias the prophet unto our fathers,

26 Saying, [t]Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

27 [u]For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent [v]unto the Gĕn'tīleṣ, and that they will hear it.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's interest in the Romans. 10 His desire to visit them. 18 God angry with sin. 21 Sins of the Gentiles.

A. D. 60.

PAUL, a servant of Jē'ṣus Chrīst, [a]called to be an apostle, [b]separated unto the gospel of God,

2 ([c]Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

3 Concerning his Son Jē'ṣus Chrīst our Lord, which was made of the seed of Dā'vid according to the flesh;

4 And [1]declared to be the Son of God with power, according [d]to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

5 By whom [e]we have received grace and apostleship, [2]for obedience to the faith among all nations, [f]for his name:

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jē'ṣus Chrīst:

7 To all that be in Rōme, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst.

8 First, [g]I thank my God through Jē'ṣus Chrīst for you all, that [h]your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For God is my witness, whom I serve [3]with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey [i]by the will of God to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that [j]I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together [4]with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that [k]oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but [l]was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit [5]among you also, even as among other Gĕn'tīleṣ.

14 [m]I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Bär-bā'rĭ-ans; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rōme also.

16 For [n]I am not ashamed of the gospel of Chrīst: for [o]it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For [p]therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, [q]The just shall live by faith.

18 [r]For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, [s]who hold the truth in unrighteousness;

19 Because [t]that which may be known of God is manifest [6]in them; for [u]God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For [v]the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; [7]so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, [w]neither were thankful; but [x]became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 [y]Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible [z]God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

24 [a]Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, [b]to dishonour their own bodies [c]between themselves:

25 Who changed [d]the truth of God [e]into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature [8]more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto [f]vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like [9]to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to [10]a reprobate mind, to do those things [g]which are not convenient;

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but [12]have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAPTER 2.

1 God's judgment is impartial. 9 The law is for Jew and Gentile.

THEREFORE thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.
2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is [a]according to truth against them which commit such things.
3 And [b]thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?
4 Or despisest thou [c]the riches of his goodness and forbearance and [d]longsuffering; [e]not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?
5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart [f]treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;
6 [g]Who will render to every man according to his deeds:
7 [h]To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:
8 But [i]unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,
9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew [j]first, and also of the [1]Gĕn'tīle;
10 [k]But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the [2]Gĕn'tīle:
11 For there is [l]no respect of persons with God.
12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;
13 (For [m]not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.
14 For when the Gĕn'tīleş, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:
15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, [3]their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts [4]the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)
16 [n]In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men [o]by Jē'şus Chrīst according to my gospel.
17 Behold, [p]thou art called a Jew, and [q]restest in the law, [r]and makest thy boast of God,
18 And [s]knowest his will, and [5]approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;
19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,
20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, [t]which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.
21 [u]Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?
22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, [v]dost thou commit sacrilege?
23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?
24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gĕn'tīleş through you, as it is [w]written.
25 [x]For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.
26 Therefore [y]if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?
27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, [z]judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?
28 For [a]he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:
29 But he is a Jew, [b]which is one inwardly; and [c]circumcision is that of the heart, [d]in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The Jews' prerogative. 20 Flesh not justified by law. 28 All justified by faith.

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?
2 Much every way: chiefly, because that [a]unto them were committed the oracles of God.
3 For what if [b]some did not believe? [c]shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?
4 [d]God forbid: yea, let [e]God be true, but [f]every man a liar; as it is written, [g]That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.
5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? ([h]I speak as a man)
6 God forbid: for then [i]how shall God judge the world?
7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?
8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) [j]Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.
9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before [1k]proved both Jews and Gĕn'tīleş, that [l]they are all under sin;
10 As it is written, [m]There is none righteous, no, not one:
11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.
12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 [n]Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; [o]the poison of asps is under their lips:
14 [p]Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:
15 [q]Their feet are swift to shed blood:
16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:
17 And the way of peace have they not known:
18 [r]There is no fear of God before their eyes.
19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that [s]every mouth may be stopped, and [t]all the world may become [2]guilty before God.
20 Therefore [u]by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for [v]by the law is the knowledge of sin.
21 But now [w]the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law [x]and the prophets;
22 Even the righteousness of God which is [y]by faith of Jē'sus Chrīst unto all and upon all them that believe: for [z]there is no difference:
23 For [a]all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;
24 Being justified freely [b]by his grace through the redemption that is in Chrīst Jē'sus:
25 Whom God hath [3]set forth [c]to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the [4]remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;
26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jē'sus.
27 [d]Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.
28 Therefore we conclude [e]that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.
29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gĕn'tīles? Yes, of the Gĕn'tīles also:
30 Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Abraham justified by faith. 13 The promise made through faith. 24 Our faith shall be imputed to us for righteousness.

WHAT shall we say then that Ā'bră-hăm our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?
2 For if Ā'bră-hăm were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.
3 For what saith the scripture? [a]Ā'bră-hăm believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.
4 Now [b]to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.
5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth [c]the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
6 Even as Dā'vid also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God [d]imputeth righteousness without works,
7 Saying, [e]Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.
9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Ā'bră-hăm for righteousness.
10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.
11 And [f]he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that [g]he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:
12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Ā'bră-hăm, which he had being yet uncircumcised.
13 For the promise, that he should be the [h]heir of the world, was not to Ā'bră-hăm, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.
14 For [i]if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:
15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.
16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be [j]by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Ā'bră-hăm; [k]who is the father of us all,
17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) [1]before him whom he believed, even God, [l]who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those [m]things which be not as though they were.
18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, [n]So shall thy seed be.
19 And being not weak in faith, [o]he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sā'rah's womb:
20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;
21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.
22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.
23 Now [p]it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;
24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe [q]on him that raised up Jē'sus our Lord from the dead;
25 [r]Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Justification by faith. 12 Sin through Adam. 17 Life through Christ.

THEREFORE being justified by faith, we have [a]peace with God through our Lord Jē'ŝus Chrīst:

2 [b]By whom also we have access by faith into this grace [c]wherein we stand, [d]and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but [e]we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

5 [f]And hope maketh not ashamed; [g]because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Hō'lў Ghōst which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, [1]in due time Chrīst died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But [h]God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Chrīst died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified [i]by his blood, we shall be saved [j]from wrath through him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, [k]we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved [l]by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jē'ŝus Chrīst, by whom we have now received the [2]atonement.

12 Wherefore, as [m]by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, [3]for that all have sinned:

13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but [n]sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Ăd'ăm to Mō'ŝeŝ, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Ăd'ăm's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jē'ŝus Chrīst, hath abounded [o]unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if [4]by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jē'ŝus Chrīst.)

18 Therefore as [5]by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so [6]by the righteousness of one the free gift came [p]upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover [q]the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much [r]more abound:

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jē'ŝus Chrīst our Lord.

CHAPTER 6.

1 We may not live in sin. 12 Let not sin reign. 23 Death the wages of sin.

WHAT shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we, that are [a]dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that [b]so many of us as [1]were baptized into Jē'ŝus Chrīst [c]were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are [d]buried with him by baptism into death: that [e]like as Chrīst was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, [f]even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 [g]For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that [h]our old man is crucified with him, that [i]the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is [2]freed from sin.

8 Now [j]if we be dead with Chrīst, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that [k]Chrīst being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but [l]alive unto God through Jē'ŝus Chrīst our Lord.

12 [m]Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your members as [3]instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For [n]sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, [o]because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine [4]which was delivered you.

18 Being then [p]made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free [5]from righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For [q]the wages of sin is death; but [r]the gift of God is eternal life through Jē'ṣus Chrīst our Lord.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Limit of the law. 12 It is holy and just.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For [a]the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then [b]if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become [c]dead to the law by the body of Chrīst; that ye should be [d]married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the [1]motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members [e]to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, [2]that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve [f]in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, [g]I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known [3]lust, except the law had said, [h]Thou shalt not covet.

8 But [i]sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For [j]without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, [k]which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore [l]the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, [m]sold under sin.

15 For that which I do I [4]allow not: for [n]what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that [o]in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I [p]delight in the law of God after [q]the inward man:

23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from [5]the body of this death?

25 I thank God through Jē'ṣus Chrīst our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER 8.

1 The law of the Spirit. 17 God's children. 26 The Spirit helps infirmity. 28 The Christian's hope.

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Chrīst Jē'ṣus, who [a]walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For [b]the law of [c]the Spirit of life in Chrīst Jē'ṣus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For [d]what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and [1]for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit [e]the things of the Spirit.

6 For [2]to be carnally minded is death; but [3]to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because [4]the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that [f]the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not [g]the Spirit of Chrīst, he is none of his.

10 And if Chrīst be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jē'ṣus from the dead dwell in you, [h]he that raised up Chrīst from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies [5]by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For [i]if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For [j] ye have not received the spirit of bondage again [k] to fear; but ye have received the [l] Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Ăb'bȧ, Father.

16 [m] The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; [n] heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Chrīst; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that [o] the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For [p] the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the [q] manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For [r] the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope,

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that [6] the whole creation [s] groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have [t] the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, [u] waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope: but [v] hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for [w] we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but [x] the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And [y] he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, [7] because he maketh intercession for the saints [z] according to the will of God.

28 And we know that [a] all things work together for good to them that love God, to them [b] who are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom [c] he did foreknow, [d] he also did predestinate [e] to be conformed to the image of his Son, [f] that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also [g] called: and whom he called, them he also justified: [h] and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? [i] It is God that justifieth.

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Chrīst that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, [j] who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Chrīst? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

CHAPTER 9.

1 Paul's sorrow for the Jews. 14 The sovereignty of God. 18 Mercy upon whom he will. 24 On the calling of Jew and Gentile.

I SAY the truth in Chrīst, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Hō'lў Ghōst,

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For [a] I could wish that myself were [1] accursed from Chrīst for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 [b] Who are Ĭs'ra-el-ītes; [c] to whom pertaineth the adoption, and [d] the glory, and the [2] covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and [e] the promises;

5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Chrīst came, [f] who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For [g] they are not all Ĭs'ra-el, which are of Ĭs'ra-el:

7 [h] Neither, because they are the seed of Ā'brăhăm, are they all children: but, In [i] Ī'saac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, [j] At this time will I come, and Sā'rah shall have a son.

10 And not only this; but when [k] Rĕ-bĕc'cȧ also had conceived by one, even by our father Ī'saac;

11 (For the children being [l] not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;)

12 It was said unto her, The [3] elder shall serve the [4] younger.

13 As it is written, [m] Jā'cob have I loved, but Ē'sau have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? [n] Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Mō'sĕs, [o] I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 [p] So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For the scripture saith unto Phā'raōh, [q] Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For [r]who hath resisted his will?
20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that [5s]repliest against God? [t]Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?
21 Hath not the [u]potter power over the clay; of the same lump to make [v]one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?
22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering [w]the vessels of wrath [6]fitted to destruction:
23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory,
24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gĕn'tīles?
25 As he saith also in Ō'see, [x]I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.
26 [y]And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.
27 Ē-sā'ĭas also crieth concerning Ĭs'rā-el, [z]Though the number of the children of Ĭs'rā-el be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:
28 For he will finish [7]the work, and cut it short in righteousness: [a]because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.
29 And as Ē-sā'ĭas said before, [b]Except the Lord of Săb'ā-ŏth had left us a seed, [c]we had been as Sŏd'om-à, and been made like unto Gŏ-mŏr'rhà.
30 What shall we say then? That the Gĕn'tīles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.
31 But Ĭs'rā-el, which followed after the law of righteousness, [d]hath not attained to the law of righteousness.
32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For [e]they stumbled at that stumblingstone;
33 As it is written, [f]Behold, I lay in Sī'ŏn a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be [8]ashamed.

CHAPTER 10.

5 Of the law and faith. 11 Salvation is open to all believers.

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Ĭs'rā-el is, that they might be saved.
2 For I bear them record [a]that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.
3 For they being ignorant of [b]God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own [c]righteousness, have not [d]submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.
4 For [e]Chrīst is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.
5 For Mō'sĕs describeth the righteousness which is of the law, [f]That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, [g]Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring [h]Chrīst down from above:)
7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to [i]bring up Chrīst again from the dead.)
8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;
9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jē'sus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.
10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
11 For the scripture saith, [j]Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.
12 For [k]there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for [l]the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.
13 [n]For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.
14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without [o]a preacher?
15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, [p]How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!
16 But [q]they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Ē-sā'ĭas saith, [r]Lord, who hath believed [1]our [2]report?
17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.
18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, [s]their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.
19 But I say, Did not Ĭs'rā-el know? First Mō'sĕs saith, [t]I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a [u]foolish nation I will anger you.
20 But Ē-sā'ĭas is very bold, and saith, [v]I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.
21 But to Ĭs'rā-el he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Israel not cast off. 18 Gentiles may not boast. 26 Hope of Israel's conversion. 33 God's judgments.

I SAY then, [a]Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For [b]I also am an Ĭs'rā-el-īte, of the seed of Ā'brā-hăm, of the tribe of Bĕn'jā-min.
2 God hath not cast away his people which [c]he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith [1]of Ē-lī'as? how he maketh intercession to God against Ĭs'rā-el, saying,
3 [d]Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

A. D. 60.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Bā'al.
5 [e]Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.
6 And [f]if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.
7 What then? [g]Ĭṣ'ra-el hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the [h]election hath obtained it, and the rest were [2i]blinded
8 (According as it is written, [j]God hath given them the spirit of [3]slumber, [k]eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.
9 And Dā'vid saith, [l]Let their table be made a snare and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:
10 [m]Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.
11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather [n]through their fall salvation is come unto the Gĕn'tīleṣ, for to provoke them to jealousy.
12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the [4]diminishing of them the riches of the Gĕn'tīleṣ; how much more their [o]fulness?
13 For I speak to you Gĕn'tīleṣ, inasmuch as [p]I am the apostle of the Gĕn'tīleṣ, I magnify mine office:
14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and [q]might save some of them.
15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?
16 For if [r]the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.
17 And if [s]some of the branches be broken off, [t]and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert graffed in [5]among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;
18 [u]Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.
19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.
20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. [v]Be not highminded, but [w]fear:
21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.
22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, [x]if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise [y]thou also shalt be cut off.
23 And they also, [z]if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again.
24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be graffed into their own olive tree?
25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that [6]blindness in part is happened to Ĭṣ'ra-el, [a]until the fulness of the Gĕn'tīleṣ be come in.
26 And so [b]all Ĭṣ'ra-el shall be saved: as it is written, [c]There shall come out of Sī'ŏn the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jā'cob:
27 [d]For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.
28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are [e]beloved for the fathers' sakes.
29 For the gifts and calling of God are [f]without repentance.
30 For as ye in times past have not [7]believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:
31 Even so have these also now not [8]believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.
32 For God hath [9]concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.
33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!
34 [g]For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?
35 Or [h]who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?
36 For [i]of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: [j]to [10]whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Of God's mercies. 6 Attention to one's calling. 9 On love and other duties. 19 Revenge forbidden.

I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye [a]present your bodies [b]a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.
2 And [c]be not conformed to this world: but [d]be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may [e]prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.
3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think [1]soberly, according as God hath dealt [f]to every man the measure of faith.
4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:
5 So [g]we, being many, are one body in Chrīst, and every one members one of another.
6 [h]Having then gifts differing [i]according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;
7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or [j]he that teacheth, on teaching;
8 Or [k]he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that [2]giveth, let him do it [3]with simplicity; [l]he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without dissimulation. [m]Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 Be kindly affectioned one to another [4]with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;

11 Not slothful in business; [n]fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 [o]Rejoicing in hope; [p]patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;

13 [q]Distributing to the necessity of saints; [r]given to hospitality.

14 [s]Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but [5]condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, [t]Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 [u]Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 [v]Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Of duties to rulers. 8 Love the fulfilment of the law. 11 Works of darkness.

LET every soul [a]be subject unto the higher powers. For [b]there is no power but of God: the powers that be are [1]ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 [c]For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? [d]do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore [e]ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 [f]Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; [g]fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for [h]he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, [i]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

6 according to charity.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time [j]to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and [k]let us put on the armour of light.

13 [l]Let us walk [2]honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, [m]not in strife and envying.

14 But [n]put ye on the Lord Jē'şus Chrīst, and [o]make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAPTER 14.

1 On judging one another. 13 Take heed against giving offence.

HIM that [a]is weak in the faith receive ye, but [1]not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he [b]may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and [c]let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 [d]Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

5 [e]One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be [2]fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that [3]regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for [f]he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For [g]none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For [h]to this end Chrīst both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be [i]Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for [j]we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Chrīst.

11 For it is written, [k]As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then [l]every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that [m]no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jē'şus, [n]that there is nothing [4]unclean of itself: but [o]to him that esteemeth any thing to be [5]unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not [6]charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Chrīst died.

16 [p]Let not then your good be evil spoken of:
17 [q]For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Hō'lў Ghōst.
18 For he that in these things serveth Chrīst [r]is acceptable to God, and approved of men.
19 [s]Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith [t]one may edify another.
20 For meat destroy not the work of God. [u]All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.
21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.
22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.
23 And he that [7]doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for [v]whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER 15.

1 Patience with one another. 3 Christ the exemplar. 28 A promise to visit Spain.

WE [a]then that are strong ought to bear the [b]infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.
2 [c]Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good [d]to edification.
3 For even Chrīst pleased not himself; but, as it is written, [e]The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.
4 For [f]whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.
5 [g]Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another [1]according to Chrīst Jē'sus:
6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.
7 Wherefore receive ye one another, [h]as Chrīst also received us to the glory of God.
8 Now I say that [i]Jē'sus Chrīst was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, [j]to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:
9 And [k]that the Gĕn'tīles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, [l]For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gĕn'tīles, and sing unto thy name.
10 And again he saith, [m]Rejoice, ye Gĕn'tīles, with his people.
11 And again, [n]Praise the Lord, all ye Gĕn'tīles; and laud him, all ye people.
12 And again, Ē-sā'ĭas saith, [o]There shall be a root of Jĕs'se, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gĕn'tīles; in him shall the Gĕn'tīles trust.
13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Hō'lў Ghōst.
14 And [p]I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, [q]filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.
15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, [r]because of the grace that is given to me of God,
16 That [s]I should be the minister of Jē'sus Chrīst to the Gĕn'tīles, ministering the gospel of God, that the [2]offering up of the Gĕn'tīles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Hō'lў Ghōst.
17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jē'sus Chrīst in [t]those things which pertain to God.
18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things [u]which Chrīst hath not wrought by me, [v]to make the Gĕn'tīles obedient, by word and deed,
19 [w]Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, and round about unto Ĭl-lўr'ĭ-cŭm, I have fully preached the gospel of Chrīst.
20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Chrīst was named, [x]lest I should build upon another man's foundation:
21 But as it is written, [y]To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.
22 For which cause also [z]I have been [3]much hindered from coming to you.
23 But now having no more place in these parts, and [a]having a great desire these many years to come unto you;
24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spāin, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, [b]and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled [4]with your company.
25 But now [c]I go unto Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm to minister unto the saints.
26 For [d]it hath pleased them of Măç-ĕ-dō'nĭ-ā and Ā-chā'ĭā to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm.
27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gĕn'tīles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, [e]their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.
28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them [f]this fruit, I will come by you into Spāin.
29 [g]And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the [h]fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Chrīst.
30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst's sake, and [i]for the love of the Spirit, [j]that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;
31 [k]That I may be delivered from them that [5]do not believe in Jū-dæ'ā; and that my service which I have for Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm may be accepted of the saints;
32 That I may come unto you with joy [l]by the will of God, and may with you be [m]refreshed.
33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Paul's concluding advice. 3 Salutations. 17 Exhortation to unity.

A. D. 60.

I COMMEND unto you Phē'bĕ our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at [a]Çĕn'chrĕ-à:

2 [b]That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet [c]Prĭs-çĭl'là and Ā'quĭ-là my helpers in Chrīst Jē'ṣus:

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gĕn'tīleṣ.

5 Likewise greet [d]the church that is in their house. Salute my wellbeloved Ē-pæn'ĕ-tus, who is [e]the firstfruits of Ā-chā'ịà unto Chrīst.

6 Greet Mā'rў, who [f]bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute Ăn-drō-nī'cus and Jū'nịà, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also [g]were in Chrīst before me.

8 Greet Ăm'plĭ-as my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Ûr'bane, our helper in Chrīst, and Stā'chўs my beloved.

10 Salute Ā-pĕl'lēṣ approved in Chrīst. Salute them which are of Ăr-ĭs-tŏ-bū'lus' [1]household.

11 Salute Hĕ-rō'dĭ-on my kinsman. Greet them that be of the [2]household of När-çĭs'sus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Trȳ-phē'nà and Trȳ-phō'sà, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Pĕr'sis, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rụ'fus [h]chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute Ā-sўn'crĭ-tus, Phlē'gon, Hĕr'mas, Păt'rọ-bās, Hĕr'mēṣ, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Phĭ-lŏl'ọ-gus, and Jū'lịà, Nē're-us, and his sister, and Ō-lўm'pas, and all the saints which are with them.

16 [i]Salute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Chrīst salute you.

17 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them [j]which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and [k]avoid them.

18 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst, but [l]their own belly; and [m]by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

19 For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you [n]wise unto that which is good, and [3]simple concerning evil.

20 And the God of peace shall [4]bruise Sā'tan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst be with you. Amen.

21 [o]Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs my workfellow, and [p]Lụ'çius, and [q]Jā'sọn, and [r]Sō-sĭp'ạ-tĕr, my kinsmen, salute you.

22 I Tĕr'tịus, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23 Gā'ịus [s]mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. [t]Ē-răs'tus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, and Quär'tus a brother.

24 [u]The grace of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst be with you all. Amen.

25 Now to him that is of power to stablish you [v]according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jē'ṣus Chrīst, [w]according to the revelation of the mystery, [x]which was kept secret since the world began,

26 But [y]now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith:

27 To God only wise, be glory through Jē'ṣus Chrīst for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The greeting. 10 Exhortation to unity. 18 On preaching of the cross.

A. D. 59.

PAUL, called to be an apostle of Jē'ṣus Chrīst through the will of God, and [a]Sŏs'the-nēṣ our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Cŏr'inth, to them that [b]are sanctified in Chrīst Jē'ṣus, [c]called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jē'ṣus Chrīst [d]our Lord, [e]both theirs and ours:

3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jē'ṣus Chrīst;

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, [f]in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as [g]the testimony of Chrīst was confirmed in you:

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the [1]coming of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst:

8 [h]Who shall also confirm you unto the end, [i]that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst.

9 [j]God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto [k]the fellowship of his Son Jē'ṣus Chrīst our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no [2]divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chlō'ē, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, [l]that every one of you saith, I am of Pạul; and I of [m]Ā-pŏl'lŏs; and I of [n]Çē'phas; and I of Chrīst.

13 [o]Is Chrīst divided? was Pạul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Pạul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but [p]Crĭs'pus [q]and Gā'ịus;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of [r]Stĕph'anăs: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 [s]For Chrīst sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of [3]words, lest the cross of Chrīst should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to [t]them that perish [u]foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the [v]power of God.

19 For it is written, [w]I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 [x]Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath [y]not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 [z]For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the [a]Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach Chrīst crucified, [b]unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Chrīst [c]the power of God, and [d]the wisdom of God.

25 [e]Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that [f]not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

27 But [g]God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and [h]things which are not, [i]to bring to nought things that are:

29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Chrīst Jē'sus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

31 That, according as it is written, [j]He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Paul's method of preaching. 6 Wisdom. 11 The spiritual man addressed.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, [a]came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, [b]save Jē'sus Chrīst, and him crucified.

3 And [c]I was with you [d]in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching [e]was not with [1]enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

5 That your faith should not [2]stand in the wisdom of men, but [f]in the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them [g]that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, [h]which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 [i]Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, [j]Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But [k]God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, [l]save the spirit of man which is in him? [m]even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but [n]the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 [o]Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Hō'lў Ghōst teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 [p]But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: [q]neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 [r]But he that is spiritual [3]judgeth all things, yet he himself is [4]judged of no man.

16 [s]For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he [5]may instruct him? [t]But we have the mind of Chrīst.

CHAPTER 3.

2 Milk is fit for children. 11 Christ the only foundation. 16 Men are the temples of God.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Chrīst.

2 I have fed you with [a]milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and [1]divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk [2]as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Ā-pŏl'lŏs; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Ā-pŏl'lŏs, but ministers by whom ye believed, [b]even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 [c]I have planted, [d]Ā-pŏl'lŏs watered; but God [e]gave the increase.

7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: [f]and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For [g]we are labourers together with God: ye are God's [3]husbandry, ye are [h]God's building.

A. D. 59.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid [i]the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But [j]let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than [k]that is laid, which is Jē'ṣus Chrīst.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day [l]shall declare it, because it [4]shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; [m]yet so as by fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man [5]defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the [n]temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, [o]He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, [p]The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For [q]all things are yours;

22 Whether Pa̤ul, or Ā-pŏl'lŏs, or Çē'phas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

23 And [r]ye are Chrīst's; [s]and Chrīst is God's.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Of ministers and stewards. 10 Hardships of the apostles.

LET a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Chrīst, [a]and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's [1]judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 [b]Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and [c]then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Ā-pŏl'lŏs for your sakes; [d]that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who [2]maketh thee to differ from another? and [e]what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, [f]now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us [3]the apostles last, [g]as it were appointed to death: for [h]we are made a [4]spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are [i]fools for Chrīst's sake, but ye are wise in Chrīst; [j]we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are [k]buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

12 [l]And labour, working with our own hands: [m]being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Chrīst, yet have ye not many fathers: for [n]in Chrīst Jē'ṣus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, [o]be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you Tī-mō'the-ŭs, [p]who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Chrīst, as I teach every where in every church.

18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 [q]But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For [r]the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

CHAPTER 5.

1 The shame of fornication. 7 The old leaven to be purged out.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as [a]named among the Ġĕn'tīleṣ, [b]that one should have his [c]father's wife.

2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 [d]For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have [1]judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

4 In the name of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, [e]with the power of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst,

5 [f]To deliver such an one unto Sā'tan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jē'ṣus.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, [n]if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one [o]no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge [p]them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?

CHAPTER 6.

1 Against going to law. 9 Against sensuality. 19 Our bodies are temples of the Holy Ghost.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that [a]the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall [b]judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. [c]Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, [d]and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that [e]the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were some of you: [f]but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jē'şus, and by the Spirit of our God.

14 And [j]God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us [k]by his own power.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Chrīst? shall I then take the members of Chrīst, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for [l]two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 [m]But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

CHAPTER 7.

2 Of marriage. 3 Husband and wife. 35 Marrying and abstaining.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, [a]to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 [b]Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that [c]Sā'tan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, [d]and not of commandment.

7 For [e]I would that all men were [f]even as I myself. But [g]every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, [h]It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But [i]if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, [j]Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that

A. D. 59.

believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else [k] were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us [1]to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt [l]save thy husband? or [2]how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And [m] so ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? [n]let him not be circumcised.

19 [o]Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but [p]the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 [q]Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 [r]Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be [s]made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's [3]freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is [t]Chrīst's servant.

23 [u] Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins [v]I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one [w] that hath obtained mercy of the Lord [x] to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present [4]distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But [y] this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not [z]abusing it: for [a]the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. [b]He that is unmarried careth for the things [5]that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman [c] careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 [d]So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 [e]The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Of idolatrous meats. 8 On Christian liberty.

NOW [a]as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have [b]knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And [c]if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, [d]the same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that [e]an idol is nothing in the world, [f]and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are [g]called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

6 But [h]to us there is but one God, the Father, [i]of whom are all things, and we [1]in him; and [j]one Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst, [k]by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, [2]are we the better; neither, if we eat not, [3]are we the worse.

9 But take heed lest by any means this [4]liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be [5]emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Chrīst died?

13 Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Paul's individual liberty. 17 His recompence for ministry.

[a]AM I not an apostle? am I not free? have [b]I not seen Jē'şus Chrīst our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for [c]the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,

4 [d]Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a [1]wife, as well as other apostles, and as [e]the brethren of the Lord, and [f]Çē'phas?

6 Or I only and Bär'na-bās, [g]have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who [h]goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who [i]planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who [j]feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Mō'şeş, [k]Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that [l]he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 [m]If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? [n]Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Chrīst.

13 [o]Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things [2]live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so [p]hath the Lord ordained [q]that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, [r]a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Chrīst without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Against lust and idolatry. 24 Of regard for brethren. 31 Do all for God's glory.

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under [a]the cloud, and all passed through [b]the sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Mō'şeş in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same [c]spiritual meat;

4 And did all drink the same [d]spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that [1]followed them: and that Rock was Chrīst.

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were [2]our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, [e]The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and [f]fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt Chrīst, as [g]some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for [3]ensamples: and [h]they are written for our admonition, [i]upon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is [4]common to man: but God is faithful, [j]who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also [k]make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

16 [l]The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Chrīst? [m]The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Chrīst?

17 For [n]we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold [o]Īs'ra-el after the flesh: [p]are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that the things which the Ġĕn'tīles [q]sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 [r]Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and [s]the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? [t]are we stronger than he?

23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 [u]Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

25 [v]Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:

26 For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; [w]whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not [x]for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for [y]the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for [z]why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

30 For if I by [5]grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?

31 [a]Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the [6]Ġĕn'tīles, nor to the church of God:

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Reproof of methods of worship. 23 Of the Lord's supper.

BE [a]ye followers of me, even as I also am of Chrīst.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and [b]keep the [1]ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know, that [c]the head of every man is Chrīst; and [d]the head of the woman is the man; and [e]the head of Chrīst is God.

4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But [f]every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were [g]shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be [h]a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as [i]he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For [j]the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman [k]to have [2]power on her head [l]because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless [m]neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; [n]but all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a [3]covering.

16 But [o]if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, [p]I hear that there be [4]divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For [q]there must be also [5]heresies among you, [r]that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, [6]this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and [s]another is drunken.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or [t]despise ye the church of God, and shame [7]them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For [u]I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jē'sus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do [8]in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is [v]the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink

this cup, [9]ye do shew the Lord's death [w]till he come.

27 [x]Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But [y]let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh [10]damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For [z]if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged [a]we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto [11]condemnation. And the rest [b]will I set in order when [c]I come.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Of spiritual gifts. 7 Their profit. 12 The actual and spiritual body.

NOW [a]concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know [b]that ye were Gĕn'tīleṣ, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, [c]that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jē'ṣus [1]accursed: and [d]that no man can say that Jē'ṣus is the Lord, but by the Hō'lў Ghōst.

4 Now [e]there are diversities of gifts, but [f]the same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of [2]administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God [g]which worketh all in all.

7 [h]But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit [i]the word of wisdom; to another [j]the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 [k]To another faith by the same Spirit; to another [l]the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 [m]To another the working of miracles; to another [n]prophecy; [o]to another discerning of spirits; to another [p]divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, [q]dividing to every man severally [r]as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: [s]so also is Chrīst.

13 For [t]by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, [u]whether we be Jewṣ or [3]Gĕn'tīleṣ, whether we be bond or free; and [v]have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we [4]bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no [5]schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now [w]ye are the body of Chrīst, and members in particular.

28 And [x]God hath set some in the church, first [y]apostles, secondarily [z]prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, [a]helps, [b]governments, [6]diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all [7]workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But [c]covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

1 Gifts nothing without charity. 4 In praise of charity.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not [a]charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift [b]of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, [c]so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And [d]though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 [e]Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity [1]vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

9 [k]For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.
10 But [l]when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.
11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I [3]thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
12 For [m]now we see through a glass, [4]darkly; but then [n]face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Prophecy preferable to speaking in tongues. 12 Both must be referred to edification. 34 Women forbidden to preach.

FOLLOW after [a]charity, [b]and desire spiritual gifts, [c]but rather that ye may prophesy.
2 For he that [d]speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God; for no man [1]understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh [e]mysteries.
3 But he that prophesieth [f]speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.
4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.
5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.
6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?
7 And even things without life giving sound, whether [g]pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the [2]sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?
8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?
9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words [3]easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall [h]speak into the air.
10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.
11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.
12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous [4]of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.
13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that [i]he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.
15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: [j]I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing [k]with the understanding also.
16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen [l]at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?
17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.
18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:
19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.
20 Brethren, [m]be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice [n]be ye children, but in understanding be [5]men.
21 [o]In the law it is [p]written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.
22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.
23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, [q]will they not say that ye are mad?
24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:
25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report [r]that God is in you of a truth.
26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, [s]hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. [t]Let all things be done unto edifying.
27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.
28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.
29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.
30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, [u]let the first hold his peace.
31 [v]For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.
32 And [w]the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.
33 For God is not the author of [6]confusion, but of peace, [x]as in all churches of the saints.
34 [y]Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but [z] they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the [a] law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What? came the word of God [b] out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 [c] If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, [d] covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAPTER 15.

3 Christ's resurrection. 12 The resurrection of all. 35 Certainty and manner thereof.

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and [a] wherein ye stand;

2 [b] By which also ye are saved, if ye [1] keep in memory [2] what I preached unto you, unless [c] ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Chrīst died for our sins [d] according to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day [e] according to the scriptures:

5 [f] And that he was seen of Çē'phas, then [g] of the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of Jāmeṣ; then [h] of all the apostles.

8 [i] And last of all he was seen of me also, as of [3] one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because [j] I persecuted the church of God.

10 But [k] by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but [l] I laboured more abundantly than they all: [m] yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Chrīst be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, [n] then is Chrīst not risen:

14 And if Chrīst be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Chrīst: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Chrīst raised:

17 And if Chrīst be not raised, your faith is vain; [o] ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Chrīst are perished.

19 If [p] in this life only we have hope in Chrīst, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now [q] is Chrīst risen from the dead, and become [r] the firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For [s] since by man came death, by [t] man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Ad'ăm all die, even so in Chrīst shall all be made alive.

23 But [u] every man in his own order: Chrīst the firstfruits; afterward they that are Chrīst's at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up [v] the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, [w] till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 [x] The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he [y] hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

28 [z] And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then [a] shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And [b] why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by [4] your rejoicing which I have in Chrīst Jē'ṣus our Lord, [c] I die daily.

32 If [5] after the manner of men [d] I have fought with beasts at Ĕph'ĕ-sŭs, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? [e] let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 [f] Awake to righteousness, and sin not; [g] for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, [h] How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, [i] that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But [j] God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 [k]So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption: it is raised in incorruption:
43 [l]It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:
44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.
45 And so it is written, The first man Ăd'ăm [m]was made a living soul; [n]the last Ăd'ăm was made [o]a quickening spirit.
46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.
47 [p]The first man is of the earth, [q]earthy: the second man is the Lord [r]from heaven.
48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: [s]and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.
49 And [t]as we have borne the image of the earthy, [u]we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.
50 Now this I say, brethren, that [v]flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.
51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; [w]We shall not all sleep, [x]but we shall all be changed,
52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: [y]for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.
53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and [z]this mortal must put on immortality.
54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, [a]Death is swallowed up in victory.
55 [b]O death, where is thy sting? O [6]grave, where is thy victory?
56 The sting of death is sin; and [c]the strength of sin is the law.
57 [d]But thanks be to God, which giveth us [e]the victory through our Lord Jē'ŝus Chrīst.
58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, [f]be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know [g]that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAPTER 16.

1 On relief of brethren. 10 Timothy commended. 16 Salutations.

NOW concerning [a]the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Gă-lā'tiȧ, even so do ye.
2 [b]Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.
3 And when I come, [c]whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your [1]liberality unto Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm.
4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.
5 Now I will come unto you, [d]when I shall pass through Măç-ē-dō'nĭ-ȧ: for I do pass through Măç-ē-dō'nĭ-ȧ.
6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may [e]bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.
7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.
8 But I will tarry at Ĕph'ĕ-sŭs until Pĕn'tē-cŏst.
9 For [f]a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and [g]there are many adversaries.
10 Now if Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs come, see that he may be with you without fear: for [h]he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.
11 [i]Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.
12 As touching our brother [j]Ă-pŏl'lŏs, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.
13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.
14 Let all your things be done with charity.
15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stĕph'a-năs, that it is the firstfruits of Ă-chā'ĭȧ, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)
16 That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.
17 I am glad of the coming of Stĕph'a-năs and Fôr-tū-nā'tus and Ă-chā'i-cus: [k]for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.
18 [l]For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.
19 [m]The churches of Ā'sĭȧ salute you. Ă'quĭ-lȧ and Prĭs-çĭl'lȧ salute you much in the Lord, [n]with the church that is in their house.
20 All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.
21 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.
22 If any man love not the Lord Jē'ŝus Chrīst, [o]let him be Ăn-ăth'ē-mȧ [p]Mär'ăn-ā'thȧ.
23 The grace of our Lord Jē'ŝus Chrīst be with you.
24 My love be with you all in Chrīst Jē'ŝus. Amen.

The first epistle to the Cŏ-rĭnth'ĭ-ans was written from Phĭ-lĭp'pī by Stĕph'a-năs, and Fôr-tū-nā'tus, and Ă-chā'i-cus, and Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul comforts the brethren. 4 His own trials. 15 His visit withheld.

A. D. 60.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'şus Chrīst by the will of God, and Tĭm'o-thў our brother, unto the church of God which is at Cŏr'inth, [a] with all the saints which are in all Ā-chā'ĭą:

2 [b] Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'şus Chrīst.

3 [c] Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jē'şus Chrīst, [d] the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 [e] Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as [f] the sufferings of Chrīst abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Chrīst.

6 And whether we be afflicted, [g] it is for your consolation and salvation, which [1] is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that [h] as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of [i] our trouble which came to us in Ā'şĭą, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the [2] sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not [j] trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

10 [k] Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

11 Ye also [l] helping together by prayer for us, that [m] for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and [n] godly sincerity, [o] not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, [p] that we are your rejoicing, even as [q] ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jē'şus.

15 And in this confidence [r] I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have [s] a second [3] benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Măç-ę-dō'nĭ-ą, and [t] to come again out of Măç-ę-dō'nĭ-ą unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Jū-dæ'ą.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose [u] according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

18 But as God is true, our [4] word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For [v] the Son of God, Jē'şus Chrīst, who was preached among you by us, even by me and [w] Sĭl-vā'nus and Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

20 [x] For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Chrīst, and [y] hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who [z] hath also sealed us, and [a] given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, [b] that to spare you I came not as yet unto Cŏr'inth.

24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for [c] by faith ye stand.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Paul's reasons for writing. 12 Why he went to Macedonia. 14 Happy success of Paul's preaching in all places.

BUT I determined this with myself, [a] that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; [b] having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not [c] that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But [d] if any have caused grief, he hath not [e] grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this [1] punishment, which was inflicted [f] of many.

7 [g] So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it [2] in the person of Chrīst;

11 Lest [h] Sā'tan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, [i] when I came to Trō'ăs to preach Chrīst's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord,

13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Tī'tus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Măç-ę-dō'nĭ-ą.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Chrīst, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Chrīst, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:

16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which [3]corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we [4]in Chrīst.

CHAPTER 3.

1 On Paul's sufficiency. 12 The gospel of life and liberty.

DO [a]we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, [b]epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 [c]Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Chrīst [d]ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not [e]in tables of stone, but [f]in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Chrīst to Godward:

5 [g]Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but [h]our sufficiency is of God;

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of [i]the new testament; not [j]of the letter, but of the spirit: for [k]the letter killeth, [l]but the spirit [1]giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Ĭs'ra-el could not stedfastly behold the face of Mō'sĕs for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:

8 How shall not [m]the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration [n]of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great [2]plainness of speech:

13 And not as Mō'sĕs, [o]which put a veil over his face, that the children of Ĭs'ra-el could not stedfastly look to [p]the end of that which is abolished:

14 But [q]their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which veil is done away in Chrīst.

15 But even unto this day, when Mō'sĕs is read, the veil is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless [r]when it shall turn to the Lord, [s]the veil shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding [t]as in a glass the glory of the Lord, [u]are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as [3]by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Of Paul's sincerity and faithfulness. 7 Daily troubles and persecutions.

THEREFORE seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of [1]dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, [a]nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, [b]it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom [c]the god of this world [d]hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Chrīst, [e]who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Chrīst Jē'sus the Lord; and [f]ourselves your servants for Jē'sus' sake.

6 For God, [g]who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, [2]hath [h]shined in our hearts, to give [i]the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jē'sus Chrīst.

7 But we have this treasure in [j]earthen vessels, [k]that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but [3]not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10 [l]Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jē'sus, [m]that the life also of Jē'sus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jē'sus' sake, that the life also of Jē'sus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, [n]I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jē'sus shall raise up us also by Jē'sus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER 5.

1 The wherefore of Paul's labours. 14 Christ's ambassadors.

FOR we know that if [a]our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have [b]a building a 2 Pet. 1. 13.

b Phil. 3. 21. Heb. 11. 10.

of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this [c]we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that [d]being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but [e]clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now [f]he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also [g]hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For [h]we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and [i]willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we [1]labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Chrīst; [j]that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory [2]in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For [k]whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Chrīst constraineth us; because we thus judge, that [l]if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, [m]that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 [n]Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Chrīst after the flesh, [o]yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Chrīst, [3]he is a new creature: [p]old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jē'sus Chrīst, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that [q]God was in Chrīst, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath [4]committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are [r]ambassadors for Chrīst, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Chrīst's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For [s]he hath made him to be sin for us, who [t]knew no sin; that we might be made [u]the righteousness of God in him.

1 Proofs of Paul's faithfulness. 14 Idolaters to be shunned.

WE then, as [a]workers together with him, beseech you also [b]that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, [c]I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 [d]Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things [1]approving ourselves [e]as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, [2]in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Hō'lў Ghōst, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by [f]the power of God, by [g]the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and [h]yet well known; [i]as dying, and, behold, we live; [j]as chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Cō-rīnth'ĭ-anş, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but [k]ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 [l]Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for [m]what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Chrīst with Bē'lĭ-al? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for [n]ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, [o]I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 [p]Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing: and I will receive you, 18 [q]And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Exhortation to purity of life. 3 Paul's comfort amid sorrow. 7 Of Titus' mission.

HAVING [a]therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, [b]great is my glorying of you: [c]I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, [d]when we were come into Măç-ĕ-dō'nĭ-à, our flesh had no rest, but we [e]were troubled on every side; [f]without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless [g]God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Tī'tus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, [h]though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry [1]after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For [i]godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: [j]but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye [k]sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Tī'tus, because his spirit [l]was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Tī'tus, is found a truth.

15 And his [2]inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth [m]the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that [n]I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Exhortation to give to the poor saints at Jerusalem. 8 The duty of giving. 16 Commendation of Titus.

MOREOVER, brethren, [1]we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Măç-ĕ-dō'nĭ-à;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and [a]their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their [2]liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us [b]the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first [c]gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that [d]we desired Tī'tus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same [3]grace also.

7 Therefore, as [e]ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see [f]that ye abound in this grace also.

8 [g]I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jē'sŭs Chrīst, [h]that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein [i]I give my advice: for [j]this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be [4]forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For [k]if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, [l]He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Tī'tus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him [m]the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also [n]chosen of the churches to travel with us with this [5]grace, which is administered by us [o]to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 [p]Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 [q]Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which [6]I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Tī'tus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are [r]the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Chrīst.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Why the brethren were sent. 6 Bountiful alms urged.

FOR as touching [a] the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you :

2 For I know [b] the forwardness of your mind, [c] for which I boast of you to them of Măç-ę-dō'nĭ-à, that [d] Ă-chā'ịà was ready a year ago ; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 [e] Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf ; that, as I said, ye may be ready :

4 Lest haply if they of Măç-ę-dō'nĭ-à come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your [1] bounty, [2] whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 [f] But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly ; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give ; [g] not grudgingly, or of necessity : for [h] God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 [i] And God is able to make all grace abound toward you ; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work :

9 (As it is written, [j] He hath dispersed abroad ; he hath given to the poor : his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he that [k] ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your [l] righteousness ;)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all [3] bountifulness, [m] which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God ;

13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they [n] glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Chrīst, and for your liberal [o] distribution unto them, and unto all men ;

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be unto God [p] for his unspeakable gift.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Paul's spiritual might. 8 His presence and letters. 12 He taxes them for reaching out themselves beyond their compass.

NOW [a] I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Chrīst, who [1] in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you :

2 But I beseech you, [b] that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which [2] think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh :

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty [3] through God [d] to the pulling down of strong holds ;)

5 [e] Casting down [4] imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Chrīst ;

6 [f] And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when [g] your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? [h] If any man trust to himself that he is Chrīst's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Chrīst's, even so are [i] we Chrīst's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed :

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, [5] say they, are weighty and powerful ; but [j] his bodily presence is weak, and his [k] speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 [l] For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves ; but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, [6] are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the [7] rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you : [m] for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Chrīst :

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, [n] of other men's labours ; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be [8] enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's [9] line of things made ready to our hand.

17 [o] But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For [p] not he that commendeth himself is approved, but [q] whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER 11.

1 As against false apostles Paul glories in himself. 23 His sufferings for the gospel.

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in [a] my folly : and indeed [1] bear with me.

2 For I am [b] jealous over you with godly jealousy : for [c] I have espoused you to one husband, [d] that I may present you [e] as a chaste virgin to Chrīst.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as [f] the serpent beguiled Ēve through his subtilty, so your minds [g] should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Chrīst.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jē'sus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or [h] another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear [2] with him.

5 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not [i] in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence [j] in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, [k] I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me [l] the brethren which came from Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à supplied: and in all things I have kept myself [m] from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 [n] As the truth of Chrīst is in me, [3] no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Ā-chā'ĭà.

11 Wherefore? [o] because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, [p] that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Chrīst.

14 And no marvel; for Sā'tan himself is transformed into [q] an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; [r] whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool [4] receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, [s] I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, [t] in this confidence of boasting.

18 [u] Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, [v] if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, [w] as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hē'brewş? [x] so am I. Are they Īş'ra-el-ītes? so am I. Are they the seed of Ā'bră-hăm? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Chrīst? (I speak as a fool) I am more; [y] in labours more abundant, [z] in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jewş five times received I [a] forty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I [b] beaten with rods, [c] once was I stoned, thrice I [d] suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jē'şus Chrīst, [i] which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 [j] In Dă-măs'cus the governor under Ār'e-tas the king kept the city of the Dăm'as-çēneş with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Paul commends his apostleship. 10 Glory in infirmities. 11 His self-glory compulsory.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. [1] I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man [a] in Chrīst above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one [b] caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into [c] paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not [2] lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: [d] yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For [e] though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a [f] thorn in the flesh, [g] the messenger of Sā'tan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 [h] For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, [i] My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, [j] that the power of Chrīst may rest upon me.

10 Therefore [k] I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Chrīst's sake: [l] for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for [m] in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 [n] Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 [o] For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that [p] I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 [q] Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for [r] I seek not yours, but you: [s] for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And [t] I will very gladly spend and be spent for [3] you; though [u] the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, [v] I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 [w] Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 [x] I desired Tī'tus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Tī'tus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 [y] Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? [z] we speak before God in Chrīst: [a] but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that [b] I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God [c] will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and [d] fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Paul threatens obstinate sinners. 11 Exhortation and prayer.

THIS is [a] the third time I am coming to you. [b] In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 [c] I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them [d] which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Chrīst [e] speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty [f] in you.

4 [g] For though he was crucified through weakness, yet [h] he liveth by the power of God. For [i] we also are weak [1] in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 [j] Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, [k] how that Jē'sus Chrīst is in you, except ye be [l] reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though [m] we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad, [n] when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, [o] even your perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present [p] I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, [q] be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love [r] and peace shall be with you.

12 Greet one another with an holy kiss.

13 All the saints salute you.

14 The grace of the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, and the love of God, and the communion of the Hō'lў Ghōst, be with you all. Amen.

The second epistle to the Cō-rĭnth'ĭ-aus was written from Phĭ-lĭp'pī, a city of Măç-ę-dō'nĭ-å, by Tī'tus and Lų'cas.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

8 Paul accurses false preachers. 11 His gospel is of God.

PAUL, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but [a] by Jē'sus Chrīst, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)

2 And all the brethren [b] which are with me, [c] unto the churches of Gă-lā'tĭą:

3 [d] Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst,

4 [e] Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us [f] from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Chrīst unto another gospel:

7 [g] Which is not another; but there be some [h] that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Chrīst.

8 But though [i] we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you [j] than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For [k] do I now [l] persuade men, or God? or [m] do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Chrīst.

11 [n] But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but [o] by the revelation of Jē'sus Chrīst.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that [p] beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and [q] wasted it:

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my [1] equals in mine own nation, [r] being more exceedingly zealous [s] of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, [t] who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 [u] To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with [v] flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Ā-rā'bĭ-ȧ, and returned again unto Dā-măs'cus.

18 Then after three years I [2] went up to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm to see Pē'tẽr, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But [w] other of the apostles saw I none, save [x] James the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 [y] Afterwards I came into the regions of Sўr'ĭ-ȧ and Çĭ-lĭ'çi-ȧ;

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Jū-dæ'ȧ which were in Chrīst:

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

THEN fourteen years after [a] I went up again to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm with Bär'na-băs, and took Tī'tus with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, [b] and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gĕn'tīles, but [1] privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means [c] I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Tī'tus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our [d] liberty which we have in Chrīst Jē'sus, [e] that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these [f] who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: [g] God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in [h] conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, [i] when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision [j] was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Pē'tẽr;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Pē'tẽr to the apostleship of the circumcision, [k] the same was mighty in me toward the Gĕn'tīles:)

9 And when James, Çē'phas, and Jŏhn, who seemed to be [l] pillars, perceived [m] the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Bär'na-băs the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; [n] the same which I also was forward to do.

11 [o] But when Pē'tẽr was come to Ăn'tĭ-ŏch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, [p] he did eat with the Gĕn'tīles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Bär'na-băs also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to [q] the truth of the gospel, I said unto Pē'tẽr before them all, [r] If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gĕn'tīles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gĕn'tīles to live as do the Jews?

15 [s] We who are Jews by nature, and not [t] sinners of the Gĕn'tīles,

16 [u] Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but [v] by the faith of Jē'sus Chrīst, even we have believed in Jē'sus Chrīst, that we might be justified by the faith of Chrīst, and not by the works of the law: for [w] by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Chrīst, we ourselves also are found [x] sinners, is therefore Chrīst the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I [y] through the law [z] am dead to the law, that I might [a] live unto God.

20 I am [b] crucified with Chrīst: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Chrīst liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh [c] I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for [d] if righteousness come by the law, then Chrīst is dead in vain.

CHAPTER 3.

Of justification by faith.

O FOOLISH Gā-lā'tians, [a] who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, [b] before whose eyes Jē'sus Chrīst hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye [c] the Spirit by the works of the law, [d] or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? [e] having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by [f] the flesh?

4 [g] Have ye suffered [1] so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore [h] that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Ā'brā-hăm believed God, and it was [2] accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that [i] they which are of faith, the same are the children of Ā'brā-hăm.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Ā'bră-hăm, saying, [j]In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Ā'bră-hăm.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, [k]Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, [l]The just shall live by faith.

12 And [m]the law is not of faith: but, [n]The man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 Chrīst hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, [o]Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 [p]That the blessing of Ā'bră-hăm might come on the Gĕn'tīleş through Jē'şus Chrīst; that we might receive [q]the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; [r]Though it be but a man's [3]covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Ā'bră-hăm and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is [s]Chrīst.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Chrīst, the law, [t]which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, [u]that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if [v]the inheritance be of the law, [w]it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Ā'bră-hăm by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? [x]It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was [y]ordained by angels in the hand [z]of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, [a]but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jē'şus Chrīst might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore [b]the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Chrīst, [c]that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For ye [d]are all the children of God by faith in Chrīst Jē'şus.

27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Chrīst have put on Chrīst.

28 [e]There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all [f]one in Chrīst Jē'şus.

29 And [g]if ye be Chrīst's, then are ye Ā'bră-hăm's seed, and [h]heirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Freedom from the law through Christ. 24 Allegory of Agar and Sara.

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, [a]were in bondage under the [1]elements of the world:

4 But [b]when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, [c]made of a woman, [d]made under the law,

5 [e]To redeem them that were under the law, [f]that we might receive the adoption of sons.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Ăb'bà, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; [g]and if a son, then an heir of God through Chrīst.

8 Howbeit then, [h]when ye knew not God, [i]ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, [j]after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, [k]how turn ye [2]again to [l]the weak and beggarly [3]elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 [m]Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as [n]I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how [o]through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you [p]at the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me [q]as an angel of God, [r]even as Chrīst Jē'şus.

15 [4]Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They [s]zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude [5]you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My [t]little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Chrīst be formed in you,

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for [6]I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Ā'bră-hăm had two sons, [u]the one by a bondmaid, [v]the other by a freewoman.

23 But he who was of the bondwoman [w]was born after the flesh; [x] but he of the freewoman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two [7] covenants; the one from the mount [8] Sī'nāi, which gendereth to bondage, which is Ā'gär.

25 For this Ā'gär is mount Sī'nāi in Ā-rā'bĭ-ȧ, and [9] answereth to Jĕ-rṳ'sȧ-lĕm which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But [y] Jĕ-rṳ'sȧ-lĕm which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, [z] Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Ī'ṣaac was, are [a] the children of promise.

29 But as then [b] he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith [c] the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for [d] the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Of the circumcision. 13 Love the sum of the law. 22 Fruit of the Spirit.

STAND fast therefore in [a] the liberty wherewith Chrīst hath made us free, and be not entangled again [b] with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that [c] if ye be circumcised, Chrīst shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, [d] that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 [e] Chrīst is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; [f] ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit [g] wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For [h] in Jē'ṣus Chrīst neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but [i] faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye [j] did run well; [1] who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 [k] I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but [l] he that troubleth you [m] shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 [n] And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, [o] why do I yet suffer persecution? then is [p] the offence of the cross ceased.

12 [q] I would they were even cut off [r] which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only [s] use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; [t] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, [u] Walk in the Spirit, and [2] ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For [v] the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: [w] so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But [x] if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now [y] the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that [z] they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But [a] the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, [b] gentleness, goodness, [c] faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Chrīst's [d] have crucified the flesh with the [3] affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Mild dealings with brethren. 2 Mutual bearing of burdens. 14 Paul's glory in Christ.

BRETHREN, [1] if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye [a] which are spiritual, restore such an one [b] in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, [c] lest thou also be tempted.

2 [d] Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil [e] the law of Chrīst.

3 For [f] if a man think himself to be something, when [g] he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But [h] let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and [i] not in another.

5 For [j] every man shall bear his own burden.

6 [k] Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 [l] Be not deceived; [m] God is not mocked: for [n] whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to [o] the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9 And [p] let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, [q] if we faint not.

10 [r] As we have therefore opportunity, [s] let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of [t] the household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

8 For by grace are ye saved [j]through faith; and that not of yourselves: [k]it is the gift of God:

9 [l]Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Chrīst Jē'ṣus unto good works, [m]which God hath before [3]ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gĕn'tīleṣ in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called [n] the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

12 [o] That at that time ye were without Chrīst, [p] being aliens from the commonwealth of Iṣ'ra-el, and strangers from [q] the covenants of promise, [r] having no hope, [s] and without God in the world:

13 [t] But now in Chrīst Jē'ṣus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Chrīst.

14 For [u] he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 Having abolished [v] in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one [w] new man, so making peace;

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having [x] slain the enmity [4] thereby:

17 And came [y] and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God;

20 And are built [z] upon the foundation of the [a] apostles and prophets, Jē'ṣus Chrīst himself being the [b] chief corner stone;

21 In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

22 In whom ye also are builded together for [c] an habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Of Gentile salvation. 3 The mystery made known by revelation. 14 Prayer that the great love of Christ may be perceived.

FOR this cause I Paul, [a] the prisoner of Jē'ṣus Chrīst [b] for you Gĕn'tīleṣ,

2 If ye have heard of [c] the dispensation of the grace of God [d] which is given me to you-ward:

3 How that by revelation [e] he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote [1] afore in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge [f] in the mystery of Chrīst)

5 [g] Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gĕn'tīleṣ should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and [h] partakers of his promise in Chrīst by the gospel:

7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by [i] the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gĕn'tīleṣ [j] the unsearchable riches of Chrīst;

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, [k] which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, [l] who created all things by Jē'ṣus Chrīst:

10 [m] To the intent that now [n] unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places [o] might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Chrīst Jē'ṣus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst,

15 Of whom [p] the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, [q] according to the riches of his glory, [r] to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in [s] the inner man;

17 [t] That Chrīst may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all saints [u] what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know the love of Chrīst, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled [v] with all the fulness of God.

20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

21 [w] Unto him be glory in the church by Chrīst Jē'ṣus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Paul exhorts to unity. 24 Putting on the new man. 29 Casting aside corrupt communication.

I THEREFORE, the prisoner [1] of the Lord, beseech you that ye [a] walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 [b] With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit [c] in the bond of peace.

4 [d] There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

5 [e] One Lord, one faith, [f] one baptism,

6 [g] One God and Father of all, who is above all, and [h] through all, and in you all.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Chrīst.

8 Wherefore he saith, [i] When he ascended up on high, [j] he led [2] captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 [k] (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same also [l] that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might [3] fill all things.)

11 [m] And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, [n] for the edifying of [o] the body of Chrīst:

13 Till we all come [4] in the unity of the faith, [p] and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the [5]stature of the fulness of Chrīst:

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every [q] wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But [6] speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Chrīst:

16 [r] From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gĕn'tīleṣ walk, in the vanity of their mind,

18 Having the understanding darkened, [s] being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the [7] blindness of their heart:

19 [t] Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Chrīst;

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jē'ṣus:

22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And [u] be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and [8] true holiness.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

26 Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 [v] Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have [9] to give to him that needeth.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good [10] to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And [w] grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Chrīst's sake hath forgiven you.

CHAPTER 5.

1 A general exhortation. 22 On the relation of husband and wife.

BE [a] ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;

2 And [b] walk in love, as Chrīst also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God [c] for a sweetsmelling savour.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, [d] which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, [e] hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Chrīst and of God.

6 [f] Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of [1] disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 [g] For ye were sometimes darkness, but now [h] are ye light in the Lord: walk as [i] children of light:

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)

10 [j] Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And [k] have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather [l] reprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But [m] all things that are [2] reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore [3] he saith, [n] Awake thou that sleepest, and [o] arise from the dead, and Chrīst shall give thee light.

15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

17 [p] Wherefore be ye not unwise, but [q] understanding [r] what the will of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

19 Speaking to yourselves [s] in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

20 [t] Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst;

21 [u] Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

22 [v] Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Chrīst is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Chrīst, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Chrīst also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it [w] with the washing of water [x] by the word,

27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Chrīst and the church.

33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Of parents and children. 5 Of servants and masters. 13 The complete armour of a Christian to be put on. 21 Commendation of Tychicus.

A. D. 64.

CHILDREN, [a] obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 [b] Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, [c] ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but [d] bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Chrīst;

6 Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Chrīst, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 [e] Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And, ye [f] masters, do the same things unto them, [1] forbearing threatening: knowing that [2] your Master also is in heaven; [g] neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 [h] Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against [3] flesh and blood, but against [i] principalities, against powers, against [j] the rulers of the darkness of this world, against [4] spiritual wickedness in [5] high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and [6] having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and [k] having on the breastplate of righteousness;

15 [l] And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

16 Above all, taking [m] the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and [n] the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and [o] supplication for all saints;

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel,

20 For which I am an ambassador [7] in bonds: that [8] therein [p] I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, [q] Tȳch'ī-cŭs, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst [9] in sincerity. Amen.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's thanks and love. 21 His mission to glorify Christ.

A. D. 64.

PAUL and Tī-mō'the-ŭs, the servants of Jē'ṣus Chrīst, to all the saints in Chrīst Jē'ṣus which are at Phī-lĭp'pī, with the [1] bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst.

3 [a] I thank my God upon every [2] remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 [b] For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun [c] a good work in you [3] will perform it until the day of Jē'ṣus Chrīst:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because [4] I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in [d] my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, [e] ye all are [5] partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jē'ṣus Chrīst.

9 And this I pray, [f] that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all [6] judgment;

10 That [g] ye may [7] approve things that [8] are excellent; [h] that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Chrīst;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, [i] which are by Jē'ṣus Chrīst, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds [9]in Chrīst are manifest [j]in all [10]the palace, and [11]in all other places;
14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.
15 Some indeed preach Chrīst even of envy and [k]strife; and some also of good will:
16 The one preach Chrīst of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:
17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.
18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Chrīst is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.
19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation [l]through your prayer, and the supply of [m]the Spirit of Jē'sus Chrīst,
20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that [n]in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Chrīst shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.
21 For to me to live is Chrīst, and to die is gain.
22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.
23 For [o]I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to [p]depart, and to be with Chrīst; which is far better:
24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.
25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;
26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jē'sus Chrīst for me by my coming to you again.
27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Chrīst: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;
28 And in nothing terrified by your [q]adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, [r]but to you of salvation, and that of God.
29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Chrīst, [s]not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;
30 [t]Having the same conflict [u]which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER 2.

Exhortation to humility through Christ's example.

IF there be therefore any consolation in Chrīst, if any comfort of love, [a]if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,
2 [b]Fulfil ye my joy, [c]that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.
3 [d]Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but [e]in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.
4 [f]Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.
5 [g]Let this mind be in you, which was also in Chrīst Jē'sus:
6 Who, [h]being in the form of God, [i]thought it not robbery to be equal with God:
7 [j]But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form [k]of a servant, and [l]was made in the [1]likeness of men:
8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became [m]obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.
9 Wherefore God also [n]hath highly exalted him, and [o]given him a name which is above every name:
10 [p]That at the name of Jē'sus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;
11 And [q]that every tongue should confess that Jē'sus Chrīst is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.
13 For [r]it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.
14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:
15 That ye may be blameless and [2]harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom [3]ye shine as lights in the world;
16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Chrīst, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.
17 Yea, and if I be [4]offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.
18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.
19 [5]But I trust in the Lord Jē'sus to send Tī-mō'-the-ŭs shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.
20 For I have no man [6]likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.
21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jē'sus Chrīst's.
22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.
23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.
24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.
25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you [s]Ē-păph-ro-dī'tus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier, [t]but your messenger, and [u]he that ministered to my wants.
26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.
27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Paul warns against false teachers and Christ's enemies. 15 Exhortation to decline the ways of carnal Christians.

FINALLY, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 [a] Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, [b] beware of the concision.

3 For we are [c] the circumcision, [d] which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Chrīst Jē'sus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Ĭs'ra-el, of the tribe of Bĕn'ja-min, an Hē'brew of the Hē'brews; as touching the law, [e] a Phăr'ĭ-see;

6 [f] Concerning zeal, [g] persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Chrīst.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss [h] for the excellency of the knowledge of Chrīst Jē'sus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Chrīst,

9 And be found in him, not having [i] mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but [j] that which is through the faith of Chrīst, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and [k] the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might [l] attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already [m] attained, either were already [n] perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Chrīst Jē'sus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth [o] unto those things which are before,

14 [p] I press toward the mark for the prize of [q] the high calling of God in Chrīst Jē'sus.

15 Let us therefore, as many [r] as be [s] perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as [t] ye have us for an ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Chrīst:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For [u] our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we [v] look for the Saviour, the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst:

21 [w] Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according [x] to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Paul exhorts the brethren generally. 10 His joy at their liberality.

THEREFORE, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, [a] my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Eū-ō'dĭ-as, and beseech Sўn'tў-chē, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which [b] laboured with me in the gospel, with Clĕm'ĕnt also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in [c] the book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. [d] The Lord is at hand.

6 [e] Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And [f] the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Chrīst Jē'sus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are [1] honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last [g] your care of me [2] hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, [h] therewith to be content.

12 [i] I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things [j] through Chrīst which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye have well done, that [k] ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Phĭ-lĭp'pĭ-anş know also, [l] that in the

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Salutation. 14 The true Christ described. 23 Paul's own ministry.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'şus Chrīst by the will of God, and Tī-mō'the-ŭs our brother,

2 To the saints [a] and faithful brethren in Chrīst which are at Cŏ-lŏs'sē: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jē'şus Chrīst.

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jē'şus Chrīst, praying always for you,

4 [b] Since we heard of your faith in Chrīst Jē'şus, and of [c] the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For the hope [d] which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, [e] as it is in all the world; and [f] bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew [g] the grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of [h] Ēp'ą-phrăs our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Chrīst;

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

9 [i] For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the [j] knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 [k] That ye might walk worthy of the Lord [l] unto all pleasing, [m] being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering [n] with joyfulness;

12 [o] Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of [p] the inheritance of the saints in light:

13 Who hath delivered us from [q] the power of darkness, [r] and hath translated us into the kingdom of [1] his dear Son:

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

15 Who is [s] the image of the invisible God, [t] the firstborn of every creature:

16 For [u] by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created [v] by him, and for him:

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gĕn'tīleş; which is Chrīst [6] in you, the hope of glory:

28 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Chrīst Jē'şus:

29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Paul exhorts them to be constant in Christ. 18 Of worshipping angels.

FOR I would that ye knew what great [1] conflict I have for you, and for them at Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ȧ, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 [a]That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all [b]riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Chrīst;

3 [2]In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Chrīst.

6 As ye have therefore received Chrīst Jē'ṣus the Lord, so walk ye in him:

7 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 [c]Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after [d]the tradition of men, after the [3]rudiments of the world, and not after Chrīst.

9 For [e]in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 [f]And ye are complete in him, [g]which is the head of all principality and power:

11 In whom also ye are [h]circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Chrīst:

12 [i]Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through [j]the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

15 And [k]having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them [4]in it.

16 Let no man therefore [l]judge you [5]in meat, or in drink, or [6]in respect [m]of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

17 [n]Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Chrīst.

18 Let no man [7]beguile you of your reward [8]in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,

19 And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Chrīst from the [9]rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,

1 Christ should be sought. 10 Exhortation to put off the old man and put on Christ. 12 Of charity and other duties.

IF ye then [a]be risen with Chrīst, [b]seek those things which are above, where Chrīst sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your [1]affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 [c]For ye are dead, [d]and your life is hid with Chrīst in God.

4 [e]When Chrīst, who is [f]our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him [g]in glory.

5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience:

7 In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

8 [h]But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 [i]Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which [j]is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that [k]created him:

11 Where there is neither [l]Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Bär-bā'rī-ạn, Scўth'ī-an, bond nor free: [m]but Chrīst is all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, [n]as the elect of God, holy and beloved, [o]bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a [2]quarrel against any: even as Chrīst forgave you, so also do ye.

14 And above all these things [p]put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

15 And let [q]the peace of God rule in your hearts, [r]to the which also ye are called [s]in one body; and be ye thankful.

16 [t]Let the word of Chrīst dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing [u]with grace [v]in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And [w]whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jē'ṣus, giving [x]thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your [y]parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

6 Let your speech be alway [h] with grace, [i] seasoned with salt, [j] that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.
7 All my state shall Tȳch'ĭ-cŭs declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the Lord:
8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;

10 [l] Ăr-ĭs-tär'chus my fellowprisoner saluteth you, and [m] Mär'cus, sister's son to Bär'nȧ-băs, (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, receive him;)

12 [n] Ēp'ȧ-phrăs, who is one of you, a servant of Chrīst, saluteth you, always [1] labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand [o] perfect and [2] complete in all the will of God.
13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ȧ, and them in Hī-ē-răp'o-lĭs.
14 [p] Lūke, the beloved physician, and [q] Dē'mas, greet you.
15 Salute the brethren which are in Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ȧ, and Nȳm'phas, and the church which is in his house.
16 And when [r] this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'anş; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ȧ.
17 And say to [s] Ăr-chĭp'pus, Take heed to [t] the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.
18 The salutation by the hand of me Paul. [u] Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

The Thessalonians ever remembered by Paul in prayer.

PAUL, and [a] Sĭl-vā'nus, and Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs, unto the church of the Thĕs-sa-lō'nĭ-anş which is [b] in God the Father and in the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.
2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;
3 Remembering without ceasing your work of [c] faith, [d] and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, in the sight of God and our Father;
4 Knowing, brethren [1] beloved, [e] your election of God.
5 For [f] our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and [g] in the Hō'lȳ Ghōst, [h] and in much assurance; as [i] ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.
6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Hō'lȳ Ghōst:
7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Măç-ē-dō'nĭ-ȧ and Ā-chā'ĭȧ.
8 For from you [j] sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Măç-ē-dō'nĭ-ȧ and Ā-chā'ĭȧ, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.
9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;
10 And [k] to wait for his Son [l] from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jē'sus, which delivered us [m] from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER 2.

1 How Paul preached. 13 How the word was received.

FOR yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:
2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at [a] Phĭ-lĭp'pī, we were bold in our God [b] to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.
3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:
4 But as [c] we were allowed of God [d] to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, [e] which trieth our hearts.
5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness:

6 [f] Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have [1] been burdensome, as the apostles of Chrīst.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing [g] to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our [h] own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, [i] because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children,

12 [j] That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it [k] not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers [l] of the churches of God which in Jū-dæ'ā are in Chrīst Jē'ṣus: for [m] ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, [n] even as they have of the Jews:

15 Who both killed the Lord Jē'ṣus, and [o] their own prophets, and have [2] persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:

16 [p] Forbidding us to speak to the Gĕn'tīles that they might be saved, [q] to fill up their sins alway: [r] for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but [s] Sā'tan hindered us.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of [3] rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst [t] at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Paul testifies his love by sending Timothy. 10 Also by prayer.

WHEREFORE when we could no longer forbear, [a] we thought it good to be left at Ăth'ĕns alone;

2 And sent [b] Tī-mō'the-ŭs, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Chrīst, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 [c] That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that [d] we are appointed thereunto.

4 [e] For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

6 [h] But now when Tī-mō'the-ŭs came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, [i] as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye [j] stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10 [k] Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst, [1] direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst [l] with all his saints.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Exhortation to various duties. 15 Of the resurrection and second coming of Christ.

FURTHERMORE then we [1] beseech you, brethren, and [2] exhort you by the Lord Jē'ṣus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and [a] to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jē'ṣus.

3 For this is [b] the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 [c] That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gĕn'tīles [d] which know not God:

6 [e] That no man go beyond and [3] defraud his brother [4] in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, [f] but unto holiness.

8 [g] He therefore that [5] despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, [h] who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for [i] ye yourselves are taught of God [j] to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Măç-ĕ-dō'nĭ-ā: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack [6] of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, [k] even as others which have no hope.

14 For [l] if we believe that Jē'sus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jē'sus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you [m] by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For [n] the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Chrīst shall rise first:

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them [o] in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so [p] shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore [7] comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER 5.

1 On Christ's second coming. 6 Divers precepts. 23 Conclusion.

BUT of [a] the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that [b] the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then [c] sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 [d] But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all [e] the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For [f] they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken [g] are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, [h] putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's thanks for their faith, love, and patience. 4 He comforts them.

PAUL, [a] and Sīl-vā'nus, and Tī-mō'the-ŭs, unto the church of the Thĕs-sa-lō'nĭ-ans [b] in God our Father and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst:

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith [c] groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

4 So that [d] we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God [e] for your patience and faith [f] in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which is [g] a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted [h] worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:

7 And to you who are troubled [j] rest with us, when the Lord Jē'sus shall be revealed from heaven with [1] his mighty angels,

8 [k] In flaming fire [2] taking vengeance on them [l] that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst:

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and [m] from the glory of his power;

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would [3] count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:

12 [n] That the name of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Exhortation to stedfastness. 7 Warning against the wicked one.

NOW we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst, [a] and by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Chrīst is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, [b] except there come a falling away first, and [c] that man of sin be revealed, [d] the son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and [e] exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what [1] withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For [f] the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, [g] whom the Lord shall consume [h] with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy [i] with the brightness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is [j] after the working of Sā'tan with all power and [k] signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in [l] them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And [m] for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, [n] that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold [o] the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

16 Now our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst himself, and God, even our Father, [p] which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Paul asks their prayers. 6 Gives divers precepts. 16 Conclusion.

FINALLY, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord [1] may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

2 And that we may be delivered from [2] unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and [a] keep you from evil.

4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And [b] the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and [3] into the patient waiting for Chrīst.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst, [c] that ye withdraw yourselves [d] from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but [e] wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 [f] Not because we have not power, but to make [g] ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, [h] that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you [i] disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies.

12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst, [j] that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, [4] be not weary in well doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word [5] by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 [k] Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

17 The salutation of Pa̤ul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst be with you all. Amen.

The second epistle to the Thĕs-sa̤-lō'nĭ-ans was written from Ăth'ĕns.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's charge to Timothy. 5 Use and end of law. 11 Paul's call.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'şus Chrīst [a] by the commandment [b] of God our Saviour, and Lord Jē'şus Chrīst, [c] which is our hope ;

2 Unto [d] Tĭm'o-thў, my own son in the faith : Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jē'şus Chrīst our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ēph'ĕ-sŭs, [e] when I went into Măç-e̤-dō'nĭ-a, that thou mightest charge some [f] that they teach no other doctrine,

4 Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith : so do.

5 Now [g] the end of the commandment is charity [h] out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned :

6 From which some [1] having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling ;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law ; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that [i] the law is good, if a man use it lawfully ;

9 [j] Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for [k] the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine ;

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Chrīst Jē'şus our Lord, who hath enabled me, [l] for that he counted me faithful, [m] putting me into the ministry ;

13 [n] Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious : but I obtained mercy, because [o] I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith [p] and love which is in Chrīst Jē'şus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that [q] Chrīst Jē'şus came into the world to save sinners ; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jē'şus Chrīst might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto [r] the King eternal, immortal, [s] invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Tĭm'o-thў, [t] according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare ;

19 Holding faith, and a good conscience ; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck :

20 Of whom is [u] Hў-mĕ-næ'us and [v] Ăl-ĕx-ăn'dĕr ; whom I have [w] delivered unto Sā'tan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

1 Of prayer and thanks for all. 9 Woman's attire and conduct.

I [1] EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men ;

2 [a] For kings, and [b] for all that are in [2] authority ; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is [c] good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour ;

4 [d] Who will have all men to be saved, [e] and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Chrīst Jē'şus ;

6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, [3] to be testified [f] in due time.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Chrīst, and lie not ;) a teacher of the Ğĕn'tīle̤s in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray [g] every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety ; not with [4] broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array ;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Ăd'ăm was first formed, then Ēve.

14 And Ăd'ăm was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be [h] saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

CHAPTER 3.

2 Of the qualifications of bishops, deacons, and their wives. 15 Of the church and the blessed truth therein taught and professed.

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a [a] bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, [1] of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach ;

3 [2] Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre ; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous ;

4 [b] One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity ;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God ?)

a Acts 20. 28. Phil. 1. 1.
1 Or, modest.
2 Or, Not ready to quarrel, and offer wrong, as one in wine.
b Josh. 24. 15.

6 Not [3]a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have [4]used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Chrīst Jē'ṣus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and [5]ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: [c]God was [6]manifest in the flesh, [d]justified in the Spirit, [e]seen of angels, preached unto the Gĕn'tīleṣ, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

CHAPTER 4.

How Timothy shall meet false teaching.

NOW the Spirit [a]speaketh expressly, that [b]in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed [c]to seducing spirits, [d]and doctrines of devils;

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; [e]having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 [f]Forbidding to marry, [g]and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created [h]to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For [i]every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jē'ṣus Chrīst, [j]nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth [1]little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, [k]having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, [l]who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

14 [n]Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee [o]by prophecy, [p]with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear [2]to all.

16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both [q]save thyself, and them that hear thee.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Rules for reproofs. 3 Of widows. 17 Of elders. 23 Of Timothy's own health.

REBUKE [a]not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew [1]piety at home, and [b]to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth [2]in pleasure is dead while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own [3]house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be [4]taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have [c]lodged strangers, if she have [d]washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Chrīst, they will marry;

12 [e]Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 [f]And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 [g]I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, [h]give none occasion to the adversary [5]to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Sā'tan.

16 [i]If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 [j]Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the scripture saith, [k]Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, [l]The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but [6]before two or three witnesses.

20 [m]Them that sin rebuke before all, [n]that others also may fear.

21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things [7]without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 [o]Lay hands suddenly on no man, [p]neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also [q]the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Of servants. 6 The gain of godliness. 10 On love of money. 11 Advice to Timothy.

LET as many [a]servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, [b]that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, [c]because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are [1]faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

4 He is [2]proud, [d]knowing nothing, but [3]doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

5 [4]Perverse disputings of [e]men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, [f]supposing that gain is godliness: [g]from such withdraw thyself.

6 But [h]godliness with contentment is great gain.

7 For [i]we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

8 And [j]having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

9 But [k]they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10 [l]For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have [5]erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, [m]O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

12 [n]Fight the good fight of faith, [o]lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, [p]and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 I give thee charge in the sight of God, [q]who quickeneth all things, and before Chrīst Jē'ṣus, [r]who before Pŏn'tī-us Pī'lạte witnessed a good [6]confession;

14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, [s]until the appearing of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst:

15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is [t]the blessed and only Potentate, [u]the King of kings, and Lord of lords;

16 Who [v]only hath immortality, dwelling in [w]the light which no man can approach unto; [x]whom no man hath seen, nor can see: [y]to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in [7]uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, [8]willing to communicate;

19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

20 O Tĭm'o-thў, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

21 Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER 1.

Timothy exhorted to stir up the gift of God in him.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'ṣus Chrīst by the will of God, according to [a]the promise of life which is in Chrīst Jē'ṣus,

2 To Tĭm'o-thў, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Chrīst Jē'ṣus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lō'is, and [b]thy mother Eū'nĭçe; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance [c]that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For [d]God hath not given us the spirit of fear; [e]but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 [f]Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

9 Who hath saved us, and [g]called us with an holy calling, [h]not according to our works, but [i]according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Chrīst Jē'ṣus [j]before the world began,

10 But [k]is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jē'ṣus Chrīst, [l]who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gĕn'tīleṣ.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have [1]believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed [m]unto him against that day.

13 [n]Hold fast [o]the form of sound words, [p]which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Chrīst Jē'ṣus.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Hō'lў Ghōst which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Ā'ṣiȧ be turned away from me; of whom are Phўġĕl'lus and Hĕr-mŏġ'e-nēṣ.

16 The Lord [q]give mercy unto the house of Ōn-ę-sĭph'ǫ-rus; [r]for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rōme, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him [s]that he may find mercy of the Lord [t]in that day: and in how many things he [u]ministered unto me at Ēph'ĕ-sŭs, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Timothy exhorted to endurance. 19 The foundation of the Lord is sure. 22 What to shun and what to follow.

THOU therefore, my son, [a]be strong in the grace that is in Chrīst Jē'ṣus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me [1]among many witnesses, [b]the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jē'ṣus Chrīst.

4 [c]No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 [2]The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jē'ṣus Chrīst [d]of the seed of Dā'vid [e]was raised from the dead [f]according to my gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, [g]that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Chrīst Jē'ṣus with eternal glory.

11 [h]It is a faithful saying: For [i]if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 [j]If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: [k]if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 [l]If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: [m]he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, [n]charging them before the Lord [o]that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But [p]shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a [3]canker: of whom is [q]Hў-mĕ-næ'us and Phī-lē'tus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, [r]saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless [s]the foundation of God standeth [4]sure, having this seal, The Lord [t]knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Chrīst depart from iniquity.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, [5]patient,

25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

26 And that they may [6]recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are [7]taken captive by him at his will.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Wickedness of the last days foretold. 16 Timothy to stand by the scriptures.

THIS know also, that [a]in the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, [b]disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, [1]false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but [c]denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

6 For [d]of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able [e]to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 [f]Now as Jăn'nēs and Jăm'brēs withstood Mō'sēs, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, [2]reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, [g]as theirs also was.

10 But [3]thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience,

11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me [h]at An'tĭ-ŏch, [i]at Ĭ-cō'nĭ-um, at Lȳs'trȧ; what persecutions I endured: but [j]out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and [k]all that will live godly in Chrīst Jē'sus shall suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which [l]are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Chrīst Jē'sus.

16 [m]All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

1 Paul further exhorts and warns Timothy. 6 Nearness of his death. 9 Instructions to Timothy.

I CHARGE thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, [a]rebuke, [b]exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure [c]sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and [d]shall be turned unto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of [e]an evangelist, [1]make full proof of thy ministry.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me [f]a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

10 For [g]Dē'mas hath forsaken me, [h]having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thĕs-są-lŏ-nī'cą; Crĕs'çens to Gą-lā'tią, Tī'tus unto Dăl-mā'tĭ-ą.

11 Only Lụke is with me. Take [i]Märk, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

12 And [j]Tȳch'ĭ-cŭs have I sent to Ēph'ĕ-sŭs.

13 The cloke that I left at Trō'ăs with Cär'pus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

14 [k]Ăl-ĕx-ăn'dĕr the coppersmith did me much evil: [l]the Lord reward him according to his works:

15 Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood [2]our words.

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: [m]I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.

17 [n]Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gĕn'tīles might hear: and I was delivered [o]out of the mouth of the lion.

18 [p]And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

19 Salute [q]Prĭs'cą and Ą'quĭ-lą, and [r]the household of Ōn-ę-sĭph'o-rus.

20 [s]Ē-răs'tŭs abode at Cŏr'inth: but [t]Trŏph'ĭ-mŭs have I left at Mī-lē'tum sick.

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eū-bū'lus greeteth thee, and Pū'dens, and Lī'nus, and Clą̣u'dĭ-ą, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Jē'sus Chrīst be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Titus' mission in Crete. 6 Choice and qualification of ministers. 11 Evil teachers.

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jē'sus Chrīst, according to the faith of God's elect, and [a]the acknowledging of the truth [b]which is after godliness;

2 [1]In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before [c]the world began;

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me [d]according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To [e]Tī'tus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crēte, that thou shouldest [f]set in order the things that are [2]wanting, and [g]ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as [h] the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, [i] not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of [3] good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 Holding fast the faithful word [4] as he hath been taught, that he may be able [j] by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, [k] specially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert [l] whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 [m] One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Crē'tĭ-anş are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jew'ish fables, and [n] commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

15 [o] Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 [p] They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work [5] reprobate.

CHAPTER 2.

Directions to Titus for doctrine and conduct.

BUT speak thou the things which become [a] sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be [1] sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 [b] The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh [2] holiness, not [3] false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be [4] sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, [c] obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be [5] sober minded.

7 [d] In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, [e] sincerity,

8 [f] Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; [g] that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not [6] answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

13 Looking for that blessed [j] hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jē'şus Chrīst;

14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, [k] and purify unto himself [l] a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAPTER 3.

Titus further directed how and what to teach, and what not.

PUT them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, [a] to be ready to every good work,

2 To [b] speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindness and [1] love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 [c] Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by [d] the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Hō'lў Ghōst;

6 [e] Which he shed on us [2] abundantly through Jē'şus Chrīst our Saviour;

7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But [f] avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is an heretick [g] after the first and second admonition [h] reject;

11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, [i] being condemned of himself.

12 When I shall send Är'tę-măs unto thee, or [j] Tўch'ĭ-cŭs, be diligent to come unto me to Nĭ-cŏp'o-lĭs: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zē'nas the lawyer and [k] Ă-pŏl'lŏs on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let ours also learn to [3] maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be [l] not unfruitful.

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

It was written to Tī'tus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Crē'tį-anş, from Nĭ-cŏp'o-lĭs of Măç-ę-dō'nĭ-ą.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

1 Paul's joy in Philemon's love. 9 Forgiveness asked for Onesimus.

A. D. 64.

PAUL, [a] a prisoner of Jē'sus Chrīst, and Tīm'o-thy our brother, unto Phī-lē'mon our dearly beloved, [b] and fellowlabourer,

2 And to our beloved Ăpph'ĭ-a, and Ăr-chĭp'pus [c] our fellowsoldier, and to [d] the church in thy house:

3 [e] Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

4 [f] I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 [g] Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jē'sus, and toward all saints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by [h] the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Chrīst Jē'sus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints [i] are refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, [j] though I might be much bold in Chrīst to enjoin thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jē'sus Chrīst.

10 I beseech thee for my [k] son Ō-nĕs'i-mus, whom [l] I have begotten in my bonds:

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

12 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels:

13 Whom I would have retained with me, [m] that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel:

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; [n] that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

15 [o] For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;

16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, [p] a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, [q] both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore [r] a partner, receive him as myself.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account;

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 [s] Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for [t] I trust that [u] through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

23 There salute thee [v] Ēp'a-phrăs, my fellowprisoner in Chrīst Jē'sus;

24 [w] Mär'cus, [x] Ar-ĭs-tär'chus, Dē'mas, [y] Lu'cas, my fellowlabourers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst be with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE HEBREWS.

CHAPTER 1.

Christ, in person and office, preferred to angels.

A. D. 64.

GOD, who at sundry times and [a] in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath [b] in these last days [c] spoken unto us by his Son, [d] whom he hath appointed heir of all things, [e] by whom also he made the worlds;

3 [f] Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and [g] upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, [h] sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as [i] he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, [j] Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, [k] I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 [1] And again, when he bringeth in [l] the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, [m] And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And [2] of the angels he saith, [n] Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, [o] Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of [3] righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, [p] hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, [q] Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 [r] They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, [s] Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

1 We ought to be obedient to Jesus Christ. 14 Why Christ assumed human nature.

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should [1]let them slip.

2 For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great [a]salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and [2]gifts of the Hō'lў Ghōst, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, [b]What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him [3]a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

9 But we see Jē'şus, who was made a little lower than the angels [4]for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

10 [c]For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation [d]perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause [e]he is not ashamed to call them brethren,

12 Saying, [f]I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, [g]I will put my trust in him. And again, [h]Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he [i]also himself likewise took part of the same; [j]that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who [k]through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For verily [5]he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Ā'brăhăm.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him [l]to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 [m]For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Christ is more worthy than Moses. 7 He ought so to be more regarded.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider [a]the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Chrīst Jē'şus;

2 Who was faithful to him that [1b]appointed him, as also [c]Mō'şeş was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Mō'şeş, inasmuch as [d]he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but [e]he that built all things is God.

5 And Mō'şeş verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, [f]for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Chrīst as a son over his own house; [g]whose house are we, [h]if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore (as [i]the Hō'lў Ghōst saith, [j]To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I sware in my wrath, [2]They shall not enter into my rest.)

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Chrīst, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 [k]For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Ē'gўpt by Mō'şeş.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, [l]whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The rest of believers is attained by faith. 12 Power of God's word. 16 We must go boldly to the throne of grace.

LET us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but [1]the word preached did not profit them, [2]not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, [a]As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, [b]And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, [c]and they to whom [3]it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in Dā'vid, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, [d]To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if [4]Jē'şus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a [5]rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of [6]unbelief.

12 For the word of God is [e]quick, and powerful, and sharper than any [f]twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is [g]a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jē'şus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

15 For [h]we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but [i]was in all points tempted like as we are, [j]yet without sin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER 5.

Authority and honour of Christ's priesthood.

FOR every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, [a]that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 Who [1]can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And [b]by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 [c]And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as [d]was Aâr'ŏn.

5 [e]So also Chrīst glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, [f]Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, [g]Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Měl-chĭş'e-dĕc.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had [h]offered up prayers and supplications [i]with strong crying and tears unto him [j]that was able to save him from death, and was heard [2]in that he feared;

8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he [k]obedience by the things which he suffered;

9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God an high priest [l]after the order of Měl-chĭş'e-dĕc.

11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk [3]is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is [m]a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are [4]of full age, even those who by reason [5]of use have their senses exercised [n]to discern both good and evil.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Paul exhorts not to fall away from faith. 13 God is sure in his promise.

THEREFORE leaving [1]the principles of the doctrine of Chrīst, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 [a]Of the doctrine of baptisms, [b]and of laying on of hands, [c]and of resurrection of the dead, [d]and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, [e]if God permit.

4 For [f]it is impossible for those [g]who were once enlightened, and have tasted of [h]the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Hō'lў Ghōst,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; [i]seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them [2]by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For [j]God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence [k]to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience [l]inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Ā'bră-hăm, because he could swear by no greater, [m]he sware by himself,

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and [n] an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto [o] the heirs of promise [p] the immutability of his counsel, [3] confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope [q] set before us:

19 Which [r] hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, [s] and which entereth into that within the veil;

20 [t] Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jē'şus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Měl-chĭş'e-dĕc.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Christ is a priest after the order of Melchisedec. 11 More excellent than Aaron's priesthood.

FOR this [a] Měl-chĭş'e-dĕc, king of Sā'lem, priest of the most high God, who met Ā'bră-hăm returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Ā'bră-hăm gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Sā'lem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, [1] without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, [b] unto whom even the patriarch Ā'bră-hăm gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily [c] they that are of the sons of Lē'vī, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Ā'bră-hăm:

6 But he whose [2] descent is not counted from them received tithes of Ā'bră-hăm, and blessed [d] him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, [e] of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Lē'vī also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Ā'bră-hăm.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Měl-chĭş'e-dĕc met him.

11 [f] If therefore perfection were by the Lĕ-vĭt'ĭ-cal priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Měl-chĭş'e-dĕc, and not be called after the order of Aâr'ọn?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that [g] our Lord sprang out of Jū'dȧ; of which tribe Mō'şeş spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Měl-chĭş'e-dĕc there ariseth another priest,

16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, [h] Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Měl-chĭş'e-dĕc.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for [i] the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For [j] the law made nothing perfect, [3] but the bringing in of [k] a better hope did; by the which [l] we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:

21 (For those priests were made [4] without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, [m] The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Měl-chĭş'e-dĕc:)

22 By so much was Jē'şus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he [n] continueth ever, hath [5] an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to [6] the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth [o] to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, [p] and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, [q] first for his own sins, [r] and then for the people's: for [s] this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh [t] men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, [u] who is [7] consecrated for evermore.

CHAPTER 8.

The new and better covenant supersedes the old.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, [a] who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister [1] of the sanctuary, and of [b] the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore [c] it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that [2] there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and [d] shadow of heavenly things, as Mō'şeş was admonished of God

when he was about to make the tabernacle: [e]for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now [f]hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better [3]covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, [g]Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Ĭs'ra-el and with the house of Jū'dah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Ē'gўpt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Ĭs'ra-el after those days, saith the Lord; I will [4]put my laws into their mind, and write them [5]in their hearts: and [h]I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And [i]they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Description of the rites and bloody sacrifices of the law. 11 Their inferiority to the sacrifice of Christ.

THEN verily the first covenant had also [1]ordinances of divine service, and a [a]worldly sanctuary.

2 [b]For there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and [c]the table, and the shewbread; which is called [2]the sanctuary.

3 [d]And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;

4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was [e]the golden pot that had manna, and [f]Aâr'on's rod that budded, and [g]the tables of the covenant;

5 And [h]over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, [i]the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone [i]once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

8 [k]The Hō'lў Ghōst this signifying, that [l]the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, [m]that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

10 Which stood only in [n]meats and drinks, and [o]divers washings, [p]and carnal [3]ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Chrīst being come an high priest [q]of good things to come, [r]by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but [s]by his own blood he entered in [t]once into the holy place, [u]having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if [v]the blood of bulls and of goats, and [w]the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more [x]shall the blood of Chrīst, [y]who through the eternal Spirit [z]offered himself without [4]spot to God, [a]purge your conscience from [b]dead works [c]to serve the living God?

15 [d]And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, [e]that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, [f]they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity [5]be the death of the testator.

17 For [g]a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 [h]Whereupon neither the first testament was [6]dedicated without blood.

19 For when Mō'sĕs had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, [i]with water, and [7]scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

20 Saying, [j]This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover [k]he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and [l]without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that [m]the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For [n]Chrīst is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now [o]to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once [p]in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 [q]And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:

28 So [r]Chrīst was once [s]offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he [t]appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Sacrifices of the law ineffective. 10 Christ's sacrifice all-effective. 19 Exhortation to hold fast the faith.

FOR the law having [a]a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then [1]would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 [b]But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For [c]it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, [d]Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body [2]hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 [e]By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jē'ṣus Chrīst once for all.

11 And every priest standeth [f]daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 [g]But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting [h]till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 [i]Whereof the Hō'lў Ghōst also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 [j]This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 [3]And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, [4]boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jē'ṣus,

20 By [k]a new and living way, which he hath [5]consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having an high priest over [l]the house of God;

22 Let us draw near with a true heart [m]in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and [n]our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for [o]he is faithful that promised;)

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

25 [p]Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and [q]so much the more, as ye see [r]the day approaching.

26 For [s]if we sin wilfully [t]after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and [u]fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 He that despised Mō'ṣeṣ' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and [v]hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, [w]and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said, [x]Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, [y]The Lord shall judge his people.

31 [z]It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But [a]call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured [b]a great fight of afflictions;

33 Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst [c]ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and [d]took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing [6]in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

36 [e]For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, [f]ye might receive the promise.

37 For [g]yet a little while, and [h]he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Of faith. 6 Without faith, God is not pleased. 7 Fruits thereof.

NOW faith is the [1]substance of things hoped for, the evidence [a]of things not seen.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that [b]the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith [c]Ā'bĕl offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cāin, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead [2]yet speaketh.

5 By faith [d]Ē'nŏch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But [e]without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith [f]Nō'ah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, [3]moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of [g]the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Ā'bră-hăm, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, [h]dwelling in tabernacles with Ī'ṣaac and Jā'cob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, [i]whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also [j]Sā'rà herself received strength to conceive seed, and [k]was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and [l]him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died [4]in faith, not having received the promises, but [m]having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and [n]confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things [o]declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed [p]to be called their God: for [q]he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith [r]Ā'bră-hăm, when he was tried, offered up Ī'ṣaac: and he that had received the promises [s]offered up his only begotten son,

18 [5]Of whom it was said, [t]That in Ī'ṣaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith [u]Ī'ṣaac blessed Jā'cob and Ē'saụ concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jā'cob, when he was a dying, [v]blessed both the sons of Jō'ṣeph; and [w]worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith [x]Jō'ṣeph, when he died, [6]made mention of the departing of the children of Ĭṣ'raẹl; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith [y]Mō'ṣeṣ, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's [z]commandment.

24 By faith Mō'ṣeṣ, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Phā'raōh's daughter;

25 [a]Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming the reproach [7]of Chrīst greater riches than the treasures in Ē'ġўpt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith [b]he forsook Ē'ġўpt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith [c]he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

29 By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Ē-ġўp'tiạnṣ assaying to do were drowned.

30 By faith [d]the walls of Jĕr'ĭ-chō fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith [e]the harlot Rā'hăb perished not with them [8]that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of [f]Gĕd'ẹ-on, and of [g]Bā'rak, and of [h]Săm'son, and of [i]Jĕph'thă-ē; of [j]Dā'vid also, and [k]Săm'u-el, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, [l]stopped the mouths of lions,

34 [m]Quenched the violence of fire, [n]escaped the edge of the sword, [o]out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, [p]turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 [q]Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were [r]tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover [s]of bonds and imprisonment:

37 [t]They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: [u]they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and [v]in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having [9]provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be [w]made perfect.

CHAPTER 12.

1 An exhortation to faith, patience, and godliness. 5 The Lord's chastenings. 27 What this word signifies.

WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

A. D. 64.

2 [a]Looking unto Jē'sus the [1]author and finisher of our faith; [b]who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and [c]is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 [d]For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, [e]lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, [f]My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For [g]whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, [h]whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us [2]after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, [i]that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth [j]the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore [k]lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And make [3]straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; [l]but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, [m]without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently lest any man [4]fail of the grace of God; [n]lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Ē'sau, [o]who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterward, [p]when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no [5]place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto [q]the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard [r]intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Mō'sęs said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

22 But ye are come [s]unto mount Sī'ŏn, and [t]unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jĕ-rų'sălĕm, [u]and to an innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are [6]written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men [v]made perfect,

24 And to Jē'sus the mediator of the new [7]covenant, and to [w]the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things [x]than that of Ā'bĕl.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him [y]that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

26 [z]Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, [a]Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth [b]the removing of those things that [8]are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, [9]let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

29 For [c]our God is a consuming fire.

LET brotherly love continue.

2 [a]Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby [b]some have entertained angels unawares.

3 [c]Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, [d]I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, [e]The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 Remember them which [1]have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

8 Jē'sus Chrīst [f]the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

9 Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 [g]We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing [j]his reproach.

14 [k]For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 By him therefore let us offer [l]the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips [2]giving thanks to his name.

16 But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 Obey them that [3]have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for [m]they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Rejoicing under the cross. 5 Of patience. 19 On hearkening to and doing the word.

JĀMES, [a]a servant of God and of the Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst, [b]to the twelve tribes [c]which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;

3 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 [d]If any of you lack wisdom, [e]let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and [f]it shall be given him.

6 [g]But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree [1]rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 [h]Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive [i]the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with [2]evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, [j]with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 [k]Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of [l]firstfruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, [m]which is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For [n]if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But [o]whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, [p]this man shall be blessed in his [3]deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, [q]To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, [r]and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Respect rich and poor alike. 14 Of faith without works.

A. D. 60.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst, [a] the Lord of glory, with [b] respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your [1] assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here [2] in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, [c] Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of [3] the kingdom [d] which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, [e] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, [f] he is guilty of all.

11 For [4] he that said, [g] Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy [5] rejoiceth against judgment.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being [6] alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith [7] without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: [h] the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that [i] faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Ā'bră-hăm our father justified by works, [j] when he had offered Ī'ṣaac his son upon the altar?

22 [8] Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, [k] Ā'bră-hăm believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called [l] the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also [m] was not Rā'hăb the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the [9] spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER 3.

1 On rash reproof. 5 The tongue to be bridled. 13 Wisdom of mildness.

MY brethren, [a] be not many masters, [b] knowing that we shall receive the greater [1] condemnation.

2 For [c] in many things we offend all. [d] If any man offend not in word, [e] the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great [2] a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that [f] it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the [3] course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every [4] kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of [5] mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, [g] which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same [6] place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 [h] Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have [i] bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 [j] This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, [7] sensual, devilish.

16 For [k] where envying and strife is, there is [8] confusion and every evil work.

17 But [l] the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, [9] without partiality, [m] and without hypocrisy.

CHAPTER 4.

1 On strife against the passions. 13 Being mindful of life's uncertainty, commit all to God.

FROM whence come wars and [1]fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your [2]lusts that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye [3]kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because [a]ye ask not.

3 [b]Ye ask, and receive not, [c]because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your [4]lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that [d]the friendship of the world is enmity with God? [e]whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, [f]The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth [5]to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, [g]God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. [h]Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 [i]Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one lawgiver, [j]who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

13 Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? [6]It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore [k]to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Oppressions of the rich. 7 Patience under afflictions. 13 Prayer in adversity.

GO to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. [a]Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

4 Behold, [b]the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and [c]the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of săb'ā-ŏth.

5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 [1]Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive [d]the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: [e]for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 [2]Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge [f]standeth before the door.

10 [g]Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of [h]the patience of Jōb, and have seen [i]the end of the Lord; that [j]the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, [k]swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the [l]elders of the church; and let them pray over him, [m]anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; [n]and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. [o]The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 Ē-lī'as was a man subject to like passions as we are, and [p]he prayed [3]earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way [q]shall save a soul from death, and [r]shall hide a multitude of sins.

PETER.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Blessing for spiritual graces. 13 Exhortation to godliness.

PĒ'TĒR, an apostle of Jē'şus Chrīst, to the strangers [a]scattered throughout Pŏn'tus, Gā-lā'tiȧ, Căp-pą-dō'çi-ȧ, Ā'şiȧ, and Bĭ-thўn'ĭ-ȧ,

2 Elect [b]according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, [c]through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling [d]of the blood of Jē'şus Chrīst: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jē'şus Chrīst, which according to his [1]abundant mercy [e]hath begotten us again unto a lively hope [f]by the resurrection of Jē'şus Chrīst from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven [2]for you,

5 [g]Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 [h]Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though [i]it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jē'şus Chrīst:

8 [j]Whom having not seen, ye love; [k]in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 [l]Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 Searching what, or what manner of time [m]the Spirit of Chrīst which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand [n]the sufferings of Chrīst, and the glory that should follow.

12 [o]Unto whom it was revealed, that [p]not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with [q]the Hō'lў Ghōst sent down from heaven; [r]which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope [3]to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you [s]at the revelation of Jē'şus Chrīst;

14 As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

16 Because it is written, [t]Be ye holy; for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your [u]sojourning here in fear:

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation [v]received by tradition from your fathers;

19 But [w]with the precious blood of Chrīst, [x]as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

20 [y]Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest [z]in these last times for you,

21 Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and [a]gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:

23 [b]Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, [c]by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

24 [4]For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

25 [d]But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

CHAPTER 2.

6 Christ the chief corner stone. 13 An exhortation to obedience. 18 Duty of servants. 21 Christ our example.

WHEREFORE laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,

2 [a]As newborn babes, desire the sincere [b]milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3 If so be ye have [c]tasted that the Lord is gracious.

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 [d]Ye also, as lively stones, [1]are built up a spiritual house, [e]an holy priesthood, to offer up [f]spiritual sacrifices, [g]acceptable to God by Jē'şus Chrīst.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, [h]Behold, I lay in Sī'ŏn a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7 Unto you therefore which believe he is [2]precious: but unto them which be disobedient, [i]the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 [j]And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: [k]whereunto also they were appointed.

9 But ye are [l]a chosen generation, [m]a royal priesthood, [n]an holy nation, [3]a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the [4]praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

10 [o]Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

12 Having your conversation honest among the Gĕn'tīleş: that, [5]whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God [p]in the day of visitation.

13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 As free, and not [6]using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

17 [7]Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is [8]thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is [9]acceptable with God.

21 For even hereunto were ye called: because Chrīst also suffered [10]for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 [q]Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

23 [r]Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but [11]committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

24 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body [12]on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: [s]by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For [t]ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned [u]unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Duties of husbands and wives. 8 Of unity and love. 19 Benefits of Christ toward the old world.

LIKEWISE, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, [a]they also may without the word [b]be won by the conversation of the wives;

2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 [c]Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be [d]the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

A. D. 60.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sā'rà obeyed Ā'bră-hăm, [e]calling him lord: whose [1]daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; [f]that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, [2]love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, [g]that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For [h]he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, [i]and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is [3]against them that do evil.

13 [j]And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 [k]But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and [l]be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and [m]be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and [4]fear:

16 Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Chrīst.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye [n]suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

18 For Chrīst also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death [o]in the flesh, but [p]quickened by the Spirit:

19 By [q]which also he went and preached unto the spirits [r]in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Nō'ah, while [s]the ark was a preparing, [t]wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

21 [u]The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jē'şus Chrīst:

22 Who is gone into heaven, and [v]is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

same mind: for [a] he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

3 For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gĕn'tīleṣ, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready [b] to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For for this cause [c] was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But [d] the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for [e] charity [1] shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 Use hospitality one to another [f] without grudging.

10 As [g] every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 [h] If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that [i] God in all things may be glorified through Jē'ṣus Chrīst, [j] to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13 But rejoice, inasmuch as [k] ye are partakers of Chrīst's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 [l] If ye be reproached for the name of Chrīst, happy are ye; for the [m] spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But [n] let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Chrĭs'tian, let him not be ashamed; [o] but let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and [p] if it first begin at us, [q] what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

18 [r] And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God [s] commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

1 Exhortation to elders and congregations. 8 All to be sober and watchful.

THE elders which are among you I exhort, who am also [a] an elder, and [b] a witness of the sufferings of Chrīst, and also [c] a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 [d] Feed the flock of God [1] which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as [2] being lords over [e] God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock.

4 And when [f] the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, [g] all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and [h] giveth grace to the humble.

6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 [i] Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

9 Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Chrīst Jē'ṣus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 [j] By Sĭl-vā'nus, a faithful brother unto you, as I suppose, I have written [k] briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

13 The church that is at [l] Băb'ў-lon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth [m] Mär'cus my son.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

CHAPTER 1.

5 Exhortation to faith and good works. 16 The promises of the gospel.

SĪ'MON Pē'tĕr, a servant and an apostle of Jē'ṣus Chrīst, to them that have obtained [a] like precious faith with us through the righteousness [1] of God and our Saviour Jē'ṣus Chrīst:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jē'ṣus our Lord,

A. D. 66.

a Acts 11. 17. Eph. 4. 5.
1 of our God and Saviour.
b John 17. 3.
c 1 Thess. 2. 12. 2 Tim. 1. 9. 1 Pet. 2. 9.
2 Or, by.
d 2 Cor. 7. 1.
e Eph. 4. 24. Heb. 12. 10. 1 John 3. 2.

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, [b] through the knowledge of him [c] that hath called us [2] to glory and virtue:

4 [d] Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be [e] partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue ; and to virtue [f]knowledge ;
6 And to knowledge temperance ; and to temperance patience ; and to patience godliness ;
7 And to godliness brotherly kindness ; and [g] to brotherly kindness charity.
8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be [3] barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst.
9 But he that lacketh these things [h] is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was [i] purged from his old sins.
10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence [j] to make your calling and election sure : for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall :
11 [k] For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jē'ṣus Chrīst.
12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.
13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance ;
14 [l] Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as [m] our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst hath shewed me.
15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.
16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.
17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, [n] This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in [o] the holy mount.
19 We have also a more [p] sure word of prophecy ; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and [q] the day star arise in your hearts :
20 Knowing this first, that [r] no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.
21 For [s] the prophecy came not [4] in old time by the will of man : [t] but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Hō'lў Ghōst.

CHAPTER 2.

2 Of false teachers. 3 Their impiety and punishment. 9 The godly shall be delivered.

BUT [a] there were false prophets also among the people, even as [b] there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord [c] that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.
2 And many shall follow their [1] pernicious ways ; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.
3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you : whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.
4 For if God spared not [d] the angels [e] that sinned, but [f] cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment ;
5 And spared not the old world, but saved Nō'ah [g] the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly ;
6 And [h] turning the cities of Sŏd'om and Gō-mŏr'-rhà into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly ;
7 And delivered just Lŏt, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked :
8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds ;)
9 [i] The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished :
10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise [2] government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.
11 Whereas [j] angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation [3] against them before the Lord.
12 But these, [k] as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not ; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption ;
13 [l] And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure [m] to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while [n] they feast with you ;
14 Having eyes full of [4] adultery, and that cannot cease from sin ; beguiling unstable souls : an heart they have exercised with covetous practices ; cursed children :
15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of [o] Bā'lạam the son of Bō'sŏr, who loved the wages of unrighteousness ;
16 But was rebuked for his iniquity : the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.
17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest ; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.
18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that [p] were [5] clean escaped from them who live in error.
19 While they promise them [q] liberty, they themselves are [r] the servants of corruption : for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.
20 For [s] if after they [t] have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jē'ṣus Chrīst, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Certainty of Christ's coming. 8 Final warning to the godly. 10 Last day described.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which [a] I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, [b] and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 [c] Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, [d] walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, [e] Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that [f] by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth [1] standing out of the water and in the water:

6 [g] Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto [h] fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and [i] a thousand years as one day.

9 [j] The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but [k] is longsuffering to us-ward, [l] not willing that any should perish, but [m] that all should come to repentance.

10 But [n] the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which [o] the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness,

12 Looking for and [2] hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall [p] be dissolved, and the elements shall [q] melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for [r] new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that [s] the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;

16 As also in all his epistles, [t] speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, [u] beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jē'ṣus Chrīst. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Of fellowship and communion with God. 5 Walking in the light.

THAT [a] which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, [b] which we have looked upon, and [c] our hands have handled, of the [d] Word of life;

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, [e] which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly [f] our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jē'ṣus Chrīst.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that [g] God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jē'ṣus Chrīst his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 [h] If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 [i] If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Christ the propitiation for sins. 18 Warning against seducers.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, [a] we have an advocate with the Father, Jē'ṣus Chrīst the righteous:

2 And [b] he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but [c] also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But [d] whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 [e] He that saith he abideth in him [f] ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, [g] I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment [h] which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, [i] a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: [j] because the darkness is past, and [k] the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and [l] there is none [1] occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and [m] walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because [n] your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him [o] that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because [p] ye are strong, and [q] the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. [r] If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, [s] and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God [t] abideth for ever.

18 Little children, [u] it is the last time: and as ye have heard that [v] antichrist shall come, [w] even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for [x] if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that [y] they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But [z] ye have an unction [a] from the Holy One, and [b] ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jē'sus is the Chrīst? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] [c] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, [d] which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, [e] ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 [f] And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and [g] ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing [h] teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in [2] him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 [i] If ye know that he is righteous, [3] ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The love of God toward us. 11 Exhortation to brotherly love.

BEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that [a] we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, [b] because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and [c] it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, [d] we shall be like him; for [e] we shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know that he was manifested [f] to take away our sins; and [g] in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: [h] he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 [i] He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, [j] that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 [k] Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for [l] his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the [1] message that ye heard from the beginning, [m] that we should love one another.

12 Not as [n]Cāin, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 [o]Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that [p]no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 [q]Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But [r]whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know [s]that we are of the truth, and shall [2]assure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 [t]Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, [u]then have we confidence toward God.

22 And [v]whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, [w]and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jē'ṣus Chrīst, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And he that keepeth his commandments [x]dwelleth in him, and he in him. And [y]hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Make test of the spirits. 7 Love of God and one another.

BELOVED, [a]believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because [b]many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: [c]Every spirit that confesseth that Jē'ṣus Chrīst is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And [d]every spirit that confesseth not that Jē'ṣus Chrīst is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than [e]he that is in the world.

5 [f]They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, [g]and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: [h]he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we [i]the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for [j]God is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, [k]not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 [l]No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 [m]Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And [n]we have seen and do testify that [o]the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 [p]Whosoever shall confess that Jē'ṣus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is [1]our love made perfect, that [q]we may have boldness in the day of judgment: [r]because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And [s]this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Love of God is to keep his commandments. 7 The three Spirits of witness. 14 God will hear prayer.

WHOSOEVER [a]believeth that [b]Jē'ṣus is the Chrīst is born of God: [c]and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 [d]For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and [e]his commandments are not grievous.

4 For [f]whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but [g]he that believeth that Jē'ṣus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came [h]by water and blood, even Jē'ṣus Chrīst; not by water only, but by water and blood. [i]And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 [j]For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, [k]the Word, and the Hō'lў Ghōst: [l]and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive [m] the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: [n] for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God [o] hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God [p] hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and [q] this life is in his Son.

12 [r] He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

13 [s] These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; [t] that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have [1] in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jē'ṣus Chrīst. [x] This is the true God, and eternal life.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF
JOHN.

An exhortation to the elect lady and her children.

THE [a] elder unto the elect lady and her children, [b] whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known [c] the truth;

2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 Grace [1] be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children [d] walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, [e] not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, [f] that we love one another.

6 And [g] this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, [h] as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

9 Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Chrīst, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Chrīst, he hath both the Father and the Son.

10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, [i] neither bid him God speed:

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF
JOHN.

1 Gaius commended for piety and charity. 12 Demetrius' good report.

THE elder unto the wellbeloved [a] Gā'ịus, whom I love [1] in the truth.

2 Beloved, I [2] wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

e 1 Cor. 9. 12, 15. 2 Cor. 11. 7.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou [d] doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey [3] after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, [e] taking nothing of the Gĕn'tīleṣ.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church: but Dī-ŏt'rĕ-phēṣ, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

11 Beloved, [f]follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. [g]He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

12 Dē-mē'trĭ-us hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; [h]and ye know that our record is true.

13 I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

14 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak [4]face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE.

Exhortation to earnestly contend for the faith.

JŪDE, the servant of Jē'sus Chrīst, and [a]brother of Jāmes, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and [b]preserved in Jē'sus Chrīst, and [c]called:

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you [d]of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, [e]who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning [f]the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and [g]denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Ē'gўpt, afterward [h]destroyed them that believed not.

6 And [i]the angels which kept not their [1]first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness [j]unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as [k]Sŏd'om and Gō-mŏr'rhà, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after [2]strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and [l]speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet [m]Mī'chaël the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the [n]body of Mō'sēs, [o]durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, [p]The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way [q]of Cāin, and [r]ran greedily after the error of Bā'laam for reward, and perished [s]in the gainsaying of Cō'rē.

12 These are spots in your [t]feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, [u]carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 [v]Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And Ē'nŏch also, [w]the seventh from Ăd'ăm, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, [x]the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,

15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, [y]having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst;

18 How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they [z]who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, [a]building up yourselves on your most holy faith, [b]praying in the Hō'lў Ghōst,

21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst unto eternal life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

23 And others [c]save with fear, [d]pulling them out of the fire; hating even [e]the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 [f]Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and [g]to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,

25 [h]To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

THE REVELATION
OF ST. JOHN THE DIVINE.

CHAPTER 1.

A. D. 96.

1 Salutation to the seven churches. 7 Of Christ's coming. 14 Glory of his power and majesty.

THE Revelation of Jē'ṣus Chrīst, [a] which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and [b] he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant Jŏhn:

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jē'ṣus Chrīst, and of all things [c] that he saw.

3 [d] Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 JŌHN to the seven churches which are in Ā'ṣịà: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him [e] which is, and [f] which was, and which is to come; and [g] from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jē'ṣus Chrīst, [h] who is the faithful witness, and the [i] first begotten of the dead, and [j] the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him [k] that loved us, [l] and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; [m] to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 [n] Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and [o] they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 [p] I am Ā'lphȧ and Ō'me-gȧ, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I Jŏhn, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and [q] in the kingdom and patience of Jē'ṣus Chrīst, was in the isle that is called Păt'mos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jē'ṣus Chrīst.

10 [r] I was in the Spirit on [s] the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet,

11 Saying, I am Ā'lphȧ and Ō'me-gȧ, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Ā'ṣịà; unto Ēph'ĕ-sŭs, and unto Smȳr'nȧ, and unto Pĕr'ga-mŏs, and unto Thȳ-ā-tī'rȧ, and unto Sär'dis, and unto Phĭl-ā-dĕl'phĭ-ȧ, and unto Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ȧ.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, [t] I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks [u] one like unto the Son of man, [v] clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and [w] his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and [x] his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 [y] And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and [z] his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and [a] out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: [b] and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And [c] when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And [d] he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; [e] I am the first and the last:

18 [f] I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and [g] have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are [h] the angels of the seven churches: and the [i] seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

CHAPTER 2.

Messages to the angels of the churches.

UNTO the angel of the church of [a] Ĕph'ĕ-sŭs write; These things saith [b] he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 [c] I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and [d] thou hast tried them [e] which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast [f] not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; [g] or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nĭc-ọ-lā'ī-taneṣ, which I also hate.

7 [h] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give [i] to eat of [j] the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smȳr'nȧ write; These things saith [k] the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art [l] rich) and I know the blasphemy of [m] them which say they are Jewṣ, and are not, but are the synagogue of Sā'tan.

10 [n] Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: [o] be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee [p] a crown of life.

11 [q] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of [r] the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pĕr'ga-mŏs write; These things saith [s]he which hath [t]the sharp sword with two edges;

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Sā'tan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Ăn'tĭ-păs was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, [u]where Sā'tan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of [v]Bā'laam, who taught Bā'lăc to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Ĭs'ra-el, [w]to eat things sacrificed unto idols, [x]and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nĭc-o-lā'i-tanes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and [y]will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone [z]a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thy-a-tī'ra write; These things saith the Son of God, [a]who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman [b]Jĕz'e-bĕl, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space [c]to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that [d]I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and [e]I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thy-a-tī'ra, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not [f]known the depths of Sā'tan, as they speak; [g]I will put upon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye have already hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth [h]my works unto the end, [i]to him will I give power over the nations:

27 [j]And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him [k]the morning star.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Messages to the angels of the churches of Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea. 20 Christ stands at the door and knocks.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sär'dis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, [a]and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. [b]If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast [c]a few names even in Sär'dis which have not [d]defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me [e]in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not [f]blot out his name out of the [g]book of life, but [h]I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Phĭl-a-dĕl'phĭ-a write; These things saith [i]he that is holy, [j]he that is true, he that hath [k]the key of Dā'vid, [l]he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and [m]shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee [n]an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Sā'tan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, [o]I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, [p]I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make [q]a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and [r]I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is [s]new Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, [t]which cometh down out of heaven from my God: [t]and I will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church [1]of the Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ans write; These things saith the [u]Amen, the faithful and true [v]witness, the [w]beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest, [x]I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and know-est not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked :

18 I counsel thee [y] to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich ; and [z] white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear ; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

19 [a] As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten : be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, [b] I stand at the door, and knock : [c] if any man hear my voice, and open the door, [d] I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh [e] will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER 4.

2 John sees the throne of God in heaven. 4 Four and twenty elders. 6 The four beasts. 10 The elders worship him that sat upon the throne.

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven : and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me ; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately I [a] was in the spirit : and, behold, [b] a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone : [c] and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats : and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment ; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices : [d] and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was [e] a sea of glass like unto crystal : [f] and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind.

7 [g] And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them [h] six wings about him ; and they were full of eyes within : and [1] they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,

10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power : for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

CHAPTER 5.

The sealed book which only the Lamb is worthy to open.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne [a] a book written within and on the backside, [b] sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof ?

3 And [c] no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not : behold, [d] the Lion of the tribe of Jū'dȧ, [e] the Root of Dā'vid, hath [f] prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood [g] a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and [h] seven eyes, which are [i] the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them [j] harps, and golden vials full of [1] odours, [k] which are the prayers of saints.

9 And [l] they sung a new song, saying, [m] Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof : for thou wast slain, and [n] hast redeemed us to God by thy blood [o] out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation ;

10 [p] And hast made us unto our God kings and priests : and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders : and the number of them was [q] ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands ;

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And [r] every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, [s] Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, [t] and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAPTER 6.

The opening of the seals in order.

AND I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold [a]a white horse: [b]and he that sat on him had a bow; [c]and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 [d]And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo [e]a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, [1]A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and [f]see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given [2]unto them over the fourth part of the earth, [g]to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and [h]with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under [i]the altar [j]the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for [k]the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, [l]How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, [m]that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, [n]and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the [o]sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her [3]untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 [p]And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and [q]every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, [r]hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 [s]For the great day of his wrath is come; [t]and who shall be able to stand?

CHAPTER 7.

1 Sealing of the servants of God. 9 The number sealed. 14 Their robes were washed in the blood of the Lamb.

AND after these things I saw four [a]angels standing on the four corners of the earth, [b]holding the four winds of the earth, [c]that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, [d]Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have [e]sealed the servants of our God [f]in their foreheads.

4 [g]And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed [h]an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Ĭs'ra-el.

5 Of the tribe of Jū'dà were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reu'ben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Găd were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Ā'sẽr were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nĕp'tha-lĭm were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Mă-năs'sēs were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Sĭm'e-on were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Lē'vī were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Ĭs'sa-char were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zăb'u-lon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Jō'seph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Bĕn'ja-min were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, [i]a great multitude, which no man could number, [j]of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, [k]clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, [l]Salvation to our God [m]which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 [n]And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 [o]Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, [p]These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have [q]washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall [r]dwell among them.

16 [s]They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more ; [t]neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne [u]shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters : [v]and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Opening the seventh seal. 2 The angels and their trumpets. 6 What followed the soundings.

AND when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 [a]And I saw the seven angels which stood before God ; [b]and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another [c]angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer ; and there was given unto him much [d]incense, that he should [1]offer it with [e]the prayers of all saints upon [f]the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And [g]the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it [2]into the earth : and [h]there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, [i]and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, [j]and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast [k]upon the earth : and the third part [l]of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea : and the third part of the sea [m]became blood ;

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died ; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters ;

11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood : [n]and the third part of the waters became wormwood ; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 [o]And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars ; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, [p]and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, [q]Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound !

CHAPTER 9.

1 After the fifth angel sounds, a star falls from heaven. 12 Sounding of the sixth trumpet. 14 Four angels let loose from their bonds.

AND the fifth angel sounded, [a]and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth : and to him was given the key of [b]the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit ; [c]and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace ; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke [d]locusts upon the earth : and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them [e]that they should not hurt [f]the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree ; but only those men which have not [g]the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, [h]but that they should be tormented five months : and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days [i]shall men seek death, and shall not find it ; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And [j]the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle ; [k]and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, [l]and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and [m]their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron ; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails : and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 [n]And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hē'brew tongue is Ā-băd'don, but in the Greek tongue hath his name [1]Ā-pŏll'yon.

12 [o]One woe is past ; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound [p]in the great river Eū-phrā'tēş.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared [2]for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And [q]the number of the army [r]of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand : [s]and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone : [t]and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions ; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails : [u]for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues [v]yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship [w]devils,

A. D. 96.

[x] and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER 10.

1 The strong angel and the book. 9 John eats the book.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: [a] and a rainbow was upon his head, and [b] his face was as it were the sun, and [c] his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: [d] and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, [e] seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, [f] Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that [g] liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, [h] that there should be time no longer:

7 But [i] in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, [j] Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAPTER 11.

3 The two witnesses prophesy. 15 Sounding of the seventh trumpet.

AND there was given me [a] a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, [b] Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But [c] the court which is without the temple [1] leave out, and measure it not; [d] for it is given unto the Gĕn'tīleṣ: and the holy city shall they [e] tread under foot [f] forty and two months.

3 And [2] I will give power unto my two [g] witnesses, [h] and they shall prophesy [i] a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the [j] two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, [k] fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: [l] and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These [m] have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and [n] have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they [o] shall have finished their testimony, [p] the beast that ascendeth [q] out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of [r] the great city, which spiritually is called Sŏd'om and Ē'gўpt, [s] where also our Lord was crucified.

9 [t] And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, [u] and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 [v] And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three days and an half [w] the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. [x] And they ascended up to heaven [y] in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, [z] and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain [3] of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And the seventh angel sounded; [a] and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Chrīst; [b] and he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,

17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, [c] and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which [4] destroy the earth.

19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple [d] the ark of his testament; and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Of the woman clothed with the sun. 9 The great red dragon.

A. D. 96.

AND there appeared a great [1]wonder in heaven; a [a]woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And she being with child cried, [b]travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another [2]wonder in heaven; and behold a [c]great red dragon, [d]having seven heads and ten horns, [e]and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And [f]his tail drew the third part [g]of the stars of heaven, [h]and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, [i]for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man child, [j]who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there [k]a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: [l]Mī'chaĕl and his angels fought [m]against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And [n]the great dragon was cast out, [o]that old serpent, called the Dĕv'il, and Sā'tan, which deceiveth the whole world: [p]he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, [q]Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Chrīst: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, [r]which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And [s]they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; [t]and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. [u]Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, [v]because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.

14 [w]And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly [x]into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished [y]for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent [z]cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, [a]and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have [b]the testimony of Jē'sus Chrīst.

CHAPTER 13.

1 The beast to which the dragon gives his power. 18 The number of the beast.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw [a]a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the [1]name of blasphemy.

2 [b]And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and [c]the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were [2]wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and [d]all the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, [e]Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him [f]a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him [3]to continue [g]forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, [h]and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him [i]to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, [j]whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain [k]from the foundation of the world.

9 If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 [l]He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: [m]he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. [n]Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And [o]he doeth great wonders, [p]so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth, by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and [q]did live.

15 And he had power to give [4]life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, [r]and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, [5]to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or [s]the name of the beast, [t]or the number of his name.

CHAPTER 14.

1 The Lamb and his company. 8 Fall of Babylon. 20 Vintage and winepress of God's wrath.

AND I looked, and, lo, a [a]Lamb stood on the mount Sī'ŏn, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, [b]having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; [c]for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These [1]were redeemed from among men, [d]being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And [e]in their mouth was found no guile: for [f]they are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, [g]having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: [h]and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, [i]Băb'ў-lon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same [j]shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And [k]the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 [l]Here is the patience of the saints: [m]here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jē'sus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, [n]Blessed are the dead [o]which die in the Lord [2]from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, [p]that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat [q]like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, [r]Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest [s]of the earth is [3]ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, [t]which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, [u]Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into [v]the great winepress of the wrath of God.

20 And [w]the winepress was trodden [x]without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAPTER 15.

1 The seven angels with the seven last plagues. 3 Song of the victors. 7 The seven vials of wrath.

AND I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, [a]seven angels having the seven last plagues; [b]for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were [c]a sea of glass [d]mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, [e]and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

3 And they sing [f]the song of Mō'sēs the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, [g]Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; [h]just and true are thy ways, thou King of [1]saints.

4 [i]Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for [j]all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, [k]the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, [l]clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 [m]And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And [n]the temple was filled with smoke [o]from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAPTER 16.

1 The angel pours out the vials of wrath. 15 Christ comes as a thief.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial [a]upon the earth; and [b]there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men [c]which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and [d]it became as the blood of a dead man: [e]and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, [f]Thou art righteous, O Lord, [g]which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For [h]they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, [i]and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, [j]true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were [1]scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: [k]and they repented not to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial [l]upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial [m]upon the great river Eū-phrā'tēs; [n]and the water thereof was dried up, [o]that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three [p]unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of [q]the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 [r]For they are the spirits of devils, [s]working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth [t]and of the whole world, to gather them to [u]the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 [v]Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, [w]lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hē'brew tongue Är-ma-gĕd'don.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, [x]It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, [y]such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And [z]the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Băb'y-lon [a]came in remembrance before God, [b]to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

CHAPTER 17.

3 The woman arrayed in purple and scarlet. 14 Victory of the Lamb.

AND there came [a]one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of [b]the great whore [c]that sitteth upon many waters:

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and [d]the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit [e]into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit [f]upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of [g]names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman [h]was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and [1]decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, [i]having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, [j]MYSTERY, BĂB'Y-LON [k]THE GREAT, [l]THE MOTHER OF [2]HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of [m]the martyrs of Jē'sus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and [n]shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And [o]here is the mind which hath wisdom. [p]The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And [q]the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have [r]one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 [s]These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: [t]for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: [u]and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

CHAPTER 18.

2 Babylon is fallen. 9 Lamentations. 20 Rejoicings of the saints.

AND after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; [a]and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, [b]Băb'ў-lon the great is fallen, is fallen, and [c]is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and [d]a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the [1]abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, [e]Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 [f]For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 [g]Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

7 [h]How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a [i]queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: [j]for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And [k]the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, [l]shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, [m]Alas, alas that great city Băb'ў-lon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And [n]the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all [2]thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and [3]slaves, and [o]souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And [p]every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, 18 [q]And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!

19 And [r]they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 [s]Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for [t]God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, [u]Thus with violence shall that great city Băb'ў-lon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 [v]And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; [w]and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: [x]for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; [y]for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that [z]were slain upon the earth.

CHAPTER 19.

1 God is praised in heaven for his judgments. 7 Marriage of the Lamb.

AND after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Ăl-le-lū'ĭą; [a]Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and [b]hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Ăl-le-lū'ĭą. And [c]her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And [d]the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, [e]Amen; Ăl-le-lū'ĭą.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, [f]Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 [g]And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Āl-le-lū'ĭà: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be [h]glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for [i]the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And [j]to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and [1]white: [k]for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, [l]Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 And [m]I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, [n]See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren [o]that have the testimony of Jē'sus: worship God: for the testimony of Jē'sus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called [p]Faithful and True, and [q]in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; [r]and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

13 [s]And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called [t]The Word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, [u]clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And [v]out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and [w]he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and [x]he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, [y]KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, [z]Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 [a]And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. [b]These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

CHAPTER 20.

2 Satan bound for a thousand years. 6 The first resurrection. 12 The last.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, [a]having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on [b]the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Dĕv'il, and Sā'tan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and [c]set a seal upon him, [d]that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw [e]thrones, and they sat upon them, and [f]judgment was given unto them: and I saw [g]the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jē'sus, and for the word of God, and [h]which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and [i]reigned with Chrīst a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such [j]the second death hath no power, but they shall be [k]priests of God and of Chrīst, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Sā'tan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out [l]to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, [m]Gŏg and Mā'gŏg, [n]to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 [o]And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them.

10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face [p]the earth and the heaven fled away; [q]and there was found no place for them.

12 And [r]I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; [s]and the books were opened: and another [t]book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, [u]according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and [1]hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And [v]death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER 21.

1 A new heaven and earth. 10 The heavenly Jerusalem.

AND [a]I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more [b]sea.

2 And I Jŏhn saw [c]the holy city, new Jĕ-rụ'să-lĕm, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared [d]as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, [e]the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 [f]And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and [g]there shall be no more death, [h]neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And [i]he that sat upon the throne said, [j]Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Ăl'phȧ and Ō'me-gȧ, the beginning and the end. [k]I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that [l]overcometh shall inherit [1]all things; and [m]I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 [n]But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me [o]that great city, the holy Jĕ-rụ'să-lĕm, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Ĭs'rą̂-el:

13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and [p]in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me [q]had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 [r]And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

22 [t]And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 [u]And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 [v]And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for [w]there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 [x]And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's [y]book of life.

CHAPTER 22.

1 River and tree of life. 5 God the light of the city. 13 The Alpha and Omega.

AND he shewed me [a]a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there [b]the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were [c]for the healing of the nations.

3 And [d]there shall be no more curse: [e]but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

4 And [f]they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for [g]the Lord God giveth them light: [h]and they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the [i]holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

10 [j]And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. [r]And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, [t]God shall take away his part [1]out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

2349	VII. 11.	The flood comes upon the earth in the 600th year of Noah's age.
		PERIOD II.
		From Noah's age to Terah's dwelling at Haran, B. C. 1922.
8	Genesis VIII. 18,	THE flood ceaseth, and Noah, with his family, and the creatures he carried in with him, comes out of the ark, and offers a burnt-offering.
	20.	At the same time God makes a covenant with Noah and his seed, promis-
	IX. 9,	ing never more to destroy the world by water; as a token whereof he
	20.	placeth the rainbow in the cloud. The same year Noah begins to plant
346	XI. 10,	vines, and is drunk. Arphaxad born.
2311	12,	Salah born.
2281	14,	Eber born.
2247	16.	Peleg born: so called, because in his days the earth was divided.
2234	X. 8,	About this time Nimrod begins to exalt himself, by laying the first
	11.	foundation of the Assyrian monarchy. Nineveh, the metropolis of Assyria, built.
2233	XI. 4, 6, 8, 9,	About this time the posterity of Nimrod begin to build the city and tower of Babel, so called from the confusion of languages which God sent among the workmen.
2217	18.	Reu born.
2188	Ps. CV. 23. Is. XIX. 11.	Mizraim, the grandson of Ham, leads colonies into Egypt, and layeth the foundation of a kingdom, which lasted 1663 years: whence Egypt is called the land of Ham, and the Egyptian Pharaohs boasted themselves to be the sons of ancient kings.
2185	Gen. XI. 20,	Serug born.
2155	22,	Nahor born.
2126	24,	Terah, Abram's father, born.
2008	19,	Peleg, the sixth from Noah, dieth.
2007	25.	Nahor, the ninth from Noah, dieth.
1998	IX. 28, 29.	Noah dieth, aged 950 years, 350 years after the flood.
1996	XI. 32,	Abram born: he was 75 years of age when his father Terah died, aged 205 years: so that Terah begat not Abram in the 70th year of his age, but Nahor
	26,	and Haran, and in the 130th year of his age begat Abram. See Acts vii. 4.
1986	29, 30. XVII. 17.	Sarai Abram's wife (called also Iscah), Haran, Abram's brother's daughter, born ten years after her husband.
1978	XI. 21,	Reu, the seventh from Noah, dieth.
1955	23.	Serug, the eighth from Noah, dieth.
1922	XI. 31.	Terah with his family leaveth Ur of the Chaldeans, and dwells at Haran.
		PERIOD III.
		From Abram to the Ten Plagues, B. C. 1491.
1921	Genesis XII. 1, 2, 3,	ABRAM, after his father's decease, in the 75th year of his age, is commanded by God to enter upon the land of Canaan, which God promiseth to give unto his seed, and that in his seed (viz. Christ Jesus our Lord) all the families of the earth should be blessed.
	10. Gal. III. 17. Exodus XII. 40. Genesis XIII. XV. 2.	In the year following, a famine in the land of Canaan forceth Abram with his family to go into Egypt. From his first coming into Egypt to the departure of the children of Israel out of it, are reckoned 430 years. Abram and Lot in this same year return into Canaan; but the land not being sufficient for both their flocks, they part asunder. Lot goeth to Sodom. God reneweth his promise to Abram; he removeth to Hebron, and there buildeth an altar. Abram complaineth for want of an heir: God promiseth him a son, and a multiplying of his seed. Canaan is promised again, and confirmed by a sign.
1911	XVI. 1, 2,	Sarai, being barren, giveth Hagar her handmaid to Abram.
1910	15.	Ishmael, Hagar's son, born.
1908	XI. 13.	Arphaxad, the third from Noah, dieth.
1897	XVII. 5.	God maketh a covenant with Abram, and in token of a greater blessing changeth his name into Abraham. As a seal of this covenant, circumcision is ordained. Sarai her name is also changed into Sarah, and she is blessed. God promiseth them a son, and commandeth that his name be called Isaac: in him God promiseth to establish his covenant.

Before Christ.
	Genesis XVIII.	Abraham entertaineth three angels, who renew the promise to him of having a son. God revealeth to Abraham the destruction of Sodom, with whom Abraham intercedes for Lot and his family. See Gen. xix. 29.
	XXI.	Lot is commanded, for the preservation of himself and his family, to ge out of Sodom, and to flee to the mountain; but by much entreaty he obtaineth leave to go into Zoar. Sodom, Gomorrah, and all the cities in the vale of Siddim, with all the inhabitants of them, are, for the most horrible sins, destroyed by fire and brimstone from heaven. The Dead Sea remains a monument thereof unto this day. Lot's wife, for looking back upon Sodom, contrary to God's command, is turned into a pillar of salt; and Lot himself, fearing to continue at Zoar, leaves the plain country, and betakes himself to the mountain, carrying his two daughters with him.
1896	XXI. 2. XIX. 36.	Isaac born in the 100th year of Abraham's age. Not long after, to Lot are born Moab and Ammon, his sons at the same time, and his grandsons.
1892	XXI. 9.	Hagar and Ishmael, at Sarah's request are cast forth.
1878	XI. 15.	Salah, the fourth from Noah, dieth.
1871	XXII.	God tempteth Abraham to offer Isaac. Abraham giveth proof of his faith and obedience.
1859	XXIII.	Sarah dieth at Hebron in Canaan, in the 127th year of her age.
1856	XXIV.	Isaac marrieth Rebekah the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Nahor, in the 40th year of his age.
	XI. 11.	Shem, the son of Noah, dieth.
	XXV. 24.	Jacob and Esau born in the 60th year of their father Isaac's age.
1846	XXV. 7.	Abraham dieth, aged 175 years.
1837	XI. 17.	Heber, the fifth from Noah, dieth: from him Abraham and his posterity
1821		were called Hebrews. Gen. xiv. 13.
1817	XXVI. 34.	Esau, aged 40 years, marrieth Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite,
1796		and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite.
1773	XXV. 17.	Ishmael dieth, aged 137 years.
1745	XXX. 23.	Rachel, having been long barren, at length beareth Joseph. Jacob, desiring to depart, is persuaded by Laban to serve six years more for some part of his flock.
1739	XXXI.	Jacob, after he had been twenty years in Mesopotamia, sets forward on his journey homewards, without acquainting his father or his brothers-in-law. Rachel stealeth her father's gods, and is pursued by Laban.
	XXXII.	Jacob by his prudence is reconciled to his brother Esau. He wrestleth with an angel at Peniel, and is called Israel.
	XXXIV.	About this time, Dinah, Jacob's daughter, is defloured by Sichem the son of Hamor. Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, revenge their sister's quarrel by putting all the males of Sichem to the sword; for which thing Jacob reproveth them.
	XXXV. 16.	Rachel is delivered of Benjamin on the way betwixt Beth-el, or Beth-le-hem, and Ephrath, and dies in childbed. Some think that Job lived about this time.
	XXXVIII. 16.	Judah lieth with Tamar his daughter-in-law in disguise.
1729	XXXVII.	Joseph is hated by his brethren, and is sold to merchantmen, Ishmaelites and Midianites, who carry him into Egypt, where he is sold to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, and by him made overseer of his house.
1718	XXXIX. XL.	Joseph resisteth the temptations of his master's wife; he is falsely accused by her, and cast into prison. He interpreteth the dreams of Pharaoh's butler and baker, which come to pass according to his interpretation.
1716	XXXV. 28.	Isaac dieth, aged 180 years, and is buried by his sons, Jacob and Esau.
1715	XLI. 25,	Joseph interpreteth Pharaoh's two dreams; he giveth Pharaoh counsel, and is made governor of the whole land of Egypt.
	47,	Here begin the seven years of plenty in the land of Egypt. About
	50.	this time Manasseh and Ephraim, Joseph's two sons, are born of Asenath, the daughter of Potipherah, priest of On.
1708	54.	Here begin the seven years of famine.
1707	XLII. 1, 2, 3.	Jacob sendeth his ten sons to buy corn in Egypt; they are imprisoned by Joseph for spies; but are set at liberty on condition of bringing Benjamin, and Simeon is kept as a pledge.
	XLIII.	Jacob is with much difficulty persuaded to send Benjamin. Joseph
	XLV.	maketh himself known to his brethren, and sendeth for his father by command from Pharaoh.
1706	XLVI.	Jacob, having offered sacrifice to God for that his son Joseph is yet alive, goes with all his family into Egypt in the third year of the famine, and 130th year of his age. He is seated in the land of Goshen.
1704	XLVII.	Joseph getteth all the money, lands, and cattle of the Egyptians for bread; only the lands belonging to the priests he buyeth not.
1703	XLVIII.	Jacob adopteth Ephraim and Manasseh, and blesseth them, and all his
1689	XLIX.	sons: prophesieth the descent of the Messiah from Judah, and dieth, aged 147 years; seventeen whereof he lived in Egypt. He is, with great pomp, carried into Canaan, and buried in the sepulchre of his father.
1635	L.	Joseph on his death-bed prophesieth unto his brethren their return to Canaan; takes an oath of them to carry his bones out of Egypt, and dieth, aged 110 years.
		The book of Genesis endeth in the death of Joseph, containing the history of 2369 years: next to which in order of time the book of Job follows, written (as it is generally believed) by Moses.
1619	Exodus VI. 16.	Levi dieth in Egypt, aged 137 years; he was grandfather to Moses and Aaron.
1577	I. 8.	Here begins the bondage of the children of Israel, when a king rose up in Egypt, who knew not Joseph.
1574	VII. 7.	Aaron born three years before his brother Moses, 83 years before the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.
1573	I. 15, 22.	Pharaoh having in vain commanded the Hebrew midwives to destroy all the males of the Israelites, sets forth an edict, charging that they be all cast into the river.
1571	II. 1, 5, 11.	Moses is born, who, being hid in the flags by the river's side, is found by Pharaoh's daughter, and becomes her adopted son.
1531		Moses, in the 40th year of his age, having slain an Egyptian whom he saw
	Josh. XIV. 7, 10.	contending with a Hebrew, fleeth into Midian, where he marrieth Zipporah the daughter of Reuel, or Jethro, a priest, and liveth with him forty years. Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, born.
1530	Ex. III.	Whilst Moses keeps his father-in-law's sheep at mount Horeb, God
1491	1, 2, &c. V.	appeareth to him in a burning bush, and sendeth him to deliver Israel. Moses and Aaron having declared to Pharaoh the message on which they are sent unto him from God, are charged by him as heads of a mutiny, and sent away with many bad words; and more grievous labours are forthwith laid upon the Israelites.
	VII. 7.	Moses being now 80, and Aaron 83 years of age, urged thereunto by
	Psalm LXXVIII. CV.	God, return again unto Pharaoh, where the magicians by their sorcery imitating the miracles of Aaron's rod turned into a serpent, make Pharaoh more obstinate than he was before. Wherefor God by the hand of Moses lays ten plagues upon the Egyptians.

PERIOD IV.

From the departure of the Israelites, till Pharaoh gives his daughter in marriage to Solomon, B. C. 1014.

1491 — Exodus XII. 11, 29, 41. — UPON the fourteenth day of the first month (which was May the 4th, upon Monday with us), in the evening, the passover is instituted. Upon the fifteenth of the same month, at midnight, the first-born of Egypt being all slain, Pharaoh and his servants make haste to send away the Israelites; and they, the self-same day wherein they were let go out of bondage, being the complete term of 430 years from the first pilgrimage of their ancestors, reckoning from Abraham's departure out of Charran, take their journey and march away, being 600,000 men, besides children, and come to Rameses, from whence by several encampings they come to the Red sea, the Lord conducting them in a pillar of a cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night. They carry Joseph's bones with them.

Numbers XXXIII. — Exodus XIV. — At the Red sea Pharaoh with his host overtakes them; Moses divides the waters with his rod, and the children of Israel pass through on dry ground unto the desert of Etham; whom, when Pharaoh and his army would needs follow, they are all overwhelmed by the waters coming together at the dawning of the day, whereby the Israelites are wholly freed from the bondage of the Egyptians; whose carcasses when they see floating all the sea over, and cast upon the shore, they sing a song of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

XV. — XVI. — Upon the fifteenth of the second month (our June the 4th, being Thursday), the Israelites come to the wilderness of Zin, which lieth between Elyma and Sinai, where, for want of food, they murmur against God and their leaders: about the even-tide God sends them quails, and the next morning rains upon them manna from heaven; and upon that kind of bread they lived afterward by the space of forty years, even till they came to the borders of the land of promise. An omer of it is preserved for a memorial.

XX. — God publisheth his Law, contained in the Ten Commandments, with a terrible voice from mount Sinai.

XXI. XXII., &c. XXIV. — The people being in great fear, God gives them sundry other laws, all which being written in the book of the covenant, Moses proposeth them to the people: which done, rising early in the morning, he builds an altar at the foot of the mountain, and sets up twelve statues, according to the twelve tribes of Israel, and sends twelve young men of the first-born (whom the Lord hath consecrated to himself as ministers of those holy things, before the Levitical priesthood was ordained), which offer sacrifice, first for sin, and then for thanksgiving, to the Lord: and when Moses had read the book of the covenant, he takes the blood of the calves and goats so offered, and with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, sprinkles the book therewith, and all the people, or those twelve statues representing them; and so performs a solemn covenant between God and his people.

9, 18. — Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy men of the elders of Israel, go up into the mount, and there behold the glory of God: the rest returning, Moses with his servant Joshua abides there still, and waits six days, and upon the seventh day God speaks unto him, and there he continues forty days and forty nights (reckoning those six days which he waited for the appearance of the Lord), eating no meat all that while, nor drinking water (Deut. ix. 6); where he receives God's command touching the frame of the tabernacle, the priests' garments, their consecration, sacrifices, and other things comprised in this and the six following chapters.

XXV. &c. — XXXI. 18. — XXXII. — At the end of forty days God gives Moses the two tables of the Law in stone, made by God's own hand, and written with his own finger; bidding him withal quickly to get him down, for that the people had already made to themselves a molten calf to worship. Moses by prayer pacifieth God, and goes down from the mount, and seeing the people keeping a festival in honour of their idol in the camp, he breaks the tables of the law at the foot of the mount: for which the Jews keep a solemn fast unto this day.

20, 28. — Moses having burnt and defaced the idol, puts 3000 of the idolaters to death by the hands of the Levites.

XXXIV. — God commands Moses to frame new tables of stone, and to bring them with him into the mount: Moses brings them the next morning, and while he stands in the cleft of a rock, God passeth by, and showeth him a glimpse of his glory.

10. — God renews his covenant with his people, and upon certain conditions gives them his laws again.

1500 XXXIX. — In the first six months of this year, the tabernacle, the ark of the covenant, the altar, the table of show-bread, the priests' garments, the holy ointments, the candlestick, and other utensils and vessels belonging to the sacrifices, are finished in the desert at mount Sinai, and are brought unto Moses.

XL. — The tabernacle is set up and anointed with holy oil. Aaron and his sons are consecrated for the priesthood.

Lev. X. — Nadab and Abihu, for offering strange fire, are struck dead in the place by fire from heaven.

Numb. VII. — The princes of the tribes present their offerings towards the dedication of the tabernacle. God speaketh to Moses from the mercy-seat.

IX. — The second passover is instituted.

X. 29. Exodus. XVIII. — Jethro, who is also called Hobab, brings his daughter Zipporah, with her two sons, Gershom and Eliezer, which were left with him, to his son-in-law Moses: and having congratulated his and the whole people of Israel's deliverance out of bondage, he openly declares his faith and devotion towards the true God. By his advice Moses imparts the government of the people to some others, and ordains magistrates for the deciding of lesser causes.

Numbers. XI. — Moses complains to God of the overgreat burden of his government; God, to ease him of his charge, gives him for assistance the court of seventy elders.

31. — The people lust for flesh. God gives them quails in wrath; and sends withal a most grievous plague among them.

XII. — God rebukes the sedition of Miriam and Aaron, and maintains Moses' right.

XIII. — From the wilderness of Paran, near Kadesh-barnea, twelve men are sent (among whom are Caleb and Joshua) to discover the land of Canaan. Returning, they bring with them a branch of a vine, with a cluster of grapes upon it; ten of the twelve so sent speak ill of the country, declare it barren, and magnify the cities for their strength, and the giantly stature of the inhabitants.

XIV. — The people, terrified with this relation, are about to return into Egypt, from which Caleb and Joshua endeavoring to dissuade them are like to be stoned. At this God is so provoked, that he threatens to destroy them; but is prevailed upon by Moses through his prayers to spare them. Nevertheless he denounceth that all who are now twenty years old and upward (except Caleb and Joshua) shall die in the wilderness. The men who raised the evil report are all destroyed by sudden death. Some endeavouring to enter upon the promised land, contrary to the command of God, are smitten by the Amalekites and Canaanites.

489 — Deut. I. 46. — In this place, viz. Kadesh-barnea, the Israelites continue many days; but that in some places they continued many years appeareth, for that in the space of 37 years there are but 17 encampings mentioned.

471 — Numbers XXXI. XVI. — To their long continuance in Kadesh, and the encampings from thence, all that we find delivered in the xvth and four next ensuing chapters of Numbers, seems to refer; as how Korah, Dathan and Abiram, for raising a mutiny against Moses and Aaron, were swallowed alive into the earth, and 250 of their associates; and how the people murmuring against Moses and Aaron for the calamity which had befallen their brethren, were destroyed by God, to the number of 14,700 men; and how twelve rods being brought by twelve princes, and laid in the sanctuary, Aaron's rod only budded, and brought forth almonds, and was laid up before the ark, for a memorial to those who should afterwards be given to rebellion.

Before Christ. 1471 — Numbers XVII.

1452 — XX. — In these 37 years the Israelites, by 17 encampings, having compassed the hill country of Seir and Edom, they come to the wilderness of Zin, in the first month of the fortieth year after their departure out of Egypt.

1, — Here Miriam, the sister of Moses and Aaron, dieth.

2, — The people again for want of water murmur against Moses and Aaron, whom when God had commanded to call water out of the rock only by speaking to it, Moses, being moved in his mind through impatience and diffidence of the thing, speaks something, whatever it was, unadvisedly

12, — with his lips, and strikes the rock thrice with Aaron's rod, and thereby draws water from it; but for transgressing God's command, they are bo debarred from entering into the land of Canaan.

23, 28. — In the fifth month of this year Aaron dieth at Mosera, on the top mount Hor, at the age of 123 years, leaving his son Eleazar his success in the high priesthood.

XXI. 5, 9. John III. 14. 1 Cor. X. 9. — The people murmuring are plagued with fiery serpents, whereof man die; upon their repentance God commands that a brazen serpent be mad and lifted up upon a pole, that as many as look on it may live.

Numbers XXI. — About the latter end of this year, all those who at Kadesh-barnea mutinied against God being wholly extinct and dead, the Israelites pass over Zared, and come to the borders of Moab at Ar, and at length they arrive at Bamoth, a valley in the country of the Moabites, and pitch at mount Pisgah.

21, — Sihon, king of the Amorites, refusing them passage through his country, is slain, and the Israelites possess his land.

33. — Og, the king of Bashan, coming out against Israel, is destroyed with all his people, not one left alive, and his country possessed by the Israelites.

1451 — XXII. 1, 2, — After these victories the Israelites set forward, and encamp in the plains of Moab.

3. — Balak, king of Moab, considering what the Israelites had done to the Amorites, fears, lest under pretence of passing through his country, they should possess themselves of his whole kingdom, takes counsel with the princes of the Midianites his neighbours, and sends for Balaam, a soothsayer out of Mesopotamia, to come and curse the Israelites, promising him great rewards for his labour; purposing afterward to make war upon them.

Joshua XXIV. 9. — Numbers XXII. 7, 35. 2 Pet. II. 15, 16. — Balaam, forewarned of God, refuseth at first to come; but being sent for a second time, he importuneth God to let him go, and goes with a purpose indeed to curse Israel; but God, offended thereat, makes the dumb ass of this wizard, on which he rode, speaking in a man's voice, to reprove his folly.

Numbers XXIII. — Balaam twice offers sacrifice, and would fain have cursed Israel, to gratify Balak therein; but being forced thereto by the Spirit of God, instead of cursing, he blesseth them altogether; foretelling what felicity attended them, and what calamities should befall their enemies.

Deut. XXIII. 5. Joshua XXIV. 10. Numbers XXV. 1, 2, 3, &c. Deut. IV. 3. Psalm CVI. 28. Rev. II. 14. 1 Cor. X. 8. — By his advice the women of Moab and Midian are set on work to turn the Israelites away to idolatry. Wherefore God commands Moses first to take all the ringleaders of this disorder, and to hang them up before the sun, and then gives order to the judges to put to death all such as had joined themselves to Baal-peor. Last of all, God sends a plague upon the people, whereof die 23,000 men in one day: which added to them which were hanged and killed with the sword, amount in all to 24,000.

Numbers XXV. Psalm CVI. 30. — Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, by killing Zimri, the chief of his father's family, and Cozbi, the daughter of Zur, a prince of the Midianites, appeaseth the wrath of God, and the plague ceaseth. God therefore settleth the high priesthood for ever upon the house of Phinehas, and commands that war be made upon the Midianites.

Numbers XXV. — Moses and Eleazar, by God's command, in the plain of Moab, near unto Jordan, over against Jericho, number the people from twenty years old and upwards, and find them to be 601,730 men, besides the Levites, whose number, reckoning them from one month old and upwards, comes to 23,000; and then Moses receives command for the parting the land of promise among the Israelites.

XXVII. 1, 2, 12, 23. Deut. III. 26, 27, 28. — God signifies to Moses that he shall die, and Joshua is thereupon declared to be his successor; upon whom Moses lays his hands, and gives him instructions. Several laws are made.

Numbers XXXI. Josh. XIII. 21, 22. — Twelve thousand of the Israelites under the command of Phinehas, vanquish the Midianites, and put to the sword all the males among them with their five princes, and among them Zur, the father of Cozbi, and Balaam the wizard; but they save the women alive; at which Moses is wroth, and commands that every male child, and all the women, except such as be virgins, be killed.

Numbers XXXII. Deut. III. Josh. XIII. & XXII. — The lands which belonged to Sihon and Og, namely, all from the river Arnon to mount Hermon, Moses divides and gives to the tribes of Reuben and Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh; so that their possessions lay on this side Jordan; nevertheless, they assist the rest of the tribes in all their wars, till they have subdued the Canaanites, and possessed the promised land.

Deut. XXVII. XXVIII. — Moses commands the people, that in their passage over Jordan they shall set up great stones, and engrave the Ten Commandments on them, with the form of blessing upon mount Gerizim, and of cursing on mount Ebal, exhorting them to observe the law of God, by setting before their eyes the benefits that would ensue thereon.

XXIX. — He also renews the covenant made by God with them and their children on mount Horeb, and again persuades them to keep that covenant by all the blessings and curses which would undoubtedly follow the keepers or

XXX. — breakers of it; yet with a promise of pardon and deliverance, if at any time, having broken it, they shall repent them of their sin; and tells them farther, that God had therefore thus declared his will unto them, to the end that none hereafter offending shall pretend ignorance.

XXXI. XXXII. — Moses, having written this law, delivers it to the priests, the sons of Levi, and the elders of the people, to be kept; the same day also he writes his most excellent song, and teaches the same to the children of Israel to be sung; and having finished the book of the law, he takes order to have it laid up in the side of the ark.

XXXIII. — Moses now drawing near to his end, blesseth every tribe in particular, by way of prophecy, save only the tribe of Simeon.

XXXIV. — In the 12th month of this year he goes up to mount Nebo, and from thence beholds the land of promise, and there dieth, aged 120 years; the body of Moses God translates out of the place where he died into a valley of the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor, and there burieth it; nor doth any man know the place of it unto this day. The Israelites mourn for him 30 days.

Here ends the Pentateuch, or five books of Moses, containing the history of 2552 years and a half, from the beginning of the world; and the book of Joshua begins with the forty-first year after the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.

Josh. II. — Joshua being confirmed in his government by God, sends forth spies from Shittim to the city of Jericho, who, being harboured by Rahab, are privily sent away, when search is made for them.

III. — Upon the tenth day of the first month (April 30), to wit, the same day that the Paschal Lamb was to be chosen out of the flock, the Israelites under the conduct of Joshua, a type of Jesus Christ, go up out of the river Jordan into the promised land of Canaan, a type of a more heavenly

IV. — country. They pass through the river on dry ground, the waters being for the present divided; for a memorial of which miraculous passage, Joshua sets up twelve stones in the very channel of Jordan, and taking twelve other stones out of the midst thereof sets them up at Gilgal, the place where they next encamp.

V. 10. — Upon the 14th day of the same month, in the evening, the Israelites celebrate their first passover in the land of Canaan.

Before Christ.
1451	Josh. VI.	Jericho, the ark of the Lord having been carried round about it, is taken the seventh day, the walls thereof falling down at the sound of the priests' trumpets; all the inhabitants are put to the sword, except Rahab and her family.
	VII.	The Israelites besiege Ai, and are smitten by their enemies, God having abandoned them for sacrilege committed by Achan: Achan's sin being discovered by the casting of lots, and himself found guilty, he is stoned to death, and, together with his children and cattle, burned with fire.
	VIII.	God being pacified hereby, Ai is taken by ambushment and utterly destroyed.
	30, 35.	On mount Ebal, according to the law made, is an altar erected, and the Ten Commandments engraven on it; the blessings and cursings are repeated on mount Ebal and mount Gerizim, and the book of the law read in the ears of the people.
	IX.	The kings of Canaan combine against Israel: only the Gibeonites craftily find a way to save their own lives by making a league with them; but are afterwards deputed to the servile offices of the house of God.
	X.	Adoni-zedek, king of Jerusalem, with the kings of Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon, hearing that Gibeon is fallen off from them, join their forces together and besiege it; but Joshua raiseth the siege, pursueth those five kings, and smiteth them as far as Azekah, the Lord in the meanwhile killing more with hailstones from heaven, than the Israelites with their swords. Joshua commands the sun to stand still over Gibeon, and the moon over the valley of Ajalon, by the space almost of one whole day, until the Israelites are fully avenged of their enemies. The five kings hide themselves in a cave at Makkedah; from whence they are brought forth, scornfully used, and hanged.
1450	Ex. XXIII. 10, 11.	From the autumn of this year, wherein, after the failing of manna, they began to till the ground, the rise of the sabbatical years is to be taken.
1445	Josh. XXIII.	Joshua, now grown old, is commanded by God to divide all the land on the west of Jordan among the nine tribes remaining, and the other half-tribe of Manasseh. The Lord and his sacrifices are the inheritance of Levi.
	XI.	The rest of the kings, with whom Joshua had waged war for six years, resolve to set upon him with united forces: but Joshua comes upon them unawares, slays them, and possesseth their countries.
	21.	Joshua now roots out those giants, the Anakims, with their cities, out
	XIV.	of the hill-countries, out of Hebron, Debir, and Anab, and generally out
	XV.	of all the mountains of Judah and all Israel. And having gotten the whole land into his hands, he divides it among the children of Israel according to their tribes; and the land rested from war.
1444		The first sabbatical year, or year of rest; from hence the year of Jubilee, or every fifty years' space is to be reckoned.
	XVIII.	The tabernacle is set up at Shiloh (thought to be the same with Salem), where it continued 328 years.
	XXII.	The Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, with a blessing, are sent home to their possessions on the other side of Jordan.
1443	XXIII. XXIV.	Joshua gathers together all Israel, exhorts them to obedience, briefly recites God's benefits to them, reneweth the covenant between them and God, and dieth, 110 years old.
1413	Judges II. 7.	After the decease of Joshua, and the elders who outlived him, and who
	III. 6, 7,	remembered the wonders which God had wrought for Israel, there succeeds a generation of men which forget God, and mingle themselves with the Canaanites by marriage, and worship their idols. In this time of anarchy and confusion, when every man did that which seemed right in his own eyes, all those disorders were committed, which are reported in the last five chapters of the Book of Judges; to wit, the idolatry of Micah
	8,	and the children of Dan; the war of the Benjamites, and the cause thereof. God, being highly provoked, gives them up into the hands of Cushan, king of Mesopotamia: which first calamity of theirs holds them but eight years.
	9,	Othniel, the son of Kenaz, and son-in-law to Caleb, stirred up by God as a judge and avenger of his people, defeats Cushan, and delivers the
	10,	Israelites out of bondage; and the land rested forty years after the first rest which Joshua procured for them.
343	12,	Othniel dying, the Israelites fell again to sin against God, and are given over into the hands of Eglon, King of Moab, who, joining with the Ammonites and the Amalekites, overthrows the Israelites, and takes Jericho; and this second oppression continueth eighteen years.
1325	15,	Ehud, the son of Gera, is raised up by God to be an avenger of his
	30,	people; for feigning a message to Eglon, he runs him into the belly with his dagger; then getting away, he gathers all Israel into a body on mount Ephraim, and slays 10,000 of the most valiant men of Moab; and the land resteth forty years after the former rest obtained by Othniel.
	31.	After him, Shamgar, the son of Anath, slayeth 600 Philistines with an ox-goad, and he also avengeth Israel.
1305	IV. 1, 2, 3,	The Israelites, after the death of Ehud, returning to their old sin, are given up by God into the hands of Jabin, king of Canaan; and this thraldom of theirs continueth twenty years.
1285	4.	Deborah, the wife of Lapidoth, a prophetess, who at this time judgeth Israel in mount Ephraim, and Barak of the tribe of Naphtali, being made captain of the host of Israel, in sight of Megiddo, overcomes Sisera, captain of Jabin's army, whom Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, afterward kills in her own tent. For a memorial of which victory Deborah com-
	V. 31.	poseth a song; and the land resteth forty years after the former rest obtained by Ehud.
1252	VI.	The Israelites sinning again, are delivered into the hands of the Midianites; which fourth thraldom lasteth seven years. Hereupon they cry unto
1245		God for help, and are reproved by a prophet. Then Gideon, the son of Joash, of Manasseh, is by an angel from God sent to deliver them. He first overturns the altar of Baal and burns his grove, and is called Jerub-
	VII.	baal. He, out of 32,000 men, which came unto him, chooseth only (God so commanding) 300; but with them he puts to flight all the host of the Midian-
	VIII.	ites, whom the Ephraimites afterward pursue, and slay their princes Oreb and Zeeb. Gideon having pacified the Ephraimites, who complain that they were not called to the battle at first, passeth the river Jordan, and defeats the remainder of the Midianitish army; he chastiseth also the men of Succoth and Penuel, who had refused him victuals in his journey; and slays the two kings of the Midianites, Zebah and Zalmunna. After which great victories, the Israelites offering to settle the kingdom upon him and his posterity, he refuseth it; but receiving their golden ear-rings, he makes thereof an ephod, which afterwards proves an occasion of idolatry. The Midianites being thus vanquished, the land enjoys rest forty years, after the former rest restored to them by Deborah and Barak.
1236	33.	Gideon dieth, and the Israelites, falling back again to idolatry, worship Baal-berith for their god.
	IX. 1, 2, &c.	Abimelech, the son of Gideon (begotten upon his concubine), purposing to get to himself the kingdom which his father had refused, slayeth seventy of his brothers all upon one stone; and having, by the help of the Shechemites, got to be made king, Jotham, the youngest son of Gideon, who only escaped Abimelech's fury, from the top of mount Gerizim expostulates with them the wrong they had done to his father's house; and, by way of a parable, foretells their ruin; which done, he flies, and dwells quietly in Beer.
1233	22,	Abimelech, having reigned three years over Israel, Gaal, a Shechemite, conspires against him; which being discovered to him by Zebul, he utterly
1232		destroys the city of Shechem, and puts all the inhabitants to the sword, and burns the temple of their god Berith with fire; from thence he goeth
	50.	and layeth siege to Thebez, where he is knocked on the head with a piece
	2 Sam. XI. 21.	of a millstone, cast upon him by a woman from the walls, and then killed outright by his armour-bearer.
1210	Judges X. 1,	Tola the son of Puah, after Abimelech, judgeth Israel twenty-three years.
1206	2, 3,	Jair the Gileadite succeeds Tola, and judgeth Israel twenty-two years.
1188	8.	The Israelites, forsaking again the true God, fall to worship the gods of several nations, and are given up into the hands of the Philistines and Ammonites; which fifth thraldom lasteth eighteen years. Upon their repentance, and abandoning their idols, at length they obtain mercy.
1187	XI.	Jephthah the Gileadite, being made captain of the host of Israel, subdues the Ammonites: before the battle he vows his daughter unawares to
	XII. 6,	be offered in sacrifice, and afterward performs it. He puts to the sword 42,000 Ephraimites, who had behaved themselves insolently against him, and judgeth Israel six years.
1182	8,	Ibzan the Bethlehemite succeeds Jephthah, and judgeth Israel 7 years.
1175	11,	Elon the Zebulonite succeeds Ibzan, and judgeth Israel ten years.
1164	13,	Abdon the Ephraimite succeeds Elon, and judgeth Israel eight years.
1156	1 Sam. IV. 18.	Eli the high priest (in whom the high priesthood was translated from the family of Eleazar to Ithamar's) succeeds Abdon, and judgeth Israel forty years. The Israelites again provoke the Lord to anger, and he
	Judges XIII. 1, 2,	delivers them into the hands of the Philistines. This sixth thraldom begins seven months after Eli's entering upon the government, and lasteth forty years, even till seven months after his death, when the ark was brought back again.
1155	24.	Samson the Nazarite, as an angel had foretold, is born at Zorah.
1137	XIV. 4.	Whilst Eli the high priest executeth the office of a judge in civil causes under the Philistines, Samson takes an occasion to quarrel with them, by marrying a woman of Timnath; for having on the day of his betrothing propounded a riddle to the Philistines, and laid a wager, his wife tells them the meaning of it: enraged hereat, he goes and slays thirty men of Askelon, and gives them the suits of raiment which he had stripped off their bodies, in performance of the wager which he had lost, and returns home to his father.
1136	XV.	Samson again in harvest-time goes to present his wife with a kid at her father's house, but finds her given away in marriage to another man; Samson resolves to be avenged; he catches 300 foxes, and tying fire-brands to their tails, turns them all into the corn-fields of the Philistines, and into their vineyards, and olive-gardens, and sets them all on fire. The Philistines take Samson's wife and father-in-law, and burn them; Samson in revenge slays a great multitude of them, and sits down upon the rock Etam, from whence being taken by 3000 of the Jews, and by them delivered into the hands of the Philistines, he slays of them a thousand men with the jaw-bone of an ass; in which place he is miraculously refreshed, when thirsty and ready to faint.
1117	XVI.	Samson is betrayed by Delilah his concubine, bereaved of the hair of his Nazariteship, and delivered to the Philistines; who put out his eyes, and bind him with chains of brass. The Philistines gather together to offer sacrifice to Dagon their god, and Samson is brought to make them sport; whose hair being grown, and his strength in a great measure restored, he takes hold of the two chief pillars whereon the house stood (wherein were the princes of the Philistines, and a great multitude of people) and pulls down the house, killing more men at his death than he did in all his lifetime. So he died, having judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.
1116	1 Sam. IV.	The Israelites take up arms against the Philistines, but with very ill success, for they lose 4000 men in one battle. Then they send for the ark of the covenant from Shiloh, and cause it to be brought into the camp. The Philistines, seeing now all lie at stake, encourage one another to behave themselves like men that day; and so falling on, they slay of the Israelites 30,000 men. The ark of God is taken, and Hophni and Phinehas, priests, and sons of Eli, are slain. Of all which when tidings are brought to old Eli, frighted thereat, he falls from his chair and breaks his neck, in the 98th year of his age.
		The Philistines, having brought the ark into Ashdod, set it in the house of Dagon their god. But when Dagon had been found two several times
	VI.	fallen grovelling before it, and broken in pieces, and the inhabitants of the place sorely plagued, they remove it from thence to Gath, and from thence to Ekron. But the same plagues and judgments following wherever it
	VII.	went, after seven months, by the advice of their priests, they send home the ark again with presents and gifts into the land of the Israelites, and it is brought to Bethshemesh, where 50,070 men are smitten for looking into the ark. From hence it is carried to the house of Abinadab, in Kirjath-jearim, who sanctifieth his son Eleazar to keep it.
1096		After twenty years the Israelites, by Samuel's persuasion, solemnly
	13.	repent at Mizpeh, and, upon their conversion, God by thunder from heaven delivers them from the invasion of the Philistines, who are subdued, the hand of the Lord being against them all the days of Samuel.
1095	VIII.	Samuel, being grown old, takes for his assistance in the government his sons; by whose ill management of affairs, the Israelites require a king to
	Hosea XIII. 10.	be given them: whereupon God gives them a king in his wrath, to wit, Saul, the son of Kish, after Samuel had judged Israel twenty-one years.
	1 Sam. XI. 12.	Saul is privately anointed by Samuel, and afterward publicly proclaimed king at Mizpeh. About a month after Jabesh-gilead is besieged by Nahash king of the Ammonites, and the siege raised by Saul: whereupon the whole congregation of Israel, coming together at Gilgal, again proclaim Saul king.
1085	XVII. 12.	David the son of Jesse the Ephrathite, born at Beth-lehem-judah 30 years before he succeeded Saul in the kingdom. He was his father's youngest son.
1063	XVI. 11.	God rejects Saul, and sends Samuel to Beth-lehem, there to anoint David king, whom Saul ever after extremely persecuteth.
	XVIII.	Yet Jonathan, Saul's son, loveth him, and oftentimes rescueth him from Saul's cruelty.
	XXIV.	David, having Saul twice in his power, forbears to hurt him.
1060	XXVI.	David, fearing he may some time or other fall into the hands of Saul,
1056	XXVII.	flies to Gath unto king Achish, carrying with him 600 men; and having obtained of him the town of Ziklag to dwell in, he continueth one year and four months in the land of the Philistines: from whence he invadeth the countries of the Geshurites, Gezrites, and Amalekites, and puts to the sword all, both men and women, not leaving one alive to carry the news thereof to king Achish.
1055	XVIII.	Achish, proposing to make war upon the Israelites, takes David along
	1 Chron. XII.	with him in that expedition, to whom, whilst he is upon his march with his 600 men, repair a great many others of the tribe of Manasseh, and join with him.
	1 Samuel XXVIII.	Saul, seeing the army of the Philistines, is in great fear, and (Samuel being now dead) goes to En-dor to consult with a witch there; the woman raiseth an apparition of Samuel, and Saul receives from it that dreadful doom, The Lord will deliver Israel, together with thyself, into the hands of the Philistines.
	XXIX.	The princes of the Philistines growing jealous of David, he and his company early the next morning leave the army, and return to Ziklag.
	XXXI.	The armies join battle; and the Israelites are defeated; the three sons of Saul are slain, and he himself falls on his own sword.
	2 Samuel I.	Three days after, an Amalekite brings Saul's crown, and the bracelet that was upon his arm, and presents them to David, professing that, finding him fallen upon his sword, he had killed him outright, and taken the crown from off his head: whereupon David causeth him to be put to death for
	II.	stretching forth his hand to slay the Lord's anointed, and lamenteth the death of Saul and Jonathan his son in a funeral song. David, having asked
	1 Chron. XII. 23.	counsel of God, goes up to Hebron with those that are about him, where he is anointed king by the men of Judah, his own tribe, in the 30th year of his age; and there he reigns seven years and six months.
1048	2 Sam. III. 6,	Abner, affronted by Ishbosheth, revolteth to David, and deals with the
	22.	chief men of Israel to transfer the whole kingdom unto him, and this in the hearing of the Benjamites.
		He comes to David, and is kindly received; returning, he is treacherously murdered by Joab. David much laments his untimely death, and
	IV. 2.	buries him at Hebron.
		Baanah and Rechab murder their lord and master Ishbosheth, as he lieth resting himself upon his bed. They bring his head to David, who in detestation of their treason, causeth them immediately to be put to death.

Before Christ.
	2 Sam. VII.	David now dwelling in his house of cedar, which he had built, and
	1 Chron.	living in a full and perfect peace, imparteth to Nathan the prophet his
1044	XVII.	purpose of building a house for God; but is answered from God, that this
	XXII.	was a work which should be done, not by him, because he was a man of
	2 Sam.	blood, and trained up in war; but by his son Solomon, a man of peace,
	VIII.	which should be born unto him. The time which passeth from hence
	1 Chron.	till the birth of Solomon is spent in wars; wherein David subdues the
	XVIII.	Philistines, Edomites, Amalekites, Moabites, Ammonites, and Syrians,
	Gen. XV. 18.	and extends his kingdom to the utmost bound of that land which had been promised to the seed of Abraham, and never possessed by any of Deut.	them, save only by David and his son Solomon.
	XI. 24.
1035	1 Kings IV.	At the end of this year Joab, going with the army against the Ammon-
	2 Sam. XI.	ites, besiegeth Rabbah, the metropolis of Ammon, whilst David takes his ease at Jerusalem, and there commits adultery with Bathsheba the wife
	1 Chron.	of Uriah the Hittite, who was then in the army, whom he also procures
	XX.	to be slain.
1034	2 Sam.	The child so gotten in adultery is born. David is convicted by Nathan
	XII.	the prophet of his sin, and he repents; in testimony whereof he composeth the 51st Psalm. The child dieth.
1033	25.	Bathsheba becomes now David's wife, and beareth him a son, unto
	1 Chron.	whom, as unto one who should prove a man of peace, God gives the name
	XXII. 9.	of Solomon; and, as to one beloved of the Lord, the name of Jedidiah.
1030	2 Sam. XIII.	Absalom avengeth his sister Tamar, and killeth his brother Amnon; for
	1, 23.	which thing he fleeth to Geshur in Syria, where he continues three years with king Talmai, his grandfather by the mother's side.
1027	XIV.	After three years' exile he returns to Jerusalem, where he continues two
1025		years, before the king his father admits him into his presence, and is reconciled to him.
1024	XV.	This rebel son having got chariots and horses, and a guard to attend him, insinuates himself into the favour of the people, and steals away their hearts from his father David.
1023	7.	The next year following, under pretence of a vow, he obtaineth leave to go to Hebron, where, by Ahithophel's counsel, he breaks out into open rebellion, and forceth his father to fly from Jerusalem.
	XVII.	Ahithophel, because his counsel in all matters is not followed by Absalom, hangs himself.
	XVIII.	Absalom having lost 20,000 men, fleeth, and a bough of an oak catching hold of him, he there hangs, and is run through by Joab.
1017	XXIV.	David, tempted by Satan, commandeth Joab to number the people: God, offended thereat, sends a prophet to put three plagues to his choice, viz., the famine, sword, or pestilence. David chooseth to fall into the hands
	1 Chron.	of a merciful God, rather than into the hands of men. So God sends a
	XXI.	pestilence; whereof 70,000 men die in one day. The angel being about to destroy Jerusalem, God bids him hold his hand: for he beholds David repenting in sackcloth, and entreating him to spare the innocent people, and to turn his hand upon himself, and upon his father's house.
1016	1 Kings	Rehoboam is born unto Solomon by Naamah, an Ammonitish woman.
	XIV. 21.	David being now 70 years of age, and broken with continual cares and
1015	1 Kings I.	wars, grows so weak and feeble, that clothes can no longer preserve heat in him. Therefore Abishag, a young virgin, is appointed to keep him warm. Adonijah, seeing his father thus declining, by the assistance of Joab and Abiathar, makes himself king: which David understanding, he presently commands Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, with other great men, to anoint Solomon king. Adonijah hearing this, betakes himself to the sanctuary, and is pardoned.
	II.	David, having given instruction to his son Solomon, dieth; after he had reigned in Hebron seven years and six months, and 33 years in Jerusalem over all Israel.
1014	III. 1.	Pharaoh, king of Egypt, gives his daughter in marriage to Solomon.
	2 Chron.	The Lord appears to Solomon in a dream, and bids him ask what he
	VIII. 11.	will, and it shall be given him. Solomon asketh wisdom; God gives him
	1 Kings	wisdom from above, and adds thereunto riches and honour. Of this
	III. 5.	divine wisdom Solomon makes an eminent manifestation in judging between two harlots.

PERIOD V.

From Foundation of First Temple to Obadiah's Denouncement of God's Judgment, B. C. 588.

1012	VI. 1.	SOLOMON layeth the foundation of the temple in the 480th year after
	2 Chron.	the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.
1005	III. 1.	Solomon's temple finished in the eleventh year of his reign; having been
	1 Kings	seven years and a half in building.
1004	VI. 38. VII. 1.	Solomon this year (being the 9th Jubilee, and opening the fourth Mil-
	2 Chron.	lenary of the world) with great magnificence celebrates the dedication of
	V. VI. VII.	the temple: at which time God giveth a visible sign of his favour.
975	1 Kings XI.	Solomon having, as it is with reason believed, forsaken his lusts and
	2 Chron.	vanities, to which he had been too intemperately addicted, and written,
	IX.	as a testimony of his repentance, his book called the Preacher, dieth.
		He reigned 40 years.
	1 Kings	The Israelites assemble at Shechem to crown Rehoboam, Solomon's
	XII.	son, king over all Israel. The people by Jeroboam sue unto him for a removal of some grievances; to whom Rehoboam, by the advice of young men, returning a harsh answer, alienates the hearts of ten tribes from him, who make Jeroboam king over them, and fall at the same time from the house of David, and from the true worship of God.
	25.	Jeroboam, in the beginning of his reign, repairs Shechem, destroyed by Abimelech 258 years before, and there dwells; afterward going over Jordan he builds Penuel, and at length makes Tirzah the seat of his king-
	XIV. 17.	dom. But fearing lest his new subjects by going to Jerusalem to worship,
	XII. 26.	may be induced to revolt from him, he deviseth a new form of religion, setting up two golden calves, the one at Beth-el, the other at Dan, for the seduced people to bow down unto.
	XIV.	From the time of this dismal rent Rehoboam reigneth over Judah and Benjamin 17 years, and Jeroboam over Israel, or the other ten tribes, 22
	2 Chron.	years.
974	XII.	The Priests and Levites, and other Israelites who feared God, stick to
	XI. 17.	Rehoboam, and maintain the kingdom of Judah three years; after which time Rehoboam falls to idolatry, and walketh no more in the ways of David and Solomon.
	1 Kings	Jeroboam sacrificing to his calf at Beth-el, a prophet is sent unto him from
	XII. 32.	God, who foretells the judgment which should one day be executed upon
	XIII. 2.	that altar, and the Priests (viz. those whom Jeroboam had made of the lowest of the people) that served at it. Which prophecy then and there is confirmed by signs and wonders upon the king himself, and upon the altar.
971	XIV. 25.	Shishak king of Egypt spoileth Jerusalem and the temple; but the king
	2 Chron.	and the princes repenting at the preaching of Shemaiah the prophet, God
	XII.	gives them not over to utter destruction.
958	1 Kings	Abijam the son of Rehoboam succeeds his father in the kingdom of
	XV.	Judah, and reigns three years.
957	2 Chron.	He obtains a great victory over Jeroboam, killeth 500,000 men in one
	XIII.	battle, and taketh Beth-el.
955	1 Kings	Asa in the twentieth year of Jeroboam succeeds his father Abijam,
	XV. 8,	and reigns 41 years.
954	25,	Nadab in the second year of Asa succeedeth his father Jeroboam in the kingdom of Israel, and reigneth not full two years.
953	27.	Nadab at the siege of Gibbethon (a town of the Philistines), is slain by Baasha of the tribe of Issachar in the third year of Asa; and the same year having made himself king over Israel, he utterly destroyeth the whole race of Jeroboam, and reigneth 24 years. In this time lived the prophets Jehu, Hanani, and Azarias.

Before Christ.
951	2 Chron.	Asa destroyeth idolatry, and enjoying ten years of peace, strengthens
	XIV.	his kingdom with forts and a standing army.
941	9.	Zerah the Ethiopian with an innumerable army invadeth Judah: Asa overcomes him, sacrificeth to God of the spoil, and maketh a solemn covenant with God. He also deposeth Maachah his grandmother, a
	XV.	great patroness of idolatry; bringeth into the temple those things which his father and himself had consecrated unto God, and enjoys a long peace.
930	1 Kings	Elah the son of Baasha succeeds his father in the kingdom of Israel.
	XVI. 6, 8,	In the second year of his reign, and the twenty-seventh of Asa's, Zim
929		one of his captains, conspires against him, kills him, and reigneth in h
		stead. As soon as he sits in the throne, he destroyeth the whole fami of Baasha; but the army which then lay before Gibbethon makes Om
		then king, who presently besiegeth Tirzah, and taketh it; which Z m seeing he sets on fire the king's palace, and perisheth in the flames.
	21,	The people of Israel are now divided into two factions; one follow Tib the son of Ginath, and endeavour to make him king; the other adheres
925	22,	Omri; but Tibni dying, Omri reigns alone in the 31st year of Asa.
924	23, 24,	Omri having reigned six years in Tirzah, removes the seat of his king dom to Samaria, a place which he himself had built.
918	29.	Ahab succeeds his father in the kingdom of Israel, and reigneth 22 years in Samaria. He did evil in the sight of the Lord above all that were before him.
914	1 Kings	Jehoshaphat succeedeth his father Asa in the fourth year of Ahab king
	XXII. 41.	of Israel, and reigneth 25 years in Jerusalem.
912	2 Chron.	Jehoshaphat being settled in his kingdom, and having demolished the
	XX. 31.	high places and groves, in the third year of his reign he sends Levites
	XVII. 7.	with the princes to instruct the people in the law. God in the meantime subdueth his enemies under him.
901	1 Kings	Ben-hadad king of Syria layeth siege to Samaria, who by the direction
	XX.	of a prophet is beaten off, and a vast number of the Syrians slain.
899	XXI.	Ahab not being able to persuade Naboth to sell him his vineyard, falls sick upon it; Jezebel his wife, suborning false witnesses to accuse him of blasphemy, causeth Naboth to be stoned, and puts the king in possession of the vineyard. Whereupon the prophet Elijah denounceth judgments against Ahab and Jezebel; wicked Ahab repenting, God defers the judgment.
898	XXII. 51.	Ahab in the seventeenth year of the reign of Jehoshaphat maketh his
	2 Kings	son Ahaziah his associate in the government of his kingdom.
	III. 1.	Jehoshaphat also maketh Jehoram his son copartner with him; whence
	I. 17.	it is, that Jehoram the son of Ahab, who succeeded his brother Ahaziah in the kingdom of Israel, in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, is said to have begun his reign in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat.
897	1 Kings	Ahab having got Jehoshaphat to assist him in the siege of Ramoth-gilead,
	XXII.	before he goes, he asketh counsel of 400 false prophets, who promise him
	2 Chron.	victory and success; but by Jehoshaphat's advice Micaiah, a true prophet
	XVIII.	of God, is consulted, who foretells his overthrow, and according to his word Ahab is slain at Ramoth-gilead, and buried at Samaria.
	2 Sam.	Ahaziah king of Israel, lying ill of a fall, sends to consult Baalzebub
	VIII. 2.	the god of Ekron concerning his recovery. Elijah the prophet meeteth
	2 Kings I.	the messenger, and telleth him Ahaziah shall surely die; whereupon two captains with over fifty men apiece are sent to apprehend him, and bring him before the king: Elijah calleth for fire from heaven, and destroyeth both them and their companies. A third captain with his fifty men being sent, and behaving himself submissively, Elijah goes along with him; the
	1 Kings	prophet certifies the king that he shall not come down from his bed alive.
	XXII.	So Ahaziah dieth, having governed (partly by himself, and partly together with his father) two years.
	2 Kings	Jehoram succeedeth his brother Ahaziah in the kingdom of Israel in the
	III. 1.	latter end of the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat, and reigneth twelve years

892	2 Chron.	Jehoshaphat grown old gives to his sons many gifts with fenced cities in
	XXI. 2, 3.	Judea; but his eldest son Jehoram he now more absolutely investeth with
	2 Kings	the throne of the kingdom in the fifth year of Jehoram king of Israel.
	VIII. 16.	Jehoram now, by the death of his father, has the kingdom of Judah to
889	2 Chron.	himself, which he holds for years. He is no sooner settled in his throne,
	XXI. 4, 5.	but he puts all his brethren to the sword, with many of the princes of
	Genesis	Israel. At this time the Edomites, who ever since king David's time
	XXVII. 40.	had lived in subjection to Judah, revolt, and (as it was foretold by Isaac)
	2 Chron.	they for ever shake off his yoke; Libnah also, a city of the priests in the
	XXI. 10, 11,	tribe of Judah, falls off from him about this time.
888		Jehoram following the counsel of his wicked wife Athaliah, the daughter of Ahab king of Israel, sets up in Judah, and even in Jerusalem itself, the idolatrous worship of Baal, and compels his subjects thereto: a letter
	12.	which was left for him by Elijah the prophet comes to his hands, which reproves him, and denounces all those calamities and punishments which afterward befell him.
885	2 Kings	Ahaziah succeeds his father in the kingdom of Judah (having had part
	VIII. 25,	of the government bestowed upon him the year before) in the 12th year of Jehoram king of Israel, and reigneth one year in Jerusalem.
884	28.	Jehoram king of Israel, and Ahaziah king of Judah, lead their armies to Ramoth-gilead against Hazael, who had newly succeeded Ben-hadad in the kingdom of Syria: Jehoram is dangerously wounded, and retires
	IX.	himself to Jezreel to be cured. In the meantime Elisha sendeth a young prophet with instructions to anoint Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, at Ramoth-gilead, king over Israel, and to open to him the will of God for the rooting out of the house of Ahab; who, being proclaimed king by the soldiers, marcheth straight to Jezreel, killeth Jehoram in the field of Naboth, and causeth Jezebel to be cast out at a window,
	2 Kings	where she is eaten by dogs. He despatcheth letters also to Samaria, and
	X.	causeth seventy of Ahab's children to be beheaded. Then taking with him Jehonadab the son of Rechab, he comes himself to Samaria, and destroys the whole family of Ahab, and all the priests of Baal. Nevertheless, having put down the worship of Baal, he departs not from the worship of Jeroboam's golden calves, but maintains that idolatry all the time of his reign, which was 28 years.
	IX.	Jehu proceeds farther, and executes the divine vengeance upon the idolatrous house of Judah; he pursues Ahaziah, who fled towards Megiddo, and overtaking him at Gur, causeth him to be killed in his chariot.
	X.	Going also to Samaria, he meeteth with 42 of Ahaziah's kinsmen, whom he causeth to be slain.
	XI.	Athaliah the daughter of Ahab, seeing her son Ahaziah dead, usurps
	2 Chron.	the kingdom, destroying those that had right to the succession; but Je-
	XXII. 10.	hosheba the daughter of king Jehoram, and wife to Jehoiada the high priest, takes Jehoash, being then an infant, and son to her brother Ahaziah, and hides him in the temple, and so saves him from that massacre which was made of the rest of the blood royal.
878	2 Kings	Jehoiada the high priest brings out Jehoash, now seven years old, and
	XI.	anoints him king; causeth Athaliah to be slain, and restoreth the worship
	2 Chron.	of the true God, destroying the house of Baal, and commanding the idol-
	XXIII.	atrous priest Mattan to be killed before his altars. Jehoash now beginning his reign in the seventh year of Jehu, reigneth 40 years in Jerusalem.
857	2 Kings	Jehoash, in the 23d year of his reign, giveth order for the repair of the

	XIII. 1.	Jehoahaz succeedeth his father Jehu in the kingdom of Israel, and reigneth 17 years: during all which time Hazael king of Syria oppresseth the prophet had foretold.

841	XIII. 10.	Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, is taken into the consort-ship of that kingdom by his father in the 27th year of Jehoash king of Judah, and reigneth 16 years.

Before Christ. 840	2 Chron. XXIV. 2 Kings XII. 20.	Judah that fall to idolatry after the decease of Jehoiada, is stoned to death in the court of the house of the Lord by the commandment of king Jehoash, who the next year after is murdered by some of his servants, as he lay in his bed; and Amaziah his son succeedeth him.
838	XIII.	Jehoahaz dieth, and Jehoash his son succeedeth in the kingdom of Israel. Not long after his father's funeral he visits Elisha the prophet then lying sick, and with many tears asketh counsel of him, who promiseth him victory over the Syrians. A dead man is brought to life by being laid in Elisha's grave.
836	XV. 1.	Jeroboam the second in this year taken into the consortship of the kingdom of Israel by his father Jehoash, going to war against the Syrians. This is gathered from Azariah king of Judah's beginning to reign in the 27th year of this Jeroboam.
	XIV. 2 Chron. XXV.	Amaziah king of Judah, growing proud upon a victory obtained against the Edomites this 14th year of his reign, provoketh Jehoash king of Israel to battle. Jehoash overcomes him, and takes him prisoner, breaks down 400 cubits of the wall of Jerusalem, and having spoiled the temple and the king's house of a vast treasure, returns to Samaria.
825	2 Kings XIV. 23	Jehoash dies fifteen years before Amaziah, and Jeroboam the second, his son, reigneth in Samaria 41 years.
810	XIV. 2 Chron. XXV.	Amaziah, finding a conspiracy against him at Jerusalem, flies to Lachish, where he is murdered; after whom comes his son Uzziah, or Azariah, in the 27th year of Jeroboam the second, and reigneth 52 years in Jerusalem.
808	2 Kings XV XV. 25. Isaiah IX. 1. Jonah III. Matt. XII. 41.	Now is held the 13th Jubilee under the two most flourishing kings; in whose times live sundry great prophets in both kingdoms; Isaiah and Joel in Judah; Jonas, Hosea, and Amos, in Israel. Jonas of Gath-hepher, a town belonging to the tribe of Zebulon in Galilee of the Gentiles, (observe here the blindness of the Pharisees, John vii. 52,) was afterward sent into Nineveh, the metropolis of Assyria, where both king and people at his preaching repented.
784	2 Kings XIV. 29.	Jeroboam king of Israel (under whom that kingdom came to its full height of glory) dieth; after his death all things fall into confusion, and the state is reduced to a plain anarchy, which lasteth 11 years and a half; for such an interregnum or vacancy the synchronism of Kings requires, that the six months of Zachariah the son of Jeroboam may answer the 38 years and one month of Shallum, who murdered him in the 39th year of Azariah, or Uzziah, king of Judah.
773	XV. 8,	Zechariah the son of Jeroboam, the 4th and last of the race of Jehu, (as was foretold,) begins his reign over Israel in the 38th year of Azariah, or Uzziah, king of Judah, and reigneth six months.
772	10. Amos VII. 9.	Shallum the son of Jabesh, at the end of six months, murders him in the sight of the people, and reigns one month, in the 39th year of Uzziah king of Judah. After Zachariah's death follow those direful calamities foretold by Amos the prophet.
	2 Kings XV. 14,	Menahem the son of Gadi going from Tirzah to Samaria, killeth Shallum, wasteth Tiphsah and the borders thereof, and because the town would not open to him, he takes it, and rips up all the women with child.
771	19,	While Menahem in these broils labours to get the possession of the kingdom, Paul king of Assyria invadeth his country, to whom Menahem giveth 1000 talents of silver, and afterward reigneth quietly 10 years.
761	23,	Pekahiah succeedeth his father Menahem in the 50th year of Uzziah king of Judah, and reigneth 2 years.
759	25, 27,	Pekah, one of his captains, kills him in his own palace at Samaria, and reigneth 20 years.
758	32.	Jotham succeedeth his father Uzziah in the kingdom of Judah at the age of 25 years, and reigneth 16 years in Jerusalem.
	2 Chron. XXVII. 5. Mic. I. 1.	Jotham subdues the Ammonites, and makes them tributary for 3 years. Under him and his two successors the prophets Micah and Hosea execute their prophetical office. About this time lived the prophet Nahum, and prophesied the destruction of Nineveh.
	2 Kings XVI. 1. 2 Chron. XXVII. 1. Isa. VII.	Ahaz succeedeth his father Jotham in the 17th year of Pekah king of Israel, and reigneth 16 years. This year Rezin king of Syria, and Pekah king of Israel are confederate against Judah, which strikes a great terror into that nation; but unto Ahaz, God, by the prophet Isaiah, sends a gracious message, with a promise of deliverance; for a sign whereof (when the incredulous king, being bid to ask a sign, refused to do it) God gives him the promise of Immanuel to be born of a virgin. Rezin and Pekah now lay siege to Jerusalem, and therein to Ahaz, but are beaten off; Ahab is no sooner delivered from his enemies, but he forsakes God his deliverer, and falls to idolatry. Wherefore God gives him over into the hands of the king of Israel, who slays of the men of Judah 120,000 in one day, with a great many of the nobility, and carrieth away 200,000 captives; but these, by the advice of the prophet Obed, are released and sent home.
741
739	2 Kings XV. 30.	Hoshea the son of Elah murders Pekah king of Israel, and gets the kingdom into his own hands; it is said in the 20th year of Jotham, that is from the time that Jotham first began to reign, which is the same with the 4th of Ahaz his son. Hoshea, by reason of the tumults and disorders which ensued, cannot be said to have reigned till 9 years after, the state continuing all that time in great confusion, without any form of government.
730
728	XVII. 8.	Shalmaneser, king of Assyria, comes up against Hoshea, and makes him to serve him, and pay him tribute.
726	XVIII. 1. 2 Chron. XXIX. XXX.	Hezekiah succeedeth his father Ahaz in the kingdom of Judah: he destroyeth idolatry, and prospers: he also celebrates a solemn passover, and reigneth 29 years in Jerusalem; his father had made him in the last year of his reign, his assistant in the government.
725	XXXI. 2 Kings	Hoshea king of Israel, having consulted with So king of Egypt, refuseth to pay tribute to Shalmaneser: provoked hereby, and jealous of some farther design in that confederacy of Hoshea with the king of Egypt, Shalmaneser layeth siege to Samaria, and towards the latter end of the third year he taketh it, and carrieth away the Israelites captive into his own country. This was the end of the kingdom of Israel, when it had stood divided from the kingdom of Judah 254 years.
713	XVIII.	Sennacherib king of Assyria, coming up against Judah, besiegeth their fenced cities, and taketh many of them, but is pacified by a tribute.
	XX. Isaiah XXXVIII.	About this time Hezekiah falls sick, and is told by Isaiah that he shall die, but pouring out his tears and prayers unto God, he recovereth his health, and obtaineth a prolongation of his life and kingdom for 15 years. For a sign whereof the sun goes ten degrees backward.
710	2 Kings XIX. Isaiah XXXVII.	Sennacherib, not observing the articles of peace, layeth siege to Jerusalem, and sendeth a blasphemous letter to Hezekiah; which he opening, and spreading before the Lord in the temple with many tears, craves assistance from God against the Assyrians. Whereupon the prophet Isaiah assures him that God will deliver him and defend that city. The self-same night an angel of the Lord slays 185,000 men in the Assyrian army; and the next morning Sennacherib departeth, and returns to Nineveh; where not long after, whilst he is worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, he is slain by his own sons.
677	2 Kings XXI. 2 Chron. XXXIII.	Manasseh at 12 years of age succeedeth his father Hezekiah, and reigneth 58 years. He setteth up idolatry, and sheddeth much innocent blood. Wherefore God delivers him up into the hands of the Assyrians, who in the 22d year of his reign carry him away captive to Babylon: but upon his repentance God restores him to his liberty and kingdom.
656	Judith XIII.	This year Nebuchodonosor king of Assyria, purposing to make himself universal monarch, sends Holofernes his general against Judea, who layeth siege to Bethulia, and there hath his head taken off by Judith, a woman of the tribe of Simeon.
643	2 Kings XXI. 19. 2 Chron.	Amon, aged 22 years, succeedeth his father Manasseh, and reigneth two years. An idolater indeed, as his father, but no penitent: he is murdered by his own servants.
641	XXXIII 21, 22. 2 Kings XXII. 1.	Josiah, a child of 8 years old, succeedeth his father Amon, and reigneth 31 years. In his time lived Jeremiah and Zephaniah the prophets, and Huldah the prophetess.

Before Christ. 630 624	2 Chron. XXXIV.	In the 12th year of his reign, he begins a reformation in Judah and Jerusalem and carries it on successfully. This year he giveth order for the repair of the temple. Hilkiah the high priest, having found a book of the law, sends it to the king, who hears it read all over to him; and thereupon asketh counsel of Huldah the prophetess, who prophesieth the destruction of Jerusalem, but not in his days.
	2 Kings XXIII. 2 Chron. XXXIV.	Josiah calling to him the elders of Judah and Jerusalem, with the priests and prophets, causeth the book of the law to be read over before all the people, and reneweth the covenant between God and his people; he burneth also dead men's bones upon the altar at Beth-el, as was foretold; and keepeth a most solemn passover.
610	2 Kings XXXIII. 9.	At this time a war breaks out between the king of Egypt and the king of Assyria. Josiah unadvisedly engageth in this war against Necho king of Egypt, and is slain in the valley of Megiddo. The good king being thus taken out of the world, whose life only kept off the Babylonish captivity from that nation, not only the people then living bewailed his death, but even in after time a public mourning for him was kept. The prophet Jeremy also in remembrance thereof composeth his Lamentations; wherein bewailing the calamities which were shortly to befall that people, as present before his eyes, in a most compassionate manner he points, as it were with his finger, at the death of Josiah as the source and original of all those ensuing miseries.
	Zechar. XII. 11.
	2 Chron. XXXV. 25. Lam. IV. 20.
	2 Kings XXIII. 2 Chron. XXXVI.	After the death of Josiah, the people anoint Shallum, one of his younger sons, to be their king. After three months' reign, he is deposed by Pharaoh Necho, who makes Eliakim, his elder brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changes his name into Jehoiakim; but Jehoahaz he carries along with him captive into Egypt, where he ends his days.
	5.	Jehoiakim, at 25 years of age, begins to reign, and he reigneth 11 years.
609	Jerem. XXVI.	Uriah and Jeremiah prophesy against Jerusalem: the former is put to death, the latter is acquitted, and set at liberty. About this time Habbakkuk also prophesieth.
607	XXV. 1.	This year is Nebuchadnezzar the Great made by his father Nebopolazzar his associate in the kingdom of Assyria and Babylon; into whose hands God delivers up Jehoiakim, who is put in chains to be carried to Babylon;
606	2 Chron. XXXVI. 6.	but upon his submission and promises of obedience is left in his own house, where he lives a servant to Nebuchadnezzar 3 years.
	Daniel I. 3, 7. Isaiah XXXIX. 7.	Nebuchadnezzar gives order to Ashpenaz, master of the eunuchs, that he shall carry from thence of the children of Israel, both of the blood-royal (as was foretold by the prophet Isaiah to Hezekiah) and also of the nobility, the choicest youths both for beauty and wit that he can find; who being educated 3 years in the language and sciences of the Chaldeans, may afterward be fit to serve the king in his palace; among whom, of the tribe of Judah, are Daniel, called Belteshazzar; Hananiah, called Shadrach; Mishael, called Meshach; and Azariah, called Abed-nego.
605		Whilst Nebuchadnezzar pursues his victories over the king of Egypt, his father dies; which coming to his knowledge, he gives order for the bringing away of the captives, and posts with a small company the nearest way to Babylon, where he is received as the lawful successor to his father's dominions. He brought to Babylon what he thinks fit of the vessels and furniture of the temple, and placeth them in the house of his god, Belus.
	Dan. I. 2. 2 Chron. XXXVI. 1.
603	2 Kings XXIV. 1. Dan. II.	Jehoiakim, having lived 3 years in subjection to the king of Babylon, falls off, and rebels against him. This year (being the second of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, taking it as if begun at his father's death,) Daniel recovers Nebuchadnezzar's dream, and interprets it to betoken the four chief monarchies; whereupon he and his companions are highly advanced.
600	2 Kings XXIV. 2.	Nebuchadnezzar sends an army, consisting of Chaldeans, Syrians, Moabites, and Ammonites, against Jehoiakim; these waste the whole country of Judea, and carry away from thence 3023 captives. Jehoiakim also is taken prisoner, whom they put to death, cause his carcass to be drawn out at the gate of Jerusalem (as was foretold by the prophet Jeremiah) and leave it without the walls unburied.
599	Jerem. XXII. 18. XXXVI. 30.
	2 Kings XXIV. 8. 2 Chron. XXXVI. 9.	Jehoiachin (called also Conias and Jeconias) at 18 years of age succeeds his father Jehoiakim, and reigns three months in Jerusalem. Against him Nebuchadnezzar leads an army, and besiegeth Jerusalem; Jehoiachin with all his kindred and courtiers come out to meet him. Nebuchadnezzar makes them all prisoners, enters Jerusalem, and takes all the treasure he can find in the temple and the king's palace, breaking in pieces all the vessels of gold and furniture which Solomon had made for the temple; he carrieth away captive to Babylon the king, his mother, wives, courtiers, magistrates, and 10,000 able men out of Jerusalem, leaving none behind but the poorer sort of people; and out of the country round about he carried also away 8000 artificers; among the captives are Mordecai, and Ezekiel, the priest; Ezekiel therefore in his prophecy reckons the time all along from the beginning of this captivity.
	Isaiah XXXIX. 6. Jerem. XXIV. 1. Ezekiel XVII. 12. I. 2, 3.
	2 Kings XXIV. 17. 2 Chron. XXXVI.	Nebuchadnezzar before his departure from Jerusalem, makes Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's father's brother, king, changing his name into Zedekiah. Zedekiah, beginning his reign at 21 years of age, reigneth 11 years; he, by rebelling against Nebuchadnezzar, or rather by continuing in open rebellion (as his fathers had done) against God, brought upon Jerusalem and the whole nation of the Jews those long-deserved calamities which God had so often forewarned them of by his prophets; for, in the latter end of the year
588
	2 Kings XXV. Jerem. I. 3. XXXIX. LII.	of Zedekiah, Jerusalem, after a long siege, is taken by Nebuchadnezzar, and his Chaldeans enter it. Zedekiah flees away by night, but being pursued, is taken, and brought prisoner to Riblah, Nebuchadnezzar's head-quarters; there having first seen his children slaughtered before his eyes, he has afterward those eyes put out, and being loaden with chains, is carried away captive to Babylon. About a month after the taking of the city, Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, sent by Nebuchadnezzar, makes his entry into it, sets fire to the temple, the king's palace, and some noblemen's houses, and so layeth the whole city in ashes; the walls of Jerusalem being razed to the ground; all that were left in the city, and those that a little before had fallen to the Chaldeans, with what treasure he can find, doth Nebuzar-adan carry with him into Babylon.
	26. 2 Kings XXV. 21. Jerem. XLIX. 7. Ezekiel XXV. 12.	And thus was Judah carried out of her own land, 468 years after David began to reign over it, 388 years after the falling off of the ten tribes, and 134 years after the destruction of the kingdom of Israel. Obadiah the prophet denounceth God's judgments against the Edomites who now insult over the calamity of the Jews. The same do Jeremy and Ezekiel, and the author of the 97th and 137th Psalms, who wrote all about the same time.

PERIOD VI.

From Nebuchadnezzar to Birth of John the Baptist, B. C. 4.

569 The Babylonian Empire. 562	Dan. IV. 29, 33, 34.	NEBUCHADNEZZAR, proud of his victories over Egypt, and his conquest of Judea and other countries, and boasting the magnificence of his buildings, falls distracted, and is driven from the society of men. After seven years spent among the beasts of the field, his understanding returning to him, he humbly acknowledgeth the power of God, and his goodness towards him; and is restored to his kingdom. A few days after he dies, having reigned about 20 months together with his father, and 43 years by himself.
	2 Kings XXV. 27. Jer. LII. 31.	Evil-merodach his son succeeds him in the 37th year of the captivity of Jehoiachin or Jeconiah, who presently gives order for the enlargement of Jehoiachin, and two days after changeth his prison-clothes, sets him above all the princes of his court, and causeth him to eat at his own table. Jehoiachin dies about two years after.

Before Chrtst.
555	Daniel VII. 1.	Belshazzar, having removed some persons who had murdered his father Evil-merodach, and usurped his throne, succeeds in the kingdom of Babylon. In the first year of this king's reign Daniel has the vision of the four beasts, signifying the four great monarchies of the world, and of God delivering over all power and sovereignty to the Son of Man.
553	VIII. 1.	In the third year of Belshazzar, Daniel receives the vision of the ram and the he-goat, betokening the destruction of the Persian monarchy, and the great misery which Antiochus should bring upon the people of God.
538	V. Jerem. XXVII. 7.	This year Belshazzar makes a great feast for all the nobles, and causeth to be brought forth all the vessels of the house of the Lord, which Nebuchadnezzar his grandfather had brought away from Jerusalem, to the glory of his idols, and dishonour of the true God. In the midst of all this jollity a hand appears writing on the wall of the room in which the king and his numerous guests sit drinking. The king, greatly terrified hereat, sends for his Chaldean astrologers and wizards, and commands them to read the writing, and give him the interpretation of it; but they not being able to do either, Daniel is sent for, who reads the writing, and gives the king the interpretation of it: whereupon Daniel is publicly proclaimed the third man in the kingdom. This same night Belshazzar is slain, Babylon is taken by Cyrus, and the empire translated to the Medes and Persians, as had been sundry times foretold by the prophets.
	Dan. V.
	Isa. XIII. Hab. II. Jerem. XXV. 12. L. LI. Dan. V. 31. VI. 6.
		Cyrus having given the kingdom of Babylon to Darius the Mede, reserving some palaces in the city for himself, he returns through Media into Persia.
		Daniel's greatness raising envy in some principal courtiers and officers, these contrive his ruin: but finding nothing in his management of affairs whereof to accuse him, they resolve to order matters so, that Daniel's piety towards God shall become an offence worthy of death. They move the king to make a decree, that for 30 days no petition shall be made to any god or man, but to himself only. Which decree Daniel breaks by making supplication to his God, and is for so doing cast into a den of lions; but being found to have received no hurt there, Darius commands his conspirators to be cast into the same den, who are presently devoured; and the king publisheth a decree, that all persons throughout his dominions shall reverence and fear the God of Daniel.
537	IX. Jerem. XXIX. 10. Dan. IX.	Towards the end of the first year of the reign of Darius the Mede, to be reckoned from the subversion of the Babylonish empire, begins the 70th year of the captivity of the Jews, which, by Jeremiah's prophecy, was to be the last year of their calamity. Upon consideration of which time so near at hand, Daniel pours out his most fervent prayers to God for the remission of his own sins, and those of his people; and for that promised deliverance out of their captivity. To whom the angel Gabriel brings an answer not only of this, but also of the spiritual deliverance of the church by the death of the Messiah; uttering that memorable prophecy of the seventy weeks.
536 The Persian Empire.		Cyrus, his father Cambyses and his father-in-law Cyaxares both dying, Persia falls to him by inheritance, and Media by contract of marriage: and so he is possessed of the whole eastern empire; from which time both Xenophon (Inst. lib. 8.) reckons the 7 years of his reign, and the Holy Scripture out of the records of the Medes and Persians, reckons this his first year; for it teacheth us, that in this year came forth that renowned edict of his, Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The Lord God of Heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and hath charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem which is in Judah, &c. At which time the 70 years of the Babylonish captivity being expired, (as was foretold by Isaiah and Jeremiah, the former making mention of Cyrus by name,) he gives leave to all the Jews, dwelling in all parts of his dominions, to return into their own country, and commands them immediately to fall in hand with rebuilding of the temple.
	Ezra I. 2.
	Isaiah XLIV. 28. XLIV. 1, 13.
		He restoreth also all the vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought from thence; and contributes towards the building.
	Ezra I. 5, 6. II. Nehem. VII.	The Jews therefore return into their own country; the poorer sort having allowance made them to defray their charges upon the way. The number of the children of the province, or Hebrews born in Chaldea, which with their captain Zerubbabel, and their high priest Jeshua, return out of captivity, is 42,360, besides proselytes, men-servants, and maid-servants, to the number of 7,337. Now the particular sums of Ezra's catalogue being cast up amount only to 29,818; and those in Nehemiah's account make but 31,031, both which come far short of that general sum of 42,360, which at the bottom of each catalogue is said to be the number of the whole congregation. Wherefore the Hebrews in the xxixth chapter of their great chronicle tell us, that to complete the full sum of 42,360, we must cast in those of the other ten tribes of Israel, who came up out of the captivity with the Jews. For even till the last extirpation of the Jewish state there remained some relics of the other ten tribes, not only in the dispersion, and at Jerusalem, and other cities of Judah; but also of those who kept still in their own seats; for Shalmaneser swept not away all out of the whole ten tribes, but left a remnant of them in their own country, who were afterward, together with the Jews, Benjamites, and Levites, carried away by Nebuchadnezzar into Babylon, and are now dismissed and sent back again by Cyrus.
	Acts XXVI. 7. Lam. I. 1. Luke II. 36.
	Ezra III. 8, 13.	In the second year after their return from Babylon, in the second month, they appoint Levites to oversee the work of the house of God, and lay the foundation of the temple; the old men lamenting, who 53 years before had seen the old temple standing, and the younger sort rejoicing to see the new one going up.
	IV. 5,	The Samaritans by the means of certain courtiers about Cyrus, whom they had bribed for that purpose, disturb the Jews in their work of the temple.
	6.	In the beginning of the reign of Artaxerxes (called in profane story Cambyses) the Samaritans, who, whilst Cyrus lived, had secretly undermined the Jews, now openly frame a direct accusation in writing against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem, and present it to the king, who presently forbids the Jews to proceed in the building.
520	V. 1.	In the second year of king Darius Hystaspes (the same with Ahasuerus) Zerubbabel and Jeshua, incited by the prophets Haggai and Zechariah, set forward the building of the temple.
	Hag. II. 1, 9.	Haggai prophesieth that the glory of this second temple shall be greater than that of the former; not as being a more magnificent structure, but in regard the blessed Messiah shall one day honour it with his presence, and from thence propagate peace to all nations.
528	Est. I. II.	Ahasuerus puts away queen Vashti his wife, and not long after espouseth Esther, the niece of Mordecai the Jew.
515	Ezra VI.	In the sixth year of Darius, or Ahasuerus, the temple is finished; the dedication whereof is celebrated with great joy and abundance of sacrifices, the priests and Levites, every one in his place, standing on the ministry of the temple. The passover also is celebrated.
510	Est. III.	Haman, an Agagite, of the race of the Amalekites, a great favorite of king Ahasuerus, offended at Mordecai, because he falls not down and adores him, as others do, resolves to be revenged of the whole nation of the Jews, (which was ever averse to his,) and to root it out; for the executing of which purpose, that he may find a successful time, he causeth Pur, that is, the lot, to be cast before him, for to know the day and month wherein the Jews shall be destroyed, and the lot falls on the 12th month Adar.
	Deut. XXV. 19.
	Est. IV.	Haman obtains an edict from the king, that all Jews, without respect to sex or age, upon the thirteenth day of the month Adar, be put to death in all the provinces of the king's dominions. Hereupon Mordecai, Esther, and all the Jews, humble themselves before the Lord by fasting and prayer.
	VI.	Ahasuerus, hearing it read in the chronicles that a conspiracy had been discovered to him by Mordecai, commandeth that he be publicly honoured and that by Haman himself, his deadly enemy.
	VII.	Esther, entertaining the king and Haman at a banquet, maketh suit for her own life, and her people's, and accuseth Haman. The king, understanding that Haman had provided a gallows for Mordecai, causeth him to be hanged thereon. In memory of this great deliverance the two days of Purim are made festival.

Before Christ.
467	Ezra VII.	Ezra the priest, a man skilled in the law of Moses, obtains a large commission from king Artaxerxes, to settle the Jewish commonwealth, and to reform the church at Jerusalem.
	Neh. II.	In the twentieth year of king Artaxerxes, Nehemiah a Jew, one of his cup-bearers, being made governor of Judea, obtains leave to build the wall of Jerusalem, and finish that great work. Here begins Daniel's 70 weeks to be fulfilled before the passion of our Saviour.
	Dan. IX. 24.
442	Neh. V. 14.	Nehemiah having governed Judea 12 years, returns to the king of Persia.
415	XIII. 6.	This year is the 21st Jubilee, the last that ever the prophets of the Old Testament saw; for that place in Nehemiah, chap. xii. 22, is not to be understood of the last Darius, but of Darius Nothus, who now reigns in Persia; the full history of Nehemiah ending with the time of Artaxerxes Longinus, father of this Darius Nothus.
		Hitherto (saith Eusebius in his chronicle, to the 32d year of Artaxerxes) the Divine Scriptures of the Hebrews contains the annals of the times But those things which were done among them afterward we must deliv out of the books of the Maccabees, and out of the writings of Joseph who have delivered a general history of the Jewish affairs from thenc down to the times of the Romans.
	XIII.	That Malachi, the last of the prophets, was contemporary with Nehemiah, appears from hence, that he nowhere exhorts the people to the building of the temple, as Haggai and Zachary did; but the temple being now built, he reproves those disorders, which Nehemiah at his second return with a new commission from Babylon saith he found in his absence to have crept in among the Jews; as marriage with strange women, withholding of tithes, and abuse in the worship of God. And because a succession of prophets was not to be expected, as before, he exhorteth the people constantly to adhere to the law of Moses, till Christ the chief prophet should appear; whose forerunner John the Baptist should come in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers unto their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just. See 1 Mac. iv. 46, and ix. 17.
	Malachi IV. 4. Luke I. 17. Matt. XI. 14. XVII. 12.
335	Jos. Ant. I. 11. c. 8.	ALEXANDER the Great, king of Macedonia, passeth out of Europe into Asia, and begins to lay waste the Persian empire.
332	Id. Ibid.	Manasses, brother to Jaddus the high priest, refusing to put away his strange wife, is driven from the sacrifice: Sanaballath his father-in-law, governor of Samaria, revolteth from Darius, obtains leave of Alexander to build a temple on mount Gerizim, and makes Manasses high priest thereof, to which resort all such as are entangled in unlawful marriage, with all such offenders as think themselves not safe at Jerusalem. This was the rise of that schismatical conventicle of the Samaritans. See John iv. 20.
	Jos. Ant. I. 11. c. 8.	Alexander marcheth toward Jerusalem, intending to besiege it. Jaddus the high priest, hearing of it, putteth on his priestly ornaments, and accompanied with the people all in white, goeth out to meet him. Alexander, seeing his habit, falls prostrate before him, saying that, whilst he was in Macedonia, a man appeared unto him in the very same habit, who invited him to come into Asia, and promised to deliver the Persian empire into his hands. After this he goes to the temple, and offers sacrifice according to the high priest's direction. They show him the prophecy of Daniel, That a Grecian should come and destroy the Persians; whereby he is mightily confirmed in his persuasion that he himself is the man. Lastly he bestoweth on the Jews whatever favours desired, and departeth.
	Daniel VIII. 7. XI. 13.
330 The Macedonian Empire.		The Persians are overcome, Darius slain, and Alexander remains universal monarch of the eastern world.
	Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 1.	Alexander having reigned six years and ten months dieth; his army and dominions are divided among his captains. Antigonus makes himself governor of Asia, Seleucus of Babylon and the bordering nations; Lysimachus hath the Hellespont; Cassander, Macedon; and Ptolemeus the son of Lagus, gets Egypt.
323	1 Mac. I.
320	Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 1.	Ptolemeus, surnamed Soter, makes himself master of Jerusalem by stratagem; for he enters the city on a sabbath-day under pretence of offering sacrifice; and whilst the Jews suspect nothing, but spend the day in ease and idleness, he surpriseth the city without resistance, and maketh the citizens captives. He sendeth several colonies of Jews into Egypt, and puts great confidence in them.
277	I. 12. c. 2.	Ptolemeus Philadelphus, son of Ptolemeus Soter, being a great favourer of learning, builds a most magnificent library at Alexandria. Demetrius Phalerius, to whom he had committed the care of procuring all sorts of books and out of all countries, persuades him to employ 72 Jews in translating the Holy Scriptures out of the original Hebrew into the Greek tongue, which was done in the seventh year of his reign. The king also dismisseth many captive Jews, and dedicates many presents to the temple of God at Jerusalem.
177	2 Mac. III.	One Simon, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, governor of the temple, falling out with Onias the high priest, goes to Apollonius the governor of Celosyria, and informs him that there is a vast treasure in the temple: Apollonius acquaints king Seleucus his master with it, who presently sends his treasurer Heliodorus to Jerusalem, to bring this money away. Heliodorus entering the temple, is by angels struck down in the very place, and carried from thence half dead; but by the prayers of Onias he is soon after restored to his health. Returning to Seleucus that sent him, he magnifies the holiness of the temple, and the power of God dwelling in it.
176	1 Mac. I. 10.	Antiochus Epiphanes succeeds Seleucus in the kingdom of Syria, and reigneth 11 years and some months.
175	2 Mac. IV. 7,	Jason, by corrupting king Antiochus, obtaineth the office of high priest.
172	3, 24,	Menelaus, brother to Simon the traitor, being employed by Jason to carry the money to the king, promiseth 300 talents of silver above what Jason had sent, and getteth the priesthood to himself.
170	27.	Menelaus, not paying the money he had promised the king at his admission, is summoned to appear before Antiochus; he substituteth Lysimachus his brother in his place.
	1 Mac. I. 21, 22. 2 Mac. V. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 7. Daniel XI. 28.	Antiochus taketh Jerusalem, and sacking it, pillageth the temple, destroyeth 40,000 of the inhabitants, and selleth as many more. He endeavoureth also to abolish the worship of God, and forceth many Jews to forsake their religion. The Samaritans now disown their relation to the Jews, to whom in prosperity they pretended alliance, and consecrate the temple on mount Gerizim to Jupiter.
168	1 Mac. VIII. 5.	Perseus, having made war upon the Romans, is this year overcome by them, and the kingdom of the Macedonians ends, when from Caranus it had stood 626 years. Nevertheless the relics of the Macedonian empire, while that of the Roman was rising, did yet survive in the Ptolemies of Egypt, and the kings of Syria.
167	I. 45.	King Antiochus, by a public edict, commands all nations that are subject unto him to observe the same way of divine worship, and laying aside their peculiar customs, to profess the same religion with the Grecians' the punishment of death being threatened unto such as shall be disobedient; and he appoints overseers over every people and nation who shall compel them hereunto. Of the Jews many choose rather to undergo the most cruel torments, than to offer sacrifice unto idols; all which martyrdoms, with those glorious sufferings of the seven Maccabean brethren, are recorded in the two books of Maccabees.
	1 Mac. II.
	2 Mac. VI.	Mattathias, a priest, with his five sons, slay those that are sent by king Antiochus to compel them to offer abominable sacrifices, and after betake themselves to the desert. They are followed by many others, of whom a great number are stifled in their caves, because they would not defend themselves on the sabbath-day. Mattathias abolisheth that superstition, and exhorts his sons to assert their privileges, and deliver their country from bondage.
	Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 8. 1 Mac. III. 2 Mac. VIII.
166	Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 9. 1 Mac. III.	Mattathias dies, and Judas Maccabeus takes upon him the management of this affair. He delivers his country and purgeth it from the abominations which had been committed in it.

Before Christ.
166	Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 10. 1 Mac. III. 13. Joseph. ut supra.	Apollonius, governor of Samaria, having raised an army among the Gentiles and Samaritans, falls upon the Jews; but is discomfited and slain by Judas Maccabeus.
		Seron also, governor of the lower Syria, musters up all the forces under his command, and invades Judea; him Judas Maccabeus encounters, slays 800 of his men on the place, and puts the rest to flight.
165	1 Mac. III. 27. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 11.	Judas Maccabeus defeats a great army, which Antiochus sent against the Jews. Lysias returns with a greater power; Judas kills 5000 of his men, and causeth him to retreat. He purifieth the temple, and setteth it in order, after it had lain desolate three years; and buildeth a wall about Sion.
164	1 Mac. VI. 2 Mac. IX. 9. Jos. Ant.	Antiochus is taken with a violent pain in his bowels, and such a rottenness seizeth his flesh, that worms breed in it: he confesseth that he is plagued for the wrong done to Jerusalem, and dieth in the 149th year of the kingdom of the Grecians. His son Antiochus Eupator, a child about nine years old, succeeds him. He maketh peace with the Jews, but quickly breaketh it; he puts to death Menelaus the high priest, and confers that honour upon Alcimus, or Jacimus.
163	I. 12. c. 13.
162	2 Mac. XIII. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 15.	Onias, the son of Onias III., retires into Egypt, where Ptolemeus Philometor, and Cleopatra his wife, permit him to build a temple at Heliopolis in imitation of that at Jerusalem, and they constitute him high priest there.
	1 Mac. VII.	Demetrius Soter, the son of Seleucus, escapes from Rome, and comes into Syria, where he causeth himself to be crowned king, and putteth to death Antiochus and Lysias.
161	2 Mac. XIV. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 17.	Demetrius, at the instance of Alcimus, sends Nicanor with a great army against Judas Maccabeus, whom he endeavours to surprise. They join battle, and Nicanor is slain.
		Here ends the continued history of the second book of Maccabees, being an abstract and breviary of the five books of Jason, a Jew of Cyrene.
	1 Mac. IX. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 18, 19. 1 Mac. VIII. 19. Jos. Ant.	King Demetrius sends Bacchides with a new army, consisting of 20,000 men, against Judas Maccabeus; Judas, having with him but 800 men, ventures to engage him, and is slain. His brother Jonathan is chosen general in his stead.
		Jonathan enters into an alliance with the Romans. Josephus observes, that this was the first league that ever was known to be between the Jews and the Romans.
160	I. 18. c. 17. 1 Mac. IX. 55, 70.	Whilst Alcimus commands the wall of the inner court of the temple to be pulled down, God strikes him suddenly with a palsy, so that without speaking a word he dies in great torment.
158	Jos. Ant. I. 13. c. 2.	Jonathan, having wearied Bacchides by war, compelleth him to make a league and draw off his army.
153	1 Mac. X. 1. Jos. Ant. I. 13. c. 3. 1 Mac. X. 3, 10.	Alexander Balas, the son of king Antiochus Epiphanes, enters with an army into Syria: the garrison of Ptolemais set open their gates to him, by reason of their hatred to king Demetrius; who prepares himself for war.
		Demetrius desireth an alliance with Jonathan, who makes use of this occasion to repair the fortifications of Jerusalem.
	Jos. Ant. I. 13. c. 4.	Alexander Balas is no less careful to obtain the friendship of Jonathan, and, to oblige him, confers on him the high priesthood.
152	1 Mac. X. 15. Jos. Ant. I. 13. c. 5.	Jonathan puts on the holy vestment on the seventh month of the 160th year of the kingdom of the Grecians, at the feast of tabernacles. He was the first high priest of the Hasmonean family.
150	1 Mac. X. 21. Id. Ibid.	Demetrius and Alexander come to battle, and Demetrius is slain.
		Alexander Balas, finding himself in the peaceable possession of the kingdom of Syria, espouseth Cleopatra, the daughter of Ptolemeus Philometor king of Egypt. Alexander highly honours Jonathan the high priest at his nuptials.
148	1 Mac. X. 49, 50. Joseph. ubi supra.	Demetrius Nicanor, eldest son of Demetrius Soter, enters into Cilicia with an army. King Alexander Balas gives the command of Syria to Apollonius, who sets upon Jonathan the high priest; Jonathan defeats him, and takes Joppe and Azotus, and burns the temple of Dagon.
146	1 Mac. X. 51. Jos. c. 7. 1 Mac. X. 75. Jos. Ant. I. 13. c. 8. 1 Mac. XI. Jos. loc. citat.	Ptolemeus Philometor, king of Egypt, comes to the relief of king Alexander his son-in-law; Alexander ungratefully sets Ammonius to lie in ambush to kill him. The treachery being discovered, Ptolemeus takes away his daughter from Alexander, and marrieth her to Demetrius. Alexander having been driven from Antioch, the inhabitants of that place make offer of the kingdom to Ptolemeus; but he refuseth it, and persuadeth them to accept of Demetrius for their king.
145	1 Mac. XI. XI. 54. Jos. Ant.	Alexander returns with a great army. Ptolemeus and Demetrius unite their forces, and overcome him in a pitched battle; but Ptolemeus dies of the wounds which he received, after he had seen the head of Alexander sent to him by Zabdiel, an Arabian prince. Jonathan besiegeth the citadel at Jerusalem, held by a garrison of Macedonians. Complaint hereof being made to Demetrius, Jonathan appeaseth him by presents, and obtaineth new favours for the Jews. Demetrius incurreth the hatred of his soldiers by abridging their pay in time of peace.
	I. 13. c. 9.	Tryphon, with some soldiers that revolted from Demetrius, undertakes to establish Antiochus, the son of Alexander Balas, in the kingdom of Syria.
144	1 Mac. XI. 55. XII.	Demetrius is vanquished by young Antiochus, and made to fly into Seleucia. Great honours are by Antiochus conferred on Jonathan, who assists him against Demetrius.
		Jonathan renews his alliance with the Romans and Lacedemonians, and fortifies Jerusalem.
143	Jos. Ant. I. 13. c. 9. c. 10.	Tryphon contrives how he may quit himself of Antiochus, and reign in his stead: but fearing Jonathan's opposition, he invites him to come to Ptolemais, and bring with him some few of his soldiers, promising to deliver that city into his hands. Jonathan, suspecting no treachery, comes only with 1000 men to Tryphon at Ptolemais; but as soon as he is entered the city, Tryphon commands the gates to be shut. Jonathan is taken prisoner, and all his men put to the sword.
	1 Mac. XIII. Jos. Ant. lib. 13. c. 10, 11.	The Jews hereupon make choice of Simon Maccabeus for their general in the place of his brother Jonathan. Tryphon leads an army against Simon. He promiseth for 100 talents of silver to release Jonathan; the money being paid him, he breaks his promise, and puts Jonathan to death. Simon erects a stately monument for his father and his brethren.
	1 Mac. XIII. 31, 32. Jos. Ant. I. 13. c. 12.	Tryphon murders the young king Antiochus, and puts the crown on his own head.
		The Romans and Lacedemonians renew their leagues with Simon and write them in tables of brass.
142	1 Mac. XIV. 18. Jos. Ant. I. 13. c. 13	Simon has the government and high priesthood settled on him and his heirs: the Jews are by his means discharged from all manner of tribute to any foreign prince. He takes Sion, the fortress of Jerusalem, drives out of the city all idolaters, clears the houses of their idols, and placeth in the city such as are true worshippers of God.
139	I. 13. c. 12.	Tryphon's vices render him so odious to his soldiers, that they submit themselves to Cleopatra, Demetrius's relict. She marrieth Antiochus Soter, Demetrius's brother, and causeth him to be crowned king. Antiochus drives Tryphon out of Syria, besiegeth him in Dora, whence he flies to Apamea, where he is taken and slain.
138
135	1 Mac. XVI. Jos. Ant. I. 13. c. 14.	Simon the high priest traversing the cities of Judea, and taking care for their orderly government, comes down with his two sons, Mattathias and Judas to Jericho; Ptolemeus the son of Abubus, Simon's son-in-law, invites them to a castle which he had fortified, called Dochus, and there, whilst he entertains them at a banquet, barbarously murders them. John Hircanus succeeds his father in the high priesthood.
		Here ends the first book of Maccabees, containing the history of forty years.
	Jos. Ant.
130	I. 13. c. 17. Jos. I. 1.	John Hircanus takes Shechem, and demolisheth the temple on mount Gerizim, 200 years after it had been built by Sanballat.
107	Bell. c. 3. Ant. lib. 13. c. 19. & lib. 20. c. 8.	Judas, eldest son of Hircanus, otherwise called Aristobulus, and surnamed Philellen, succeeds his father in the government and the high priesthood; he was the first of any, that, after the return from the captivity of Babylon, set a crown upon his head, and changed the state into a monarchy.
88	Luke II. 37.	Anna the prophetess, daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher, this year becoming a widow, departs not from the temple, but serveth God with fasting and prayer night and day, for 84 years together, until such time as she sees Christ in the temple.
88
63	Jos. Bell. c. 5. Ant. lib. 14. c. 8.	Jerusalem is this year taken by Pompey; who meddles not with any of the treasure which was in the temple, but makes the Jews tributary to the Romans.
49		Here begins the empire of the Roman Cesars, when Julius Cesar, having overthrown Pompey at the battle of Pharsalia, was made perpetual dictator.
The Roman Empire	Jos. I. 14. c. 25.	Herod, the son of Antipas, or Antipater, an Idumean, is this year by the Romans declared king of Judea.
40	Id. Ibid.	Herod, assisted by Sosius the Roman general, lays siege to Jerusalem, and takes it: the soldiers fill all corners of the city with blood, rapine and cruelty. Antigonus, the prince and high priest, is by Sosius carried away prisoner to Rome, and Herod put in full possession of the kingdom.
38	c. 28. I. 1.
37	Bell. c. 13.
28	Dionys. lib. 52.	Cesar Octavianus, nephew to Julius Cesar, assumes the title of emperor; at which time the government among the Romans was legally changed from a republic into a monarchy. The next year following he is by the senate surnamed Augustus.
27	Jos. Ant. lib. 20.
18	John II. 20.	Herod this year begins to enlarge, or rather to rebuild, the temple at Jerusalem, 46 years before the first passover of the ministry of Christ.
6	Luke I. 11.	The angel Gabriel appears to Zachary the priest, as he is offering incense in the temple, telling him that a son shall be born unto him, whom he shall call John.
5	26,	In the sixth month after John was conceived, the same angel Gabriel is sent by God to Nazareth in Galilee, to the most blessed Virgin Mary (espoused to Joseph, a person of the house and lineage of David); the angel declares unto her, that she shall conceive by the overshadowing of the Holy Ghost, and bring forth a son, and call his name JESUS.
4	57.	John the Baptist born six months before Christ.

PERIOD VII.

From the Birth of Christ to St. John's Return to Ephesus, A. D. 96.

Luke II. 6, 21.	CHRIST our Lord and Saviour in the fulness of time is born of the blessed Virgin Mary at Bethlehem, and laid in a manger.
Matt. II. 1, 12, 14, 16, 19.	On the eighth day after his nativity he is circumcised, and named JESUS
	The wise men of the east bring presents to the new-born king of the Jews.
	Joseph flees into Egypt with the child Jesus, and Mary his mother.
Jos. Ant. I. 17. c. 17. Matt. II. 21, 23.	Herod commands the infants in and about Bethlehem to be slain.
	Herod dieth, and his son Archelaus is by Cesar made tetrarch of Judea other dominions, which belonged to Herod, are divided among his sons.
	Christ, by God's appointment, is brought back out of Egypt into Nazareth.
	The first year of the vulgar Christian Era begins here.
After Christ. 8 Luke II. 46.	By occasion of the passover our Lord goes up with his parents to Jerusalem, and there disputes with the doctors in the temple.
	Augustus dies, and Tiberius succeeds him.
	Josephus, called Caiaphas, is made high priest of the Jews by the favour of Valerius Gratus, the Roman governor.
14
26 Jos. Ant. I. 18. c. 3.	Towards the end of this year Pontius Pilate is sent to be procurator of Judea in the place of Valerius Gratus.
27 Matt. III. 1. Mark I. 2. Luke III. 3. John I. 7. Isa. XLI. 1.	John the Baptist begins to preach and to baptize in the desert of Judea, thereby preparing the way of the Lord, and doing his endeavour that Christ coming after him may be made known unto Israel. Unto John God gives a sign whereby he may know the Lord's Christ, that upon whom he shall see the Spirit descending and remaining on him, the same is he which shall baptize with the Holy Ghost.
Matt. III. 13. Mark I. 9. Luke III. 22.	Jesus entering upon the thirtieth year of his age, comes from Galilee to Jordan, and is baptized of John; at which time a most illustrious manifestation is made of the blessed Trinity: for the Son of God ascending out of the water, and praying, the heavens are opened, and the Spirit of God in the shape of a dove descends upon him: and the voice of the Father is heard from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
John I. 34.	John sees it, and bears record that this is the Son of God.
Matt. IV. 1. Mark I. 12. Luke IV.	Jesus full of the Holy Ghost returns from Jordan, and is led by the Spirit into the wilderness, where he fasteth forty days and forty nights, and is tempted by the devil.
John I. 35, 47.	John gives testimony to our Saviour passing by him: Andrew, Peter, Philip, and Nathanael, acknowledge him to be the Messias and become his disciples.
II. 1.	Christ, at a marriage in Cana of Galilee, turneth water into wine.
30 John II. 13.	The first passover of Christ's public ministry, from which the first year of the seventieth and last of Daniel's week begins. In which the covenant is confirmed with many, Dan. ix. 27, compared with Matt. xxvi. 28 JESUS cometh to Jerusalem at the time of the passover, and entering into the temple, scourgeth out those that bought and sold there The Jews require a sign of his authority: Christ bids them destroy that temple (understanding the temple of his body), and in three days he will raise it up.
Matt. XIV. 3. Mark VI. 17. Luke III. 19.	Herod the tetrarch casteth John the baptist into prison for reproved ing his incest with his brother Philip's wife, and other evils done by him
31 John IV. 7, 42. Luke IV. 43.	Christ discovers himself to the woman of Samaria.
	He goes throughout all Galilee, teaching in the synagogues, and working miracles.
	Matthew called to be a disciple.
John V. 1. Luke VI. 13.	The second passover of Christ's ministry, John v. 1, compared with iv 3, 5, from which the second year of the seventieth week of Daniel begins. JESUS comes up to Jerusalem at the time of the feast, and heals on the sabbath-day a man that had an infirmity 38 years, lying at the pool of Bethesda. He makes a most divine apology to the Jews that sought to kill him, because he said that God was his father.
Matt. V. VI. VII. Luke VI. 20. Mark VI. 7.	Christ out of the multitude of his disciples chooseth 12, whom he calleth Apostles: namely, Peter, Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alpheus, Simon called Zelotes, Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot. To these our Saviour chiefly directs his discourse in that glorious, full, and admirable sermon on the mount.
32 Matt. X. 1. Mark VI. 35. Luke IX. 12. John VI. 1, 15.	Jesus sends his 12 apostles by two and two to preach, and heal the sick.
	John the Baptist is beheaded in prison by Herod's command.
	Jesus feeds 5000 men, besides women and children, with five barley loaves and two little fishes. He refuses to be made a king.
Matt. XVII. 1. Mark IX. 1. Luke IX. 28.	The third passover of Christ's ministry, John iv. 4, from which the third year of the seventieth week of Daniel begins. JESUS is transfigured on the mount; Moses and Elias are seen to talk with him; and a voice from heaven is heard a second time, saying, This is my beloved son; hear him.
Matt. XVII. 24.	Christ payeth tribute to Cesar.
	A certain village of the Samaritans refuseth our Saviour entertainment in his way to Jerusalem: the disciples, desiring to call fire from heaven to consume them, are severely reprehended.
Luke IX. 51. X. 1.	The seventy disciples are sent out by two and two to work miracles and to preach.

After Christ.
33	Luke XI. 1.	Christ teacheth his disciples to pray.
	John XI. 1.	Christ raiseth Lazarus, that had been buried four days.

	Luke XIX. 1.	Zaccheus a publican converted.
	Mark X. 46.	Christ restoreth to blind Bartimeus his sight.
	John XII. 3.	Mary the sister of Lazarus anoints our Saviour's feet with costly spikenard, and wipeth them with the hair of her head.
	Matt. XXI.	Christ rideth in triumph into Jerusalem: the multitude spread their
	Mark XI.	garments in the way, and cry, Hosanna to the Son of David. Coming
	Luke XIX.	near the city he weeps over it, and foretells its destruction. He enters
	John XII.	the temple, and casteth out those that bought and sold there; and heals
	Isa. LII.	the blind and lame.
	Zech. IX. 9.
	Matt. XXI. 19.	He curseth the fruitless fig-tree, and the next morning it is found dried up and withered. Thence he takes occasion to show the power of faith.
		The fourth passover, in which Christ our passover is sacrificed, 1 Cor. v. 7, and so an end is put to all legal sacrifices prefiguring this great expiation. The fourth or middle year of Daniel's last week begins, Dan. ix. 27.
	XXVI.	ON the first day of unleavened bread, when the passover of the Jews
	Mark XIV.	was to be slain (April 2), in the evening, Jesus eateth the passover
	Luke XXII.	with his disciples, and institutes the sacrament of his body and blood in bread and wine.
	John XIII.	Christ washeth his disciples' feet, and exhorteth them to humility and
	XVIII.	charity.
	Matt. XXVII.	In the self-same night Christ is betrayed by Judas, mocked, buffeted, and spit upon by the soldiers.
	Mark XV.	Next day he is condemned by Pilate, and crucified; the sun during the
	Luke XXIII.	crucifixion is darkened, and the vail of the temple rent in the midst.
	John XIX.	Christ praying for his enemies gives up the Ghost. Joseph of Arimathea begs the body, and lays it in a new sepulchre.
	Ps. XXII.	On the third day, the next after the Jewish sabbath (April 5), Christ
	Matt. XXVIII.	riseth from the dead; his resurrection is declared by angels to the women
	Mark XVI.	that came to the sepulchre. Christ first appeareth to Mary Magdalene,
	Luke XXIV.	and afterward to his disciples, and dineth with them.
	John XX.	Christ bringeth his apostles to mount Olivet; commandeth them to ex-
	Acts I.	pect in Jerusalem the sending down of the Holy Ghost: sends them to
	Matt. XXVIII.	teach and baptize all nations, and blesses them; and while they behold, he is taken up, and a cloud receives him out of their sight. After his ascension the disciples are warned by two angels to depart, and to set their minds upon his second coming; they accordingly return, and, giving themselves to prayer, choose Matthias to be an apostle in the place of Judas.
	Acts II.	On the day of Pentecost (May 24), the Holy Ghost descendeth on the apostles in the form of cloven tongues, like as of fire, and enableth them to speak all languages. Peter the same day preacheth Christ and the resurrection, and about 3000 believers are added to the church.
	IV.	The rulers of the Jews, offended at Peter's sermon, and his miraculous cure of the lame man, cast both him and John into prison: upon their examination they boldly avouch the lame man to be healed by the name of Jesus, and that by the same Jesus we must be eternally saved. The Jews forbid them to speak any more in that name. The apostles answer, that it is fit they should obey God rather than men. They are threatened and let go.
	V. 1, 17.	Ananias and his wife Sapphira for their hypocrisy are struck dead.
		The apostles are again cast into prison by the high priest; but an angel sets them at liberty, and bids them preach the gospel to the people without fear: being taken again teaching in the temple, they are brought before the council; where, by the advice of Gamaliel, they are delivered.
34	VI.	The number of believers increasing at Jerusalem, the apostles ordain seven deacons, who should distribute the alms of the whole church to the widows and poorer sort of believers. Stephen, one of these deacons, having confounded some that disputed with him, is by them falsely accused of blasphemy, and brought before the council, where he reprehends their rebellion, and murdering of Christ. Whereupon they cast him out of the city, and stone him; he in the mean time praying for them.
	VII.
	VIII	A great persecution of the Church at Jerusalem follows after the death of the first martyr Stephen.
	5,	Philip, one of the seven deacons, preacheth at Samaria, and converteth many; worketh miracles, and healeth the sick. Simon the sorcerer, seeing the wonders that are done by Philip, believeth, and is baptized.
	15.	The apostles at Jerusalem, hearing that Samaria had received the faith, send thither Peter and John to confirm and enlarge the Church. The apostles by prayer and imposition of hands confer the Holy Ghost on all believers. Simon Magus offers them money, that he may receive the power of conferring the same, whose impiety is sharply reproved by Peter. Having completed their ministry in those parts, they return to Jerusalem.
35	VIII. 26.	An angel sendeth Philip to teach and baptize the Ethiopian eunuch.
	IX. 1,	Saul, a violent persecutor of all that call on the name of Jesus, and one who consented to the death of Stephen, goes now towards Damascus with commission from the high priest and the council to apprehend all Christians in those parts, and to bring them bound to Jerusalem; on the way he is miraculously converted by a voice from heaven; and three days after baptized by Ananias at Damascus, where he preached the gospel of Christ with great boldness.
38	23.	Saul having preached the gospel at Damascus a long time, the Jews lay
	2 Cor. XI. 32.	wait to kill him, but he escapeth from thence, and comes to Jerusalem;
	Gal. I. 18.	there he sees Peter, and James the brother of our Lord, and abides with
	Acts XXII. 17.	them fifteen days. Here he speaks boldly in the name of Jesus, and disputes with the Grecians, or rather Jews that used the Greek tongue. These also consult how they may kill him.
		While Saul prays in the temple, he is in a trance, and the Lord appears unto him, and bids him to depart from Jerusalem, because they will not receive his testimony; adding, that he will send him to the Gentiles.
	IX. 30.	Saul leaving Jerusalem goes to his own country Tarsus, and from thence
	Gal. I. 21.	travels into Syria and Cilicia.
	Acts IX. 32, 36.	Peter visits the churches of Judea, Galilee, Samaria, &c. At Lydda he cureth Eneas of the palsy; and at Joppa restoreth Tabitha to life.
41	X.	At Cesarea, Cornelius, a centurion, by prayers and alms finds favour in the sight of God, and is commanded by an angel to send for Peter, now at Joppa. God by a vision teacheth Peter not to despise the Gentiles. Peter being sent for by Cornelius, goes and preacheth Christ to him and a great company that were met at his house: while Peter preacheth, the Holy Ghost falls upon them all; and immediately the apostle baptizeth them.
	XI.	Peter, at his return to Jerusalem, is accused by those of the circumcision for conversing with the Gentiles; but he declares to them his vision, and the whole matter concerning Cornelius; and they glorify God for granting to the Gentiles also repentance unto life.
		The believers, who ever since the martyrdom of Stephen and the persecution thereupon ensuing, had been dispersed throughout all Phenice and Cyprus, come now to Antioch, and preach the gospel to the Greeks there, having before preached to none but the Jews. The church at Jerusalem, understanding this, and that the number of believers increased exceedingly, sends Barnabas thither to confirm them: he goes to Tarsus, and takes Saul along with him to Antioch, where they continue a whole year, converting multitudes to the faith. Here the disciples were first called Christians.
44	VII.	About this time James the brother of John is beheaded by the command of Herod Agrippa. He also imprisoneth Peter, whom an angel delivers upon the prayers of the church. This same Herod, not long after, speaking to the people at Cesarea, some of them cry out, It is the voice of God, and not of man; and immediately an angel of the Lord smites him, because he gave not the glory to God: and he is eaten of worms, and dieth.

After Christ.
45	Acts XIII.	Barnabas and Saul set forward in their preaching of the gospel. They plant the Christian faith in Seleucia, Cyprus, and other places. At Paphos they preach the gospel to Sergius Paulus, governor of that country; Elymas a sorcerer, withstanding them, and endeavouring to turn away Sergius from the faith, is at Saul's rebuke struck blind. From this time Saul is always called by his new name Paul; he preacheth to Antioch, the Gentiles believe, but the Jews gainsay and blaspheme. Whereupon he and his assistants turn to the Gentiles, and come to Iconium.
46	XIV.	At Iconium they are persecuted and ready to be stoned. From hence they fly to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia. At Lystra, Paul healing a cripple, the multitude cry out, that the gods are come down, and call Barnabas Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius; and would have sacrificed to them, had not the apostles with clothes rent run in among them, and assured them that they were men like themselves. Soon after there come Jews from Antioch and Iconinm, who excite the people against
	2 Cor. XI. 25.	them. Paul is by the furious multitude stoned, and drawn out of the city as dead; but whilst the disciples stand about him, he riseth up, and the
	XII. 2.	next day departs with Barnabas to Derbe. In this year Paul was caught up into the the third heaven, and heard unspeakable words.
	2 Tim. I. 2, 5.	About this time Timothy, though a child, with his mother Eunice, and his grandmother Lois, embrace the Christian faith preached by Paul.
52	Acts XV.	Certain Judaizing Christians come from Judea to Antioch, and teach that the Gentiles ought to be circumcised, and observe the law of Moses; these Paul and Barnabas oppose, and a council is held by the apostles and others at Jerusalem to determine this controversy.
53	36.	Paul and Barnabas, thinking to visit the churches together, fall at strife, and part asunder: Barnabas and Mark go into Cyprus; Paul and Silas into Syria and Cilicia.
	XVI.	Paul coming to Derbe finds there Timothy, whom (because his mother was a believing Jew, though his father a Gentile,) he causeth to be circumcised, and takes him along with him. He is by a vision admonished to go into Macedonia: coming to Philippi, the chief city of that part of Macedonia, he converts Lydia; casteth out of a certain maid-servant a spirit of divination, whose master losing a considerable gain thereby, brings Paul and Silas before the magistrates: these cause them to be whipped and imprisoned; but at midnight, Paul and Silas praying and singing psalms, the doors of the prison fly open, and their bonds are loosed: the jailer, ready to kill himself, is converted to the faith, and baptized the same night with his whole family. Next day the magistrates come themselves, and pray them to depart the city.
54	XVII.	From Philippi Paul takes his journey through Amphipolis and Apollonia, and comes to Thessalonica, where he finds a synagogue of the Jews; there he preached three sabbath-days; some believe, others persecute him. Leaving Thessalonica he comes to Berea, and soon after arrives at Athens. disputes with the philosophers, and declares unto them that UNKNOWN GOD whom they had ignorantly worshipped. He converts Dionysius the Areopagite, and thence passeth to Corinth.
	XVIII.	Paul at Corinth meets with Aquila and Priscilla, not long before banished from Rome by the decree of Claudius. Here he continues a year and six months, and thence writes to the Thessalonians.
55		Paul is accused by the Jews, and brought before Gallio, proconsul of Achaia, who refuseth to be judge in a controversy about religion, and so drives them away from the judgment-seat.
56	18.	Paul departs from Corinth, and passeth to Ephesus, thence he sets out towards Jerusalem, that he may be at the feast; he lands at Cesarea, goes down to Antioch, and comes into the regions of Galatia and Phrygia, confirming the disciples in all those places.
57	XIX.	Paul returns to Ephesus, disputes daily in the school of Tyrannus, and continues preaching there, and the parts thereabout.
58		He writes his epistle to the Galatians.
60		At Ephesus, Demetrius a silversmith, jealous of his gain, raiseth tumult against Paul, which is appeased by the town-clerk.
	1 Cor. I. 11.	About this time a schism ariseth in the church at Corinth, which causeth
	XVI. 8.	Paul (now in or about Ephesus) to write his first epistle to the Corinthians.
	Acts XX.	Paul departs from Ephesus, and comes into Macedonia, and gathers a
	2 Cor. VIII. 1,	contribution for the relief of the saints at Jerusalem.
	2, 6, 19.	The apostle, having learnt from Titus the success of his first, writes now
	1 Cor. XVI. 5.	his second epistle to the Corinthians. Out of Macedonia he goes into
	Acts XX.	Greece, and comes to Corinth, where he writes his epistle to the Romans.
	3, 4, 6.	Paul purposing to go thence into Syria, to carry the collections to Jerusalem, the Jews lay wait for him; understanding this, he returns into Macedonia the same way he came, and thence passes into Asia.
		After the days of unleavened bread Paul sails from Philippi, and comes to Troas: there he restores Eutychus to life. Having passed through several cities of Greece, he arrives at Miletus; from thence he sends to call the elders of the Church of Ephesus, whom he earnestly exhorts to the performance of their duty.
	Acts XXI.	Paul comes to Jerusalem, is apprehended in the temple, and secured in the castle; he claimeth the privilege of a Roman, and escapeth scourging.
	XXII.	Paul pleadeth his cause before Ananias the high priest. The chief captain,
	XXIII.	understanding that above forty Jews had bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor drink till they have killed him, sends him to Felix the governor of the province, by whom he is imprisoned at Cesarea.
62	XXIV.	Paul is accused before Felix by Tertullus the orator: Felix goes out of his office, and to gratify the Jews, leaves Paul in prison. Portius Festus succeeds him in the government.
	XXV.	The Jews come to Cesarea, and accuse Paul before Festus. He answereth for himself, and appeals unto Cesar. King Agrippa comes to Cesarea, and Festus opens the whole matter to him.
	XXVI.	Paul makes his defence in the presence of Agrippa; who thereby is almost persuaded to be a Christian, and the whole company pronounce him innocent.
63	XXVIII.	Paul comes to Rome, is a prisoner at large, and preacheth there two years.
		Here ends the History of the Acts of the Apostles, written by St. Luke, St. Paul's beloved companion in his travels.
64		St. Paul from Rome writes his epistles,
		To the Philippians.
		To Philemon.
		To the Colossians.
		To the Ephesians.
65	Heb. XIII. 24.	About the latter end of this year Paul is set at liberty; and a little before
	Tit. I. 5.	his departure out of Italy into Asia he writes his epistle to the Hebrews.
		He preacheth the gospel in the isle of Crete, and leaves Titus there set things in order, and ordain elders in every city.
66		St. Paul writes his epistles,
		To Timothy I.
		To Titus.
		To Timothy II.
		About this time the epistles of St. Peter, St. John, and St. Jude seem to be written.
67	Euseb. Hist. Ec.	St. Peter and St. Paul are said to have suffered martyrdom at Rome
70	1. 2. c. 24.	towards the latter end of Nero's reign.
	Luke XIX. 43, 44.	This year Jerusalem (according to Christ's prophecy) is besieged, taken, sacked, and burnt, by Titus, 1,100,000 of the Jews perish, 97,000 are taken prisoners; besides an innumerable company that in other places of Judea kill themselves, or perish through famine, banishment, or other miseries.
96		St. John is banished into the isle of Patmos by Domitian, and there receives and writes his Revelation.
		After the death of Domitian, St. John returns to Ephesus, and at the request of the Church writes his Gospel.

THE FALL. (Gen. 2, 3.)

1. Where did God place man when he had created him?—In the garden of Eden, near the river Euphrates. Gen. 2 : 8.

2. What is a garden?—A piece of ground enclosed and planted for the production of trees and flowers, of fruits and other food.

3. What description have we given to us of this garden?—That God made to grow in it the tree of life, the tree of knowledge of good and evil, and every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. Gen. 2 : 9.

4. How was it watered?—By a river, that flowed afterward in four rivers or channels to the sea. Gen. 2 : 10–14.

5. Can any of those rivers be now traced?—The Euphrates only.

6. Was man idle in the garden of Eden, or did God employ him there?—He was put into the garden to dress it and keep it (Gen. 2 : 15) ; so that it was a duty and a blessing, even in Paradise, to be employed.

7. How was the garden refreshed before man was placed there to tend it?—By a mist from the earth. Gen. 2 : 6.

8. Did God permit man to pluck and eat the fruit of this garden?—He was allowed freely to eat of every tree. Gen. 2 : 16.

9. Were there any restrictions to this permission?—An exception was made of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, under the penalty of death. Gen. 2 : 17. Thus was a trial made of obedience and love, and a gracious warning given.

10. Were they forbidden to eat of the tree of life?—They were not.

11. What do we conclude from this?—That they were intended to live for ever.

12. Did man obey God's command?—He did not.

13. What did he do?—He ate the forbidden fruit.

14. Who was the first transgressor?—Eve.

15. How came it about?—The devil, in the form of a serpent, deceived her by a lie. Gen. 3 : 1–6.

16. What did the devil promise Eve?—That they should not surely die, but be as gods, knowing good and evil. Gen. 3 : 4, 5.

17. Was she disappointed?—Satan's words proved false, for there is no truth in him. They fell under sentence of death; and Satan showed himself a liar and a murderer from the beginning. John 8 : 44.

18. What foolish plan did they adopt to hide their shame?—They hid themselves amongst the trees of the garden, knowing the evil they had done.

19. Can any place conceal us from God's eye?—None.

> O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether. Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me ; it is high, I cannot attain unto it. Whither shall I go from thy Spirit ? or whither shall I flee from thy presence ? If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there; if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea ; even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me. If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me ; even the night shall be light about me. Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee : but the night shineth as the day : the darkness and the light are both alike to thee. Ps. 139 : 1–12.

20. What is it that makes us fear to meet God?—The consciousness that we have sinned, and that he knows it.

21. What do we do when we commit sin?—We generally try to hide our wrong-doings even from ourselves.

22. What ought we to do?—To confess and be truly sorry for our sin ; to come to God, through Christ, for the pardon of it, and to forsake it.

> If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous : and he is the propitiation for our sins : and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 John 1 : 8–2 : 2.
> He that covereth his sins shall not prosper : but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. Prov. 28 : 13.

23. Can we provide a covering for our sin?—No : for our very best deeds are imperfect and defiled. We are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags. Isa. 64 : 6.

24. Has God taken pity on us and given us a robe of righteousness?—I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God ; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels. Isa. 61 : 10. Where is this further spoken of?—Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all, and upon all them that believe. Rom. 3 : 22.

25. How was it made known to our first parents?—It was included in the intimation of a Saviour, conveyed in the promise that the seed of the woman should bruise the serpent's head. Gen. 3 : 15 ; and see No. 26.

26. How did God clothe their bodies?—In coats of skin. Gen. 3 : 21.

27. What is it supposed was done with the bodies of the animals thus slain?—That they were offered in sacrifice to God, as types or representations of the future sacrifice of Christ. Gen. 4 : 4.

28. How did this represent the great atonement that Jesus afterward accomplished?—By the shedding of blood, without which there is no remission of sins. Heb. 9 : 22.

29. Did God give them any direct promise of this blessed Person? See No. 25.

30. Was the devil disappointed?—Yes, he failed in ruining man for ever.

31. Who got the curse?—Satan, whose head or power was to be bruised or crushed. Gen. 3 : 15. Man also suffered, in a less degree, by being driven out of Eden, and condemned to laborious toil, and at last to bodily death. Gen. 3 : 17–19, 23, 24.

32. For whose sake was the ground cursed?—For man's sake. Gen. 3 : 17.

33. How was man to feel this?—By the weeds it brought forth, and the labor it required.

34. Was there any special punishment to the woman for being first in the transgression?—In personal suffering.

35. Was there not also a special mercy granted to her?—That she should be the ancestress of Christ. Gen. 3 : 15.

36. Did they continue in the garden of Eden?—No.

37. Why not?—Lest they should eat of the tree of life, and live for ever upon earth. Gen. 3 : 22.

38. Is the tree of life ever mentioned again in Scripture? Where?—In Rev. 22 : 1, 2, as standing by the river of the water of life, in the heavenly Jerusalem ; Rev. 21 : 2, in the midst of the paradise of God. Rev. 2 : 7.

39. Who will again eat of it?—They that do God's commandments, and that overcome in the battle with Satan and with sin. Rev. 22 : 14 ; 2 : 7.

40. How did God guard the gate of Eden?—By cherubim or angels and a flaming sword. Gen. 3 : 24.

41. Are the cherubim again mentioned in Scripture? Where?—In the vision of Ezekiel, chapters 1 and 10, and in the account of the tabernacle and the temple, etc., twenty-one places altogether.

42. Why did Adam name his wife Eve?—Because she was the mother of all living, and the word means "living." Gen. 3 : 20.

CAIN AND ABEL. (Gen. 4.)

1. What was the name of Adam's first child?—Cain. Gen. 4 : 1.

2. What is the meaning of the name?—Got or obtained.

3. Whom did Eve suppose him to be?—The seed or child or Saviour promised.

4. Was she disappointed?—Yes; he became a wicked man and a murderer.

5. What name did she give her second son?—Abel, or Vanity.

6. What did this show?—That her expectations had declined.

7. Did he prove as bad as his brother?—No; his works were righteous. 1 John 3 : 12.

8. What difference do we observe in the offerings of the two brothers?—Cain offered of the fruit of the ground, and Abel the firstlings of his flock. Gen. 4 : 3, 4.

9. How does this give us their characters?—Cain showed indifference or self-will, and Abel obedience and faith.

> By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts : and by it he being dead yet speaketh. Heb. 11 : 4.

10. Will God receive us in any other way than the way he has appointed?—He will not.

11. How is that?—Jesus saith, I am the way, the truth, and the life : no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. John 14 : 6.

12. How did the slain lamb represent Jesus?—In being without blemish and without spot (1 Pet. 1 : 19), and in having its blood shed; for without shedding of blood is no remission of sin. Heb. 9 : 22.

13. What did John the Baptist say of Jesus?—Behold! the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. John 1 : 29.

14. What proof did God give that the sacrifice was accepted?—Probably the consuming it by fire from heaven, as Elijah's was consumed on Carmel. 1 Kings 18 : 38.

15. How did Cain act when he found that his own way did not please God?—He was very angry. Gen. 4 : 5.

16. How should he have acted?—He should have offered, in penitence and faith, the sacrifice that God required. Gen. 4 : 7.

17. Did not sin lie at his own door, then, seeing God had provided a way to remove it?—It did (Gen. 4 : 7), and led to greater guilt and sin.

18. What awful act did Cain's jealousy of his brother lead to?—The murder of his brother, his only brother.

19. What fearful lie did he tell?—He told the all-seeing God that he knew not where his murdered brother was.

20. What did God say had cried to him?—His brother's blood.

21. In John 8 : 44 the devil is called a murderer. What is said of Cain in 1 John 3 : 10–12?—In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

22. Did Cain procure for himself Satan's portion—a curse?—See Gen. 4 : 11, 12.

23. What did Cain feel when God's curse lighted on him?—That his punishment was greater than he could bear, as any one might kill him.

24. Did God in mercy mitigate Cain's punishment?—He set a mark upon him to prevent his being killed.

25. What is meant by Cain's going from God's presence?—He perhaps never heard him again, or saw him in the form he used to take, or felt his Spirit within him. He left the place where his worship was held, and the place where his glory may have appeared. Gen. 3 : 24.

26. When God takes vengeance into his own hand, will he let any one else perform it?—God, to whom vengeance belongeth, says, Vengeance is mine; I will repay. Rom. 12 : 19; Ps. 94 : 1.

27. Is there a day of reckoning coming?—It is appointed unto men once to die, and after that the judgment. Heb. 9 : 27.

The Antediluvian Patriarchs. (Gen. 5.)

1. What is the allotted age of man now?—Threescore years and ten. Ps. 90 : 10.

2. Could we then have imagined it possible for men to have lived so long as the patriarchs, if the Bible had not informed us?—We could not.

3. Place all these lives in a row, in long lines measured by 100 years, and say which lived the longest.

	100	200	300	400	500	600	700	800	900
Adam
Seth
Enos
Cainan
Mahalaleel
Jared
Enoch
Methuselah
Lamech
Noah

4. How is it that Enoch's is so much shorter than the others?—Because God took him to himself before he had lived half the usual time. It is a blessing to us, in life and in death, to live near unto God.

5. What does the apostle, in Heb. 11 : 5, say of Enoch?—By faith Enoch was translated, that he should not see death.

6. What remarkable prophecy of Enoch's does the apostle Jude repeat?—Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints.

7. To which coming of the Lord does it refer? To the first or second?—The second.

8. Is that second coming spoken of in other parts of the Bible? If so, where?—In 1 Thess 4 : 16, 17, and fifty other places at least.

9. When Jesus came the first time, was it to execute vengeance? If not, what was the object?—God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. John 3 : 17.

10. What will be the design of the Lord's second coming?—To judge the world.

11. What remarkable likeness is there between the prophecy of God's first prophet and God's last prophet?—Each foretold the coming of our Lord.

12. What did John say?—Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. Rev. 1 : 7.

13. Who guided those who wrote the Bible?—The Holy Ghost.

> For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pet. 1 : 21.

14. Do we know when the Lord Jesus is coming?—Watch, therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. Matt. 24 : 42.

15. What effect should this uncertainty as to our knowledge have upon us?—The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night. Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot and blameless. 2 Pet. 3 : 10, 14.

16. Was Enoch ready when he was caught up?—Yes, quite.

17. With whom was he walking in communion?—With God. "Oh for a closer walk with God!"

18. What is said in Amos 3 : 3?—Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

19. Who are our companions?—We should choose, as often as we can, those whom we believe to be walking with God and who can help us to do so.

20. Do we delight in being alone with him, or do we shrink from him?—We must be alone with him in death; and it is our wisdom and comfort to be much alone with him in life.

21. What solemn warning does God give in Heb. 3 : 7, 8?—As the Holy Ghost saith, To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

The Flood. (Gen. 5, 6.)

1. What do we read of Cain's descendants in Gen. 4 : 17–23?—That Cain had a son Enoch, and built a city, etc.

2. Were they as good as they were skillful?—No, they shared the general corruption, and would probably be worse, from their ancestor's separation from the people of God and the presence of the Lord. Gen. 4 : 16; 6 : 5.

3. What was the name of the son that God gave Adam in the place of Abel, whom Cain slew?—Seth. Gen. 4 : 25.

4. Did the children of Seth keep themselves separate from Cain's children?—Yes. They called themselves by the name of the Lord. Gen. 4 : 26, margin.

5. When God looked down from heaven, what did he see?—The great wickedness of man. Gen. 6 : 5.

6. What did he resolve to do?—To destroy both man and beast. Gen. 6 : 7.

7. Did he find one faithful family?—Yes. Gen. 6 : 8, 18.

8. Whose was that?—Noah's.

9. What is Noah said to be in 2 Pet. 2 : 5?—A preacher of righteousness.

10. When did Noah preach to these wicked people? While the ark was preparing. 1 Pet. 3 : 20.

11. What does the book of Jonah show us?—That if man had repented, God would have spared.

> God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way: and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not. Jonah 3 : 10.

12. Did these sinners repent at the preaching of Noah?—No.

13. What was the consequence?—The flood came, and took them all away. Matt. 24 : 39; Gen. 7 : 21–23.

14. How were Noah and his family preserved?—In the ark, which Noah built at God's command.

15. What is a type?—A thing that represents another thing, or has some points of resemblance to it, or is intended to foreshow it.

16. Of whom was the ark, in which Noah and his family were saved, a type?—Of Christ.

17. How?—As an appointed means of saving man from destruction.

18. Of what was the flood a type?—Of the future destruction of the world.

> The world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: but the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. 2 Pet. 3 : 6, 7.

19. Does this concern us at all?—Yes; as both living and dead will need a Saviour at that day.

20. What opportunity does God give us of fleeing into a place of safety?—He spares our lives, and gives us Bibles and preachers and teachers, to show us the way of salvation.

21. Has he provided a secure place of dependence? What is it?—God himself, in Christ, is our refuge.

> A man shall be as an hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. Isa. 32 : 2.
>
> For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him. Thou art my hiding-place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Ps. 32 : 6, 7.
> Thou art my hiding-place and my shield: I hope in thy word. Ps. 119 : 114.

22. What does the Holy Spirit say to us in 2 Cor. 6 : 2?—That now is the accepted time; now is the day of salvation.

23. Can there be a time when even God shall forget to be gracious?—Yes; as when, in the parable of the ten virgins, the door was shut. Matt. 25 : 10.

Noah. (Gen. 7, 8, 9.)

1. How long was the ark building?—Perhaps a great part of the time that Noah was preaching, or of the one hundred and twenty years mentioned in Gen. 6 : 3.

2. How old were Noah and his sons when they went into the ark?—Noah, six hundred years (Gen. 7 : 6), and his sons about one hundred. Gen. 5 : 32; 11 : 10.

3. Who shut them in?—God himself. Gen. 7 : 16.

4. What went into the ark with them?—(Besides their wives) seven, or two, of every living creature. Gen. 7 : 2, 3, 7–9, 13–16.

5. How long did it continue raining?—Forty days and nights. Gen. 7 : 12.

6. How long did the waters continue?—One hundred and fifty days. Gen. 7 : 24.

7. How did Noah ascertain when the waters had abated?—By sending out a dove, which returned with an olive-leaf in its mouth; and which, when sent out again, did not return at all. Gen. 8 : 10–12.

8. Why did not the raven return to the ark?—It probably often went forth and returned, as the words "to and fro" are explained in the margin to mean. Gen. 8 : 7. But if it met with floating carcasses, it might not come in for food.

9. Of what is that an emblem?—Perhaps of the carnal heart, content with the corrupt enjoyments of the world.

10. And is there anything to be learnt from the opposite conduct of the dove?—The privilege of the soul, unsatisfied with the world, returning to Christ Jesus as its rest.

11. What does the Lord Jesus say in Matt. 11 : 28–30?—Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

12. What was Noah's first act when he came forth from the ark?—He built an altar, and offered a sacrifice. Gen. 8 : 20.

13. What was the burnt-offering?—A bullock, sheep, goat, turtle-dove or young pigeon. Lev. 1.

14. Did God accept it?—It pleased him, as a sweet savor or smell. Gen. 8 : 21.

15. What promise did God give Noah at that time?—That he would not again curse the ground any more for man's sake, etc. Gen. 8 : 21–23; 9 : 2.

16, 17. Did God condescend to give him a token? What was it?—He said that the rainbow should be a token or remembrance of his covenant or promise. Gen. 9 : 8–17.

18. Does it remain?—Yes.

19. When does it appear?—Whenever the sun shines upon rain.

20. Did God make any change in man's food at that time?—He gave him animal food, in addition to his former vegetable food. Gen. 9 : 3.

21. Under what restriction?—That the blood should not be used with the flesh. Gen. 9 : 4.

22. Why was not blood to be eaten?—Because it was a type of the blood of Christ; and to restrain bloodthirsty cruelty to man or beast. Gen. 5 : 6.

23. What evil use did Noah afterward make of the fruits of the earth?—He once became drunk with wine. Gen. 9 : 21.

24. Does the Bible cover up and hide the sins of God's people?—No, it mentions them whenever it seemed to the wisdom of God to be desirable to do so.

25. What does the Psalmist say of God's word in Ps. 119 : 140?—That it is "very pure." Many books and magazines and newspapers in our days are very impure, and are written to please the impure.

26. Which of Noah's sons brought a curse on his posterity by his conduct to his father on this occasion?—Ham.

27. Do the effects of this curse continue to the present time? Where?—Yes: in Africa, which was peopled by the descendants of Ham, and is the chief scene of the horrible traffic in slaves.

28. Show the fulfillment of Shem's blessing?—God's people, the Jews, and Christ himself descended from Shem.

29. Describe how Japheth has been enlarged?—By his descendants, the Greeks and Romans, and by many Gentile nations sprung from him.

30. How old was Noah when he died?—Nine hundred and fifty years. Gen. 9 : 29.

The Tower of Babel. (Gen. 10, 11.)

1. What mighty nations have their origin given in these chapters?—The Chaldeans, Assyrians, and Canaanites.

2. Were the genealogies and histories of all these nations continued in the Bible?—No.

3. Why was one family singled out for this special honor?—Because out of it came Jesus Christ.

4. What great event happened in the days of Peleg?—The scattering of mankind over all the earth. Gen. 11 : 9. Unto Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg—i. e., division (margin), because in his days the earth was divided. 1 Chron. 1 : 19.

5. Why did God thus divide or scatter men?—To restrain them from building the tower of Babel.

6. What motive had these men in building the tower?—To form a conspicuous gathering-point, in defiance of the divine intention.

7. Of what did they compose it?—Of bricks, joined together with mortar of slime or mud that dried hard.

8. Are there any remains of the materials of which it was built yet in existence? Where?—Yes, in the ruins of Babylon.

9. Where did Shem's family remove to?—Some of them from Upper and Middle Asia to Canaan.

10. Which of Abraham's ancestors were alive when he was born?—Nahor and Terah.

11. How old was Shem when Abram was born?—Four hundred and fifty-two years [B. C. 2448–1996]. Gen. 5 : 32; 11 : 27.

12. How many years did Shem live after Abram was born?—One hundred and forty-nine years [B. C. 1996–1847]. Gen. 11 : 10, 11.

13. What was the name of Abram's father?—Terah. Gen. 11 : 26.

14. How many years had he lived with Noah?—One hundred and twenty-eight years. Gen. 5 : 29; 11 : 24.

15. Was Noah alive when Abram was born?—No; he died two years before. Gen. 9 : 29.

16. Was Adam alive when Noah was born?—No; he died one hundred and twenty-six years before.

17. Was Adam alive when Lamech was born?—Yes.

18. How many years did they live together?—Fifty-six.

19. How many years before Noah did Adam die?—One hundred and twenty-six years before Noah was born.

20. Do we not see by this how nearly Adam and Abram were contemporaries, although the world was nearly twenty hundred years old when Abram was born?—There were only Lamech, Noah and Terah between them.

Abraham. (Gen. 11–22.)

1. What was the name of Abram's father?—Terah. Gen. 11 : 26.

2. Where was Abram born?—In Ur of the Chaldees. Gen. 11 : 28.

3. Did his father die there?—No.

4. To what land did his father remove?—To Haran, on the way to Canaan.

5. Which of Abram's brothers died before they left their native land?—Haran. Gen. 11 : 28.

6. Did he leave a son, and what was his name?—Lot. Gen. 11 : 27.

7. Did this grandson accompany Terah and Abram to Haran?—Yes. Gen. 11 : 31.

8. Where did Terah die?—In Haran. Gen. 11 : 32.

Chapter 12.

9. After his father's death, did Abram stay in Haran?—No.

10. Why did he remove?—Because God told him so to do.

11. Who went with him?—Sarai his wife, and Lot and their servants.

12. What relation was Lot to Abram?—His nephew.

13. Where are Ur, Haran and Canaan?—Ur is in Chaldea, to the south-east of Babylon; Haran is in Mesopotamia, between Nineveh and Tarsus; and Canaan is on the eastern shore of the Mediterranean Sea, and is now called Palestine or the Holy Land.

14. Where did Abram first settle, and what was his first act in the land of Canaan?—At Sichem, in the plain of Moreh, near Samaria, where he built an altar to God, who appeared to him.

15. What remarkable circumstance in the history of Jacob happened there?—Jacob buried under an oak there the idols and earrings taken from his household. Gen. 35 : 4.

16. What acts of Joshua's again distinguished this spot when he first subdued Canaan?—His assembling of the tribes of Israel to renew their covenant with God; his appointing Shechem one of the cities of refuge; his reading the law between Mounts Gerizim and Ebal. Josh. 24 : 1, 25, 26; 20 : 7; 8 : 33.

17. At what place did he rear the tabernacle, and at his death make a covenant with Israel?—At Shiloh, near Sichem. Josh. 18 : 1. At Shechem. See No. 16.

18. What event in the New Testament yet further endears the spot to us?—Our Lord's conversation at Sychar with the woman of Samaria as he sat wearied upon Jacob's well. John 4 : 5–42.

19. Did Abram continue to live at Sichem? Why?—He removed to the neighborhood of Bethel, being doubtless directed by God to enter farther into the land. Gen. 12 : 8, 9; 13 : 17.

20. What sin was Abram guilty of in Egypt?—Of want of truthfulness and faith respecting Sarai his wife. Gen. 12 : 11–20.

21. What does this teach us?—We have before proved, both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; as it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one. Rom. 3 : 9, 10.

Chapter 13.

22. Was Abram a rich or poor man?—He was very rich. Gen. 13 : 2.

23. How had Lot prospered?—Very much. Gen. 13 : 5.

24. What was the result?—A quarrel between the herdmen of the two. Gen. 13 : 6, 7.

25. How did Abram behave on this occasion?—He proposed that they should part, and gave Lot the choice of the land. Gen. 13 : 8, 9.

26. Do you think Lot behaved as well as Abram in this affair?—He made no liberal offer in return, and thought more of the goodness of the pasture than of the character of the people. When choosing a family or place to reside in, we should know whether God is feared in it, and his truth faithfully taught.

27. Had Lot cause to repent his choice?—He suffered constant distress of mind, and at length narrowly escaped with his life, with the loss of his wife and of many of his family, and of most or all of his substance. Gen. 19 : 15–29.

> Delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked; for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds. 2 Pet. 2 : 7, 8.

28. Why? What kind of people did he go to sojourn amongst?—Exceedingly wicked. Gen. 13 : 13.

29. After this separation how did God manifest himself to Abram?—He repeated to him his promises. Gen. 13 : 14–17.

Chapter 14.

30. What doleful news did Abram soon hear of Lot?—That Lot and his goods had been carried away in a war with Sodom and Gomorrah. Gen. 14 : 12, 13.

31. How did Abram act?—He armed his men and went in pursuit. Gen. 14 : 14.

32. Was he successful? Give an account of the expedition?—He divided his men, and attacked the enemy by night on several sides at once, routing them and recovering the prisoners and their goods. Gen. 14 : 15, 16.

33. Who met Abram on his return?—Melchizedek, king of Salem. Gen. 14 : 18.

34. Where must Melchizedek have lived? Trace Abram's resting-place and the field of battle, and see what spot is between the two.—At the present Jerusalem, which is between Dan and Mamre. Gen. 13 : 18.

35. Is this mysterious person ever alluded to again in Scripture? Where?—Heb. 6 : 20; 7 : 1–3.

36. Of whom was he a type?—Of Christ, in being both King and Priest; and also in his eternity, nothing being told us of his birth and death.

37. What is a type?—See page 2. Gen. 4 : 4.

38. How did Abram behave after the battle, when urged by the king of Sodom to take part of the spoil?—He declined taking anything but some food for his men. Gen. 14 : 21–24.

Chapter 15.

39. What wonderful prophecy does this chapter record?—That Abram's seed or descendants should be in number as the stars. Gen. 15 : 5.

40. Had Abram at this time any children?—No. Gen. 15 : 3.

41. To what did God compare the number of his seed?—See No. 39.

42. Did Abram believe the Lord?—Yes.

43. What was his faith accounted or reckoned?—For righteousness. Gen. 15 : 6.

44. Is faith, then, very precious in the estimation of God?—Yes, for his Son's sake.

45. What is faith?—That belief in Christ, as our own Saviour, which unites us to him, and makes us righteous before God in and through him.

46. Does this account concern us?—Now, it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; but for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on Him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. Rom. 4 : 23–25.

47. How much land did God promise to Abram?—From a river in or near Egypt to the Euphrates. Gen. 15 : 18–21.

Chapter 16.

48. Who was Hagar?—One of Sarai's waiting-maids. Gen. 16 : 1.

49. Why did Abram take her to be his wife?—That Sarai might, by her, have children that would be reckoned as her own, and from whom the Messiah might come. Gen. 16 : 2.

50. Did Sarai use her kindly?—Hagar, when likely to have children, despised her mistress, and Sarai dealt hardly with her. Gen. 16 : 4–6.

51. What did Hagar do?—She ran away.

52. Did the Lord approve of Hagar running away from her mistress?—No; he ordered her to return and submit herself. Gen. 16 : 9.

> Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. 1 Pet. 2 : 18–20.

53. What did God promise her?—That he would multiply her seed exceedingly; and the Arabians have sprung from her. Gen. 16 : 10.

54. After she returned what event happened?—She had a son.

55. What name was given to Hagar's son?—Abram called him Ishmael.

56. How old was Abram when Ishmael was born?—Eighty-six.

Chapter 17.

57. When Abram was ninety-nine years of age, what further covenant did God enter into with him?—He renewed his promise that he should have a great posterity, and covenanted to be his God, and to be their God. Gen. 17 : 1–8.

58. How did Abram show his love to Ishmael?—He prayed that he might live before God, or be favored by him. Gen. 17 : 18.

59. Did God accept Abram's prayer?—He blessed Ishmael, and promised to make him a great nation. Gen. 17 : 20.

60. Who was to be the promised seed?—Isaac, who was not yet born, and with whom God established his covenant. Gen. 17 : 19.

61. How long did God fix for the fulfillment of his promise to Abram and his wife?—A whole year. Gen. 17 : 21.

62. How did the Lord alter their names?—From Abram, or "high father," to Abraham, or, "multitude of nations;" and from Sarai, "my princess," to Sarah, or "princess of a multitude."

63. What does the name Abraham signify?—See No. 62.

64. What does Sarah's name express?—See No. 62.

65. How old was Ishmael when he was circumcised?—Thirteen.

Chapter 18.

66. Where was Mamre?—Near Hebron, in Judah. Gen. 13 : 18.

67. What remarkable event happened to Abraham there?—Three angels or heavenly visitors appeared to him in the form of men.

68. What is said of this visit in Heb. 13 : 2?—Be not forgetful to entertain strangers; for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

69. Did Abraham at first know whom he was entertaining? How did he find it out?—He took them at first for ordinary travelers, but found out, by what one of them said, that they were angels and the Son of God. Gen. 18 : 10, 14.

70. What is Abraham called in Isa. 41 : 8?—The friend of God. James 2 : 23.

71. How did Sarah displease the Lord at this time?—By laughing within herself at the unlikelihood of what he said.

72. What was she tempted to do when the Lord expressed his displeasure?—To deny that she had laughed.

73. When the three heavenly visitors had eaten with Abraham, did they all depart from him together?—The Angel, Son of God, remained, and the other two angels went toward Sodom. Gen. 18 : 22.

74. Who stayed, and who went?—See No. 73.

75. To what place did those who departed go?—See No. 73.

76. Why did they visit Sodom?—To destroy it and to rescue Lot.

77. How came Abraham to know the purpose of their visit to Sodom?—From what the Lord said to him. Gen. 18 : 20, 21.

78. Did Abraham venture to plead for the city? How?—By six times asking the Lord to spare it if there were fifty, forty-five, forty, thirty, twenty, and even ten, righteous persons in it. Gen. 18 : 23–32.

79. Did God permit him to go on as long as he would? How did the Lord reply?—The Lord put no check upon his intercession, and consented to do all that he asked.

80. What should this teach us?—To persevere in prayer. Men ought always to pray, and not to faint. Luke 18 : 1.

> Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not. But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry. And he prayed unto the Lord, and said, I pray thee, O Lord, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil. Jonah 3 : 9, 10–4 : 1, 2.

81. Who has turned away the righteous anger of God from us, and yet pleads our cause?—If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: and he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 John 2 : 1, 2.

Chapter 19.

82. Where did Lot dwell?—In Sodom.

83. What is said of him in 2 Pet. 2 : 9?—The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished.

84. What happened to him one evening as he sat in the gate of the city?—Two angels came to him. Gen. 18 : 22; 19 : 1.

85. Who did those persons prove to be?—See No. 84.

86. For what did they visit Sodom?—To destroy it and to rescue Lot.

87. Did they find it as wicked as they expected?—It could hardly be worse than it was. Gen. 18 : 21.

88. In what way did they punish the men who wished to get into Lot's house?—They struck them blind. Gen. 19 : 11.

89. How many of Lot's family believed the warning and fled with him?—His wife and two daughters. Gen. 19 : 16.

90. Did all these eventually escape? Describe the circumstances of Lot's wife?—The daughters escaped, but his wife looked back and became a pillar of salt. Gen. 19 : 26.

91. How are we reminded of this in the New Testament?—In the days of Lot they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; but the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. In that day, he which shall be on the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back. Remember Lot's wife. Luke 17 : 28–32.

92. Does there remain any relic of this awful event at the present day?—The Dead Sea, with its deadly waters.

93. Of what is the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah a type?—Of the future destruction of the world by fire.

94. What did the angel say to Lot when he pleaded for Zoar?—That he would not overthrow it. Gen. 19 : 20–22.

95. What does that teach us?—The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Pet. 3 : 9.

Chapter 20.

96. Into what disgraceful fault were Abraham and Sarah again betrayed at Gerar?—Untruthfulness and distrust, in concealing that they were man and wife.

97. How did God preserve them?—By warning Abimelech in a dream.

98. How did Abimelech behave?—He immediately restored to Abraham his wife (whom he had intended to marry) and made him a handsome present.

99. Did not Sarah deserve the reproof which Abimelech gave her?—She needed the reproof that her husband was her proper protector.

100. How did the Lord put honor on Abraham?—He heard his prayer for Abimelech and his family.

Chapter 21.

101. When did God perform his promise to Sarah?—At the end of the year, the time fixed. Gen. 21 : 2.

102. By what name was this child of promise called?—Isaac, meaning "laughter" or "joy."

103. What circumstance occurred on the day Isaac was weaned?—Abraham made a great feast. Gen. 21 : 8.

104. What did Sarah wish Abraham to do?—To send away Hagar and Ishmael. Gen. 21 : 9, 10.

105. Who confirmed Sarah's wish?—God himself, to carry out his purposes as to both Isaac and Ishmael. Gen. 21 : 12, 13.

106. How did Abraham act?—He sent them away provided with bread and water, and doubtless commended to the care of God. Gen. 21 : 14.

107. What became of Hagar and Ishmael?—They lived at last in the wilderness of Paran, in Arabia Petræa. Gen. 21 : 14–21.

108. Who at the present day are the descendants of Ishmael?—The Arabs.

109. Who was Abraham's rightful heir and child of promise?—Isaac. Gen. 21 : 1–3, 12.

110. What testimony to Abraham's God, by a stranger, does this chapter record?—King Abimelech said that God was with Abraham in all that he did. Gen. 21 : 22.

111. What is the meaning of the word Beersheba?—The "well of the oath." Gen. 21 : 31.

112. Where was Abraham sojourning at this time?—In the land of the Philistines. Gen. 21 : 34.

113. Were the Philistines always friendly with Abraham's posterity, or the reverse? Is there any instance in Scripture?—They were frequently at war with each other, as in the days of Samson and of David and Goliath.

Chapter 22.

114. What was the greatest trial that Abraham's faith experienced?—The command of God to make a burnt-offering of his only son Isaac, whom he loved.

115. What is said of this act in Heb. 11 : 17–19?—By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac; and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son, of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called: accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

116. What proof did Abraham give of his prompt obedience?—He arose early in the morning and set out.

117. Did he tell his son what he was about to do with him?—No.

118. When Isaac inquired for the lamb, what was Abraham's reply?—That God would provide one. Gen. 22 : 8.

119. To whom did Abraham allude?—To Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sins of the world. "Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day; he saw it, and was glad."—John 1 : 29; 8 : 56.

120. When Isaac knew his father's intention, did he resist it?—No.

121. Was he able to have done so? How old was he at this time?—Yes, as he was twenty-five years old.

122. What is said of the Lord Jesus Christ when he was offered a sacrifice for sin?—That he did it of himself.

> Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.—Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth. John 10 : 17, 18; Phil. 2 : 5–10.

123. Does the ram caught in the thicket and offered as a substitute for Isaac present a type?—The ram would be without blemish, and Christ was without sin. He hath made Him to be sin for us who knew no sin, that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Cor. 5 : 21.

124. By what name did Abraham call the place where this occurred? And what was the meaning of it?—Jehovah-jireh, "the Lord will see or provide."

125. Is Mount Moriah mentioned again in Scripture?—Yes, in 2 Chron. 3 : 1. Then Solomon began to build the house of the Lord at Jerusalem in Mount Moriah, where the Lord appeared unto David, his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite. [But this is not now considered to be the same mountain.]

126. What magnificent building stood on that mount?—Solomon's temple.

127. Give the account why this place was chosen for that building.—See 125.

128. What beautiful edifice now stands there?—The mosque of Omar, a Mohammedan place of worship.

129. What do the Jews feel when they see this?—Doubtless deep grief, as they often visit a place near it called "the place of wailing."

130. What special covenant did the Lord renew with Abraham at this time?—That in Abraham's seed should all the nations of the earth be blessed. Gen. 22 : 15–18.

131. Why is Nahor's posterity mentioned here?—Because one of them was Rebekah, Isaac's future wife.

Isaac and Rebekah. (Gen. 23, 24.)

1. How old was Sarah when she died?—One hundred and twenty-seven years.

2. Where did Abraham bury her?—In the cave of Machpelah, near Mamre, Hebron or Kirjath-arba. Gen 23 : 2, 19.

3. How did he obtain possession of this burying-place?—By purchase from Ephron the Hittite. Gen. 23 : 3–18.

4. What did that show?—That Abraham had no land of his own. Gen. 23 : 4.

5. How old was Isaac when his mother died?—About thirty-seven.

6. How many years did he live solitary and alone before he married?—Forty years from his birth, and latterly near the well Lahai-roi, in the south country. Gen. 23 : 62.

7. How did his father obtain a wife for him?—He sent his steward to his own kindred in Mesoptamia for the purpose, after pledging him not to seek for one among the heathen around him. Gen. 24 : 2, 3, 4, 10. Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers. Only in the Lord. 2 Cor. 6 : 14; 1 Cor. 7 : 39.

8. Whom did Abraham send on this important mission?—See No. 7.

9. What was the name of this "eldest servant" of Abraham's house?—Eliezer of Damascus. Gen. 15 : 2.

10. How did this servant act?—With prudence, prayerfulness, diligence and courtesy. Gen. 24 : 5–26.

11. Did he succeed in his mission?—He was led by God's providence to the house of Abraham's nephew, Bethuel, and obtained his daughter, Rebekah. Gen. 24 : 15, 51.

12. Whom did he bring?—See No. 11.

13. What did he give to his young master's intended bride?—Golden earrings, bracelets, jewels of silver and gold, and raiment, according to the custom of those lands and times. Gen. 24 : 22, 30, 53.

14. How did he describe his master's possessions?—That the Lord had greatly blessed him, and given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, etc. Gen. 24 : 35.

15. Was she willing to leave her home on his report?—She was. Gen. 24 : 58.

16. Did she find it all true?—Doubtless she did. Gen. 13 : 2.

17. Who came out to meet her?—Isaac himself. Gen. 24 : 62, 63.

18. Where did he take her, and how did he feel toward her?—To his mother's tent, and she became his wife, and he loved her. Gen. 24 : 67.

19. Is this interesting account a type of spiritual things?—Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples; and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. 1 Cor. 10 : 11 : Rom. 15 : 4.

20. Of whom is Abraham the type here?—Of God the Father.

21. Of whom is Rebekah the type?—Of his Church and people.

22. Of whom is Eliezer the type?—Of God's Spirit, who finds those who are far from him, and brings them to him.

23. Of whom is Isaac the type?—Of Christ, the Bridegroom of the Church.

24. And of what great event is the closing scene the type?—Of the Church, the bride of Christ, being presented to him spotless at the last day.

25. How are we interested in this?—We must each of us be found by him, and given to him, and adorned and sanctified by him, if we seek to live with him eternally.

Jacob and Esau. (Gen. 25, 26, 27.)

1. Whom did Abraham marry after Sarah's death? Keturah. Gen. 25 : 1.

2. How many children had she?—Six.

3. How did he portion them?—He made them gifts.

4. To whom did he leave his great riches?—To Isaac.

5. How old was Abraham when he died?—One hundred and seventy-five years.

6. Who buried him?—Isaac and Ishmael.

7. By what title are Ishmael's twelve sons called?—Princes.

8. What was Isaac's occupation, although his father's heir?—That of a herdsman and shepherd.

9. Of whom is he a type in this?—Of Christ, who humbled himself, though Lord of all.

10. How many sons had Isaac?—Two—Esau and Jacob. Gen. 25 : 26.

11. Were they born before Abraham's death?—Yes, fifteen years. Is there not a proof of this in the New Testament?

> By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. Heb. 11 : 8, 9.

12. What was the difference personally between those two boys?—Esau was red or hairy, and Jacob smooth. Gen. 25 : 25; 27 : 11.

13. Did they grow up alike? Describe them?—Esau was a skillful hunter, and Jacob a quiet man, fond of home. Gen. 25 : 27.

14. Which was the first born?—Esau.

15. Did he value his birthright? The proof.—He sold it, when hungry and faint, to Jacob for a dish of potted beans or other food. So thousands, for present pleasure, will risk or lose their souls.

16. To whom did he sell it, and for what?—See No. 15.

Chapter 26.

17. What was Isaac's character?—His conduct in this chapter entitles him to the character of a peacemaker. Gen. 26 : 14–31.

> Blessed are the peacemakers : for they shall be called the children of God. Matt. 5 : 9.

18. What covenant did God renew with Isaac?—The covenant he had made with Abraham. Gen. 26 : 2–5.

19. What direction did God give Isaac as to his place of sojourn?—That he should not go down into Egypt, but dwell among the Philistines at Gerar. Gen. 26 : 1, 2, 6.

20. How did he act there?—He was guilty of the same weakness and sin about his wife as Abraham was. Gen. 26 : 7–11.

21. How did the Philistines behave toward Isaac?—They envied his prosperity, and maliciously stopped up his old wells and claimed possession of his new ones. Gen. 26 : 14–21.

22. Did he return evil for evil?—No; he removed more than once out of their way.

23. Whom did Esau choose as his wives?—Judith and Bashemath, Hittites. Gen. 26 : 34.

24. Did his parents approve his choice?—No; they were grieved by it.

Chapter 27.

25. What was it the custom of the ancient patriarchs to do before their death?—To bless their children.

26. Which son did Isaac consider his first-born?—Esau. Gen. 27 : 1–4.

27. How had he forfeited that honor?—By selling it to his brother. Gen. 25 : 29–34.

28. Did Jacob allow Esau to obtain the blessing of the birthright?—No; he pretended to be Esau, to prevent it.

29. Did he go the right way to work?—No; he should have left it to God to secure him the blessing in his own time and way.

30. Who shared his sin with him?—His mother told him how to act.

31. How did Esau feel when he found that he had lost his blessing?—He was in great distress of mind.

32. Had he not voluntarily sold it to Jacob some years before?—Yes; about forty-five years before.

33. Whom had he then to blame?—Chiefly himself.

34. Whom shall we have to blame if we, like Esau, despise God's blessing now?—Ourselves alone.

35. What lesson should Esau's bitter grief teach us?—To earnestly seek God's blessing, and to carefully cherish it.

Jacob. (Gen. 28–35.)

1. What was Jacob's general character?—One of artifice and deceit.

2. Did God then choose him for his natural goodness?—No; there is no one whom he can choose on this account.

> I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that showeth mercy. Rom. 9 : 15, 16.

3. What should this teach us?—That, as we all have sinned, it is only by the faith that unites us to Christ that we can be righteous before God.

> For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus; whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Rom. 4 : 23–25; 5 : 1.

4. How did Esau treat Jacob after Jacob had obtained the blessing?—He hated him and determined to kill him. Gen. 27 : 41.

5. What did Jacob's parents resolve to do?—To send him to Haran out of Esau's way, and to get a wife among the daughters of Laban. Gen. 27 : 42–28 : 2.

6. What remarkable thing occurred to Jacob on his way to Syria?—He had a vision by night, and a renewal of God's promise and blessing. Gen. 28 : 10–15.

7. Did he fully understand it? Can you explain his feelings?—He could not fully understand what he saw, but seems to have felt that fear and awe which sinners must feel in the presence of a holy God.

8. Can we see the meaning?—We, happily, are taught to see Christ as the ladder of communication between heaven and earth.

> Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man. John 1 : 51.

9. Whom did the latter typify?—See No. 8.

10. How did Jesus unite heaven and earth?—By his birth, death, resurrection and ascension, as God and man in one.

11. What promise did Jacob make at this place?—That the Lord should be his God, and that he would devote to him a tenth of all that he should give him. Gen. 28 : 20–22.

Chapters 29, 30, 31.

12. Whom did Jacob first see when he got to Syria?—The servants of Laban, and then Rachel his daughter. Gen. 29 : 3–5, 9.

13. How did his uncle Laban receive him?—With kindness and affection. Gen. 29 : 13, 14.

14. What did he promise him?—That he should have Rachel for his wife, in return for seven years' service.

15. Did Laban afterward fulfill his promise?—No; he gave him Leah instead.

16. How many wives had Jacob?—Both Rachel and Leah; and afterward their handmaids Bilhah and Zilpah by their mistresses' desire, and according to the custom of the time. See Gen. 16 : 2.

17. How many years did Jacob serve Laban before he allowed him to have any cattle for his wages?—Fourteen years. Gen. 30 : 26–30.

18. Did Jacob succeed in obtaining large possessions of flocks and herds?—Yes. Gen. 30 : 43.

19. How did the sons of Laban feel when they observed this?—They were displeased at the success of his plan.

20. What did Jacob and his wives resolve to do?—Jacob, at the command of God, resolved to return to Canaan, and Rachel and Leah resolved to go with him. Gen. 31 : 3, 14–16.

21. What wicked act was Rachel guilty of?—Of stealing her father's images. Gen. 31 : 19.

22. What did it prove?—That she and her father still worshiped heathen gods as well as the true God.

> Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the flood in old time, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor : and they served other gods. Josh. 24 : 2.

23. What did Laban do when he found Jacob had left him?—He pursued him.

24. How did God protect Jacob from Laban's anger?—By warning Laban in a dream.

25. How did the interview between Laban and Jacob terminate?—It ended peacefully and well. Gen. 31 : 44, 55.

Chapter 32.

26. What is the meaning of the word Mahanaim?—Two hosts or camps. Gen. 32 : 1, 2.

27. Why was the place so called?—Because a company of angels met Jacob there.

28. How ought Jacob to have felt when he saw this angelic guard?—That he was secure against all harm.

> The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them. Ps. 34 : 7.

29. How did he feel when he heard his brother Esau was coming to meet him?—He was greatly afraid and distressed. Gen. 32 : 7.

30. How did Jacob act?—He divided his people and flocks into two bands. Gen. 32 : 7, 8.

31. What occurred to Jacob before he went over the brook?—A heavenly Being wrestled with him during the night.

32. How long did the Angel wrestle with Jacob?—Until break of day.

33. What name did Jacob give to the place where this occurred?—Peniel, or "the face of God."

34. Why did he so call it?—Because he had seen God face to face. Gen. 32 : 30.

35. Whom, then, may we suppose that wondrous Person to be with whom he wrestled?—The Son of God; as no man hath seen God himself, who is a Spirit, at any time. John 4 : 24; 1 John 4 : 12.

36. What spiritual act does this typify?—Prayer, in which, if real, we have communion or intercourse of spirit with God.

37. Are we interested in it?—It encourages earnest perseverance in prayer.

> He spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint; saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man; and there was a widow in that city, and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary. And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man; yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me. And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith. And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them? I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Luke 18 : 1–8.
> So run, that ye may obtain. 1 Cor. 9 : 24.

Chapters 33, 34, 35.

38. How did Jacob and Esau meet?—In brotherly affection and peace, in answer to Jacob's prayer.

39. Where did Jacob pitch his tent and make booths for his cattle when he got into Canaan?—At Succoth. Gen. 33 : 17.

40. Name the two instances in Scripture where this purchase is afterward referred to?—His purchase at Shalem, a city of Shechem, is referred to in John 4 : 5, 6, and Acts 7 : 15, 16. Gen. 33 : 18, 19.

> Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. Now Jacob's well was there. So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he and our fathers, and were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that [he, like] Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem.

41. What two mountains was Shechem situate between?—Gerizim and Ebal.

42. Where was the tabernacle first reared in the land of Canaan?—At Gilgal on the Jordan. (Not the Gilgal in Shechem.)

43. Where did Joshua make his solemn covenant with Israel before his death?—Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God. Josh. 24 : 1.

44. Where was the first idol temple built in Israel?—In Shechem. 1 Kings 12 : 25–33.

45. What act of treachery was Simeon and Levi guilty of to Shechem, the founder of this city?—They slew him when, through their own contrivance, he was unprepared to resist them. Gen. 34 : 13, 25, 26.

46. What did God at this time desire Jacob to do?—To go and live at Bethel. Gen. 35 : 1.

47. How did Jacob prepare for this journey?—By calling upon his people to put away their idols, and be clean and change their garments.

48. How did God preserve him from the anger of the inhabitants of the land? What proof is there that God's care of his people is the same now as then?—By making the inhabitants afraid of him and of his God. He preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked. Gen. 35 : 5; Ps. 97 : 10.

49. What sorrowful event happened at Bethel?—The death of Rebekah's nurse. Gen. 35 : 8.

50. What peculiar name did God confirm, and what special blessing did he give, to Jacob at this place?—The name of Israel and the gift of the land of Canaan. Gen. 35 : 9–12.

51. What great loss did Jacob sustain when near Bethlehem?—The death of Rachel. Gen. 35 : 19.

52. How many children had Jacob at this time?—Twelve. Gen. 35 : 22–26.

53. How far south did Jacob travel?—To Mamre, near Hebron.

54. Who resided there?—Isaac.

55. How many years did Jacob live with his father before his father died?—About three years.

56. Who united together to bury Isaac?—Esau and Jacob.

Jacob and his Sons. (Gen. 37.)

1. To which son did Jacob show a great partiality?—To Joseph. Gen. 37 : 3.

2. Why did Jacob feel this, and how did he show it?—Because he was the son of his old age. By making him a coat of many colors.

3. What character did the other sons of Jacob display?—An envious and malicious one.

4. Why did they hate Joseph?—Because of their father's special love to him.

5. Did he deserve it? Had his dreams anything to do with it? What were they?—No. Yes. That his brothers' sheaves made obeisance to his, and that the sun, moon and eleven stars did the same to him.

6. How did Joseph's father feel when he heard one of the dreams?—He was surprised at the dream, but doubtless felt it was from God. Gen. 37 : 11.

7. How did Joseph get into his brethren's power?—On Jacob sending him to them to see if they were well. Gen. 37 : 14.

8. What did they do with him?—They threw him into a pit. Gen. 37 : 24.

9. How old was Joseph at this time?—Sixteen.

10. What story did they make up to their father?—That they had found his coat bloody, and that he had been killed by a wild beast.

11. What difference was there in Reuben's behavior toward Joseph to the rest of his brethren?—He dissuaded them from killing him. Gen. 37 : 21, 22.

12. How did Jacob receive the news?—He mourned and refused to be comforted.

13. How did the Midianites dispose of Joseph?—They took him out of the pit and sold him to some Ishmaelites. Gen. 37 : 28.

14. What connection was there between Abraham and the Midianites?—Midian was a son of Keturah, his second wife. Gen. 25 : 1, 2.

15. What connection was there between Moses and the Midianites?—He lived among them and took his wife thence. Ex. 2 : 15, 21.

16. What connection was there between Balaam and the Midianites?—He lived among them and was killed in battle by the Israelites.

17. What event in Gideon's history was connected with the Midianites?—The appearance to him of the angel Son of God before he fought against and overthrew them. Judg. 6, 7.

Joseph in Egypt. (Gen. 39, 40, 41.)

1. To whom did the Ishmaelites sell Joseph?—To Potiphar, captain of Pharaoh's guard. Gen. 39 : 1.

2. What office did Potiphar appoint Joseph to fill?—Overseer of his house. Gen. 39 : 4.

3. How was God's favor manifested to Joseph in this situation?—By everything prospering under his care. Gen. 39 : 2–5.

4. Was he not deprived of his situation by false accusation?—Yes, through the wickedness of his master's wife, who was embittered against him by his virtue and his fear of God. Gen. 39 : 7–18.

5. What unjust punishment was suffered by Joseph?—He was put in prison.

6. Did the Lord forsake him?—He was with him and showed him mercy.

7. How did the keeper of the prison behave to Joseph?—He gave him the entire charge of the prison.

8. What kind of prison was this? Who were principally confined there?—A prison connected with Potiphar's house, and in which state prisoners were kept.

9. What remarkable circumstance occurred to two of those prisoners?—They had dreams which troubled them.

10. How did Joseph assist them in their perplexity?—He interpreted their dreams. Gen. 40.

11. Were his words found true? Name the result.—The chief butler was restored, and the chief baker was hanged, as Joseph had foretold.

12. How did Pharaoh's butler behave to Joseph?—He forgot his promise to get Joseph released.

13. What brought his dream again to his mind?—A dream which Pharaoh had. Gen. 41 : 1–13.

14. Could the magicians of Egypt interpret Pharaoh's dream?—They could not. Gen. 41 : 8.

15. For whom did he send?—For Joseph, whom the butler had named.

16. Did Joseph take the honor of interpretation to himself, or confess God's power before the king?—He said, It is not in me; God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace. Gen. 41 : 16.

17. Name a king who was smitten with worms and died because he gave not God the glory?—Herod Agrippa, king of Judea. Acts 12 : 23.

18. Name another king who was driven from men, and was for seven years like a beast, because he gave not glory to God?—Nebuchadnezzar, who said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honor of my majesty? While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O King Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken, The kingdom is departed from thee. And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. Dan. 4 : 30–32.

19. How was the latter part of verse 30 in 1 Sam. 2 fulfilled in Joseph's case?—By his being made ruler over all Egypt. He had honored God by his resistance of temptation and his faithfulness to his duties, and now God honored him. Them that honor me I will honor. Gen. 41 : 43.

20. How old was Joseph at this time?—Thirty. Gen. 41 : 46.

21. What name did Pharaoh give Joseph, and what is the meaning of it?—Zaphnath-paanéah, a "revealer of secrets," or "the man to whom secrets are revealed."

22. What were the names of Joseph's wife and his two sons?—Asenath, Manasseh and Ephraim. 41 : 45, 51, 52.

23. What did Joseph do during the seven years of plenty?—He laid up the food in the cities. Gen. 41 : 48.

24. When the people cried to Pharaoh for bread, to whom did he send them?—To Joseph. Gen. 41 : 55.

25. Was this great famine confined to the land of Egypt?—It was over all the face of the earth, or all that part of it. Gen. 41 : 56, 57.

Jacob and his Sons in Egypt. (Gen. 42–50.)

1. Where was Jacob living at this time?—In Canaan. Gen. 42 : 5.

2. Did the famine extend to the land of Canaan?—Yes. Gen. 42 : 5.

3. How did they procure bread?—Ten of Jacob's sons went to buy corn in Egypt. Gen. 42 : 3.

4. How did Joseph behave to his brethren when he saw them?—He made himself strange to them and spoke roughly to them, but not from a spirit of revenge. Gen. 42 : 7.

5. Did they recognize him?—No. Gen. 42 : 8.

6. How did Jacob feel when they returned and told him the news?—He felt that all things were against him, and that he should lose Benjamin also. But all things work together for good to them that love God. Gen. 42 : 36, 38; Rom. 8 : 28.

7. Whom did they take with them on their second journey?—Benjamin. Gen. 43 : 15.

8. What proof have we in this chapter of the truth of Num. 13 : 21–27?—The fruits, honey and spices they took with them. Gen. 43 : 11.

> They went up and searched the land. And they ascended by the south, and came unto Hebron. And they came unto the brook of Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff: and they brought of the pomegranates and of the figs. And they went and came to Moses and to Aaron; and brought back word unto them and unto all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land. And they told him and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it.

9. How did Joseph feel when he saw Benjamin stand among his brethren?—His love was greatly excited, and he retired to weep. Gen. 43 : 30, 31.

10. What closer relationship was there between Joseph and Benjamin than between Joseph and his other brothers?—They had the same mother, Rachel. Gen. 30 : 22–24; 35 : 16–18.

11. What effect did Joseph's kindness have on them?—They wondered at it. Gen. 43 : 33.

12. What was Joseph's intention in all this treatment?—To make them conscious of their sin and sorry for it, and to better carry out his plans.

13. Did it have the effect he desired?—It had. Gen. 42 : 21; 44 : 16.

14. How did Judah behave at this trying time?—He begged that Benjamin might be allowed to go back with the rest, and offered to remain himself behind as surety for his return. Gen. 44 : 18, 33.

15. Of whom was he a type in this?—Of Jesus Christ, our Substitute, who suffered in our stead.

16. How was Joseph's tender heart affected by all this?—He could bear it no longer, but wept aloud, and told them he was Joseph their brother. Gen. 45 : 1–4.

17. How did they feel when they knew this mighty prince was their own brother?—They could not answer him for fear. Gen. 45 : 3.

18. What proofs did he give them of it?—He gave proofs of his love and power by the rich presents he made them and the promise of a home and plenty in Egypt. Gen. 45 : 17–23.

19. Did Joseph and his father ever meet again?—They met in Egypt, whither Jacob and all his family had come. Gen. 46 : 29.

20. How?—See No. 19.

21. What proof have we in this of the truth of Rom. 8 : 28?—What Jacob thought to be against him proved to be for his good. (See No. 6.)

22. Where in the land of Egypt did Jacob and his family dwell?—In the land of Goshen. Gen. 47 : 1.

23. Had the Egyptians any particular antipathy to shepherds?—They disliked shepherds and cattle-dealers from foreign lands for slaughtering their sacred animals, or from having formerly invaded and plundered their country.

24. Why?—See No. 23.

25. Was Jacob introduced to Pharaoh?—Yes, and gave him his blessing. Gen. 47 : 7.

26. What proof have we in Jacob's remark to Pharaoh of the truth of Ps. 90?—The longest life is but short to look back on.

> For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told. The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. Ps. 90 : 9, 10.

27. What peculiar blessing did Jacob give to the sons of Joseph?—He placed his right hand on the younger instead of the elder. Gen. 48 : 17–19.

28. In his prophetical blessing of his twelve sons, to whom did he give the birthright?—Gen. 48 : 8.

> Now the sons of Reuben the first-born of Israel (for he was the first-born; but, forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright. For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph's). 1 Chron. 5 : 1, 2.

29. What was the special blessing of Judah?—That out of his family the Messiah should come. Gen. 49 : 10.

30. How was this fulfilled?—Our Lord sprang out of Juda. Heb. 7 : 14.

The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham. Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren; and Judas begat Phares. Matt. 1 : 1–3.

31. To whom is allusion made in chap. 49, verse 24, in Joseph's blessing? Compare Num. 13 : 8, 16 with Num. 27 : 15–23.—To Joshua.

Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea the son of Nun. And Moses called Oshea the son of Nun Jehoshua. And Moses spake unto the Lord, saying, Let the Lord, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation, which may go out before them, and which may go in before them, and which may lead them out, and which may bring them in; that the congregation of the Lord be not as sheep which have no shepherd. And the Lord said unto Moses, Take thee Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay thine hand upon him; and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation; and give him a charge in their sight. And thou shalt put some of thine honor upon him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel may be obedient. And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall ask counsel for him after the judgment of Urim before the Lord: at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he and all the children of Israel with him, even all the congregation. And Moses did as the Lord commanded him; and he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation; and he laid his hands upon him, and gave him a charge, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses.

32. How was Joshua in this a type of Jesus?—As Joshua led the Israelites in the wilderness and into the promised land, so Jesus is the guide of his people upon earth and the means of their entrance into heaven.

Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. John 10 : 7–9, 27.

33. What other Joshua was a type of Jesus under the double figure of a branch and a stone?—And he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the Lord. And the angel of the Lord protested unto Joshua, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by. Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at; for, behold, I will bring forth my servant the BRANCH. For behold the stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. Zech. 3 : 1, 6–9.

34. What does Isaiah prophesy of this stone?—Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation. Isa. 28 : 16.

35. Give the texts in which the Lord Jesus speaks of himself under this figure?—Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the Scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: and whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. Matt. 21 : 42, 44; Mark 12 : 10; Luke 20 : 17, 18.

36. Find the text in which the apostle Peter speaks of the Lord Jesus under this figure?—To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. Wherefore also it is contained in the Scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief cornerstone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, and a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed. 1 Pet. 2 : 4–8.

37. Where was Jacob buried?—In the cave of Machpelah. Gen. 50 : 13.

38. What fears had Joseph's brethren after their father's death?—That Joseph would ill-treat them and punish them. Gen. 50 : 15.

39. How did Joseph behave to them?—He comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

40. Of whom were Joseph and his brethren types in this transaction?—Of Christ and his forgiving love.

41. When was Joseph buried?—Not until the Israelites reached Canaan, above two hundred years after his death. Gen. 50 : 26.

And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for an hundred pieces of silver. Josh. 24 : 32.

Joseph's History.

1. What great peculiarity marks the Bible histories?—Their reference to our Lord Jesus Christ.

2. Of whose history can this pre-eminently be said?—Of Joseph's.

3. To whom must we look to enlighten our minds when studying God's word?—To God the Holy Spirit; saying, Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law. Ps. 119 : 18; 2 Pet. 1 : 20, 21.

4. What did Jesus say in John 5 : 39?—Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

5. And how did he upbraid the two disciples whom he overtook going to Emmaus?—O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Luke 24 : 26.

6. Is it not, then, our duty to seek for Jesus even so far back as the writings of Moses?—They drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them; and that Rock was Christ. 1 Cor. 10 : 4.

7. Who wrote Genesis?—Moses.

8. How was Joseph a type of Jesus, when he was at home, clothed in a beautiful robe, the darling of his father?—In that Jesus shared his Father's glory and enjoyed his love.

Thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. John 17 : 24.

9. How was Joseph a type in going out to see after the welfare of his brethren?—In Jesus graciously visiting his brethren in human nature.

The Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. Luke 19 : 10.

10. How in their treatment of him?—In being sold by Judas and delivered to death by the Jews.

He came unto his own, and his own received him not. John 1 : 11.

When the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance. Matt. 21 : 38.

11. How in his dreams?—In his prophecies of his future kingdom and glory. Matt. 25 : 31, 32.

12. How in the false accusations brought against him?—In his freedom from blame. Matt. 26 : 59, 60.

13. How in being committed to prison?—They laid hands on Jesus, and took him. Matt. 26 : 50.

14. How in leaving that prison and being exalted?—God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. Acts 2 : 36.

15. How in his feeding and blessing his brethren and all who came to him?—In being the Bread of life.

16. How in Pharaoh transferring all his power to him?—The Father committed all judgment unto the Son. John 5 : 22.

17. How in his returning good for evil?—Jesus died for his persecutors, and prayed for them to the last.

Job.

1. Who was Job?—A very rich man in the north of Arabia who worshiped the true God. Job 1 : 3.

2. When was he supposed to live?—Probably about the time of Isaac.

3. Why? Do we gather anything from his not mentioning God's wonders in Egypt and the Red Sea?—From the age to which he lived, said to be two hundred years; from the very early customs alluded to in the book, as the worship of the sun, moon and stars, the use of engraving for writing, and the reckoning of riches by cattle, that they had not then occurred, or Job would certainly have heard of them and spoken of them. Job 21 : 26–28; 19 : 23, 24; 1 : 3.

4. Can you give any proof from the fact that as head of the family he offered sacrifices?—After God's appointment of priests he would not have done this.

5. How is he supposed to have obtained his knowledge of the true God?—By tradition, or knowledge passed down by word of mouth from one generation to another, and perhaps by direct revelation from God, like Adam and Moses.

6. What proof of the truth of 1 Pet. 5 : 8 does the history of Job supply?—Satan's plots against Job. Your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. Job 1 : 6–12; 2 : 1–7.

7. Where is Satan called "the accuser of the brethren"?—Rev. 12 : 10.

8. What high terms of praise did the Lord use when speaking of Job to Satan?—Job 1 : 8.

9. And how did the Lord afterward, to Ezekiel, mention him?—He classed him with Noah and Daniel.

Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord God. Ezek. 14 : 14.

10. In what way did the Lord first try this good man?—By suffering him to be deprived in one day of his children, servants and goods. Job 1.

11. Did he fail?—He submitted to God's will, and blessed him in memorable words. Job 1 : 21.

12. Did Satan again have permission to hurt him?—Yes, by bodily suffering. Job 2 : 4–8.

13. Did he continue steadfast?—He seems to have uttered no complaint against God. Job 2 : 8.

14. How did his wife afflict him?—By tempting him to curse God, that he might die. Job 2 : 9.

15. Did this prove too much for him?—No; he again expressed his submission to the will of God. Job 2 : 10.

16. Who came to comfort him?—His three principal friends. Job 2 : 11.

17. What relation is Eliphaz supposed to have been to Esau?—These are the names of Esau's sons; Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau. . . . And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho and Gatam, and Kenaz. Gen. 36 : 10, 11. Eliphaz seems to have been an Idumean or Arabian name.

18. In what way did Job fail?—He cursed his birth, though not his God, and sometimes showed a self-righteous spirit. Job 3.

My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death; not for any injustice in mine hands: also my prayer is pure. Job 16 : 16, 17.

19. Did not his friends suppose that all his misfortunes had come upon him in consequence of sin?—They did. Job 4 : 7, 8.

20. If Job, instead of justifying himself, had appealed unto God, would it not have shown a better knowledge?—Yes, for it is easy to form a too favorable judgment of our own selves.

21. How did the Lord Jesus Christ act when he was wrongfully accused?—He answered not a word. Matt. 27 : 12–14.

22. Who is the only perfect man that ever lived?—The man Christ Jesus.

23. How did Job feel when God himself spoke to him at last?—Deeply humbled. What did Job say?—Then Job answered the Lord, and said, Behold I am vile; what shall I answer thee? I will lay my hand upon my mouth. Job 40 : 3, 4.

24. Did the Lord condemn him?—No; he accepted or forgave him. Job 42 : 9.

25. How did the Lord pass over the error of Job's three friends in their condemnation of Job?—In consideration of their sacrifice and of Job's prayer. Job 42 : 7–9.

26. How did the Lord disappoint Satan and bless Job's latter end?—He gave him a family again, and twice as much substance as he had before. Job 42 : 10, 12, 13.

27. How old was Job when he died?—About two hundred years. Job 42 : 16.

Pharaoh and Moses. (Ex. 1 : 2.)

1. How did the Egyptians behave to the children of Israel after the death of Joseph?—They enslaved and oppressed them. Ex. 1 : 8–14.

2. Did the children of Israel multiply and increase very rapidly?—They did. Ex. 1 : 12.

3. Why should this have made the Egyptians afraid?—Lest they should join their enemies. Ex. 1 : 10.

4. How were the children of Israel employed by the Egyptians?—In making bricks and other field-service. Ex. 1 : 14.

5. What cruel device did Pharaoh resolve on to destroy the male children of Israel?—To employ the Hebrew nurses to do so. Ex. 1 : 16.

6. Who was Moses?—The second son of Amram and Jochebed of the tribe of Levi. Ex. 2 : 1; 6 : 20.

7. What plan did his mother adopt to spare his life?—She hid him in a floating basket among the flags growing by a river-side. Ex. 2 : 2, 3.

8. How did her design succeed?—The child was found by Pharaoh's daughter, who took charge of it. Ex. 2 : 5–10.

9. Whom had his mother set to watch the little ark?—His sister Miriam. Ex. 2 : 4; 15 : 20.

10. When the princess sought a nurse for the child, whom did Miriam fetch?—His mother. Ex. 2 : 7–9.

11. What blessing did this ensure to Moses?—The tenderest care, and perhaps also the knowledge of the true God.

12. What proof does this give us of the truth of Isa. 46 : 10?—My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure.

> There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the Lord. Prov. 21 : 30.

13. With whom did Moses join himself—with the Egyptians or the Hebrews?—By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God. Heb. 11 : 24, 25.

14. Did they receive him graciously?—Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? Wilt thou kill me as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday? Acts 7 : 27, 28.

15. What was Moses obliged to do?—To leave Egypt. Ex. 2 : 11–15.

16. To what land did he flee?—To Midian.

17. What occurred to him there?—He married a daughter of the priest or prince of Midian. Ex. 2 : 16–21.

18. How long did he stay there?—Forty years. Acts 7 : 30.

19. How many sons had he? What were their names and his wife's name?—Two—Gershom and Eliezer; Zipporah. Ex. 2 : 22; 18 : 3, 4; 2 : 21.

The Burning Bush. (Ex. 3, 4.)

1. How was Moses employed when the Lord appeared to him?—In keeping his father-in-law's flock. Ex. 3 : 1.

2. What wondrous sight attracted the attention of Moses?—A burning bush unconsumed. Ex. 3 : 2.

3. Whose voice addressed him from the midst of the fire?—The voice of the Son of God, God's messenger, and yet God himself. Ex. 3 : 2, 4.

4. What commission did the Lord give to Moses?—To go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt. Ex. 3 : 10.

5. Was Moses willing to undertake it?—He said they would not believe that God had appeared to him. Ex. 4 : 1.

6. What excuses did he make?—See No. 5.

7. How did the Lord show him that it was not his own might or power in which he was to go to Pharaoh?—He changed Moses' rod into a serpent and made his hand leprous, and restored them again. Ex. 4 : 2–8.

8. Did this remove his scruples?—He then objected that he was too poor a speaker to deliver God's message. Ex. 4 : 10.

9. How did the Lord graciously meet his weakness?—He promised to teach him what to say. Ex. 4 : 12.

10. Whom did the Lord appoint his helper?—His brother Aaron, who could speak well. Ex. 4 : 14–16.

11. What solemn rite had Moses neglected to perform on his sons in the land of Midian?—Circumcision. Ex. 4 : 24.

12. What punishment had God enjoined on those who neglected it?—The uncircumcised man-child shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant (by loss of privileges or by death). Gen. 17 : 14.

13. Did not the sons of Moses narrowly escape?—They were doubtless in imminent danger of punishment, with Moses himself. Ex. 4 : 24–26.

14. Who met Moses on his return to Egypt?—Aaron, by command of God. Ex. 4 : 27.

15. How did the poor afflicted Israelites receive the message?—They believed it, and worshiped God. Ex. 4 : 31.

The Plagues of Egypt. (Ex. 5–11.)

1. Who was the king of Egypt now?—Pharaoh.

2. Was it the same Pharaoh who had ordered the little children to be killed?—No; it was one who lived one hundred and forty years later.

3. Did he treat the children of Israel more mercifully than the former king?—Though he did not order their male offspring to death like the former king, he was very cruel to them.

4. How did he receive Moses and Aaron when they went in to him?—He abused them for interfering with the people's work. Ex. 5 : 2–4.

5. What was the result?—Heavier work was laid upon them. Ex. 5 : 6–9.

6. Whom did the children of Israel blame for this?—Moses and Aaron. Ex. 5 : 20, 21.

7. Of whom was Pharaoh, in his daring rebellion, a type?—Of the great rebel Satan. Jude 6.

8. What was the first plague?—The river Nile turned into blood. Ex. 7.

9. In what respect was this a peculiar trial to the Egyptians?—Because the yearly overflowing of the Nile was most valuable for their land, and they worshiped the river as a god, and much of their food was fish.

10. What were the second and third plagues?—Frogs and lice. Ex. 8.

11. How far were the magicians permitted to follow Moses and Aaron?—So far as to turn water into blood and to bring frogs. Ex. 7, 8.

12. What did they say when they could go no farther?—That the miracles of Moses were the finger of God. Ex. 8 : 19.

13. What was the next plague?—Swarms of flies or hurtful insects. Ex. 7 : 24.

14. How did God mark the distinction between the Egyptians and Israelites in this?—He suffered none in the land of Goshen, where the Israelites dwelt.

15. Did this influence Pharaoh to let the Israelites go?—No (Ex. 8 : 32), though he gave way a little at first. Ex. 8 : 28.

16. What was the fifth plague?—A murrain upon cattle, horses, asses, camels and sheep. Ex. 9.

17. What painful attack on man and beast did God send next?—Boils and blains, or sores. Ex. 9 : 9.

18. Did any of these move the haughty king?—No. Ex. 9 : 7, 12.

19. What merciful provision did God make in the seventh plague for those who believed in his word?—He warned them to remove their cattle to a place of shelter. Ex. 9 : 19.

20. Why was this plague peculiarly terrible to the Egyptians?—Because they were not accustomed to either hail or rain. Deut. 11 : 10, 11.

21. Why was it that all these judgments had no effect on Pharaoh?—Because his heart was hardened, or he hardened his own heart, as it is expressed in Ex. 8 : 15, 32; 9 : 34, 35, so that God gave him up to his own wicked heart, as he is said in Rom. 1 : 28, 21, 20 to have given up the Gentiles to a reprobate mind, their foolish heart being darkened, and they themselves without excuse.

> Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man. James 1 : 13.

22. Is it not an awful thing when God gives a man over to his own hardened heart?—If we sin willfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful looking-for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. Heb. 10 : 26, 27.

23. What was the eighth plague?—Locusts. Ex. 10.

24. What appearance must the land of Egypt have presented at this time?—The land was darkened by them, and every green thing eaten up. Ex. 10 : 15.

25. What was the ninth plague?—Thick darkness for three days. Ex. 10 : 21–23.

26. What solemn interview had Moses with Pharaoh during this awful darkness?—When Pharaoh bade Moses see his face no more. Ex. 10 : 28.

27. What was the last plague?—The destruction of first-born.

The Passover. (Ex. 12–14.)

1. What did God command the Israelites to do before he brought the last plague on the Egyptians?—To have the passover sacrifice and feast. Ex. 12.

2. Of whom was the lamb a type?—Of Christ the Lamb of God, slain from the foundation of the world. John 1 : 29; Rev. 13 : 8.

3. In how many ways was the paschal lamb a type of Him whom it prefigured?—In its gentleness and unblemished innocence, and in its being slain without a bone being broken; and in other respects besides.

4. What divine ordinance in the Christian Church still commemorates the Passover?—The Lord's Supper.

5. When was it instituted?—The evening before our blessed Saviour suffered.

6. What does it set forth?—The sacrifice of the death of Christ, and the benefits we receive thereby.

7. Wherein does "the mass" of the Romish Church differ from "the Lord's Supper" in the Protestant churches?—In the mass the priest professes every time to offer Christ himself as a sacrifice for sin, while the Lord's Supper is a remembrance of his perfect sacrifice made once for all.

8. Which is most in harmony with the word of God?—We are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. Heb. 10 : 10, 14.

9. What is the meaning of the word Passover?—It refers to the destroying angel passing over the blood-sprinkled doorposts of the children of Israel. Ex. 12 : 23.

10. How were the Israelites preserved from the destroying angel?—By striking the lintels and doorposts of their houses with the blood of the slain lamb. Ex. 12 : 22.

11. Why was not the blood sprinkled on the doorway?—Lest any should trample on so sacred a thing.

> Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace! Heb. 10 : 29.

12. How was the bread to be prepared?—Without leaven (or yeast or sour paste) to raise it. Ex. 12 : 15.

13. What does the apostle Paul declare this to be a type of, in 1 Cor. 5 : 7, 8?—Of purity and sincerity.

14. What did the bitter herbs signify?—The bitterness of Egyptian bondage, of true sorrow for sin and of Christ's cup of suffering. Ps. 69 : 20, 21.

15. If any Israelite had despised the means of safety, what would have been the consequence?—He would have lost his first-born child.

16. And what will be our state if we despise the hiding-place which God has provided for us?—We shall be destroyed by the storm of God's just wrath.

17. Is God's salvation merely a safety from his wrath, or does he provide ample blessing for the soul that trusts in him?—He provides not only escape from hell, but a home in heaven—eternal life begun below and perfected above.

18. What part of this type is a proof of this?—The feast upon the slaughtered lamb.

19. Give some other parts of Scripture where the gospel provision is compared to a feast.—Isa. 25 : 6; Rev. 19 : 9.

20. How did Pharaoh act when he found the threatened vengeance of God had descended on him?—He ordered the Israelites to depart. Ex. 12 : 31, 32.

21. How did God recompense the Israelites for all that they had suffered at the hands of the Egyptians?—By disposing the Egyptians to give them gold and silver and raiment. Ex. 12 : 35, 36; Rom. 12 : 17–21.

22. In what way did the Israelites obey the king's mandate?—They hurried away with their flocks and herds and hastily-prepared food. Ex. 12 : 37–39.

23. Did they remember Joseph's wish at this time?—They took his bones with them. Ex. 13 : 19.

24. Did Pharaoh quietly allow them to go?—He pursued them to bring them back. Ex. 14 : 5–9.

25. How did the children of Israel feel when they heard that Pharaoh was pursuing them?—They were terribly afraid. Ex. 14 : 10.

26. What had the Israelites to guide them as to the way they should take?—A pillar of cloud and of fire. Ex. 14 : 19, 20, 24.

27. What speech did Israel make to Moses when they saw the sea before them and the host of Pharaoh behind?—That they had better have remained in Egypt. Ex. 14 : 11, 12.

28. Did God reward them as they deserved for this wicked speech? What did he do?—He made a way for them through the sea. Ex. 14 : 16.

29. Which got on the fastest—Pharaoh in his chariots or Israel on foot?—Israel on foot, as God took off the chariot-wheels. Ex. 14 : 25.

30. How did the Lord hinder the Egyptians?—See No. 29.

31. How did God keep the hosts separate all the night?

—By the pillar of cloud, which kept the Egyptians in darkness and prevented them from moving on. Ex. 14 : 20.

32. Ought we ever to doubt a God who can help his people in any difficulty?—If God be for us, who can be against us? Rom. 8 : 31.

33. What happened as soon as Israel was safely over the sea?—The Egyptians were overwhelmed by the returning waters. Ex. 14 : 27, 28.

The Song of Moses. (Ex. 15 : 1–21.)

1. What is the passage through the Red Sea a type of?—The introduction of believers by baptism into covenant with God. 1 Cor. 10 : 1–4.

2. What is baptism a type of?—Of having done with sin on being given to God. Rom. 6 : 1–4.

3. What did Jesus call his death?—A baptism.

> I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! Luke 12 : 50.

4. Is the song of Moses ever again mentioned in Scripture?—Rev. 15 : 2, 3.

5. Of whom is Pharaoh a type in these verses?—Of the enemies of God.

6. What is said of Pharaoh in Rom. 9 : 17?—Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might show my power in thee.

7. What will be the end of all God's enemies?—To be subdued by Christ.

> For David saith, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, until I make thy foes thy footstool. Acts 2 : 34, 35.

8. Which is the last enemy that is to be destroyed?—Death. 1 Cor. 15 : 26.

9. What song may the Christian sing even now in prospect of that victory?—Death is swallowed up in victory. 1 Cor. 15 : 54–57.

10. Through whom is the conquest obtained?—Heb. 2 : 14, 15; 1 Cor. 15 : 57.

Their Journey Begun. (Ex. 15 : 22–27.)

1. How many days did Israel travel in the wilderness before they found water?—Three. Ex. 15 : 22.

2. And when they found water, of what kind was it?—Bitter. Ex. 15 : 23.

3. How did the children of Israel bear this disappointment?—They murmured against Moses. Ex. 15 : 24.

4. What is this world compared to?—A wilderness.

5. Are the journeyings of the children of Israel calculated to teach us any useful lessons?—Not to expect perfect comfort in our pilgrimage here below—to follow God's guidance, and to cheerfully submit to all his dealings with us on our heavenward way.

6. Are not young people apt to think that this world is a resting-place?—They forget that youth and health may not last them long.

7. What does God's word say in Mic. 2 : 10?—Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

8. There is one thing that can turn the bitter waters of earthly sorrow into sweetness; what is it?—Seeing a Father's hand overruling all our affairs.

9. Where did Israel next encamp?—At Elim. Ex. 15 : 27.

10. What blessing had the Lord in store for them there?—Plenty of water.

11. Is it not God's way ever to bring good out of evil?—Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end. Deut. 8 : 16.

The Manna. (Ex. 16.)

1. How were the Israelites fed in the wilderness?—With manna.

2. What was manna?—A small round thing, like a frozen drop of dew, miraculously sent by God, and able to be made into bread. Ex. 16 : 14, 15, 23, 31.

3. How often were they to gather it?—Every day except the Sabbath-day.

4. What provision did the Lord make for sanctifying the Sabbath-day, and resting on it?—A double quantity of manna the day before. Ex. 16 : 22–30.

5. Were the children of Israel obedient to the Lord in this arrangement? How did they act?—Some of them went out to gather on the Sabbath-day. Ex. 16 : 27.

6. Who was it that declared himself to be the true bread that came down from heaven?—I am the living bread which came down from heaven. John 6 : 51.

7. Were the Israelites satisfied with God's provision?—Our soul loatheth this light bread. Num. 21 : 5.

8. What is said in 2 Tim. 3 : 16?—All Scripture is given by inspiration of God.

9. What instruction ought we to gain from reading about the sins of Israel?—To watch against falling into the same sins ourselves.

> As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man. Prov. 27 : 19.

10. What provision has God made for the life of our souls?—His Son, his Spirit and his word.

11. Are we satisfied with this, or do we prefer earthly pleasures?—We are prone to love this present world.

12. Compare Matt. 7 : 1, 2 and 1 Cor. 10 : 11, 12.—Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. All these things are written for our admonition. Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall.

The Smitten Rock. (Ex. 17 : 1–7.)

1. What are those who travel in deserts constantly liable to?—The want of water.

2. How were the Israelites supplied?—From a stream that flowed from a rock in Horeb on Moses striking it with his rod. Ex. 17 : 6.

3. Of whom is the smitten rock a beautiful type?—That rock was Christ. 1 Cor. 10 : 4.

4. What did Jesus say to the woman of Samaria?—But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. John 4 : 14.

5. At the feast of tabernacles, which was a feast commemorative of the sojourn of Israel in the desert, they used to pour out water in remembrance of the smitten rock; when Jesus was present at this ceremony, what did he cry aloud?—If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink. John 7 : 37.

6. Have you obeyed that command?—Let the conscience of each reply. If you have not yet come, come now.

7. What excuse will you have to offer if you refuse to obey?—None at all. Prov. 1 : 20–31; Rev. 22 : 17.

The Battle with Amalek. (Ex. 17 : 8–16.)

1. What is prayer?—Prayer is the simplest words of the mouth and the earnest desire of the heart, taught by the Holy Spirit and presented through Jesus Christ.

2. Why do we pray to God?—Because he is willing to help us, and no one else can.

3. How did God teach Israel this at Rephidim?—By giving them victory over the Amalekites in answer to Moses' prayer. Ex. 17 : 8–11.

4. Who were the Amalekites?—Descendants of Esau, to the south of Palestine.

5. Was it not very cruel to come out and fight Israel when they were so weak?—They thought now was their opportunity, but they forgot that God was on Israel's side.

6. Was not God angry with them for this?—God sentenced them to constant war, and at last to destruction. Ex. 17 : 14, 16.

7. Which army obtained victory?—The Israelites'.

8. How was this?—By Moses' continued prayer. Ex. 17 : 12.

9. Of whom was Moses a type when he thus interceded for Israel?—Of Christ, who ever lives to make intercession for us in heaven.

10. Of whom was Joshua a type while leading on the battle?—Of the great Captain of our salvation.

11. What foes has the Christian to contend with?—The temptations of his own evil heart, of Satan and of sinners around him.

12. How can he overcome?—In the strength of the Lord God.

13. What is the meaning of Jehovah-nissi?—"The Lord, my banner." Ex. 17 : 15.

14. If this be the banner of the Christian, what is his armor?—Eph. 6 : 10–18.

> Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. Eph. 6 : 10, 11.

The Covenant of Works. (Ex. 19–24.)

1. What is the human heart most prone to?—Sin.

2. What does this show?—The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? Jer. 17 : 9.

3. How did God teach this to Israel, and through them to us?—By practical lessons which showed them their weakness and wickedness, and their need of a better righteousness than their own, and of a greater sacrifice than the blood of bulls and goats. Gal. 3 : 24.

4. What is the law?—The term here refers to the Ten Commandments, and to others that immediately follow.

5. Under what circumstances did God give the law?—From the top of Mount Sinai, amidst thunder and lightning, clouds and darkness, trumpet-blast and earthquake. Ex. 19.

6. Where is Sinai?—In the wilderness, near the Red Sea.

7. Could Israel bear the presence of God?—They could not endure the light of God's presence in their consciences. Our God is a consuming fire. Heb. 12 : 20, 21, 29.

8. Why not?—See No. 7.

9. Who went up into the thick darkness where God was?—Moses. Ex, 19 : 20; 20 : 21.

10. When he came forth with God's message to them, what did they promise to do?—All the words which God had said. Ex. 24 : 3.

11. Were they able to perform their promise?—No.

12. Why?—From the sinfulness of their own hearts.

13. Are we able to keep God's holy law now?—No.

14. What refuge, then, have we from God's wrath?—Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us. Gal. 3 : 13.

The Covenant Broken. (Ex. 32.)

1. How long was Moses upon the mount with God?—Forty days and nights. Ex. 24 : 18.

2. What awful proof did Israel give of their inability to keep the law, of their forgetfulness of God, and of their own evil hearts while Moses was on the mount?—They made and worshiped a golden calf, probably after some idol in Egypt. Ex. 32 : 1–6.

3. When was Moses made acquainted with their sin?—God told him while he was on the mount. Ex. 32 : 7, 8.

4. Did he plead for them with God?—Yes, and his prayer was heard. Ex. 32 : 11–14.

5. Who was waiting on the side of the mount for Moses when he came down?—Joshua. Ex. 32 : 17.

6. What sight did they see?—The calf, and the people dancing about it. Ex. 32 : 19.

7. What did Moses do?—He broke the stone tables, as they had broken the law, and he destroyed the golden calf. Ex. 32 : 19, 20.

8. Although Joshua was not in the transgression of making the calf, which of Israel's leaders was?—Aaron. Ex. 32 : 2–5.

9. Was not his excuse a vain one?—Yes; and sinners now by silly falsehoods strive in vain to hide their sins.

10. Why was this painful history recorded?—For our instruction; see 1 Cor. 10 : 1–12.

The Second Giving of the Law. (Ex. 32 : 30–55; 33 and 34.)

1. Who interceded for Israel at this awful time?—Moses. Ex. 32 : 30–32.

2. What testimony did Moses bear against them?—That they had sinned a great sin. Ex. 32 : 30.

3. Whom did Moses associate with himself in this act?—Joshua, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Ex. 24 : 13; 32 : 13.

4. What proof did the Lord give to Moses that he had accepted him?—Allowing him to see something of his glory and proclaiming to him his name. Ex. 33 : 16; 34 : 7.

5. How was the law given the second time?—By Moses taking two fresh tables of stone up the mount, and God's writing upon them the Ten Commandments. Ex. 34 : 1, 4, 28.

6. How long was Moses in the mount this time?—Forty days and forty nights. Deut. 10 : 10.

7. What wonderful manifestation was there on the face of Moses that he been with God, and had spoken to him face to face?—His face shone brightly. Ex. 33 : 11; 34 : 29, 30.

> And there arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. Deut. 34 : 10.

8. How did the children of Israel feel when they saw this?—They were afraid to come near him. Ex. 34 : 30.

9. What was this a type of?—Of the blindness of their minds, which prevented them from seeing the truth then, and which prevents them still.

Their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the Old Testament; which veil is done away in Christ. 2 Cor. 3 : 14.

The Tabernacle. (Ex. 35–40.)

1. How did Moses obtain the instruction to make the tabernacle?—From God himself and a pattern shown him on the mount. Ex. 25 : 9, 40.

2. What is a tabernacle?—A tent.

3. Whom did God specially endow with skill to perform this work?—Bezaleel and Aholiab and other wise-hearted men. Ex. 36 : 1.

4. Where did Moses get the materials?—From the free offerings of the people. Ex. 35 : 21; 36 : 3–7.

5. Did the women assist? In what?—Yes. In spinning. Ex. 35 : 22, 25, 26.

6. What solemn injunction did Moses receive?—To make the tabernacle and its furniture according to the patterns God had shown him. Ex. 25 : 40; 26 : 30; Heb. 8 : 5.

7. What expression, used eight times in the fortieth chapter of Exodus, shows that Moses fulfilled the work that God gave him to do?—As the Lord commanded Moses.

8. When was the tabernacle reared?—On the first day (of the first month) of the second year of the sojourn in the wilderness. Ex. 40 : 17.

9. Of whom is the tabernacle a type?—Of Jesus Christ, the "true" and "perfect tabernacle." John 2 : 19–21; Heb. 8 : 2; 9 : 11.

10. Are our bodies compared to a tabernacle and temple?—Yes; to a tabernacle, to be taken down, in 2 Cor. 5 : 1, and to a temple of the Holy Ghost, to be kept holy, in 1 Cor. 6 : 19.

11. In what respect was the tabernacle in the wilderness a type of Jesus?—As the way to the Father's presence. Heb. 9 : 8, 9, 11, 12.

12. What was its outward appearance?—Plain, from its badger-skins covering. Ex. 26 : 14. As Christ had no outward beauty. Isa. 53 : 2, 3.

His visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men. Isa. 52 : 14.

13. Was the inside different? How was this a type of Jesus?—Yes; it was richly adorned with gold and silver and embroidery. Ex. 31 and 36. So He who was "altogether lovely" (Song of Sol. 5 : 16) pleased his heavenly Father.

Lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Matt. 3 : 17.

A cloud overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. Mark 9 : 7.

The centurion said, Truly this man was the Son of God. Mark 15 : 39.

The officers answered, Never man spake like this man. John 7 : 46.

14. To what did Jesus compare himself in John 10 and 14 : 6?—To the door of the sheepfold and to a road or way. (See No. 11.)

I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

15. How was the brazen altar a type of Jesus?—Because it bore the sacrificial fires which consumed the victims.

16. Who first kindled the fire on this altar?—God himself. Lev. 9 : 24.

17. What is fire a type of?—It is the element of purification Ezek. 21 : 31, 32; 22 : 31; Heb. 12 : 29.

18. What do we deserve?—We cannot possibly conceive the exceeding sinfulness of our estrangement from our Father.

19. Who was the Sin-bearer in our stead?—Christ Jesus.

He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. Isa. 53 : 5.

Even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come. 1 Thess. 1 : 10.

20. Suppose any Israelite had refused to bring his offering to this altar, what would have been the consequence?—He would have remained unclean and deprived of the privilege of worshiping.

21. Suppose we refuse to lay our sins on Jesus, what will be the consequence?—They will remain upon ourselves, and the wrath of God will abide upon us.

22. What stood next to the brazen altar in the outer court?—The laver. Ex. 38 : 8.

23. What was its use?—For the priests to wash their feet. Ex. 30 : 18–21.

24. What was the laver a type of?—Of the word and Spirit of God, which cleanse and restore our souls.

25. Of what was the laver made?—Of brass, taken from the looking-glasses, or plates of polished metal, which the women used.

26. How does the apostle James allude to this in the first chapter of his Epistle?—Whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

27. Is the word of God ever compared to water?—Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it, that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word. Eph. 5 : 25, 26.

28. Where else is the word of God alluded to as a cleansing process?—Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Tit. 3 : 5. Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. John 3 : 5. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures. James 1 : 18.

29. How did Jesus (the Word of God) declare we must be cleansed?—By himself.

If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. John 13 : 8.

30. What objects presented themselves when the doorway curtain of the tabernacle was drawn aside?—The altar of incense, the table of shewbread, the golden candlestick and the curtain or veil of the holy of holies.

31. What did Jesus say of himself in John 9 : 5?—As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

32. What is said of the Lord's people in Matt. 5 : 14–16?—Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.

33. Under what figure is prayer represented in Rev. 8 : 3, 4?—The smoke of burning incense.

34. What did the Lord Jesus style himself in John 6 : 35?—I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

35. Who were permitted to go in and minister in this holy place?—The priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God. Heb. 9 : 6.

36. Who alone might go into the most holy place?—But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself and for the errors of the people. Heb. 9 : 7.

37. How often might he go in?—See No. 36.

38. Of what is the most holy place a type?—Of the immediate presence of God.

39. Who has entered there?—Seeing then that we have a great High Priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. Heb. 4 : 14.

40. What happened to the beautiful veil of the temple when the Lord Jesus was crucified?—It was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

41. If man had rent it, would it have been done in the same way? How?—It would have been rent from the bottom.

42. What did this show?—The rending of the veil showed that the way into heaven was now open. Heb. 10 : 19–22.

43. What stood in the most holy place?—The ark of the covenant.

44. Of what was the ark composed?—Of shittim-wood, overlaid with gold. Ex. 25 : 10, 11.

45. How did it represent the glory of Jesus?—By the mercy-seat and cherubim above it. Ex. 25 : 17–22.

46. What was preserved in the ark?—The golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant. Heb. 9 : 4.

47. What was the budding rod a type of?—The resuurrection of the dead. 1 Cor. 15 : 42.

48. What was this incorruptible manna a type of?—Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. 1 Pet. 1 : 23; Acts 2 : 31, 32.

49. Where in the Revelation is this incorruptible manna alluded to?—To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna. Rev. 2 : 17.

50. What proof have we that Jesus has gone into heaven with a human body?—Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones as ye see me have. And when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet. And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat? And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb. And he took it, and did eat before them. And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven. Luke 24 : 39–43, 50, 51.

51. What hope have we to rest on that we shall share that glory with him?—To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. Rev. 3. 21.

The Sacrifices and Offerings. (Lev. and Num. 19.)

1. What is the principal thing treated of in the book of Leviticus?—Access to God by a purified worshiper.

2. Name the four principal offerings.—The burnt-offering, the sin-offering, the trespass-offering and the peace-offering.

3. What characterized the burnt-offering?—It was a male without blemish from the herd or the flock, or a turtle-dove or young pigeon; the blood of the beast being sprinkled about, and its body cut up and burnt on the altar. Lev. 1.

4. In what did the sin-offering and the trespass-offering differ from the burnt-offering?—In the sin-offering having the blood sprinkled and poured out on and under the altar, and having the fat, and not the whole animal, burnt upon it; and in the trespass-offering being allowed to be of the female sex, and being on account of special rather than general sin. The sin-offering referred rather to atonement, and the burnt-offering to self-dedication. Lev. 4, 5, 6.

5. What was there different to both these in the peace-offering?—The peace-offering, whether from the herd or the flock, was an expression of thankfulness to God for his gifts. Lev. 3; 7 : 11–38.

6. What difference was there between the meat- (or food-) and the burnt-offering?—The meat-offering, of flour, oil and wine, was also a sacrifice of thanksgiving. Lev. 2.

7. Who was prefigured by all these sacrifices?—Jesus Christ, the great Atonement and the great self-devoted Sacrifice.

8. What is said in Heb. 10 : 1–18?—The sacrifice of Christ's body, once offered, hath for ever taken away sins.

9. Where was Moses when God gave him the instruction about sacrifices?—On Mount Sinai. Ex. 24 : 18; 32 : 15.

10. What special type of Jesus was there in the cleansing of the leper?—Christ brings near those who were far off, as the leper was obliged to be kept; and Christ was slain for us, like the one bird, and rose to heaven for us like the other. Lev. 14.

But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. Eph. 2 : 13.

Who was delivered for our offences, and raised again for our justification. Rom. 4 : 25.

11. What was the leprosy in the house a type of?—Corruption. Lev. 14.

Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. 1 Cor. 15 : 50.

12. Name some of the ceremonies which took place on the great day of atonement.—Aaron the high priest made sin-offerings for himself and for the people, and sprinkled the blood upon the mercy-seat in the most holy place; confessed the sins of the people over the scapegoat, and sent it away into the wilderness; and offered burnt-offerings for himself and for the people. Lev. 16.

13. What is the meaning of the word "atonement"?—Reconciliation, or setting at one again, by a sacrifice in another's stead.

14. Who atoned for our sins?—Jesus Christ, who suffered in our place the punishment of our sins.

15. How did the scapegoat set this forth?—It bore the sins of Israel, as Christ bears ours.

16. Have not you and I committed sin?—Every day of our lives.

17. Should we not ask ourselves where is our sin?—It is the most important question we can ask ourselves.

18. Where must it be—either by faith laid on Jesus, or where?—Still resting on ourselves, with all its burden and its curse.

19. What was the ceremony connected with the red heifer?—The heifer was slain and burnt, and its blood was sprinkled before the tabernacle.

20. What was the appointed use of the ashes of the red heifer?—They were mixed with water and sprinkled upon persons who in various ways had become unclean, and as a token of purification for sin.

21. Who was again prefigured in this type?—How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God! Heb. 9 : 14.

The Feasts. (Lev. 23.)

1. What is a type?—A thing that represents another thing, or has some points of resemblance to it, or is intended to foreshow it.

2. Why did God teach us so much truth in this way?—To make it clearer to our minds.

3. How do we teach little children?—By pictures, imitations, comparisons and tales.

4. What is God's way of pardoning sin?—Accepting on behalf of every one who believes the punishment which Jesus bore in his stead.

5. How has he shown this to us?—By his accepting the sacrifices which referred to Christ.

6. What is faith?—Trusting in Christ as our own Saviour.

7. How is faith in the Lord Jesus shown us in the typical sacrifices of the Old Testament?—Because they could have no value in themselves, but only as referring to Him that was to come.

8. What does this chapter especially describe to us?—The Jewish feasts.

9. Which is the first "feast" spoken of?—The Sabbath.

10. How often was it to be kept?—Every seventh day.

11. When was the keeping of the Sabbath first enjoined?—In the garden of Eden, when God first sanctified it or set it apart for holy use. (See also Ex. 16 and 20.)

> God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made. Gen. 2 : 3.

12. Why is it here called a "feast?"—Because it is a day of sacred rest. (And see No. 14.)

13. Does the word "feast" in this chapter mean a time of eating and drinking?—No; but of meeting together for a holy, happy purpose. Lev. 23 : 4.

14. What is the meaning of the word "festival?"—A time of joyful worship.

15. Does not God always unite happiness or joy with religion?—He does.

> If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honorable; and shalt honor him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words: then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it. Isa. 58 : 13, 14,

16. If it be not so to us, what is the cause?—We have either no religion at all, or not enough to make us happy.

17. Of what was the Jewish Sabbath a type?—Of the rest of heaven. Heb. 4 : 8–11.

18. How can our souls, even in this world, "enter into rest"?—We may enjoy the rest of a steadfast faith, an anchored hope and an abiding peace.

19. Which was the second feast or festival spoken of?—The feast of the Passover or of unleavened bread. Lev. 23 : 5, 6.

20. When was that kept? How often?—It began on the fifteenth day of the first month, about our March or April. Once a year.

21. How was it kept?—By the sacrifice of a lamb, the use of unleavened bread and offering the first-fruits of the early harvest. (But see No. 24.)

22. When was this instituted?—When the Israelites came out of Egypt.

23. What did the Passover teach them, and what must it teach us?—To remember their deliverance by blood, and to look for our own deliverance by the same means.

24. What feast or festival came next?—The offering of the first-fruits of the harvest at Pentecost.

25. What ceremony were they to perform with the first sheaf?—The priest was to wave it before the Lord. Lev. 23 : 10, 11.

26. What did "waving" it mean?—An act of worship of the Lord of the whole earth.

27. Whom did that first sheaf represent?—Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept. 1 Cor. 15 : 20.

28. Did Jesus compare himself to wheat when speaking of his death?—The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

29. What were the Israelites to do fifty days after they had brought in the first-fruits?—To offer a new meat-offering to the Lord. Lev. 15 : 15–21.

30. Of what was this a type?—This feast was a type of the outpouring of the Holy Ghost, fifty days after Christ our Passover was sacrificed for us, when the apostles received the first-fruits of the Spirit, and presented to God the first-fruit converts of the Christian Church. Acts 2.

31. What festival was held on the first day of the seventh month?—The feast of trumpets. Lev. 15 : 23–25.

32. Of what was this a type?—Of the call to repentance and of the preaching of the gospel.

> Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and show my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins. Isa. 58 : 1.
> Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Mark 16 : 15.

33. How many days after this festival of trumpets was the great day of atonement kept?—Nine days.

34. What remarkable ceremonies took place on this day?—Aaron the high priest made sin-offerings for himself and for the people, and sprinkled the blood upon the mercy-seat in the most holy place; confessed the sins of the people over the scapegoat, and sent it away into the wilderness; and offered burnt-offerings for himself and for the people. Lev. 16.

35. Are we not very prone to excuse ourselves when looking into our own sinful hearts?—The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? Jer. 17 : 9.

36. Where shall we best discover God's estimate of sin?—In those parts of Scripture which contain his denunciations against it, his punishments of it, and (above all) his provision, in both the Old and New Testaments, for the pardon and removal of it.

37. What other ceremony took place on this day, mentioned in this chapter and not in the sixteenth chapter?—The blowing of a trumpet on the first day of the month. Lev. 23 : 24.

38. Where is this more fully described?—Lev. 25 : 9.

39. Of what were the trumpets made?—Of silver. Num. 10 : 2.

40. Of what was the jubilee a type?—It was typical of our redemption by Christ from the slavery of sin and Satan, and of our restoration to the glorious liberty of the children of God.

41. How are we interested in it?—See No. 40.

42. How many days after the day of atonement did the feast of tabernacles occur?—Five days. Lev. 23 : 34.

43. What ceremonies marked this festival?—The offering of sacrifices and the dwelling in booths.

44. How many days did they keep it?—Eight days.

45. What is this festival a type of?—Of heaven. Rev. 21 : 3, 4.

46. What does the twenty-ninth chapter of Numbers tell of?—Of the offerings at the feasts of trumpets and tabernacles and on the day of atonement.

47. Is the feast of tabernacles ever mentioned in the New Testament?—Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand. In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink. John 7 : 2, 37.

48. At what time of the year was King Solomon's temple dedicated?—Solomon kept the feast seven days in the seventh month, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt. 2 Chron. 7 : 8, 10.

49. And when was the second temple dedicated?—The children of the Captivity kept the Passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month. Ezra 6 : 19.

50. Of what were those buildings a type?—Of the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb, who are the temple of heaven. Rev. 21 : 22. (And see Rev. 21 : 3, 4, above—No. 45.)

The Numbering of the Israelites and Departure from Sinai. (Num. 1–4, 7–10.)

1. What do these chapters describe?—The numbering of the people, the duties of the priests and Levites, the offerings for the tabernacle, the marchings of the Israelites, etc.

2. How long had the children of Israel remained at Sinai?—About eleven months.

3. Tell me some of the most remarkable events that had occurred there?—The giving of the law, the worship of the golden calf, the making of the tabernacle, and the punishment of Nadab and Abihu.

4. How long was it after they left Egypt that the tabernacle was first set up?—About ten months. Ex. 40 : 2.

5. What rite did they celebrate on the fourteenth of the first month?—The Passover. Num. 9 : 1–5.

6. What did God command Moses to do on the first of the second month?—To number the people. Num. 1 : 1–3.

7. Whom did God accept for his service instead of the first-born?—The Levites. Num. 3 : 12; 8 : 16.

8. Did the numbers tell out exactly the same?—The first-born were two hundred and seventy-three more. Num. 3 : 46.

9. How was the difference arranged?—Five shekels (or about $2.75) each was paid to Aaron for them. Num. 8.

10. How were the children of Israel to encamp and to march on their journey?—Each tribe was to march and encamp by itself, in a fixed order and place, the Levites in the midst. Num. 2.

11. Who provided the wagons to carry the tabernacle?—The princes or heads of the tribes. Num. 7 : 2, 3.

12. Why had not the sons of Kohath any wagons allotted to them?—Because their burdens were carried on their shoulders.

13. What part of the tabernacle did they carry?—The holy things of the tabernacle. Num. 4 : 2–15.

14. What did each of the princes of Israel offer as a gift to the service of the tabernacle?—Gold and silver vessels and animals for sacrifice. Num. 7.

15. What direction did the Lord give Moses as to making trumpets?—That they should be of silver, and be used for assembling and for marching in journeys or in war. Num. 10 : 1–10.

16. On which day did the cloud move? – On the twentieth day of the second month of the second year. Num. 10 : 11.

17. Of what was the moving of the cloud to inform the Israelites?—That they were to proceed on their journey. Num. 9 : 17.

18. When the first alarm of the trumpets was given, which tribes marched first?—Judah, Issachar and Zebulun.

19. How many encamped on the east of the tabernacle? The above three. Num. 2 : 3–9.

20. What immediately followed these three tribes?—The tabernacle. Num. 10 : 17; 7 : 7, 8.

21. Which three tribes followed these wagons?—Reuben, Simeon and Gad. Num. 10 : 18–20.

22. What part of the tabernacle went next?—The sanctuary. Num. 10 : 21.

23. Name the six tribes that followed.—Ephraim, Manasseh and Benjamin; Dan, Asher and Naphtali.

24. Whom did Moses entreat to accompany them?—Hobab, his father-in-law. Num. 10 : 29.

25. Did he not at first refuse?—He did. Num. 10 : 30.

26. What proofs have we afterward that he changed his mind and went with the Israelites into the promised land?—The children of the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people. Judg. 1 : 16. Now Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the plain of Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh. Judg. 4 : 11.

27. To what family did Jonadab, mentioned in 2 Kings 10 and Jer. 35, belong?—To the Kenites, that came of Hemath, the father of Rechab. 1 Chron. 2 : 55; 2 Kings 10 : 15.

28. When all was ready for marching what beautiful prayer did Moses offer?—Rise up, Lord, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee. Num. 10 : 35.

29. And what when the ark rested again?—Return, O Lord, unto the many thousands of Israel. Num. 10 : 36.

Transgressions. (Num. 11.)

1. By what were the children of Israel in the wilderness chiefly distinguished?—By their repeated rebellions against God. Heb. 3 : 8–12; Ps. 106 : 7, 8, 13–46.

2. Of what should their sad history warn us?—Of the sad consequences of sin.

3. On what did the Lord feed Israel while at Sinai?—On manna.

4. Ought they not, then, to have trusted God on their journey? Did they?—They ungratefully and discontentedly desired a change of food. Num. 11 : 1–6.

5. How were they punished?—Many of them were destroyed by fire; and others were diseased by the quails that were sent in answer to their demand for flesh to eat.

6. Did not Moses feel their continual provocation too much for him?—He complained to God of the burden it was to him. Num. 11 : 11–15.

7. How did the Lord assist him?—He appointed seventy elders to assist him. Num. 11 : 16, 17.

8. How did Joshua show his affection for his master and zeal for his honor?—By telling him of two men who seemed to be unlawfully exercising the authority of Moses in the camp. Num. 11 : 26–28.

9. What was Moses' beautiful reply?—Enviest thou for my sake? Would God that all the Lord's people were prophets (or true teachers), and that the Lord would put his Spirit upon them!

10. How did the people behave when they had got the food they coveted?—They probably indulged in it to excess, forgetting the warning in Num. 11 : 20.

11. How did the Lord punish them for their sin?—The quails produced a disease or plague among them. Num. 11 : 19, 20, 33. See No. 5.

12. What lessons should we reap from their transgressions?—With many of them God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. 1 Cor. 10 : 5, 6.

Miriam's Sin and Punishment. (Num. 12.)

1. What affecting proof have we here that Rom. 3 : 10 is true?—The sin of Miriam and Aaron shows that there is none righteous, no, not one.

2. What was the sin of Miriam and Aaron?—They claimed equal authority with Moses himself. Num. 12 : 2.

3. What special favor had God given to Moses?—More friendly conversation with himself and a near view of his glory. Num. 12 : 8.

4. Ought any one aspire to a station in which God has not placed him?—St. Paul said: I have learned, in whatsover state I am, therewith to be content; and, Godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content. 1 Tim. 6 : 6–8.

5. What special proof did God give of his displeasure?—He made Miriam a leper. Num. 12 : 10.

6. Who pleaded for Miriam?—Aaron with Moses, and Moses with God. Num. 12 : 11, 13.

7. How did the Lord mitigate her punishment?—By removing her disease in seven days. Num. 12 : 14, 15.

8. Of what was her punishment the type?—Of the loathsomeness of sin in the eyes of God.

9. In what way did the Lord permit the whole camp to sympathize with Miriam?—By not requiring them to go on their way until she was restored.

The Report of the Spies.

1. Where were the children of Israel at this time?—In the wilderness of Paran. Ex. 12 : 16; 13 : 3.

2. Was it far from the land of Canaan?—One end of it was near to Judah.

3. What did God command Moses to do?—To send men to search the land of Canaan. Num. 13 : 2.

4. Whom did Moses select for this errand?—Heads of the tribes.

5. What change did he make in the name of one of them?—He called Oshea, the son of Nun, Jehoshua or Joshua. Num. 13 : 16.

6. Give the meaning of the name before and after the change, and then say of whom he was the type.—"Help" before, and "help of Jehovah" or "Saviour" after—a type of Christ the Saviour.

7. To whom did Jacob refer in Gen. 49 : 24?—To Joseph, another type of Christ.

8. How long were they in searching the land?—Forty days.

9. What report did they bring?—That the land flowed with milk and honey, but that the inhabitants were giants and the cities great and walled. Num. 13 : 26–28, 31–33.

10. Did all the twelve join in the cowardly report?—All but Caleb and Joshua. Num. 13 : 30; 14 : 6–9.

11. What effect did this have on the people?—They were in great distress, and proposed returning to Egypt. Num. 14 : 1–4.

12. How did Moses and Aaron act?—They fell on their faces in humiliation and intercessory prayer. Num. 14 : 5.

13. What did Caleb and Joshua say?—That the Lord was with Israel, and that they had nothing to fear from the inhabitants of the land. Num. 14 : 6–9.

14. Who appeared at the moment when they were about to be stoned?—God himself in his glory. Num. 14 : 10.

15. What did he propose to Moses?—To disinherit Israel, and to make of Moses a mightier nation than theirs. Num. 14 : 11, 12.

16. Did Moses accept this great honor?—No; he pleaded for their pardon instead.

17. What special mercy did the Lord promise to Caleb and Joshua?—That they alone should enter the land of Canaan. Num. 14 : 30.

18. How did he punish the ten rebels?—They died of the plague. Num. 14 : 37.

19. What punishment did the Lord lay on the whole congregation?—To wander forty years in the wilderness till they died. Num. 14 : 33.

20. Of what foolish act were they guilty next day?—They entered the land before the time.

21. How were they punished?—They were attacked and driven back. Num. 14 : 40–45.

The Sabbath-breaker, the Sin of Korah, and the Budding Rod. (Num. 15, 16, 17.)

1. Of what sin was a man found guilty about this time?—Of gathering sticks upon the Sabbath-day. Num. 15 : 32.

2. What did they do with him?—They brought him to Moses. Num. 15 : 33.

3. How was he punished?—He was stoned to death by God's command. Num. 15 : 35, 36.

4. Had not God already declared his mind about this sin?—Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death; for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. Ex. 31 : 14.

5. Had he here said how the man was to be put to death?—He had not.

6. Does this not show us that Moses acted in everything immediately under the Lord's direction?—It does. Num. 15 : 34, 35.

7. What did the Lord order the people to make, that they might keep in remembrance his commandments?—A blue fringed ribbon on the borders of their garments. Num. 15 : 38–40.

8. Who was Korah?—A Levite. Num. 16 : 8.

9. Who were Dathan and Abiram, On and Peleth?—Of the tribe of Reuben. Num. 16 : 1.

10. What sin did they commit?—They rebelled against the authority of Moses and Aaron. Num. 16 : 3.

11. Had they not lately had a warning of this very sin in Miriam's case?—The very same. Num. 12.

12. What did Moses propose for these men to do, to prove whether God accepted them as priests or not?—That they should come to the tabernacle, burning incense, to see if God would accept them. Num. 16 : 7, 18.

13. In what way did God at once manifest his displeasure?—By commanding Moses and Aaron and the congregation to keep away from the rebellious company and their habitations (Num. 16 : 20–24), when the earth opened and swallowed them up. Num. 16 : 31–33.

14. How did the two hundred and fifty men who had thus trangressed die?—A fire from the Lord consumed them. Num. 16 : 35.

15. Did this still the murmurings of the people?—The people then charged Moses and Aaron with killing the people of the Lord. Num. 16 : 41.

16. What happened the next day?—See No. 15.

17. How did God again appear to vindicate the honor of his own appointed priesthood?—Above fourteen thousand were struck dead by the plague. Num. 16 : 49.

18. What did Moses command Aaron to do to avert the judgment he felt was about to fall on the people?—To burn incense and make an atonement. Num. 16 : 46.

19. Did God accept the service and own the act?—He immediately stopped the plague. Num. 16 : 47, 48.

20. Of whom was Aaron the type?—Of Christ, our ever-living Intercessor.

21. And of what was incense the type?—The prayers of saints. Rev. 5 : 8.

22. What was done with the censers of the rebels?—They were beaten into plates to cover the altar, as a memorial of their sin. Num. 16 : 38–40.

23. How did the Lord himself show whom he had chosen?—By causing Aaron's rod to bud. Ex. 17 : 1–10.

24. And what proof has he given to us that Jesus "is able to save to the uttermost" all that put their trust in him?—By raising him from the dead. Acts 17 : 31.

25. Of what was the budding rod a type?—Of the resurrection and eternal life of Christ.

26. Why is resurrection a proof that Jesus is the Son of God?—Because he laid down his life and took it again by his divine power. Acts 2.

27. Could any one less than God atone for sin?—No, for sin is against God. "Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift!"

The Sin of Moses and Aaron; Aaron and Miriam's Death. (Num. 20.)

1. Where did Miriam die?—At Kadesh, in the desert of Zin. Num. 20 : 1.

2. What trial of their faith did the children of Israel have here?—The want of water. Num. 20 : 2.

3. How did they behave?—They reproached Moses for it. Num. 20 : 2–5.

4. What did the Lord command Moses to do?—To speak to the rock before the people, and it should give forth water.

5. How did Moses in this matter dishonor the Lord?—He spoke as if he and Aaron, by their own power, would bring the water out; and he also struck the rock. Num. 20 : 10, 11.

6. What punishment did he and Aaron bring upon themselves for this sin?—They were not allowed to enter the promised land. Num. 20 : 12.

7. How many times did Moses mention this in his after writings?—Five times: Num. 27 : 14; Deut. 1 : 37; 3 : 26; 31 : 2; 32 : 51.

8. Did the Lord alter his purpose?—No.

9. How did the Edomites behave at this time to the children of Israel?—They ungraciously refused them a passage through their land. Num. 20 : 14–21.

10. From whom had the Edomites descended?—From "Esau, who was Edom." Gen. 36 : 1.

11. Why were they called by this name?—Esau was called Edom, or "red," from the red pottage he got from Jacob. Gen. 25 : 30.

12. What event happened at Mount Hor?—The death of Aaron. Num. 20 : 22–29.

13. What solemnity attended it?—The removal, first, of his priestly robes, and putting them on Eleazar his son.

14. What mark of respect did the children of Israel pay to the memory of Aaron?—They mourned for him thirty days.

15. Of whom was Aaron a type?—Of Jesus our great High Priest.

16. What is the meaning of consecrated?—Set apart for the service of God.

17. How was Aaron a type of Jesus in this?—Jesus was anointed by the Holy Ghost, sanctified or set apart for his atoning and interceding work.

18. What is the meaning of the name Christ?—Anointed.

19. Where is Jesus spoken of as Intercessor?—Jesus, . . . because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. Heb. 7 : 22, 24, 25.

20. Which of the apostles had a vision of Jesus dressed in priestly garments?—John, in Rev. 1 : 12, 13.

21. How is the Lord Jesus described in Heb. 4 : 14 16?—As a great High Priest. Seeing, then, that we have a great High Priest that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God.

22. Read Ps. 89 : 15 and 119 : 103, and say what part of Aaron's robe set these forth?—The "golden bells and the pomegranates" "upon the hem" of it. Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound! they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance. How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth. Ex. 28 : 34.

23. Is the perfume of Aaron's garments ever spoken of in connection with the Lord Jesus?—All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad. Ps. 45 : 8.

24. In how many respects does the priesthood of the Lord Jesus excel the priesthood of Aaron?—In its divinity and duration, Christ being God and a Priest for ever.

25. What higher order of priesthood is compared to the priesthood of the Lord Jesus Christ?—The priesthood of Melchizedek, which seemed to be everlasting, nothing being said in Scripture of his birth and death. Heb. 5, 6, 7.

The Brazen Serpent. (Num. 21 : 1–9.)

1. Who came and fought with Israel?—King Arad, the Canaanite.
2. Which army was victorious?—The Israelites'.
3. How came it about?—Because they made a vow unto God to destroy the Canaanites if he gave them the victory.
4. Why were the people obliged to take such a long way round?—To avoid the land of Edom. Num. 20 : 21.
5. How did they meet this trouble?—They were much discouraged, and complained of the want of bread and water.
6. How did the Lord punish them?—By means of fiery serpents—fiery in their color or their bite.
7. What remedy was Moses commanded to prepare?—A serpent of brass upon a pole, that the people might look upon it and live.
8. Of whom was this a type?—Of Christ.
9. How?—As the sinner may look upon him crucified, and live.
10. Of what wicked spirit are the serpents a type?—Of that old serpent, the devil.
11. Are we all in the same danger?—We are.
12. What is our remedy?—To look unto Christ by faith.
13. What is faith?—Faith in Christ is looking to him, fleeing to him, coming to him, apprehending or laying hold on him, trusting in him, leaning upon him.

Balaam. (Num. 21 : 10–35; 22–26; and 31 : 1–8.)

1. How far had the children of Israel got on their journey?—To the wilderness before Moab.
2. Where was Moab?—On the east side on the Jordan.

10. Why did Balak desire so much to see him?—To get him to curse the Israelites, so that he might overcome them. Num. 22 : 6.
11. Did Balaam desire to go?—Yes, as the rewards that were offered him tempted his covetousness.
12. What hindered him?—The command of God. Num. 22 : 12.
13. Did God permit him to have his own way?—Yes. Num. 22 : 20.
14. Did that show that God was pleased with the errand?—No; but it gave him an opportunity of showing his power over him in a more public and striking manner. Num. 23 : 7–12.
15. How did God show his disapprobation?—By sending his angel to stop him on his way. Num. 22 : 22.
16. Did God send Balaam back, or permit him to go on?—He let him go on. Num. 22 : 35.
17. Had Balaam any power when he got there?—Only to say what God told him. Num. 22 : 38.
18. Did he try by divination to accomplish Balak's wish?—Yes, while Balak offered sacrifice. Num. 23 : 3, 15, 23; 24 : 1.
19. Did it succeed?—No; God made him utter a blessing instead of a curse. Num. 23 : 8–10, 20–24; 24 : 2–9.
20. How did Balak feel when he found he had brought a blessing instead of a curse on his enemies?—He was angry with Balaam. Num. 24 : 10.
21. When Balaam found that he could not prevail by enchantment, did he yield himself to the power of God?—Yes. Num. 24 : 13, 14.
22. What beautiful prophecy did he utter of the glory of the Lord Jesus?—I see him, but not now (not as already come); I behold him, etc. Num. 24 : 17.
23. How did he show he was a bad man?—By his infamous advice to Balak to tempt the children of Israel to sin.
24. What was his end?—He was killed by the Israelites in battle with the Midianites. Num. 31 : 8.
25. Of whom is he a type?—Of the enemies of God.
26. Is he mentioned in the New Testament?—Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and run greedily after the error of Balaam for reward. Jude 11.

The Cities of Refuge. (Num. 26 and 27; 31–35.)

1. What does chap. 26 record?—The numbering of the Israelites.
2. After the numbering how many men were left of those who came out of Egypt with Moses?—Only two, Caleb and Joshua. Num. 26 : 65.
3. How was this?—God had said that all the rest should die in the wilderness. Num. 26 : 65.
4. What lesson should it teach us?—To beware of unbelief. Heb. 3 : 7–19.
5. What kind arrangement did the Lord make for one family when all the men of it were dead?—That the property of the father should go to his daughters. Num. 27 : 1–11.

9. How does Jacob allude to him and to the Lord Jesus (of whom Joshua was a type) in Gen. 49 : 24?—His bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob (from thence is the shepherd, the stone of Israel).
10. What does chap. 31 describe?—The defeat of the Midianites.
11. How was the spoil to be purified?—By fire or by water.
12. To what is the judgment of the last day compared?—1 Cor. 3 : 13–15.
13. Which of the children of Israel had their inheritance on the east of the Jordan?—Reuben, Gad and half the tribe of Manasseh. Num. 32.
14. What do chaps. 33 and 34 describe?—The forty-two stages of the journey through the wilderness, and the boundaries of Canaan, and the officers appointed to divide it.
15. How many cities out of the tribes of Israel were to be given to the Levites?—Forty-eight. Num. 35 : 7.
16. For what purpose were six of these cities to be separated?—For cities of refuge. Num. 35 : 6.
17. Who had the privilege of fleeing thither?—Any one who had accidentally killed another. Num. 35 : 11, 12, 24–28.
18. Was there any protection to be afforded to the murderer?—No. Num. 35 : 16–21.
19. In what relationship did the "revenger of blood" stand to the slain person?—Next of kin.
20. How many witnesses were necessary to prove the wicked deed?—Two.
21. What event released the manslayer from the city of refuge, and permitted him to go at large again without fear of death?—The death of the high priest. Num. 35 : 25.
22. Of whom were those cities of refuge a type?—Of Christ, the sinner's refuge from Satan and the wrath to come.
23. Can you describe where those cities of refuge stood?—Three on the east of Jordan, in the tribes of Reuben, Gad and Manasseh; and three on the west, in Galilee, Samaria and Judah. Deut. 4 : 41–43.

> And they appointed Kedesh in Galilee in Mount Naphtali, and Shechem in Mount Ephraim, and Kirjath-arba, which is Hebron, in the mountain of Judah. Josh. 20 : 7.

24. Were they in valleys or on hills?—On hills.
25. Why was this?—So as to be more easily seen.
26. Of whom is the manslayer a type?—Of Satan, the great enemy of souls.
27. How can we be said to be manslayers?—By the self-destruction of sin.

> O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself; but in me is thine help. Hos. 13 : 9.

28. Who is represented by the way to those cities?—Jesus Christ.

> I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. John 14 : 6.
> By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh. Heb. 10 : 20.

29. Of what is the avenger a type?—Of the law, which requires us to do or die. Rom. 3 : 9–19; Gal. 3 : 22–24.
30. Are we all conscious of our danger?—Sinners are dead in sin, and both wise and foolish often slumber and sleep.
31. Who must arouse us?—Christ, by his awakening and enlightening Spirit. John 16 : 7–9; Eph. 5 : 13, 14.
32. Are there any hinderances in the way?—None from Christ himself.

> Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Matt. 11 : 28.

33. To what is allusion made in Ps. 9 : 9; 57 : 1; 59 : 16; 61 : 4; 62 : 7, 8; 71 : 7; 91 : 1, 2; 142 : 4, 5?—To the refuge we have in God, through Christ.

> The Lord also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble. Ps. 9 : 9.
> Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast. Ps. 57 : 1.

Deuteronomy. (Deuteronomy.)

1. When was the book of Deuteronomy written?—A little before Moses' death. Deut. 1 : 3.

4. Of what is the wilderness a type?—Of the world.

5. Of what is the river Jordan a type?—Of death.

6. Of what was the ark a type?—Of Christ, by whom we pass safely through the Jordan of death.

7. Of what were the stones that they took from the river a type?—Of memories in heaven, of mercies and deliverances on earth.

8. When Jesus was born in Bethlehem, did he come as a warrior?—No.

9. To what coming, then, does this type refer?—His coming to judgment.

10. Where is the Lord's second coming spoken of as a day of terror to his enemies?—Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Rev. 1:7.

11. To what glorious prospect have the followers of Jesus to look forward?—The final triumph of Christ over all his and our enemies. Rev. 19:19–21.

The Taking of Jericho—the Scarlet Line. (Josh. 2, 5 and 6.)

1. Where did the city of Jericho stand?—Near the west side of the Jordan.

2. How did Joshua endeavor to ascertain the strength of the city?—By sending two spies.

3. How were these men treated in Jericho?—They were sheltered in the house of Rahab from the king of Jericho's messengers.

4. What promise did they make to the woman who had sheltered them?—To save the lives and property of her family on the taking of the city. Josh. 2:12–14.

5. Did she avail herself of the token they gave?—She did. Josh. 2:17–21.

6. What effect had their report on the people?—They were doubtless much encouraged.

7. What remarkable events happened on the plains of Jericho?—The keeping of the Passover, the ceasing of the manna, the appearance of a heavenly Being to Joshua.

8. Who appeared to Joshua when he was under the walls of Jericho?—The Son of God.

9. Did Joshua perceive, at first, who it was?—No; he merely saw an armed man.

10. How did he find it out?—By his saying he was Captain of the Lord's host.

11. What directions did the Lord give him as to the taking of the city?—To march round it with the ark and blowing of trumpets, and at last with a shout. Josh. 6:3–5.

12. Did he and Israel obey the Lord?—Yes. Josh. 6:8–16, 20.

13. What was the result?—The wall fell down flat, and the city was taken and destroyed. Josh. 6:20, 21, 24.

14. Did Rahab perish with the slain?—She was brought away safely. Josh. 6:23.

15. What was her preservation?—Her faith and the scarlet-cord token that she had been directed to use.

> By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace. Heb. 11:31.

16. Of what is the destruction of Jericho a type?—Of the destruction of all the enemies of God.

17. Are we interested in this?—Yes, as sinners.

18. How?—We are exposed to God's wrath, and deeply interested to know how we may be saved.

19. What does the Bible tell us must be our safeguard in the day of wrath. Rev. 7:13, 14.

20. Can we trust that word?—He is faithful that promised. Heb. 10:23.

21. Had Rahab any reason to regret her faith in the word of the spies?—No.

22. Are there many ways of escape, or only one?—There is none other Name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved. Acts 4:12.

23. Perhaps Rahab had been scoffed at for her scarlet line; did that deter her from trusting in it?—No.

24. Should the laugh and jeer of the world hinder us from trusting to the blood of Jesus for safety?—The believer will enter into eternal joy, when the laughter ends in weeping and gnashing of teeth.

25. Was Rahab alone saved?—Her near relatives and her goods were saved with her. Josh. 6:22, 23.

26. If we know a place of safety, should not we tell others of the same?—It is our duty and privilege to do so.

27. How can we do so?—By telling them of Jesus Christ, and getting them to read and hear about him; and by living ourselves as those should do who know him and love him and enjoy him.

Achan's Sin, and the Taking of Ai. (Josh. 7 and 8.)

1. What special command was given to Israel at the destruction of Jericho?—To bring the silver and the gold into the treasury of the Lord. Josh. 6:18, 19.

2. Who transgressed this command?—Achan.

3. What punishment did this sin bring on all Israel?—A defeat by the men of Ai. Josh. 7.

4. How was the offender discovered?—By drawing lots under the guidance of God. Josh. 7:16–18.

5. To what honored tribe did he belong?—Judah. Josh. 7:1.

6. Did this preserve him?—No; honor and privilege often increase guilt.

7. What awful punishment was necessary to cleanse Israel from the sin Achan had brought on them?—The destruction of himself and his family and goods by stoning and by fire. Josh. 7:24, 25.

8. What view of God's character does this history give us?—His hatred of sin especially of "covetousness, which is idolatry;" and his severity to the impenitent sinner: "our God is a consuming fire." Heb. 12:29.

9. Will the riches of the sinner avail when God brings him into judgment?—Nothing at all.

10. Can we hide our sins from God?—O Lord, thou hast searched me, and know me. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways. Ps. 139:1–3.

11. When Achan's sin was wiped away, did God again give victory to Israel?—The city of Ai was taken and destroyed. Josh. 8.

12. Who bore the wrath of God and the punishment due to our sin?—Our Lord Jesus Christ.

13. Can God again smile on us?—Yes, in Christ Jesus, in whom he is "well pleased."

14. After the destruction of Ai what solemn act of obedience did Joshua perform?—He wrote the law upon stone, and read its blessings and its curses on Mounts Gerizim and Ebal. Josh. 8:30–35.

15. Where in the land of Canaan were those two mountains situated?—Near Samaria.

16. For what was Joshua remarkable as well as courage?—For obedience to the will of God.

17. Of whom was he a type in this?—Of Christ. Heb. 10:7.

The Gibeonites. (Josh. 9.)

1. How did the Gibeonites act when they saw the victories of the Israelites?—They sent to Joshua messengers, who pretended that the Gibeonites did not live in Canaan, so that Joshua might be at liberty to spare them.

2. Did they deceive Joshua and the elders of Israel?—Yes. Josh. 9:15.

3. How came Joshua to fail in this particular?—Because he had not asked God's direction. Josh. 9:14.

4. Who was the only Person who never failed?—Christ, who knew the hearts of men.

5. Were the Gibeonites spared?—Yes.

6. Why?—Because of the league made with them, confirmed by oath. Josh. 9:16, 19.

7. Was the Lord jealous when an oath was made in his name?—Yes, very. Num. 30:2.

8. What proof have we of this in the case of the Gibeonites in the after-history of Israel?—2 Sam. 21:1, 2.

9. To what service were the Gibeonites appointed?—To be hewers of wood and drawers of water. Josh. 9:21.

The Battle of the Five Kings. (Josh. 10.)

1. What did the rest of the kings of Canaan do when they found that the Gibeonites had made peace with Israel?—Five of them joined in war against Gibeon.

2. To whom did the Gibeonites appeal?—To Joshua. Josh. 10:6.

3. Who fought for and with Israel?—God did. Josh. 10:10, 11.

4. What signal proofs did the Lord give of this in the battle with those kings?—Showering heavy hailstones upon their enemies, and miraculously prolonging the light of the sun and of the moon upon the scene of battle and pursuit. Josh. 10:11–14.

5. Is this ever after referred to in Scripture?—The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear. Hab. 3:11.

6. Of what battle is this the type?—Of the spiritual warfare in every converted heart.

The Final Battle with the Kings of Canaan. (Josh. 11.)

1. What commandment had the Lord given relative to the destruction of the Canaanites?—Ex. 34:11–13; Deut. 7:1, 2.

2. Why did the Lord thus deal with these nations?—Their wickedness had reached its height.

> The iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full. Gen. 15:16.
> Thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. Deut. 18:9.

3. How is the host that mustered against Joshua described?—As being numerous as the sand upon the seashore. Josh. 11:4.

4. What great advantage had they over Israel?—The possession of chariots and horses.

5. And yet which conquered?—The Israelites, completely. Josh. 11:8.

6. How was this?—If God be for us, who can be against us? Rom. 8:31.

> The Lord is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me? Ps. 118:6–9.

7. What did Joshua do with the city of Hazor?—He burnt it with fire.

8. Why Hazor in particular?—Because it was the head of all the kingdoms he had fought with.

9. Was this the last battle that Joshua fought?—No; he had a long war afterward, till he took the whole land. Josh. 11:15–23.

Dividing the Land, and Death of Joshua. (Josh. 12–24.)

1. What did Joshua begin so soon as the land had rest from war?—To divide it among the tribes.

2. Where was the tabernacle set up?—At Shiloh. Josh. 18:1.

3. In which tribe was this?—Ephraim.

4. How many men did Joshua appoint to survey the land?—Three men from each of the last seven tribes. Josh. 18:4.

5. How was it divided?—By lot before the Lord. Josh. 18:6.

6. How were their portions registered?—In a book. Josh. 18:9.

7. Describe the position of all the tribes on the map.—Asher, half-Manasseh, Ephraim and Dan down the west coast, but Ephraim reaching to the Jordan; Naphtali, Zebulon, Issachar, Benjamin and Judah by the west border of the sea of Chinnereth, the Jordan and the Dead Sea; and Simeon below; half-Manasseh, Gad and Reuben on the east borders.

8. In which tribe had Joshua his inheritance?—Ephraim.

9. Why?—Because of his own choice. Josh. 19:49, 50.

10. What portion had Caleb?—Hebron. Josh. 14:12–14.

11. Why?—Because he chose it; and as he had wholly followed the Lord, Joshua confirmed his choice.

12. What was the next thing they did after dividing the land?—They appointed the cities of refuge.

13. Which tribe was it that had no portion of the land set apart for them?—Levi.

14. How were they provided for?—Forty-eight cities were assigned to them by the tribes.

15. How many tribes had their inheritance on the east of Jordan?—Reuben, Gad and half-Manasseh. Num. 32:33.

16. What part of these tribes passed over Jordan with their brethren?—The armed men. Josh. 1:14.

17. When did they return home to their families again?—After the end of the war and the division of the land. Josh. 22.

18. What unexpected act did they do which alarmed their brethren?—They built an altar of their own to the Lord. Josh. 22:10.

19. How did they explain it?—They had not built it for burnt-offering or sacrifice, but to remind them, and their children after them, of their connection with the true altar. Josh. 22:26, 27.

20. Was it satisfactory?—Quite. Josh. 22:30–33.

21. To what age had Joshua lived?—About one hundred and nine years.

22. What was the last act he performed?—He gave the elders of Israel (Josh. 23) a short history of their nation, and a solemn exhortation to renew their covenant with God. Josh. 24.

23. What solemn covenant did Israel enter into with him?—That they would serve idols no more. (Josh. 24:16–24.

24. Where did they make this covenant?—At Shechem. Josh. 24 : 1.

25. Where was Shechem?—In Ephraim, or Samaria.

26. What token of remembrance did Joshua set up there?—A stone of witness. Josh. 24 : 26, 27.

27. How old was Joshua when he died?—One hundred and ten years.

28. Where was he buried?—In Mount Ephraim. Josh. 24 : 30.

29. What other illustrious person was buried in Mount Ephraim?—Eleazar. Josh. 24 : 33.

The Judges.—Bochim, or Israel's Failure. (Judg. 1, 2.)

1. What is the meaning of the word Bochim?—"Weepers." Judg. 2 : 5, marg.

2. Why was the place so called?—Because the Israelites wept there.

3. What caused the weeping of Israel?—Sorrow for the sin for which an angel had rebuked them. Judg. 2 : 1–4.

4. How had they transgressed?—By neglecting their covenant to make no league with the Canaanites, but to throw down their altars.

5. Ought not the affecting history of Israel to lead us to look into our own hearts?—That is what we should do whenever we read or hear of the sins or the faults of others.

6. If we do, what shall we see there?—The seeds of the same sins.

7. Does God kindly admonish us as he did them?—Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. But exhort one another daily, while it is called to-day, lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. Heb. 3 : 12, 13.

8. Where?—See No. 7.

9. When we try ourselves by God's standard are we justly condemned?—We know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

10. To whom must we look for deliverance when the sins of our hearts, like the foes in Canaan, rise against us?—To Christ our Saviour, whose blood and Spirit can remove the guilt and power of sin.

Othniel, Ehud, Shamgar, Deborah and Barak. (Judg. 3–5.)

5. When they again repented, did God hear their prayer?—Yes.

6. Whom did he raise up to save them?—Ehud, a Benjamite. Judg. 3 : 15.

7. What was there remarkable about him?—He was left-handed.

8. How did this bring about the king of Moab's death?—It enabled Ehud to stab him in an unexpected manner. Judg. 3 : 21.

9. Did Israel avail themselves of his death to go against the Moabites?—Yes. Judg. 3 : 27, 28.

10. How many did they slay?—About ten thousand men. Judg. 3 : 29.

11. Who was Israel's third deliverer?—Shamgar. Judg. 3 : 31.

12. What marvelous feat of strength is recorded of him?—He slew six hundred Philistines with an ox-goad.

13. What city was it in the north of Canaan that Joshua utterly destroyed?—Hazor. Josh. 11 : 10, 11.

14. By whom was it rebuilt?—By Solomon. 1 Kings 9 : 15.

15. Of what is this a proof?—Of its importance as a fortress, and of disregard of the will of God.

16. Who was judge at this time, and prophetess also?—Deborah. Judg. 4 : 4.

17. Who was Barak?—A leader of the tribes of Zebulon and Naphtali. Judg. 4 : 6, 10.

18. Which appeared to have the most courage, Deborah or Barak?—Deborah, as Barak would not venture to fight without her. Judg. 4 : 8.

19. How was Barak reproved for his faint-heartedness?—By being told that the enemy's general would be given into the hands of a woman. Judg. 4 : 9.

20. What kind of army did the Canaanitish general muster?—Nine hundred chariots of iron formed part of it. Judg. 4 : 13.

21. What was that general's name?—Sisera. Judg. 4 : 7.

22. How came it that Israel conquered such a host?—The power of God was with them. Judg. 4 : 14, 15.

23. Who was Jael?—The wife of Heber. Judg. 4 : 17.

24. From what family had Heber, Jael's husband, descended?—The Kenites and Hobab. Judg. 4 : 11.

25. Was that an Israelitish family?—No; the Kenites were one of the families or nations promised to Abraham's seed, but Hobab's family was settled in Israel.

26. Was this why Sisera took shelter in their tent?—He took shelter with them because they were at peace with Jabin his master. Judg. 4 : 17.

27. Which side of the battle did Heber favor?—The Israelites'. Judg. 4 : 11.

28. What proof did his wife give of this?—She killed Sisera. Judg. 4 : 21.

29. Which side did the Lord take?—The Israelites'. Judg. 4 : 14, 15. (No. 22.)

30. As this battle is a type of the spiritual warfare that goes on in the soul, what should we do with an enemy to God that we may find hiding in our bosoms?—Overcome and destroy it.

31. Who delivered Sisera into Jael's hand?—The Lord himself. Judg. 4 : 9.

32. Who helps us if we desire to conquer our evil passions?—The grace of God is sufficient for us.

33. To what evil in our hearts can we compare Sisera with his nine hundred chariots of iron?—To our chief evil passion or temptation, whatever it may be.

34. To whom did Deborah and Barak give the glory of the victory in their beautiful song?—To God. Judg. 5 : 2.

35. What fearful curse did they pronounce on those who would not assist in this battle?—Read Judg. 5 : 23.

36. And what will be our condemnation if we are indifferent to those momentous concerns?—We shall suffer with the enemies of God, as those who are not with him are against him.

Gideon. (Judg. 6–8.)

1. How came it after this that Israel got into trouble again?—They did evil in the sight of the Lord. Judg. 6 : 1.

2. Whom did the Lord permit to be their scourge at this time?—The Midianites and the Amalekites. Judg. 6 : 3.

3. To what miserable plight were the Israelites reduced?—They were left without food. Judg. 6 : 4.

4. On which side of Israel did these two nations lie?—The Midianites on the south-east, and the Amalekites on the south-west.

5. Where was Gaza?—In the land of the Philistines.

6. What means did the children of Israel at last use to free themselves from their great affliction?—They cried unto the Lord. Judg. 6 : 7.

7. Did the Lord hear them?—He sent a prophet to them, and afterward a deliverer, Gideon. Judg. 6 : 7–12.

8. Who was Gideon? Of what tribe and family?—A warrior, of the tribe of Manasseh and family of the Abiezrites.

9. Who appeared to him?—An angel (Judg. 6 : 11), or, rather, the Angel Son of God. Judg. 6 : 14.

10. What was he doing?—Threshing wheat.

11. Did he at first know who addressed him?—No; he did not address his visitor at first as God. Judg. 6 : 13, 17.

12. How did he find it out?—By the divine Angel's causing fire out of the rock to consume the food set before him (Judg. 6 : 21), and also by the language he used. Judg. 6 : 16.

13. What were his feelings?—Those of deep humility and conscious sinfulness. Judg. 6 : 22.

14. Had he any cause for fear?—Doubtless he was an Israelite indeed in whom was no guile, and as such he had nothing to fear.

15. What makes man in general afraid of God?—The consciousness of unrepented sin. Gen. 3 : 9, 10.

16. What has the Lord provided to remove our fear, of which Gideon's offering was a type?—The accepted sacrifice of Christ.

17. Who has power to speak "peace" to the soul?—He who said to the sick of the palsy, "Thy sins be forgiven thee."

18. What was Gideon's first act of faith?—To throw down the altar of Baal. Judg. 6 : 25–30.

19. Did he get killed for fulfilling God's will?—No; Joash his father prevented it by wisely saying that if Baal were a god he could punish him himself. Judg. 6 : 31, 32.

20. How was his own father's heart influenced by the act?—See No. 19.

21. How does God reward those who honor his word?—He says, "Them that honor me I will honor."

22. What name of honor did Gideon get for this act?—Jerubbaal, or "let Baal plead" against him. Judg. 6 : 32.

23. Describe the army that was at this time gathered against Israel?—The Midianites, Amalekites and other eastern nations. Judg. 6 : 33.

24. What mighty power rested on Gideon at this time?—The Spirit of the Lord. Judg. 6 : 34.

25. Was he entirely without fear?—No, for he asked God to give him a private token of his power. Judg. 6 : 36–40.

26. How did he prove that God was a hearer and answerer of prayer?—By the sign of the wet fleece on the dry ground, and of the dry fleece on the wet ground.

27. Does God change, or is he as near to us and as ready to hear us as he was near to Gideon and ready and willing to hear him?—Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. James 1 : 17. Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever. Heb. 13 : 8.

28. When Gideon blew his trumpet, how many came after him?—Thirty-two thousand. Judg. 6 : 34; 7 : 3.

29. Did the Lord intend to use so many to destroy the enemy?—No, not even ten thousand.

30. What sign did the Lord give to Gideon whereby he should know how many and which he had chosen?—Their two different ways of taking or drinking water on a particular occasion. Judg. 7 : 4, 5.

31. How many remained with Gideon after this selection?—Three hundred men, who took the water in the quicker manner.

32. How many were sent to their homes again?—Nine thousand seven hundred.

33. Must this not have been a great trial to Gideon's faith?—No doubt it was. 1 Pet. 1 : 7.

34. Did it fail?—No, for God strengthened it. Judg. 7 : 7, 9, 14; Heb. 11 : 32–34.

35. What great encouragement did the Lord give Gideon just before he and his three hundred men went down to battle?—A dream of one of the soldiers. Judg. 7 : 13, 14.

36. What effect had this man's dream on Gideon?—He praised God, and immediately prepared his men. Judg. 7 : 15, 16.

37. What effect did it have on his own people?—The same as on Gideon himself. Judg. 7 : 14, 20.

38. Is the Lord ever at a loss for means to effect his purpose?—Never.

39. What plan was adopted to surprise the enemy?—The unusual one of suddenly blowing trumpets and exposing a line of lights all round the enemy's camp in the middle of the night. Judg. 7 : 16–20.

40. Did it answer? Why?—Yes, because God was trusted in, and God blessed it.

41. Of what were the lamps and pitchers a type?—Of God's faithful ministers, and the light of truth they possess and hold forth.

> We have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. 2 Cor. 4 : 7.

42. Does God always work by means?—He does, and we in our difficulties should use both prayer and means.

43. Who tells us that he is "the light of the world"?—Jesus Christ, in John 8 : 12.

44. Whom does God appoint to hold up that light?—His ministers especially, by their preaching and their example.

45. Are not all Christians charged to do it?—They are in Christ's sermon on the mount.

> Ye are the light of the world. Matt. 5 : 14.

46. Whose mighty power is it that must accompany the word for it to be effectual?—The Spirit of truth. John 16 : 13.

47. Why had Gideon's trumpets and his lamps such a wonderful effect on the enemy?—Because God worked with them and by them, and made the Midianites slay each other. Judg. 7 : 22.

48. On whom must we depend if we are to overcome and conquer our spiritual foes?—On the same almighty power.

49. Was Gideon conqueror?—Yes, completely. Judg. 7 : 22–25.

50. Shall we be?—We certainly shall.

If God be for us, who can be against us? Rom. 8 : 31.

I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. Phil. 4 : 13.

51. How was Gideon treated after this victory by his fellow-countrymen when he was faint and weary?—They refused food to him and his men. Judg. 8 : 4–6.

52. Did they afterward desire to honor him?—They wished him to be their king. Judg. 8 : 22.

53. Would he accept the kingly office?—He declined it, as God had not yet appointed that form of government for Israel. Judg. 8 : 23.

54. Yet what did he desire of them?—The golden earrings taken from their enemies. Judg. 8 : 24–26.

55. What effect did this have on his family?—Gideon made the earrings into an ephod (an important part of the dress of the high priest as an intercessor with God. Ex. 28), and kept it in his city of Ophrah, where the people paid it some idolatrous worship, and brought temptation and punishment upon his family. Judg. 8 : 27.

Abimelech, or the Contrast. (Judg. 9.)

1. Who was Abimelech?—A son of Gideon. Judg. 9 : 1.

2. Was his course an honorable one, like that of his father?—No; he basely plotted to be made king. Judg. 9 : 2.

3. Of what awful crime was he guilty?—He slew his brethren. Judg. 9 : 5.

4. Did either escape?—Jotham alone.

5. What parable did Jotham utter?—He spoke of the useful trees, as the olive, the fig and the vine, refusing to be placed over the rest; and of the worthless bramble, as the only one that desired it. Judg. 9 : 8–15.

6. Can you explain the meaning of this simile as it respects Abimelech?—That part of it which speaks of the bramble represents the character and end of Abimelech. Judg. 9 : 52–57.

7. Of what are the olive, vine and fig tree types?—Together they are types of useful, amiable, wise and humble-minded men.

8. Was it fulfilled? How?—The parable was fulfilled in the foolish choice of Abimelech by the Shechemites, in the violent quarrels between them, and the destruction of both. Judg. 9 : 15, 20, 23, 49, 52, 54.

9. Where did all this shameful scene take place?—At Shechem.

10. What remarkable events had rendered this spot peculiarly hallowed?—The visit of Abraham on reaching Canaan, the reading of the law (Josh. 9), and the renewal of the covenant. Josh. 24.

11. How did it stand with regard to the two mountains of blessing and cursing spoken of in Deut. 27 and in Josh. 8?—In a narrow plain between them.

12. How near was it to Shiloh, where the tabernacle was pitched?—About twenty miles.

13. What must an idol temple built on this spot be a proof of?—That the Israelites had not yet conquered the whole country and destroyed its idols. Judg. 9 : 4–6.

14. Has Jotham's parable anything to do with us?—Yes, for all Scripture is given by inspiration of God. Tim. 3 : 16.

15. Who in Scripture are compared to fruit trees?—God's own people.

I am the vine, ye are the branches. John 15 : 5.

16. Who are represented by the bramble?—The wicked.

17. What is expected of fruit trees?—That they should bring forth fruit.

18. What has the bramble or thorn to expect?—To be burned. Isa. 30 : 12; 2 Sam. 23 : 6, 7.

19. How is the hypocrite known from the true Christian?—Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Matt. 7 : 16.

20. What should our prayer be?—Search me, O God, and know my heart. Ps. 139 : 23.

Tola, Jair, Jephthah, Ibzan, Elon and Abdon. (Judg. 10–12.)

1. Give me the name of the next judge of Israel.—Tola. Judg. 10 : 1.

2. How long did he judge Israel?—Twenty-three years.

3. Who succeeded him?—Jair.

4. How is his family described?—As riding on asscolts as deputy-judges. Judg. 5 : 10; 10 : 4.

5. From whom did he get this inheritance?—The children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it, and dispossessed the Amorite which was in it. And Moses gave Gilead unto Machir the son of Manasseh; and he dwelt therein. And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took the small towns thereof, and called them Havoth-jair. Num. 32 : 39–41.

6. How long did he judge Israel?—Twenty-two years.

7. How many idols are enumerated here which Israel at this time worshiped?—Baalim and Ashtaroth, and the gods of five nations besides. Judg. 10 : 6.

8. What had God commanded Israel with respect to this awful sin?—Ye shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a standing image, neither shall ye set up any image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the Lord your God. Lev. 26 : 1, 14, 17.

9. How did he punish them?—By delivering them into the hands of the Philistines and Ammonites for eighteen years. Judg. 10 : 7, 8.

10. When they prayed to the Lord did he hear them?—No; he charged them with their ingratitude and idolatry. Judg. 10 : 10–14.

11. Did he at once deliver them?—See No. 10.

12. Did he convince them of their sin?—Yes; they confessed their guilt. Judg. 10 : 15.

13. When God had convinced them of their sin, and they were humbled on account of it, did they forsake it?—Yes; they put away their strange gods.

14. How?—See No. 13.

15. What did the Lord then feel for them?—His soul was grieved for their misery.

16. Who was Jephthah?—A great warrior of Gilead. Judg. 11 : 1.

17. On which side of the land of Israel was the land of the Ammonites?—On the east.

18. Where was Gilead?—In the neighboring tribe of Gad.

19. Why did the men of Gilead choose Jephthah to be their captain?—Because he was likely to lead them to victory.

20. On what conditions did Jephthah accept the office?—That he should be their head on his return. Judg. 11 : 9.

21. What vow did Jephthah make before he went to battle?—That if he were victorious, whoever came forth first out of his house to meet him on his return should be given up (like Samuel) to God's service for life, and that he would offer to the Lord a burnt-offering besides. Judg. 11 : 30, 31.

22. Who came out first to meet him?—His daughter and only child. Judg. 11 : 34.

23. What did Jephthah feel and say when he saw his only child?—He was deeply distressed, and told her of his vow. Judg. 11 : 35.

24. What was her beautiful answer?—That as God had given him victory he must do to her according to his vow. Judg. 11 : 36.

25. What law of God was there to regulate what Jephthah said under these circumstances?—That the subject of the vow might be redeemed by a payment in money. Lev. 27 : 2–5.

26. What difference was there between "a vow" and a "devoted thing"?—A thing devoted by some more solemn consecration than a vow could not be redeemed.

27. For how much did Jephthah redeem his daughter if he did not slay her for an offering?—About $5 or $15, according to her age.

28. Why do we think he redeemed her?—Because her friends went every year to lament her separation from them or to talk with her. Judg. 11 : 40, margin.

29. Why was it a great grief for any woman in Israel to be childless?—Because she might be the mother or ancestress of the Messiah, the promised seed of the woman that was to bruise the serpent's head. Gen. 3 : 15.

30. Do you think that Jephthah valued the honor which he had sought, of being the head of his tribe, after this mournful event?—Probably not, as it had cost him the society of his only child; but he would still value the office of judge conferred on him by God.

31. Can any honor or pleasure in this world give satisfaction in itself?—No; nothing in the world that is passing away.

32. What proof did Jephthah give of his knowledge of the Scripture history when he met the king of Ammon before the battle?—He told him how it was that the Israelites became possessed of the land that the king was unlawfully claiming from them. Judg. 11 : 12–28.

33. Where must our strength lie when we go against our spiritual foes?—In the Lord and the power of his might. Eph. 6 : 10.

34. What weapons did the Lord Jesus Christ use when he met Satan?—The sword of the Spirit, the word of God. Eph. 6 : 17. It is written. Matt. 4 : 4, 7, 10.

35. What is "the word of God" called in Heb. 4 : 12?—Quick (or living) and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword.

36. By what shall we be judged at the last day?—The word that Christ has spoken.

37. What painful circumstance arose from the jealousy of the Ephraimites?—A quarrel with Jephthah, whom they had before unkindly treated, and a consequent defeat by him in battle with great slaughter. Judg. 12 : 1, 6.

38. How long did Jephthah hold his honors?—Six years.

39. Who judged Israel after Jephthah?—Ibzan.

40. For how long?—Seven years.

41. Who succeeded Ibzan?—Elon.

42. How long did he judge Israel?—Ten years.

43. Who followed Elon?—Abdon.

44. How many sons and nephews had he?—Seventy sons and nephews or grandsons.

45. Was not this considered a great honor in Israel?—Yes, as increasing the likelihood of being the ancestor of the Messiah.

46. Why?—See No. 45.

47. What higher honor had Jephthah than even being the ancestor of the Messiah?—The honor of being named with David and Samuel and the prophets in the roll of heroes and martyrs in the cause of God. Heb. 11 : 32.

Samson. (Judg. 13–17.)

1. Who was Samson?—One of the tribe of Dan. Judg. 13 : 1.

2. What remarkable circumstance took place before his birth?—The angel of the Lord appearing to his mother, and telling her that she should have a son, who should be a Nazarite unto God, and deliver Israel from the Philistines. Judg. 13 : 2–5.

3. What was the name of Samson's father?—Manoah. Judg. 13 : 2.

4. Did he not seem to have some doubts lest his wife had been mistaken?—Perhaps so, as he desired some further instruction. Judg. 13 : 8.

5. Did the angel appear a second time?—He did.

6. Did he alter anything he had said before?—He did not.

7. What should this teach us?—The truth: I am the Lord, I change not. Mal. 3 : 6.

8. Which seemed to have the greatest faith, Manoah or his wife?—His wife.

9. How do you prove this?—By Judg. 13 : 22, 23.

10. How did Manoah and his wife know that their visitor was an angel?—By the words he spoke, and by his ascending in the flame. Judg. 13 : 18–20.

11. Did the angel ever appear to them again after the birth of Samson?—No.

12. What was there remarkable about Samson?—His very great strength.

13. What was a Nazarite?—A person "separated unto the Lord." Num. 6 : 2–21.

14. What special gift rested on Samson?—The Spirit of the Lord. Judg. 13 : 25; 14 : 6.

15. Where did Samson's strength lie? was it in his hair?—No.

16. Was it in his limbs?—No.

17. What was it that made the lamp and pitchers in Gideon's hand so effective?—The power of God.

18. What power rested on Deborah and Barak?—See No. 17.

19. What gave Jephthah the victory?—See No. 17.

20. Did the same power rest on Samson?—Yes.

21. Was Samson ever restored to the possession of his strength again?—Yes, just before his death. Judg. 16 : 30.

22. Name all his wonderful feats of strength, and say which was the greatest.—He tore a young lion like a kid (Judg. 14 : 5, 6); he slew thirty Philistines (Judg. 14 : 19), and afterward one thousand (Judg. 15 : 15); he carried away the gates of Gaza (Judg. 16 : 3); he broke the green withs and new ropes with which he had been bound (Judg. 16 : 9); he carried away the beam of a weaving-machine to which his hair had been secured (Judg. 16 : 14); he pulled down a large building by its two pillars on the heads of the Philistines (Judg. 16 : 29, 30), the last and greatest feat of all.

23. Does God still hear and answer prayer?—He does, as every true Christian can bear witness.

24. Of whom was Samson a type?—Of Christ, in some of the special circumstances of his birth, and in his being devoted to God's service.

25. In what respect particularly?—As Christ triumphed in his death over Satan and his hosts.

26. How did Samson, in type, show the resurrection of Jesus?—In the recovery of his strength in spite of his enemies.

27. Whom did the Lord Jesus meet single-handed? and who is called in Scripture a "roaring lion"?—The devil. Matt. 4 and 1 Pet. 5–8.

28. By what name is the Lord Jesus called in Isa. 9 : 6?—"The mighty God."

29. Where is the Lord Jesus, in prophecy, described as treading the wine-press of the wrath of God alone?—In Isa. 63 : 3.

30. Who is spoken of as bringing salvation alone?—Jesus Christ.

> He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him. Isa. 59 : 16.

31. On whom must we then depend for salvation?—Jesus Christ.

> Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other Name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Acts 4 : 12.

The Story of Micah, and the Close of the Judges. (Judg. 17–21.)

1. When a man does "that which is right in his own eyes" what is he sure to do?—Wrong, for there is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. Prov. 16 : 25; Judg. 17 : 6.

2. What standard has God given us by which we may judge ourselves?—His holy word.

> To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. Isa. 8 : 20.

3. What proof do Micah and his mother give that by doing "that which was right in their own eyes" they did wrong?—They both committed idolatry, and Micah committed theft. Judg. 17 : 2, 3, 5.

4. Which commandments of God's law did Micah break?—The second and the eighth.

5. Why was it wrong to take a Levite for his priest?—The duties of the Levites were at the tabernacle in Shiloh; and none of them could be priests but those called by God.

> He hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee; and seek ye the priesthood also? Num. 16 : 10.

6. Were Micah and his mother the only idolaters in Israel?—No; the Danites also. Judg. 18 : 30.

7. What relation had these Danites to Samson?—Some of them came from Zorah and Eshtaol, where Samson had been. Judg. 13 : 25.

8. To what part of Israel did they remove and settle?—To Laish, in the tribe of Naphtali.

9. Of what crimes were they guilty?—Of robbery, murder and idolatry. Judg. 18 : 17, 27, 30.

10. Do you think if you had lived in their days you would have done better?—Probably not.

> Are we better than they? No, in no wise. Rom. 3 : 9.

11. Have we the same law to be our guide as they had?—The same law, and the teaching of the prophets, of our Lord and of his apostles besides.

12. What is the word of God compared to in Heb. 4 : 12?—A "two-edged sword;" so thoroughly does it pierce our hearts and expose our sin.

13. By what shall we be judged at the last day?—"The word that" Christ has "spoken," including the whole Bible spoken by his Spirit.

14. Is the Scripture our appointed rule, and is it sufficient?—Yes; it thoroughly furnishes all the instruction we need. 2 Tim. 3 : 16, 17.

15. What will be our condemnation if we neglect it?—Eternal punishment. Luke 16 : 20–31.

Boaz, or the Redeemer. (Ruth.)

1. Who was Elimelech?—A man of Bethlehem-judah. Ruth 1 : 1, 2.

2. What were the names of his wife and of his two sons?—Naomi, and Mahlon and Chilion.

3. Where did this family live?—In the country of Moab. Ruth 1 : 1, 2.

4. At what time did they live?—In the days of the judges. Ruth 1 : 1.

5. What event happened in Israel that drove them to sojourn in Moab?—A famine.

6. Of what was this a proof?—Of the disobedience and idolatry of the people. Deut. 28 : 15–18.

7. Whom did the sons marry?—Orpah and Ruth, women of Moab. Ruth 1 : 4.

8. Did they prosper and have long life?—Both the sons soon died. Ruth 1 : 5.

9. What became of Naomi after the death of her husband and sons?—She returned to Judah, as the famine had ceased. Ruth 1 : 6, 7.

10. What difference was there in the behavior of her daughters-in-law toward her?—Both were distressed at the idea of parting with her, and said they would go with her, but only Ruth went.

11. Did God accept this stranger who determined to forsake her people and her gods and trust in him?—He did, and showed her much favor.

12. And is God the same now as he was then?—Yes; he receives all who receive Christ.

> Peter said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons. Acts 10 : 34.

13. What is the meaning of the name Naomi?—"Pleasant." Ruth 1 : 20, margin.

14. To what name did Naomi wish hers changed, and why?—To Mara, or "bitter," because of the sorrows she had suffered.

15. What rich and noble relative had the poor widow Naomi in her native place?—Boaz. Ruth 2 : 1.

16. Whose field did Ruth happen to glean in?—His field. Ruth 2 : 2.

17. Did Boaz notice Ruth? In what manner?—He told her to glean his fields until the end of harvest, and gave orders for her refreshment and protection, and for a plentiful gleaning. Ruth 2 : 4–17, 21.

18. What description can you give of Boaz, besides that he was rich and noble?—He was a kind-hearted and a good man who honored God. Ruth 2 : 8–12.

19. What effect did his kindness have on Naomi when she heard of it?—She blessed God for his goodness, and told Ruth how to claim Boaz as her kinsman in the manner which the custom of the country allowed. Ruth 2 : 19, 20; 3 : 1–4.

20. Did Ruth do as her mother-in-law bade her?—She did. Ruth 2 : 5–7.

> Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honor thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise: that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. Eph. 6 : 1–3.

21. What did this prove?—That she knew the privileges of filial obedience.

22. Did Boaz answer the high expectation that Naomi had of him?—Yes; he behaved both well and kindly to his virtuous relation, and promised to do a kinsman's duty to her according to the law. Ruth 2 : 8–17.

23. Was he the nearest relative that Naomi had?—He was not. Ruth 2 : 12; 4 : 1.

24. On whom did the duty of kinsman or redeemer fall?—If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of an husband's brother unto her. And it shall be that the firstborn which she beareth shall succeed in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not put out of Israel. And if the man like not to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate unto the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuseth to raise up to his brother a name in Israel, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother. Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak unto him: and if he stand to it, and say, I like not to take her; then shall his brother's wife come unto him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done unto that man that will not build up his brother's house. And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him that hath his shoe loosed. Deut. 25 : 5–10.

25. Did the nearest kinsman perform his duty to Naomi?—No; he declined doing it. Ruth 4 : 1–6.

26. What was the custom in such cases?—For the person who gave up his right to hand his shoe, as a token of such giving up, to the person who took his place. Ruth 4 : 7.

27. Who stepped in and took his place?—Boaz. Ruth 4 : 9, 10.

28. What blessing did the elders of Israel pronounce upon Ruth when she became the wife of Boaz?—They prayed that God would bless her with many children, that she might be an ancestress of the Messiah. Ruth 4 : 11, 12.

29. Do you think Naomi wished her name changed to Mara now?—Certainly not.

30. What should this teach us?—To trust God that all will at length be well.

> Oh taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him. Many are the afflictions of the righteous; but the Lord delivereth him out of them all. Ps. 34 : 8, 19.

31. What was the name of the son whom God gave to Ruth?—Obed. Ruth 4 : 17.

32. What were the names of his son and of his grandson?—Jesse and David.

33. What relation, then, was Ruth to David?—Great-grandmother.

34. Of what glorious Person was Ruth, then, the ancestress?—Of Christ.

35. What is the meaning of the name Boaz?—"Strength" or "Swiftness."

36. Of whom was Boaz a type?—Of Christ.

37. In what particular character was Boaz the type of the Lord Jesus?—In that of brother, kinsman and redeemer.

38. Refer to some texts to show the Lord Jesus as a Redeemer.—

1st. As being of the human family:

> When the fullness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. Gal. 4 : 4, 5.

2d. That he is not ashamed to call us brethren:

> Both He that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one; for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren. Heb. 2 : 11.

3d. The price paid for our redemption:

> Ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pet. 1 : 18, 19,

4th. Give a proof of our poverty:

> Thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed. Rev. 3 : 17, 18.

5th. Give a proof of the Lord's riches:

> The unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3 : 8.

6th. Give a proof that he is heir of all things:

> God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things. Heb. 1 : 1, 2.

7th. That he hath taken the Church to be his Bride:

> Christ loved the church, and gave himself for it: that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing. Eph. 5 : 26, 27.

8th. That he has not only purchased her to himself, but that he is Lord of all creation:

> Jesus Christ: he is Lord of all. Acts 10 : 36.

9th. That though now his people are poor and weak and despised, the great Redeemer will come and claim his and their rightful inheritance:

> I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. John 14 : 2, 3.

39. Was the "Redeemer" also the "revenger of blood"?—It was the nearest relation in both cases.

40. Will the Lord Jesus, when he comes again, fulfill that double character?—The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ; who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power; when he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe. 2 Thess. 1 : 7–10.

41. On whom will he execute justice?—See No. 40.

42. What effect should this solemn truth have on our minds?—It should stir us up to flee at once to Jesus, our Redeemer, from the wrath to come.

43. In Rev. 5 : 5 the Lord Jesus is called "the root of David;" to whom could that refer?—As God, Christ was David's root or source; as man, he was his son.

In Boaz, his type, he may also have been David's Redeemer or root.

44. Why is the Lord Jesus called "the root of David," or Redeemer, in the same chapter as he is represented as the slain lamb?—Because he redeemed us, not only as our kinsman in the human nature, but as the sacrificed Lamb of God.

Thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. Rev. 5 : 9.

45. Compare Acts 20 : 28; Eph. 1 : 7; Heb. 9 : 11–14; 1 Pet. 1 : 18–25, and say if there be any excuse for those who neglect this great salvation.—No, for redemption through the blood of Jesus is now plainly revealed and preached to us.

Eli and Samuel. (1 Sam. 1–3.)

1. Who was Eli?—The priest—i. e. high priest. 1 Sam. 1 : 9.

2. By whom was the priesthood in Israel appointed?—By God himself.

This is the thing that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priest's office: Take one bullock, and two rams without blemish, etc. Ex. 29 : 1.

3. Who was the first high priest?—Aaron.

4. Who ought to have succeeded him in the high priesthood?—His sons Nadab and Abihu. Lev. 10.

5. Which of Aaron's sons was high priest at his father's death?—Eleazar.

Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up unto Mount Hor; and strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son; and Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there. Num. 20 : 25, 26.

6. From whom had Eli descended?—From Ithamar, Aaron's younger son.

7. Did his sons walk in the way of their father Eli?—No; they were very wicked. 1 Sam. 2 : 12–17.

8. What sin was Eli guilty of that brought upon him God's anger?—Only mildly reproving his wicked sons when he should have restrained them with the authority of a father. 1 Sam. 2 : 23, 24; 3 : 13, 14.

9. Who was Elkanah?—A Levite of Mount Ephraim. 1 Sam. 1 : 1.

10. What were the names of his wives?—Hannah and Peninnah.

11. Which did he love the most?—Hannah. 1 Sam. 1 : 5.

12. What great trial had Hannah?—Not having any child. 1 Sam. 1 : 10, 11.

13. To whom did she tell her sorrow?—To God in prayer.

14. What did Eli suppose when he saw her lips moving in silent prayer?—That she was drunken. 1 Sam. 1 : 13.

15. When he found that he was mistaken, what did he say?—Read 1 Sam. 1 : 17.

16. Did this comfort Hannah's heart? and had she her desire?—Her countenance was no more sad, and a child was born to her. 1 Sam. 1 : 18, 20.

17. What name did she give the child?—Samuel.

18. What is the meaning of that name?—"Asked of God."

19. Why did she not go up with her husband to worship the next year?—She preferred waiting until her child was old enough to remain altogether in the house of the Lord to be his servant, according to her vow. 1 Sam. 1 : 22, 11.

20. By whose command used the children of Israel to go up to Shiloh to worship?—By God's command.

21. How many times a year were all the men to appear before the Lord?—Three times. Ex. 23 : 17.

22. Which feast must this have been when the women met as well?—The Passover, to which women sometimes went.

Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover. Luke 2 : 41.

23. At what time of the year was this feast held?—About the end of March or beginning of April.

24. Did Hannah do with the child as she had promised?—She did. 1 Sam. 1 : 24–28.

25. How old was he when his mother took him up and dedicated him to the Lord?—He "was young," perhaps six years old. 1 Sam. 1 : 24, margin.

26. Why was it wrong of Eli's sons to take any part of the sacrifice they liked? Which part had God appointed for the priest's use?—Because God had assigned them a particular part, the breast and the right shoulder. Lev. 7 : 31–34.

27. What had God commanded relative to the fat of his sacrifices?—Read Lev. 3 : 14–17.

28. What condemnation did Eli's sons bring on themselves by eating the fat of the sacrifices?—Whosoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord, even the soul that eateth it shall be cut off from his people. Lev. 7 : 25.

29. Did the Lord send any messenger to warn Eli of the sin his sons were committing?—He sent a man of God, a prophet. 1 Sam. 2 : 27–36.

30. Is there any rule by which we may know if we are doing the will of God or not? What is it?—Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path. Ps. 119 : 105.

31. Did Eli regard this awful message?—Perhaps not sufficiently, as another awful message was sent to him some years afterward; or it may have been too late and his sons become thoroughly hardened in sin. 1 Sam. 2 : 25.

32. What manifest token did the Lord give that he had accepted the gift of Hannah and chosen her son as a prophet of his own?—God gave him a special call and message. 1 Sam. 3 : 4–14, 20, 21.

33. How old was Samuel when this occurred?—About twelve, but some think he was much older.

34. Had Eli instructed Samuel in the knowledge of God before this time?—No doubt Eli had made him acquainted with God's law, and explained to him the tabernacle service; but Samuel had no experience yet of God's special way of making himself and his word or will known to his prophets. 1 Sam. 3 : 7.

35. Are there any children now who, though often seen in God's house, yet know him not?—It is to be feared there are but very few of them who know God, so as to love and obey him, as Samuel did.

36. When God called to Samuel, what did he answer?—Speak, for thy servant heareth. 1 Sam. 3 : 10.

37. Have you answered God's call to you*?*—If not, he is calling to you now as you listen to his word—calling you to be his child, and to give him your heart. Ask him, for his dear Son's sake, to help you to obey the call. Give yourself to him now.

38. What solemn message did the Lord give Samuel concerning Eli's house?—That he would punish it for ever. 1 Sam. 3 : 11–14.

39. Did the Lord continue to manifest himself to Samuel rather than to Eli?—He did. 1 Sam. 3 : 19–21.

40. What did this show?—That God honors those who honor him, dishonors those who dishonor him. 1 Sam. 2 : 30.

The Taking of the Ark. (1 Sam. 4–7.)

1. Who were Israel's greatest enemies at this time?—The Philistines.

2. What sinful act did Israel resort to when they found themselves smitten before the enemy?—They brought the ark from its place at Shiloh. 1 Sam. 4 : 3–5.

3. What effect did it have on the Philistines?—They were afraid at first, but roused each other to a great effort. 1 Sam. 4 : 7–9.

4. Of what was this a proof?—That God was not with Israel, though the ark was.

Go not up, for the Lord is not among you; that ye be not smitten before your enemies. Num. 14 : 42.

5. What was the fate of the ark, and of those who carried it?—The ark was taken, and Eli's sons were slain. 1 Sam. 4 : 11.

6. How did Eli bear the tidings?—He fell back and died. 1 Sam. 4 : 18.

7. What sorrowful event happened to the wife of Phinehas?—She died in childbirth. 1 Sam. 4 : 19–22.

8. What name did she give her son ere she died?—Ichabod.

9. What is the meaning of that name?—"No glory."

10. Why did she choose it?—Because the glory had departed from Israel, the ark being taken.

11. What did the Philistines do with the ark?—They set it beside their idol Dagon. 1 Sam. 5 : 1, 2.

12. What happened to their idol?—It fell on its face before the ark. 1 Sam. 5 : 3, 4.

13. Did this convince them of the sin of idolatry?—Not at all.

14. Whose office is it to open our minds to receive the truth?—The Holy Spirit, who convinces of sin.

When he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth. John 16 : 13.

15. Had they not full opportunity, living actually within the land of Israel, to know about the true God?—Yes, but like thousands among ourselves now, they did not take advantage of it, and so they perished in their sins.

I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I the Lord speak righteousness, I declare things that are right. Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else. Isa. 45 : 19, 22.

16. What does David say about idols in Ps. 115?—Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not: they have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not: they have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat. They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.

17. What proof did Dagon give of this in this history?—He could not take care of himself. 1 Sam. 5 : 3, 4.

18. What calamities did God's presence bring on his enemies?—A painful disease and a plague of mice, and a deadly destruction besides. 1 Sam. 5 : 6, 9, 11, 12; 6 : 4, 5.

19. What did they resolve to do?—To send back the ark with a trespass-offering. 1 Sam. 6 : 2, 3.

20. What test did they employ to ascertain if indeed the God of Israel had brought on them all these miseries?—They yoked to the cart that carried the ark two cows, to see if they would go to the land of Israel without their calves. 1 Sam. 6 : 7–12.

21. Who had power over the affections of these kine in making them go opposite to their natural feelings?—God alone.

For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills. Ps. 50 : 10.

22. How was the ark received?—With joy (1 Sam. 6 : 13) and a sacrifice of thanksgiving to God. 1 Sam. 6 : 14, 15.

23. Of what act of impiety were the men of Beth-shemesh guilty?—Of looking into the ark (1 Sam. 6 : 19), which caused God to slay fifty thousand and seventy men.

24. Why was this act of theirs inexcusable?—They shall not go in to see when the holy things are covered, lest they die. Num. 4 : 20.

25. Was the ark taken back again to Shiloh? If not, where was it taken?—To Kirjath-jearim. 1 Sam. 7 : 1.

26. How long did it remain there?—Twenty years (1 Sam. 7 : 2), until the repentance of Israel.

27. Who afterward removed it? and where did it go?—David removed it to Mount Zion. 2 Sam. 6 : 2–17.

28. Did Israel repent of their sins?—They did, at the call of Samuel. 1 Sam. 7 : 3–6.

29. To whom did they apply?—To Samuel, to pray for their delivery from the Philistines. 1 Sam. 7 : 8.

30. What did he do for them?—He offered a sacrifice and cried unto the Lord.

31. What proof did the Lord give that he accepted their sacrifice and heard their prayer?—He caused a great thunder-storm and a defeat of the Philistines. 1 Sam. 7 : 10.

32. Of what use could the offering of that lamb be to them?—Because it typified or referred to Jesus, "the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." John 1 : 29.

33. Is Samuel mentioned among those who had faith in Him who was to come?—Yes, in Heb. 11 : 32.

34. Why is the Lord Jesus said (Rev. 13 : 8) to be "the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world"?—Because we are redeemed with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you. 1 Pet. 1 : 19, 20.

35. Are there many ways by which we can be saved?—There is one God, and one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. 1 Tim. 2 : 5, 6. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other Name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Acts 14 : 12.

36. What memorial did Samuel set up in remembrance of this deliverance?—A stone called Eben-ezer, or "the stone of help." 1 Sam. 7 : 12.

37. What three characters did Samuel unite in his person?—Priest, prophet or teacher, and judge.

38. Of whom was he thus a type?—Of our Lord Jesus Christ. Deut. 18 : 18, 19; 1 Sam. 2 : 35; Gen. 18 : 25; Rev. 19 : 11; 20 : 11, 12; Matt. 25 : 31, etc.

39. If we believe that Jesus will ere long be our Judge, as he was the Priest to atone for us and the Prophet and Advocate to pray for and instruct us, what ought we to do?—Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. Isa. 55 : 6, 7.

Saul. (1 Sam. 9–31.)

1. Who was Saul?—Son of Kish. 1 Sam. 9.
2. Of which tribe was he?—Benjamin.
3. What was there remarkable about his person?—He was very tall and very handsome. 1 Sam. 9 : 2.
4. What power did God allow to rest upon him?—His Spirit, as he did to Balaam—in his gifts, but not his graces; in his enlightening, but not his converting power. 1 Sam. 10 : 10.
5. Are there not some characters more difficult to understand than others?—There are, as the tares of the East resemble the wheat, and the sheep the goats.
6. What contradictions do there appear in Saul's character?—In many things he honored Samuel and honored God, but he mixed his religion with superstition, and was proud, disobedient and self-willed.
7. How can we come to a conclusion in so judging?—No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Matt. 6 : 24.
8. What made the children of Israel first think of having a king?—Because Samuel was old, and his sons were unfit to help him or succeed him. 1 Sam. 8 : 5, 20.
9. How did Samuel feel about it?—He was displeased with their so dishonoring and disobeying God. 1 Sam. 8 : 6.
10. How was he comforted?—By prayer, and direction from God. 1 Sam. 8 : 6, 7.
11. In what spirit did the Lord give them a king?—In anger: "I gave thee a king in mine anger." Hos. 13 : 11.
12. How did God establish the kingdom in his hand?—By a victory over the Ammonites. 1 Sam. 11 : 11–15.
13. Did Saul follow up this victory?—He next attacked the Philistines. 1 Sam. 13.
14. Who was Jonathan?—Saul's son.
15. What marked difference was there between him and his father?—He was of a modest and affectionate disposition, and loved David.
16. Who obtained the victory recorded in 1 Sam. 13 : 3?—Jonathan.
17. Who reaped the honor of it?—Saul. 1 Sam. 13 : 3, 4.
18. Was it not unworthy of Saul to take the glory that did not belong to him?—It was.
19. How did Saul again show his mean spirit in this same chapter?—By retiring to Gilgal, leaving Jonathan and his men exposed to the enemy. 1 Sam. 13 : 2, 4.
20. What did Samuel say to Saul when he came?—He reproved him for offering a sacrifice to God without the high priest. 1 Sam. 13 : 13.
21. What proof does this chapter give us of the degraded state into which Israel had fallen?—The Philistines did not allow them arms, or even a smith to sharpen their tools. 1 Sam. 13 : 19, 20.
22. What glorious victory does 1 Sam. 14 : 4–23, 31 record?—Over the Philistines between Michmash and Aijalon.
23. Who was the brave warrior here?—Jonathan. 1 Sam 14 : 4–14.
24. How did Saul nearly spoil the victory of that day?—By pledging his people to eat nothing all day until the battle was won. 1 Sam. 14 : 24.
25. Was not an oath a very sacred thing?—When thou shalt vow a vow unto the Lord thy God, thou shalt not be slack to pay it: for the Lord thy God will surely require it of thee; and it would be sin in thee. But if thou shalt forbear to vow, it shall be no sin in thee. Deut. 23 : 21, 22.
26. What proof can you give of this in 2 Sam. 21 : 7?—King David spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul because of the Lord's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.
27. Was not that transaction another proof of Saul's cowardly disposition? Who were the Gibeonites?—It was cowardly of Saul to kill those who trusted to the Israelites' oath, and were not prepared to defend themselves. 2 Sam. 21 : 2. They were Amorites who had deceived the Israelites, but whom they had promised not to kill. Josh. 9.
28. What great touchstone has God given to try man by?—Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Matt. 7 : 21.
29. What test of obedience did God require from Saul?—That in fighting with the Amalekites he should destroy their sheep and oxen also. 1 Sam. 15 : 3.
30. How did he act?—He spared the best of them. 1 Sam. 15 : 9.
31. How did Samuel feel?—He was grieved. 1 Sam. 15 : 11.
32. How did Samuel act?—He told Saul that he should be no longer king. 1 Sam. 15 : 23.
33. How did Saul's real character come out in this transaction?—He showed himself more anxious to please his people for his own honor than for the honor of God. 1 Sam. 15 : 30.
34. What accident happened to Samuel's garment as he turned away from Saul?—It was rent. 1 Sam. 15 : 27.
35. What prophecy did Samuel utter in connection with it?—That God had rent his kingdom from him, and had given it to a better man. 1 Sam. 15 : 28.
36. When did Saul next see Samuel?—When Saul prophesied before him in Ramah, whither Saul had gone to see him (1 Sam. 19 : 24), and afterward when Samuel came and appeared to Saul, by God's permission, at the summons of the witch of Endor. 1 Sam. 28 : 3–20.
37. What proof does that transaction give us that God never alters the word that he has once spoken?—Because Samuel repeated and confirmed God's former judgment against him. 1 Sam. 28 : 17.
38. Was not the woman surprised at what she herself had been permitted to do?—She cried out from fear. 1 Sam. 28 : 12.
39. In whose keeping are the spirits of the departed dead?—They are all in the keeping of God—the blessed in paradise with Christ, and the wicked with Satan in their own place.
40. Suppose any could return to us again, could they add to the testimony of Scripture?—They could only confirm it.

> If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead. Luke 16 : 31.

David. (1 Sam. 16.)

1. Who was David?—The youngest son of Jesse, a Bethlehemite. 1 Sam. 16 : 1.
2. What prophecy was spoken of the tribe of Judah by Jacob?—Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise: thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies; thy father's children shall bow down before thee. Gen. 49 : 8.
3. Why did the Lord reject Saul from being king?—Because he had not obeyed his commands. 1 Sam. 15 : 11, 23.
4. Whom did he choose in his place?—David. 1 Sam. 16 : 1, 11–13.
5. Who was appointed to anoint David?—Samuel. 1 Sam. 16 : 1.
6. Why had the Lord chosen Saul?—On account merely of his being a tall and a noble-looking man; God being displeased with the Israelites' asking for a king. 1 Sam. 9 : 2.
7. Did the same rule apply to David?—No; he was chosen rather on account of his qualities of mind and heart. 1 Sam. 16 : 6, 7.
8. How was Samuel taught this?—By being told to reject Jesse's elder sons.
9. What occupation was David following at this time?—Keeping sheep. 1 Sam. 16 : 11.
10. What deplorable loss did Saul sustain when the Spirit of the Lord rested upon David?—The Spirit departed from himself. 1 Sam. 16 : 14.
11. What evil power took possession of Saul?—An evil spirit, by permission of God.
12. In what way did he obtain comfort?—By having some one to play to him on the harp. 1 Sam. 16 : 16.
13. Who was selected as his minstrel?—David. 1 Sam. 16 : 18–23.
14. What did this prove?—The guiding providence of God.
15. As David was then a shepherd, what psalm may we suppose he sang on his harp to the king?—Perhaps the twenty-third.
16. What effect did David's sweet harp have on the king?—He was soothed and refreshed, but Jesus Christ and his Spirit, alone, can give our troubled conscience peace.

David and Goliath. (1 Sam. 17.)

1. Did David continue to live with Saul?—No; he returned to his father's sheep. 1 Sam. 17 : 15.
2. Did his intercourse with Saul's court unfit him for a shepherd life?—By the grace of God, it seems not to have done so.
3. Where were David's brothers at this time?—The three eldest went with Saul to battle. 1 Sam. 17 : 13.
4. What did Jesse desire David to do?—To take his brothers a present, and see how they fared. 1 Sam. 17 : 17, 18.
5. Who were Israel's greatest enemies at this time?—The Philistines.
6. What had these enemies particularly to encourage them to fight at this time?—The giant Goliath was on their side. 1 Sam. 17 : 4–11.
7. What did David do when he got to the camp?—He asked who Goliath was, and what was to be the reward for killing him. 1 Sam. 17 : 26.
8. What effect did David's questions have on his brothers?—Eliab thought him proud and presumptuous, and was angry with him. 1 Sam. 17 : 28.
9. How did David answer them?—Meekly and calmly. 1 Sam. 17 : 29.
10. For what pleasing traits of character was David always remarkable?—Gentleness, patience and forbearance.
11. What was he called?—A man after God's own heart. Acts 13 : 22.
12. Give some texts in which God commends a meek and gentle spirit?—I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love. Eph. 4 : 1, 2. Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. Col. 3 : 12, 13.
13. What is said to be "of great price" in the Lord's estimation?—The ornament of a meek and quiet spirit. 1 Pet. 3 : 4.
14. Who was the most meek and gentle Being who ever lived?—Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to Him that judgeth righteously. 1 Pet. 2 : 21–23.
15. Of whom are we commanded to "learn"?—Of Jesus Christ.

> Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart. Matt. 11 : 29.

16. Did David gain the information that he sought?—He did. 1 Sam. 17 : 25–27.
17. What was the result?—David undertook to fight with the Philistine. 1 Sam. 17 : 32.
18. How did Saul wish to prepare David?—With Saul's own armor. 1 Sam. 17 : 38.
19. Did he use the armor?—No, because he was unaccustomed to it.
20. What preparation did David make?—He only took his staff and sling and five stones in a bag. 1 Sam. 17 : 40.
21. What was the result of the engagement?—The giant was killed by the first stone slung. 1 Sam. 17 : 49.
22. Was only the giant slain?—The Philistines fled, and many of them were slain.
23. What did David do with the head and armor of Goliath?—He brought the head to Saul and to Jerusalem, and put the armor in his tent.
24. How was it that David had such power?—Because he trusted in the Lord his God.
25. Is his act of faith mentioned in Heb. 11?—Yes, in verse 32.

David and Jonathan. (1 Sam. 17 : 55–58; 18, 19, 20.)

1. What remarkable question did Saul ask Abner when David went to fight the giant?—Whose son David was. 1 Sam. 17 : 55.
2. Was Abner able to answer Saul's question?—He was not.
3. How did they ascertain who the young conqueror was?—Saul ascertained it from David's own mouth.
4. Which of Saul's sons standing by felt his soul knit to David?—Jonathan. 1 Sam. 18 : 1.
5. What touching proof did he give of his love?—He gave him his robes and some of his arms, though the scarceness of arms had made them especially valuable. Compare 1 Sam. 18 : 4 with 1 Sam. 13 : 22.

6. What joyful song did the women sing when they went to meet the conquerors after the battle?—Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands. 1 Sam. 18 : 7.

7. What effect did this have on Saul?—It made him jealous and angry.

8. How did David behave himself?—Wisely. 1 Sam. 18 : 14.

9. Did Saul remember his promise to give his daughter in marriage to the man who should slay Goliath?—No; he gave her to another man. 1 Sam. 18 : 17–19.

10. What artful design did he form to get David slain?—He required him to kill one hundred Philistines as the price of his daughter Michal, hoping he would have been killed himself. 1 Sam. 18 : 25.

11. Did it succeed?—No; David slew two hundred, and was unhurt.

12. What was Saul obliged to do?—To give him his daughter Michal for his wife. 1 Sam. 18 : 27.

13. Did Saul's daughter love David?—Yes. 1 Sam. 18 : 20, 28.

14. How did she prove this?—By letting him down from a window, that he might escape her father's rage. 1 Sam. 19 : 12–17.

15. Why was David obliged to flee?—Because Saul designed to kill him. 1 Sam. 19 : 1, 15.

16. Would Jonathan believe this?—No. 1 Sam. 20 : 1, 2; 19 : 4–7.

17. Where did David first escape to?—To Samuel, in Ramah. 1 Sam. 19 : 18.

18. What wonderful power did God exercise over the messengers sent to take David?—The power of his Spirit, causing them to prophesy like Samuel's prophets. 1 Sam. 19 : 20, 21.

19. Did David venture into Saul's presence again?—He seems to have done so at Naioth in Ramah. 1 Sam. 19 : 22–24; 20 : 5.

20. How did Jonathan assure himself that his father desired David's death?—By what David said. 1 Sam. 20 : 3.

21. When he discovered it, what course did he take?—He promised to tell David of Saul's designs. 1 Sam. 20 : 9.

22. What beautiful covenant did they make together?—That Jonathan should warn David, and that David should be kind to Jonathan and his children. 1 Sam. 19 : 12–17, 23.

23. Where did they each go afterward?—David to his former hiding-place, and Jonathan to his father. 1 Sam. 20 : 19; 19 : 2.

David a Fugitive. (1 Sam. 21–31.)

1. Whither did David flee?—To Nob.

2. What did he obtain there?—Some bread.

3. Did he do this honorably?—No; he pretended he was on the king's business. 1 Sam. 21 : 2.

4. What made him tell a lie?—Want of food, and fear that the priest would not give it him.

5. Did not this show a want of faith in the living God, who had hitherto so wonderfully preserved him?—It did.

6. To what place did he next proceed?—To Gath. 1 Sam. 21 : 10.

7. Did he act more consistently there?—No; he pretended to be mad, that he might escape being imprisoned. 1 Sam. 21 : 11–13.

8. What does this show us?—That even the best men often fall into weakness and sin through their forgetfulness of God.

9. Where did he go when he left Achish?—To the cave Adullam. 1 Sam. 22 : 1.

10. Who came to him there?—Every one that was discontented or in debt or distress. 1 Sam. 22 : 2.

11. What kind care did he take of his father and his mother?—He got the king of Moab to receive and protect them. 1 Sam. 22 : 3, 4.

12. Why were they obliged to leave their native place, Bethlehem?—Because the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. 2 Sam. 23 : 14; 1 Chron. 11 : 15, 16.

13. Who joined David here?—Jonathan, in the wilderness of Ziph. 1 Sam. 23 : 15, 16.

14. Is there any description given of his men?—Three mighty chiefs are there mentioned who slew great numbers of the Philistines; and thirty other valiant men, among whom Abishai and Benaiah are especially noted for their exploits. 2 Sam. 23; 1 Chron. 11.

15. What proof of love did his men give him at this time?—Three of them broke through the host of the Philistines to fetch him water from a favorite well. 2 Sam. 23 : 16; 1 Chron. 11 : 18.

16. How did he show the tenderness of his heart in return?—By declining to drink what had been obtained at so great a risk of his men's lives, and by pouring out the water in thankfulness to God.

17. What are courage and tenderness, united, a proof of?—Of a truly manly character.

18. What cowardly act was Saul again guilty of toward the priests who had helped David?—He ordered them to be slain. 1 Sam. 22 : 17.

19. How did David and his noble little band of warriors employ themselves?—In fighting with the Philistines, and rescuing the inhabitants of Keilah. 1 Sam. 23 : 1–5.

20. When Saul heard it, what did he resolve to do?—To besiege Keilah and take David prisoner. 1 Sam. 23 : 7, 8.

21. How did the Lord deliver David when Saul had nearly taken him?—By causing the Philistines to invade the land, David having first prayed for direction, and Jonathan having given him encouragement from God. 1 Sam. 23 : 27, 28, 10, 16.

22. Did Saul again go after David?—Yes, in the wilderness of Engedi. 1 Sam. 24 : 1, 2.

24. What effect did this have on Saul?—He wept and spoke kindly to David. 1 Sam. 24 : 8–22.

25. What treatment did David at this time meet with from Nabal?—He refused to give food to David and his men, though they had taken nothing from him all the time they had been hiding and in want of provisions near him. 1 Sam. 25 : 1–13.

26. How did Nabal's wife act?—She went to him with a supply of food. 1 Sam. 25 : 14–31.

27. What proof did she give of the high honor in which she held David (though an exile) at her husband's death?—She became his wife. 1 Sam. 25 : 39–42.

28. Did Saul again seek after David?—Yes, in the wilderness of Ziph. 1 Sam. 26 : 1, 2.

29. How did David revenge himself?—By again sparing Saul's life. 1 Sam. 26 : 7–12.

> Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good. Rom. 12 : 19–21.

30. With what heathen did David again join himself?—With Achish, king of Gath. 1 Sam. 27.

31. Was this right?—No; it was contrary to God's commandments to Moses and Joshua.

32. What difficulties did David bring upon himself by this unholy alliance?—He was invited by Achish to join him in fighting against the Israelites. 1 Sam. 28 : 1, 2.

33. Where was David when the last decisive battle between Saul and the Philistines was fought?—At Ziklag.

34. To which side did David offer himself and his men?—To Achish. 1 Sam. 29 : 8.

35. Is it not likely he would have gone over to the side of Israel?—No doubt.

36. How did God preserve him from so very dangerous a position?—By inducing the Philistine leaders to object to his being with them. 1 Sam. 29 : 4, 5.

37. What event happened to him and his men while they were absent from Ziklag?—The Amalekites burnt the city, and carried away the women and children captive. 1 Sam. 30 : 1, 2.

38. Did they recover their treasures?—Yes.

39. How?—They pursued and slew the Amalekites, and recovered all, after David had laid his trouble before God and obtained direction from him. 1 Sam. 30 : 6–20.

40. What did he do with the spoil that they won?—He divided it among all his men who had taken part in the pursuit or fight. 1 Sam. 30 : 21–25.

20. Although David got the honor of conquering Rabbah, and had the crown placed on his head, do you think he felt happy in it when the brave Uriah had died under the walls?—No; he said his sin was ever before him. Ps. 51 : 3.

21. What signal proof did the Lord give to David of his full and free forgiveness?—By giving him another child. 2 Sam. 12 : 24.

22. What was the name of this child?—Solomon.

23. What was the meaning of the name?—"Peaceable."

24. What name did Nathan the prophet add to this? and what did it mean?—Jedidiah, "Beloved of the Lord." 2 Sam. 12 : 25.

25. Through whom must we obtain forgiveness of our sins?—Through Jesus Christ.

26. Is there any limit to God's forgiving grace?—No; he will abundantly pardon. Isa. 55 : 7.

27. What did Jesus say to the woman whom he forgave when on earth?—"Neither do I condemn thee: go and sin no more." John 8 : 11.

David and Absalom. (2 Sam. 13–22.)

1. Who was Absalom?—A son of David. 2 Sam. 13 : 1.

2. Why did he flee away to Geshur?—Because he had killed his half-brother Amnon for outraging his sister Tamar. 2 Sam. 13 : 28, 32, 37.

3. How long did he stay there?—Three years.

4. Who brought him back again?—Joab, who by a kind contrivance had gotten David's leave. 2 Sam. 14 : 23.

5. How did he repay his father's kindness?—By making a conspiracy against him. 2 Sam. 15.

6. What punishment had the Lord said should spring from David's own house?—The sword and other evils. 2 Sam. 12 : 10, 11.

7. Why?—Because of his taking Uriah's wife.

8. How did Absalom steal away the people's affections from David?—By artful speeches and promises and civilities. 2 Sam. 15 : 2–6.

9. When David heard of the conspiracy, what did he do?—He fled from Jerusalem. 2 Sam. 15 : 13–16.

10. Who went with him?—All his household and six hundred men from Gath. 2 Sam. 15 : 16–18.

11. What famous counselor followed Absalom?—Ahithophel. 2 Sam. 15 : 31.

12. Who managed by an artifice to set his counsel aside?—Hushai, David's friend. 2 Sam. 15 : 32–37; 17 : 1–14.

13. Whose advice did Absalom follow?—Hushai's. 2 Sam. 17 : 14.

14. What effect did this have on Ahithophel?—He hanged himself. 2 Sam. 17 : 23.

15. Why did Hushai give this advice?—That he might secure David's escape.

16. Who slew Absalom?—Joab.

17. How was it done?—As Absalom hung from an oak tree by his hair, which had become entangled as he rode under it. 2 Sam. 18 : 9–15.

18. What command had David given about Absalom to his captains?—That they should deal gently with him for his sake. 2 Sam. 18 : 5.

19. Did Joab seem to care for this?—Not at all. 2 Sam. 18 : 11, 14.

20. How did David feel, and what did he say, when Absalom was slain?—He was deeply distressed, and said, "Would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son!" 2 Sam. 18 : 33; 19 : 1–4.

21. Of what sin was Absalom guilty?—Rebellion against his father and against his king.

22. Of whom, in both these particulars, was he a type?—Of Satan, the rebel against God, and the angel of light.

23. Describe Absalom's person?—He was the handsomest man in the country, and was remarkable for his long, flowing hair. 2 Sam. 14 : 25, 26.

24. What does the Lord say about pride in Proverbs?—Pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate. 8 : 13. When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom. 11 : 2. Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall. 16 : 18.

25. Was peace at once again restored to Israel?—It was. 2 Sam. 19 : 9, 14.

26. Whom had David appointed captain of his host instead of Joab?—Amasa. 2 Sam. 19 : 13.

27. How did Joab act on hearing this?—He killed him. 2 Sam. 20 : 9, 10.

28. What relation was Amasa to David?—Nephew, as son of his sister Abigail.

29. Did David again spare Joab from punishment?—Yes; he continued to be commander-in-chief. 2 Sam. 20 : 23.

30. Who quelled the insurrection?—Joab. 2 Sam. 28 : 14.

31. What was a famine in Israel a sign of?—National guilt. Deut. 28.

> Heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee. 1 Kings 8 : 35.

32. What were David's feelings when a famine of three years visited Israel?—Doubtless he felt compassion for his suffering people, and believed that the famine was a visitation of God. 2 Sam. 21.

33. Of whom did he inquire?—Of the Lord. 2 Sam. 21 : 1.

34. What was the Lord's reply?—That the famine was in consequence of the guilt incurred by the nation when Saul and his people slew the Gibeonites. 2 Sam. 21 : 1, 2.

35. What expiation did the Gibeonites require?—The death of seven of Saul's sons. 2 Sam. 21 : 6.

36. What touching proof of a mother's love did Rizpah give?—She watched the bodies of her sons night and day, to prevent their being torn by birds or beasts. 2 Sam. 21 : 10.

37. What old enemies of David's again showed themselves?—The Philistines. 2 Sam. 21 : 15.

38. What proof have we of David's declining strength and of the faithful love of his followers?—He was faint in battle, and Abishai preserved his life, and his people said he should no longer go out with them to battle. 2 Sam. 21 : 15–17.

39. What is the twenty-second chapter of 2 Samuel about?—It is David's psalm of thanksgiving for deliverance from his enemies.

David's Transgression, his Last Arrangements, and Death. (2 Sam. 24; 1 Chron. 21–29; 1 Kings 1, 2.)

1. By whom was David tempted to number Israel?—Satan. 1 Chron. 21 : 1.

2. What is Satan called in 1 Pet. 5 : 8?—A roaring lion, walking about seeking whom he may devour.

3. Who remonstrated with David?—Joab. 2 Sam. 24 : 3.

4. Did not David's heart smite him after he had done it?—Yes; he said he had sinned greatly and done very foolishly. 2 Sam. 24 : 10.

5. What was God's promise to Abraham as to the number of Israel?—That it should be very great, like the number of the stars.

6. Whom did the Lord commission to reprove David?—The prophet Gad. 2 Sam. 24 : 11.

7. What did he offer him?—The choice of one of three punishments.

8. Which did David choose? and why?—Famine or pestilence, rather than war; the immediate hand of God, rather than the hand of man.

9. At what spot did the destroying angel stop?—The threshing-floor of Araunah. 2 Sam. 24 : 16.

10. What event had occurred on that hill about eight hundred years before?—The offering up of Isaac (in the opinion of some).

11. Of what was that circumstance a type?—Of the sacrifice of Christ as the atonement for sin.

12. How did David know that the Lord had accepted his offering?—By the plague being stayed. 2 Sam. 24 : 25.

13. By whose authority did he consecrate the threshing-floor of Araunah?—By the authority of the prophet Gad. 2 Sam. 24 : 18.

14. Why did he not go up to the tabernacle at Gibeon?—Because he was afraid of meeting the angel again at the place of God's special presence. 1 Chron. 21 : 29, 30.

15. What preparations did he make for the future building of the temple?—Hewn stone, gold, silver, iron, brass and cedar. 1 Chron. 22 : 2–5, 14–16.

16. What solemn charge did David give to Solomon concerning the temple?—To build it, as David himself had desired to do. 1 Chron. 22 : 6–16.

17. What other arrangements did David make?—He divided the priests and Levites and other officers into orders, and fixed their duties. 1 Chron. 23 : 23–27.

18. Who showed David the pattern of the future temple?—God himself, by his Spirit. 1 Chron. 28 : 12, 19.

19. Did any one besides David contribute toward the future glory of the temple?—The chiefs and the people. 1 Chron. 29 : 6–9.

20. Whom did David make king over Israel before he died?—Solomon. 1 Chron. 23 : 1.

21. Who had aspired to be king?—Adonijah, one of David's sons. 1 Kings 1 : 5, 6.

22. What charge did David give to Solomon concerning Joab and Shimei?—That they should receive the punishment due to their guilt. 1 Kings 2 : 5, 6, 8, 9.

23. What were the last words of David?—Now bless the Lord your God. 1 Chron. 29 : 20.

24. How old was David when he died?—Seventy.

25. How many years had he reigned in Hebron? how many over all Israel?—David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-and-three years over all Israel and Judah. 2 Sam. 5 : 4, 5.

26. In what respect was David a man after God's own heart?—In the general character of his life, and in his being a type of Christ, his own beloved Son.

David a Type of Christ.

1. What is the meaning of the name Christ?—"Anointed."

2. Was David made king at the time he was anointed?—He was not at the time of his first anointing by Samuel.

3. Tell how this circumstance is typical of the Lord Jesus Christ?—Because, though Christ's kingdom began when he was anointed with the Holy Ghost and commenced his ministry on earth, his great universal reign has not yet taken place.

4. What was David before he was called from his father's house?—A keeper of sheep.

5. What wild beasts did he fight with and kill?—A lion and a bear.

6. Of whom are those beasts a type?—Of Satan the roaring lion. 1 Pet. 5 : 8.

7. Who is "the Good Shepherd" who gives "his life for the sheep"?—Jesus Christ. John 10 : 11.

8. What was David's conduct to his father?—That of a faithful, devoted and obedient son. 1 Sam. 17 : 20, 34, 35.

9. Of whom is it recorded, "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased"?—Of Jesus Christ. Matt. 3 : 17.

10. In what relative position did David stand to Saul?—In that of servant to a master.

11. What ought a servant to be?—Honest, diligent, faithful and zealous, as serving God as well as man.

12. How did David behave himself while serving Saul?—Faithfully in duty and forbearing under provocation.

13. Of whom is it recorded "I delight to do thy will, O my God"?—Of Christ in the name of David. Ps. 40 : 8.

14. Did David bear any other characters? Was he a prophet?—Many. Yes.

15. Did he speak of Jesus in the Psalms?—Constantly, but especially in Psalms 22 and 110.

> All things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me. Luke 24 : 44.

16. When did the Lord Jesus quote from the Psalms?—Jesus saith unto them, Yea, have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise? (Matt. 21 : 16; Ps. 8 : 2); Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama Sabacthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? (Matt. 27 : 46; Ps. 22 : 1); and in other places.

17. Of whom, then, as Psalmist, is David a type?—Of Christ.

18. Was not David a warrior, a captain and a leader?—He was.

19. What Scriptures show that the Lord Jesus was all these?—Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. Isa. 55 : 4; Rev. 19 : 13–15. The Captain of . . . salvation. Heb. 2 : 10.

20. Where was David born?—Doubtless at Bethlehem, where Jesse his father lived. 1 Sam. 17 : 12–15.

21. Where was Jesus born?—At Bethlehem. Matt. 2 : 1.

22. Was the kingship of David acknowledged at once?—No; Saul and his son Ishbosheth opposed or rebelled against him.

23. Were there not a few who did recognize David as the anointed of God, even in his adversity? Name them.—Samuel, Jonathan, Ahimelech, Gad, the Adullamites, Abiathar, Abigail, Joab, Abishai, Asahel and others.

24. Were there any who owned the glory of Jesus when he was here in abasement?—There were his apostles and disciples, and many women who ministered unto him.

25. Did not the followers of David dearly love him?—They did.

26. Did they not even risk their lives for his sake?—Many of them did in battle, and three of them to only get him some water for his thirst.

27. And what is the feeling of those who own Jesus as their Lord and Master?—A feeling, more or less warm and strong, of devoted, self-denying love.

28. What did David feel toward them?—A tender and grateful love.

29. How did Jesus testify his estimation of love shown to him?—Whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. Matt. 10 : 42. Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Matt. 25 : 40.

30. Did David conquer other nations, and rule beyond the limits of the twelve tribes of Israel?—He conquered the Syrians, Ammonites and others.

31. By what name is Jesus called in Rev. 19 : 16?—King of kings and Lord of lords.

32. What earthly throne is said to be everlasting?—David's.

> Thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever. 2 Sam. 7 : 16.

33. Of whom must that be spoken?—Of Christ, the King.

34. To whom does the parable in Luke 19 : 12–27 refer?—The parable of the returned nobleman calling his servants to account refers to Christ coming again in his kingdom.

35. Ought we not, then, to examine our hearts to see who is reigning there?—Yes; for if he is not ruling over our affections now, we shall not be partakers of his kingdom hereafter.

36. Have we not each some talent we shall be called to an account for?—Yes; we all have time and influence, and more or less of means and abilities, to use for God's glory.

37. Will you not have to give an account of even this lesson?—Yes, and of every sermon we hear.

38. What should you, then, strive to do?—To remember what we hear, and, by the grace of God, to live and act according to it.

39. Was David's reign a type of the peaceful reign of the Lord Jesus?—No; he had been a man of war.

40. Which king's reign is a type of it?—Solomon's.

41. What is the meaning of the name Solomon?—"Peaceable."

Solomon. (1 Kings 1–11; 1 Chron. 21–29; 2 Chron. 1–9.)

1. Of whom was Solomon a type?—Of Christ, his peaceful reign being like the final kingdom of the Prince of Peace.

2. Whose son was he?—David's.

3. What did the children cry of Jesus in the temple when he was on earth?—Hosanna to the son of David! Matt. 21 : 15.

4. Read John 6 : 15, and say what temporal honor the people wished to force upon Jesus?—Jesus perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king.

5. Was the Lord Jesus rightful heir to David's throne on earth?—Yes.

6. Would he consent to take it from their hands?—No.

7. From whom will the Lord Jesus receive his kingdom?—From God the Father in the appointed time.

8. What did these same people do to the Lord Jesus very soon afterward?—They derided his claim to be king and clamored for his crucifixion.

9. When will Jesus take to himself his great power and reign?—At the day of judgment. Rev. 11 : 15–18.

10. Is this coming glory prophesied of in Scripture?—In 2 Thess. 1 : 7–10, and other places.

11. What was the first thing that Solomon did when he came to the throne—that is, after his father's death?—He put Joab and Shimei (among others) to death. 1 Kings 2 : 28–46.

12. Who had previously condemned them?—David. 1 Kings 2 : 5, 6, 8, 9.

13. How will our final award be settled?—He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mark 16 : 16. Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward. 2 John 8.

14. Who will be our Judge?—God, in Christ.

15. How does the Lord judge?—Man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart. 1 Sam. 16 : 7.

16. By what standard shall we be judged?—He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. John 12 : 48.

17. Did Jesus judge men when he was on earth?—No.

> If any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. John 12 : 47.

18. To what time does the Lord Jesus defer the judgment?—To the last day. John 12 : 48.

19. Were not David in deferring the judgment, and Solomon in executing it, great types of this?—Yes.

20. Have sinners any hope from the circumstance that God delays judgment?—None at all, if they remain impenitent.

21. Say what merciful reason the apostle Peter gives for delay in the last chapter of his Second Epistle?—The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

22. Can you give some texts where the certainty of the judgment-day is spoken of?—Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all. Jude 14, 15. When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory; and before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats; and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteous into life eternal. Matt. 25 : 31–36, 46. Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him; and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Rev. 1 : 7.

23. Can you give a description of it?—I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them; and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire. Rev. 20 : 11–15.

24. Will it be of any use for us to run to "the altar" (as Joab did) then?—No; the day of salvation will have past, there will remain no more sacrifice for sin, and the mountains and rocks will be no shelter from the wrath of the Lamb.

25. Of whom is the altar a type?—Of Christ, the refuge now from the wrath to come.

26. When should we flee to Jesus and lay hold of his righteousness?—"Now is the accepted time." 2 Cor. 5 : 2.

27. Who was Solomon's queen?—Pharaoh's daughter. 1 Kings 3 : 1.

28. Had Egypt been a friend or enemy to Israel in former time?—An enemy and oppressor for a long time after Joseph's death.

29. Was it not remarkable that Solomon should choose a bride from Egypt?—Yes, but she is supposed to have embraced the Jewish religion.

30. Of whom was Solomon's bride a type?—Of the Church, the bride of Christ. Rev. 19 : 7, 8.

31. For whom did the Lord Jesus die? Was it for angels?—Forasmuch, then, as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same. Heb. 2 : 14.

32. By taking on himself our nature, to what place of dignity has he raised his people?—To be "heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ" (Rom. 8 : 17), and "to sit with" him "in" his "throne." Rev. 3 : 21.

33. By whose command did Solomon build the temple?—By command of God. 1 Kings 5 : 5.

34. Who had prepared greatly for this before him?—David. 1 Chron. 22.

35. Why was not David permitted to build the temple?—Because he had "been a man of war." 1 Chron. 28 : 3.

36. To whom had the pattern been shown?—To David "by the Spirit" of God. 1 Chron. 28 : 11, 12.

37. Who selected the place on which the temple was to be built?—David. 1 Chron. 21 : 28–22 : 2.

38. On what mountain was it built?—Moriah. 2 Chron. 3 : 1.

39. What wondrous act of faith had taken place on that mountain about eight hundred years before?—It has been supposed that Abraham offered up Isaac on this spot.

40. What is on that mountain now?—The Turkish mosque or church of Omar.

41. Who provided Solomon with timber, etc.?—Hiram, king of Tyre. 1 Kings 5 : 1, 8–10.

42. Was this a gift to Solomon, or did he pay for it?—Solomon paid wages and supplied food to Hiram's men (1 Kings 5 : 6, 9), and gave him twenty cities in Galilee. 1 Kings 9 : 11.

43. Was anything done in Lebanon besides felling the trees?—Stone was hewn from the quarries. 1 Kings 5 : 17.

44. Was the stone also prepared before it came to the temple?—Yes. 1 Kings 5 : 18.

45. Of what was this a type?—Of the preparation of God's people to be "the temple of the living God" (2 Cor. 6 : 16), built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone. Eph. 2 : 20.

46. What is said in Matt. 25 : 10 about being ready?—While they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage; and the door was shut.

47. Can you see any resemblance between the state of these virgins in the parable and the trees of Lebanon in the time of Solomon?—Both were fit and ready for the service for which they were required.

48. What tree does the woodman select when he seeks timber?—A tree of the proper kind of wood, straight, sound and of sufficient size.

49. What becomes of small wood, brambles, brushwood, etc.?—They are burned.

50. What warning word should we allow to have influence over us?—Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh. Matt. 24 : 44.

51. How was Solomon's temple dedicated?—There was a solemn feast, the bringing in of the ark, Solomon's prayer and blessing, and a sacrifice of peace-offerings. 1 Kings 8.

52. Who was raised up above all the people?—Solomon.

53. Who blessed them?—Solomon.

54. Of whom was he a type in this?—Of Christ.

55. Who will be gathered together when God's spiritual temple, formed of living stones, is reared?—God's holy people.

> If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. 1 Cor. 3 : 17.
> Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. 2 : 5.

56. Who is the foundation and chief corner-stone of that glorious building?—"Jesus Christ himself." Eph. 2 : 20.

57. Will it do to build good works or human merit on this foundation?—We cannot add to or extend the foundation; we can only build upon it the spiritual house, the . . . holy temple.

58. What are all such vain things compared to in 1 Cor. 3 : 11–17?—To "wood, hay and stubble."

59. What remarkable dream did Solomon have immediately after his father's death?—That God asked him what he should give him. 1 Kings 3 : 5.

60. What did he ask for?—Wisdom to govern his people well. 1 Kings 3 : 9.

61. What did God promise to give him that he did not ask for?—Riches and honor. 1 Kings 3 : 13.

62. Describe Solomon's grandeur?—He had an immense daily provision for his household, and thousands of chariot-horses and riders. 1 Kings 4 : 22, 23, 26.

63. What queen, having heard of it from afar, came to visit Solomon?—The queen of Sheba in Arabia. 1 Kings 10.

64. Was she disappointed?—No; she said that half had not been told her. 1 Kings 10 : 7.

65. What testimony did she leave behind her?—She testified to the blessedness of those who served the living God.

66. Has the glory of the Lord Jesus been exaggerated?—No; it exceeds all that is revealed to us on earth.

> Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit. 1 Cor. 2 : 9, 10.

67. When the Lord Jesus compared himself with Solomon, and spoke about the queen of Sheba, what did he say?—The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it; for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here. Matt. 12 : 42.

68. How and by what means may we hope to share that glory by and by?—By giving him our faith and love and service now.

69. What is the best proof we can give that we believe the Bible to be true?—Believing in the Saviour it reveals to us, obeying the commands it gives us, and making it known, as far as we can, to every creature.

Proverbs.

1. Who wrote the book of Proverbs?—Solomon. Prov. 1 : 1.

2. To whom is the book addressed?—To his son Rehoboam.

3. How many chapters does Solomon take in addressing his son before the Proverbs begin?—Nine.

Chapter 1.

4. What does Solomon say is the beginning of wisdom?—The fear of the Lord. Prov. 1 : 7.

5. What does he say is an ornament of grace to the neck of a child?—Obedience to the instructions of his father and mother. Prov. 1 : 8, 9.

6. How does he warn his son against sinners?—To keep out of their way. Prov. 1 : 10–19.

7. Whom does Solomon mean when he says, "Wisdom crieth without"?—Jesus Christ.

> Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Cor. 1 : 30.
> The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children. Matt. 11 : 19.

8. Which is the only book that can be said to be "wisdom"?—The Book, the Bible.

> Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute. Luke 11 : 49.

9. What has the Lord Jesus promised to "pour out" on those who "turn at his reproof"?—He has said that our heavenly Father will give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him. Luke 11 : 13.

10. And what has he said will be the condemnation of those who refuse when he calls?—To be judged by his word at the last day. John 12 : 48.

11. What is written in 2 Cor. 6 : 2?—Behold, now is the day of salvation.

Chapter 2.

12. What reward is promised those who seek diligently after the Lord Jesus, the true "Wisdom"?—That they shall find him.

13. What blessings will they enjoy?—Pardon, peace, grace, hope, joy.

14. From what will it preserve them?—True wisdom preserves from the ways and society of the wicked, from all folly and sin, and from all real evil.

15. Who rejoices to do evil?—The ungodly man. Prov. 2 : 12–14.

16. Who has promised to be the "guide of youth"?—God, who thus invites the young to come unto him:

> Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My Father, thou art the guide of my youth? Jer. 2 : 4.

17. What great contrast is there in this chapter between the upright and the wicked?—The upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it. But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the trangressors shall be rooted out of it. Prov. 2 : 21, 22.

Chapter 3.

18. How can we write anything on the tablets of our heart?—By fixing it in our memory and our affections.

19. How can we hope that God will direct our path?—If we seek and trust his guidance rather than our own. Prov. 3 : 5, 6.

20. Why should we not be weary of God's correction?—Because it is a sure token of his wisdom and love. Prov. 3 : 11, 12.

21. Can you tell me some of the ways in which God corrects us?—By sickness, losses, disappointments, and many things that are called accidents or misfortunes.

22. Which does it make us, "happy" or unhappy, to find Jesus (the true "Wisdom")?—Happy, as we have then a treasure we can never lose.

23. How did Solomon estimate wisdom?—Above riches and honor.

24. What does the apostle Peter say about the value of the blood shed by the Lord Jesus?—That it is "precious." 1 Pet. 1 : 19.

25. What is the Lord Jesus to those who believe in him?—"Precious." 1 Pet. 2 : 7.

26. What is the Lord Jesus called in Matt. 13 : 44–46?—A treasure and a pearl of great price.

27. What are "wisdom's" ways called?—"Ways of pleasantness and peace." Prov. 3 : 17.

28. What does the Lord Jesus himself say of those in Matt. 11 : 28–30?—Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

29. Who is here spoken of as "the tree of life"?—Jesus Christ, the true Wisdom. Prov. 3 : 18.

30. Where was that tree first planted?—In the garden of Eden. Gen. 2 : 8, 9.

31. Will any one have a right to taste it again?—Yes.

> Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. Rev. 22 : 14.
> To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God. Rev. 2 : 7.

32. By whom did the Lord create the heaven and the earth?—By Jesus Christ.

> In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. John 1 : 1, 3.
> Who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature; for by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him. Col. 1 : 15, 16.

33. Have those anything to fear who put their trust in the Lord? Why not?—No. Because God has promised it. Prov. 3 : 21–26, 5, 6.

34. Is there any charge in this chapter to be benevolent?—Prov. 3 : 9, 10, 27, 28.

35. Who is an abomination to the Lord?—The froward or self-willed. Prov. 3 : 32.

36. What will be the glorious destiny of "the wise"?—To inherit glory. Prov. 3 : 35.

37. Does this mean earthly or heavenly wisdom?—Heavenly, as much of the wisdom of this world is really folly and ends in shame.

Chapter 4.

38. What description does Solomon give of his father and mother in this chapter?—That his father wisely instructed him, and his mother tenderly loved him. Prov. 4 : 3, 4.

39. Who was Solomon's father?—David.

40. What was his mother's name?—Bathsheba.

41. What instructions did David give him?—Prov. 4 : 4–19.

42. What great contrast is there in the eighteenth and nineteenth verses between "the just" and "the wicked"?—The way of the just is light, and of the wicked dark.

43. Can you give any examples from the New Testament where wickedness is compared to darkness?—This is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. John 3 : 19. Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. Eph. 5 : 11. The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. Rom. 13 : 12.

44. What does the Lord Jesus call himself in John 8 : 12?—The light of the world.

45. What does Jesus command in Matt. 5 : 16?—Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

46. What does Solomon say of "wisdom" in the seventh and two following verses?—(Read them.)

47. Who is intended by wisdom? Who is it that shall give us the promised "crown of glory"?—Jesus Christ.

> Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. James 1 : 12.
> When the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 Pet. 5 : 4.
>
> Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith. Heb. 12 : 2.
> Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Tim. 4 : 8.

48. What does Solomon say about the heart in this chapter at the twenty-third verse?—(Read it.)

49. What does the prophet Jeremiah say about the heart?—The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? Jer. 17 : 9.

50. What did the Lord Jesus say about the heart when he was on earth?—Out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. Matt. 15 : 19.

51. Repeat David's prayer respecting his heart.—Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. Ps. 51 : 10.

52. Whose office alone is it to search the heart?—I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. Jer. 17 : 10. The Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart. 1 Sam. 16 : 7. Shall not God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart. Ps. 44 : 21. If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works? Ps. 24 : 12. O Lord of hosts, that triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart. Jer. 20 : 12.

53. Who promises to renew the heart?—I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh. Ezek. 11 : 19. A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. Ezek. 36 : 26.

Chapters 5, 6, 7.

54. By what endearing title does Solomon address the youth in these chapters?—The title of "son."

55. What encouragement have we to regard God as our Father in Heb. 12 : 5–7?—Because he there speaks tenderly to his afflicted people as children.

> Ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him; for whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

56. To what little insect are we referred as an example in Prov. 6 : 6–8?—To the ant.

57. What has a lazy person to expect?—Poverty and want. Prov. 6 : 9–11.

58. Name the seven things that the Lord hates?—See Prov. 6 : 16–19.

59. How can we bind a thing continually on our heart?—By thinking earnestly or affectionately upon it. Prov. 6 : 20, 27; 7 : 2, 3.

60. Is there any blessing attached to a child who is obedient to his parents?—Guidance in life and preservation from sin and harm are here promised. Prov. 6 : 20, etc.

61. Which is the only commandment among the Ten Commandments which has a promise joined with it?—The fifth.

62. To what are a parent's instructions compared in Prov. 6 : 23?—To a lamp or light.

63. Where else is the word of God compared, as in this sense, to a lamp?—In Ps. 119 : 105.

> Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

Chapters 8, 9.

64. Whom does Solomon mean when he says, "Wisdom cries, she standeth"?—Christ Jesus, who is wisdom for us and in us.

> Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Cor. 1 : 30.

65. What does "Wisdom" say in chap. 8 : 6?—Hear.

66. What did the Lord Jesus say, when on earth, in Matt. 11 : 15; 13 : 9?—He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

67. What does "Wisdom" say in chap. 8 : 7?—"My mouth shall speak truth."

68. What does the Lord Jesus say in John 14 : 6?—"I am the truth."

69. To what does Solomon compare "wisdom"?—To gold and rubies. Prov. 8 : 11, 19.

70. What did St. Paul, in his letter to the Philippians, consider all things when compared with Christ Jesus?—I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord; for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ. Phil. 3 : 8.

71. Does "the fear of the Lord" (Prov. 8 : 13) mean hating God, or hating what he disapproves of?—It means hating what he disapproves of through love to him, and consequent fear of offending him.

72. What does the Lord hate?—Pride and all other sin. Prov. 8 : 13.

73. If God hates pride, how ought we to feel toward that sin in ourselves?—We should hate it too.

74. By whom do kings and princes rule?—By the King of kings and Lord of lords. Rev. 19 : 16.

75. What encouragement does Jesus give to the young to seek him?—Prov. 8 : 32, 33. Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them. Mark 10 : 14, 16.

76. What blessings are promised to those who choose him for their portion?—Constant guidance upon earth and a lasting treasure in heaven.

77. Where was the Lord Jesus when God created the world?—With God, as being God himself. Prov. 8 : 27–31.

78. Had the Lord Jesus existed before that time?—Yes, from everlasting. Prov. 8 : 22–26.

79. Did Jesus even then take pleasure in his people?—He did.

> We love him, because he first loved us. 1 John 4 : 19.

80. How does Jesus invite us to him?—Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Matt. 11 : 28.

81. What remarkable comparison is there between Prov. 9 : 1–5 and Matt. 22 : 1–14?—The sameness of the feast or provision of religious truth then and now, and of the welcome to it.

82. Who spreads the feast? and who are invited to come?—Christ in each case spreads the feast, and all the needy are invited to come.

83. Is not religion a personal thing?—Yes; the words in the singular number here betoken this. Prov. 8 : 34, 35; 9 : 12. No mere union, by sacraments or profession, with a Christian Church will save our souls. We should be able to say with St. Paul in Gal. 2 : 20, he "loved me and gave himself for me."

84. Whose fault will it be if those who are thus invited, warned and counseled are lost at last?—Their own; and this consciousness of willful folly, as well as sin, will be a gnawing worm of anguish that will never die.

Ecclesiastes.

1. By whom was Ecclesiastes written?—By Solomon.

2. What is the meaning of the term Ecclesiastes?—The "Preacher."

3. Had Solomon any means of knowing the subject on which he wrote? How?—He had personal experience and divine teaching.

4. What was the result of his great knowledge?—That all is vanity under the sun. Eccles. 1 : 2, 3.

5. Was there anything that Solomon found under the sun sufficient to satisfy his soul?—Nothing.

6. What is the meaning of that term, "under the sun"?—Things that relate to this world alone.

7. Where, then, must we look for solid happiness?—To the world to come.

8. What will be the end of "everything under the sun"?—The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. 2 Pet. 3 : 10. All the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree. Isa. 34 : 4. And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. Rev. 6 : 14.

9. Where should we then lay up our treasure?—Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal; for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. Matt. 6 : 20, 21.

10. Did Solomon wish to impress this truth on us?—He did.

11. What arguments does he use in Eccles. 12 to urge this in early life?—The approach of old age and of death. Eccles. 12 : 1–7.

12. What does he say is the conclusion of the whole matter?—Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. Eccles. 12 : 13, 14.

13. Which, then, is the wisest and happiest person—he who lives in pleasure or he who lives to God?—He who lives to God.

14. What was the apostle Paul's estimate of present things and things to come?—I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. Rom. 8 : 18. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Cor. 4 : 17, 18.

15. What does Luke 16 : 19–25 teach us?—The parable of the rich man and Lazarus shows us the sad end of those who have only earthly riches when they come to die.

16. Can we venture to have a little of this world first, and hope for heaven after?—No. Luke 12 : 16–21.

17. What was the apostle James's estimate of all that might be enjoyed "under the sun"?—Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days. James 5 : 1–3.

18. Was it not the prospect of resurrection and the coming of the Lord that also sustained the apostle Paul?—It was.

> I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die. 1 Cor. 15 : 31, 32.

19. Seeing life is uncertain, and death sure, what ought we to do?—Forsake our wicked way, and "seek the Lord while he may be found." Isa. 55 : 6, 7.

Rehoboam. (1 Kings 11 and 12.)

1. What great sin was Solomon guilty of in his latter days?—Idolatry, through the influence of his wives. 1 Kings 11 : 4.

2. What did the Lord say to Solomon about this?—

That he would take away the greater part of his kingdom from his family. 1 Kings 11 : 11–13.

3. To what "covenant" did the Lord refer?—When thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build an house for my name, and I will stablish the throne of his kingdom for ever. I will be his father, and he shall be my son. 2 Sam. 7 : 12–14.

4. Had Solomon broken this covenant?—Yes, by his idolatry.

5. What were the consequences?—The stirring up of enemies after a long reign of peace.

6. How many adversaries did the Lord raise up against Solomon?—Hadad the Edomite, Rezon the Syrian, and Jeroboam his servant.

7. Whom had Solomon to blame for this?—Himself alone, for his folly and sin.

8. Whom have we to blame for punishment if we sin against God?—Ourselves alone.

9. How long did Solomon reign?—Forty years.

10. Who succeeded him?—Rehoboam his son.

11. Was he a wise or a foolish king?—A foolish one. 1 Kings 12.

12. What is the proof?—His following the advice of young men instead of old and experienced ones. 1 Kings 12 : 6–14.

13. What opinion do young people often form of their elders?—They often and foolishly think that their elders are behind the times, and are not so wise as they are themselves.

14. What ought Rehoboam's history teach us?—To value and follow the advice of older and wiser relations and friends.

The Kings of Israel—Jeroboam's Dynasty. (1 Kings 11 : 26–43 ; 12–16.)

1. Who was Jeroboam?—Son of Nebat and servant of Solomon. 1 Kings 11 : 26.

2. What was the name of the prophet who foretold his honors?—Ahijah. 1 Kings 11 : 29.

3. How did he do this?—By tearing Jeroboam's outer garment into twelve pieces and giving him ten.

4. When was this prophecy fulfilled?—At the revolt of the ten tribes. 1 Kings 12 : 16.

5. How was it brought about?—Through Rehoboam's refusing to listen to his people's complaint, by the advice of his young and ignorant companions. 1 Kings 12 : 16.

6. How much of Israel did Jeroboam reign over?—Ten tribes. 1 Kings 12 : 21.

7. What wicked means did he use to keep the ten tribes under his rule?—Setting up idol-worship in Bethel and Dan. 1 Kings 12 : 28, 29.

8. Where was Bethel?—In the tribe of Benjamin.

9. What remarkable circumstance happened to Jacob there before he went to Syria?—His dream of the ladder between earth and heaven.

10. How did Jacob distinguish the place when he returned from Syria? Who was buried there?—He built there an altar. Gen. 35 : 7. Deborah, Rebekah's nurse. Gen. 25 : 8.

11. Is Bethel mentioned before Jacob's time?—Abraham is said, in Gen. 12 : 8, to have encamped near Bethel.

12. Was not Jeroboam very wickedly wise to choose a place of such interest for his idol?—He was.

13. What state must Israel have been in that Jeroboam could so easily turn them to idolatry?—In a very ungodly state.

14. How is it that Satan's temptations so easily prevail over us?—Because we do not sufficiently "watch and pray."

15. Had God's law forbidden idolatry?—Repeatedly.

16. Have we any excuse for sin?—No, as we have the word of God to go to, and the voice of conscience and the striving of the Spirit within us.

17. Is there any point on which God has left us in doubt of his mind and will?—None at all, as, besides particular directions, we have general ones that include all cases.

18. Where must we go to learn God's will?—To his holy word.

19. What will be our condemnation if we do not?—Eternal punishment if we willfully and habitually neglect it.

20. Had the Israelites any excuse for idolatry, even though their king commanded it, when they had God's written law?—They had no excuse at all.

21. There was one of Jeroboam's family, though young in years, who feared the Lord; who was he?—Abijah. 1 Kings 14 : 13.

22. What did his parents do when they feared he would die?—His mother went to Ahijah the prophet to have him cured. 1 Kings 14 : 1–4.

23. Why did they not go to the calf at Bethel to save the child?—Because they had no real confidence in their idol-god.

24. Was it of any use that Jeroboam's wife disguised herself to the prophet?—No; God knew it, and made it known to him. 1 Kings 14 : 5.

25. Can we hide anything from God?—There is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether. Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me. Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? Ps. 139 : 4, 5, 7, etc.

26. What promises has God given to encourage little children to love him?—I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me. Prov. 8 : 17.

27. Does not this show that even a little child in a wicked family who tries to serve God is not unnoticed by him?—God's noticing Abijah shows this.

28. How many of Jeroboam's race came to the crown of Israel?—Only Nadab his son. 1 Kings 15 : 25–30.

29. In what disgraceful state was Elah (the last of Jeroboam's family) when he was slain?—He was drunk. 1 Kings 16 : 9.

30. By whom was he slain?—By his servant Zimri.

The Disobedient Prophet. (1 Kings 13 and 2 Kings 23 ; 15–18.)

1. Did God suffer the sinful idolatry of Israel to go unrebuked?—No.

2. Whom did the Lord send to them?—A prophet. 1 Kings 13 : 2, 3.

3. How far did he go obediently to the Lord?—To Bethel only. 1 Kings 13 : 1, 9, 10.

4. Who was standing by the altar at Bethel when he got there?—Jeroboam.

5. Was the prophet afraid to deliver his message?—No. 1 Kings 13 : 2, 3.

6. When the king heard it, what did he do?—He put out his hand to seize the prophet. 1 Kings 13 : 4.

7. Was not this a very daring act? How was it punished?—It was defying God. His arm was stiffened and dried up.

8. How was the king's arm recovered?—By the prophet's prayer.

9. Did the man of God go home with the king and take refreshment with him?—No, for God had told him not to do so. 1 Kings 13 : 7–9.

10. Who tempted the man of God to turn aside?—An old prophet. 1 Kings 13 : 11–19.

11. Ought he to have rested on God's word spoken to him, or believed this old prophet's word?—If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder, and the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them; thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the Lord your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. Deut. 13 : 1–3.

12. Did God use the lips of the old prophet again to really speak his word?—Yes. 1 Kings 13 : 20–22.

13. Must not this have been heavy tidings to the disobedient one?—It must indeed. How careful should we be to exactly obey!

14. How was the prophecy fulfilled?—He was killed by a lion. 1 Kings 13 : 24.

15. Did God quite cast off the man of God for this act of disobedience?—No; he preserved his body for burial, and took care that his prophecy was fulfilled.

16. How did the old prophet feel toward him?—He mourned for him and buried him, and wished to be laid beside him. 1 Kings 13 : 29–31.

17. What mark of respect also did Josiah, the king of Judah, pay to his memory in after years?—He "let no man move his bones." 2 Kings 23 : 18.

The Kings of Israel—Zimri, Omri and Ahab. (1 Kings 16–22.)

1. Who was Zimri?—One of the captains of Elah, son of Baasha. 1 Kings 16 : 8, 9.

2. What vengeance did he execute on the wicked family of Jeroboam?—He killed Elah, the third successor of Jeroboam.

3. How long did Zimri reign?—About seven days. 1 Kings 16 : 15–19.

4. What was his end?—He burnt himself in his house when surrounded by his enemies.

5. Who reigned over Israel next?—Omri. 1 Kings 16 : 16.

6. Who was he? and how long did he reign?—He was commander of the army, and reigned twelve years. 1 Kings 16 : 23.

7. What city did he purchase and make the chief city of Israel?—Samaria. 1 Kings 16 : 24.

8. What was the name of his son?—Ahab.

9. How was Ahab distinguished above the kings that went before him?—In wickedness. 1 Kings 16 : 30.

10. What was the name of his wife? and whose daughter was she?—Jezebel, daughter of the king of Zidon. 1 Kings 16 : 31.

11. What new idol-worship was she the means of bringing in?—The worship of Baal.

12. What is recorded of Jericho in his reign?—That it was rebuilt by Hiel. 1 Kings 16 : 34.

13. Of what prophecy was this the fulfillment?—Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the Lord that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his first-born, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it (Josh. 6 : 26)—i. e., he should lose all his children during the building of it.

14. Can God's word ever fall to the ground?—No; all must come to pass.

15. Are there any prophecies yet to be fulfilled?—Many in the book of Revelation and elsewhere as to the conversion and restoration of the Jews, the second coming and kingdom of Christ, the last judgment and other events.

16. Are we interested in them?—We are eternally in many of them.

17. In what state should we at all times be found?—Watching and ready, as we "know not what hour" our "Lord doth come." Matt. 24 : 42, 44.

Elijah during Famine. (1 Kings 17.)

1. Who was Elijah?—A prophet of Gilead.

2. Where was Gilead?—On the east of Jordan.

3. What was Elijah commissioned to tell Ahab?—That there should be neither dew nor rain.

4. Why did God send a famine on the land?—It shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee: cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field. Cursed shall be thy basket and thy store. Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep. Deut. 28 : 15–18.

5. Where did God promise to provide for Elijah? and how?—By the brook Cherith, and by means of ravens.

6. When the brook dried up, where did the Lord command Elijah to go?—To Zarephath (1 Kings 17 : 9), where a widow would sustain him.

7. In what sorrowful employment did Elijah find the woman engaged?—In gathering sticks to dress her last meal.

8. Did she seem aware of the wonderful miracle that was wrought day by day?—No.

9. What should this teach us?—To beware of not observing and not being thankful for the good providence of God.

10. How did the Lord convince her that he was the living God?—By Elijah's restoring her dead child to life.

11. Did she confess it at last?—Yes. 1 Kings 17 : 24.

12. What proof have we that God is the living God?—His word by St. Paul that "he giveth to all life and breath and all things," and that "in him we live and move and have our being."

13. Is not the written word of God to us now what the spoken word was by the prophets then?—Yes; "we have a more sure word of prophecy," to which we should "take heed." 2 Pet. 1 : 19.

Elijah on Carmel. (1 Kings 18.)

1. Were Israel at this time idolaters, or worshipers of the true God?—Idolaters—worshipers of Baal.

2. Were all Israel worshipers of Baal?—No; seven thousand of them were not.

3. Who was Obadiah?—Governor or steward of Ahab's house.

4. What kind act had he performed when Jezebel, the wicked queen, slew the Lord's prophets?—He had hid and fed them.

5. How many years had the famine lasted when Elijah stood before Ahab?—Above two years. 1 Kings 18 : 1.

6. What did Ahab accuse Elijah of doing?—Of being the cause of Israel's trouble.

7. Who was really to blame?—Ahab himself and the other idolaters.

8. How did Elijah propose to decide the point as to who was the living God?—By observing upon whose sacrifice the fire came down from heaven. 1 Kings 18 : 24.

9. How does Isaiah describe idols?—He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak: he burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire: and the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshipeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god. Isa. 44 : 14, 16, 17.

10. How does the Psalmist describe them?—Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not: they have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not: they have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat. They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them. Ps. 115 : 4–8.

11. Was it of any use for Baal's priests to cry to him?—None at all.

12. How did Elijah mock them?—By telling them to cry aloud, as their god might be asleep. 1 Kings 18 : 27.

13. Did he give them time enough to make a fair trial?—Yes, from morning till evening. 1 Kings 18 : 26, 29.

14. About what time in the day was it when Elijah built his altar to the true God?—About evening. 1 Kings 18 : 29, 30.

15. Of what use was the trench he had made round the altar?—That the water might not escape.

16. Why did he drench the sacrifice with water?—To show the power of the fire.

17. How was the power of God manifested?—By the fire drying up the water and burning the wet bullock and wood and stone.

18. What effect did it have on the people?—They fell on their faces and cried out that Jehovah was the true God. 1 Kings 18 : 39.

19. What became of Baal's priests?—They were taken and slain.

20. What did Elijah venture to promise Ahab even before there was any appearance of it?—Abundance of rain.

21. On what did Elijah's faith rest?—On the promise of God. 1 Kings 18 : 1.

22. What is faith?—"The substance" or realizing "of things hoped for," "the evidence" or assurance "of things not seen." Heb. 11 : 1.

23. How many times had Elijah to ask ere the promised blessing came?—Seven or eight times.

24. What should this teach us?—Always to pray, and not to faint. Luke 18 : 1–7.

25. How was the Lord's power again manifested on Elijah, although he had had a day of such extraordinary energy?—In enabling him to run before Ahab's chariot.

26. Was Elijah like one of us, or was he a supernatural being?—Elias was a man subject to like passions (or infirmities) as we are (a human being like ourselves), and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain; and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months. And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit. James 5 : 17, 18.

27. Is God as much the hearer and answerer of prayer now as he was then?—He is always the same.

Elijah in the Desert. (1 Kings 19.)

1. What proof did Elijah give that he was "a man subject to like passions with us"?—In his weakness of body and mind he requested that he might die. 1 Kings 19 : 4.

2. To what place did he flee for fear of Jezebel?—To Beersheba. 1 Kings 19 : 3.

3. What kind care did the Lord take of him there?—An angel brought him bread and water.

4. Was he more than once invited to eat?—Yes, twice. 1 Kings 19 : 7.

5. For how long did that food sustain him?—Forty days.

6. When he was revived, to what place did he go?—To Mount Horeb.

7. Is it the Lord's will that his servants should be idle?—No; he has always work for every one to do.

8. What did the Lord say to Elijah?—What doest thou here, Elijah?

9. Is this not a striking proof that it is not the Lord's will that people should live shut up in monasteries or live as lonely hermits?—It is.

10. Can any former work excuse them from future service?—Not while the means are in their power.

11. What is God's way of speaking to his people? Is it in the fire, wind and earthquake, or how?—He sometimes speaks in the louder voice of suffering and distress, but more frequently in the gentler one of his Spirit's whisper to the heart.

12. Where can we hear his "still small voice"?—All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. 2 Tim. 3 : 16, 17. God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son. Heb. 1 : 1, 2. We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place. 2 Pet. 1 : 19.

13. What effect should it have on us?—It should dispose us to say, with Eli, "Speak, Lord, for thy servant heareth." 1 Sam. 3 : 9.

14. Can any supposed mystery in the dealings of God be an excuse for neglect of duty?—No; we must do our part, and leave God to explain in his own time.

15. What further work did the Lord give Elijah to do?—To anoint two kings and a prophet. 1 Kings 19 : 15, 16.

16. What effect did the casting of Elijah's mantle on Elisha have?—It made him leave his work and his home for the service to which God had called him.

17. Did Elisha wait till Elijah was taken up? or did he follow him at once?—He followed him at once.

18. What does the Lord say in Prov. 8 : 17 to encourage young people to follow him?—"Those that seek me early shall find me."

Ahab's Public and Private Character. (1 Kings 20 and 21.)

1. What was Ahab's character in the sight of God?—He did more to provoke him than all the kings of Israel before him. 1 Kings 16 : 33.

2. Had God at this time given up Israel?—No; he still warned them by his prophets.

3. Were there other prophets at this time in Israel besides Elijah?—Yes, there were false prophets, as well as true.

4. Who were Israel's greatest enemies at this time?—The Syrians.

5. What was the capital city of Syria?—Damascus.

6. Who was king of Syria at this time?—Benhadad.

7. What did he purpose to do to Israel?—To destroy Samaria. 1 Kings 20 : 10.

8. How did the Lord frustrate his design?—By means of the household servants of Ahab's princes when Benhadad and his royal allies were drunk.

9. Was Ahab grateful for this?—Probably not.

10. How did the Lord show his displeasure?—By bringing the Syrians to attack him again. 1 Kings 20 : 26, 42.

11. Who was Naboth?—The owner of a vineyard near Ahab's palace in Jezreel. 1 Kings 21.

12. Why did he not like to let Ahab have his vineyard?—Because he was forbidden by the law to part with what had come to him from his fathers.

> The land shall not be sold for ever; for the land is mine; for ye are strangers and sojourners with me. And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land. Lev. 25 : 23, 24.

13. What wicked act did Jezebel stir Ahab up to do?—To kill Naboth and take his vineyard.

14. Did God suffer this to go unpunished?—No.

15. Who was sent to Ahab?—Elijah.

16. How did Ahab salute him?—As his enemy who had found him out, for his conscience pricked him. 1 Kings 21 : 20.

17. What fearful prediction did he utter?—That God would destroy Ahab's family, and that the dogs should eat the flesh of Jezebel and lick his own blood.

18. How did Ahab receive the tidings?—He showed the outward signs of repentance and humbled himself before God.

19. What proof is there in this place of the truth of Jonah 4 : 2?—God delayed the punishment.

> I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

The Kings of Judah—Abijah, Asa and Jehoshaphat. (2 Chron. 13–17.)

1. Who succeeded Rehoboam as king of Judah?—Abijah his son. 2 Chron. 12 : 16.

2. What was his mother's name? and whose daughter was she?—Michaiah, daughter of Uriel.

3. What beautiful testimony did he bear against Israel's idolatry?—That they had forsaken God and his altars, and made themselves golden calves. 2 Chron. 13 : 8–11.

4. To whom did the army of Judah cry when they were in danger?—To God. 2 Chron. 13 : 14.

5. What was the result?—They gained the battle, because they relied upon God.

6. Who followed Abijah on the throne of Judah?—Asa his son. 2 Chron. 14 : 1.

7. What was Asa's character in God's estimation?—He did what was good and right.

8. What proof did he give of his heart being right with God when he first came to the throne?—He destroyed the idols and their places of worship.

9. Was his early reign prosperous?—Yes, his land was at peace.

10. How did he behave when the vast army from Ethiopia came up against him?—He prayed to God and fought in his name.

11. What was the result?—The Ethiopians fled.

12. Is God the same as he was then?—The same now and for ever.

13. Does he hear and answer prayer now as he did then?—Yes, as every one, whether young or old, can testify who really prays.

14. What encouragement did the Lord give Asa by the mouth of Azariah the prophet?—That God would be with him as long as he was with God, or obedient to him. 2 Chron. 15 : 1–7.

15. What similar promise is given to us in Prov. 8?—"I love them that love me." Prov. 8 : 17.

16. What effect did it have on the king and people?—He put down idolatry, and the people made a covenant to seek the Lord with all their heart (2 Chron. 15 : 8–15), and God gave them peace.

17. Did this happy state of things continue to the end of Asa's reign? How did he behave when Baasha king of Israel came against him?—It continued to the thirty-fifth year of his reign, when, instead of going for help to God, he sent to the king of Syria. 2 Chron. 16 : 1–4.

18. Did the Lord suffer this to go unnoticed?—No; he sent Hanani to reprove him.

19. What did the prophet say to Asa?—He reminded him of God's readiness to help his people, and told him that henceforth he should have wars.

20. How did Asa receive the reproof?—He was enraged, and put the prophet in prison.

21. How was he punished?—He suffered and died of a painful disease.

22. Are any of our actions hidden from God?—The ways of man are before the eyes of the Lord, and he pondereth all his goings. Prov. 5 : 21. The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good. Prov. 15 : 3. Mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes. Jer. 16 : 17. If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me. Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee. Ps. 139: 11, 12.

23. Who succeeded Asa on the throne of Judah?—Jehoshaphat his son. 2 Chron. 17 : 1.

24. What character did he bear?—He sought the God of his father and walked in his commandments.

25. What beautiful testimony is continually given to David?—That he was a pattern in his general conduct for others to imitate.

26. Was Jehoshaphat's a prosperous reign?—Yes, he was long without war, and became a very great king, and had riches and honor in abundance.

27. Describe his army?—(Read 2 Chron. 17 : 14–19.)

Micaiah. (2 Chron. 18 and 1 Kings 22.)

2. Was Ahab glad to make the compact?—Yes; he made a feast for Jehoshaphat and his servants.

3. Who were the enemies that still fought against Israel?—The Syrians.

4. What place had they taken?—Ramoth-gilead.

5. Where was it?—In the tribe of Gad on the east of Jordan.

6. What did Jehoshaphat require before he would go up to fight?—That the will of God should be known.

7. What did all Ahab's prophets say?—That he might go, and God would be with him. 2 Chron. 18 : 5.

8. Was the king of Judah satisfied?—No.

9. Whom did he wish to consult?—Micaiah.

10. Why did not Ahab like Micaiah?—Because he always prophesied evil unto him.

11. Was it not very foolish of Ahab to be satisfied with lies?—Very.

12. When are we like Ahab in this?—When we let our own ignorant, selfish and sinful wishes influence our conduct and our prayers.

13. What is the only sure test of truth?—God's word.

14. What does the Psalmist say in Ps. 119 : 105, 140?—"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path" . . . "is very pure."

15. What did Jehoshaphat's love of truth prove him to be?—A true servant of God.

16. What wonderful vision did Micaiah describe?—Of God upon his throne, and the host of heaven around him, and of an evil spirit going forth to entice Ahab to his fall.

17. Is there in Scripture any other display of what occurs in the unseen world?—In Job 1 and Isa. 6, etc.

18. How did Ahab reward the faithful prophet?—He put him in prison.

19. What did Ahab do to prevent his prediction from coming true?—He disguised himself, that he might not be known.

20. What narrow escape had Jehoshaphat in the battle?—The Syrians mistook him for Ahab, and surrounded him.

21. By whom was he delivered?—By God, who caused them to leave him.

22. Can any circumstances be too difficult for the Lord to overrule?—None.

23. How was Ahab killed?—By an arrow shot at random.

24. How was Elijah's prediction in 1 Kings 21 : 19 fulfilled?—The dogs licked up his blood in his chariot.

25. Was it of any use that Ahab disguised himself in the battle?—None at all.

26. Can we hide ourselves from God?—We cannot.

27. What during his life did Ahab build?—Some cities, an ivory house and a sepulchre.

28. Have these works rendered his name honorable?—No.

29. What alone is true honor?—That which comes from God.

Elijah and the Living God. (2 Kings 1 and 2.)

1. Which of Ahab's sons succeeded his father?—Ahaziah. 1 Kings 22 : 40.

4. What means did he take for his recovery?—He sent to an idol-god. 2 Kings 1 : 2.

5. What testimony did Elijah bear to this impiety?—He said that he should not recover.

6. What course did Ahaziah take?—He sent soldiers to take him.

7. What befell his messengers?—They were consumed by fire from heaven.

8. Did all share alike?—The last party was spared in answer to their leader's prayer.

9. Was Elijah induced to alter his denunciation against the king?—No.

10. Who reigned in Israel after Ahaziah? and what relation was he to that king?—Jehoram. His brother. 2 Kings 1 : 17 ; 3 : 1.

11. What peculiar testimony did Elijah bear all through his life?—Against idolatry and for the honor of God.

12. Was not Elijah privileged to manifest this in his departure from this world?—God's glory was shown in the miracle wrought and in the translation to heaven.

13. How did that event take place?—In a whirlwind, by a chariot and horses of fire. 2 Kings 2 : 11.

14. Who was permitted to witness it?—Elisha.

15. What favor was Elijah permitted to grant Elisha ere he was parted from him?—To ask what he should do for him.

16. What did Elisha request?—A double portion of Elijah's spirit.

17. How often in Elijah's history is his mantle mentioned?—Three times. 1 Kings 19 : 13, 19 and 2 Kings 2 : 8.

18. Of what is Elijah's mantle a type?—Of the Holy Spirit.

19. How did Elisha use it?—To divide the waters of Jordan.

20. Of what is the parting of Jordan a type?—Of the opening of the way to heaven.

21. How many times before this had Jordan been miraculously divided?—Twice—when Israel entered Canaan, and when Elijah crossed before his death.

22. How did the other prophets recognize the superiority of Elisha?—By the spirit of Elijah resting upon him. 2 Kings 2 : 15.

23. How did they manifest their unbelief?—By proposing to send men to search for Elijah.

24. Did Elisha yield?—He did, at last.

25. What proof did Elisha at once give that he, like Elijah, was the prophet of the living God?—By healing the unwholesome water.

26. What proof of Israel's impiety did the little children give?—They mocked Elisha.

27. What did they mean by "Go up"?—Go up to heaven, like Elijah.

28. How were they punished?—They were killed by bears.

29. Does this not show that even the faults of little children are noticed by God?—It does. He sees and hates all sin.

30. How did Jesus when on earth manifest his love for little children?—By calling them to him and blessing them.

31. And what does the Lord say in Prov. 8 : 17?—Those that seek me early shall find me.

Jehoshaphat. (2 Kings 3; 2 Chron. 19, 20.)

1. Did the Lord suffer the evil confederacy which Jehoshaphat had made with Ahab to go unnoticed?—No.

2. Whom did the Lord send to warn the king?—Hanani the seer.

3. How did the Lord show his displeasure when Jehoshaphat joined affinity with Ahaziah, Ahab's son, in sending ships to go to Tarshish?—The ships were wrecked. 1 Kings 22 : 48.

4. When Ahaziah afterward wished his servants to go with Jehoshaphat's, what was his conduct?—He refused. 1 Kings 22 : 49.

5. Was Joram (son of Ahab) a better man than either his brother Ahaziah or his father?—He was better in putting away the image of Baal, but in other respects he was very wicked. 2 Kings 3 : 2, 3.

6. Did Jehoshaphat consent to go to battle with him?—He did. 2 Kings 3 : 7.

7. Whom did they go to fight?—The Moabites.

8. What other king went with them?—The king of Edom. 2 Kings 3 : 9.

9. What signal honor did the prophet Elisha put upon Jehoshaphat?—He told Jehoram that he would not have noticed him but for Jehoshaphat's sake. 2 Kings 3 : 14.

10. Why had Elisha been sent for?—To know from him whether the Moabites would be defeated or not.

11. How did the Lord appear for them?—He deceived the Moabites, by the miraculous appearance of reddened water, with the belief that the armies of the three kings had destroyed one another. 2 Kings 3 : 16, 20–23.

12. What frightful sacrifice did the king of Moab offer to propitiate his gods?—His eldest son as a burnt-offering. 2 Kings 3 : 27.

13. How did the king of Moab soon after try to revenge this defeat?—By making war against Jehoshaphat. 2 Chron. 20 : 1.

14. What kings joined with him?—The Ammonites and others.

15. How did Jehoshaphat feel?—He was afraid. 2 Chron. 20 : 3.

16. What did he do?—He proclaimed a fast and prayed to God before the people.

17. Who was Jahaziel?—A Levite.

18. What gracious message did the Lord send by him?—That he would destroy their enemies without a battle.

19. Did Jehoshaphat and his people believe the message that thus came to them from God?—Yes, and united together in praising God.

20. Does not God always honor faith in himself?—He does.

21. What is said of faith in Heb. 11 : 1?—That it "is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen."

22. What is the message that God has given us of his Son which it is necessary for us to believe if we would be saved?—That "the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin." 1 John 1 : 7.

23. Did Jehoshaphat and his people wait till after the victory before they began to praise, or did they begin before the fight?—They praised God as soon as his promise was given.

24. How did this prove their faith in God's word?—It showed that they realized what would come to pass. Heb. 11 : 1.

25. What is said of praise in Ps. 50 : 23?—That it honors God.

> Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I show the salvation of God.

26. What spoils did they gain?—Abundance of riches and jewels. 2 Chron. 20 : 25.

27. Of what is this a type?—Of the treasure in heaven of those who conquer on earth in the victory of faith.

28. What effect did this great conquest have on the nations around?—The fear of God was upon them, and they troubled Jehoshaphat no more. 2 Chron. 20 : 29, 30.

29. With whom is Jehoshaphat compared as to goodness?—With Asa his father.

30. What great abomination did he, notwithstanding all his excellence, leave in the land?—The high places of the heathen gods.

31. Which of his sons did Jehoshaphat make king during his own life?—Jehoram.

32. How long did Jehoram enjoy this honor before his father's death?—About a year. Compare 2 Kings 1 : 17 with 2 Kings 3 : 1; 8 : 16; and 2 Chron. 20 : 31.

33. How old was Jehoshaphat when he died? and how long had he reigned?—Sixty years old, having reigned twenty-five.

Elisha's Miracles—the Waters of Jericho. (2 Kings 2.)

2. Did Elijah ascend near this place?—Yes, by Jordan.

3. By whom was Jericho chiefly inhabited at this time?—By students in the schools of the prophets.

4. Did Elisha return there?—Yes. 2 Kings 2 : 18.

5. How long did he stay there?—Only a short time. 2 Kings 2 : 23, 25.

6. What caused the waters of this place to be barren?—The curse of God.

7. By whom, and when, had the curse on Jericho been pronounced?—By Joshua, after the taking of the city.

8. What was Elisha permitted to do?—To make the water good.

9. How did he do it?—By casting a little salt into it, accompanied by the healing power of God.

10. Of what was salt a type in Scripture?—Of divine grace in the heart and life. "Ye are the salt of the earth." Matt. 5 : 13.

11. What peculiar quality has salt besides its being savory?—Of preserving things from corruption.

12. Of what, then, is it a symbol?—Of divine grace.

13. Were not the children of Israel commanded to use salt with their sacrifices?—Every oblation of thy meat-offering shalt thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat-offering: with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt. Lev. 2 : 13.

14. How was this salt, thus used in the sacrifices, a type of the Lord Jesus Christ?—See 1 Tim. 3 : 16; Phil. 2 : 5–8.

15. By whom must the curse pronounced on this earth be removed?—Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us; for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. Gal. 3 : 13.

The Widow's Oil. (2 Kings 4 : 1–7.)

1. Who cried to Elisha?—The wife of one of the sons of the prophets.

2. Why did she cry to him?—Because he was the chief of the prophets.

3. What was her trouble?—That a creditor of her late husband had taken her two sons for bondmen for the debt.

4. What plea had she to offer?—That her husband had been a servant of God.

5. What did he command her to do?—To borrow several empty vessels and fill them from her pot of oil.

6. When did the oil stop running?—Only when there were no more vessels to fill.

7. Of what is oil in the Scripture a type?—Of the Holy Spirit.

8. What does the Lord promise us if we ask for this blessed gift?—If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him! Luke 11 : 13.

9. Is there any limit to God's supply? or can we receive this heavenly gift according to the empty vessel we bring to receive it?—There is no limit in God, but only in ourselves. He says, "Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it." Ps. 81 : 10.

10. How must our debt be paid?—By Jesus Christ, wholly and alone.

11. After our "debt" is paid on whom must we depend for the life of our souls?—On Jesus still.

12. Where was Shunem?—In the tribe of Issachar.

13. How was Elisha entertained by a rich woman there?—She and her husband set apart a room, to be for his use whenever he came that way, because she knew him to be a holy man of God. 2 Kings 4 : 8–10.

14. What kind gift did the Lord bestow upon her for Elisha's sake?—A child when she had none.

15. What happened to this child?—He died by a sunstroke.

16. Where was Elisha at the time?—At Mount Carmel. 2 Kings 4 : 25.

17. How did the poor mother act?—She set off quickly to Elisha.

18. What was her reply when Elisha inquired after the welfare of her household?—"It is well." 2 Kings 4 : 26.

19. What did this prove?—Her resignation to God's will and her assurance of her child being in heaven.

20. What means did Elisha at first use to recover the child?—His servant laid Elisha's staff upon the child. 2 Kings 4 : 31.

21. Did the Lord permit it to be effectual?—No.

22. What did Elisha then do?—Elisha prayed, and then stretched himself upon the child, and he revived.

23. Can God work as well without means as with them?—He can.

24. How does the Lord usually act?—By means.

25. What did the restoration of this child prove Elisha to have been?—A true prophet and servant of God.

The Meal and the Corn. (2 Kings 4 : 38–44.)

1. What was the Lord Jesus manifested to destroy?—"The works of the devil." 1 John 3 : 8.

2. What was Satan's first great work?—Bringing sin and death into the world by Adam's fall.

3. By what means did the Lord Jesus destroy it?—By his own death.

> As the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. Heb. 2 : 14, 15.

4. In what respect were the miracles Elisha was allowed to perform similar to the mission of the Lord Jesus?—In restoring or creating health and life.

5. How did the miracle of the meal thrown into the pot of wild gourds show this?—It was an instance of a cause of death being taken away.

6. What great distinction was there between the idols Israel at this time worshiped and Jehovah?—They were without power and without life, and were worshiped with unholy rites, and by the sacrifice, instead of the service, of human lives.

7. Is not death Satan's greatest triumph?—Yes, the death or ruin of the soul.

> The wages of sin is death. Rom. 6 : 23.
> In Adam all die. 1 Cor. 15 : 22.

8. In what, then, will the power of the Lord Jesus be the most manifestly seen?—In triumphing over death.

> Death is swallowed up in victory. Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ! 1 Cor. 15 : 54, 57.

9. What other alone attribute of Jehovah is ascribed to the Lord Jesus?—Creation.

> Who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature: for by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: and he is before all things, and by him all things consist. Col. 1 : 15–17.
> In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. John 1 : 1–3.
> When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a compass upon the face of the depth: when he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep: when he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth. Prov. 8 : 27–29.
>
> By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. Ps. 33 : 6.
> God . . . created all things by Jesus Christ. Eph. 3 : 9.

10. How did Elisha attempt to teach Israel, by using this power given to him, that he was the prophet of the living God?—By doing miracles connected with the preservation or restoration of life, and by praying to God as the living God.

11. Were there any of the miracles that the Lord Jesus wrought when on earth similar to this?—The turning the water into wine and healing various diseases.

12. Had the miracles of Elisha the effect of winning Israel back from their fearful idolatry?—No.

13. What was the Lord's merciful design in sending Elisha with such signs and wonders to his people?—To bring them back to himself, and save them from the punishment due to their guilt.

14. Did the miracles of the Lord Jesus convince the children of Israel in his day that he was "God manifest in the flesh"?—No; their hearts were so hardened in willful ignorance, self-righteousness and sin that they would not believe.

15. Should not this check the feeling that may arise in our hearts that if we had seen a miracle we should certainly have believed?—Yes; it should make us deeply thankful if God has given us to believe.

> Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, Father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead. Luke 16 : 29–31.

16. What does the apostle Peter call the word of God?—"A more sure word of prophecy, . . . that came not in old time by the will of man; but" was spoken by "holy men of God, . . . moved by the Holy Ghost." 2 Pet. 1 : 16–21.

Naaman. (2 Kings 5.)

1. With what loathsome disease was Naaman afflicted?—Leprosy.

2. Who was he?—Commander of the army of the king of Syria.

3. What did the little captive maid recommend her master to do?—She wished he was with Elisha, as he would cure him. 2 Kings 5 : 3.

4. Did he go?—Yes.

5. How did Elisha receive him?—He sent a message to him to wash in Jordan and be clean. 2 Kings 5 : 10.

6. What had Naaman expected?—That Elisha would come to him and in a solemn manner call upon God to heal him.

7. Was he induced to try the remedy?—Yes; his pride and anger yielded to the wise advice of those about him.

8. What was the result?—He was perfectly cured.

9. Is there any lesson to be gained by us in this history?—Yes, humbleness of mind.

10. Of what is leprosy a type in Scripture?—Of sin.

11. How must sin be put away?—There shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness (Zech. 13 : 1)—the fountain of the cleansing blood of Christ, sprinkled on the heart by faith.

12. To whom does the prophet in that verse refer?—To Jesus Christ, who "washed us from our sins in his own blood." Rev. 1 : 5.

> These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Rev. 7 : 14.
> How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God! Heb. 9 : 14.

13. How do we get this good news?—By the gospel.

14. Are we, like Naaman, desiring some other way than God's appointed way?—By nature we expect and try to wholly or partly save ourselves.

15. If so, in what state must we still remain?—Diseased and dead.

16. Will God say any more to us than he has said—"Wash and be clean"?—No; the gospel invitation is the same. Come, and rest. Believe, and live.

17. If so, why do we hesitate?—From unbelief, pride, sloth and love of sin and the world.

18. What was the blessed result of Naaman's falling in with God's simple plan?—A perfect cure.

19. What will be the thrice-blessed result to us if we are washed and cleansed in the blood of Jesus?—Complete salvation.

20. Ought each of us to tell what we know of the efficacy of this precious fountain?—We ought to do so, for the glory of God and the good of man.

21. If a little captive maid could be the means of such blessing to an earthly master, is there not something that each of us can do to spread the knowledge of a Saviour's worth among the heathen of our day?—Some can give themselves, and all a portion of their money and their time, their influence and their prayers.

Gehazi. (2 Kings 5 : 20–27.)

1. What dreadful sins did covetousness lead Elisha's servant to commit?—Lying and tempting God's Spirit.

2. What is said of covetousness in 1 Tim. 6 : 9, 10?—They that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil; which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

3. What proof does Gehazi's example afford us of the truth of Rom. 2 : 28, 29; Gal. 6 : 15?—He was evidently, amidst all his religious privileges, an unconverted man.

> He is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Rom. 2 : 28, 29.
> For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. Gal. 6 : 15.

4. Can any outward rite or ceremony, any family connection or outward recognition by the people of God, make us indeed and of a truth "a member of Christ, a child of God and an inheritor of the kingdom of heaven"?—It cannot.

5. What is necessary?—Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. John 3 : 3.

6. How is this new birth described in 2 Cor. 5 : 17?—If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

7. What is it called in James 1 : 18?—Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures.

8. What was Gehazi compelled from this day and forward to do?—To live apart.

> The leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean! All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled; he is unclean; he shall dwell alone; without the camp shall his habitation be. Lev. 13 : 45, 46.

9. What blessed contrast to this had Naaman experienced?—The being brought near.

> At that time ye were without Christ, having no hope, and without God in the world: but now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. Eph. 2 : 12, 13.

10. Ought we not to examine ourselves, lest we should be deceived in so momentous a question?—Yes, both as to our hearts and lives.

11. How did David do this in Ps. 51 : 10; 139 : 23, 24?—He prayed for "a clean heart;" and said, "Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting."

12. Can we do better than follow his example, seeing our Master is omniscient, and can see our most secret actions, even as Elisha was permitted to know Gehazi's secret sin?—We cannot; and we should do it at once, before our heart gets hard.

13. Why is God's estimate of us so much more correct than the estimate man forms of us?—The Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart. 1 Sam. 16 : 7.

Elisha manifesting the Lord's Attributes. (2 Kings 6, 7, 8 : 1–6.)

1. What signal proof did Elisha give of God's omnipotent power? What is the meaning of "omnipotent"?—Making an iron axe-head to swim. 2 Kings 6. All-powerful, or able to do everything.

2. Why was it remarkable that iron should swim?—Because when not hollow it is much heavier than water.

3. What proof did Elisha next give of God's omnisient power?—By knowing from God and telling the king of Syria's designs. 2 Kings 6 : 9.

4. What is the meaning of "omniscience"?—Knowing everything.

5. How was the king of Syria affected by this?—He was much troubled, and suspected his own people of betraying him.

6. What means did he use to prevent it?—He sent a host of men to take him.

7. Who was king of Israel at this time?—Jehoram. 2 Kings 3 : 1.

8. How did Elisha's servant feel when he saw the host of Syrians?—He was greatly afraid.

9. Why was not Elisha equally frightened?—Because he had confidence in God.

10. Are not the people of God always as safe as Elisha was, whether they see it or not?—They are safe from all harm that God does not permit.

> The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them. Ps. 34 : 7.
> The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels: the Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place. Ps. 68 : 17.

11. How did this wonderful circumstance manifest God's omnipresence?—Without that attribute he would not have known of Elisha's danger, or been ready to help him.

12. By what means did Elisha lead this host from Dothan to Samaria?—By blinding them.

13. Did it quite baffle the Syrians at that time?—Yes; they came no more.

14. Was the king of Israel (Joram) taught by this the wondrous power that rested on his favored land? What course did he take toward Elisha when the Syrians came against him and besieged Samaria?—It seems not. He threatened to kill him.

15. How did Elisha receive the king's messenger?—He ordered him to be shut out.

16. Did Joram himself go down with the executioner?—He did.

17. How did Elisha receive the king? and what did he promise him?—He called upon him to hear the word of the Lord, and promised him plenty.

18. Who accompanied the king?—One of his lords.

19. What unbelieving speech did he make?—That unless God were to make windows in heaven the promise could not be fulfilled.

20. Was not this a very fearful famine?—Yes, for a woman fed upon her own child. 2 Kings 6 : 29.

21. Was that any reason why God could not do what he had promised?—None at all.

22. How was the wondrous change of events brought about?—By making the Syrians fancy they heard the noise of a great host. God caused them to fly for their lives and leave all their provisions behind.

23. Have we not here a proof of God's faithfulness and mercy?—Yes—of his faithfulness to his promise, and of his mercy to his people.

24. How was the prediction respecting the nobleman fulfilled?—He was trodden to death by the crowd as they rushed out of the city for food.

25. Have we not here a display of God's justice?—We have—a striking one.

26. How many attributes of God has this Scripture lesson displayed?—Five—his omnipotence, omniscience, faithfulness, mercy and justice.

27. How does the remaining history of the Shunammite woman show God's providence?—She had the land that she had left restored to her on her return. 2 Kings 8 : 6.

Jehu. (2 Kings 8 : 7–15 ; 9, 10.)

1. Of whom is it said, "He putteth down one and setteth up another" king?—Of God. Ps. 77 : 7.

2. Whom did Elisha anoint king of Syria?—Elisha told Hazael that he should be king. 2 Kings 8 : 13.

3. Was he chosen by God for his goodness?—No.

4. Was he not greatly shocked when Elisha told him what he would do?—He was. 2 Kings 8 : 13.

5. Ought not this exhibition of the evil of man's nature make us cry out as in Ps. 2 : 10, 11?—It should.

> Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

6. Whom had the Lord already appointed king of Israel?—Jehu. 1 Kings 19 : 16.

7. Who anointed him?—A young prophet sent by Elisha. 1 Kings 9 : 1–6.

8. Who was Jehu? and where was he at this time?—A captain in the army, at Ramoth-gilead.

9. Where was Joram (king of Israel) at this time?—At Jezreel. 1 Kings 9 : 15.

10. Who was visiting Joram?—Ahaziah, king of Judah. 1 Kings 9 : 16.

11. Was Jehu long in executing God's vengeance?—No; he set about it instantly.

12. Had not the time arrived to which God had postponed it?—It had.

> Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house. 1 Kings 21 : 29.

13. What now delays God's threatened vengeance on this apostate earth?—The long-suffering of God.

> The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to usward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Pet. 3 : 9.

14. Did Jezebel (Joram's mother), Ahab's wicked wife, escape? How was she slain?—No. She was thrown down from a window and killed. 2 Kings 9 : 33.

15. What had been predicted of her? and by whom?—Elijah had prophesied (1 Kings 21 : 23) that the dogs should eat her flesh in Jezreel.

16. Of whom is Jezebel the type?—Of any wicked Church or people that has cast off the true love and worship of God. Rev. 2 : 20–22; 17, 18, 19 : 1–3.

17. What did Ahaziah king of Judah get by being found in such company?—He was killed also. 2 Kings 9 : 27.

18. What warning does the Lord give his people now in Rev. 18 : 4?—Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

19. What was Jehu's character?—He showed great zeal for the outward worship of God, but was in other respects a wicked man.

20. Having executed God's vengeance on the king and his mother, how did he act toward the rest of Ahab's family?—He had them all beheaded.

21. What family relationship did there exist at this time between the royal families of Judah and Israel?—Jehoram was Ahaziah's uncle.

22. In what calamity did this involve the former?—Ahaziah's family were slain. 2 Kings 10 : 13, 14.

23. How did Jehu treat Baal's worshipers?—He had them all slain. 2 Kings 10 : 23–25.

24. Whom did he meet on the way?—Jehonadab, son of Rechab. 2 Kings 10 : 15.

25. To what family did this man belong?—The Kenites.

26. Is he ever mentioned in Scripture again?—In Jer. 35, where is also mentioned his command to his family and descendants to drink no wine.

27. Did Jehu thoroughly destroy Baal-worship in Israel?—Yes. 2 Kings 10 : 28.

28. What promise did the Lord make to him for thus fulfilling his will?—That his children for four generations should sit on the throne of Israel. 2 Kings 10 : 30.

29. Did he destroy the calves of Bethel as well as Baal, or leave that cursed idolatry in the land?—He left that idolatry still.

30. Then Jehu, after all, fell short of the worship of the true God?—Very far short.

31. What fearful lesson does this teach us?—To be thoroughly sound in our Christian profession, lest, like the fig tree with leaves but no fruit, we be discovered and destroyed at the last. Mark 11 : 13, 20.

32. What does the Lord find on us? Are we bearing fruit, or is there nothing on us but the leaves of an empty profession?—Let the conscience of each answer as in the sight of God.

33. How long did Jehu reign? and who succeeded him?—Twenty-eight years. 2 Kings 10 : 36. Jehoahaz, his son. 2 Kings 13 : 1.

Jehu's Dynasty; Elisha's Death. (2 Kings 13, 14, 15 : 1–12.)

1. What character did Jehoahaz bear?—He was a wicked man. 2 Kings 13 : 2.

2. How did the Lord punish Israel?—By delivering them into the hands of the king of Syria.

3. What effect did this have upon the king?—He prayed to God for relief, and was heard, but idolatry still continued in the land.

4. How long did he reign? and who succeeded him?—Seventeen years. Joash, his son.

5. Was he a better king? Describe him.—He was no better, but walked, like his father, in Jeroboam's sins.

6. What sorrowful event happened in this reign?—The death of Elisha.

7. When Joash heard of the prophet's illness, what did he do?—He came and wept over him, and praised him.

8. What symbolical prophecy did the prophet cause the king to act at this interview?—Shooting, and striking the ground with arrows, as a token of success against the Syrians.

9. What miraculous event took place in connection with Elisha's remains?—A dead man revived when his body touched them.

10. Where was Moab situated?—On the south-east of the Dead Sea.

11. Where was Elisha's grave, supposing he was buried in the inheritance of his fathers?—At Abel-meholah in Simeon, where his father lived.

12. Was Elisha's prophecy fulfilled in the days of Joash (called also Jehoash)?—Joash defeated the Syrians thrice, as Elisha had said.

13. How came Israel and Judah to go to war in this reign?—Because the king of Judah challenged the king of Israel to do so. 2 Kings 14 : 8.

14. What insolent message did Joash send to Amaziah?—He proudly replied that he would crush him as a wild beast does a thistle.

15. On which side did victory turn?—On Israel's side.

16. How long did Joash (or Jehoash) reign?—Sixteen years. 2 Kings 13 : 10.

17. Who succeeded Joash on the throne of Israel?—Jeroboam his son. 2 Kings 14 : 16.

18. How many years did he reign?—Forty-one. 2 Kings 14 : 23.

19. Of what character was he, morally?—He did evil in the sight of the Lord.

20. What kind of king and warrior was he?—He was successful in war, and recovered some border-lands which Israel had lost.

21. How came it that Jeroboam was so victorious?—Because of God's pity and promise. 2 Kings 14 : 25–27.

22. How many prophets besides Jonah prophesied in this reign?—Four—Isaiah, Hosea, Joel and Amos.

23. Who succeeded Jeroboam II.?—Zachariah his son.

24. Was his a long or short reign?—Only six months. 2 Kings 15 : 8.

25. How did he come by his death?—He was killed by Shallum. 2 Kings 15 : 10.

26. What promise had the Lord given Jehu?—That his sons should be kings of Israel for four generations.

27. How was this fulfilled?—In the succession of Jehoahaz, Joash, Jeroboam and Zachariah.

28. What is said in Isa. 46 : 9, 10?—I am God, and there is none like me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure.

Jonah, Hosea and Amos.

Jonah.

1. Is there any prophesying of Jonah's recorded besides the book called by his name?—The prophecy of the reconquest by Jeroboam. 2 Kings 14 : 25.

2. Why is he generally styled "the disobedient prophet"?—Because he fled away when ordered by God to go to Nineveh.

3. Against whom was he commanded to prophesy?—Against the Ninevites.

4. How is Nineveh described in Scripture?—An exceeding great city, of three days' journey (or sixty miles) round.

5. Do the vast ruins lately discovered confirm or contradict this Scripture testimony?—They strongly confirm it.

6. Why did Jonah shrink from his errand?—From fear of being killed, or of seeming to be a false prophet if God's threatenings were mercifully unfulfilled, or from a dislike to prophesy to a mere heathen nation.

7. Is it of any use for man to refuse to fulfill the will of God?—None.

Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands? Isa. 45 : 9.

That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure. Isa. 44 : 28.

8. How did the Lord overtake Jonah in his rebellion?—By a storm at Sea.

9. What did the mariners strive to do?—To save their lives by calling on their gods and lightening the ship, and rowing hard to reach the land.

10. Was it of any use?—No.

11. How did Jonah own God's righteous dealing?—By telling them of his flight, and that the storm was on his account.

12. When thrown overboard, how did God preserve him?—By means of a great fish he had prepared.

13. Is Jehovah God ever at a loss to fulfill his purposes?—Never.

14. How did Jonah feel when in the fish's belly?—Cast out of God's sight.

15. How was Jonah's case a fulfillment of Ps. 139?—He found it impossible to flee from God's presence.

If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me. Ps. 139 : 9, 10.

16. If the Lord could hear Jonah from the depths of the sea, can we be in any circumstances beyond the reach of his arm to save?—Never.

17. When the Lord again commanded Jonah to go to Nineveh, did he obey?—He did. Jonah 3.

18. What was the result of his preaching?—The king and people believed God, and repented and turned from their evil way.

19. How did Jonah like this?—He was very angry that his threatening was not fulfilled, fearing, perhaps, that he would not be considered a true prophet, and that the Israelites would not repent when they saw that Nineveh was spared.

20. How did the Lord comfort and reprove Jonah?—By giving him a shade from the heat, and by rebuking his anger at its loss.

21. Is not God's mercy to the Ninevites a pledge to us of his mercy and his grace?—It is, if our repentance is as deep and sincere.

22. How may it be that these poor heathen may rise in condemnation against us at the last day?—If we do not repent under the teaching and preaching of God's word.

23. But how much are our privileges greater than theirs?—God hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son. Heb. 1 : 2. Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. Heb. 2 : 1.

24. Where is Nineveh?—On the river Tigris, in the ancient Assyria, and near the modern towns of Mosul and Bagdad.

25. What attribute of the Lord's glorious character does his conduct toward Nineveh display?—His wonderful mercy.

26. Where is Nineveh first mentioned in Scripture?—In Gen. 10 : 11, where Asshur is said to have built it.

27. How old must this great city have been when Jonah prophesied against it?—About fifteen hundred years.

Hosea.

28. Who was Hosea?—A prophet, son of Beeri.

29. In whose reigns did he prophesy?—In the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the reign of Jeroboam, son of Joash, king of Israel.

30. What touching expostulation does the Lord address to Israel in Hos. 11 : 8?—How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

31. Who is meant by Ephraim?—Israel.

32. Why is the name of Ephraim given to Israel?—Because the tribe of Ephraim was the chief part of the kingdom of Israel.

33. What idolatries of Israel are alluded to in Hos. 13?—The worship of Baal and the golden calves.

34. What beautiful invitation is given in Hos. 14 : 1, 2?—O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity. Take with you words, and turn to the Lord: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously.

35. Does the Lord only address such gracious words to Israel as a nation, or may we believe them spoken to us? —"For our sakes, no doubt, this is written," as sinners in every age and of every country need the same mercy and the same invitation. 1 Cor. 9 : 9, 10.

Amos.

36. Who was Amos?—A native of Tekoah in Judah, and a prophet.

37. What was his occupation when the Lord called him to be a prophet?—That of a herdsman or shepherd.

38. Against how many nations does he prophesy before he utters his denunciations against Israel?—Against six —Syria, Philistia, Tyre, Edom, Ammon and Moab.

39. Into what two sins of Israel does Amos 2 : 12 give us an insight?—Drunkenness and rejection of God's word and prophets.

40. How does Amos 3 : 12 show us that according to our privileges so will our punishment be?—You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.

41. Point out our Lord's parables that more fully explain this.—The wicked husbandmen (Matt. 21 : 33), the marriage-feast (Matt. 22), and our Lord's denunciation against Capernaum. Matt. 11 : 23.

42. What prophecy against the altar of Bethel does Amos 3 also contain?—In the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him I will also visit the altars of Bethel; and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

43. When was this fulfilled? and by whom?—About one hundred and sixty years after, by Josiah.

The altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burned the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burned the grove. 2 Kings 23 : 15.

44. What great similarity is there between Amos 4 and Deut. 28?—Amos 4 seems to be a fulfillment of the curses of drought, famine and pestilence pronounced in Deut. 28 upon their national sins.

45. What prophecy is there in the lamentation of Amos (chap. 5) that Stephen quotes in Acts 7?—Vs. 25–27; Acts 7 : 42, 43.

46. What proofs of Israel's luxury at this time (in the reign of Jeroboam II.) does Amos 6 give us?—(Read vs. 4–6.)

47. What did Amaziah the priest of Bethel send and say to Jeroboam when Amos had uttered these prophecies?—That Amos was conspiring against him. Amos 7 : 10.

48. What did he advise Amos to do? and why?—To go into Judah to live and to prophesy, as Bethel was the king's court.

49. What sins of Israel does Amos 8 set forth?—Dishonesty, oppression and neglect of God's word. Vs. 5, 6, 11, 12.

50. After the fearful denunciations of chaps. 8 and 9, what predictions of after glory does the last chapter close with?—The restoration of Israel to their own land in plenty and peace.

51. By whom must "the fallen tabernacle of David" be reared?—By Jesus Christ.

He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Luke 1 : 32, 33.

The Last Kings of Israel. (2 Kings 15–17.)

1. Who slew Zachariah, the last of Jehu's dynasty?—Shallum. 2 Kings 15 : 10.
2. How long did he reign?—A month.
3. Who destroyed him?—Menahem.
4. How long did Menahem reign?—Ten years. 2 Kings 15 : 17.
5. What kind of king was he?—A wicked one.
6. Who fought against him?—Pul, king of Assyria.
7. Who succeeded Menahem?—Pekahiah his son.
8. How long did Pekahiah reign?—Two years.
9. Who slew him?—Pekah, one of his captains.
10. How long did Pekah reign?—Twenty years.
11. Which was the last king of Israel?—Hoshea.
12. How long did he reign?—Nine years. 2 Kings 17 : 1.
13. Which of the kings of Assyria came against him?—Shalmaneser.
14. Did Israel conquer, or the Assyrians?—The Assyrians.
15. How was this?—The Lord shall bring thee, and thy king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone. Moreover, all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee. Deut. 28 : 36, 45.
16. Had not God often warned them of their danger?—Yes, by his prophets.
17. Will not all God's threatenings be fulfilled, as well as his promises?—They will.
18. What has God said in his word shall be the punishment of impenitent sinners?—"Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." Luke 3 : 13.
19. If we slight the word of God as Israel did of old, what must we expect?—Punishment—as a nation, here; and as individuals, here and hereafter, now and for ever.
20. Have we a remedy? What is it?—To "return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon" us. Isa. 55 : 6, 7.
21. To what places was Israel carried captive?—To places in Media and Mesopotamia.
22. Who were brought in to fill the depopulated cities?—People from Babylon and the regions around it. 2 Kings 17 : 24.
23. What was the result?—A mixture of the worship of God and of idols. 2 Kings 17 : 33.

Joram (or Jehoram) to Amaziah, Kings of Judah. (2 Chron. 21–25.)

3. Whose daughter was Joram's wife?—Ahab's. 2 Chron. 21 : 6.
4. What effect did this unholy alliance have on the king?—It led him into the sins of Ahab's house. 2 Chron. 21 : 6.
5. How many years did Joram reign jointly with his father?—About two. 2 Kings 8 : 16.
6. What was the first wicked thing he did after his father was dead and he reigned alone?—He killed h[illegible] brothers. 2 Chron. 21 : 4.
7. What kingdom revolted from under the sway of Judah in this reign?—Edom, and the city of Libnah.
8. What message came to him from God by the hand of Elijah the prophet?—Of a great plague or affliction for his family and people, and a mortal disease for himself.
9. By what death did he die?—By a long and painful illness.
10. How long had he reigned?—Eight years.
11. Who succeeded him?—Ahaziah his son.
12. By what three names is this king called?—Ahaziah, Jehoahaz and Azariah. 2 Chron. 21 : 17; 22 : 1, 6.
13. By which is he more generally called?—Ahaziah. 2 Kings 9.
14. Which of Joram's sons was he?—The youngest.
15. Why did not Joram's eldest son reign?—Because he had been killed with his brothers.
16. What did this prove?—That Elijah's message had come true.
17. To what untimely end did this king of Judah come?—He was killed, with Joram, by order of Jehu.
18. How did it happen?—He had gone under the guidance of God to visit Joram. 2 Kings 8 : 29; 2 Chron. 22 : 7.
19. What was the name of Ahaziah's mother?—Athaliah.
20. When she saw her son was dead, what cruel act did she exercise toward his children, her own grandchildren?—She had them all but one destroyed.
21. Name her father and mother.—Ahab and Jezebel.
22. When we see how much evil the good Jehoshaphat brought on his family by his alliance with Ahab, should it not make us most careful as to the company we keep?—It should indeed.

Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. 1 Cor. 15 : 33.

Be not deceived: God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. Gal. 6 : 7, 8.

23. How was one grandchild unexpectedly preserved?—He was hid by Jehoshabeath. 2 Chron. 22 : 11.

24. What relation was the good Jehoshabeath to the little boy?—His aunt.

25. How long did the wicked Athaliah keep the throne?—Six years. 2 Chron. 22 : 12.

26. What was her end?—She was slain when Joash, the lawful king, was raised to the throne.

27. How old was the young king when he began to reign?—Seven.

28. How long did he continue to do well?—During the life of Jehoiada the priest, about twenty-eight years.

29. What good service did he do the temple of God during Jehoiada's life?—He repaired and refitted it. 2 Chron. 24 : 4–14.

30. To what commandment by Moses did the king refer as to the contribution to the Lord's service?—And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel after their number, then shall they give every man a ransom for his soul unto the Lord, when thou numberest them: that there be no plague among them, when thou numberest them. This they shall give, every one that passeth among them that are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary (a shekel is twenty gerahs): an half shekel shall be the offering of the Lord. Every one that passeth among them that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the Lord. The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when they give an offering unto the Lord, to make an atonement for your souls. And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before the Lord, to make an atonement for your souls. Ex. 30 : 11–16.

31. How old was the good Jehoiada when he died?—One hundred and thirty years. 2 Chron. 24 : 15.

32. What honor did they show his remains?—They buried him among the kings.

33. How did Joash behave after his uncle's death?—He worshiped idols.

34. Whom did the Lord send to warn him of his sins?—Zechariah the son of Jehoiada.

35. What did Joash cause to be done to him?—To be stoned to death.

36. What did Zechariah say in dying?—"The Lord look upon it, and require it."

37. Is his death alluded to in the New Testament?—That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar. Matt. 23 : 35.

38. How did the Lord punish Judah for their idolatry?—By the Syrian army.

39. How did he punish this wicked king?—By great diseases.

40. In what way did he die?—He was killed by his own servants.

41. How long did he reign?—Forty years. 2 Chron. 24 : 1.

42. Who succeeded him?—Amaziah his son.

43. Was Amaziah a better man than his father?—Probably not, as his heart was not right toward God, and as, after reigning well for some time, he fell into idolatry.

44. How did God try his faith?—By telling him to trust him to replace the loss of one hundred talents which he had paid for the hire of an Israelitish army. 2 Chron. 25 : 6–10.

45. Did he continue to serve the Lord?—No. 2 Chron. 25 : 14, 27.

46. What new idolatry did he introduce?—The gods of Edom. 2 Chron. 25 : 14, 20.

47. How was he punished for this?—By defeat in war and by conspiracy at home.

48. How did he die?—He was killed by his own people.

49. How long did he reign?—Twenty-nine years.

50. Which king of Israel reigned at the same time?—Joash or Jehoash.

51. What battle did these two kings fight?—The battle of Bethshemesh.

52. Which was victorious? Why?—Joash, because of Amaziah's idolatry.

53. Does not this show us that all our actions are noticed by God?—Yes, and that he punishes idolatry, boasting and all other sin.

Uzziah, Jotham and Ahaz, Kings of Judah. (2 Chron. 26–32.)

1. Who was Uzziah?—Amaziah's son.

2. How old was he when he began to reign?—Sixteen.

3. By what other name is he called?—Azariah. 2 Kings 15 : 1.

4. What king was reigning in Israel at this time?—Jeroboam II.

5. How many prophets prophesied in the reign of Uzziah?—Five—Isaiah, Hosea, Joel, Amos and Jonah.

6. What is said of Uzziah in 2 Chron. 26 : 5?—That while he sought the Lord he prospered.

7. How was this manifested in the early part of his reign?—By great success in war. 2 Chron. 26 : 6–15.

8. By whose influence was he kept in the right way?—By the influence of Zechariah, a man of God.

9. What effect did prosperity have on him?—It lifted up his heart.

10. What does it mean by his heart being lifted up?—That he was proud and presumptuous.

11. What does the Lord say about pride in the Scripture?—That it "goeth before destruction." Prov. 16 : 18.

12. To what act of impiety did Uzziah's pride prompt him?—To burn incense like a priest.

13. How was it punished?—By being smitten with leprosy.

14. What effect did his punishment have on him?—It made him go and live alone.

15. Of what was leprosy a type?—Of sin.

16. How was leprosy under the Mosaic law cleansed?—The priest shall go forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper, then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed two birds alive and clean, and cedar-wood, and scarlet, and hyssop; and the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water: as for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar-wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water; and he shall sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose into the open field. Lev. 14 : 3–7.

17. Who was typified by the bird that was slain, and by the living bird?—The Saviour and the sinner.

18. How many instances are recorded in Scripture of persons being punished by leprosy?—Three—those of Miriam, Gehazi and Uzziah.

19. What great deprivations did Uzziah suffer in consequence of this malady?—He was cut off from the house of the Lord, from the honors of a king and from all human society.

20. How had Uzziah occupied himself?—In war, in building cities and towers, in digging wells, and in keeping much cattle; also in cultivating fruitful fields. How many years did he reign?—Fifty-two years.

21. Who shared the government with him when he was laid aside, and succeeded him on the throne of Judah?—Jotham his son.

22. How old was Jotham when he began to reign?—Twenty-five. 2 Chron. 27 : 1.

23. How is his character described?—"He did that which was right in the sight of the Lord."

24. How does 2 Chron. 27 : 6 give us the secret of his prosperity?—It says that "he prepared (or established) his ways before God." So Joshua and David had a fixed purpose or plan to serve the Lord.

25. How long did he reign?—Sixteen years.

26. Who followed Jotham?—Ahaz his son.

27. Was he not a very different king?—Yes; "he did not right in the sight of the Lord."

28. In whose ways did he walk?—In those of the kings of Israel.

29. Who was king of Israel at this time?—Pekah.

30. Did Ahaz go on in this sad career without warning?—No; he was warned by the prophets.

31. Which of the prophets prophesied in his reign?—Isaiah, Hosea and Micah.

32. How does Isaiah, in his first chapter, describe the state of Israel and Judah at this time?—Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the Lord, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

33. How are the daughters of Judah described in the end of his third chapter?—The daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched-forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet.

34. What idol-worship did Ahaz again introduce?—Of Baal and of the gods of Syria. 2 Chron. 28 : 2, 23

35. What cruel heathen practice did he exercise on his son?—He burnt his children in sacrifice. 2 Chron 28 : 3.

36. What enemies came against Judah as a punishment for their sins?—Pekah and Rezin.

37. Who was Pekah?—King of Israel.

38. Who was Rezin?—King of Syria.

39. What encouragement did the Lord give by his prophet Isaiah concerning these kings?—Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be faint-hearted for the two tails of these smoking fire-brands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. Isa. 7 : 4.

40. When Ahaz declared he would not ask a sign of God, was that from reverence or disregard?—From disregard.

41. How did his seeking aid from the king of Assyria against his foes, and not from the Lord, decide this?—It showed he was determined to take his own course.

42. What was the consequence of his seeking to the Assyrians?—Embarrassment instead of support. 2 Chron. 28 : 20.

43. How did he strip the temple of God to pay the Assyrian king?—He took away much of its brass (or copper) work. 2 Kings 16 : 17, 18.

44. Did he, after all, obtain the help he desired?—He did not.

45. Which were the most prosperous kings, those who served the Lord, or those who forsook him?—Those who served the Lord.

46. What effect had chastisement on him?—He sinned yet more against the Lord. 2 Chron. 28 : 23.

47. What did this prove him not to be?—It proved him not to be a son of God, or he would have profited by his fatherly chastisement.

> If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? Heb. 12 : 7.

48. How many years did he reign?—Sixteen years.

49. Was he buried among the good kings of Judah?—No. 2 Chron. 28 : 27.

Isaiah, Micah and Nahum.

1. Who was Isaiah?—A prophet, the son of Amoz.

2. In whose reigns did he prophesy?—In those of "Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah."

3. Is any part of his book historical? how much?—Yes, about four chapters, chaps. 36–39.

4. What great and glorious Person was he privileged to announce?—The Messiah.

> Unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. Isa. 9 : 6, 7.

5. What prophecy of Isaiah's is quoted in Matt. 1 : 23?—Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign: Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. Isa. 7 : 14.

6. How many titles does Isaiah attribute to the Lord Jesus in Isa. 9 : 6, 7?—Five.

7. To whom does Isaiah attribute the term "Wonderful" in Isa. 28 : 29?—To Jehovah himself.

> The Lord of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

8. Who, then, must the Lord Jesus Christ be?—God.

9. Are there any other texts of Scripture that plainly show him forth to be "the Mighty God"?—"The great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ." Tit. 2 : 13.

> I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. Rev. 1 : 8.

10. How does John 10 : 30 prove that the Lord Jesus is "the Everlasting Father"?—God is called "the everlasting God" in Rom. 16 : 26, and Jesus says in John 10 : 30, "I and my Father are one."

11. To which character of the Lord Jesus does the apostle Paul allude in Eph. 2 : 14?—"He is our peace"—"The Prince of Peace."

12. When will the "government be on the shoulder" of the Lord Jesus?—When his reign of one thousand years begins. Rev. 19 : 11–16.

13. Is there any earthly throne which he is promised?—"The throne of David."

14. What power does the Lord Jesus exercise now?—The power which, as God, he exercises by the Holy Spirit. Matt. 28 : 18.

15. Where is the Lord Jesus now?—On the throne of God in heaven.

David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, until I make thy foes thy footstool. Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. Acts 2 : 34–36.

Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. Acts 7 : 56.

To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. Rev. 3 : 21.

16. Under what name is the Lord Jesus spoken of in Isa. 11 : 1?—"A Rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch . . . out of his roots."

17. Who was Jesse?—The father of David.

18. Who was the root of Jesse (that is, his forefather)?—Christ, as David's Lord.

19. From what "stem of Jesse" did the Lord Jesus spring?—From David, whose father was Jesse and great-grandfather Boaz. Ruth 4 : 16, 17.

20. Where does the Lord Jesus call himself "the root and offspring of David"?—Rev. 22 : 16.

21. What is the Lord Jesus called in Rev. 5 : 5?—The Lion of the tribe of Juda, the root of David.

22. Of what is the lion expressive?—Of strength.

23. What is the meaning of the name Boaz?—"In strength."

24. What connection have all these passages together?—They all unite in describing Christ.

25. How does Isaiah describe the kingly power of the Lord Jesus in Isa. 32 : 1?—"Behold, a King shall reign in righteousness."

26. Under what character does he represent the Lord Jesus in the second verse of that chapter?—A man shall be as an hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

27. Can his kingly glory be a joy to us unless we know him first as a "hiding-place"?—No.

28. What part of Isaiah did the Lord Jesus read when he was on earth, when "the eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him"?—Isa. 61 : 1, 2. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord. Luke 4 : 18, 19.

29. What did he say when he closed the book?—This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears. Luke 4 : 21.

30. How often does the Lord (that is, Jehovah) call himself by the name of Jesus (that is, Saviour) in the book of Isaiah?—Four times or more—as, "I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour" (Isa. 43 : 3); "a just God and a Saviour." Isa. 45 : 21.

31. How often does he speak of himself as "Redeemer"?—Directly and indirectly, nine times or more—as, "I will help thee, saith the Lord, and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel" (Isa. 41 : 14); "And all flesh shall know that I the Lord am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob." Isa. 49 : 26.

32. What part of Isaiah's prophecy was the eunuch reading when Philip overtook him?—Isa. 53 : 7, 8. The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a lamb to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth: in his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth. Acts 8 : 32, 33.

33. Who was intended by the term "lamb"?—Jesus Christ.

John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. John 1 : 29.

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain. Rev. 5 : 12.

The Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Rev. 13 : 8.

A Lamb stood on the Mount Sion. Rev. 14 : 1.

The song of the Lamb. Rev. 15 : 3.

34. Give the fulfillment of the prophecy (Isa. 53) in each particular.—

Verse 1:

Though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him. John 12 : 37.

Verse 2:

He made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. Phil. 2 : 7.

Verse 3:

Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary? Mark 6 : 3.

Out of Galilee ariseth no prophet. John 7 : 52.

Thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil. John 8 : 48.

He came unto his own, and his own received him not. John 1 : 11.

Verse 4:

He cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick. Matt. 8 : 16.

Verses 5 and 6:

Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures. 1 Cor. 15 : 3.

Verse 7:

When he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. Matt. 27 : 12.

Verse 8:

And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified. Matt. 27 : 2, 26.

Verse 9:

There were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

There came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph: he went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. Matt. 27 : 57, 58.

Verses 10 and 11:

Lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. These were redeemed from among men, being the first-fruits unto God and to the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God. Rev. 14 : 1, 4, 5.

Verse 12:

Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same: that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil. Heb. 2 : 14.

And with him they crucify two thieves: the one on his right hand, and the other on his left. And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors. Mark 15 : 27, 28.

35. Compare Isa. 63 : 1–3 with Rev. 19 : 13, 15, and tell of whom the prophecies speak.—He was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

36. Are we concerned in this?—Yes, for as sinners we are enemies of God.

37. Then what should we do now?—We should come at once by faith to Christ our Saviour, and be cleansed by his atoning blood.

38. Are there not many gracious invitations to sinners throughout the book of Isaiah?—Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. Isa. 1 : 18. Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Isa. 55 : 1.

39. Were there not many special promises to the Gentiles?—Yes, as in chaps. 9, 11, 35, 42, 49, 60, 65.

40. Who are the Gentiles?—All who are not Jews.

41. To whom are the principal prophecies in this book addressed?—To the Jews.

42. How are the sins of Israel described in Isa. 1 and elsewhere?—Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them. Isa. 1 : 23. The vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry. Isa. 5 : 7.

43. What glorious promises are addressed to God's favored people?—As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the Lord; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the Lord, from henceforth and for ever. Isa. 59 : 21. The Lord shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord. Isa. 51 : 3. Awake, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean. Isa. 52 : 1.

44. How does Isaiah describe their idolatry in Isa. 44?—He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it. Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshipeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto. He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire: and the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshipeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith Deliver me; for thou art my god.

45. Under what beautiful symbol does he describe God's care of Israel in chap. 5?—A husbandman's care of his vineyard.

What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

46. What touching images does he use to portray God's love to his people in chaps. 49 : 14, 16; 54 : 5–8; 66 : 13?—As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you.

47. Are there not many fearful denunciations against the wicked in this prophecy?—There are, as in 1 : 28:

The destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the Lord shall be consumed. And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

48. What nations then flourishing did Isaiah specially prophesy against by name?—Assyria, Babylon, Palestine, Moab, Israel, Ethiopia, Egypt, Arabia, Tyre, Jerusalem, the Jews.

49. Take each in succession, and tell us as nearly as you can their present state.—Assyria is now in a very low state, under Turkish rule.

Babylon is so utterly destroyed that travelers have passed over its place without knowing it.

Palestine, generally, is in an uncultivated, thinly-peopled, oppressed and half-barbarous state.

Moab is in the same condition.

Israel is described under Palestine, above.

Ethiopia is in the same condition.

Egypt is in an improving state, but probably far less populous and less richly cultivated than of old.

Arabia is still chiefly inhabited by wandering tribes, whose hand is against every man.

Tyre is reduced to a mere fishing-village.

Jerusalem is in the hands of Mohammedans, and shares the fate of Judah and Israel and Palestine at large.

50. To what period does this wonderful prophecy extend?—To the end of time.

Behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind. Isa. 65 : 17.

51. What glorious vision did Isaiah see which prepared him to do the Lord's service?—In the year that King Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. Above it stood the seraphims. Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: and he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged. Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Isa. 6 : 1, 2, 6–8.

52. In whose reign did he see that vision?—In Uzziah's.

53. Do you find anything similar to it in the book of Revelation?—I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and One sat on the throne. Rev. 4 : 2.

54. What effect did the sight of God's glory have on Isaiah?—He deeply felt his sinfulness.

Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts. Isa. 6 : 5.

55. What was Job's expression when God spoke to him?—I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee. Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes. Job 42 : 5, 6.

56. What alone can remove the terror which all men as sinners must feel in the presence of God?—"The blood of Jesus Christ his Son, that cleanseth us from all sin." 1 John 1 : 7.

57. What removed Isaiah's terror?—The live coal touching his lips.

58. How could a coal touching his lips remove sin?—As a token of God's grace.

59. What does "an altar" imply?—A sacrifice.

60. In the vision of the apostle John, Rev. 6 (which corresponds with Isaiah's), who is seen there as the slain sacrifice on the altar?—Jesus Christ, the "Lamb as it had been slain." Rev. 5 : 6.

61. What preparation, then, do we require ere we can dare to meet Jehovah's presence and glory?—To be cleansed by the blood of Christ, and made one with him by a living faith.

62. Is there any hinderance to our obtaining it?—None whatever.

> Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. Isa. 55 : 1, 6, 7.
> The Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. Rev. 22 : 17.

Micah.

63. In whose reigns did Micah prophesy?—In the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

64. What prophecy of his is referred to in Jer. 26 : 18?—Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts: Zion shall be ploughed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

65. Where is it found in his book? and how has it been fulfilled?—Mic. 3 : 12. The site of the temple was really ploughed over by a Roman emperor; and Jerusalem has at different times been made heaps in the various sieges it has sustained.

66. In what state does he declare Samaria will be?—"As an heap of the field." Mic. 1 : 6.

67. What sins of Israel are enumerated in Mic. 3, 6, 7?—Cruelty, oppression and idolatry.

68. What promises for the latter days does Mic. 4 : 1–4 record?—The restoration of Zion and the reign of peace.

69. What glorious Person is prophesied of in Mic. 5 : 2?—Jesus Christ.

70. Where was Jesus born?—At Bethlehem.

71. Where is Bethlehem first mentioned in the Bible?—In Gen. 35 : 19: "Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Bethlehem."

72. Where did Rahab (who was saved in Jericho) live?—At Bethlehem after her marriage.

73. Whose wife was she?—Salmon's.

74. Whose mother was she?—Boaz's.

75. Where did Ruth live?—At Bethlehem. Ruth 1 : 1, 2, 19, 22.

76. Where was David born?—At Bethlehem.

77. What striking proof of love did three of his mighty men give when David desired a draught of water from the well at Bethlehem?—The three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David. 2 Sam. 23 : 16.

78. To what glorious event did the prophet allude when he spoke of Bethlehem's glory?—To the birth of Jesus.

79. Read Prov. 8 : 22, 23; John 1 : 1; Col. 1 : 17, and say to whom they refer.—The Lord possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was. Prov. 8 : 23, 23. In the beginning was the Word. John 1 : 1. And he is before all things, and by him all things consist (Col. 1 : 17): viz., Jesus Christ.

80. Of whom alone can it be said in the words of Micah, "Whose goings forth have been from of old, even from everlasting"?—Of God.

81. Who, then, must the Lord Jesus be?—God.

Nahum.

82. Against whom did Nahum utter his prophecy?—Against the inhabitants of Nineveh.

83. Josephus says Nahum prophesied in the reign of Jotham king of Judah; how long was this after Jonah's prophecy?—About sixty years.

84. In which reign of the kings of Israel did Jonah preach at Nineveh?—Jeroboam II.'s.

85. In which tribe did Nahum live?—Simeon, as some think.

86. How long after Nahum's prophecy was his prediction fulfilled?—About one hundred years.

Hezekiah, King of Judah. (2 Chron. 29–32.)

1. Who reigned after Ahaz?—Hezekiah.

2. How old was Hezekiah when he began to reign?—Twenty-five.

3. Into what state of neglect does 2 Chron. 29 : 3, 7 show that the temple of God had fallen?—Into even a filthy state. 2 Chron. 29 : 5.

4. What did Hezekiah do to set up the worship of God again?—He called upon the priests and Levites to assist.

5. Did the priests, Levites and people respond to the call?—Yes, very heartily. 2 Chron. 29 : 12–17, 28–35.

6. What proof does the end of 2 Chron. 29 give that it was so?—The abundance of the sacrifices and offerings that were made.

7. Was his reformation confined to Judah, or did he desire to extend it to all Israel?—He invited all Israel and Judah to join in a solemn Passover.

8. In what state was the kingdom of Israel at this time?—In a sad and idolatrous state under the reign of Hoshea. 2 Kings 17.

9. How were Hezekiah's messengers received?—They were laughed at and mocked. 2 Chron. 30 : 10.

10. Were there any who responded to his appeal?—Several came from Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun.

11. What beautiful prayer did Hezekiah offer for these?—That the good Lord would pardon every one who had prepared his heart to seek him, though he was not clean according to the temple laws.

12. Did the Lord accept it?—He did. 2 Chron. 30 : 20.

13. What proof does 2 Chron. 30 : 23 give us that the service of God, when sincerely engaged in, and not as an empty form, is pleasant?—They kept the holy feast a second week.

14. How long had it been since there had been such a Passover as this?—Not since the time of Solomon, three hundred years before.

15. How does David describe his pleasure in the Lord's service?—How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts! My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God. Ps. 84 : 1, 2. I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord. Ps. 122 : 1.

16. What effect did this joy in the Lord have on the people with regard to the idols of the land?—They destroyed them all. 2 Chron. 31.

17. What is said in Prov. 27 : 19?—As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man.

18. Can we not, then, try our hearts, and ascertain their state by knowing if the service of God is our joy?—We can do so, and ought to do so.

19. If not, in what condition are we?—In a state of condemnation and death.

20. What was the next proof the people gave that their hearts were right with God?—The abundance of their offerings for the service of God. 2 Chron. 31 : 5–7.

21. How did Zaccheus manifest the same feeling?—Zaccheus said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. Luke 19 : 8.

22. How can we show our love to his service?—By giving to it, as far as we can, our money and our time.

23. Read Prov. 23 : 26, and say how Hezekiah, in the twenty-first verse of this chapter, fulfilled this.—"My son, give me thine heart." He did every work for God with all his heart.

24. Who was Hezekiah's father?—Ahaz.

25. What foolish compact had he made with the king of Assyria?—He bought his help against his enemies by robbing God's house.

26. Did it prosper?—No; he was distressed by him, and not helped. 2 Chron. 28 : 19–21.

27. How was Hezekiah made to feel this?—Sennacherib, the succeeding king, was tempted to attack him.

28. What did Hezekiah do when the king of Assyria came against him?—He fortified Jerusalem and cut off the water from the enemy's camp.

29. On whom did he depend for succor?—On God alone. 2 Chron. 32 : 8.

30. How did the people feel when Hezekiah cheered them?—They rested on his words.

31. What did Sennacherib do to endeavor to shake their confidence in God?—He boasted of his victories in other lands.

32. Did he succeed?—No; the people held their peace. 2 Kings 18 : 36.

33. Who was the exalted prophet of Israel at this time?—Isaiah.

34. To whom did Hezekiah send? and what did he himself do?—He sent to Isaiah, and went into the temple for prayer to God. 2 Kings 19 : 1, 2.

35. How did the Lord appear for his people at this time?—He promised them the departure and death of Sennacherib. 2 Kings 19 : 6, 7.

36. Was the king of Assyria aware that God was fighting against him? or did he make another attempt on Jerusalem?—He made another attempt.

37. Did he address Hezekiah by word of mouth, as before, or send a letter to him?—He sent a letter.

38. What did Hezekiah do with the letter?—He spread it before the Lord in prayer.

39. Where should we go when in trouble?—Direct to God.

40. Is God now the hearer and answerer of prayer, as he was then?—He is, as every true child of God can testify.

41. What was Hezekiah's prayer?—That God would save them for his own glory. 2 Kings 19 : 15–19.

42. By whom did the Lord answer his prayer?—Isaiah.

43. How was this wonderful deliverance effected?—By means of an angel of God, who struck the Assyrian army with death.

44. What was Sennacherib's miserable end?—He was killed by his own sons.

45. What mighty city was the capital of the Assyrian empire?—Nineveh.

46. Are there any proofs in the present day of this Assyrian king's conquests and final defeat?—The ruins of Nineveh have lately been exposed to view, and letters and figures been met with, carved upon slabs of stone, which thoroughly confirm the Bible account.

47. What is next recorded of Hezekiah?—That he was "sick unto death." 2 Kings 20 : 1.

48. Did he die of this illness? or was he restored? and how?—He was restored to health in answer to prayer and by God's blessing on the means which Isaiah ordered to be used. 2 Kings 20 : 3–7.

49. Was there any part of Hezekiah's history that was dishonorable to him?—Yes; he made a display to the king of Babylon's messengers of all his treasures.

50. Of what sin was he guilty?—Of pride. "A proud heart is sin." Prov. 21 : 4.

51. How does the Lord estimate pride of heart?—Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the Lord; though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished. Prov. 16 : 5. Him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer. Ps. 101 : 5.

52. What fearful prediction was Isaiah commissioned to take to him?—That all his treasures should in a future age be carried away to Babylon. 2 Kings 20 : 17, 18.

53. How did Hezekiah receive the reproof?—He humbly submitted to the will of God.

54. What did this prove him to be?—A true son of God.

> Ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him: for whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? Heb. 12 : 5–7.

55. Name the benefits in a domestic way that Hezekiah conferred on Jerusalem?—He erected various public buildings and brought water from a distance.

56. How much of Hezekiah's history is written in the book of Isaiah?—Nearly the whole.

57. How long did he reign?—Twenty-nine years. 2 Kings 18 : 2.

58. Where did they bury him?—In the chief sepulchre of the kings.

Manasseh and Amon, Kings of Judah. (2 Chron. 33.)

1. Whose son was Manasseh?—Hezekiah's.

2. Was he a good king like his father? Describe his character as given in the first seven verses of this chapter. —No; he restored idolatry and witchcraft, and set up idols even in the temple itself.

3. How was he punished by the Lord for this?—He was carried captive to Babylon.

4. What effect did captivity have on him?—It brought him, by the grace of God, to penitence and prayer.

5. Did the Lord hear and answer his prayer?—Yes; he restored him to his kingdom.

6. How did Manasseh act on his return to his kingdom?—He put away idolatry throughout all Judah.

7. What encouragement does his history give to us?—That if we confess and forsake our sins, he will abundantly pardon.

8. Is God as compassionate now as he was then?—Yes, as thousands of true penitents can thankfully declare.

9. Are we to dare to sin because God is merciful?—Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? Rom. 6 : 1, 2.

10. Are we to dare to postpone repentance because God is merciful?—No.

> Now is the accepted time; now is the day of salvation. 2 Cor. 6 : 2.

11. How does the apostle Paul say that he obtained mercy?—Through the free grace of Christ.

> I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. 1 Tim. 1 : 12, 13.

12. Does the apostle give any other reason for this favor?—That he might be a pattern for the encouragement of penitent sinners in all time,

> This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting. 1 Tim 1 : 15, 16.

13. Is not the invitation so free that none need doubt?—It is to "every one"—"whosoever will."

> Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Isa. 55 : 1.
> And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. Rev. 22 : 17.

14. Will not Manasseh rise up in the judgment and condemn us if we should plead that we are too great sinners for God to save us?—He may do so.

15. How long did Manasseh reign?—Fifty-five years.

16. Who succeeded him?—Amon his son.

17. Did Amon follow his father's steps in the end or the beginning of his reign?—He followed, throughout his reign, his father's steps in the beginning of his reign.

18. How long did Amon reign?—Two years.

19. What was his melancholy end?—He was killed by his own servants.

Joel, Habakkuk and Zephaniah.

Joel.

1. Is it known when Joel prophesied by his own writings?—No, not at all distinctly.

2. How do we gather from his prophecy that he wrote it in a time of famine?—He speaks of the devourings by locusts and of the want of pasture, corn, wine and figs. Joel 1 : 4–20.

3. Of what was a famine in Israel ever a proof?—Of God's anger against sin.

4. What does he call on the people to do?—To fast, repent and pray.

5. To what solemn event does he call attention in his second chapter?—To the day of judgment.

6. What does the apostle Peter say about "the day of the Lord"?—The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness? 2 Pet. 3 : 10, 11.

7. Is this important "day" ever mentioned elsewhere in Scripture?—As in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so also shall the coming of the Son of man be. Matt. 24 : 38, 39.

8. To what period does it refer?—To the day of judgment.

9. Are we at all interested in that solemn event?—Yes.

10. How?—Because we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ.

11. Ought we not to be prepared for it?—We ought indeed.

12. How can we be?—By being in Christ, and clothed with his righteousness by faith. Phil. 3 : 7–11.

13. In what part of the book of the Acts does the apostle Peter quote this prophecy in reference to the miraculous gift of tongues?—In Acts 2 : 16–21 he quotes Joel 2 : 28–32.

14. What proof does Joel 3 give us that this prophet wrote after the days of Jehoshaphat, and probably very near the Captivity?—Because he mentions the valley of Jehoshaphat, and because his referring to the captivity of Judah only (in v. 1) makes it probable that his prophecy was written after the captivity of Israel.

15. With what glorious and consoling promises does the prophecy close?—Those of the future glory of Jerusalem and of the Church in 3 : 16–21.

Habakkuk.

16. What proof does Hab. 1 : 6 give us that Habakkuk wrote before the Captivity?—Because he there prophesies its coming.

17. Who were the Chaldeans?—The inhabitants of Babylon and the surrounding country.

18. What threatenings respecting them had Isaiah given to Hezekiah?—That they would come and carry away all his treasures.

19. What prediction does Habakkuk record in Hab. 2?—That in due time God would destroy the Chaldean power.

20. What promise is given in verse 14 of this chapter? —The earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

21. Which verse in this prophecy answers the important question, "How can man be justified before God"?—Hab. 2 : 4. "The just shall live by his faith."

22. How many times, and where, is this emphatic verse quoted in the New Testament?—Three times—Rom. 1 : 17; Gal. 3 : 11; Heb. 10 : 38.

23. Can you tell me what great Reformer was converted to God by it?—Martin Luther.

24. What contrast is displayed in verses 18–20 of this chapter?—Between dumb idols and the true God.

25. To what great event in past history does the opening of Hab. 3 refer?—To the giving of the law on Mount Sinai.

Zephaniah.

29. In whose reign did Zephaniah prophesy?—Josiah's.

30. How does the first chapter show the abominations of the land before Josiah's reformation?—It speaks of the idolatry and indifference to God that prevailed. Zeph. 1 : 5, 12.

31. Against how many nations besides Judah is this prophecy uttered?—Five others—Philistia, Moab, Ammon, Ethiopia and Assyria.

32. What proof is there in this book that Nahum's prophecy against Nineveh had not been fulfilled in the early part of Josiah's reign?—Its desolation is spoken of as yet to come. Zeph. 2 : 13.

33. With what glorious promises of Israel's restoration does the prophecy close?—With those of Zeph. 3 : 8–20, and especially verses 10–13, and the expression of God's joy and love in verse 17.

Josiah, King of Judah. (2 Chron. 34, 35, and 2 Kings 22, 23.)

1. How old was Josiah when he ascended the throne of Judah?—Eight.

2. Whose son was he?—Amon's.

3. What character did he bear?—He did that which was right in the sight of the Lord.

4. How soon did he begin to manifest his piety?—At the age of fifteen. 2 Chron. 34 : 3.

5. What was the first reformation he effected?—The removal of everything connected with idol-worship.

6. What wonderful discovery was made in cleansing the temple?—A book of the law.

7. What did this prove?—That it had been neglected and despised.

8. What effect did the reading of God's word have on the young king?—He was shocked and alarmed by the national guilt and danger.

9. To whom did he send to inquire the will of God concerning his people?—To Huldah the prophetess.

10. Did God alter the word that had gone forth out of his mouth?—No. 2 Chron. 24 : 24, 25.

11. How did he comfort Josiah notwithstanding?—By promising that his judgments should not take place during Josiah's life.

12. What effect did this message have on Josiah?—He caused the book of the law to be publicly read, and induced the people to renew their covenant with God.

13. How does 2 Chron. 35 : 3 show us that the ark had been taken out of the temple?—By relating Josiah's order that it should be put in again.

14. What multiplied idolatries does 2 Kings 23 show had gained footing in Judah at this time?—The worship of Baal and the abominations of Sidon, Moab and Ammon.

15. How did Josiah deal with them all?—He destroyed and defiled them.

16. What remarkable prophecy had gone before of this young king?—And, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the Lord unto Bethel: and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense. And he cried against the altar in the word of the Lord, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the Lord; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee. 1 Kings 13 : 1, 2.

17. Did he fulfill it?—Yes, exactly. 2 Chron. 34 : 5.

18. Could all Josiah's goodness turn away God's wrath from Judah?—No. 2 Kings 24 : 3, 4.

19. What was Josiah's end?—He was killed in battle.

20. How did this come about?—He had attacked the king of Egypt as he was going against the king of Assyria.

21. Was not this the only failure recorded of this good and pious king?—It was.

22. Must not their transgressions have reached a fearful height, seeing even Josiah's reformation could not purge the land?—They must indeed.

23. How was the news of his death received by his people?—With deep and universal mourning.

24. Which famous prophet is named as mourning for him?—Jeremiah. 2 Chron. 35 : 25.

> The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the Lord, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen. Lam. 4 : 20.

25. Where was Josiah slain?—At Megiddo.

26. How does Zechariah the prophet, who lived above seventy years after this, refer to this grievous lamentation over Josiah?—In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. Zech. 12 : 11.

27. How long had this good king reigned?—Thirty-one years.

Jeremiah and the Last Kings of Judah. (Jer., 2 Kings 23 to 25 and 2 Chron. 36.)

1. In whose reign is Jeremiah first mentioned?—Josiah's.

2. In which year of his reign did this prophecy commence?—The thirteenth. Jer. 1 : 2.

3. Was this before or after Josiah's reformation?—The fifth year after.

4. How did Jeremiah at first feel when he found the Lord had appointed him to the prophet's office?—Timid and unfitted, like a child.

5. By what promises did the Lord comfort him?—That he would be with him to deliver him. Jer. 1 : 8, 19.

6. What office did Jeremiah hold by birthright? and which was his native city?—A priest. Anathoth, in Benjamin. Jer. 1 : 1.

7. How does Jer. 2 display Judah's sin at this time? —It shows their worship of Baal and other gods. Jer. 2 : 20–28.

8. How does the prophet beautifully describe the contrast between God's service and idolatry in chap. 2 : 13? —My people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

9. May we not ask ourselves here, On which are we resting?—Yes, for our deceitful hearts may have many idols.

10. Although there may be no open idolatry in the land, what objects can the heart set up and do homage to rather than God?—Riches, pleasures, fame and many more.

11. What is the result of this heart-idolatry?—"Evil and bitter" in the end. Jer. 2 : 19.

12. Compare Jer. 2 : 21 with Isa. 5 and Ps. 80, and describe God's people under this figure.—Like a vineyard, or a vine, they are tenderly sheltered, nourished, and trained, are wisely instructed and restrained, and bear rich and abundant fruit.

13. Who has revealed himself to us as the only "true Vine"?—Jesus Christ.

> I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. John 15 : 1.

14. Have we any hope of participation in its blessings?—We are all invited to partake; and if we have a true faith in Christ, we do partake now.

15. How does chap. 3 : 22 describe the reformation under Josiah? also chap. 4 : 1–4?—They speak of the return of the Jews from their evil ways.

16. Name some of the sins of Judah set forth in chap. 5; also chap. 6 : 13.—Adultery, covetousness, fraud, corruption and oppression, and general rebellion against God.

17. What coming judgment is foretold in chap. 6 : 1–9?—War and siege.

18. Why?—Because of their wickedness. Jer. 6 : 7.

19. Where did the Lord command Jeremiah to stand when he uttered this prophecy?—In the gates or principal places of assembly. Jer. 17 : 19.

20. Was Jeremiah the only prophet whom the Lord had sent to warn Israel?—No; they had constantly had warning prophets in time past. Jer. 7 : 25, 26.

21. Did the Lord at this time (the reign of Josiah) give the people any encouragement to obey him?—Yes; another invitation was given, with promises of blessing. Jer. 17 : 19–27.

22. Which of Josiah's sons succeeded him on the throne?—Jehoahaz. 2 Chron. 36.

23. How old was he when he began to reign? and how long did he reign?—Twenty-three. Three months.

24. How was it that his reign was so short? and where did he die?—He was put down from his throne by the king of Egypt, and carried away into Egypt, and died there. Jer. 22 : 11, 12.

25. Who reigned next?—Eliakim.

26. What relation was he to Josiah?—Son.

27. To what name did the king of Egypt change Eliakim's?—Jehoiakim.

28. How old was he when he began to reign? and how long did he reign?—Twenty-five. Eleven years.

29. What tax had he to pay Pharaoh-Nechoh?—Silver and gold. 2 Kings 23 : 35.

30. What prophecy against Egypt and this king did Jeremiah utter (Jer. 46)? and when was it fulfilled?—Their conquest, by Nebuchadnezzar (2 Kings 24 : 7). About eight years after.

31. What prophecy was Jeremiah commanded to utter in this (Jehoiakim's) reign?—That the Jews should be punished for their guilt if they did not repent. Jer. 26; 7; 9.

32. What special charge was given to the prophet as to where he was to stand and how he was to perform the mission?—He was to stand in the court of the Lord's house, and to speak to all who came thither from all parts of Judah to worship. Jer. 26.

33. How did the people receive the message?—They gathered together against Jeremiah.

34. What did they wish to do to Jeremiah?—To put him to death.

35. How was he rescued from them?—By Ahikam.

36. What wicked act of Jehoiakim's does the sixteenth chapter record?—He killed the prophet Urijah.

37. What pleasing contrast is given to this in Hezekiah's history?—Hezekiah hearkened to the prophecy of Micah, and besought the Lord.

38. Read Jer. 7, 8, 9, 10, and say where Jeremiah uttered the prophecies recorded in them.—In the gateway of the temple.

39. What sins of Israel do they reveal?—Robbery, murder, adultery, false-swearing and idolatry.

40. What coming judgments do they record?—The captivity of the people and desolation of the land.

41. How does the Lord plead with them?—With tender reproach.

42. To what does he compare them?—To a horse rushing headlong into battle. Jer. 8 : 6.

43. What bitter lamentation does the prophet utter in chap. 8 : 20?—"The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved."

44. Has that word any warning to us?—It solemnly applies to many of us year after year.

45. How does the prophet bewail the state of things in chap. 9 : 1, 2?—In most pathetic words. Read them.

46. Of what event which is not recorded either in the Kings or Chronicles does chap. 14 complain?—Of dearth.

47. Of what was a dearth in Israel always a sign?—Of national guilt. Deut. 28.

48. What honorable testimony does the Lord give to Moses and Samuel in chap. 15?—That they were holy men of prayer.

49. When was Moses intercessor for Israel?—After they had made the golden calf.

50. When was Samuel intercessor for Israel?—When the Philistines were going to attack them. 1 Sam. 7 : 9.

51. How did the Lord comfort Jeremiah in chap. 15?—By promising him kind treatment and deliverance. Vs. 11, 21.

52. How does the Lord describe the sin of Judah in chap. 17 : 1?—As graven deeply on their hearts.

53. To what does the Lord in chap. 17 compare the man who trusts for salvation in his fellow-men?—To the heath in the desert, that cannot thrive.

54. What blessed contrast does the Lord give of the man who rests alone on Christ for salvation?—He is like a tree by the water-side, fruitful and ever green. Jer. 17 : 7, 8.

55. Should we not ask ourselves, On what is our hope resting?—We should, if we would be safe for a single hour.

> Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other Name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Acts 4 : 12.

56. Is not the same simile used in Ps. 1 : 1–4?—Yes.

> Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

57. Does not chap. 17 also supply a beautiful prayer for us to utter?—"Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved." V. 14.

58. To what does the Lord compare himself and Israel in chap. 18?—To a potter moulding clay, and dealing with it as he wills.

59. What sign did the Lord bid Jeremiah show them? and what was the meaning of it?—The breaking of a potter's vessel as a token of the ruin of Israel. Chap. 19.

60. What misery did Jeremiah bring on himself by thus faithfully proclaiming God's word?—He was put in the stocks. Jer. 20.

61. What did Pashur bring upon himself by this?—Captivity in Babylon.

62. Was not the good Jeremiah sometimes tempted to keep back God's word?—Yes, when he saw it was so badly received. Jer. 20 : 8, 9.

63. Was there not a mighty power over him that he could not withstand?—Yes; God was stronger than he. Jer. 20 : 7.

64. How did Jeremiah comfort himself in the Lord?—By remembering that God was with him. Jer. 20 : 11–13.

65. Of whom does Jeremiah speak in chap. 23 : 5, 6?—Of Jesus Christ.

66. How many other prophets spoke of Christ as a "Branch"?—Two.

> There shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. Isa. 11 : 1.
> Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH; and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of the Lord. Zech. 6 : 12.

67. Where, besides this place, is Jesus spoken of as "King"?—

> Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion. I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son: this day have I begotten thee. Ps. 2 : 6, 7.
>
> All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee. Matt. 21 : 4, 5.
> These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is the Lord of lords, and King of kings. Rev. 17 : 14.

68. By what name will Jesus be called when he comes again as King of Israel?—"The Lord our Righteousness." Jer. 23 : 6.

69. What does St. Paul say in 1 Cor. 1 : 31 and in Phil. 3 : 8?—He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. "Christ Jesus my Lord."

70. Read Jer. 35, and say what Jeremiah was commanded to do.—To give the Rechabites wine.

71. Who were the Rechabites?—Descendants of Rechab.

> When he (Jehu) was departed thence, he lighted on Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him. 2 Kings 10 : 15.
> These are the Kenites that came of Hemath, the father of the house of Rechab. 1 Chron. 2 : 55.

72. Who were the Kenites?—The children of the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people. Judg. 1 : 16.

73. Is not this a proof that Moses's father-in-law did go with him after all?—It is.

74. How was this tribe distinguished from Israel?—By separate origin and abode.

75. What excellent virtue had they practiced?—Abstinence from wine.

76. What is said of drunkards in the Bible?—

> They shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard. And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die. Deut. 21 : 20, 21.
>
> Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way. Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh: for the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty. Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes? they that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine. Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his color in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder. Prov. 23 : 19–21, 29–32.
> Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, shall inherit the kingdom of God. 1 Cor. 6 : 10.

77. What great honor did the Lord set on temperance and obedience in chap. 35?—The preservation of the family of the Rechabites when others were cut off.

78. Who was the strongest man?—Samson.

79. Did he ever taste wine and strong drink?—No.

80. What was a Nazarite?—One who devoted himself to the service of God, and also abstained from wine.

81. What command did the Lord give to Aaron and his sons after the death of Nadab and Abihu?—Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations. Lev. 10 : 9.

82. Is it not therefore supposed that Nadab and Abihu were drunk when they offered the strange fire?—Yes.

83. What does the apostle Paul say about drunkenness in Rom. 13 : 13; Gal. 5 : 21; Eph. 5 : 18?—Let us walk honestly as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, envyings, murders, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess.

84. Read Jer. 25 : 9, and tell me who was to come up against Judah and take it.—Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon.

85. How long was the Captivity to last?—Seventy years. Jer. 25 : 12.

86. What was to happen at the end of it?—Babylon was to be destroyed. Jer. 25 : 12–14.

87. How long was this special prophecy uttered before it was fulfilled? In which year of Jehoiakim was it uttered?—About eighteen years. The fourth.

88. After Jeremiah had spoken these words, what did the Lord command him to do?—To write them in a roll or book. Jer. 36.

89. Whom did Jeremiah employ to write it?—Baruch.

90. Who read it to the people?—Baruch.

91. To whom did Michaiah desire the roll to be read?—The princes.

92. When the princes heard it, to whom did they wish it to be read?—The king.

93. Why did they tell Jeremiah and Baruch to go and hide themselves?—Lest the king should seize them.

94. How did King Jehoiakim receive the message? Did he allow it all to be read to him?—With anger and contempt. Only three or four leaves.

95. What did he do with it?—He cut it and burnt it.

96. Could he by this destroy the word of God?—Certainly not.

97. What was Jeremiah commanded to do?—To write the words in another roll.

98. What punishment did the king bring on himself by this act?—His dead body was cast out unburied, and his family ceased to reign on the throne of Judah. Jer. 36 : 30; 22.

99. Did his determination not to hear God's word hinder it from being fulfilled?—No, not at all.

100. Who was in that roll predicted, and who did come up against Judah and carry Jehoiakim's son captive to Babylon? And how was Jehoiakim himself to be disgraced?—Nebuchadrezzar. Jer. 36 : 2; 22 : 25; 39 : 1. By being left without burial. Jer. 22 : 18, 19.

101. What kind promise did the Lord give Baruch at this time of trouble because he had done the Lord's work?—That he would save his life in the desolation of the land. Jer. 45.

102. Who succeeded Jehoiakim?—His son.

103. By how many names is this king called?—Jehoiachim (2 Kings 24 : 8), Jeconiah (1 Chron. 3 : 16) and Coniah. Jer. 22 : 24.

104. How old was he when his father died?—Eight years.

105. How soon after was he carried to Babylon?—About three months. 2 Chron. 36 : 9, 10.

106. Had not the Lord foretold this in Jer. 36 : 30?—Yes. Jer. 22 : 25.

107. When Nebuchadrezzar carried this young prince captive to Babylon, whom did he make king over the remnant of Judah? and how did he change his name?—His uncle, Mattaniah. Zedekiah.

108. What relation was Zedekiah to the good Josiah?—Brother.

109. What did Nebuchadrezzar carry away with the young prince and his mother from Jerusalem?—The treasures and ornaments of the temple.

110. What character did he bear in the Lord's sight?—He did evil in God's sight. 2 Chron. 36 : 12.

111. What prediction did Jeremiah utter to King Zedekiah of the complete and entire destruction of Jerusalem?—That by sword, famine and pestilence its people should be consumed. Jer. 24.

112. How do chaps. 11 and 12 show the sins of Judah at this time?—By describing their idolatry and their persecution of the prophet.

113. Which was Jeremiah's native city?—Anathoth.

114. How was he treated there?—They plotted to kill him.

115. Read Jer. 24, and say to what the captives now in Babylon were compared, and to what Zedekiah and those left in Judah were compared, and why?—The former to good figs, and the latter to bad, the one being penitent, and the other not.

116. What comforting letter was Jeremiah commanded to write to the former?—That they should seek God and find him, and be restored to their own land. Jer. 29.

117. Who withstood Jeremiah's words?—Shemaiah.

118. How did the Lord punish him?—By shortening his life and cutting off his seed.

119. Read Jer. 27, and say by what beautiful simile did the Lord show that he had given the nations to the king of Babylon.—By bonds and yokes upon the prophet's neck.

120. Who prophesied in opposition to Jeremiah?—Hananiah. Jer. 28.

121. What symbol did he make with the yoke which was on the neck of Jeremiah?—He broke it, as if God would break Nebuchadrezzar's yoke.

122. Did the Lord suffer such impiety to pass? What message did he send to Hananiah by Jeremiah?—No. That he should die the same year.

123. When was it accomplished?—In the seventh month.

124. What should this teach us?—All flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: but the word of the Lord endureth for ever. 1 Pet. 1 : 24, 25.

125. Did Zedekiah believe that it was God's will to bow Judah beneath the yoke of the king of Babylon?—He sent to Jeremiah to know.

126. What message did the Lord send to Zedekiah on this subject?—That those who escaped the pestilence and famine should fall by the king of Babylon's sword. Jer. 21.

127. Read Jer. 34, and say what transgression the people of Judah again fell into, which brought wrath upon them.—They again enslaved their released bond-servants, contrary to the law.

128. What special prophecy against Zedekiah was there in chap. 34?—That he should be carried captive to Babylon.

129. What army did Zedekiah get to help him against the Chaldeans?—The Egyptians. Jer. 37.

130. Did it prosper, or was it only for a time that the Chaldeans withdrew?—Only for a time.

131. While they were away, what did Jeremiah desire to do?—To return to his own land. Jer. 37 : 12.

132. Why was he persecuted? and what did the princes do with him?—Because they thought he was deserting to the Chaldeans. They put him into prison.

133. Who released Jeremiah?—Zedekiah.

134. Did the kindness of the king tempt Jeremiah to alter God's word to him?—No. Jer. 38 : 1, 3.

135. How did the king permit the princes to treat the prophet?—He allowed them to imprison him again.

136. Who stood up and spoke for Jeremiah?—Ebed-melech.

137. How did he rescue him?—He raised him by cords from the dungeon-pit.

138. Did the king's kindness again to Jeremiah tempt him to swerve from the truth? What did he tell the king?—No. That if he stayed in the city it would be taken and burnt. Jer. 38 : 18.

139. Did the king believe him and obey the word of the Lord?—No; he stayed till it was too late. Jer. 39 : 2, 4, 8.

140. Where was Jeremiah when the city was taken?—In the court of the prison. Jer. 38 : 28.

141. What kind deliverance did the Lord grant to Ebed-melech in remembrance of his kindness to Jeremiah in the pit?—From the Chaldeans. Jer. 39 : 16–18.

142. What should this teach us?—To always show special kindness to God's own people. Matt. 25 : 34–36.

> He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth Him that sent me. And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. Matt. 10 : 40, 42.

143. How did Nebuchadrezzar treat Zedekiah?—He put out his eyes, after killing his sons in his sight, and imprisoned him in Babylon for life. Jer. 52 : 10, 11.

144. How was the loss of Zedekiah's eyesight foretold by the prophet Ezekiel?—This burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them. They shall remove and go into captivity. And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes. And I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. Ezek. 12 : 10–13.

145. How did the Chaldeans treat Jeremiah?—By order of the king he was kindly sent back, according to his wish, to his own land. Jer. 39, 40.

146. What comforting promises did the Lord give his people ere they were carried away captive?—Of return to their own land, and of the coming of the Messiah, the Lord our Righteousness. Jer. 32, 33.

147. When were these uttered?—About five hundred and ninety years before Christ.

148. Whom did the king of Babylon leave as governor in Judah?—Gedaliah. 2 Kings 25; Jer. 40.

149. What happened to him?—He was killed by Ishmael and others. Jer. 40, 41.

150. What was the sad result of his death?—The carrying away as prisoners those under his charge. Jer. 41 : 10.

151. Whither did the people purpose to bend their steps for fear the Chaldeans should revenge his death?—Toward Egypt. Jer. 41 : 17, 18.

152. What did the people pretend to desire after they had made up their minds to go down into Egypt?—Direction from God. Jer. 42 : 2, 3; 43 : 1–7.

153. Did they not prove this by their conduct?—Yes, they showed their hypocrisy by going into Egypt, notwithstanding Jeremiah's warning against it.

154. Did they take Jeremiah and Baruch with them, or leave them behind?—They took them with them. Jer. 43 : 6, 7.

155. Had Jeremiah any message from the Lord to his rebellious people in Egypt?—He threatened them with destruction for their idolatry. Jer. 44.

156. What abominable idolatry does this chapter reveal?—Burning incense to the queen of heaven and to other gods. Jer. 44.

157. Were the people better off in Egypt than in Judea?—No, as its conquest by Nebuchadnezzar was foretold. Jer. 46.

158. Against how many foreign countries did Jeremiah prophesy?—Against ten or more, as Egypt, Philistia, Moab, Ammon, Edom, Damascus, Kedar, Hazor, Elam and Babylon. Jer. 50, 51.

159. What other book did Jeremiah write besides his prophecy?—The Lamentations.

160. Where is it supposed Jeremiah died?—In Egypt, by the hands of the Jews.

Ezekiel.

1. Who was Ezekiel?—A priest and prophet.

2. Where was he when he saw the wonderful vision his first chapter records?—By the river Chebar.

3. How came he there?—With the Jews carried captive to Babylon.

4. How old was he at this time?—In his thirtieth year, according to some. Ezek. 1 : 1.

5. How long had he been in captivity?—Above four years. Ezek. 1 : 2.

6. Who was the Jehoiachin whose captivity is here spoken of?—King of Judah.

7. Who had carried them captive?—Nebuchadnezzar.

8. Where was the river Chebar?—In Mesopotamia.

9. Where are the cherubim first spoken of in the Bible?—In Gen. 3, in Eden.

10. For what were they placed in Eden?—To guard the tree of life.

11. What was always associated with the cherubim?—The glory of God. Ezek. 1 : 28; 3 : 23; 43 : 2.

12. Where is God said to dwell in Ps. 80 : 1; 99 : 1?—Between the cherubim.

13. Mention other texts to show that the cherubim are always symbols of God's promise?—"He rode upon a cherub, and did fly." Ps. 18 : 10.

14. When it was said (Gen. 4 : 16) "Cain went out from the presence of the Lord," from what symbol of his presence is it supposed he departed?—From the cherubim.

15. How were the carved cherubim in the tabernacle and Solomon's temple connected with the glory of the Lord?—Because they were over the mercy-seat, where the glory of the Lord was seen.

16. Where did God say he would meet his people?—"Above the mercy-seat between the cherubim." Ezek. 25 : 22.

17. Have we any record of this?—When Moses was gone into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak with him, then he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from off the mercy-seat that was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two cherubim: and he spake unto him. Num. 7 : 89.

18. Are the cherubim ever spoken of in the New Testament?—Not by that name.

19. Are not the seraphim seen by Isaiah (chap. 6) the same in appearance as the cherubim?—Very much the same.

20. In how many respects are the "cherubim" of Ezekiel, the "seraphim" of Isaiah and the "living creatures" (translated "beasts") in Rev. 4, alike?—In having wings.

21. Do we not learn by Isa. 6 : 3 and Rev. 4 : 8 that in God's presence all is holiness?—Yes, as these winged beings are there described as saying, "Holy, holy, holy . . . Lord of hosts, . . . Lord God Almighty." "God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness." Ps. 47 : 8.

22. What is said in Heb. 12 : 14 and Rev. 21 : 27?—"Without" "holiness" "no man shall see the Lord." "There shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth."

23. How, then, can guilty sinners hope to be admitted there?—By having their robes washed and made "white in the blood of the Lamb." Rev. 7 : 9–17.

24. Ought we not to be very anxious to know if we have on that spotless robe?—We ought indeed.

25. What became of that man who ventured into the feast without the wedding-garment?—He was cast "into darkness," to "weeping and gnashing of teeth." Matt. 22.

26. What was that garment meant to represent?—"The righteousness of saints." Rev. 19 : 7, 8.

27. How does the Lord in Ezek. 2 describe the children of Israel to whom he sent Ezekiel to prophesy?—As "most rebellious."

28. How did the Lord prepare the prophet for his mission?—By encouraging and warning him not to fear. Ezek. 3.

29. How was the destruction of Jerusalem (which had not then taken place) described by Ezekiel?—Under the figure of a siege, with tokens of severe famine. Ezek. 4.

30. How long after Jehoiachin's captivity was Jerusalem taken by Nebuchadnezzar?—About eleven years. 2 Kings 25.

31. How was the utter dispersion of Israel described in Ezek. 5, 6, 7?—God said they should be scattered "into all the winds."

32. How was Ezekiel transported to Jerusalem?—In a vision by the Spirit of God. Ezek. 8 : 3.

33. What abominations did the Lord reveal to him there?—Those of the vilest idolatry. Ezek. 8–11.

34. Whose captivity is predicted in Ezek. 12? and how is the loss of his eyesight foretold?—Zedekiah's. When it is said that he should die at Babylon without seeing it.

35. What great honor does the Lord put on Noah, Daniel and Job in Ezek. 14? and which of these three was living at this time?—By distinguishing them as eminently righteous men. Daniel.

36. To what does the Lord compare the inhabitants of Jerusalem in Ezek. 15 and 16?—To a useless vine-branch and to a neglected infant.

37. To what is Nebuchadnezzar compared in Ezek. 17?—To a great eagle.

38. How does God show in Ezek. 18 : 19, 20 that the son shall not be punished for his father's sins?—"The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father."

39. Which of the kings of Judah are spoken of under the figures of the young lions?—Jehoahaz and Jehoiakim. Ezek. 19; 2 Chron. 36.

40. To what animal did Jacob, in blessing his sons, compare the tribe of Judah?—"A lion's whelp." Gen. 49 : 9.

41. Is the Lord Jesus ever spoken of under this symbol?—Yes, as the Lion of the tribe of Judah. Rev. 5 : 5.

42. How does Ezek. 21 : 21, 22 show us the manner in which the ancient Chaldeans divined?—By casting lots with arrows bearing the names of their enemies' cities to be attacked, and by observing the appearances of the entrails of their sacrifices.

43. Against how many nations besides Israel did Ezekiel prophesy?—Eight—Ammon, Moab, Edom, Philistia, Tyre, Zidon, Egypt and Assyria.

44. Read Ezek. 33 : 8, and say what is the "watchman's" duty.—To warn the wicked to turn from his evil way.

45. What is the duty of those who have the alarm sounded in their ears?—To turn at once from their evil ways.

46. Does this concern us?—Quite as much as it concerned them.

47. What will be our condemnation if warned to flee from the wrath to come, and we disregard it?—The worm of remorse that never dies, and the fire that is never quenched.

48. Against whom is the prophecy in Ezek. 34 uttered? Against the priests, prophets or religious teachers.

49. Who is the Good Shepherd?—Jesus Christ. Ezek. 34 : 23.

50. By what name is that glorious Person spoken of in chap. 34 : 29?—A plant of renown.

51. Are there any promises of future blessing in Ezekiel's prophecy?—Yes, of the restoration of Israel to their own land, and of great spiritual blessings, like a resurrection of the dead. Ezek. 36 : 37.

52. What remarkable vision did the prophet see?—A valley of dry bones revived into an army of living men.

53. In what state are our souls by nature?—Dead in sin. Eph. 2 : 1.

54. By what means is life imparted to them?—By being born again" "of the Spirit." John 3 : 1–8.

55. What means was the prophet to use to waken these dry bones?—To prophesy or preach and pray.

56. And what means are constantly being used to rouse us?—The teaching and preaching of God's word and prayer for his blessing upon it.

57. If "dry bones" can live, are we not without excuse?—Yes, for our blessed Lord says, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Luke 11 : 9, 10.

58. What vision did Ezekiel see in the twenty-fifth year of the captivity of Judah?—Of a glorious temple, and of healing waters issuing from it. Ezek. 40–48.

59. To what place was he in vision transported to see it?—To a mountain in the land of Israel.

60. As Jerusalem has never been built by this pattern, to what must it refer?—To the future spiritual glory of Israel and the Church.

61. What great similarity is there between Ezek. 47 and Rev. 22?—The waters issuing from the temple are like the pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. And as in Ezekiel's vision there were on the bank of the river fruitful and healing trees, so in John's vision.

62. When and why was the "tree of life" prohibited?—At Adam's fall and spiritual death, lest he should live again without the atoning and restoring blood of Christ.

63. Will it ever be tasted again?—It will.

64. By whom?—By "him that overcometh." Rev. 2 : 7.

65. How can we "overcome"?—"By the blood of the Lamb." Rev. 12 : 11.

66. What beautiful ceremony ere the children of Israel left Egypt teaches us the value of the blood of Christ?—The sprinkling about their doors of the blood of a lamb, to preserve them from the destroying angel's hand.

67. Of what was the "scarlet line" which Rahab hung out from her window, when Jericho was taken and she was spared, a type?—Of the saving blood of Christ.

68. Shall not we be without excuse if we neglect to take refuge in Jesus?—We shall indeed.

If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. John 13 : 17.

Daniel during the Babylonian Dynasty. (Dan. 1–4, 5, 7, 8.)

1. When was Daniel taken to Babylon?—With Jehoiakim, king of Judah.

2. Where was Babylon?—On the Euphrates, in Chaldea.

3. What relationship did Jehoiakim bear to the good Josiah?—He was his son.

4. Was Daniel also of the royal family of Judah?—He was. Dan 1 : 3.

5. How came he to Babylon?—With the captives Nebuchadnezzar made.

6. Who was Nebuchadnezzar?—King of Babylon.

7. What commandment did he give respecting the royal captives of Judah?—That some of the choicest and cleverest of them should be specially prepared for the king's service.

8. Why did Daniel object to eat the king's food?—It shall be a perpetual statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings that ye eat neither fat nor blood. Lev. 3 : 17.

9. What was the result of the experiment that David requested might be tried on them?—They looked better than those who ate the king's food. Dan. 1 : 15.

10. How does this prove the truth of 1 Sam. 2 : 28–30? It shows that God "will honor" those who obey and "honor" him.

11. What astonishing proof did Daniel give Nebuchadnezzar in Dan. 2 that God had endowed him with divine knowledge?—By telling him the dream that he had forgotten.

12. What was the dream?—That he had seen a great image, with a golden head, struck and destroyed by a stone, which became a great mountain. Dan. 2 : 31.

13. Did Daniel take the honor to himself, or give it to God?—He gave it to God. Dan. 2 : 19–23, 28.

14. How did Daniel interpret this dream?—Who did he say was the "head of gold"?—Nebuchadnezzar himself. Dan. 2 : 38.

15. In what position did Nebuchadnezzar stand to the other kingdoms of the earth at this time?—He was a king of kings in glory and power. Dan. 2 : 37.

16. What kingdom was represented by the "breast and arms of silver"?—The kingdom of the Medes and Persians.

17. In what respect were the two arms of the image a graphic representation of this kingdom?—They showed their united power.

18. What kingdom did "the belly and thighs" (or "sides," see margin) "of brass" represent?—The Macedonian or Grecian kingdom.

19. In what respect was "brass" an appropriate symbol for this power?—It was gained and held by force of arms, and was less splendid than the other kingdoms before it in outward show.

20. How did the fourth kingdom differ from the former ones?—In strength.

21. When might this kingdom be said to be an "iron" power?—When it conquered the kingdom of Greece and other lands.

22. When was it in an enfeebled state?—When it joined the conquered nations to maintain its power.

23. What power was to be greater than all these kingdoms, and crumble them into atoms?—The kingdom of Christ.

24. What does it mean when it says it was "cut out without hands"?—Because it was formed by the power of God, without the help of man. Isa. 63 : 1–6.

25. When was this kingdom to be set up?—In the days of one of these kingdoms or kings. Dan. 2 : 44.

26. At what time, as represented in this image, was Jesus born?—Under the iron or Roman kingdom.

27. What effect did the wonderful interpretation of this dream have on Nebuchadnezzar?—He worshiped Daniel as the messenger of God.

28. To what was Daniel promoted?—To be ruler over the whole province of Babylon.

29. About whom did he make request when himself in power?—About Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, that they should have a share in the government of the province.

30. How was the faith of these three friends of Daniel tried? What did the king command them to do?—By Nebuchadnezzar's setting up a great image of gold, to be worshiped by all his people. Dan. 3. To fall down and worship with the rest.

31. Were they able to do this? Why not?—No. Because they could worship only the one true God.

32. What was the consequence?—They were cast into a burning fiery furnace.

33. Who walked with them in the furnace?—The Son of God.

34. What happened to the men that threw them in?—They were killed by the flames.

35. Were the three servants of God injured?—Not at all, nor even their clothes touched.

36. What effect did this wonderful deliverance have on Nebuchadnezzar?—He blessed and honored God, and promoted his three faithful servants.

37. What had been God's promise, by the mouth of his servant the prophet Jeremiah, to those who went down into Babylon?—Seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the Lord for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace. Jer. 29 : 7.

38. Was not this the fulfillment of it?—Doubtless it was.

39. And is not God as faithful to his word now as he was then?—He is, as every day's experience of his people proves.

40. Can God see into man's heart?—Yes; "the Lord looketh on the heart." 1 Sam. 16 : 7.

41. Did the Lord see the heart of Nebuchadnezzar humbled by what he had beheld of the true God, or still proud?—He saw the pride within.

42. What dream did he give the king to warn him?—A vision of a lofty and flourishing tree hewn down, with its stump left for seven years among the grass and beasts of the field. Dan. 4.

43. Who interpreted this dream to Nebuchadnezzar?—Daniel.

44. Did the king take warning? How was his pride humbled?—No. Dan. 4 : 30. By his being deprived of reason and made a companion of beasts. Dan. 4 : 33.

45. What was the effect of this on the king?—At the end of seven years his reason returned, and he acknowledged and praised God.

46. Is there any account given in the book of Daniel of Evil-merodach, Nebuchadnezzar's son?—No.

47. Where must we turn to read about him?—It came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the first year of his reign lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison, and spake kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon. Jer. 52 : 31, 32.

48. Who was this Jehoiachin? and when was he carried captive? Give his other names.—King of Judah. In the first year of his reign. Jeconiah and Coniah.

49. What wonderful vision does Dan. 7 record?—Of four great beasts that came up from the sea.

50. In which year of Belshazzar's reign did this happen?—The first.

51. Who was Belshazzar?—King of Babylon.

52. What kingdom was represented by the first of these four beasts?—The kingdom of Babylon.

53. Do we see anything similar to this on the Nineveh sculptures lately discovered?—Yes; many winged lions are there portrayed.

54. What was the second beast like?—A bear.

55. What kingdom did that symbolize?—The kingdom of the Medes and Persians.

56. What was the third beast like?—A leopard.

57. How did the "four wings" symbolize this power?—Because the Grecian conquests were rapid as a bird's flight.

58. Who were represented by these four wings?—The kings of the four parts into which the Grecian kingdom was divided.

59. What was the fourth beast like?—It was terrible and strong, and had iron teeth and ten horns.

60. In what respect was this kingdom "diverse" from the others?—In having horns.

61. Who is the representative of that fourth or final power now? What "wears out the saints of the Most High"?—The pope of Rome. The popish system, as far as it has any remaining power.

62. How long is it to continue?—Till about the time when our Lord returns.

63. Who is meant by "the Ancient of Days"?—The eternal God.

64. When will his throne of judgment be set?—When the millennium begins and God puts down his enemies' power.

65. What glorious Person, under the name "Son of man," is introduced in this chapter?—Jesus Christ.

66. What "kingdom" is spoken of that "the saints of God" are to take and possess for ever and for ever"?—The kingdom of Christ to the end of time.

67. When the Lord Jesus came on the earth the first time, did he come as a conqueror?—No, as a servant.

68. When will he come to reign?—When the number of his people is complete, and the time has come "which the Father has put in his own power." Acts 1:7.

69. What vision of Daniel's does Dan. 8 set forth?—Of the ram and he-goat.

70. In what year of Belshazzar's reign did this take place?—The third.

71. Do these two beasts represent any of the kingdoms of the former visions?—Yes—the ram the Median and Persian, and the goat the Grecian.

72. Whom do the two horns of the first of these two beasts symbolize?—The separate Median and Persian powers.

73. Do not the four horns of the second beast in this vision mean the same as the four wings of the fowl in the third beast of the former vision? In what respect are they similar?—Yes. They both correspond in numbers to the four kingdoms into which the Grecian was divided.

74. Is the "little horn" of this vision the same as "the little horn" of the former vision?—No.

75. What erroneous form of religion does "the little horn" of the first vision symbolize?—The popish one.

76. What other great error or false religion does "the little horn" of the second vision symbolize?—The Mohammedan one.

77. Is there any limit put to the rule of these false religions?—Yes; in periods obscurely expressed, but which seem likely to end together about the present time. Dan. 7:25; 8:14.

78. Has not God purposely hidden the time when they shall come to an end?—He has, in order that all may watch in every age.

> Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only. Matt. 24:35, 36.

79. What effect did these visions have on Daniel?—He fainted and was greatly distressed.

80. How soon after this were they fulfilled?—They began to be fulfilled by the overthrow of Babylon by the Medes and Persians in about sixteen years.

81. What impious act of profanity was King Belshazzar guilty of the very night in which his kingdom was taken?—Drinking out of the gold and silver vessels of the temple. Dan. 5.

82. How was it that he did not know that destruction was so near?—He was bent on sinful pleasure, and probably refused to know and understand.

83. Who took the city? and how?—Darius, the king of the Medes. By turning the river into another channel, and so entering the city by surprise through the open gates.

84. Which of the beasts of Daniel's visions, and what part of Nebuchanezzar's image, were symbols of this conquering power?—The bear and ram and the silver breast and arms.

85. How did God reveal to Belshazzar his impending fate just before it fell on him?—By an awful handwriting on the wall.

86. Who came in and reminded the king of Daniel?—The queen.

87. What did the mystic handwriting on the wall predict? Mene? Tekel? Peres?—MENE: God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it. TEKEL: Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting. PERES: Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians. Dan. 5:26–28.

88. And if "Tekel" were said to us, what would be our hope, our refuge?—Jesus Christ alone, in whom his people are complete.

89. Who has satisfied God's justice, and whose righteousness must avail for us?—Christ has fully paid our debt, and his righteousness is sufficient for us.

90. Of whom alone can it be said, "Thou art weighed in the balances and not found wanting"?—He "who did no sin" (1 Pet. 2:22), but "is holy, harmless, undefiled." Heb. 7:36.

91. How will his righteousness avail for us?—As perfect in itself, and performed and offered in our stead.

> As by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. Rom. 5:19.
> The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. 6:23.
> There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Rom. 8:1.

92. What empty honor did Belshazzar put upon Daniel when he had interpreted the handwriting?—A chain of gold and higher rank.

93. How soon after it was Belshazzar slain?—The same night.

94. Who was associated with Darius in taking Babylon?—Cyrus, his nephew and son-in-law.

95. How long before this had his name been mentioned by the prophet Isaiah?—About one hundred and seventy years.

> That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers. That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure. Thus saith the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two-leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut. Isa. 44:27, 28; 45:1.

96. How does this prophecy describe the manner of taking Babylon?—Compare No. 83 with Isa. 44:27, 28; 45:1.

97. Of what spiritual power is Babylon the type?—Of the popish or any other apostate, false and persecuting Church. Rev. 17, 18.

98. By what majestic figure is the destruction of that spiritual power represented?—A mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. Rev. 18.

99. Did not the prophet Jeremiah use a similar symbol when he predicted the fall of the natural Babylon?—It shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the middle of the Euphrates; and thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her. Jer. 51:63, 64.

100. What is the present state of the natural Babylon?—A huge mass of brick and stone and earth, so mingled together that travelers have passed over the site without knowing it.

101. Are we not sure that God's word will be fulfilled on the spiritual Babylon as it has on the natural?—We are, for Christ says, Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. Matt. 24:35.

102. What command, then, should those who are in error take heed to?—Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. Rev. 18:4.

103. And how can we be preserved from error?—Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Psa. 119:105. From a child thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. 2 Tim. 3:15.

Daniel under the Medo-Persian Dynasty. (Dan. 6, 9–12.)

1. What relationship was there between Darius and Cyrus?—Cyrus was nephew and son-in-law to Darius.

2. How are these two kings described in Daniel's vision, chap. 8?—As the ram with two horns. Dan. 8:3, 20.

3. Which was the most powerful king?—Cyrus the Persian.

4. Which reigned over Babylon first?—Darius. Dan. 5:31; 6:28.

5. What feelings did Daniel's prosperity excite in the minds of the king's other princes?—Jealousy, envy and malice.

6. How did they try first to find an occasion against him?—Out of his manner of performing the duties of his office.

7. What unwilling testimony did they bear to his excellence of character and uprightness?—That they could find in him no error or fault.

8. What trap did they lay for him?—They obtained a royal decree that no one should offer a petition or prayer for thirty days to any one but the king.

9. Did he forsake the worship of his God when he knew the consequences?—No.

10. Why did Daniel pray so publicly, when Jesus said, "Enter thy closet and shut the door"?—He desired in this case to show that he was not ashamed of his duty to God.

> If they return to thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name: then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling-place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive thy people which have sinned against thee. 2 Chron. 6:38, 39.

11. Had Daniel heard these words of the Lord Jesus?—No; he lived many years before the Christian era.

12. Under what dispensation did Daniel live?—The old and strict one of the law.

13. What was his act, then?—was it ostentation or devout prayer?—Devout prayer.

14. How did the king feel when he found what his edict had involved?—He was much displeased with himself.

15. Why would not the king alter the decree?—Because of a foolish law of the Medes that no decree of the king could be changed.

16. What became of Daniel in the den?—He was unhurt.

17. Was it because the lions were not hungry?—No.

18. How do you prove this?—By the fury with which they devoured those who immediately after were cast into the den.

19. How were Daniel's enemies punished by the king?—With the same dreadful punishment they had intended for him.

20. What effect had this wonderful deliverance on the king?—He ordered reverence to be paid to the God of Daniel throughout his kingdom.

21. Was not all this overruled of God for the benefit of the poor captive Jews in Babylon?—It was.

22. What was God's promise to those who went into captivity?—That he would "bring" them "again into the place whence" he had "caused" them "to be carried away captive." Jer. 29:14; 28.

23. How long had the Lord declared the captivity in Babylon should last?—"Seventy years." Dan. 29:10.

24. How did Daniel feel as he found the time drawing near for the return of the people to the land of their fathers?—Anxious, probably, to hasten it on. Dan. 9.

25. How did Daniel seek to obtain the Lord's mind?—By prayer and fasting and confession of sin. Dan. 9.

26. How soon was his prayer answered?—Before it was finished. Dan. 9:20.

27. What remarkable contrast is there between the time of the answer to these petitions and the one recorded in Dan. 10?—The one in Dan. 10 was not answered until twenty-one days after, though God had heard and accepted it. Ver. 2, 12, 13.

28. In what gracious way does the Lord allude to Daniel's prayers in Ezekiel's prophecy?—Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it: though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord God. Ezek. 14 : 13, 14.

29. Which three principal prophets were contemporaries?—Jeremiah, Ezekiel and Daniel, for about ten years.

30. It was at "the time of the evening sacrifice" that God answered Daniel's prayer. What other signal answer to prayer did God give at the same hour in Ahab's reign?—The fire to consume Elijah's sacrifice. 1 Kings 18 : 29, 38.

31. What revelation of God's future will concerning Israel does chap. 9 give?—The end of the Jewish sacrifices and the destruction of their city and temple. Ver. 24–27.

32. Of what glorious Person does this chapter speak?—Of the Messiah.

33. Reckoning a day for a year, how soon might the Jews of that day anticipate his coming?—In rather less than four hundred and ninety years.

34. Did Jesus come exactly when he was by Daniel's prophecy expected?—Yes, when Simeon and others were looking for him.

35. What is the meaning of the name Messiah?—"Anointed."

36. How is the death of Christ set forth in this prophecy?—He was to be cut off, but not for himself. Dan. 9 : 26.

37. If he was to be "cut off," but "not for himself," for whom did he die?—Instead of fallen men, that they might not die for ever.

38. Who was sent to Daniel to give him this revelation?—Gabriel. Dan. 9 : 21.

39. In how many other places in Scripture is this angel spoken of?—In Dan. 8 : 16, and in Luke 1 : 19, 26 as appearing to Zacharias and Mary.

40. What is said of angels in Heb. 1 : 13, 14 and in Ps. 103 : 20?—To which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool? Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?—Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

41. How was Daniel employed when the next heavenly messenger was sent to him?—In fasting, humiliation and prayer. Dan. 10 : 2, 3, 12.

42. Is the Lord always the hearer and answerer of prayer?—Always, but in his own good time and way.

43. How long was Daniel kept without an answer to this prayer?—Twenty-one days.

44. Was it because God had not heard him?—No, but because he had reason for delay. Dan. 10 : 12.

45. Who is said to be "the prince of the power of the air"?—"The spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience." Eph. 2 : 2.

46. Whom are we to resist?—Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Eph. 6 : 11, 12.

47. Does not this chapter (Dan. 10) reveal to us the conflict that goes on unseen by us?—Yes, in verse 13.

48. What do Job 2, 1 Kings 22 and Rev. 12 : 7–9 also show?—They show, by expressions about Job and Ahab and their tempters, and about Michael and Satan, that there is a perpetual conflict between the powers of good and evil for dominion over the soul of man.

49. How do we also get a sight of angelic agency, good and bad, in Jude 9?—Michael the archangel, when, contending with the devil, he disputed about the body of Moses.

50. Who may we suppose was the glorious Being who appeared to Daniel, and strengthened him to receive this final revelation?—The glorious Being who appeared to Daniel in chap. 10 : 5 was doubtless the Son of God, and his hand, or that of an angel, afterward gave him strength. Dan. 10 : 10.

51. To what extended period did it reach?—Until the second coming of Christ. Dan. 12.

52. What blessed promise is given in Dan. 12 : 3?—They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

53. Although much of this prophecy is to be understood by history, may we not join with the prophet, chap. 12 : 8?—We may indeed exclaim or humbly inquire, "What shall be the end of these things?"

54. Where is Daniel supposed to have died?—At Susa, in Persia, after having been previously governor of Judæa. Compare Dan. 10 : 1, 4 with Ezra 1.

55. What solemn announcement does Dan. 12 : 2 give?—Many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

56. Will it not in the present life be decided on which side we shall stand?—It will.

> If the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be. Eccles. 11 : 3.

57. What, then, ought we to do?—We ought to come to Christ now, that we may be his in the hour of death and at the day of judgment.

Ezra, Haggai, Zechariah and Esther.

1. In whose reign did the Jews return from their seventy years' captivity?—In the reign of Cyrus, king of Persia.

2. By which prophet had this captivity been foretold?—By Jeremiah (chap. 25 : 11): "These nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years."

3. Why had that exact time been fixed?—See 2 Chron. 36 : 20, 21; Lev. 26 : 33–35.

> Them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon: where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia: to fulfill the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath to fulfill threescore and ten years.
> I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste. Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths. As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest: because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it.

4. How often ought Israel, according to God's command, to have put aside a year for rest to the land?—Every seventh year.

> In the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the Lord: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard. Lev. 25 : 4.

5. Of how many sabbatical years, or years of rest, had Israel robbed the Lord?—About one hundred and twenty-three—from the entry into Canaan to the removal to Babylon.

6. Which attribute of God does this display?—His exact and unfailing justice.

7. Ought the unerring justice of God (Eccles. 12 : 14) to make us afraid?—Yes, for God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

8. What remedy is there for this fear?—Refuge in Christ.

> As it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: so Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many. Heb. 9 : 27, 28.

9. If Israel was judged by God's law, by what shall we be judged?—This is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, but men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

> He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. John 12 : 48.

10. Ought we not, then, to study God's word, that we may know and do his will?—Yes; it is as needful for us as our food, and happily always within our reach.

> For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off. It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it. Deut. 30 : 11–14.

11. How did David esteem God's word?—I rejoice at thy word, as one that findeth great spoil. How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth! Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Therefore I love thy commandments above gold; yea, above fine gold. Mine eyes prevent the night watches, that I might meditate in thy word. Ps. 119 : 162, 103, 105, 127, 148.

12. What proof was there in King Josiah's reign that the cause of Israel's apostasy was disregard of God's word?—Great is the wrath of the Lord that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the Lord, to do after all that is written in this book. 2 Chron. 34 : 21.

13. What "books" did Daniel study (Dan. 9) when he found out God's will concerning Israel?—Probably the books of Jeremiah, Chronicles, Deuteronomy etc.

14. What proof is there in Ezra 1 : 1 that God puts honor on his own word?—The proclamation by Cyrus is there said to be owing to God's word by Jeremiah.

15. Who was Cyrus?—King of the Persians.

16. Which prophet had prophesied of this king by name?—Isaiah.

> Thus saith the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him. Isa. 45 : 1.

17. How long had that been uttered before the event?—About one hundred and seventy years before the taking of Babylon.

18. What edict concerning the captive Jews did Cyrus issue?—That they should return to Judæa and rebuild the temple.

19. Who was at this time prince of Judah?—Shezbazzar.

20. Who was the head of the tribe of Levi, and by birth high priest?—Jeshua, or Joshua. Ez. 2 : 40; 3 : 2.

21. How many returned to Judæa when this decree was published?—42,360, besides 7337 servants. Ez. 2 : 1, 64, 65.

22. What did they bring with them?—The gold and silver vessels of the temple. Ez. 1 : 9–11.

23. In which month of the year did they return?—The seventh. Ez. 3 : 1.

24. What feast fell on the fifteenth day of that month?—The feast of tabernacles.

25. Did they keep it?—Yes. Ez. 3 : 4.

26. What was there remarkable about this feast?—The living in booths.

> Ye shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and ye shall rejoice before the Lord your God seven days. Lev. 23 : 40.

27. How far did they get in building the temple before they were interrupted?—The foundation was laid. Ez. 3 : 11; 4 : 4.

28. Who were their enemies?—The Samaritans.

29. By what means did the Lord rouse them to their duty?—By Haggai and Zechariah, the prophets. Ez. 5.

30. Who was Haggai?—A prophet.

31. How does his first chapter show us that the Jews were more anxious to build their own houses than the temple of the Lord?—Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your ceiled houses, and this house lie waste? Hag. 1 : 4.

32. Is not worldly ease our besetting sin also?—It is.

33. What effect ought the word of the Lord to have on us?—To make us diligent and obedient.

34. What effect had it on Zerubbabel the prince of Judah, and Joshua the high priest?—The Lord stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and did work in the house of the Lord of hosts, their God. Hag. 1 : 14.

35. To whom did the prophet refer in Hag. 2 : 6, 7?—To Christ, as "the desire of all nations."

36. When the foundation of this new temple was laid, the people who had seen the former temple wept, yet the Lord says (Hag. 2 : 9) that the glory of the latter house shall exceed the former. How was this to be?—Because Christ would glorify it by his presence.

37. What promises did the Lord give to the Jews in connection with the building of his house?—That he would be with them, and give them glory and peace. Hag. 2 : 4, 9.

38. And what blessing may we expect if we too work for him?—Grace, mercy and peace, and as many other blessings as he sees good.

39. To whom does the silver and the gold belong?—To God, to give and to take away.

40. What must we say if we offer of our substance to the Lord?—Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty; for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all. Both riches and honor come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might: and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all. Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. But whom am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee. 1 Chron. 29 : 11–14.

41. By what other prophet were they stirred up?—By Zechariah.

42. In which king's reign did these prophets utter their message?—Darius's.

43. Was this the same Darius who put Daniel into the den of lions?—No.

44. Whom does chap. 3 of this book (Zechariah) reveal to us as the hidden adversary of Israel?—Satan.

45. What does the apostle Paul tell us of this wily foe in Eph. 6 : 11–17?—That he is a wicked spirit, ruling "the darkness of this world," working by "wiles" and casting "fiery darts."

46. What is Satan called in Rev. 12 : 9, 10?—The great dragon, that old serpent, called the devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: the accuser of our brethren, which accused them before our God day and night.

47. What glorious Person did the Lord speak of to comfort his people under the name of "the Branch"?—Jesus Christ. Zech. 3 : 8; 6 : 12.

48. Who was destined to crush the head of "the old serpent"?—The seed of Eve. Gen. 3 : 15.

49. What special promises to Zerubbabel does Zech. 4 contain?—The grace and help of the Holy Spirit and the providential care of God.

50. What further prophecy of the Lord Jesus is there in Zech. 9 : 9?—Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

51. When was this fulfilled?—When Jesus entered Jerusalem riding on an ass.

52. To what fountain does Zech. 13 refer?—To the blood of Jesus Christ, that cleanseth from all sin.

53. To what does the Lord Jesus compare himself in John 10 : 11, etc.?—To a good shepherd.

54. Of whom does "the Lord of hosts" speak when he says (Zech. 13 : 7), "Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man that is my fellow"?—Of Jesus Christ.

55. How was "the man" Christ Jesus God's fellow or equal?—As himself also almighty and eternal God.

56. When was this prophecy of the smitten shepherd and the scattered sheep fulfilled?—When Jesus was crucified and his disciples fled.

57. What prophecy is there in Zech. 14 : 4 of the second coming of the Lord Jesus?—"His feet shall stand in that day upon the Mount of Olives."

58. From what part of Judea did the Lord Jesus ascend to heaven?—"From the mount called Olivet." Acts 1 : 12.

59. What did the angels say to his disciples who had seen him go into heaven?—This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. Acts 1 : 11.

60. In verse 8 of this chapter (Zech. 14) living waters are spoken of; where else in Scripture are these described?—In Ezek. 47 : 1–12, as issuing "out of the sanctuary;" in Joel 3 : 18, as coming "forth of the house of the Lord;" in Rev. 22 : 1, as "proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb."

61. What glorious promises does this prophecy contain of future blessings in store for Israel?—That God would bring them again to their own land (Zech. 10 : 6–12), and would dwell among them (Zech. 2 : 10–12), and pour his Spirit upon them (Zech. 12 : 6–14), and that they should be holiness unto the Lord (Zech. 14 : 16–21), and be a blessing. Zech. 8 : 3–23.

62. Must not these have been peculiarly comforting to the poor Jews in their impoverished state?—They must indeed.

63. What effect did it have on them?—They began to build the house of God, and prospered and finished it. Ez. 5 : 2; 6 : 14.

64. How did they withstand their adversaries?—Through "the eye of their God" upon them. Ez. 5 : 5.

65. What new edict did they obtain from the king?—That the Persian governors should furnish them supplies for the building and the sacrifices. Zech. 6 : 6–12.

66. How had this been brought about?—Through the discovery of the former decree of Cyrus. Ez. 5 : 3; 6 : 5.

67. When was the temple finished?—In the sixth year of King Darius, and about the year 515. B. C.

68. How was it dedicated?—With special sacrifices and the keeping of the Passover. Ez. 6 : 16–22.

69. Who is the Artaxerxes mentioned in Ez. 6 : 14, and again in Ez. 7 : 1?—Artaxerxes Longimanus, son of Xerxes.

70. By what other name is he called in the book of Esther?—Xerxes, or Artaxerxes; a previous one, of Ez. 4 : 7, is in Esther called Ahasuerus.

71. How came a Jewish damsel to be his wife?—Ahasuerus's former wife had been divorced,and Esther had been chosen in her place from many who had been taken to the king by his command. Esth. 1 : 9; 2 : 1–17.

72. What was the name of Esther's uncle?—Mordecai.

73. What kind of relationship had he sustained toward her?—That of father since her parents' death.

74. Where was the Persian court held at this time?—At Shushan (or Susa) in Persia.

75. Who was the Jews' great enemy at this time?—Haman.

76. From whom had he descended?—From Agag, king of Amalek.

77. Would not this account for his great antipathy to the Jews?—Yes, as his ancestors had been almost destroyed by them. 1 Sam. 15.

78. What had the Lord decreed concerning Amalek?—The Lord said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua; for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jehovah-nissi: for he said, Because the Lord hath sworn that the Lord will have war with Amalek from generation to generation. Ex. 17 : 14–16.

79. Would this not account for Mordecai refusing to bow down to him?—It would, as he was thus numbered among the enemies of God.

80. How did Haman attempt to wreak his vengeance on the Jews?—By destroying all of them throughout the kingdom.

81. How did the Lord prevent this?—By means of Esther, the Jewish queen. Esth. 4.

82. What did the king command to be read before him to amuse his waking hours?—The history of his reign. Esth. 6 : 1.

83. Must not Haman have been woefully disappointed when the honor he intended for himself was placed on Mordecai?—Yes; such is often the mortification of malice and pride.

84. How did Esther obtain the deliverance of her kindred?—By petitioning the king.

85. Was it not likely that she was raised to the throne of Persia with this intent?—Yes, extremely likely. Esth. 4 : 14.

86. Is the Lord ever at a loss for means to accomplish his purposes?—Never.

87. What feast was ever after celebrated among the Jews to commemorate this deliverance?—The feast of Purim. Esth. 9 : 26.

88. Why was it so called?—Because their enemies had cast Pur, or the lot, as to the time of destroying them. Esth. 9 : 24: 3 : 6, 7.

89. To what dignity was Mordecai raised in the Persian court?—The highest dignity under the king. Esth. 10 : 3.

90. Will not this account for the great favor shown to the Jews at Jerusalem by the Persian king?—It will.

91. Who was Ezra?—A priestly descendant of Aaron and a writer of the law. Ez. 7 : 1–5, 11.

92. Is it supposed that he went up to Jerusalem in the reign of Cyrus, or not till that of Artaxerxes (Longimanus)? In that of Artaxerxes Longimanus.

93. What was his object in going to Jerusalem?—To carry back the treasures of the temple (Ez. 7 : 19) and royal gifts for the temple service.

94. What kind letter and munificent gift was he the bearer of from the Persian king?—A letter empowering the Jews to return to Jerusalem, and exempting many of them from tribute and custom; and a gift of silver and gold and other needful things. Ez. 7 : 11–26; 8 : 26, 27.

95. Whose unseen Hand is beheld here, and whom did Ezra acknowledge in the last verses of this chapter (Ez. 7)?—The hand of God, God having put it into the king's heart.

96. How does Ezra describe his journey from Babylon to Judea?—That they set out with fasting and prayer, and arrived in safety. Ez. 8 : 21–23, 31, 32.

97. What proof have we in Ez. 8 : 23 of the truth of 1 Kings 8 : 46–49; 9 : 3?—The prayer of the penitent captives was heard.

98. What did Ezra and his company take up with them?—The royal gifts for the service of the temple.

99. What act of worship did they perform when they arrived in Judæa?—They offered a burnt-offering. Ez. 8 : 35.

100. What sinful act was Ezra made acquainted with by the princes of Judah?—Of the Jews intermarrying with the people of the land. Ez. 9.

101. How did Ezra receive this mournful information?—He was greatly distressed.

102. Did he justify these acts before the Lord, or confess the sin to him?—He confessed it with the deepest humiliation.

103. What effect did his faithfulness have on the people?—They were truly penitent and distressed, and put away their wives. Ez. 10 : 1, 19.

104. How did they bring about the desired reformation?—They made a covenant with God and with each other, and a public proclamation.

105. Were there many in this trespass?—Many. Ez. 10 : 13.

106. Were the priests included in the number?—Yes. Ez. 10 : 18.

107. What had been the Lord's special command on this point?—(See Ex. 34 : 12–16.)

> Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee: but ye shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves: for thou shalt worship no other god: for the Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God: lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a-whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice; and thou take of their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters go a-whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a-whoring after their gods.

Nehemiah and Malachi.

1. Was Ezra left alone to reform the people, or did he soon obtain a companion in the good work?—God sent him a fellow-worker. Neh. 8 : 9.

2. Who was this?—Nehemiah. Neh. 1.

3. What office had he held in the Persian court?—That of king's cupbearer. Neh. 1 : 11.

4. Why did he wish to give up so high an appointment?—That he might return to Judæa to assist in the rebuilding of the temple.

5. What means did he adopt to obtain his desire?—Prayer to God. Neh. 1 : 11; 2 : 4.

6. Can God, then, hear the desire of the heart, as well as the words of the mouth?—He can, for he is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of Him with whom we have to do. Heb. 4 : 12, 13. When Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts? Luke 5 : 22; 6 : 8; 9 : 47; 11 : 17.

7. Did the king grant his request?—He did. Neh. 2 : 6.

8. Had Nehemiah gone unprepared into the king's presence, or had he sought the Lord by prayer?—He had offered humble and earnest prayer.

9. What promise had he pleaded in prayer?—God's promise to his people by Moses, that if they returned in penitence and obedience to him, he would restore them to their land. Neh. 1 : 8, 9.

10. May not we too depend on God, that what he has promised to us he will perform?—We always and confidently may, for "He is faithful that promised."

11. What does Nehemiah's example encourage us to do?—To be "instant in prayer."

12. What king was this before whom Nehemiah was so "sore afraid"?—Artaxerxes Longimanus.

13. What was the name of his queen?—Uncertain—not Vashti or Esther.

14. What was Nehemiah's particular request to the king?—That he would send him into Judæa to rebuild his city. Neh. 2 : 5.

15. Whom had the king sent with Nehemiah?—Ezra. Ez. 7 : 12, 13.

16. How did the Jews' enemies feel when they understood Nehemiah's errand?—They were much displeased. Neh. 2 : 10, 19; 4 : 1, 7.

17. What was Nehemiah's first act after he got to Jerusalem?—He privately examined the ruins by night. Neh. 2 : 12–15.

18. In what state did he find the wall?—Everywhere broken down.

19. Who assisted him in repairing it?—The high priest, the priests and many of the rulers, merchants and others. Neh. 3.

20. Were they all regular masons and builders?—No; some were goldsmiths (ver. 32) and apothecaries (ver. 8).

21. Who are spoken of in Neh. 3 : 12?—The daughters of a ruler, as giving their help.

22. Should not this teach us that in the Lord's work all can assist?—Yes, and that all should feel glad and honored to do so.

23. What did Paul say in Acts 9 : 6?—"Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?"

24. What honorable mention is made of a "ruler" and "his daughters" assisting in the good work, contrasted with what is said of "the nobles of Tekoah" in Neh. 3 : 5?—The "nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord." (See No. 21, ver. 12.)

25. Is it not so in the present day?—"Not many noble are called." 1 Cor. 1 : 26.

26. When the enemies of the Jews saw the wall of Jerusalem progressing, what did they wish to do?—To stop the work. Neh. 4 : 11.

27. What reproachful thing did they say of the work?—"If a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall." Neh. 4 : 3.

28. Did they succeed in hindering the work?—No.

29. How did Nehemiah meet the danger?—By prayer and faith, and by being armed and watchful. Neh. 4 : 9–23.

30. What great zeal and self-denial does Neh. 23 record?—Their not putting off their clothes at night.

31. What great abuse did Nehemiah set himself to rectify?—The requiring usury, or excessive interest, for the loan of money to the famished and distressed. Neh. 5.

32. Were the people willing to do as he said?—Yes, and did it at once. Neh. 5 : 12, 13.

33. What example did Nehemiah himself set them?—He declined receiving his own allowance, to spare the poor.

34. How was it that he was so disinterested?—From "fear of God." Neh. 5 : 15.

35. To whom did he look for recompense?—From God. Neh. 5 : 19.

36. Was not the eye of Moses fixed on the same blessed object?—It was.

> By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward. Heb. 11 : 24–26.

37. What was the sustaining power that upheld the apostle Paul in his arduous course?—His expectation of "a crown of righteousness" to be given him "at that day." 2 Tim. 4 : 6–8.

38. Does not the apostle Peter remind us that it is that same blessed period to which we must look?—When the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 Pet. 5 : 4.

39. What does Matt. 25 tell us about that time?—That those who serve God and his people upon earth, shall, when Christ returns in his glory, enter into eternal life and the joy of their Lord. Vs. 19–23, 31–40, 46.

40. Ought we not, then, to examine ourselves, to see whether we are getting our reward here or waiting for it hereafter?—Yes, as it is of hypocrites that it is said (Matt. 6 : 2, 5, 16), "They have their reward," and have no other and better to come.

41. What wicked device did Sanballat and his companions next try to put the good Nehemiah in fear?—They invited him to a meeting in order to get him into their hands, and they sent him a false prophet to induce him to leave his work. Neh. 6.

42. Did they succeed?—No.

43. On whom did Nehemiah depend?—Upon God. Neh. 6 : 9.

44. Was any one ever disappointed who put his trust in God?—Never.

45. How long was the wall building?—Fifty-two days. Neh. 6 : 15.

46. What prophecy of Daniel was connected with the building of this wall?—Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times. Dan. 9 : 25.

47. Whom did Nehemiah appoint to the charge of Jerusalem, and why?—I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. Neh. 7 : 2.

48. What did God put into the heart of Nehemiah to do after this?—To make a register of the families that returned from Babylon. Neh. 7 : 5.

49. Why was the preservation of the genealogies of the children of Israel so important?—To show the fulfillment in Christ of the promise to Abraham, that in his seed should all the nations of the earth be blessed (Dan. 22 : 18) and of the promise to David, that God would raise up a king to sit for ever on his throne. Acts 2 : 29, 30; Luke 1 : 30–33.

50. What further arrangement was completed by the seventh month?—The settling of the Israelites in their cities. Neh. 7 : 73.

51. What special feast was to be kept in that month?—The feast of tabernacles. Neh. 8 : 14–18.

52. Of what was it symbolical?—The booths were in remembrance of the tents in the wilderness. Luke 23 : 43.

> Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the Lord. On the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein. Seven days ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord: on the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you: and ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord: it is a solemn assembly; and ye shall do no servile work therein. Ye shall dwell in booths seven days. Lev. 23 : 34–36, 42.

53. When will be its great antitype?—I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. Rev. 21 : 1–3.

54. Who read the law to Israel at this solemn feast?—Ezra himself.

55. Does not Neh. 8 : 8 show that their seventy years' residence in a foreign land had made them forget their mother-tongue, Hebrew?—Yes, as distinct reading and explanation were required.

56. What effect did the reading of the law have on the people?—They wept, from mingled feelings of sorrow and of joy. Neh. 8 : 9.

57. How did Ezra encourage the people?—He said the joy of the Lord was their strength. Neh. 8 : 10.

58. What does Neh. 9 record?—A solemn fast, with reading of the law and confession of sin.

59. What further arrangements do Neh. 10 and 11 set forth?—The entering into a covenant with God for obedience to his law and as to the offerings for his service, and the selecting the inhabitants of the city and country.

60. How was the wall dedicated?—With music and thanksgiving and great joy. Neh. 12 : 27–43.

61. How long did this reformation last?—During the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah. Neh. 12 : 47.

62. When had Nehemiah returned to the king of Persia, his master? (Neh. 13).—In the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes' reign. Neh. 5 : 14.

63. When he returned to Jerusalem again, did he find the government going on prosperously?—No.

64. What evils did he discover?—Abuse and neglect of the house of God, Sabbath-breaking and heathen marriages.

65. How did he correct them?—He cleansed the temple and made new treasurers of its funds, and closed the city gates against Sabbath traffic, and put an end to marriage of heathen wives.

66. Had not the Sabbath-day been the great token of the covenant between the Lord and Israel?—It had. Isa. 58 : 13, 14; Ezek. 20 : 12–20.

> Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily, my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the Lord that doth sanctify you. It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed. Ex. 31 : 13, 17.

67. Will God suffer his laws to be trampled on without punishment?—No, as we see in the case of the Jews' neglect to keep their seventh years of rest.

> Them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; to fulfill the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths; for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfill threescore and ten years. 2 Chron. 36 : 20, 21.

68. What command did the Lord give about marrying heathen wives?—Thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor show mercy unto them; neither shalt thou make marriages with them: thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son. For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods. Deut. 7 : 2–4.

69. Did not Nehemiah vigorously root out this evil?—He did. Neh. 13 : 25, 28, 30.

70. Where is Nehemiah supposed to have ended his days?—At Babylon, as cupbearer to the king. Neh. 1 : 11; 13 : 6.

71. After his death, what further evils does the prophecy of Malachi record?—Scanty and mean sacrifices and offerings to God. Mal. 1.

72. Does not chap. 2 : 1–11 of this prophecy show us that the sin which Nehemiah had with such zeal cleansed away a few years before, the priests had fallen into again?—Yes; they seemed to have married heathen wives. Mal. 1 : 1–11.

73. Had they not made it an excuse for putting away their wives?—Yes. Mal. 2 : 14–16.

74. Would God wink at this sin?—No, for he hateth putting away.

75. Of whom does Mal. 3 : 1 speak?—Of John the Baptist.

76. How is he described?—As God's messenger, to prepare his way.

77. Does not this chapter reveal yet further Israel's sin at that time?—Yes, it speaks of their adultery, false swearing, oppression of the poor and robbery of God. Mal. 3 : 5–9.

78. Were there any faithful ones left among this general corruption?—Yes, some that feared God, and met together to speak about him for their mutual comfort and help, and who were all written down in his book of remembrance. Mal. 3 : 16, 17.

79. What awful day does the prophet speak of in Mal. 4 : 1, 5?—The great and dreadful day of judgment.

80. Is this "day" mentioned in any other part of Scripture?—Yes, in Joel 2 : 31 as "the great and terrible day of the Lord."

81. Who have need to fear the terror of "that day"?—"Scoffers" who walk "after their own lust." 2 Pet. 3 : 3.

> And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; and said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb. Rev. 6 : 15, 16.
> For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

82. With what feelings may those who "fear the Lord" look forward to it?—With solemn awe, with humble hope, with calm peace and thankful joy.

83. Who is spoken of under the figure of the "Sun of Righteousness"?—Our Lord Jesus Christ.

84. To whom does Deborah allude in her song in Judg. 5 : 31?—To Jesus Christ, "the sun" going "forth in his might."

85. Did not David look forward to the same blessed Person in his "last words"?—Yes, as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth. 2 Sam. 23 : 4.

86. Should we not ask ourselves, Are we ready for his appearing?—Yes, day by day, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. Rom. 13 : 11, 12.

87. How can we know that we are ready?—By knowing that we are in Christ by faith; for as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: so Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. Heb. 9 : 27, 28.

88. What in Rev. 19 : 8 is the bride's dress said to be in which she appears to meet the Lord?—To her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white; for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints (even the righteousness of Christ).

89. Whose righteousness must we be clothed in if we sit down at the marriage-supper of the Lamb?—"Not" our "own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." Phil. 3 : 9.

90. How can we procure this?—"Through Jesus Christ our Saviour." Tit. 3 : 5–7.

91. What right have we to obtain it?—A perfect right through Christ by faith. "And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And whosoever will" may come. Rev. 22 : 17.

THE NEW TESTAMENT.

Luke 1.

1. Who was the evangelist Luke?—The writer of a Gospel and of the Acts of the Apostles, a physician, and said to have been born at Antioch in Syria.

2. Was he a personal disciple of our Lord?—This is not known.

3. Who was Theophilus?—A Gentile of rather high rank, and a Christian. Acts 1 : 1.

4. How much of Palestine was under Herod's jurisdiction?—Judæa. Luke 1 : 5.

5. What is meant by the courses of the priests?—They were "divided by lot" "in the service of the house of the Lord." 1 Chron. 24 : 1–19.

6. Does not the word "temple" in verse 9 signify rather the holy place?—It does, for God says to Moses, "Thou shalt make an altar to burn incense upon," "and thou shalt put it" "before the mercy-seat." Ex. 30 : 1, 6–8.

7. What was our Lord's testimony to John the Baptist at a later period?—That "he was a burning and a shining light." John 5 : 35.

8. What prophecy agrees with verse 17?—Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord : and he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse. Mal. 4 : 5, 6.

9. How much older was John the Baptist than our Lord?—About six months. V. 36.

10. Is there not a connection between verses 28 and 38?—The angel said to Mary, "The Lord is with thee," and Mary replied, "Behold the handmaid of the Lord."

11. Whom does Mary speak of as God my Saviour?—Of God the Father, who designed the salvation of man, and sent his Son to execute it.

12. What was the oath unto Abraham?—The angel of the Lord called unto Abraham out of heaven, and said, By myself, have I sworn, saith the Lord, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: that in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea-shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies: and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice. Gen. 22 : 15–18.

13. To what do we owe the remission of our sins?—To the righteousness and death of Christ, "through the tender mercy of our God." Vs. 77, 78.

14. How do we know that the way of life is light and peace?—By the word of God (v. 79), and by the experience of our own minds and hearts.

Matthew 1 : 18–25.

15. How do we know it was the same angel as appeared to Mary?—Because he is spoken of in v. 20 as "the angel of the Lord."

16. What is the meaning of being saved from our sins?—Being saved from the power and guilt and punishment of them, and made "holy and unblamable and unreprovable in" God's "sight." Col. 1 : 22.

Luke 2.

17. Who was Cæsar Augustus?—The first emperor of Rome.

18. What does the term "all the world" include?—The Roman empire, which then included nearly all the known or civilized world.

19. How do the angels speak of Jesus to the shepherds?—As "a Saviour," "Christ the Lord." V. 11.

20. Is there not a sign of the poverty of Joseph and Mary in the offering they presented?—There is.

> When the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt-offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin-offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest: who shall offer it before the Lord, and make an atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the law for her that hath borne a male or a female. And if she be not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons; the one for the burnt-offering, and the other for a sin-offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean. Lev. 12 : 6–8.

21. Is Simeon of verse 25 the same person as in Acts 15 : 14?—No; the Simeon of the Acts was Simon Peter.

22. Who are the Gentiles?—All nations but the Jews.

23. How does the compulsory taxation of Luke 2 : 1 agree with the boast of the Jews in John 8 : 33?—It does not agree at all, but shows the falseness of their boast.

24. What was the feast of the Passover?—Observe the month of Abib, and keep the passover unto the Lord thy God: for in the month of Abib the Lord thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night. Thou shalt therefore sacrifice the passover unto the Lord thy God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the Lord shall choose to place his name there. Thou shalt eat no leavened bread with it. Deut. 16 : 1–3.

Matthew 2 : 1–12.

25. Who were the wise men?—Some Magi from the East, who studied the stars and the supposed influence of the stars on human affairs.

26. Why was all Jerusalem troubled, instead of welcoming their promised King?—Many were afraid lest he should overthrow the reigning king.

> He came unto his own, and his own received him not. John 1 : 11.

27. What proof of the overruling providence of God is there in verse 12?—The special warning by a dream.

28. Why was the term "Nazarene" a reproach?—Because of the contempt in which Nazareth was held by the educated Jews.

Luke 3 (Matthew 3, Mark 1).

29. Who was Tiberius Cæsar?—The second emperor of Rome.

30. What was the Roman title of Pontius Pilate?—Governor. Luke 3 : 1.

31. What was the special feature of John's preaching?—Repentance for remission or pardon of sin through the coming Messiah, and baptism as the outward sign and public profession.

32. What is repentance?—Not only sorrow for sin, but a total change of mind and heart.

33. Who is addressed in Mark 1 : 2; Mal. 3 : 1; Isa. 40 : 3?—Jesus Christ is addressed in Mark 1 : 2, and referred to in Mal. 3 : 1: "Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me;" and in Isa. 40 : 3: "The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord."

34. Was John's preaching successful?—Yes; people from all parts of Judæa confessed and were baptized. Matt. 3 : 5; Mark 1 : 5.

35. Whither should we flee from the wrath to come?—To Christ, our perfect and only Shield.

36. What is the fruit of true repentance?—Ceasing "to do evil," willfully and habitually, any more. Isa. 1 : 16.

37. What solemn warning is contained in Luke 3 : 9?—Now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down and cast into the fire.

38. How does John's reply in Luke 3 : 11 illustrate the second great commandment?—By teaching kindness and self-denial for each other's good.

39. What were the publicans?—Jewish collectors of Roman taxes.

40. Why were they so odious to their countrymen?—Because they farmed the taxes, and made as much out of them as possible for their own benefit.

41. What is the meaning of the word Christ?—"Anointed." Luke 4 : 18.

42. What was the difference between John's baptism and the Lord's?—The baptism ordained by our Lord was "into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost," and was accompanied by the grace of the Holy Spirit to those who believed. "John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence." Acts 1 : 5. As took place at Pentecost and in the house of Cornelius. Acts 2 : 2–4; 11 : 15.

43. What is the meaning of baptism with fire?—The purifying fire of the Holy Spirit, or some searching and exposing power.

> Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire: and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. 1 Cor. 3 : 13.

44. What is the allusion to the use of the fan?—The final separation by Christ of the righteous and the wicked, as the winnowing-fan divides the chaff from the wheat.

45. What proof of our Lord having no need of repentance is found in Luke 3 : 22?—The approving voice of the holy and omniscient God.

Luke 4 (Matthew 4, Mark 1).

46. How did the Lord Jesus ascertain the will of God concerning himself from day to day?—By constant filial communion with the Father.

47. What is the devil called in Mark 1 : 13?—Satan.

48. What is the meaning of the two terms?—Satan means "adversary" or "enemy," and devil, "accuser."

49. What proof of the divine authority of the Pentateuch is in Luke 4 : 4?—Its being quoted by Christ.

50. What does "living by every word of God" signify?—Trusting his promises and keeping his commands.

51. What is the meaning of the word "tempt" in Luke 4 : 12?—Presumptuously try or provoke.

52. Was it an empty boast of the devil in Luke 4 : 6?—Not altogether, as he is called "the god of this world" (Eph. 2 : 2) and "the prince of the power of the air." 2 Cor. 4 : 4.

53. What relation is there between our Lord's temptation and John 2 : 16?—They both show that there can be no fellowship between Christ and Satan, and between God's service and the world's.

John 1.

54. Why is our Lord called the Word?—Because he is the revelation of God. V. 18.

55. What proof of his divinity is there in verse 1, and again in verse 2, and again in verse 3?—He is stated to be "God," and to have been "in the beginning," and to have "made" "all things."

56. What is the glad hope of eternal life called in verse 4?—"The light of men" in Christ.

57. How do we know the gospel is free to all?—Because Christ, like the light, reaches all, "that all through him might believe." Vs. 7, 9.

58. Who are meant by "his own"?—The Jews. V. 11.

59. What great change takes place in us when we truly believe?—We become new creatures in Christ, even "sons of God."

60. Who effects this change?—"God" himself through Christ, by the Holy Spirit. V. 13.

61. Out of whose fullness do we receive every grace?—Out of the fullness of Christ.

62. Trace the connection between verses 18 and 1?—Christ, as the word of God, declares him or makes him known.

63. What was the difference between priests and Levites?—The priests were descendants of Aaron, and the chief officers of the temple; the Levites, of other families of the tribe, and the assistants of the priests.

64. Who was Elias?—"Elijah the prophet."

65. Why was he expected to reappear?—Because Malachi prophesied that he should come. Mal. 4 : 5.

66. Who was meant by "that prophet"?—Christ, who, like Moses, was a mediator and teacher.

> The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a prophet from the midst of thee of thy brethren; like unto me. Deut. 18 : 15.

67. Why did John call Jesus the "Lamb of God"?—Because he was the spotless sacrifice and gift of God.

68. What further proof of the freeness of the gospel is there in verse 29?—He "taketh away the sin of the world."

69. What language is the word "rabbi"?—Hebrew.

70. In what estimation was Nazareth commonly held?—It was much despised—more even than Galilee in general, whose inhabitants were looked down upon by the more civilized Jews.

71. Can we too often use Philip's invitation?—No. Having seen and known Jesus ourselves, we should say unto all who inquire, and all who doubt, and all who pass by, "Come and see."

72. What is an "Israelite indeed"?—One who sincerely inquires or believes.

> Truly, God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart. Ps. 73 : 1.
> For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh : but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Rom. 2 : 28, 29.

73. What proof of our Lord's divinity does verse 48 contain?—He saw Nathanael, by his all-seeing power, when he thought he was alone in prayer.

74. What is the meaning of the word "Israel"?—"A prince of God." Gen. 32: 28, margin.

> Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

75. Compare verse 51 with Gen. 28: 12 and Heb. 1: 14.—Christ is the ladder of communication between heaven and earth, between earth and heaven; and angels were messengers and servants to Jacob of old and to Christ upon earth, and are "ministering spirits" "to the heirs of salvation" now.

JOHN 2.

76. Is not the Passover generally called the Lord's Passover?—It is, in many parts of the Old Testament.

77. For what purpose were the animals brought to the temple?—To be sold as offerings and sacrifices to God, and for the food of the priests and people.

78. What temple did our Lord refer to in verse 19?—The temple of his own body.

79. How does this verse illustrate John 10: 18?—Each verse shows his "power to take again" the body or life he had laid down.

80. Who built the temple that was then standing?—Ezra and Nehemiah.

81. What proof of the omniscience of Jesus is in verse 25?—"He knew what was in man."

JOHN 3.

82. Who were the Pharisees?—A sect of the Jews who "trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others." Luke 18: 9, 10.

83. What recent miracles does Nicodemus refer to?—Those related or referred to in John 2: 2, 7–11, 23.

84. Is there any exception to the necessity for the new birth?—None.

85. By whom are we born again?—By the Holy Spirit.

86. Who are the "we" of verse 11?—Jesus and the Father.

87. What fresh proof of the freeness of the gospel is there in verses 15 and 16?—Jesus saying, that "whosoever believeth in him" shall "have everlasting life."

88. What proof of salvation being a present blessing is there in verse 18?—The saying of Jesus, that "He that believeth on him is not condemned," but (v. 30) "hath everlasting life."

89. Why do we reject the Light of life?—Because we love sin, or darkness, better.

90. Who is the great Example of verse 21?—Jesus himself.

91. Who is the "bride" of verse 29?—The Church or people of Christ.

92. What is the meaning of the expression "set to his seal"?—Shown his belief.

93. What are the terrible consequences of unbelief?—Being "condemned already" and under the abiding "wrath of God." Vs. 18, 36.

MARK 6 (MATTHEW 14, LUKE 3).

94. Why was John imprisoned?—Because of his faithful boldness in respect to Herod's unlawful marriage with his brother's wife. Mark 6: 17, 18.

95. Did not Herod's respect for John greatly add to his criminality?—It did, as it showed that his conscience told him John was right.

JOHN 4.

96. Why must Jesus "needs go through Samaria"?—Because it lay between. Vs. 3, 4.

97. When was the parcel of ground sold to Jacob?—Jacob bought it on his return from Laban, and probably gave it to Joseph as part of his dying blessing. Josh. 24: 32.

98. Why had the Jews no dealings with the Samaritans?—Because they did not come to Jerusalem to worship. V. 20.

99. Who were the Samaritans?—Colonists from Assyria who worshiped God, but not like the Jews.

100. Is not the freeness of the gospel again brought out in verse 10?—Yes; the Samaritan woman, living in open sin, was welcome to the living water of the Spirit if she asked.

101. What are the soul-satisfying effects of faith?—The grace and comfort of the Holy Spirit. Vs. 13, 14.

102. What proof of omniscience is there in this narrative?—Jesus knowing the history of the woman's life. V. 18.

103. What is the true worship which alone is acceptable to God?—The worship of the heart. Vs. 23, 24.

104. Compare verses 31–34 with Matt. 4: 4.—God's word is the food of the soul.

105. What simple act of faith is recorded in verse 50?—The nobleman's instant belief that Jesus had cured his child.

LUKE 4 (MATTHEW 4, MARK 1).

106. Who are the "broken-hearted," verse 18?—Those whose hearts are broken or crushed under godly sorrow for sin.

107. What is the captivity referred to?—To Satan, who leads his victims captive at his will.

108. What is it to be blind to the truth?—To be unwilling, and so unable, to see and receive it.

109. Why is it called "the acceptable year of the Lord"?—The time of grace (compared to the jubilee year), when God is ready to hear and to forgive. Isa. 1: 18, etc.

110. Why did our Lord not read the remainder of the verse?—Because "the day of vengeance" was not yet come.

111. Will not the time come when the rest of the sentence will be fulfilled?—The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night: in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God? 2 Pet. 3: 10–12.

112. Why did they wonder in verse 22?—Because they knew him only as a Nazarene carpenter's son.

113. Why did our Lord's declaration in verses 24–27 so excite their wrath?—Because of their Jewish pride and contempt for all other people.

114. Was Sarepta a Jewish town?—No, a city of Sidon, in Phœnicia.

115. Was Naaman a Jew?—No, a Syrian.

LUKE 5 (MATTHEW 4, MARK 1).

116. What proof of the power of Jesus does the draught of fishes show?—By bringing the fish in great numbers where there were none the night before.

117. Did not Peter's exclamation show how much he realized the divinity of our Lord?—Yes; it made him deeply feel his own sinfulness in the presence of Christ's holiness and power.

118. In what sense was Peter henceforth to catch men?—By drawing them out of the world to Christ in the gospel net.

119. What act of faith is recorded of the disciples?—Their letting down their net, after a night of fruitless toil, at Jesus' word.

MARK 1: 29 (MATTHEW 8, LUKE 4).

120. How do we see the completeness of the cure of Peter's wife's mother?—She was able to wait upon them immediately.

121. Why did they wait for sunset?—Because it was the Sabbath-day. Mark 1: 32.

122. Why did not Jesus allow the devils to speak?—Perhaps because (as in the case of Paul and the female soothsayer) they might make it appear he was in league with them. Acts 16: 16–18.

123. Who is the great Example of fervent prayer?—Jesus, whose long and earnest prayers by day or night, and especially before great duties and events, are often named.

124. What is meant by "all Syria" in Matt. 4: 24?—That part of it which adjoined the Holy Land.

125. Was there any need for the "if" in the leper's appeal, Mark 1: 40?—No; and Christ is as willing now, as he is able now, to cleanse us from all sin.

126. How could Jesus touch the leper without being himself rendered unclean?—By his divine purity.

> Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper; that they defile not their camps, in the midst whereof I dwell. Num. 5: 2, 3.

127. Is it not a proof of the immaculate purity of our Lord?—Yes; we may conclude that, as he could not be defiled without, he must have been equally undefiled within.

128. What offering was required by the law?—Two lambs, doves or pigeons, with flour and oil. Lev. 14: 10, 21, 22.

MARK 2 (LUKE 5, MATTHEW 9).

129. What proof of the connection between sin and suffering is there in Mark 2: 5?—Jesus saying to the sick of the palsy, "Thy sins be forgiven thee."

130. Why was not our Lord's forgiveness of sins blasphemy?—Because he was God himself. Isa. 43: 25.

131. What other proof of his Godhead does Mark 2: 8 contain?—His knowledge of the people's thoughts.

132. Why does Matthew, in chap. 9, verse 9, call himself by his common name, while in Mark and Luke he is called Levi?—He calls himself Matthew from humility: he is called by his new name of Levi from respect.

JOHN 5.

133. What proof of the connection between sin and suffering is there in verse 14?—The warning of Jesus to the sick man to sin no more, lest a worse disease or thing should happen unto him.

134. Does not verse 17 show that God cannot rest until redemption is accomplished?—Yes; all his works, in providence and grace, show him to have that end in view.

135. Compare verse 18 with Phil. 2: 6.—Christ Jesus is there said to be "in the form of God" and "to be equal with God."

136. Who is to be the Judge of all? and why?—Christ is to be the Judge, that he may have equal honor with God. V. 23.

137. Why is the verb in the present tense before "everlasting life," and in the future tense before "condemnation"?—Because the everlasting life of believers is already begun, while condemnation is reserved for those who will not believe.

138. What is the terrible alternative of resurrection unto life?—Resurrection to damnation, to "shame and everlasting contempt." Dan. 12: 2.

139. What is a fatal stumbling-block to faith?—The preference of honor from men to honor from God.

140. What confirmation of the inspiration of the Pentateuch is there in verse 46?—Jesus quoting it as written of himself.

141. What is the abiding testimony against the Jews' unbelief?—The writings of Moses and the prophets, which testify of Christ.

MATTHEW 12 (MARK 2, LUKE 6).

142. Were the disciples justified in taking the growing corn?—They were.

> When thou comest into the standing corn of thy neighbor, then thou mayest pluck the ears with thine hand; but thou shalt not move a sickle unto thy neighbor's standing corn. Deut. 23.

143. How did the priests profane the Sabbath and remain blameless?—They appeared to do so by killing the sacrifices on that day as on other days.

> In the first day shall be an holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work therein: but ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt-offering unto the Lord; two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven lambs. Num. 28: 18, 19.

144. What is taught of the nature of the Sabbath in Mark 2: 27?—That "the sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath;" the day being appointed, even in Paradise, as a day of rest; and being now a blessed season of rest of body and mind from earthly care and pleasure and toil—a time of special regard to the interests of our immortal souls, and of kind offices to the souls and bodies of our fellow-men.

145. What was the shew-bread?—An important offering.

> Thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof. And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before the Lord. And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, even an offering made by fire unto the Lord. Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the Lord continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant. And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the Lord made by fire by a perpetual statute. Lev. 24: 5–9.

146. What is meant by a "bruised reed" and "smoking flax"?—The conscience-stricken and spiritually distressed and the weak in faith.

MATTHEW 5 (LUKE 6).

147. To whom was the sermon on the mount addressed?—To the disciples of Jesus.

148. Who are "the poor in spirit"?—The humble-minded.

149. What is the "mourning" referred to?—Mourning for sin and for the low state of the Church. Isa. 61: 2, 3.

150. What is meekness?—Patience under provocation, after the example of Christ, "who, when he was reviled, reviled not again." 1 Pet. 2 : 23.

151. What is it to hunger and thirst after anything?—To greatly long for it and to seek and strive to obtain it.

152. Who are the "merciful"?—Those who are kind to the poor, the "hungry" and the "afflicted." Isa. 58 : 10, 11.

153. What is it to be "pure in heart"?—To have that "holiness without which no man shall see the Lord." Heb. 12 : 14.

154. Why are the "peacemakers" so distinguished?—Because of the difficulty of making and keeping peace, and as Christ is the Prince of peace.

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. Rom. 12 : 18.

155. How does our Lord connect his disciples with himself in Matt. 5 : 11?—By promising them a blessing upon all that they endured for his sake.

156. What great lesson of mutual forgiveness does Matt. 5 : 23–26 contain?—That we should come to the worship and service of God in peace and reconciliation with our fellow-men.

157. What rule against trifling with evil is contained in Matt. 5 : 29, 30?—That we should make any sacrifice to be free from sin.

158. What lesson against procrastination is there in Matt. 5 : 25?—We may learn, if we are living in enmity toward God, our Judge, to be earnest in seeking reconciliation with him, through Christ, while we have time.

159. What lesson of the largeness of the love of God have we in Matt. 5 : 45 and Luke 6 : 35?—"He is kind" to "the unthankful" and "evil," and pours his daily blessings alike upon the wicked and the good.

160. Compare Matt. 5 : 48 with Luke 6 : 36.—We should strive to be like our heavenly Father in holiness and mercy.

Matthew 6.

161. Does not the first precept commend itself to our consciences?—It does, or should do. The eye and favor of God should be our chief thought and aim.

162. Compare the reward of verse 2 with that of verse 4.—The hypocrite's reward is the present and fleeting one of honor from men, while the true Christian's reward (besides peace and blessing upon earth) is the eternal one of glory in heaven.

163. What encouragement for our imperfect petitions is there in verse 8?—That our heavenly Father knows what we have need of before we ask.

164. How do the first words of the Lord's Prayer adapt it to the whole family of man?—They show that we have "all one Father."

165. What is it to "hallow" anything?—To treat it as holy.

166. How are we taught that we must render practical obedience to the will of God?—By the standard of the obedience of the angels in heaven. V. 10.

167. Does not verse 11 refer to the daily supply of manna?—It does, and teaches us not to be overthoughtful about to-morrow's supply.

168. What striking condition is added to the petition for forgiveness of our trespasses?—That we should forgive those who have trespassed against us.

169. Give an example of the sort of temptation intended here.—The tempting or trying of the faith of Abraham by requiring Isaac's life. Gen. 22 : 1.

170. How can we judge whether we love God?—By thinking where our chief treasure is, whether on earth or in heaven. V. 21.

171. Who takes care of our lives?—Our heavenly Father. Vs. 26, 30, 32, 33.

Matthew 7 (Luke 6).

172. What lesson of self-examination do the first five verses convey?—Lest we should condemn our neighbor, while we are worse ourselves.

173. What is the meaning of the strait gate?—The narrow entrance into heaven, which, "though wide enough for any sinner, is too strait for any sin."

174. Is there any immediate sign of danger in the broad road?—No, not to the eye of the thoughtless worldly man.

175. Should not our Lord's declaration in Matt. 7 : 14 excite us to make diligent search?—Yes, that we are among the few in the narrow way.

176. What lesson do we learn about our conduct in Matt. 7 : 16 and following verses?—That we shall be judged by our conduct, rather than our profession—by our fruits rather than our leaves.

Luke 7 (Matthew 8).

177. What was the particular feature of the centurion's faith?—It was humble and strong, and was the faith of a Gentile, and not of a Jew.

178. What practical answer did Jesus give to John the Baptist's messengers?—That they were to conclude he was the Messiah from the miracles he did and the prophecies he fulfilled. Luke 7 : 21.

179. How does our Lord sum up his reference to the greatness of John the Baptist?—By saying that the least of those in the kingdom of Christ were greater even than John.

180. What does Luke 7 : 35 refer to?—To the wisdom of God, as shown in the conduct of Christ and of John, being seen and acknowledged by all God's people.

Matthew 11 : 20.

181. May we not apply these woes to our own country and time?—Yes, with still greater truth.

182. What state of heart is specially inculcated in verses 25–30?—Humility, teachableness and meekness.

183. What blessing is vouchsafed to those who take Christ's yoke upon them?—The blessing of rest in Christ from self-righteous and worldly labors and cares.

Luke 7 : 36.

184. In what manner did they sit at table?—They reclined on sofas round it.

185. What was the reason for the omission of providing water for his feet?—Abraham offered water for his visitors' feet (Gen. 18 : 4), but Simon had invited Jesus from curiosity alone, and did not care to show him respect.

Luke 12 : 14 (Matthew 12, Mark 3).

186. What was Beelzebub?—The fly-god of Ekron, in Philistia. 2 Kings 1 : 2.

187. What proof of our Lord's omniscience is there in Luke 11 : 17–20?—His knowing the people's thoughts.

Matthew 12 : 31–37 (Mark 3).

188. Who will judge our words?—Christ, at the day of judgment, even every idle word.

189. How do we see that the closest family relationships are subordinate to discipleship?—By Christ's saying that those who did his Father's will were to him as brother and sister and mother. Matt. 12 : 46–50.

Luke 11 : 37.

190. Who were the scribes and lawyers?—Persons who copied and explained the law.

Luke 12 : 1.

191. What is "the leaven" of the Pharisees?—Their bad principles and influence and hypocrisy. Matt. 16 : 6.

192. Whom does Christ advise us to fear? and why?—God, who has power to cast into hell. Luke 12 : 5.

193. What proof of God's overruling providence have we in verse 6?—Even sparrows not being forgotten by him.

194. What blessing is promised to the confession of Christ?—Those who are not afraid or ashamed to acknowledge Christ upon earth will be acknowledged by him before all the angels at the last day.

195. Against what are we warned in verses 17–20?—Against the love of the riches and pleasures of the world.

196. What does the soul's "being required" mean?—Being called away from earth to its great account.

197. What is it to be "rich toward God"?—To be full of love to him and of good works for his sake.

198. What is it to have a treasure in the heavens?—To have Christ there as our own Saviour, and all his riches as our own through him.

199. What great event is involved in the exhortation to "watch"?—The sudden coming of our Lord.

200. What responsibility is attached to knowing the Lord's will?—The doing it.

201. What is the meaning of verse 49?—It may refer to the "fire" of "the Holy Ghost," "the spirit of burning" (Isa. 4 : 4), and to the gospel of peace being made an occasion of burning hatred among the families and nations of men. Matt. 3 : 11.

Luke 13.

202. What is the call to repentance in verses 1–9?—The sudden death of others and the gracious sparing of our own lives are solemn calls upon us to repent, lest we likewise perish.

Matthew 13 (Mark 4, Luke 8).

203. Who are they that receive the gospel?—Those who truly receive it are those who receive it into their hearts, as seed into good ground, and show its effects in their lives. V. 8.

204. What is the fate of the tares?—To be burned.

205. What is meant by the harvest?—The judgment-day. V. 30.

206. What is meant by the barn?—The heavenly treasure-house and home.

207. Who are the reapers?—The angels.

208. How are the tares described?—As the children of the wicked one. V. 38.

Matthew 8 (Mark 4, Luke 8).

209. What proof have we in Matt 8 : 20 of the poverty of our Lord?—He had not where to lay his head.

210. What do we learn from our Lord's calling the conduct of the disciples before the stilling of the tempest an act of little faith?—That we ought to have strong faith at all times in his goodness and power.

Mark 5 (Matthew 8, Luke 8).

211. Was it lawful for the Jews to trade in swine?—It was not.

212. How does Mark 5 : 17 illustrate John 3 : 19?—It shows that they did not wish their evil deeds to be brought to light.

Luke 5 : 29 (Matthew 9, Mark 2).

213. Compare Luke 5 : 30 with 1 Tim 1 : 15.—Jesus ate and drank with "sinners," because he came into the world to "seek" and "save" them.

214. Of what material were the wine-bottles made?—Of skins or leather.

Mark 5 : 22 (Matthew 9, Luke 8).

215. What was the reason of the poor woman's timid and almost stealthy manner of approaching Christ?—Because a person with her disease was ordered to be kept separate, and was considered unclean.

216. What was the difference between the touch of the thronging multitude and that of the woman?—Hers was the touch of faith.

217. Ought the death of the little girl to have made them give up hope after having applied to Jesus?—No, for Jesus was coming, and He who could cure could also restore to life.

218. What is death called in Mark 5 : 39?—A "sleep," from which Jesus could "awake." John 11 : 11.

219. Was the life thus miraculously restored independent of natural circumstances for its preservation?—No; Jesus ordered her something to eat.

Matthew 9 : 27.

220. What was the proof of the faith of the blind men?—They acknowledged Jesus to be Christ, the Son of David; and they prayed and persevered.

221. May we not secure the same blessing if we use the same means?—We may.

Mark 6 (Matthew 13).

222. Why did Jesus refrain from doing his mighty works?—Because of their obstinate unbelief.

223. What ought to be the effect of our Lord's miracles on us?—To strengthen our faith. Mark 6 : 6.

224. To what are sheep having no shepherd exposed?—To be "scattered" and destroyed: and we, who are by nature as "sheep going astray," should be deeply thankful to Him who came to seek and to save. Matt. 9 : 36: Isa. 53 : 6.

225. Is the harvest yet all gathered in?—No; the invitation of the gospel is still, "Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely."

Matthew 10 (Mark 6, Luke 9).

226. Compare Matt. 10 : 8 with Acts 20 : 33–35?—The words, "Freely ye have received, freely give," and "It is more blessed to give than to receive," convey the same truth.

227. Who would provide for the destitute disciples?—Christ undertook to provide for them.

228. Why are Sodom and Gomorrah used to point the terrors of the Lord's denunciation?—Because the privileges and opportunities of Sodom and Gomorrah were not so great as those of cities of our Lord's time and of our own.

229. What is the end spoken of in Matt. 10 : 22?—The end of life.

230. Compare Matt. 10 : 36 with Mic. 7 : 6.—The words are almost exactly the same, showing the hostility to true religion in every age.

231. Is taking the cross only the endurance of petty vexations, or does it represent the preliminary of ignominy and death?—It includes every trial, small or great, that God appoints.

232. What is the meaning of finding life in Matt. 10 : 39?—Saving one's earthly life by giving up Christ.

233. What encouragement have we for active love to the Lord's people?—Christ's assurance that the giver of even a cup of cold water to one of his disciples shall not lose his reward.

Mark 6 : 14 (Matthew 14, Luke 9).

234. What was the testimony of Herod's conscience when he heard of our Lord's miracles?—That they were done by John, whom he had beheaded, and who (he believed) had risen from the dead.

235. Who was Herodias?—His brother Philip's wife.

236. Why does Herodias say "by and by"?—Because she knew that John's prison was at some distance.

237. Was John imprisoned at the place where these festivities were held?—No—at Machærus, on the Dead Sea.

238. Ought the disciples to have been so surprised at our Lord's walking on the water?—No; they ought to have remembered his former miracles. Mark 6 : 52.

239. What was the power that enabled Peter to walk on the water?—The power of Christ, that gave him faith and help. Matt. 14 : 28–31.

240. What was Peter's cause of failure?—His faith being weak and giving way. Matt. 14 : 31.

241. Was Jesus ready to save?—Yes, immediately. Matt. 14 : 31.

John 6 : 22.

242. How did our Lord rebuke the insincerity of those who came seeking him?—By telling them that they came for the sake of the loaves he had fed them with.

243. What is the meaning of the "meat which perisheth"?—Worldly comforts and riches.

244. What is the meaning of the word "sealed" in verse 27?—Stamped or approved as his own by the miracles he wrought.

245. Does not verse 28 show how ready we are to bring our works before God?—In verse 28 they asked what they should do.

246. Does not verse 29 show the true simplicity of the way of life?—Yes; it is only to "repent and believe" (Mark 1 : 15), when all good works will follow.

247. What was the nature of the Jews' demand in verse 30 after beholding his mighty miracles?—A dissatisfied and unbelieving one.

248. What bread were the Jews willing to accept?—Bread from heaven.

249. Is there not in Jesus what will completely satisfy the soul?—Yes; he is the bread of life, that satisfies all hunger and thirst. V. 35.

250. What gracious assurance of acceptance have we in coming to Christ?—That he "will in no wise cast out." V. 37.

251. How many times does our Lord repeat the promise of the resurrection in this chapter?—Four times. Vs. 39, 40, 44, 54.

252. How do we know that everlasting life may be our present possession?—From Jesus saying that "he that believeth on" him "hath everlasting life." Vs. 47–51.

253. Do not many now fall into the same mistake as the Jews of old in supposing the Lord's literal body was intended?—Yes; papists and their imitators believe that the consecrated bread they eat is the body of Christ, who is in heaven. The true Protestant feeds daily and hourly upon Christ himself, but only by faith. V. 53.

254. What antidote have we to this error in verse 63?—The lesson that it is the Spirit only that gives life to what is written.

Mark 7 (Matthew 15).

255. Did the traditions of the elders always correspond with the law of God?—No; they made it of no effect. Mark 7 : 7–13.

256. What lesson of the necessity of sincerity in dealing with God do verses 6 and 7 contain?—The warning that he knows the heart, and that all hypocritical worship is "vain."

257. What is the sentence passed upon false teachers in Matt. 15 : 14?—That they and their followers would perish together.

258. Do we really believe that our hearts are the abodes of all these terrible evils?—If we did, we should keep our hearts with more diligence than we do. Mark 7 : 21–23.

259. Were Tyre and Sidon Jewish cities?—No; they were on the sea-coast, to the north-west.

260. Who were meant by the "children" in Mark 7 : 27?—The Jews. Matt. 15 : 24, 26.

261. Is there any limit to the power of faith?—No; it takes hold of the power of God. Mark 7 : 29.

262. Why did Jesus sigh?—He was oppressed with their unbelief. Mark 7 : 34.

263. What does the word "Ephphatha" show us of the dialect in which our Lord usually conversed?—That it was Syriac he spoke. Mark 5 : 41.

Mark 8 (Matthew 15 and 16).

264. Were not the doubts of the disciples wonderful after their experience of the previous miracles?—They were indeed, but we do just the same.

265. May we not learn a lesson from their unbelief?—Yes, to trust God, at all times, to give us whatever is good for us.

266. Compare Matt. 16 : 18, 19; 1 Cor. 3 : 11; Acts 4 : 11, 12; and Eph. 2 : 20.—The true Church is built, not on Peter himself, as the papists suppose, but on the truth contained in what he had said about Christ, even upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other Name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. For other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

267. What remarkable rebuke was addressed to Peter soon after his noble confession?—"Get thee behind me, Satan!"

268. What is the meaning of the word "savorest"?—Likest or mindest.

269. What explanation of Mark 8 : 36 is found in Luke 5 : 25?—What is a man advantaged if he gain the whole world, and lose himself or be cast away.

Mark 9 (Matthew 17, Luke 9).

270. Is there any other testimony to Jesus as the "beloved Son," Mark 9 : 7?—Yes, at his baptism. Matt. 3 : 17.

271. What are we enjoined to do in Mark 9 : 7?—To hear him.

272. Whom did our Lord mean when he said, "Elias is indeed come"?—John the Baptist.

275. Compare Mark 9 : 19 with Num. 14 : 11, 27.—They contain the same complaint of unbelief, notwithstanding "all the signs which" God had "showed among them."

276. Did not the poor father's faith almost fail?—Yes; he doubted Jesus' power. Mark 9 : 22.

277. How did Jesus strengthen it?—By telling him that "all things were possible to him that believeth."

278. Where does Jesus foretell his death and resurrection besides Mark 9 : 31?—In John 2 : 19, 21, when he spoke of raising up the temple of his body in three days.

Matthew 17 : 24 (Mark 9).

279. What was this tribute-money?—"Half a shekel," or about thirty cents, "for the offering of the Lord" or the service of the temple. Ex. 30 : 13; 2 Chron. 24 : 9.

280. What is the meaning of "prevented"?—"Anticipated" what Peter was going to say.

281. What lesson of considerateness does the Lord of all teach us?—Not to give needless offence, especially in little matters.

282. What do we learn from the "piece of money" being the exact amount claimed for Peter and our Lord?—Perhaps that Jesus had miraculously brought the exact coin required into the fish's mouth.

Mark 9 : 33 (Matthew 18, Luke 9).

283. What lesson did our Lord teach in Mark 9 : 35–37?—Humility.

284. What great reward is promised to those who learn this lesson?—All the blessings that follow from receiving Christ and being his.

285. Is not all intolerance discouraged in Mark 9 : 39?—Yes; when we feel assured of any one that he is a true servant of Christ, we should not disown him because he does not agree on all religious subjects with ourselves.

286. Are great deeds done for Christ the only ones accepted by him?—No; even the giving of a cup of water for Christ's sake shall have its reward.

287. What further lesson have we against all persecution?—That any one who willfully injures a young, weak or lowly believer in Jesus is liable to a greater punishment than even loss of life. Mark 9 : 42.

288. How are we to deal with our sins?—To give them up, and every help or temptation to them, at any cost.

289. Are any of them to be tenderly dealt with?—No; all of them firmly, promptly and decidedly.

Matthew 18 : 10.

290. How do we see the care of our Lord over the least of his disciples?—By his appointing angels to watch over them.

291. Are there any exceptions to verse 11?—No; all are lost, and all may be saved.

292. What condition of the sheep led to the exercise of the Shepherd's love?—Their being gone astray.

293. How does our Lord inculcate the duty of mutual forbearance and forgiveness?—By calling upon the injured to strive to gain over the offender by a quiet appeal to him when alone.

294. To whom in another Gospel was the promise in verse 18 given?—To the disciples generally, and not to Peter only. John 20 : 23; Matt. 16 : 19.

295. Is there any limitation to the two blessed promises in verses 19, 20?—Only that what we ask of God must be "according to his will." 1 John 5 : 14.

296. What was the utmost extent of forgiveness that seemed possible to Peter?—Forgiving seven times.

297. Did the estimate of Jesus agree with him?—No; he ordered us to forgive seventy times seven.

298. In the parable, verse 23, what was the amount of the debt, at £187 10 each talent?—Nearly ten million dollars.

299. Does not this show the incalculable claims that God has upon us for breaches of only the first commandment?—It may well do so.

300. Do we not also see the entire freeness of the divine forgiveness?—Yes, as compassion alone forgave the debt.

301. Are we not called upon to imitate the long-suffering of God?—We are indeed; and if we know ourselves forgiven by him, we shall certainly do so.

302. Where do we learn that the merciful God is also a God of judgment?—In the same parable, by his sentence on the ungrateful and unforgiving servant. V. 34.

John 7.

303. What was the "feast of tabernacles"?—In the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the Lord seven days: and ye shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and ye shall rejoice before the Lord your God seven days. Lev. 23 : 39, 40.

304. What hidden motives influenced the relatives of Jesus in their advice to our Lord?—To bring him into danger and expose him if he were a deceiver, and to cause him to proclaim himself as king for their worldly benefit if he were really the Messiah.

Luke 9 : 51.

305. Why is the term "steadfastly" used?—Because Jesus knew all the sufferings that would come upon him.

306. What example of meekness did our Lord show?—By not punishing the Samaritans for their inhospitable conduct.

307. Who are the dead that are to bury their dead?—The dead in sin.

308. Why is it particularly hurtful to look back while ploughing?—Because you may lose the right course.

Luke 10.

309. Do not the directions to the Seventy show the daily and hourly care of the Master?—Yes, for their bodily comfort as well as for their ministerial success.

310. How was Capernaum exalted to heaven?—As a prosperous city, that had enjoyed the privilege of Christ's preaching.

311. What proof have we in verse 16 of the union between Christ and his people?—His saying that the hearing or despising of his ministers was the hearing or despising of himself.

LUKE 17 : 11.

312. Why did the lepers stand "afar off"?—Because they were obliged by law to keep separate from others.

313. Why were they to show themselves to the priests?—First, to know if they were lepers; and afterward, to know if they were healed. Lev. 13 : 2.

314. Was their cleansing previous to or after they had acted in faith?—After they had showed their faith by calling upon Jesus for mercy.

315. Did the ingratitude of the nine hinder their blessing?—It did not make Jesus recall their cure.

JOHN 7 : 11.

316. Why were the people afraid of the Jews?—"Lest they should be put out of the synagogue," or excommunicated, if they confessed themselves followers of Christ. Acts 5 : 13.

317. What remarkable connection is there between obedience and the knowledge of right doctrine?—The man who really desires to do God's will shall understand the truth and meaning of his word. V. 17.

332. What does our Lord mean by being "lifted up"?—Being raised on the cross.

333. How is verse 29 full of blessing?—It shows how completely our blessed Saviour is accepted by God, and what grace and help his people may have through him.

334. How did verse 33 agree with the payment to the Roman emperor?—Not at all, being an idle boast of the Jews.

335. What were the works of Abraham?—The "obedience of faith," which should have led the Jews to believe and obey Christ.

336. Who alone can say, "Who convinceth me of sin"?—Jesus only.

337. What example of grace is there in verse 49?—The gentleness of Jesus' reply to so shameful an accusation.

338. Is death of the body referred to in verse 51?—No—the death or ruin of the soul, "the second or everlasting death."

339. How did Abraham see the "day of Christ"?—By the far-seeing eye of faith, looking at the promises of God.

340. Why did the Jews say "fifty years old"?—Because "his visage was so marred" by privation and suffering that he looked older than he was. Isa. 52 : 14.

341. What does our Lord mean by "I am"?—That he was always in being, from all eternity; as God called himself to Moses, "I AM." Ex. 3 : 14.

342. Why did he not say "I was"?—Because "I am" is a stronger expression of eternal being, and also made him equal with God.

LUKE 10 : 20.

343. Is anything to be reserved in obeying the two great commandments?—No; they require the love of the whole heart.

344. What is the lesson taught by the parable?—How to reduce to practice God's commands, and how far we must always fall short of entire obedience to his will. We shall never do and live; we must believe and live.

345. What is the "one thing needful"?—To come to Christ for salvation of the soul. V. 42.

346. What is the true cause of rejoicing?—That we have found Christ, and have our names written in heaven. V. 20.

347. What was the cause of our Lord's joy?—The bringing of his humble disciples to the saving knowledge of the truth.

LUKE 11.

348. Compare verses 2–4 with Matt. 6 : 9–13?—We may use our Lord's Prayer, or pray in our own words after its manner, placing the concerns of God before our own.

349. How should we use importunity in prayer?—By feeling and speaking earnestly and perseveringly, as those who will not be denied whatever it may be God's will to grant.

JOHN 9.

350. What did our Lord mean by verse 3.—That the blindness gave an opportunity of showing the power of God.

351. What does our Lord mean by day and night?—Life as the time of working for God, and death as the rest from our labor.

352. What is meant by expulsion from the synagogue?—Not allowing attendance at the chief place of religious meeting, and so bringing disgrace and distress, and some social privations besides.

353. What proof of our Lord's divine nature is there in verses 36–38?—His allowing himself to be worshiped as the Son of God.

JOHN 10.

354. What sort of sheepfolds were in use in Palestine?—Uncovered enclosures in the pasture-grounds for the protection of the sheep at night.

355. What is promised to those who enter in by the door?—Those ministers and teachers who are called and qualified by the Holy Spirit may expect a blessing on their work.

356. What was our Lord's solemn object in coming into the world?—To lay down his life in order to give life. Vs. 15, 10.

357. How is the atonement taught in verses 11, 15–18?—By Jesus saying that he laid down his "life for the sheep," or in their stead, that they might live.

JOHN 11.

362. What interesting fact about sickness do we learn in verse 4?—That the sickness of God's people is for his glory.

363. What is taught us about the right use of opportunity in verses 9, 10?—That time and opportunity will soon be at an end.

364. How is death spoken of?—As a sleep in the case of the people of God, as they will awake and arise to a new and spiritual life.

365. What does Thomas mean in verse 16?—That he expected Jesus would be killed by the Jews.

366. How was Jesus himself the resurrection and the life?—Because his people, by their union with him, have a glorious resurrection to eternal life.

367. Who are the dead spoken of in verse 25?—"The dead in Christ." 1 Thess. 4 : 16.

368. Who are the living who shall never die?—Those who "are alive" at "the coming of the Lord." 1 Thess. 4 : 17.

369. What proof of our Lord's true humanity is there in verse 35?—His weeping at the grave.

370. Are not Caiaphas and Balaam examples of unbelieving prophets?—Yes; God merely "put a word in Balaam's mouth," for he "loved the wages of unrighteousness," and he afterward died in battle among the enemies of God. Num. 33 : 5, 16; 2 Pet. 2 : 15.

LUKE 13 : 10.

371. Does not the readiness of the poor woman to glorify God after being healed account for the omission of any mention of her previous faith?—No doubt it does.

372. Who is said to be the author of such affliction?—Satan. V. 16.

373. What constitutes the inability of verse 24?—No want of power or will on the part of God, but a want of will in man from long indulgence in sin—an inability from not casting off all sin or from coming too late.

374. Is there not a limit to the day of grace?—Yes; "now is the accepted time." Every day's continuance in an unconverted state, every day's indulgence in a sinful world, only makes the heart more hard.

375. Who are they that will be rejected?—Those who neglect or refuse to be received and saved.

376. What is the meaning of verse 30?—The Jews, who were the first to receive the light of the truth, give place to the Gentiles, who were the last.

377. What does our Lord mean in verse 33?—That he would be safe for the short time he remained in Galilee.

378. Compare verse 35 with Luke 19 : 38.—The disciples used these words as Jesus afterward entered into Jerusalem. The whole verse (35) may also be a prophecy of the present unbelief and future conversion of the Jews.

LUKE 14.

379. What might be lawfully done on the Sabbath-day?—Works of necessity and mercy.

380. How do we know that this lesson of humility may be applied to ourselves?—By our consciousness of the natural pride of our own hearts. V. 11.

395. What is the lesson to be learned from the parable of the rich man and Lazarus?—To take care, if we are rich, to make a good use of our riches, and, whether rich or poor, to have a treasure in heaven.

396. What responsibility is connected with the possession of the Scriptures?—To "search" them, "receive" them and obey them, as "able to save" our "souls." V. 31.

Luke 17.

397. What measure of faith was required to do the mighty works mentioned in verse 6?—A very small measure, as it takes hold of the omnipotence of God.

398. Does obedience warrant self-exaltation?—No; at the best we can but do our duty, and can never repay God's mercy. Vs. 9, 10.

399. What is the meaning of the kingdom of God being "within" us?—It means God's rule in the hearts of his people, producing "righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost." Rom. 14 : 17.

400. Will there be any remarkable difference in the state of society at the time of the coming judgment?—It will be still the same as in former judgments, though a larger proportion of persons (vs. 34–36) may now be in the number of the saved. Vs. 26, etc.

401. What is the lesson of Lot's wife?—To escape for our lives, and not to look back to the world.

Luke 18.

402. What does the parable of the importunate widow teach?—That we should continue to pray and never faint.

403. Notice the solemn observation at the end of verse 8.—There will be such "a falling away first" that faith in Christ as a Saviour, or the faith that looks for his coming, will scarcely be found.

404. What should we learn from the parable of the Pharisee and the publican?—To be penitently humble, instead of self-righteously proud.

405. What state of the heart is acceptable in God's sight?—The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. Ps. 51 : 17. For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones. Isa. 57 : 15. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit. Ps. 34 : 18.

406. What is the teaching in verse 17?—To humbly accept God's way of salvation by faith, however lowering to human pride.

407. Was not our Lord's question in verse 19 put with the hope of eliciting a confession of his personal Godhead?—Yes, as the ruler does not seem to have looked upon Jesus as more than man.

408. Is the possession of wealth always a blessing?—No; it is always a temptation and snare, often our ruin, and very seldom a blessing. Vs. 22, 23.

409. How do we learn the deep-rooted nature of covetousness?—By our Lord's description of the extreme difficulty of a rich man's entering into the kingdom of God. Vs. 25, 26.

449. Also from the time at which the cry breaks forth, "Behold, the Bridegroom cometh!"?—That our Lord, instead of being faithfully and lovingly looked for, will be generally unexpected when he comes.

450. What is the lesson taught by the parable of the talents?—To impress upon us the duty of using our time and talents and opportunities to God's glory and in remembrance of our final account.

451. Will any people be exempted from the final judgment?—No; all nations will be assembled and judged. V. 32.

452. What oneness of Christ and his disciples is there in verses 35, 40?—His regarding what is done or undone to one of his least disciples as done or undone to himself.

453. How may we judge whether we are serving Christ?—By our feeling and conduct toward his humble disciples. V. 45.

Matthew 26 (Mark 14, Luke 22).

454. Where do we learn that the Jews at first proposed the private assassination of Jesus?—From Matt. 26 : 4.

455. What remarkable act of living faith is recorded in Matt. 26 : 7?—The woman's pouring a box of precious ointment upon Jesus' head in anticipation, by faith, of his burial.

456. Who was this woman?—Mary, the sister of Lazarus. John 12 : 3.

457. What is to be understood by Mary's "doing this for the burial of Jesus"?—It was usual to anoint the dead, and Mary wished perhaps to do now what she might not be able to do after.

458. Did not Judas show his estimate of his Master by the price he demanded for his betrayal?—Yes; it was the compensation-money for a servant killed by an ox. Ex. 21 : 32.

459. What had the disciples to prepare for the Passover?—The lamb, with unleavened bread, bitter herbs, wine, and a sauce made of dates, raisins, and other things, from which Judas received the sop.

460. What lesson of true humility do we learn from Luke 22 : 26–28 and John 13 : 1, etc.?—To be as willing to serve as to rule, and to be ready to render any offices of kindness to our brethren and sisters in Christ.

John 13 (Matthew 26, Mark 14, Luke 22).

461. What all-important declaration does Jesus make in John 13 : 8?—He said to Peter, "If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me."

462. From what must we be washed before we can have part with Jesus?—From all our sins in his own blood.

463. Is not the reality of our complete forgiveness shown in John 13 : 10?—Yes; all past guilt is washed away by a look of living faith, and our robes are clean and white.

464. What is the meaning of leaning on Jesus' bosom?—Being the nearest to him in the order of reclining at the feast.

465. Did John ask Jesus so as to be heard by the rest or in a whisper?—In a whisper.

466. Compare John 13, verses 34 and 35, with verse 1.—And learn to love as Christ did, and to love unto the end.

467. What is the true test of discipleship?—Love one to another. John 13 : 35.

468. Was there not a wide difference between Peter's profession and his practice?—Yes, a sad difference when he denied him in his hour of utmost need; but he repented under his Lord's forgiving look, and long afterward he died a martyr for his sake. John 13 : 38.

Luke 22 : 19 (Matthew 26, Mark 14, 1 Corinthians 11).

469. What is the object of the Lord's Supper?—That we may remember our Lord's death till he come, and that our souls may be strengthened and refreshed as we feed together upon him in loving fellowship and faith.

John 14.

470. What is meant by the Father's house?—Our home in heaven.

471. How must we come to the Father?—By Christ, the only way.

472. How do we know that our Lord was a perfect manifestation of the Father?—By Christ's assertion to Philip that whoever had seen him had seen the Father. Vs. 7, etc.

473. Who will answer our petitions?—Our heavenly Father if we ask in Jesus' name. V. 14.

474. Who was the promised Comforter?—The Holy Ghost. V. 26.

475. Was the Holy Ghost a temporary gift?—No; to abide with us for ever.

476. Why cannot the world receive him?—Because it knows him not, nor Christ, through whom he comes.

477. How can we judge whether we love Christ?—By our prevailing obedience to his commands, by the witness of the Spirit within us that we love Him who first loved us. Vs. 21, 23.

478. What enabled the evangelists to remember the sayings and doings of the Lord?—The teaching of the Holy Ghost. V. 26.

479. Does Christ mean that his disciples shall have peace on earth when he gave them his peace?—No; he told them they should have tribulation without, but peace within. John 16 : 33.

480. Who only could say with truth that he had yielded no allegiance to the prince of this world?—Jesus Christ. V. 30.

481. Who is the prince of this world?—Satan, who rules over the evil spirits of the air and in the hearts of men.

John 15.

482. In what condition only can we bring forth fruit?—By being united to Christ and abiding in him by a living faith. V. 5.

483. What will be the consequence of our not bearing fruit?—Eternal misery in separation from God and Christ, as dead leaves are cast forth and burned. V. 6.

484. What is the token of being Christ's friends?—The doing whatsoever he commands. V. 14.

485. Are we to be surprised by the hatred of the world?—No, for it first hated our Lord, who was perfect goodness and perfect love.

486. Is love of the world compatible with love to our Lord?—No; there can be no true love for a holy Saviour and an unholy world. V. 19.

487. What sin is referred to in verses 22 and 24?—The sin of seeing Christ's miracles and hearing his words, and yet rejecting both God and him.

John 16.

488. Compare verse 2 with Acts 26 : 9–11.—Saul thought when in his unconverted state that he ought to persecute the followers of Christ.

489. What was the "little while" in verse 16?—Jesus was separated a little while from his disciples by his death, and was with them again a little while after his resurrection.

490. What was the proof that satisfied the unbelieving disciples?—Jesus knowing their wish or thought, and telling them plainly that he was going back to his Father. Vs. 19, 30.

491. What is our consolation in trouble?—That Christ has overcome the world, and that in him we may have peace. V. 33.

John 17.

492. What "hour" did Jesus refer to in verse 11?—The time of his death upon the cross.

493. What is "life eternal"?—To truly know God as our reconciled Father in Jesus Christ. Union with Christ is life eternal already begun.

494. Can we at the end of our life use the words of our Lord in verse 4?—No; we all of us fall short of doing the work for God, and so of bringing him the glory that we might.

495. Must we not rather use the words of Isa. 53 : 6?—Yes; we have indeed too much "turned every one to his own way."

496. Who was the son of perdition?—Judas, who was fast falling into ruin and perdition.

497. How do we know that believers of the present day were included in the Lord's petition?—Because they believe through the word of the apostles handed down in the New Testament, and through the preaching and teaching of a succession of Christ's people from that day to this. V. 20.

John 18 : 19 (Matthew 26, Mark 14, Luke 22).

498. Why did the high priest question Jesus as to his disciples?—To know the number and rank of his followers.

499. Does not John 18 : 28 contain an illustration of the parable of the mote and beam?—Yes; the people shrunk from entering a heathen court, as they thought it would defile them, and so unfit them to eat the Passover; and yet they did not shrink from the far greater guilt of causing Jesus' death. Matt. 7 : 5.

500. Does John 18 : 30 show the hollowness of the accusations of the Jews?—Yes, as they did not dare to bring any particular charge against him.

501. How did John 18, verses 31 and 32, show in what manner our Lord would be put to death?—The Jews put to death by stoning, but as they were now under Roman government, Jesus would suffer by the Roman form of crucifixion.

502. To whom did our Lord appear first after his resurrection?—To Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James. Matt. 28 : 1, 5; 27 : 56.

503. To whom was his second appearance?—To Mary Magdalene. John 20 : 11–18.

635. How far was Miletus from Ephesus?—Thirty-six miles.

636. What country is meant by Asia?—A part of Asia Minor or Turkey in Asia, about Ionia and Smyrna, was so called. V. 18.

637. Notice the holy fortitude of verse 14.—So Jesus steadfastly set his face to go up to Jerusalem. Acts 21 : 13.

638. What did Paul mean by being "pure from the blood of all men"?—That as he had faithfully taught the whole truth of God, his hearers had only themselves to blame if they rejected it and were lost. V. 27.

> When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Ezek. 3 : 18.

639. Who appoints the ministry of the Church?—Whatever human means are used, true ministers are made by the Holy Ghost alone. V. 28.

640. Compare verse 33 with 1 Sam. 12 : 3.—In the latter place we read:

> Behold, here I am; witness against me before the Lord, and before his anointed: whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.

ACTS 21.

641. What is the meaning of "took up our carriages"?—Took our baggage or things carried. V. 15.

642. Of what nation were the soldiers who rescued Paul?—They were Romans.

643. What was the nature of the double chain put upon Paul?—Being chained to "two soldiers," as Peter was. Acts 12 : 6.

ACTS 22.

644. What was it that so provoked the Jews?—Paul's speaking of being sent to the Gentiles. Vs. 21, 22.

645. How were the thongs used when not employed for binding prisoners?—In scourging them to extort the truth. V. 24.

ACTS 23.

646. What form of unbelief were Sadducees subject to?—Denying the resurrection.

647. Was the danger from the bigotry of the Jews unimportant?—No; it was thought prudent to give Paul nearly five hundred soldiers as a guard. V. 23.

648. How far was Cæsarea from Jerusalem?—About sixty miles.

ACTS 24.

649. Which address to Felix was the most truthful?—The simpler words of Paul, as Felix's government was "a mean, cruel and profligate" one.

650. Did Paul spare the conscience of Felix?—No; he touched it till he trembled. V. 25.

651. How does the effect of Paul's reasoning upon Felix illustrate Heb. 4 : 12?—It shows that the word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

652. What mercenary motive influenced Felix?—The hope of a bribe from Paul to release him.

653. In what did the two governors agree?—In desiring to please the Jews, and so to keep them at peace. V. 27; Acts 25 : 9.

ACTS 25.

654. To what privilege of Roman citizenship did Paul appeal?—That of having his cause heard by Cæsar.

655. Who was the Cæsar referred to?—The Roman emperor Nero.

656. Who was King Agrippa?—The second Herod Agrippa, and Jewish king or viceroy of the country to the north and east of Galilee.

657. What invaluable modern privilege does verse 27 foreshadow?—The habeas corpus act, which prevents a long imprisonment without trial.

ACTS 26.

658. What great results are to follow the preaching of the gospel?—The turning the Gentiles "from darkness to light." V. 18.

659. What must be added to repentance and turning to God?—Works consistent with it. V. 20.

660. Why did Festus accuse Paul of insanity?—Because he had spoken of a resurrection of the dead.

ACTS 27.

661. Why did the soldiers advise the killing of the prisoners?—Lest, like Peter's keepers, they should be put to death if they escaped. V. 42; Acts 12 : 19.

ACTS 28.

662. What is the meaning of the term "barbarous"?—Strange.

663. To what did the barbarians refer when they said, "Vengeance suffereth him not to live"?—Vengeance is here a sort of proper name of a mythological deity.

664. In what way did the soldier "keep" Paul?—By a chain to himself. Vs. 16, 20.

EVANGELISTS AND DEACONS.

MARK, LUKE, PHILIP, NICHOLAS, TITUS AND TIMOTHEUS.

In their office of laying the foundations of the Church some of the apostles used the pen as well as the tongue; and two of them, MATTHEW and JOHN, undertook the special function of placing on permanent record those facts concerning the life and death and resurrection of Christ of which they were his own chosen witnesses. This would seem to be a distinctive part of the apostolic office; nor is this view at variance with the fact that it was undertaken also by two others who were not apostles. For it may now be received as an established fact that the Gospels of MARK and LUKE were written under the supervision of Peter and Paul. These two writers, therefore, may well claim a place next to the apostles. But, in speaking of them as evangelists, we must distinguish this use of the word from its proper New Testament signification, as describing a class of teachers next in rank to apostles and prophets, the evangelizers of the world. It was at a later age that the writer of a Gospel (εὐαγγέλιον) was called an evangelist (εὐαγγελιστής), not only as a matter of etymology, but the natural process of thought, which is thus stated by Eusebius: "Men do the work of evangelists, leaving their homes to proclaim Christ and deliver the written Gospels to those who were ignorant of the faith." If the Gospel was a written book, and the office of the evangelists was to read or distribute it, then the writers of such books were κατ' ἐξοχήν, THE EVANGELISTS. It is thus, accordingly, that Eusebius speaks of them; and this meaning soon overshadowed the old one. Of the Gospels we shall speak presently, and frequent occasions have occurred to notice points in that personal history of Mark and Luke which we have now to collect into one view.

Mark the Evangelist is probably the same as "JOHN whose surname was MARK." John was the Jewish name, and Mark, a name of frequent use among the Romans, was adopted afterward and gradually superseded the other. The places in the New Testament enable us to trace the process. The John Mark of Acts 12:12, 25 and the John of Acts 13:5, 13 become Mark only in Acts 15:39; Col. 4:10; 2 Tim. 4:11; Phil. 24. The change of John to Mark is analogous to that of Saul to Paul; and we cannot doubt that the disuse of the Jewish name in favor of the other is intentional, and has reference to the putting away of his former life and his entrance upon a new ministry. No inconsistency arises from the accounts of his ministering to two apostles.

John Mark was the son of a certain Mary who dwelt at Jerusalem, and he was therefore probably born in that city. He was the cousin of Barnabas. It was to Mary's house, as to a familiar haunt, that Peter came after his deliverance from prison, and there found "many gathered together praying;" and John Mark was probably converted by Peter from meeting him in his mother's house, for he speaks of "Marcus my son." Mary, the mother of Mark, seems to have been a person of some means and influence, and her house a rallying-point for Christians in those dangerous days. Her son, already an inquirer, would soon become more. Anxious to work for Christ, he went with Paul and Barnabas as their "minister" on their return from Jerusalem and on their first journey. On the second journey Paul would not accept him again as a companion, but Barnabas his kinsman was more indulgent; and thus he became the cause of the memorable "sharp contention" between them. Whatever was the cause of Mark's vacillation, it did not separate him for ever from Paul, for we find him by the side of that apostle in his first imprisonment at Rome. In the former place a journey of Mark to Asia is contemplated. Somewhat later he is with Peter at Babylon. Some consider Babylon to be a name here given to Rome in a mystical sense; surely without reason, since the date of a letter is not the place to look for a figure of speech. Of the causes of this visit to Babylon there is no evidence. It may be conjectured that he made the journey to Asia Minor, and thence went on to join Peter at Babylon. Returning to Proconsular Asia, he seems to have been with Timothy at Ephesus when Paul wrote to him during his second imprisonment, and Paul was anxious for his company and ministry at Rome. The relation of Mark to Peter is of great importance for our view of his Gospel. Ancient writers with one consent make the evangelist the interpreter (ἑρμηνευτής) of the apostle Peter. Some explain this word to mean that the office of Mark was to translate into the Greek tongue the Aramaic discourses of the apostle, while others adopt the more probable view, that Mark wrote a Gospel which conformed more exactly than the others to Peter's preaching, and thus "interpreted" it to the Church at large. The report that Mark was the companion of Peter at Rome is no doubt of great antiquity. Clement of Alexandria is quoted by Eusebius as giving it for "a tradition which he had received of the elders from the first." But the force of this is invalidated by the suspicion that it rests on a misunderstanding of 1 Pet. 5:13, Babylon being wrongly taken for a typical name of Rome. Another tradition is, that Mark, sent on a mission to Egypt by Peter, founded the church of Alexandria, and having preached in various places, then returned to Alexandria, of which church he was bishop, and there suffered a martyr's death. But none of these later details rest on sound authority.

Luke (Λουκᾶς) is an abbreviated form of Lucanus or of Lucilius. It is not to be confounded with Lucius, which belongs to a different person. The name of Luke occurs three times in the New Testament, and doubtless in all three the third evangelist is the person spoken of. To the Colossians he is described as "the beloved physician," probably because he had been known to them in that faculty. Timothy needs no additional mark for identification; to him the words are, "only Luke is with me." To Philemon, Luke sends his salutation in common with other "fellow-laborers" of St. Paul. As there is every reason to believe that the Luke of these passages is the author of the Acts of the Apostles, as well as of the Gospel which bears his name, it is natural to seek in the former book for some traces of that connection with St. Paul which these passages assume to exist; and although the name of St. Luke does not occur in the Acts, we have seen ample reason to believe that under the pronoun "we" several references to the evangelist are to be added to the three places just quoted. He was born at Antioch in Syria, in what condition of life is uncertain. That he was taught the science of medicine does not prove that he was of higher birth than the rest of the disciples. He was not born a Jew, for he is not reckoned among them "of the circumcision" by St. Paul.

The first ray of historical light falls on the evangelist when he joins St. Paul at Troas and shares his journey into Macedonia. The sudden transition to the first person plural in Acts 16:9 is most naturally explained, after all the objections that have been urged, by supposing that Luke, the writer of the Acts, formed one of St. Paul's company from this point. His conversion had taken place before, since he silently assumes his place among the great apostle's followers without any hint that this was his first admission to the knowledge and ministry of Christ. He may have found his way to Troas to preach the gospel, sent possibly by St. Paul himself. As far as Philippi the evangelist journeyed with the apostle. The resumption of the third person on Paul's departure from that place would show that Luke was now left behind. During the rest of St. Paul's second missionary journey we hear of Luke no more. But on the third journey the same indication reminds us that Luke is again of the company, having joined it apparently at Philippi, where he had been left. With the apostle he passed through Miletus, Tyre and Cæsarea to Jerusalem. Between the two visits of Paul to Philippi seven years had elapsed (A. D. 51 to A. D. 58), which the evangelist may have spent in Philippi and its neighborhood, preaching the gospel.

There remains one passage which, if it refers to St. Luke, must belong to this period. "We have sent with him" (i. e. Titus) "the brother whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches." The subscription of the Epistle sets out that it was "written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas;" and it is an old opinion that Luke was the companion of Titus, although he is not named in the body of the Epistle. If this be so, we are to suppose that during the "three months" of Paul's sojourn at Philippi, Luke was sent from that place to Corinth on this errand; and the words "whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches" enable us to form an estimate of his activity during the interval in which he has not been otherwise mentioned. It is needless to add that the praise lay in the activity with which he preached the gospel, and not, as Jerome understands the passage, in his being the author of a written Gospel. The narrative warrants the inference that Luke was with Paul during his two years' imprisonment at Cæsarea; and this is the most probable time for the composition of his Gospel.

He again appears in the company of Paul in the memorable voyage to Rome. He remained at his side during his imprisonment; and, assuming that the Second Epistle to Timothy was written during the second imprisonment, the testimony of that Epistle (4:11) shows that he continued faithful to the apostle to the end of his afflictions.

After the death of St. Paul the acts of his faithful companion are hopelessly obscure to us. It is as perhaps the evangelist wished it to be; we only know him while he stands by the side of his beloved Paul; when the master departs, the history of the follower becomes confusion and fable. As to the age and death of the evangelist, there is the utmost uncertainty. It seems probable that he died in advanced life, but whether he suffered martyrdom or died a natural death, whether Bithynia or Achaia or some other country witnessed his end, it is impossible to determine amid contradictory voices. That he died a martyr between A. D. 75 and A. D. 100 would seem to have the balance of suffrages in its favor. It is enough for us, so far as regards the Gospel of St. Luke, to know that the writer was the tried and constant friend of the apostle Paul, who shared his labors and was not driven from his side by danger.

Next in order to the apostles in the sacred history stand those "seven men of good report" who are commonly called DEACONS; and this class derives special celebrity from the martyrdom of STEPHEN and the evangelizing labors of PHILIP. After what has been said of Stephen in the Lives of the Apostles, it only remains to add some further notices of the latter. He was, like the rest of his colleagues, in all probability a Hellenist. His place in the confidence of the Church is shown by his standing in the list of the seven next to Stephen; and we should expect the man who was thus worthy of being Stephen's companion and fellow-worker to go on with the work which he left unfinished, and to break through the barriers of national Judaism. Accordingly, foremost among those whom the persecution that ensued on the death of the first deacon drove from Jerusalem, we find the second carrying the gospel to the outcasts of Samaria and the proselyte of Ethiopia; and thus Philip became the precursor of St. Paul in his work, as Stephen had been in his teaching. It falls to his lot, rather than to that of an apostle, to take the first step in the victory over Jewish prejudice and in the expansion of the Church according to its Lord's command. For this we may perhaps find a deeper reason than the mere fact that the apostles had not yet left Jerusalem. As the Samaritans had already shown themselves, on our Lord's first visit, more alive to spiritual views of the Messiah than the Jews, so would a Hellenist probably be better prepared than a Jew to satisfy their hopes. From Azotus, where he reappeared after his miraculous separation from the Ethiopian eunuch, he made his way to Cæsarea, preaching in all the cities he passed through; and we may be permitted to conjecture that his ministry at Cæsarea was one of the causes that awakened the holy curiosity of Cornelius.

Whether the seven to whom Philip belonged are rightly or not identified with the order of deacons, these labors of his go far beyond what are described as their special functions, and entitle him, before any other who was not an apostle, to the designation under which he reappears in the Acts, as PHILIP THE EVANGELIST, though still described as "one of the seven." He is still residing at Cæsarea, which he had doubtless made the centre of his labors as an evangelist in preaching the gospel; and his four virgin daughters possess the gift of prophecy. He receives Paul and his company on their way to Jerusalem, and he is visited by prophets and elders from that city. At such a place as Cæsarea the work of such a man must have helped to bridge over the ever-widening gap which threatened to separate the Jewish and Gentile churches. One who had preached Christ to the hated Samaritan, the swarthy African, the despised Philistine, the men of all nations who passed through the seaport of Palestine, was a fit host to welcome the arrival of the apostle of the Gentiles. The house in which he and his daughters had lived was pointed out to travelers in the time of Jerome. He is said to have died bishop of Tralles in Lydia. In other traditions he is more or less confounded with Philip the Apostle.

The remaining deacons are not again mentioned in the New Testament. PROCHORUS is said by tradition to have been consecrated by St. Peter bishop of Nicomedia in Bithynia; NICANOR is placed among the seventy or seventy-two disciples (a mere congeries of New Testament names) by the pseudo-Hippolytus, who adds that he died at the time of the martyrdom of Stephen; TIMON is also made one of the seventy-two and bishop of Bostra, where he suffered martyrdom by fire; and PARMENAS is said to have been martyred at Philippi in the reign of Trajan.

The last of the seven, NICHOLAS, a proselyte of Antioch, has obtained a greater celebrity, but there is no reason except the similarity of name for identifying Nicholas with the sect of Nicolaitanes mentioned in Rev. 2 : 6, 14, 15.

Titus is not mentioned in the Acts, and our materials for his biography must be drawn entirely from the notices of him in the Second Epistle to the Corinthians, the Epistle to the Galatians, and the Epistle to Titus himself, combined with the Second Epistle to Timothy. Taking the passages in the Epistles in the chronological order of the events referred to, we turn first to Gal. 2 : 1, 3. We conceive the journey mentioned here to be identical with that recorded in Acts 15, in which Paul and Barnabas went from Antioch to Jerusalem, to the conference which was to decide the question of the necessity of circumcision to the Gentiles. Here we see Titus in close association with Paul and Barnabas at Antioch. He goes with them to Jerusalem. He is in fact one of the τινες ἄλλοι of Acts 15 : 2 who were deputed to accompany them from Antioch. His circumcision was either not insisted on at Jerusalem or, if demanded, was firmly resisted. He is very emphatically spoken of as a Gentile, by which is most probably meant that both his parents were Gentiles. Here is a double contrast with Timothy, who was circumcised by St. Paul's own directions, and one of whose parents was Jewish. Titus would seem, on the occasion of the council, to have been specially a representative of the Church of the uncircumcision.

It is to our purpose to remark that in the passage cited above Titus is so mentioned as apparently to imply that he had become personally known to the Galatian Christians. This, again, we combine with two other circumstances—namely, that the Epistle to the Galatians and the Second Epistle to the Corinthians were probably written within a few months of each other, and both during the same journey. From the latter of these two Epistles we obtain fuller notices of Titus in connection with St. Paul.

After leaving Galatia, and spending a long time at Ephesus, the apostle proceeded to Macedonia by way of Troas. Here he expected to meet Titus, who had been sent on a mission to Corinth. In this hope he was disappointed, but in Macedonia, Titus joined him. Here we begin to see not only the above-mentioned fact of the mission of this disciple to Corinth, and the strong personal affection which subsisted between him and St. Paul, but also some part of the purport of the mission itself, which has been fully explained in the history. But if we proceed further we discern another part of the mission with which he was entrusted. This had reference to the collection at that time in progress for the poor Christians of Judæa. Thus we are prepared for what the apostle now proceeds to do after his encouraging conversations with Titus regarding the Corinthian church. He sends him back from Macedonia to Corinth, in company with two other trustworthy Christians, Trophimus and Tychicus (or, as some think, Luke), bearing the Second Epistle, and with an earnest request that he would see to the completion of the collection, which he had zealously promoted on his late visit.

All that has preceded is drawn from direct statements in the Epistles, but by indirect though fair inference we can arrive at something further, which gives coherence to the rest, with additional elucidations of the close connection of Titus with St. Paul and the Corinthian church. It has generally been considered doubtful who the brethren were that took the First Epistle to Corinth, but there can be little doubt that the messengers who took that first letter were Titus and his companion, whoever that might be, who is mentioned with him in the second letter.

A considerable interval now elapses before we come upon the next notices of this disciple. St. Paul's first imprisonment is concluded, and his last trial is impending. In the interval between the two he and Titus were together in Crete. We see Titus remaining in the island when St. Paul left it, and receiving there a letter written to him by the apostle. From this letter we gather the following biographical details: In the first place, we learn that he was originally converted through St. Paul's instrumentality. Next we learn the various particulars of the responsible duties which he had to discharge in Crete. He is to complete what St. Paul had been obliged to leave unfinished, and he is to organize the Church throughout the island by appointing presbyters in every city. Instructions are given as to the suitable character of such presbyters, and we learn further that we have here the repetition of instructions previously furnished by word of mouth. Next, he is to control and bridle the restless and mischievous Judaizers, and he is to be peremptory in so doing. Injunctions in the same spirit are reiterated. He is to urge the duties of a decorous and Christian life upon the women, some of whom possibly had something of an official character. He is to be watchful over his own conduct; he is to impress upon the slaves the peculiar duties of their position; he is to check all social and political turbulence and also all wild theological speculations, and to exercise discipline on the heretical. When we consider all these particulars of his duties, we see not only the confidence reposed in him by the apostle, but the need there was of determination and strength of purpose, and therefore the probability that this was his character; and all this is enhanced if we bear in mind his isolated and unsupported position in Crete, and the lawless and immoral character of the Cretans themselves, as testified by their own writers.

Titus is to look for the arrival in Crete of Artemas and Tychicus, and then he is to hasten to join St. Paul at Nicopolis, where the apostle is proposing to pass the winter. Zenas and Apollos are in Crete, or expected there, for Titus is to send them on their journey and supply them with whatever they need for it. It is observable that Titus and Apollos are brought into juxtaposition here, as they were before in the discussion of the mission from Ephesus to Corinth.

We may observe here that there would be great difficulty in inserting the visits to Crete and Nicopolis in any of the journeys recorded in the Acts, to say nothing of the other objections to giving the Epistle any date anterior to the voyage to Rome. On the other hand, there is no difficulty in arranging these circumstances if we suppose St. Paul to have traveled and written after being liberated from Rome, while thus we gain the further advantage of an explanation of what Paley has well called the affinity of this Epistle and the first to Timothy. Whether Titus did join the apostle at Nicopolis we cannot tell. But we naturally connect the mention of this place with what St. Paul wrote at no great interval of time afterward, in the last of the Pastoral Epistles, for Dalmatia lay to the north of Nicopolis, at no great distance. From the form of the whole sentence it seems probable that this disciple had been with St. Paul in Rome during his final imprisonment. Tradition connects Titus with Crete, though here again we cannot be certain of the facts. He is said to have been permanent bishop in the island, and to have died there at an advanced age. The modern capital, Candia, appears to claim the honor of being his burial-place.

Timotheus, or, as his name is expressed in the familiar English abbreviation, TIMOTHY, was born at Lystra in Lycaonia, the son of one of those mixed marriages between a Gentile father and a Jewish mother which, though condemned by stricter Jewish opinion, and placing their offspring on all but the lowest step in the Jewish scale of precedence, were yet not uncommon in the later periods of Jewish history. The knowledge of the Scriptures which Timothy owed to the care of his grandmother Lois and his mother Eunice may have helped to overcome the natural prejudice of his bigoted Jewish neighbors. The fruit of that pious education prepared Timothy to receive, while still a boy, the gospel brought by Paul to his native city; and after gaining honor among the brethren at Lystra, Iconium, and even Antioch, he was chosen by Paul, on his second visit to Lycaonia, to share that fellowship of labor and of love which only ceased with the apostle's death. Their companionship begins with the second missionary journey, when Timothy may be regarded as supplying the void caused by the difference with Barnabas. If Barnabas had been to Paul as the brother and friend of early days, he had now found one whom he could claim as his own true son by a spiritual parentage. That Timothy had now (A. D. 49 or 53) only just reached manhood is evident from St. Paul's addressing him in the First Epistle as still young. Following Paul through Asia Minor into Europe, he came to Philippi, and though his tender youth was spared the sufferings of Paul and Silas, the apostle calls the Philippians to witness how zealously he shared their work: "Ye know the proof of him, that as a son with his father he hath served with me in the gospel." His name does not appear in the account of St. Paul's work at Thessalonica, and it is possible that he remained some time at Philippi, and then acted as the messenger by whom the members of that church sent what they were able to give for the apostle's wants. He appears, however at Berea, and remains there when Paul and Silas are obliged to leave, going on afterward to join his master at Athens. From Athens he is sent back to Thessalonica, as having special gifts for comforting and teaching. He returns from Thessalonica, not to Athens, but to Corinth, and his name appears united with St. Paul's in the opening words of both the letters written from that city to the Thessalonians. Here also he was apparently active as an evangelist, and on him probably, with some exceptions, devolved the duty of baptizing the new converts.

Of the next five years of his life we have no record, and we can infer nothing beyond a continuance of his active service as St. Paul's companion. When we next meet with him it is as being sent on in advance when the apostle was contemplating the long journey which was to include Macedonia, Achaia, Jerusalem and Rome. He was sent to "bring the churches into remembrance of the ways" of the apostle. We trace in the words of the "father" an anxious desire to guard the son from the perils which, to his eager but sensitive temperament, would be most trying. His route would take him through the churches which he had been instrumental in founding, and this would give him scope for exercising the gifts which were afterward to be displayed in a still more responsible office. It is probable, from the passages already referred to, that after accomplishing the special work assigned to him he returned by the same route, and met St. Paul according to a previous arrangement, and was thus with him when the Second Epistle was written to the church of Corinth. He returns with the apostle to that city, and joins in messages of greeting to the disciples whom he had known personally at Corinth, and who had since found their way to Rome. He forms one of the company of friends who go with St. Paul to Philippi, and then sail by themselves, waiting for his arrival by a different ship. Whether he continued his journey to Jerusalem, and what became of him during St. Paul's two years' imprisonment and voyage, are points on which we must remain uncertain. He must have joined Paul, however, apparently soon after his arrival in Rome, and was with him when the Epistles to the Philippians, to the Colossians and to Philemon were written.

From the two Epistles addressed to him, we are able to put together a few notices as to his later life. It follows from 1 Tim. 1 : 3 that he and his master, after the release of the latter from his imprisonment, revisited Proconsular Asia—that the apostle then continued his journey to Macedonia, while the disciple remained at Ephesus. The friendship of fifteen years was drawing to a close, and all memories connected with it throng upon the mind of the old man, now ready to be offered—the blameless youth, the holy household, the solemn ordination, the tears at parting. The last recorded words of the apostle express the earnest hope, repeated yet more earnestly, that he might see him once again. Timotheus is to come before winter, to bring with him the cloak for which in that winter there would be need. We may hazard the conjecture that Timothy reached Paul in time, and that the last hours of the teacher were soothed by the presence of the disciple whom he loved so truly. He continues, according to the old traditions, to act as bishop of Ephesus, and dies a martyr's death under Domitian or Nerva. The great festival of Artemis led him to protest against the license and frenzy which accompanied it. The mob were roused to fury and put him to death with clubs.

BETRAYAL AND CRUCIFIXION OF OUR SAVIOUR.

On the next day, after the arrival at Bethany—which took place on a Saturday, the Jewish Sabbath—Jesus accompanied by a great multitude of people proceeded toward? Jerusalem. And when they came to Bethphage, he sent two of his disciples into a village over against them, to fetch thence? An ass with her colt, which he told them they would find tied there. Satisfying their owners, as they did, with the simple statement that? The Lord had need of them. And when they were brought to him? They put their garments on them, and set him thereon. And many spread? Their garments in the way. And others cut down? Branches of trees and strewed them in the way. And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying? Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest. But it was only when Jesus was glorified that his disciples remembered that? It was so written of him by the prophet. Zech. 9. And when the Pharisees saw the multitudes thronging to meet him, they said among themselves? Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him. And some of them from among the multitude having said to him, Master, rebuke thy disciples, Jesus said to them? I tell you that if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out. And when he beheld the city near at hand, he wept over it, saying? If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes: for the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, and shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation. And when he had entered into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying? Who is this? And the multitude said? This is Jesus, the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee. And having gone into the temple? He healed the blind and the lame who came to him. And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David! they were displeased, and said unto him? Hearest thou what these say? To which Jesus replied? Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise? Ps. 8. And when eventide was come? He went out to Bethany with the twelve, and lodged there. Matt. 21; Mark 11; Luke 19; John 12.

Morning of the second day of the week (Monday), when they were returning from Bethany unto the city? He hungered. And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves? He came to it, if haply he might find anything thereon. But when he came to it? He found nothing but leaves, for the time of figs was not yet. Whereupon he said to it in the hearing of his disciples? Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently? The fig tree withered away. And when they had come unto the city Jesus went into the temple and cast out? Them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves. And would not suffer any man to carry any vessel through the temple, saying unto them, Is it not written? My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer (Isa. 56), but ye have made it a den of thieves. And the scribes and chief priests sought in consequence? How they might destroy him, but could not find how they might do so. For the people generally? Were astonished at his doctrine, and heard him attentively. So long as it was day, therefore, he continued? Teaching in the temple. But at night he went out and abode in? The Mount of Olives. Matt. 21; Mark 11; Luke 19.

Morning of the third day of the week (Tuesday), as they were returning to the city, the disciples called the attention of Jesus to the fig tree which he had cursed the day before, which was now? Dried up from the roots. Whereupon Jesus said to them? Have faith in God; for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith and doubt not, all things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive. And when he had come into the city, and was walking about in the temple, teaching the people and preaching the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders said to him? Tell us by what authority thou doest these things, and who gave thee this authority. To which Jesus replied by the silencing rejoinder? The baptism of John, was it from heaven or of men? Wherefore should this simple question have silenced them? Because they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven, he will say, Why then did ye not believe him? but if we shall say, Of men, the people will stone us, for they are persuaded and hold that John was a prophet indeed. And further reproved them by the parable of the wicked husbandmen, who, when the owner of the vineyard sent servant after servant to receive the fruits thereof? Beat and entreated them shamefully, and sent them away empty; and some of them they even put to death. And who, when he sent his only, his well-beloved son, saying, It may be they will reverence him when they see him, said among themselves when they saw him? This is the heir; come let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours. And took him accordingly, and? Killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. An atrocity which Jesus said the lord of the vineyard would requite when he came, by? Miserably destroying these wicked men, and letting out his vineyard to other husbandmen, who should render him the fruits in their seasons. Therefore I say unto you, continued he? The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. And on being told that certain Greeks who were present at the feast desired to see him, he said? The hour is come that the Son of man should be glorified: now is my soul troubled, and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour; but for this cause came I unto this hour: Father, glorify thy name. Then there came a voice from heaven, saying? I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. Some of the people therefore that stood by and heard, said? That it thundered. Others that? An angel spake to him. But Jesus said? This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes: now is the judgment of this world; now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And among the chief rulers? Many believed on him. But because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest? They should be put out of the synagogue; for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. And on going out of the temple, his attention having been called by his disciples to the magnificence of the structure, and how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said? As for these things which ye behold, the days come in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down. And on his way to Bethany, having sat down on the Mount of Olives fronting the temple, the disciples said to him? When shall these things be, and what shall be the sign of their coming to pass? And Jesus answering said to them? Take heed that ye be not deceived; for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ, and shall deceive many: and when ye hear of wars and rumors of wars, be ye not troubled, for such things must needs be, but the end is not yet: nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there shall be earthquakes, and famines, and pestilences in divers places; these are the beginning of sorrows: but, before all these, ye shall be delivered up to councils, and to synagogues; brought before kings and rulers; imprisoned and beaten; betrayed by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolk, and friends; hated of all men, and some of you put to death, for my Name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. And he said to them further? And after the tribulation of those days the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light; and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: and then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory: watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man: and what I say unto you, I say unto all, Watch; for in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of man cometh. And he thereafter discoursed to them on the dread solemnities of the judgment-day, saying? When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats. And he shall set the sheep? On his right hand. But the goats? On the left. And then he shall say unto them on his right hand? Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. But to those on his left hand he shall say? Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. And these shall go away into? Everlasting punishment. But the righteous? Into life eternal. Matt. 21–25; Mark 11–13; Luke 20, 21; John 12.

The fourth day of the week (Wednesday) Jesus spent at? Bethany. And there, at a supper made for him in the house of Simon the leper, at which Martha served, but at which Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him, Mary having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard, very costly? Anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the odor of the ointment. Whereupon Judas Iscariot said? Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor? This he said, however? Not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein. Then said Jesus? Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this: for the poor ye have always with you; but me ye have not always; and verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this that this woman hath done be told for a memorial of her. Then entered Satan into Judas Iscariot, and he went his way and? Communed with the chief priests and captains how he might betray him unto them. They having previously, along with the scribes and elders of the people, in the course of the day, at an assembly which was held in the palace of Caiaphas the high priest, consulted? How they might take Jesus by subtility, and put him to death. Only not on the feast-day, said they, lest? There be an uproar among the people. Therefore were they glad at the proposal of Judas, and covenanted with him for? Thirty pieces of silver. And thenceforth Judas sought? How he might conveniently betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude. Matt. 26; Mark 14; Luke 22; John 12.

The fifth day of the week (Thursday), being the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when the passover must be killed, Jesus sent forth Peter and John from Bethany, saying? Go ye into the city, and there shall a man meet you bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into whatsoever house he entereth, and say to the goodman of the house, Where is the guest-chamber where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? and he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared; there make ready for us. And the two disciples went forth as he had commanded them, and? Found as he had said unto them, and there they made ready the passover. And in the evening, having himself come into the city, he sat down with? The twelve apostles. And said to them? With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer; for I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said? Take this, and divide it among yourselves; for I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God shall come. And there being a strife amongst his disciples as to which of them should be accounted the greatest, Jesus said unto them? Let him that is greatest among you be as the younger; and him that is chief as he that doth serve. And Jesus knowing that his hour was come, and that his Father had given him all things into his hands, rose and laid aside his garments, and took a towel and girded himself, and began to? Wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. But when he came to Simon Peter, Peter said unto him? Thou shalt never wash my feet. To which Jesus replied? If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Whereupon Peter saith to him? Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. To which Jesus replied? He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit; and ye are clean; but not all. And after he had washed their feet, and resumed his garments, he sat down again, and said to them? Ye call me Master and Lord, and ye say well, for so I am: if I, then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet; for I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. I know whom I have chosen (he continued), but that the scripture may be fulfilled? He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me. Ps. 41:9. And as they sat and did eat, Jesus, troubled in spirit, said unto them plainly? Verily, verily, I say unto you, That one of you which eateth with me shall betray me. And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, one by one? Lord, is it I? And Simon Peter, having beckoned to the disciple whom Jesus loved, and who was leaning on his bosom, to ask him who it should be of whom he spake, Jesus answered? He it is to whom I shall give a sop when I have dipped it: and truly the Son of man goeth, as it is written of him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed; good were it for that man if he had never been born. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to? Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. And Satan having thereupon entered into him, Jesus said unto him? That thou doest, do quickly; and Judas went immediately out, and it was night. And as soon as he had gone out, Jesus said? Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him. And to his disciples generally he said? Little children, whither I go ye cannot come. And to Peter individually? Whither I go thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterward. To which Peter replied? Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake. Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night, for it is written? I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad. And Peter answered and said unto him? Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended: I am ready to go with thee both into prison and to death. But Jesus said? I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow twice before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me. And as they did eat (that is, of the ordinary paschal meal, now about ended, and to which, at this time, the cup formerly mentioned seems to have been merely preliminary), Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave it to them, saying? Take eat; this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. In the same manner also after supper he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying? Drink ye all of it; for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many, for the remission of sins: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. Verily I say unto you, I will no more drink of the fruit of the vine until the day that? I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom. And having delivered to them a lengthened parting address, fraught with the sublimest instruction, and furnishing grounds of consolation in the prospect of their impending bereavement, he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said? Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee: I have glorified thee on the earth; I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do: and now, O Father, glorify me with thine own self, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was. And having given utterance to an intercessory prayer for his followers to the end of time, and having along with his disciples sung a hymn, they went forth at a late hour of the night over? The brook Kedron. And at the base of Mount Olivet entered into? The garden of Gethsemane. And having done so, he said to his disciples? Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder; and pray that ye enter not into temptation. And he taketh with him Peter and James and John—the privileged witnesses of his transfiguration also—and began to be? Sore vexed and very heavy. And said unto them? My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here and watch. And having gone forward from them about a stone's cast, he kneeled down and prayed, saying? Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee: if thou be willing, remove this cup from me; nevertheless not my will, but thine be done. And there appeared unto him? An angel from heaven strengthening him. And being in an agony? He prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was, as it were, great drops of blood, falling down to the ground. And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them? Sleeping for sorrow. And said unto them, to Peter especially? What! could ye not watch with me one hour? watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. And having gone away again a second time, he prayed and spake the same words, saying? Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. And having returned? He found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy. And again he left them, and? Prayed a third time, uttering the same words. And when he returned to his disciples this time, he said to them? Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough; the hour is come—the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners: rise, let us be going; he that betrayeth me is at hand. And Judas being well acquainted with the locality, for? Jesus had oftentimes resorted to it with his disciples. Having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came thither about midnight, accompanied by? A great multitude with swords and staves—from the chief priests and scribes and elders of the people. Jesus, therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth and said unto them? Whom seek ye? And they answered him? Jesus of Nazareth. And Jesus said unto them? I am he. Whereat they went backward and? Fell to the ground. Whereupon Jesus said to them again? Whom seek ye? And when they said, Jesus of Nazareth, as before, Jesus said to them? I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way. And this he said that his own saying might be fulfilled, namely? Those that thou gavest me I have kept, so that none of them is lost but the son of perdition. John 17. Now the traitor had given them a token, saying? Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he, hold him fast. And straightway as soon as he was come he went up to him, and said? Hail, Master; and kissed him. Whereupon Jesus said to him, meekly? Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss? And the rabble who accompanied Judas having come up, as had been preconcerted? Laid hands on him and held him fast. And Simon Peter having a sword, drew it, and? Smote off the right ear of Malchus, the servant of the high priest. But Jesus said, Suffer ye thus far, and? Touched his ear, and healed him. And said unto Peter? Put up thy sword into its place; for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword. Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me? More than twelve legions of angels? but the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it? And to the multitude he said? Are ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves to take me? When I was daily with you in the temple, teaching, ye stretched forth no hands against me; but this is your hour, and the power of darkness. And then all the disciples? Forsook him and fled. Matt. 26; Mark 14; Luke 22; John 6: 13–18; 1 Cor. 9.

Soon after midnight, in the morning of the sixth day of the week, they that had laid hold on Jesus, led him away first to? Annas. And then to? Caiaphas the high priest, Annas's son-in-law. And Peter and another of the disciples followed him afar off, even unto? The palace of the high priest. And one of the maids of the high priest having accosted Peter, and said to him, Thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth, Peter denied before them all, saying? I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And thereupon? The cock crew. And a little while after another saw him, and said to them that stood by? This fellow also was with Jesus of Nazareth. And again Peter denied with an oath, saying? I do not know the man. And about an hour after they that stood by said again to Peter? Surely thou art one of them; for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech betrayeth thee. Then began Peter? To curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak. And immediately, again? The cock crew. And the Lord turned and? Looked upon Peter. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus had said unto him; and when he thought thereon? He went out and wept bitterly.

The high priest, in the mean time, had asked Jesus of his disciples and of his doctrine, to which Jesus had answered? I spake openly to the world: I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing: why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them; behold, they know what I said. And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by? Struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? To which Jesus replied? If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why smitest thou me? And as soon as it was day? The elders of the people, and the chief priests, and the scribes, came together, and led him into their council. And there they sought? False witness against Jesus, to put him to death. But although many false witnesses came? Their witness agreed not together. But at last came two false witnesses, witnessing against him, saying? This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God—I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands: but neither so did their witness agree together. The high priest then stood up in the midst and said to Jesus? Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? But Jesus? Held his peace, and answered nothing. And the high priest said to him further? I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of the Blessed. To which Jesus answered? I am; and hereafter ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Whereupon the high priest rent his clothes and said? What further need have we of witnesses? now ye have heard his blasphemy; what think ye? And they all said? He is guilty of death. To what indignities was Jesus thereupon subjected? They spat on him, and buffeted him, and blindfolded him, and struck him on the face, saying, Prophesy unto us, thou Christ, who it is that smote thee; and many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

Pilate declares Christ to be Faultless.

And early in the morning, the Sanhedrim having taken counsel against him to put him to death, they bound him, and led him away, and delivered him to? Pontius Pilate the governor. Pontius Pilate, under whose rule our Lord worked, suffered and died—who, like the other Roman governors of Judæa, had his ordinary residence at Cæsarea, but during the great festivals at Jerusalem—was the sixth governor in succession from the deposition of Archelaus, and held the office of procurator of Judæa from A. D. 26 till A. D. 36. He was a man of a time-serving disposition, willing rather to perpetrate any iniquity than to be charged with the imputation, Thou art not Cæsar's friend. His government was oppressive and unpopular; and having been accused by the Samaritans of great cruelty toward them, he was sent to Rome to answer for his conduct by Vitellius, the prefect of Syria, father of the future emperor of that name. Of his after life, and of the scene and manner of his death, we have no certain information. But they themselves went not into the judgment-hall, lest? They should be (legally) defiled, and (oh monstrous perversion!) so incapacitated from eating the Passover. And when Pilate went out and said to them, What accusation bring ye against this man, they answered? If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him unto thee. And when Pilate said unto them, Take ye him and judge him according to your law, they answered? It is not lawful for us to put any man to death. And then they began more specially to accuse him, saying? We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, saying that he himself is Christ a king. And Pilate having entered into the judgment-hall again, called Jesus and said unto him? Art thou the king of the Jews? To which Jesus answered? Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me? To which Pilate replied? Am I a Jew? thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me—what hast thou done? And Jesus answered? My kingdom is not of this world: if it were so, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now is my kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto him? Art thou a king then? To which Jesus answered? Thou sayest that I am a king: to this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth: every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. Whereupon Pilate saith unto him? What is truth? And when he had said this he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them? I find in him no fault at all. And when the chief priests and elders continued to accuse him of many things, he answered? Nothing. And when Pilate said to him, Hearest thou not how many things these witness against thee, he still? Answered him to never a word. Insomuch that the governor? Marveled greatly. And again said to the chief priests and to the people? I find no fault in this man. At which they were the more fierce, saying? He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

And when Pilate heard of Galilee, and had ascertained that he belonged to Herod's jurisdiction? He sent him to Herod (Antipas), who happened to be in Jerusalem at the time. And when Herod saw Jesus? He was exceeding glad, for he had long been desirous to see him, and hoped to see some miracle done by him. But though Jesus was questioned by him in many words? He answered him nothing. And the chief priests and scribes having vehemently accused him, Herod with his men of war? Set him at naught, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him back again to Pilate. And the same day Pilate and Herod, who had been at enmity before? Were made friends together. And Pilate having assembled the chief priests and the rulers and the people, said unto them? Ye have brought this man unto me as one that perverteth the people; but I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in him; no, nor yet Herod: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go. But ye have a custom, continued he, that at the Passover I should release unto you? Whatsoever single prisoner ye may desire. Now they had at that time a notable prisoner, a robber, called? Barabbas. Who was in prison for? Insurrection and murder. And when the mulitude were clamorous for compliance with their privilege, Pilate said to them? Will ye that I release unto you the king of the Jews? for he knew that for envy they had delivered him. And while Pilate was sitting on the judgment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying? Have thou nothing to do with that just man; for I have suffered many things this day in a dream, because of him. And when the multitude cried out, all at once, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas, Pilate said to them? What shall I do then with Jesus, who is called Christ, whom ye call the king of the Jews. Whereupon they all cried out, saying? Crucify him! crucify him! And when Pilate said to them, Why, what evil hath he done? They were instant with loud voices requiring that he might be crucified. And when Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made? He took water and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it. To which all the people answered and said? His blood be on us, and on our children. And so Pilate, willing to content the people? Released unto them Barabbas, whom they desired, but scourged Jesus, and delivered him to their will.

And the soldiers of the governor led him away into the hall called? Prætorium. And there? They stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe; and plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head; and put a reed in his right hand; and bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! and spat upon him, and took from him the reed, and smote him with it on the head. Pilate, therefore, went forth again and said to them? Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him. And when Jesus came forth wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe, Pilate saith unto them? BEHOLD THE MAN! But the chief priests and officers cried out, as the multitude had done before? Crucify him! crucify him! And Pilate said to them? Take ye him, and crucify him; for I find no fault in him. Then said they unto Pilate, We have a law, and by that law he ought to die, because? He made himself the Son of God. When Pilate, therefore, heard that saying? He was the more afraid. And went again into the judgment-hall, and said to Jesus? Whence art thou? But Jesus? Gave him no answer. And Pilate saying to him, Speakest thou not to me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and that I have power to release thee?—Jesus answered? Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin. And thenceforth Pilate sought to release him; but they cried out, saying? If thou let this man go thou art not Cæsar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæsar. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment-seat, in a place called? The Pavement; but in the Hebrew language, Gabbatha, and saith unto the Jews, Behold your king! But they cried out? Away with him! away with him! crucify him! And Pilate said unto them? Shall I crucify your king? To which the chief priests answered? We have no king but Cæsar. And Pilate on hearing this? Delivered Jesus unto them to be crucified.

And when Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that he was condemned? He repented, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, saying, I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. To which they made the heartless reply? What is that to us? see thou to that. Whereupon Judas? Cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself. And the chief priests, having taken the pieces of silver, said? It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood. And they took counsel, and bought with them? The potter's field, to bury strangers in. Wherefore that field was, and is still, called? Aceldama (Acts 1); that is, the field of blood. And when they had mocked Jesus? They stripped him of his purple robe, and put his own raiment on him, and led him out to crucify him. And as Jesus came out bearing his cross? They laid hold on one Simon, a Cyrenian, who, coming from the country, was passing by at the time; and on him they laid the cross, and compelled him to bear it after Jesus. And there followed him? A great company of people and of women, who also bewailed and lamented him. But Jesus turning unto them said? Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children: for if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry? And two malefactors—thieves? Were brought forth to be put to death along with him. And when they came to a place called Calvary or Golgotha, that is? The place of a skull. They presented to him? Vinegar mingled with gall; which when he had tasted, however, he would not drink. And there, at the third hour? They crucified Jesus. And the two thieves along with him—on? Either side one, and Jesus in the midst. What prayer did Christ, in his agony, utter in behalf of his murderers? He said, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And the soldiers, when they had crucified him, parted? His outer garments among them. But as to his coat (his inner vesture), which was without seam and woven throughout, they said among themselves? Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it whose it shall be. That the scripture might be fulfilled which saith? They parted my garments among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. And Pilate wrote as a title, and put on the cross, over his head, in Hebrew, Greek and Latin, his accusation, namely? This is Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews. And the chief priests objected, saying? Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. But Pilate answered? What I have written, I have written. And as he hung upon the cross, they that passed by? Reviled him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself: if thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests, mocking, with the scribes and elders, said? He saved others, himself he cannot save; if he be the Christ, the king of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him: he trusted in God; let him deliver him now if he will have him; for he said, I am the Son of God. And one of the malefactors, too, who were crucified with him, railed on him, saying? If thou be Christ, save thyself and us. But the other answering rebuked him, saying? Dost thou not fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? and we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this man hath done nothing amiss. And to Jesus himself he said? Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. To which Jesus replied? Verily I say unto thee, To-day thou shalt be with me in paradise. Now there stood by the cross of Jesus? His mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing by, he said unto his mother? Woman, behold thy son! And to the disciple he said? Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple? Took her unto his own home.

Now there was darkness over all the land from? The sixth until the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani! that is to say? My God! my God! why hast thou forsaken me? And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said? Behold, he calleth for Elias. And Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, saith? I thirst. And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and? Filled it with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, on a reed, and gave it to him to drink. Saying at the same time? Let us see whether Elias will come to take him down, and save him. And when Jesus had received the vinegar, he said? It is finished. And cried with a loud voice, saying? Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit. And having thus said? He bowed his head, and gave up the ghost. THE RESURRECTION AND ASCENSION OF CHRIST.

Sunday, the 17th of Nisan (April 8th), the first Lord's Day—"EASTER DAY."

As the resurrection of Christ is the great fact, so the day of its occurrence is the great day of Christianity. From the time of the apostles its weekly return has been called by the name of the LORD'S DAY; and to this epoch of the new creation of all things, marked by the new life of Christ, all the permanent sanctity of the primeval Sabbath was transferred.

The Resurrection itself is related only by St. Matthew: "Behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: and for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men."

The time of the resurrection is stated by St. Mark as "early on the first day of the week," which began from the sunset of the evening before. It had already taken place when the first visit was paid to the sepulchre, "while it was yet dark," "as it began to dawn." The portion, however brief, of this day (according to Jewish reckoning) that Jesus remained in the tomb is reckoned as one day, like the brief interval between his burial and the Friday's sunset, and thus he remained three days in the earth.

Visit of the Women to the Sepulchre.—The Jewish custom of resuming the occupations of common life the moment the Sabbath's sun had set had enabled the two Marys to purchase on that evening the spices needed to complete the embalmment which Nicodemus had hastily performed. At the approach of dawn they came to the sepulchre with certain other women, among whom was Joanna, to perform this pious service, wondering, as they went along, how they could roll away the great stone from its mouth. They reached the sepulchre at sunrise and found the stone removed, and entering they saw that the body of Jesus was gone,

Mary Magdalene carries the news to Peter and John.—The ardent love of Mary Magdalene prompted her at once to run and tell Peter and John of the trick that she supposed had been played by the enemies of Christ in removing his body beyond the reach of his disciples.

Vision of an Angel to the Women in the Sepulchre.—Meanwhile, the other women had entered the recesses of the rock-hewn sepulchre, and there they saw an angel sitting on the right side, in the form of a young man in a long white robe, who told them that Christ had risen and would meet his disciples in Galilee, with other words of comfort and encouragement. Fear at the vision and joy at the tidings joined to hasten the flight of the women from the sepulchre, that they might carry the news to the disciples.

First Appearance of Jesus—to the Women on their Return from the Sepulchre.—Their hasty course was stayed by the appearance and greeting of Jesus himself. They fell down to worship him, and received from his own lips the same message that the angel had given them. The apostles and other disciples received the intelligence "as idle tales," not being yet ready to believe the truth.

Visit of Peter and John to the Sepulchre.—Luke speaks of the eleven (a common formula for the body of the apostles at this period) as receiving these tidings from the women, and that so as to imply that they had reassembled from their flight, and were waiting to see what would happen on this day. But it is evident from John that both Peter and John himself were away from the rest, probably at the latter's house, where John would naturally remain to comfort his new-found mother, and where his friend, disgraced in the eyes of the other disciples, would find a refuge for his remorse. To them Mary had brought word that the sepulchre was empty, and while the other women were giving their fuller tidings to the rest of the apostles, Peter and John ran to the sepulchre to see for themselves. We trace something of the peculiar character of each in the beautifully simple narrative of John. The ardent affection of "the disciple whom Jesus loved" carried him first to the sepulchre: he looked in and saw the grave-clothes, but hesitated to enter; while Peter, coming up, at once went in and saw the linen clothes lying as they had been left, and the napkin that had been about the head of Jesus folded together by itself. John then entered and saw the same spectacle, and while Peter only wondered, John believed, for, as he himself takes care to tell us, the disciples had not yet understood the prophecy of His resurrection.

Second Appearance of Jesus—to Mary Magdalene at the Sepulchre.—While Peter and John returned home, Mary, who had followed them back to the sepulchre, stood by its entrance, as the words just quoted have described. Looking into the sepulchre as she wept, she saw two angels sitting at the head and the feet where the body of Jesus had lain. To their inquiry why she wept, she answered, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him;" and she was turning away to leave the sepulchre in despair when she saw Jesus standing before her, though she knew him not, even when he asked her why she wept. Taking him for the keeper of the garden, she earnestly entreated him to tell her whither he had removed the body. The one word, "Mary," from the lips of Jesus recalled her to herself, and turning so as to have a full view of him for the first time, she replied, "Rabboni!"—that is, "Master!"—and would have embraced him. But, with the mysterious injunction, "Touch me not, for I am not yet ascended to my Father," he sent her to forewarn his brethren of his ascension. But even at this second testimony the disciples remained incredulous.

Third Appearance of Jesus—to St. Peter.*—St. Paul states, immediately after the fact of our Lord's resurrection, "that he was seen of Cephas" before he appeared to the other apostles. This appearance is also mentioned incidentally, but very emphatically, by St. Luke, in connection with the journey to Emmaus.

Our Lord's Fourth Appearance—The Journey to Emmaus.*—This is briefly mentioned by St. Mark, but the deeply interesting narrative of St. Luke gives us a view of the disciples' state of mind on this memorable day. Two of them, Cleopas and another, left the city after the visits paid to the sepulchre by the women and by Peter and John, and walked to Emmaus, a village about seven miles from Jerusalem. Their only object seems to have been to talk freely with each other respecting the bearing of the recent events on the question of the Messiahship of Jesus; and the doubtful result of their discussions is expressed in the exclamation, "But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel!" As they were thus engaged, Jesus himself joined them, but a spell was upon their eyes, so that they did not know him. Every reader of the Gospel is familiar with what followed—the statement of their anxious reasonings; his rebuke of their ignorance and unbelief, and his exposition of the scripture which foretold his sufferings and glory; their pressing him to stay with them at the village; and his being made known to them by blessing and breaking the bread at their evening meal. They hastened back to Jerusalem, and found the apostles assembled with other disciples at their evening meal, in a strangely mingled state of doubt and wonder; for, while some met them with the news, "The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon," their own full account of his converse with them was still received with unbelief.

Our Lord's Fifth Appearance—to the assembled Apostles except Thomas.*—It was at this very crisis of their perplexity that Jesus crowned his separate appearances by a manifestation of himself to the apostles and those disciples who were with them. His sudden appearance in their midst, the doors of the room being shut fast for fear of the Jews, alarmed them with the idea that they saw a spirit, though he greeted them with the words, "Peace be unto you!" But he called them to feel his body, and showed them the wounds in his hands and feet and side. As they still doubted, he ate food before them, and then he opened their minds to see the fulfillment of all that had been spoken of him in the law, the prophets and the psalms, and to know their own mission as the witnesses of his resurrection and the preachers of repentance and remission of sins in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. Then by the sign of breathing on them he indicated the conferring of that gift of the Holy Spirit which was actually to descend upon them after his ascension, and for which he bade them to wait at Jerusalem; and he gave them the authority of remitting and retaining sins. This "great commission" was repeated afterward, but Mark, who mentions only three of our Lord's appearances, and this as the last, refers to this occasion also the promise of the power of working miracles. Such was our Lord's last appearance to his disciples on the day of his resurrection.

Sunday, the 24th of Nisan, April 16th.

Christ's Second Appearance—to the assembled Disciples with Thomas—the Sixth in all.*—Facts are sometimes of themselves strong arguments, and such is our finding the disciples again assembled on the first day of the following week, and our Lord again appearing in the midst of them. Their mere meeting may have been continued from day to day, but our Saviour's blessing this meeting with his presence goes far to mark the Lord's Day as sacred. It was then that the incredulous Thomas was taught by the evidence of his own senses not only to share his brethren's faith, but to go beyond them by recognizing in the Lord's resurrection a proof of his divinity. But Jesus did not grant the proof that Thomas required without pronouncing a higher blessing upon those who are content to believe on the testimony of others.

Third Appearance of Jesus—to the Apostles (seven of them) by the Lake of Galilee—the Seventh in all.*—The evangelists now cease to specify days. St. Matthew tells us that the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, as they had been commanded when first the resurrection was announced to them, but their meeting with Jesus in the mountain he had appointed them must have been subsequent to that morning by the Lake of Galilee of which St. John has given us so full and touching an account. Seven of the apostles—Peter, Thomas, Nathanael, the sons of Zebedee, and two others who are not named—had returned to their avocations as fishermen, when Jesus revealed himself to them in a manner strikingly similar to that of their former calling by the sign of a miraculous draught of fishes. The one striking difference, that now the net did not break, showed the coming of the time when they were to be indeed "fishers of men." It was then that our Lord drew from Peter the avowal of his love, repeated thrice as the revocation of his threefold denial, and restored him to his place among the disciples by the special commission, also thrice repeated, "Feed my sheep!" adding the prediction of his martyrdom, but rebuking his affectionate curiosity concerning the fate of John.

The Eighth Appearance of Jesus—to the great body of his Disciples in Galilee.*—St. Matthew continues the statement just quoted by saying that the eleven disciples went out to a mountain in Galilee, where Jesus had appointed them, and when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted. Though Matthew mentions only the eleven, he can scarcely mean the last statement to apply to them after the removal of the last remains of their incredulity in the case of Thomas. It is evident, from comparing the Gospels, that in several statements which refer to the body of the disciples the eleven are particularly named, because they were specially the appointed witnesses of Christ's resurrection. All that we see of their life during this interval confirms the view that the apostles were in no way separated from the other disciples. At the beginning of the last chapter of Matthew the message, first of the angel and then of Christ himself, is to "the disciples" and "his brethren," not to the apostles only; and the evangelist clearly records this meeting in Galilee as the fulfillment of that message. There is, therefore, no difficulty in identifying this interview with the appearance of Jesus to "above five hundred brethren at once" mentioned by St. Paul, who appeals to the fact that some of them were still living when he wrote. This number agrees well with that assigned by St. Luke to the church at Jerusalem, for as these were one hundred and twenty, and as the greater number of our Lord's converts were made in Galilee, five hundred and upward is a reasonable number for those of Galilee, with the apostles and such others as were able to accompany them from Judæa.

This, then, was the great interview of Jesus with his disciples of which he had spoken even before his death, and to which they were summoned from the moment of his resurrection. Its scene was Galilee, where Jesus had commenced his course of public teaching and where his life had been chiefly spent; and as he had opened his public ministry on a mountain by the discourse which set forth the conditions of discipleship, so he closed it on a mountain by the commission which he based upon his own unlimited authority: "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you alway unto the end of the world."

Christ's Ninth Appearance—to James (the Less).* Immediately after mentioning this interview St. Paul adds the words "after that he was seen of James," a special notice which agrees well with the importance assigned to James, as being, like Peter and John, one of the "pillars" of the Church. This appearance may be referred to Jerusalem, with the more probability as James was not one among the apostles at the Lake of Galilee. Nor does it seem unlikely that it was one of several appearances to individual disciples omitted by the evangelists, who have recorded only those needful to establish the great facts of Christ's resurrection and of his commission to the apostles.

Our Lord's Last Interview with the Apostles, and his Ascension—his Tenth Appearance.*—The last scene of all was reserved for the eyes of the apostles only, as the specially-appointed witnesses of Christ's resurrection and ascension. St. Peter lays stress upon the fact that when God had raised Jesus from the dead, "he showed him, openly, not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead." The superiority of such testimony to any which could have been furnished by a more public display of the risen Saviour to all the people has been ably demonstrated by Bishop Horsley. Neither Matthew nor John relates our Saviour's ascension, though the latter gives in the Apocalypse a glowing description of his state of glory. Mark simply says that "he was received up into heaven and sat on the right hand of God." St. Luke describes the whole scene, briefly in his Gospel and fully in the Acts of the Apostles.

The whole time during which Jesus "showed himself after his passion by many infallible proofs" was forty days, a period which has evidently some mystical signification, being the same as the time spent by Moses and by Elijah in Mount Horeb, and by Christ himself in the wilderness of temptation, and corresponding to the number of years that the people had wandered in the desert. As they passed an appointed interval of trial between their baptism to Moses in the Red Sea and their entrance on the promised land, so our Lord himself was subjected to a forty days' trial of his faith and patience between his baptism and his showing to Israel; and again, after his final baptism of suffering a like interval was interposed before he entered into glory, to try the faith of his disciples and to work in them full conviction of the great truth they had to preach. In what secret retirement he took up his abode during these forty days we are not told: all that concerns us is the time he spent with his disciples, "speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God."

At last, on the fortieth day the disciples were assembled with Jesus at Jerusalem, it would seem by a special appointment, and he commanded them not to depart thence till they received the promise of the Father, the baptism with the Holy Ghost. After rebuking their desire to know whether the time was come for him to restore the kingdom to Israel, he promised them power, by that baptism of the Spirit, for the work they had to do for his name in Jerusalem, Judæa and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.

Either during or after this conversation he led them out—over the very ground he had traversed with them six weeks before, when he entered the city to suffer—as far as Bethany, on the farther slope of the Mount of Olives, and so out of view of the city; and there with uplifted hands he gave them his parting blessing; a cloud interposed between him and them, like the chariot and horses of fire that separated Elijah from Elisha; and, upborne on this aërial car, he was wafted from their sight through the vault of heaven. This was all they saw, but the inspired Psalmist had long before described the unseen glories of Christ's ascension. What those spiritual gifts were, and how they were soon distributed to the Church, is explained by the apostle Paul.

Meanwhile, the disciples scarcely recollected that this was but what he had himself foretold: "What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?" They stood gazing up after him as if he had been lost for ever, till they were awakened from their stupor by the appearance of two angels standing by them, and declaring that this same Jesus, who was taken from them into heaven, should so come in like manner as they had seen him go into heaven—words which exclude any other than the final advent of our Lord, and teach us that he shall then be seen descending from the riven sky as plainly and as unexpectedly as he passed into it from their eyes. With this agrees his own warning of "the sign of the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory," and the words of the final Scripture prophecy, "Behold, he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him."

Having worshiped their glorified Lord, they returned from the Mount of Olives to Jerusalem with great joy, and, while expecting the promised gift of the Holy Spirit, they spent their time continually in the temple, praising and blessing God.

We cannot more fitly conclude this narrative of our Saviour's life on earth—in which we have aimed to bring into one view the records of the four evangelists with as much brevity as was consistent with the omission of no important fact—than by calling attention to the two points insisted on by St. John: first, that we have only a small part of our Lord's sayings and doings in the presence of his disciples, for the world itself could hardly have contained the record of the whole; but, finally, that all we do possess has been written with this one sole object, "That we might believe that JESUS IS THE CHRIST, THE SON OF GOD, and that, believing, we might have LIFE THROUGH HIS NAME."

CONCORDANCE TO THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS.

TO THE READER.—1. This Concordance doth not pretend to comprehend any more than any other larger ones, but to contain the principal substance of them all in little room. 2. By observing one more principal words of any remembered text, and what are the first three letters of them, and searching under answerable words in the Concordance, the sentence will be found. 3. The original rds, whether nouns or verbs, are marked in CAPITAL letters, and those derived from them come after in Italics. 4. Where words are found in many places, the plural is distinguished from the gular; and the parts of verbs ending in—ed,—est,—eth, from their original. But when the examples are few, no such distinction is made, but may be easily observed. 5. The concordant words, ept the first, are marked by the first letter a, b, c. &c.; and the mark — stands for several words marked in Italics: divine persons are noted by answerable capitals. 6. Even other words, especially as of divine persons, are often marked by one or more of their first letters, that the sense of the line might be more complete.
